THIRTIETH YEAR

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1922.

NUMBER 49.

Some Reasons Why the Farmer Should Keep Thanksgiving

Just now, apart from our knowledge of food secure, perhaps some of us feel it necessary to fall back upon the private reasons for thankfulness. Each one has some bit of personal well-being that can be brought out and rubbed up and admired just to keep our home circle happy this Thanksgiving day. Each one knows their own cause for content, even where it is so commonplace as not to be distinctly visible to others. Especially this year we mustn't lose sight of the personal bright spots on account of their every-day character.

A person was once visiting a friend whose home commanded a beautiful stretch of mountain scenery. It was, in fact, a magnificent view. "What a wonderful outlook you have here," he remarked to his host. "I am sure if I lived here I should spend most of my time viewing the landscape." "Why, I never thought of it that way," his host replied. "I never considered it anything remarkable. I have simply taken it as a matter of course."

Thousands of people who live in the country enjoy a treasure which is denied to millions of their fellowmen—the blessing of good, pure, out-of-door air, fragrant in spring and summer with perfume of flowers or new-mown hay, and in fall and winter laden with crisp, life-giving ozone.

No one enjoys more blessings and treasures of this kind than the man or woman on the farm. He or she, if inclined to be of a complaining nature, is apt to find fault that life on the farm is so hard and composed so largely of drudgery. Furthermore, "far away fields are always green," and the one on the farm imagines that in the city all must be ease and contentment. These imaginings, however, will not stand the test of personal acquaintance with the life that is lived in the cities by hundreds of thousands of people. Farm work is hard, but there are no easy births in life.

The average person on the farm lives better, enjoys better air to breathe, better water to drink, better food to eat, better conditions under which to work, better health than the man or woman in corresponding circumstances in the city.

DIED AT MALAGA

Tom L. Henderson died at his home near Malaga, Thursday morning and the remains were interred in Carlshad Cemetery, this afternoon, by the side of those of his father, who died something over a year ago. Mr. Henderson had been ill for about a year, although his last illness only covered a period of a few days. He is survived by his mother, two sisters, one of whom is a teacher in the El Paso schools, and the other a trained nurse, and one brother.

We were unable to learn any particulars as to his age, birthplace, etc. but will have same in next week's paper. Rev. T. C. Mahan, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Purdy, and Mrs. Hatfield attended the funeral. Many friends of the family extend sincere sympathies to the family and especially the aged mother in their sorrow.

This week is Red Cross Roll Call and the ladies of the city have maintained booths in the postoffice and hotels for persons who wish to renew their memberships, in addition to canvassing the town. The response has been liberal and the outlook is good for an equal amount with that of last year.

Mrs. Cherbino is in the city for a few days stopping with the family of J. D. Boyd, preparatory to leaving for the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rice, in Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Cherbino formerly lived here and her husband found a resting place in City Cemetery. She has a host of friends among the old timers who would be glad of a long visit from her. She spent the past two years with relatives in Texas.

Word has reached Carlshad, of the marriage of Miss Jennie Mae Wheeler, niece of Mrs. Roman Ohnhus and Ben Wheeler, of Carlshad. The young lady came here about three years ago, her parents having both died from the influenza epidemic, and Miss Jennie and her sister and brother coming here to Carlshad to live in the family of their aunt. Early last spring she went to the Ben Aker home on the Plains to make her home with them. There she met Bernard C. Hilgerson, and after a brief courtship they were married at Roswell, last Saturday. It was at first thought they would visit their relatives in Carlshad, but they evidently changed their plans, and left at once for Elk City, Okla., where they will make their home. May much joy be their lot in life.

Miss Charlece Rosson, of Lovins, arrived at her home Monday evening and will visit with home folk until after the holidays. Miss Rosson has been living with an aunt in Springfield, Tennessee.

MAN KILLED

A man by the name of Warren, working on the highway between here and Lovington, was killed about noon today by the car in which he was riding, overturning. No particulars have been received other than the above and nothing more can be learned until the men arrive with the body, they being on the way at this time.

Paul Mahan, manager of the local Piggly Wiggly store, is in receipt of a letter from the Skinner Manufacturing Company, announcing a prize of $10.00 which was awarded to that store for selling the eighth largest amount of goods of their manufacture in the time elapsing between July 1st, and October 1st. A contest was put on by that firm for that time, offering several cash prizes, and we congratulate Mr. Mahan on his standing in that respect. The Piggly Wiggly at Roswell took fourth prize and received $45.00, which goes to show that Pecos Valley salesmen can be depended upon in every instance.

A party, honoring the Pecos visitors who came to play tennis last Friday was given at Hardgrove, the lovely suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hardy, Jr., south of town last Saturday night. The affair was attended by over fifty young folk, and was most delightful in all its appointments. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy ever alive to the pleasures of the young people, turned the house over for their enjoyment. Games were played, and late in the evening the rooms were cleared for dancing. Mrs. Hardy, Miss Emily, her daughter, and Miss Elizabeth Abritton, taking turns at the piano. Refreshments were served and all went to their respective homes a tired but happy bunch.

MRS. GRAGG ENTERTAINS

At the Gragg home in La Huerta, Wednesday night one of the very pleasantest parties of the season was given to a few congenial friends. Several of the ladies present were lonely, their husbands and sweethearts having gone hunting and the party was designed as a consolation for their absence. The home is ideal for an evening gathering, the large fireplace in the living room being utilized on this occasion for popping corn, toasting marshmallows, and otherwise contributing to the pleasures of the evening. The ladies indulged in their favorite game of bridge until they were tired of that diversion, and at a late hour left for their respective homes. Those enjoying the hospitality of the gracious hostess were: Mmes. Hugh Hall, Grant Mann, Lyle Henderson, Bill Hudgins, Robert Toffelmire, Lorene Powell, Ruth Roach, Mavis Usery, and Mavis Gibson. Two prizes were given at the bridge games. Lorene Powell securing first, a pair of colored candles, and Mavis Usery getting the booby, a pair of shoes trees.

Conductor and Mrs. G. L. Montgomery expect to leave tomorrow night for a visit with relatives and friends in the east. They have planned to stop in Kansas City, Mo., Mattoon, Ill., Indianapolis, Ind., and Lansing, Mich. Their itinerary calls for a stop to spend Christmas with Mrs. Montgomery's relatives in Detroit, Mich. Mr. Montgomery says he is anxious to feel some zero weather, around the lakes, and we hope his desires may be gratified, in that direction, but also hope they may soon return to sunny New Mexico, where they are justly popular and have a legion of friends.

Mrs. Roy Waller entertained the Saturday Bridge Club at her home for its regular meeting last Saturday. Mrs. Mary Lee Moore made high score and received the souvenir, a set of playing cards.

Mrs. J. H. Jones is expected to return tomorrow from a long visit to Cincinnati, Ohio, her former home, where she has been since last May.

Two men whose names we were unable to learn riding in a Ford car with a trailer attached, ran into the southbound passenger train Monday morning as the train had reached the crossing near the Mercantile Warehouse. The driver of the Ford said he thought the train was standing still. The car was wrecked, but neither of the men were injured to amount to anything.

A pleasant little birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Tinnin last Monday after school from four to six o'clock, honored the tenth anniversary of Mildred Tinnin, and also of Ethel Middleton, a little friend of the honor guest. About twelve children were present and enjoyed the preparations that had been made for their happiness. Both little girls received a number of presents and have the best wishes of all who know them for many happy birthdays. Cocoa and cake were the refreshments served.

Thanksgiving

In days of old our Pilgrim sires, These modern days with blessings great, Saved from pestilence, famine, war, The world at peace, the harvest vast;
Pledged faith anew round homestead fires, Might we not pause, a moment wait—
And set a day their thanks to show, To offer thanks, as in the past.

Cause for Thankfulness

FOR what, and to whom, Thanks should I render,
When I wake on the dawn of Thanksgiving?
For glorious Nature in the morn of its splendor,
For health in the world I'm living!

FOR the sun, "Old Sol," the fire of my days,
The silvery moon and stars of the night,
One warming the earth with its brilliant rays,
All filling the skies with heaven's own light.

FOR the breath I breathe and the winds that blow,
For flowers that bloom, so fragrant and fair,
For what I believe and for what I know,
For fields and forests and birds of the air.

FOR the friends I have and the friends I've had,
For the thoughts I think and the dreams I dream,
For the days gone by when I was a lad,
For this Thanksgiving—this hour supreme.

FOR peaceful America, home of my birth,
A soul acquainted with sorrow and mirth,
For a dear old mother whose hair is white,
Her thoughts of the day, her prayers of the night—
I render Thanks to God on high.

THE DAY OF THANKS

LOADED with all the goods the living cost allows, the home boards of the day of thanks will give full witness to the fact that the passing years do not permit to grow flaccid the long-established custom of the land. Thanksgiving Day has yet full flavor of the day when first observed upon the black coast where the Pilgrim fathers closed their voyage adventurous. The turkey and the pumpkin pie, cranberries and accessories will all feature as in the days gone by. And amid the fumes so redolent of cheer and peace and the sweet concord of home, will seem to fashion forth the features dear of the ones who at that board in other years were grouped. Memory that never lays aside attachments of the past will vivify the recollections of the ones whose passing meant contraction of the group, but cheer will be no less sincere because the pathos note is struck in token of mortality that time insures. From coast to coast, amid the mountains of the nearby range, amid the Rockies lifting their peaks, where placid lie the meadows by the brook, and in the tropic Southlands and the coast that borders the Pacific, will be found the units of the nation's strength and grace, the circles of the home with sweet content as savor for the simple hearted feasts. In many places strange and mid the scenes of desolation and of solitude the day and dinner will be given thought.

THANKSGIVING

Thanks for the little things, dear Lord—
The baby's waverling smile,
May's tiny shoes beneath her bed,
Round arms upflung about her head,
(She sleeping sweet the while.)

Thanks for the kindly things, dear Lord—
The kitchen's westward view,
Bill's patience when the meals are late,
The goldenrod beside the gate,
The old cat's friendly mew.

Thanks for the human things, dear Lord—
Bill's rough cheek on my arm,
The funny dent in baby's nose,
The backward way May's red hair grows—
Like her own perverse charm.

The big things are Thy keeping, Lord—
Life, Truth and Love and Peace,
But little, kindly human things,
Are like the touch of angel wings,
Whose blessings never cease.
—Margaret W. Jackson, in Farm Life.

With morning worship Sunday at the Presbyterian church, the sermon will have for its subject "The Worship of God." Church school will meet at ten o'clock, Junior Endeavor Society at three and the Senior society at six forty-five. Prayer-meeting will be observed Wednesday evening with studies in John.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Spanish Club met Tuesday morning for the purpose of voting upon the constitution which was accepted. The school board has said that it will offer prizes to all pupils who make thirty points in the Spanish Club. The points will be given in accordance with the work that the member puts forth.

Rev. Harrison delivered an address to the student body Wednesday morning.

Several new books have been added to the school library recently. Tomorrow night Prof. Donley and Mrs. A. A. Kaiser, who is our consul representative of Carlshad teachers, will leave for Albuquerque.

Mr. Donley will deliver a paper before the section of Science on "American Experimental Curriculum."

New Song books have arrived to be used in the assembly. Basketball goals have been placed on the high school grounds for the use of Junior and Senior students. In order to increase the funds for the 1923 annual, the Seniors have decided to put on a "Queen" contest. It will be open to all high school grades. The nomination will open Monday morning and close Wednesday at 3:15. It will cost 25c for a nomination and one cent a vote thereafter.

The tournament last Saturday was very successful for Carlshad. Mrs. H. P. Christian has been confined to her room for the past two weeks suffering from a bad attack of neuritis. She is greatly missed by social and church circles, and hopes are expressed that she may soon recover.

PROCLAMATION

Executive Office, Santa Fe, N. M.
A Thanksgiving proclamation by the Governor of New Mexico.

We are again approaching the day established for the observance of our great national holiday, Thanksgiving day, and in looking back over the year now drawing to a close we find as a state and as a nation we have abundant reasons for gratitude.

During the past year the nation was in the grip of a labor war and New Mexico emerged without bloodshed and without any material interruption in business. While our livestock growers temporarily faced destruction on account of the drought, they were made able to secure financial aid and have successfully weathered the storm.

The nation at large, while struggling under the oppressive burdens of the recent war, is emerging steadily and rapidly; there is plenty of labor and good wages for everybody and plenty of food. Our crops are bringing in good prices, our coal mines are working full capacity, and all indications point to increased prosperity and continued peace.

Now therefore, I, Merritt C. Mechem, governor of the state of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 30, 1922, a legal holiday in the state of New Mexico, I respectfully recommend that the people of the state assemble in their various places of worship, or in their homes, and return thanks to Almighty God for all the blessings we enjoy; that we resolve to conduct ourselves, as citizens and individuals, that we may continue to merit providential guidance and aid during the new year now at hand.

Done at the executive office this 18th day of November, 1922.
Witness my hand and the great seal of the state of New Mexico.

MERRITT C. MECHEM,
Governor.

Attest:
MANUEL MARTINEZ,
Secretary of State.

A COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The following program for Thanksgiving will be given at the First Methodist church the morning of Thanksgiving Day, at 10:30 a. m. The ministers representing the different protestant churches will be in charge, and hope there will be a large attendance. There will be special Thanksgiving music under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Kaiser.

Program
Glória Patri—all standing.
Invocation—Rev. T. C. Mahan.
Hymn No. 29.
Scripture—Rev. H. W. Lowry.
Anthem: "The Lord Doth Magnify."
Prayer—Rev. Douglas.
Offering.
Vocal Solo.
Sermon—Rev. Ira Harrison.
Hymn No. 30.
Doxology.
Benediction—Rev. Lowry.

This is to be a community service, and it is hoped the entire community will be interested to the extent of attending. Surely once a year we can all unite to give praise and thanksgiving to Him who is good to all and whose tender mercies are over all his works. The collection will be turned over to the local Associated Charities for their work among the poor of the city.

SHOWER FOR MRS. GRANT MANN

A number of young married girls and bachelor maids, friends of Mrs. Grant Mann, planned a kitchen shower for her at the home of Mrs. Lyle Henderson, Monday night. The girls had assembled at the home and the honoree of the evening being persuaded to attend the picture show, by Mrs. Lowenbuck, who suggested that they stop for Mrs. Henderson, and take her along with them. Accordingly, they did so, when the surprise was complete.

During the evening refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, olives, coffee and mints, and a delightful evening resulted. Mrs. Mann, has only recently gone to housekeeping and the array of articles would delight any housekeeper, young or old. She expressed her appreciation in unmeasured terms. Attending the happy affair were Mesdames Mann, Lowenbuck, Leonard Jones, Babe Campbell, Hugh Hall, Bill Reed, Bill Hudgins, Elmore Jones, J. S. Windham, Lyle Henderson, Misses Mavis Gibson, Marian and Betty Witt, Helen McLain, Lorene Powell, Wardie Bates and Mavis Usery.

CHRISTMAS LETTERS

Santa Claus, being a well informed and enterprising gentleman, has been a subscriber to the Current for many years, and each year reads the letters of his little friends about their wishes for Christmas. Our columns are open from now until Christmas time for any little child who wishes to write and make his or her wants for Christmas known. We are sure he will see the letters and govern himself accordingly. Either mail the letters or bring them to this office as soon as possible.

"MAIL EARLY" FOR CHRISTMAS IS ADVISED

"Wrap well, mail early." This now familiar Christmas slogan of the Postoffice Department already has started across. Expecting an extraordinarily heavy Christmas business this season, department officials are warning postmasters to lay their plans early.

So well has the postoffice service been organized of late years that no new methods will be tried this year. Postmasters whose "patronage" is so large that greatly augmented working staffs are needed, have been directed to give first preference in employment to men with families, and those long out of a job.

Christmas always costs Uncle Sam between four and five million dollars for extra clerks, carriers, transportation facilities and entering of extra quarters.

JUSTICE REYNOLDS RESIGNS
AS HEAD OF SUPREME COURT

Santa Fe, Nov. 16.—Chief Justice Herbert F. Reynolds, of the New Mexico supreme court, has tendered his resignation to Gov. M. C. Mecham. Justice Reynolds gave ill health and the need of a long rest after his fourteen years of service on the district and supreme court benches as the reason for his resignation.

While no official announcement has been made, persons in close touch with the situation say that Judge Stephen B. Davis, Jr., of Las Vegas, a former member of the supreme court by appointment and defeated candidate for the United States Senate from New Mexico, will likely be appointed to fill the vacancy.

Hilary Boyd and wife returned the first of the week from Mesa, Arizona, where they had been for some months, and announce their intention of remaining here at least until spring. They tell us the C. L. Schultz family is doing well and is pleased with their home.

NOTICE OF SALE

Whereas, H. M. Gage of Hope, County of Eddy, State of New Mexico, made, executed and delivered to the Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New Mexico, with its office and principal place of business in Albuquerque, New Mexico, his certain chattel mortgage, dated the 23rd day of December, A. D. 1921, to secure payment of the promissory note of said H. M. Gage dated the same day as the mortgage, for the sum of $40,000.00. Said note was payable one year after date to said Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico, with interest from date until paid at the rate of 7 1/2 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, with 10 per cent additional on the amount unpaid, should said note be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. The said mortgage having been filed in the office of the County Clerk of Eddy County on the 27th day of December, 1921, and having been duly entered according to law, in the register of chattel mortgages; Vol. 8, page 743.

Said chattel mortgage by its terms granted, bargained and conveyed to the said Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico, their successors and assigns, all of the following described livestock and increase and also the personal property to-wit:

1820 head of cattle and horses and their increase, range Hope, Eddy County New Mexico. Cattle branded R X on the right side and horses R X on the left thigh, 50 mules branded R X on the left thigh, further classified as follows:
785 Cows,
473 Calves,
35 Bulls,
67 Steer Yearlings,
75 Two year old steers,
123 Two year old heifers,
40 Saddle and work horses,
125 Mares,
43 Colts, coming yearlings,
50 Mules,
3 Jacks,
1 Stallion.

All of the said livestock at the time of the beginning of the said mortgage, being located at or near Hope, in Eddy County, State of New Mexico. Which said cattle to the number of approximately one thousand and head are now located at and on the D. R. Harkey pasture near Red Bluff, which is twenty-five miles south of Carlsbad in Eddy County, New Mexico, and approximately three hundred head of said cattle are near Dexter, in Chaves County, New Mexico. There are approximately two hundred head of horses and mules on the range of H. M. Gage, near Hope, New Mexico; also the said brand and the right to use same and all wool or mohair now on or hereafter grown on said animals. Together with all sheep, cattle and horses now owned by the said H. M. Gage, whether branded as above described or otherwise, all increase and additions that may be made to said herd or herds of said H. M. Gage, either by purchase or by natural increase during the continuance of said mortgage; also all wagons, teams and camping outfits used in connection with the said herd or herds of stock and additions.

And whereas, it was provided in said chattel mortgage and by its terms thereof that if said H. M. Gage should sell, secrete or remove or attempt to sell, secrete or remove the same or any part thereof from the place where same were then located without the authority or permission of the said Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico, in writing expressed; or if said H. M. Gage should neglect said stock or fail to fully and properly feed or

CHURCH

The men who do not go to church are fond of thinking up excuses for leaving parsons in the lurch. They talk of piety's abuses.

They speak about hypocrisy, Of secret crime in lofty places; And it is quite a feat to me The way they try to save their faces.

They say that they can worship God Much better in the field and forest Where prayer arises from the sod, And hymns by feathered choirs are chorused.

You'd think, to hear them talk, alas! That prayer is what these fellows mutter When they are stepping on the gas, Or swinging an ill balanced putter.

They get more from a first class book They say, than from a half-baked sermon— (And if they ever take a look At any volume, I'm a German!)

Lay your excuses upon the shelf, Poor boob—we'll get along without it;

I never go to church myself, But then, I do not bluff about it! —Ted Robinson in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

condition and did permit same to depreciate in value and the said Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico did feel themselves unsafe and insecure in the security aforesaid and because of certain violations of terms of said mortgage, said Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico took possession of said property and now are in possession of said property.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the said Livestock and Agricultural Loan Company of New Mexico will, on Thursday, the 28th day of December, 1922, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the front door of the Post Office at Hope in the County of Eddy, New Mexico, offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder, for cash, the said above described livestock and personal property.

The amount that will be due on account of said mortgage the day of the sale is the sum of $45,686.69. THE LIVESTOCK AND AGRICULTURAL LOAN COMPANY OF NEW MEXICO.

Order Your Christmas Studebaker Now!

In order to have a Studebaker Light-Six Sedan at the door when the family comes downstairs Christmas morning, you should place your order now.

The Sedan is the ideal gift because it will provide happiness for all the family—all the year—and the years to come.

The sturdy body of the Light-Six Sedan, like the chassis, is built in Studebaker plants. It is constructed to give long, satisfactory service. Only the finest materials are used. Craftsmanship is unexcelled.

It is cradled on long, strong, semi-elliptic springs. The nine-inch seat cushions, upholstered in mohair velvet plush, are restful. The heater, cowl ventilator and the wide windows, among many other features, add to its year-round comfort and utility.

The reliability of the Studebaker Light-Six Sedan has been proved in the hands of thousands of enthusiastic owners.

It is strictly a quality car. Its low price of $1550 is possible only because of complete manufacture in one of the most modern and complete automobile plants in the world. This means the elimination of middlemen's profits, and the savings are passed on to you.

And back of the beauty and dependability of the Light-Six and its completeness, its advanced design and precise workmanship, is the Studebaker name, which after 70 years enjoys public confidence and respect more than ever.

Heater, light-day clock, three-speed transmission, cowl ventilator, wide coach lamps, rain wiper and windshield wiper, inside locks on three doors and outside lock on right-hand front door. Silk roller curtains. Four doors that swing wide open. Door lock. Mohair velvet plush upholstery.

RENICK & GRUBAUGH

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

SANTA CLAUS is a practical fellow. The frivolous gifts of other years have been replaced with articles of usefulness and worth. Little wonder then that you find his pack filled with Hotpoint Servants, as gifts for nearly every member of the family.

Their day-to-day utility commends them. Their sturdiness and honest care in manufacture assure service years beyond the time when other gifts are outworn and discarded. Their good looks invite purchase and assure joyful acceptance.

Make a list of relatives and friends and send each a Hotpoint Servant. We will be glad to aid you in making selections.

Where will the gifts you give this Christmas be next May?

For any Man—A Hotpoint Radiator Heater to take off the chill while he rubs down after his morning tub. And for use in every room in the house.

Mrs. Dewey Harrison returned the middle of last week from a lengthy visit to friends in Kansas City, Mo.

W. E. Washington was in from his ranch on Black river, the first of the week.

ASA B. MORTON DEAD

Just before going to press, a message from El Paso, Texas, stating the death of Asa B. Morton, formerly editor and manager of the Leader. Further notice will be given in next week's issue.—Livingston Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smock and daughter, Miss Goida, of Eldorado, Kansas, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hays, of the Otis community, Mrs. Smock being a sister of Mr. Hays, and this their first visit to the valley. They have promised to make an extended visit with their relatives.

Dewey Harrison, who has charge of the downtown office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has been transferred to Greeley, Colorado, for which place he left the first of the week. A Mr. Gilmore, of El Paso, has been sent here to take the place of Mr. Harrison, and is already at work, moving his family to the Dr. Boatman residence in West Carlsbad.

George Adams and wife and baby boy are again in Carlsbad, coming the last of last week. They expect to remain at the parental home until the first of December, when they will leave for Los Angeles, California. Mr. Adams visited that city when he was absent on his trip late in the summer, and they have decided to make their home there.

Mr. W. W. Dean and wife chaperoned a party of young High school girls and boys from their homes in Pecos, last Friday night, the young people coming to engage in a tennis tournament on Saturday with Carlsbad players. The Carlsbad players were victorious.

J. L. Strickel, of Hope, who it is alleged was the victim of a shooting affray the first of last week, is said to be recovering and it is thought will be able to return to his home in a short time. The bullet has been removed from the abdomen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dilley are spending the week with the family of W. A. Craig, at Clayton, this week, Mrs. Craig being a sister of Mrs. Dilley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McCall, of the Otis District, left Monday for a deer hunt in the mountains, expecting to return the latter part of the week, and the Current hopes with a big deer. Jim Bill, the four-year-old, remains at the home of his grandfather, C. W. Mercer, during their absence.

RIGHT OR WRONG

Last week some fend in human form worked off on me a phony buck, and what rose in me like a storm, I strongly yearned to run amuck. "Ah, well," I sighed, when cooling down, "all is not lost, there's hope ahead; there's some poor fish in this man's town, who'll fall for this bun coin of lead. The grocer's eyes are weak and dim, he'd never wise up to my game; I'll shove this bogus pulch on him—he'll never know from whom it came." First impulse always ways me thus for self-defense in me born; I must get even with the cuss who stole upon my choicest corn. But second impulse comes and swings my mind around when I get cool; it is the outcome of the things I learned at home and Sunday school. "Some guy has 'trought me ill," I think, "but that's no reason sound or true, why I should seek some other gink and play a scurvey trick or two. The grocer is an honest weight, and it would be a rotten deal to take advantage of his sight, and sting him with this pewter wheel. I'll meet him oft in future days, and if I pulled so coarse a stunt I'd always dread to meet his gaze; I'd surely show a guilty front. So I will throw this buck away, I'll drop it down in yonder well, where it can tempt no other jay to hit the path that leads to Hannibal, Mo."

—Wait Mason.

The rain which fell Tuesday while not of any great quantity, supplied moisture to a certain extent, and seemed a promise of more to come. So extensive and far reaching has been the drouth, that farmers have been unable to do any fall plowing. It looks now as though we may have a spell of wet weather, which will be welcomed despite the fact that much cotton remains unpicked in the fields.

Burford Polk, and Richard Merchant, who represented Eddy County at the Wild West doings held in New York recently, are in the west again, Polk returning Tuesday night, and Merchant leaving him en route to make a visit at San Antonio, Texas. The boys had a wonderful time while in New York, and upheld the honor of New Mexico in the various roping and riding events. Mr. Polk seems mighty glad to be at home again.

The Current is glad to be able to announce that Dave McCollum, news of whose serious condition was published in last week's issue, is improving as rapidly as can be expected, although still detained at the Eddy County hospital. There are now seven men under treatment at that institution.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
LUNCHEON

A very small attendance marked the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce held at the Crawford Hotel at noon yesterday. Mrs. Boatman had made extensive preparations for a much larger crowd than attended, and consequently lost money. Her splendid meal of hot rolls, turkey and dressing, candied sweet potatoes, celery and hot drinks deserved a better patronage. Of course, at this season of the year, many who would otherwise have been there were conspicuous by their absence. It would seem as though some way should be devised that the hostess might know approximately at least, the number to prepare for.

In the absence of the president, F. E. Hubert, Mayor Hudgins presided. Dainty souvenirs in the shape of "Eversharp Pencils" with extra leads, were distributed to the diners, with the compliments of the Carlsbad Auto Co., and later cigars were furnished the men present, George Foreman of Roswell, a guest of the Crawford, being the donor.

At the close of the luncheon, Mayor Hudgins asked Major Bujac to talk, telling him to choose his own subject. The major assumed that the citizens of Carlsbad did not join a Kiwanis club as was desired by the district organizer some weeks ago. He failed to see any benefit that would accrue especially, from paying the headquarters fifteen dollars and keeping five of every membership at home. Because of our remoteness we should keep all of the money at home and get behind everything that is for the good of the town and community and make it go. He spoke of the fact that owing also to our remote situation, we keep our commercial and our social intercourse between ourselves. He spoke of the cattle industry, which is suffering as it never has suffered before, but said that the industry must survive. "This is exclusively a stock country, and with a good season in the ground as we now have a prospect of things will be better and the stock industry be revived. The further fact that we are to have a democratic administration after the first of the year, in this state, will be good for us in every way. The democratic party has promised to attempt several reforms; we are unduly taxed for our roads and schools; do not get value received for our money. A change of administration is always advisable; the democratic party profits by the mistakes of the republican party, and it all tends to a general uplift. The national administration must ease up and not force the obnoxious prohibition law on the people. Some laws are not wisely conceived but may be changed and must be if our government continues to function as a constitutional government. Every person has a right to his own views. A vital situation threatens our government. There is no use appealing to an "Invisible Empire." This organization should not function in a constitutional government. Good citizens owe allegiance to two forces: God and Country. The United States has great wealth, controlling seventy-two per cent of the gold reserve of the world, but 90,000,000 of the 110,000,000, do not contribute to the income tax, while 20,000,000 people dictate the policies of the others. People talk about the tariff. Tariff or no tariff, we must have a rate of exchange if we as a nation are to prosper. In a democracy like ours, there should be no place for an autocracy, either financial or military. These are solemn facts and should be considered."

At the close of the major's eloquent speech, the meeting adjourned the next meeting to be held at the Palace, and it is hoped a larger number will be present.

Mrs. A. A. Kaiser and Prof. W. G. Donley will leave tomorrow night for Albuquerque, where they go to attend the State Teachers Institute, the sessions of which will begin Monday. Mrs. Kaiser goes as the representative of the teachers of Carlsbad schools, while Professor Donley is a member of the Council. They expect to return the 30th.

Uncle Sam Helmick and wife returned Wednesday from their hunt after wild geese. They didn't have much luck this time and only succeeded in bagging ten or twelve geese, a load of ducks and some quail. Uncle Sam takes his vacation in the same way every year, and can always secure a few geese whether anyone else can or not.

John Stepp, the painter, has been taken to Eddy County Hospital for treatment, he suffering from a sprained ankle in addition to other ailments.

A very delightful reception was given at the Merchant home in La Huerta, last Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Thomas Pearson, of Roswell. Mesdames John and Lige Merchant and Mrs. Hubert Ryan were the hostesses and the appointments of the affair were beautiful and artistic. Delicious refreshments were served the guests.

Lee Donald, proprietor of the "Dinty Moore Filling Station," one of the popular cafes of the city, was married Wednesday to Mrs. Ruby E. Murrah, at Lakewood, the ceremony being performed by Judge Dauron, of that place. They are spending a few days in Lakewood at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Murrah, but will return in a short time and take up their residence among us. Both are well known and popular with our people, and are receiving congratulations and best wishes from many friends for useful and happy lives together.

Miss Bertha Shattuck, Miss Mary McCaw and Ellis Hall, all of Artesia, came down from there Sunday afternoon, on the train from the north, had dinner at the home of Reagan Middleton, and returned to their homes on the evening train.

HOW TO GET REAL PLEASURE OUT OF NEW CLOTHES

Half the fun of new clothes is the very fact that they're new—you know they are, your friends know they are—so does your family.

You get full effect of that feeling only when you change your clothes buying habits—from one color to another or from one model to another.

Our fall collections, chiefly from our tailors at Fashion Park, are so thoroughly varied that we can easily bring about the change you want..

"MOTHER GOOSE FANTASIE"

The chorus of the Womans Club, is practicing on an unique entertainment to be given in the early part of December, entitled a "Mother Goose Fantasie," which promises to be one of the most interesting entertainments of the season. The music, by Nevin, consists of a two-part chorus, with a solo part, which will be taken by Mrs. McKim. In connection will be a number of children in appropriate costume, who will give a pantomime and dances under the direction of Miss Millie Gay, they being members of her class in expression. June Joyce will have the part of Bo Peep; Loren Read, of Boy Blue; Bill Holt, will represent "Tom, Tom, the Piper's son;" Taffy, the Welshman; Billy Glasier, Humpty Dumpty, will be represented by Tena Nymeyer, and Miss Muffett will be Helen Wells. Miss Millie Gay will have the part of the Sandman.

Those who have seen the rehearsals say the affair will be most beautiful.

The chorus is to give several concerts in the near future, in order to develop an interest in music in the city, charging only a nominal price for admission, so that all who are interested can afford to attend; their desire not being to make money above their expenses, but only to give the people a chance to hear some really good music by home talent.

LOCAL NEWS.

Wayne Riley, Ed Wilson and Johnny Bogelin, a trio of hunters, took to the hills Sunday in order to be on the ground when the deer season opens, expecting to return after three or four days of hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Chance, of Knowles, were in from there last week, coming in Thursday and remaining for the week end with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murlane, west of town.

Enea Grandi is having a nice little bungalow built on his place south of town, and is rather hurrying matters up in that connection. A wedding is scheduled to take place in the Grandi family about Thanksgiving, and fear is expressed that the new home will not be ready for occupancy by that time.

Melvin Bearup and his partner, were in town Saturday from their ranch in the mountains, where they are raising some fine Angoras. Everything is moving on well at the ranch they tell us.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A very successful surprise was perpetrated on Harvey Fisher, at his home below town last Saturday night although it looked for a time as if the guests would be the surprised ones. On arriving at the home, it was found that Mr. Fisher had gone hunting, and did not return until quite late. (He said it seemed strange at the time that he was allowed to go hunting when there was so much to do at home,) but on arriving home he found the yard had several automobiles parked in it, and there was a agreeable hum of voices proceeding from the living room. After a little persuasion he entered and was met with the cry, "What's the matter with Fisher? He's all right," from the assembled guests, who were mostly members of his Sunday school class of the Christian church. A fine supper was spread, each one contributing, and a pleasant evening was spent.

Before leaving a number of songs were rendered, Mr. Greer acting as instructor, most of the songs being new. This was a delightful part of the evening's pleasures.

At the close of the singing of the all departed for their homes, bearing with them many pleasant memories of a happy occasion, and wishing Mr. Fisher many pleasant returns of the day. The guests were F. G. Snow, and family, E. Tidwell and family, Mrs. Vaughn and daughters, Mrs. Dillard and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Purdy, M. L. Davis, wife and son, Sam Davis and wife, Mr. Barrett, Ray Davis and family, Miss Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Oscar Mercer, N. T. Daugherty, wife and granddaughter, Mr. Greer, Mrs. A. Moore, Mrs. West, and children and perhaps others. Regrets were expressed over the absence of Mrs. J. J. Kircher, whose birthday falls on the same date as Mr. Fisher's and who is now in California, and Mrs. Cliff Grant, a member of the class, who has been seriously ill and was unable to be present, and Oscar Mercer, out of town.

The Daily Tribune, of San Diego, California, has a picture of our Mrs. William Foote, (Miss Willie Matheson) in a recent issue. Mrs. Foote was third in a contest recently put on by merchants there, selling over a million tickets and received a prize of two hundred and fifty dollars for her industry. Congratulations. Carlsbad girls and boys have a way of coming out ahead in any undertaking.

Rev. A. L. Maddux, state evangelist for the Baptist church, who resides in East Las Vegas, was in town over Sunday and preached at the morning and evening hours at the church of that denomination, and two great services resulted.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 26

JESUS THE GREAT MISSIONARY

LESSON TEXT—Luke 9:1-35.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which is lost.—Luke 19:10.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 4:23;
9:25-28.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Brings a Little Girl Back to Life.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus the Great Missionary.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Jesus Meeting All Human Needs.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
Jesus the Ideal Missionary.

I. The Great Missionary's Field (vv. 1-3).

He went throughout every city and village. The true missionary goes to everybody, for all need the gospel.

1. His Message (v. 1). He preached the glad tidings of the kingdom of God. The gospel message is truly good tidings, for the great King is offering to rebellious sinners salvation through Jesus Christ.

2. His Helpers (v. 1). The twelve apostles were with Him. The missionary should utilize the help of others.

3. Supported by Saved Women (vv. 2, 3). Out of grateful hearts certain women who had experienced the saving power of the gospel ministered unto Jesus of their substance.

II. The Great Missionary Teaching (vv. 4-21).

1. The Parable of the Sower (vv. 4-21). (1) The sower—Jesus (see Matt. 13:27). (2) The seed—the Word of God (v. 11). (3) The kinds of ground (vv. 5-8). (a) Wayside (v. 5). This foot-trodden path pictures the hard-hearted upon which no impression can be made. The preached word finds no entrance, and Satan snatches it away as birds pick up the grain from the hard-beaten path. In such cases faith cannot spring up and result in salvation (v. 12). (b) Stony ground (v. 6). This is not stones mixed with earth, but a thin layer of earth on a ledge of rock. The seed falling upon such earth springs up quickly, but the plant soon dies when exposed to the sun. This pictures the hearer who receives with joy the message of the gospel, but when persecution and trials come because of following Christ he gives up and deserts the cause (v. 15). (c) Thorny ground (v. 7). This ground is good, but it has thorns growing in it. The seeds spring up, but the plant has no room to develop. This pictures the Christians who bear no Christian fruit because of being preoccupied with "cares, riches and pleasures" of this life (v. 14). (d) Good ground (v. 8). The seed here sprang up and bore fruit to the full measure. This pictures the honest heart which receives the gospel message and allows it to produce in its life a full harvest of grain (v. 15).

The application of this parable is found in verses 16-18.

2. Kinship with Jesus Christ (vv. 19-21). Jesus teaches here that there is a relationship to Him which is closer than the tie of blood.

III. The Great Missionary Doing Wonders (vv. 22-35).

1. Calming the Storm (vv. 22-25). (1) Jesus asleep (v. 23). While the disciples were sailing the ship the Master fell asleep. (2) The frightened disciples (vv. 24, 24). As their ships were filled with water the disciples awoke Jesus with their cry of peril. (3) Jesus rebuked the wind and water (v. 24). At His word there was a great calm. (4) Jesus rebuked the disciples (v. 25). He did not rebuke them for waking Him, but for their lack of faith.

2. Casting Out Demons (vv. 26-28). Demon-possession was in that day, and is today, an awful reality. (1) Jesus met by the demoniac (vv. 26-28). (2) Jesus' question (v. 29). The purpose of this question doubtless was to bring the real man to consciousness—to enable him to distinguish between the demon and himself. (3) The demon's request (vv. 31, 32). They asked permission to enter into a herd of swine. It seems that the demons have a dislike for disembodiment. The devil cannot act without Divine permission. (4) The request granted (vv. 32, 33). Just why this was done we do not know. Since Jesus did it we must believe that it was wise. (5) The effect upon the people (vv. 34-37). (a) The keepers of the swine went and made it known in the city and country. (b) The people made investigation. They saw the man clothed and in his right mind, and heard the testimony of those who had seen what was done. (c) Besought Jesus to depart from them. (d) Request of the man whom He healed (vv. 38, 39). He desired to be with Jesus. This was natural and right, but his responsibility was to go home and show them what great things God had done for him.

Pure Religion.

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the widow and the fatherless in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.—James 1:27.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS

OF THE PAST WEEK

Markets have remained fairly firm this week, although some declines are noted due to heavier receipts and lack of demand. Bad weather in the central west has restricted country loadings, and as the demand has been good, the markets have been firmly held. In some markets the hay arriving has been inadequate for the requirements and this has kept values strong.—Hay Trade Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Bearup and Mrs. Georgia Pond left Saturday for a stay of a couple of days at the ranch of Melvin Bearup in the Guadalupe. This was Mrs. Pond's first visit to the ranch and with her liking of western life and mountain scenery she enjoyed it immensely as did the other members of the party.

WARNING TO HUNTERS

With the opening of the hunting season sportsmen visiting the Guadalupe Mountains are cautioned by local Forest Service officials to exercise the utmost care in the handling of fires, cigarettes, matches, etc.

Unless snows occur, the forest cover will be in an inflammable condition and while visitors to the National forests are always welcomed care in preventing fires is a necessary and important requirement.

Forest fires cause large losses in game resources as well as to timber and important requirements.

Ranger Lee Beall, who is locally in charge of the Guadalupe Division of the Lincoln National Forest has received instructions to prosecute all offenders against the fire laws.

Any information as to game, travel routes, etc., will be gladly furnished inquirers by Ranger Beall, whose station is located about seven miles south of Queen and whose postoffice address is Queen Route, Carlsbad, New Mexico.

M. and Mrs. Tom Gray were in town the first of the week, on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. D. C. Rickman, from their ranch home southwest of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leck and J. B. Leck, returned from a week's stay at the ranch in Texas, getting in Friday afternoon on schedule time. They report very cold weather on the ranch.

FROLIC SHOW GOES OVER BIG

Rounding out Armistice Day, the "Smoke Eaters Frolic" was shown at the Rialto Theatre last Saturday.

The "Frolic" was a combination minstrel and vaudeville staged exclusively by home talent. Part one was given over to minstrelsy and consisted of the usual jokes and songs. End men were M. N. Erlenbach, W. E. Bell, H. B. Prickett, and N. Chapman. As is customary this quartet monopolized the limelight in this division of the night's entertainment, but special mention is also due Mrs. Sam Johnson, Miss Evelyn Slack, and Frank Cavett, who rendered solos between the antics of the end men. The big hit of this section was Miss Slack's solo, "He may be your man, but he comes to see me sometimes." Chapman's "Save a little dram for me," was a close second. The other numbers were good, and well rendered, but these seemed to please most.

Part two was the real entertainer of the night. Here were presented the latest song hits, but the audience seemed to be in a jovial mood, and the ridiculous seemed to have more appeal than did the sentimental. For this reason we must acclaim the character song "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheehan" the big hit of not only this part of the show, but of the entire night. Earl Bell and M. N. Erlenbach sang the song, and the adaptation was perfect.

Prickett's escape from a casket, after he had been handcuffed and placed inside still has 'em guessing.

Second as a laugh maker and in reality, that's the real test, was the parody on "The Sheik." The bird who evolved that number has a nimble brain. It was great. Instead of a sheik of noble mien and carriage, the character presented was about as murderous a specimen as imagination could draw, and instead of being surrounded with the beauties of his harem, the group consisted of weird creatures, ebony black, and no protection against the weather save the hulu-hulu skirt or hemp fibre. And such figures! How they rhy-med! There was the great big fat, the short fat, offset by a small lean, and a great long lean. That sheik plainly proved he liked variety—and got it. As the audience began to recognize each character their merriment unbridled. Again, we say it—"twas good."

Chapman, as the strong man and Erlenbach as a second edition of Thomas A. Edison, were good and applause was generous at the close of their acts.

Charley Bell, in his rapid fire cartooning, not only drew applause by his comic drawing of Pecos people, but was complimented on the striking resemblances. When he gets into the class with Briggs, Sydney Smith, at al, we hope he doesn't pick on us for an inspiration.

Each and every actor deserves credit for his or her part in the evening's entertainment, and though at first some objected to the seeming high price of admission, all were satisfied when the final curtain fell, declaring they were glad they came.

The play was staged for the benefit of the volunteer firemen of Pecos, who will use the funds to help install an electric siren to give alarm in case of fire. Whether it was the appeal of the cause in which the firemen were working or the assurance that they would see a good show that caused the people to attend, we do not know, but we do know that the capacity was taxed as never before, the good cause has been helped and the people of Pecos, Toyah, Balmorhea, Saragosa, and Hermosa saw a show that made good the promises of the advance advertisement.

The above item from the Pecos Gusher of the 18th, is in reference to the play which will be given at Crawford Theatre tomorrow night. From the clipping the merits and scope of the entertainment will be learned and the Current predicts a record attendance.

RED BLUFF PROJECT APPLICATION DENIED BY NEW MEXICO BOARD

Santa Fe, N. M.—The "Red Bluff" hydro-electric project to build a dam in the Pecos river just above the Texas line to develop power for Toyah, Pecos, Barstow and other Texas towns, was given a body blow by the board of water commissioners in session at the state house November 14th.

An application filed in State Engineer Charles May's office by C. G. Thorpe, who fostered the project, for 500 second feet from the Pecos, was denied, so an appeal was taken to the board which today sustained the state engineer's decision.

Action by the board was based on the grounds that use of the water was preferable for irrigating of land not already under water in the lower Pecos valley in New Mexico, that no benefit would come to New Mexico through the project planned by Mr. Thorpe that Mr. Thorpe had not to its satisfaction demonstrated his ability to carry the project to a successful completion.

Protests against Mr. Thorpe's application were filed by the Pecos Irrigation company, Pecos Water Users' association and others, who contended they possessed prior rights to the water of the Pecos and that Mr. Thorpe's application, if allowed, would prevent the development of big areas of irrigable land now under ditch in the lower Pecos Valley. An appeal by Jay Turley, seeking to reverse action of the state engineer in cancelling water right held by him, was taken up but no decision given when an extension of 20 days was asked in which to file a brief with the board.

"Feeling Fine!"

"I was pale and thin, hardly able to go," says Mrs. Bessie Bearden, of Central, S. C. "I would suffer, when I stood on my feet, with bearing-down pains in my sides and the lower part of my body. I did not rest well and didn't want anything to eat. My color was bad and I felt miserable. A friend of mine told me of and I then remembered my mother used to take it. . . After the first bottle I was better. I began to freshen up and I regained my strength and good, healthy color. I am feeling fine. I took twelve bottles (of Cardui) and haven't had a bit of trouble since."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Thousands of other women have had similar experiences in the use of Cardui, which has brought relief where other medicines had failed.

If you suffer from female ailments, take Cardui. It is a woman's medicine. It may be just what you need.

WILLIAM MCLENATHEN IS SEVEN YEARS OLD

Wednesday marked an epoch in the life of William McLanthen, he being seven years old on that date. The regulation birthday cake, with candles, was enjoyed by the seven little playmates invited to the home for a play after school, in addition to other good things that boys are fond of. The weather being very inclement, all enjoyed the games provided for indoor amusement. Miss Elsie Ruth Craft, a close friend of the honoree, assisted Mrs. McLanthen in serving William's friends, who were Ellsworth James, Francis Tracy, James Woodman, Draper Brantley, Edward Foster, James Porter Lewis, and Victor Minter. The Current wishes for William many happy birthday anniversaries.

The dance given for the benefit of the City Cemetery last Friday night netted about $200.00 for that worthy object. Music was furnished by the Oldham Moore orchestra, of Dexter, and as is usually the case, with this fine aggregation of musicians, was beyond criticism. The ladies had gone to a great deal of work, decorating the stage in ferns and other greenery and having rocking chairs and rugs to form a comfortable resting place between the dances. Coffee and sandwiches were served. Mesdames William Hannah and D. R. Vest, presiding at the refreshment table.
