On March 28, the National Bank of Mexico (BANAMEX) reported that in the first nine months of 1990, the agricultural import spending exceeded agro-export revenues by $978.996 million, up 70% over the same period in 1989. Agro- exports accounted for 13% of total export income in the January-September period last year, representing no change compared to the first nine months of 1989.
