POLITICAL DOINGS UP AT FOLSOM

Special Correspondence.
Folsom, N. M., Oct. 22.—The special train bearing Senator William H. Andrews, republican candidate for delegate to congress, was met at the station at 8 o'clock Saturday morning by nearly every inhabitant of Folsom. The schools had been dismissed for the day in honor of the event, the little ones mingling with the crowd to see and hear the man concerning whom the entire county is now interested.

Although the hour was very early for any demonstration, nevertheless the platform resembled a vast arena. In a rural town when the train pulled into Folsom, Cannon crackers, flags and banners showed that all were entering heartily into the celebration, while the rush made to the rear coach clearly demonstrated the cause.

Headed by the Santa Fe band, the party marched to the second house, a few yards away. The building had been beautifully decorated with the stars and stripes for the occasion and the little children were down in the weeds waving tiny flags for "de senator."

As the party only had one hour at its disposal all speeches were necessarily very brief. Chief Justice W. J. Mills made a brief speech, thanking the ladies and children for their presence as well as the fine covers. Judge Mills' popularity in his district is unbounded, all entering into ready sympathy with him as soon as he began to speak.

Judge Mills talked for only a few moments on national issues, devoting the major portion of his time to Senator Andrews and the republican party of New Mexico. As the chief justice was well acquainted with many ladies in the audience, owing to his numerous trips to Folsom, he entertained them with a brief description of the personality of the candidates, much to the amusement of his hearers and to the slight discomfort of the senator, who had not anticipated being called a "dumb don" before the fair sex of Folsom. Judge Mills then delivered his "greatest hit" which was accomplished by Senator Andrews since his residence of ten years in New Mexico. He closed by requesting the votes of each republican in that district, which

CAMPAIGN PARTY VISITS ALAMOGORDO

Special Correspondence.
Alamogordo, N. M., Oct. 27.—Republican enthusiasm ran in this city last night in honor of the visit of Governor Otero and William H. Andrews, republican nominee for delegate to congress. The special reached this city at 7 o'clock yesterday evening. A committee at once called giving the freedom of the city to the party while there. Judge Mann escorted the party in this city, having gone ahead to Alamogordo for that purpose.

At 7:30 headed by the Santa Fe band, the procession started for the hotel home. Small boys stood along the entire route with Roman candles, while red lights were as each box car, burning furiously.

Unfortunately the capacity of the hotel home was not sufficient to accommodate the large number who accompanied the party. As a result, the party was forced to seek quarters elsewhere. The hotel home was packed. It was difficult to estimate the number who could not gain entrance.

Governor Otero opened the meeting with a well-delivered speech, thanking the people of Otero county for their demonstration, which could only be construed one way, the success of the republican party. Governor Otero, from whose name is Otero county, received constant ovations from his numerous friends. He introduced Senator Andrews as the man who "does things" and who would be the next delegate to congress from New Mexico.

Senator Andrews made an able speech, lasting ten minutes. He touched on only the more important points of the territory, leaving other questions to the speakers who were to follow. He promised to do his best to secure for New Mexico that the badly-needed improvement, irrigation. "If I cannot," he said, "I will see that someone else has an opportunity by resigning my position."

Major W. H. Llewellyn was called on for a speech and one of his vigorous attacks upon those who oppose the simple desire of opposition. He spoke on national issues but at greater length upon the subject of the republican candidate for delegate to congress. Major Llewellyn paid Senator Andrews a high tribute on his modest generosity and great ability. "Senator Andrews does not tell you that he ever helps the poor, those in want or distress," cried the speaker, "it is not right for him to make private life campaign material. I do not see, however, why I should not see President Harrison of the University of Arkansas, Prof. R. E. Smith, of Sherman, Texas; Prof. John Fields, of the Oklahoma Agricultural college, and W. J. Spillman, of the United States department of agriculture.

Talk at Rochester.
Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 28.—The republicans of Rochester and vicinity were made great preparations for the demonstration to be held tonight. Secretary of War Taft is to be the principal speaker, and others on the program are Frank W. Higgins and M. John Brown, candidates for governor and lieutenant governor respectively.

A CREDIT TO THE TERRITORY

J. J. LEESEON TALKS OF NEW MEXICO'S EXHIBITS AT WORLD'S FAIR AND THE GOOD IT HAS ACCOMPLISHED.

"New Mexico has indeed a very interesting display in the mining space and other buildings at the St. Louis world's fair," said J. J. Leeseon, who has just returned from the world's fair at St. Louis. "Next month the greatest of world's fairs will show after six months of a most successful engagement. The various states and territories have revealed to the world their great wealth and varied resources and it is not just and right that miners should find where miners are true."

"New Mexico produces the greatest variety of minerals and grains of any state or territory in the Union. Its cereals and fruits are also equal to any in America. Its climate and its health giving qualities have been brought to the eyes of the world and today this territory is one of the best and most fertile on the globe and this has resulted principally through its exhibits."

"This territory may well be proud of its achievements and of its honored citizens, who have shown such energy in bringing this territory so prominently before the world. The New Mexico building at the world's fair has been visited by fully one-half of the United States congress and millions of citizens throughout the country who have listened to the territorial commissioners as they showed and explained to them the varied resources of the increasing population, railroads and factories."

U. of M. Students at the Fair.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 25.—Large parties of students and alumni of the University of Missouri came to St. Louis today and took part in special exercises held at the world's fair in their honor. The majority of the visitors will remain over for the football game tomorrow between the teams of the University of Missouri and Purdue university.

YOUNG LADY BURNED TO DEATH

AWFUL FATE OF REBECCA RODRIGUEZ AT SILVER CITY.

(From Friday's Daily Citizen.)
A distressing accident, terminating fatally within twenty-four hours, occurred in this city early Sunday morning, the victim being Rebecca Rodriguez, a pretty young Mexican girl, aged 18 years.

Miss Rodriguez had been to a dance and had returned to her home in the southwestern part of the city about 1 o'clock in the morning. Just how the accident occurred will never be known, as she was alone at the time, but it is supposed she struck a match for the purpose of lighting a lamp, and that it fell to the floor, lighting her dress. Miss Rodriguez was subjected to fainting spells, and when the dress caught fire, she must have been unconscious, as it was some little time later when her remains attracted attention and assistance.

The flames had eaten away all the apparel which she wore, and her face and body was simply a mass of burns and blisters. Medical aid was summoned and everything possible was done to alleviate the terrible suffering which she was undergoing, but death came to her relief the same night.

Deceased was a bright young lady and very popular. A sad feature of her death was that she was shortly to have been married. Funeral services were conducted yesterday—see City Independent.

COCHRAN'S THROAT SORE & FROM SPELL BINDING

Kansas City, Oct. 28.—Burke Cochran of New York passed through here early today and consulted physicians regarding his throat, which is causing him trouble lately. The physician, it is stated, advised an operation which, however, will be postponed until after the election. He will make several speeches in Indiana.

Dropped Dead.

Columbus, O., Oct. 28.—Former Governor George K. Nash dropped dead in his bath room today.

LAWS OF ELECTION

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS AND BOARDS OF REGISTRATION FOR CONDUCTING SUCH.

Every person desiring to vote must be registered, as required by Secs. 1502 and 1503, C. L. 1897, but Chap. 84, Laws, 1903, amends Sec. 1501 so that a person not registered may tender to the judges of election an affidavit, signed by himself and two qualified voters, showing that he is entitled in law to vote, notwithstanding that he is not registered.

Part of this affidavit is herewith enclosed as "A." While persons not registered may thus vote upon proper showing, it must not be depended upon, as it is only to be used in extreme cases, and every person entitled to vote should see that he is registered, in order to avoid delay and trouble at the polls.

The duties of the board of registration are set out fully in said Sec. 1502, and if they refuse to register any person presenting himself, such person may make affidavit, setting out the qualifications as an elector (Form 1, sent with these instructions), or, if he is absent from the precinct, another person may do it for him. (See Form 1.)

It is the duty of any justice of the peace to administer such oaths, free of charge, and upon presentation of such affidavits, it is the duty of such board of registration to file the same and place the name of the party on the registration book.

The boards of registration are bound to give certificates to voters for the same upon filing the affidavit sent herewith as Form 2. The form of said certificate of registration is sent herewith as Form 3. The voter should file this certificate with the judges of election at the precinct where he desires to vote.

The qualifications of a voter are: That he shall be a full citizen of the United States; declaration of intention or "first papers" will not do; a male and not a female or other Indian of the full age of twenty-one years.

If his birthday occurs on the day of election he is entitled to be registered and to vote. He must have resided in the territory six full months, in the county three full months, and in the precinct or ward where he votes in full thirty days, excluding the first and last, immediately preceding the election. He must not be an officer, soldier, seaman, mariner, or other person in the army or navy or attached to troops in the service of the United States, not a camp follower, B. U. S. Sec. 1506 and 1507, C. L. 1897, nor any person convicted of bribery, perjury, forgery, embezzlement, robbing, false money, rape, larceny, or who shall have been twice sentenced for petty larceny, C. L. 1897, Secs. 1662 and 1672.

The utmost care must be used by the boards of registration and judges and clerks of elections to comply with the law in every particular, filling in the blank cards and certificates in the proper places, and signing them in the blanks left for that purpose. It is upon this certificate that the canvassing officers select and small errors are liable to reject the precinct and change the whole election. We have seen at former elections what advantages may be taken of small technicalities to throw out the election returns. It was upon a certificate like Form 1, in the election of 1892, in the precinct of Gallatin, was saved in Santa Fe county, and without it the county would have been carried by the democrats.

I enclose such a certificate (Form 4) which should be immediately filed with the justice of the peace of the precinct after the votes are counted, under Sec. 1507, C. L. 1897. Also Form 5, being certificate of result of election, as to delegate and legislative district, which should be sent immediately to the secretary of this committee for information.

If for any reason, judges of election are not appointed, or fail to appear at 10 o'clock on the morning of election, the qualified voters present, by a majority vote, select such judges, who shall conduct the election, and an affidavit of the fact must be attached to the poll book in the form of a certificate, then the ballot box open to the people before commencing the election, and when the election is closed, then the box in the presence of the people, cover the hole in the box with paper and sealing wax, and send the same to the county commissioners by messenger, who must take a receipt for the same from the precinct clerk. No ballot shall have any number or mark placed upon it by any voter on the poll books, nor shall any method be used by which a vote can be identified. "Markers" or any other method of changing the printed ballot must be used by the voter before he deposits his ballot. If "markers" are used, the name over which the "marker" is to go must first be obliterated in some manner. It may show through the "marker" and cause confusion, and perhaps the loss of a vote.

All ballots must be printed with black ink on plain, white paper, three inches in width and eight inches long.

First, at the head of the ballot, in three black letters, REPUBLICAN PARTY, with the flag on the staff, with liberty cap upon it, immediately under the party name. Laws of 1903, Chap. 84, Sec. 2; and then the names of the candidates and the offices for which they are candidates. NOT the office first, and then the names of the candidates, as has been the custom in many of the courts of the territory. This is a small matter apparently, but it is in the law, and we all know what advantages the democrats will take of the smallest technical error.

Although a voter has obtained his certificate of registration to enable him to vote outside his precinct, if he does not vote there and make an affidavit in that effect and returns such certificate to the judges of election in his precinct, he is entitled to vote in his own precinct, notwithstanding he had obtained a certificate entitling him to vote elsewhere.

No person shall be allowed nearer than ten yards to any polling place during the election, except the person voting, and one challenger for each political party, when the voter is within ten yards of the voting place. It is unlawful for any person to attempt to examine his ballot, or to ask him for what person or party he is about to vote, or to try and persuade him to change his vote. This space of ten yards should be measured and enclosed by a rope or wire.

No person is entitled to be registered to vote who is prohibited by Sec. 1572, C. L. 1897, recited in paragraph 4 of this list.

When the vote of any person is received for any reason of the judges, his name shall be registered in the poll book and the person he offers to vote for, and the word "rejected" shall be written opposite the name of the person so offering to vote in the poll book, as required by Sec. 1568, C. L. 1897.

There are heavy penalties provided in the law for changing the designation of a ballot, seducing or detaching a voter as to the character of a ballot for giving or receiving a bribe, for any intimidation, threat, promise of employment or threat to discharge from employment for voting or refraining from voting in any particular way, as well as severe punishment for any judge, clerk or secretary of election, board of registration or messenger employed to take the returns, who shall fail in any manner to do his duty.

The above instructions are in accordance with the C. L. 1897, Secs. 1502 and following.

The method of canvassing the vote where council and house representatives districts are composed of more than one county is entirely changed. That duty being performed by the secretary of the territory in the same manner as he canvasses the vote for delegate under Sec. 1553, C. L. 1897, upon certificates of the boards of county commissioners of the several counties, as provided also by the laws of 1901, page 180, and laws of 1903, page 211, which latter provides that the election returns shall be forwarded to the secretary by express, and only in cases where there is no express company at the county seat, shall a special messenger be employed and then only to convey the returns to the nearest express office. The messenger must be one of the board of canvassers and receive twelve and one-half cents per mile for conveying such returns.

Judges of registration and judges and clerks of election cannot be too careful in following exactly the above rules, for upon their doing so may depend whether the vote of their precinct shall be counted in the election. Very respectfully,
H. O. DUTRUM,
Chairman Republican Cent. Com.
C. V. HAYFORD,
Secretary.

MARIE FOUNTAIN COMPANY

RENDERED "THE AMERICAN DRUMMER" AT OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

(From Friday's Daily Citizen.)
The American Drummer was produced at the Elks' opera house last night by the Marie Fountain Theatre company to a large audience.

The play is a farce comedy in four acts and portrays an American year drummer in the depths of Ireland. There is a little plot and little love in the story. The American has a way of talking up at critical moments when life or wealth is in jeopardy, and comes to the rescue with his smart stick—in fact, there is nothing like it.

The hit tonight is "The Gambler's Wife."

SHERIFF SMITH STRIPPED OF CLOTHING

Special to The Citizen.
Gallup, N. M., Oct. 27.—The prisoners of the McKinley county jail, led by George Black, a desperado, made a break for the city yesterday afternoon, and some got away.

Sheriff W. A. Smith took dinner in town, and was absent, when the prisoners broke into the jail, when the prisoners marched away. The plan was that of George Black, doing time for highway robbery. He donned the sheriff's clothes, and at the point of the sheriff's six-shooter marched the other prisoners from the jail.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Marshal McVickery saw two of the prisoners on the street, recognized them and started for them. They threw up their hands and told the marshal they were looking for him. They refused to fly with the other seven and came down town to give the details. The marshal took the two men back to jail and found the sheriff in his underwear locked in the cell. As soon as a clothing could be procured for the sheriff he was released and a posse of deputies on horses armed with Winchester rifles secured the hills and adjacent territory for the prisoners. Two have been found with the two who gave themselves up, making four. Five made good their escape.

One of the prisoners who was captured was Black, who was the instigator of the movement. He was locked up some time ago charged with holding up three men at the point of a gun. After capturing the victims of their belongings, he quietly went into Gordon's saloon and sat down quite unmolested. He was found a few moments later by the sheriff and placed under arrest. At the time opinion was expressed that he was not right mentally, and now looks either mentally unbalanced or a hard criminal, who played a little game so as to be locked up and escape punishment for a possible greater crime elsewhere.

The original plan was to lock the sheriff in the cell, then telephone Marshal McVickery, telling him the sheriff wished him at the jail, and according to the plan, when McVickery arrived he was to be hit on the head and locked up. With both county and city officers looked on, it would be some time before the people became acquainted with what had happened. The prisoners would have ample time to leave and gotten miles away. This plan was not carried out.

FOOT SQUEEZED BUT NOT CRUSHED

MRS. M. F. STEINER'S NARROW ESCAPE FROM AWFUL ACCIDENT.

(From Friday's Daily Citizen.)
Because someone pulled "Look out!" Mrs. M. F. Steiner, of North Second street, stopped short in front of a moving train at the Railroad avenue crossing yesterday afternoon, and barely escaped being ground to death under the cars. As it happened, she has a torn place on her neck and a half inch on her right foot just above the big toe and is at St. Joseph's hospital very lame.

Mrs. Steiner attempted to cross the tracks when the gates were down for a passing train, and had left the sidewalk and was crossing in front of a string of box cars being pushed by a switch engine. Just as she reached the tracks some one yelled at her. She became confused and stood still and in the train knock her down. Luckily she fell on one side of the tracks and there are no cars on without doing any more damage than squeezing one foot, which laid close to the rail.

The physician in charge of the case says that Mrs. Steiner will be out within a week.

THE BIG MINSTRELS

WILL BE HERE WITH NEW SPECIALTIES ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3.

It is always pleasant to look forward to a real up-to-date minstrel, and the new Mahara Musical Minstrels is among the recent shony productions of the current season. Critics are profuse in their praise of the unique company, and together with the superb scenic environment, which Manager Mahara has applied this attraction has been called a work of art. From a musical standpoint the Mahara company is superior in every particular, the musical balance being a treat in itself. The festive vaudeville also furnishes a big part of the entertainment, and numerous other attractive features place Mahara's Operatic Minstrel in a class with the best. A splendid street parade will be given on the day of the performance. At night the company appears at the opera house on Thursday, November 3.

Chicago Banks Consolidate.
Chicago, Oct. 27.—The purchase of the National Bank of North America by the Continental National bank is announced effective at once. This action comes as a climax to the charges connecting the name of President Isaac N. Perry of the National Bank of North America with the felonious turning of the Chicago Clear and Locomotive company's plant at Hegewisch, October 9. While the directors accept the president's denial as truth they thought a merger the best business policy. With the consolidation the Continental will take rank as the second largest bank in Chicago.

Farewell Address.

Harbin, Oct. 28.—Viceroy Alexieff today issued his farewell order of the day to the effect that he was leaving for St. Petersburg, and thanking the officers and men of the Pacific fleet for their self-sacrificing work and especially the seamen at Port Arthur.

CHINAMAN CAPTURES A WHITE WIFE

SAM JUNG FORD AND MISS DAISY STALEY OF SAN FRANCISCO, MARRIED HERE.

(From Friday's Daily Citizen.)
Rev. W. J. Marsh, pastor of the Congressional church, performed the marriage ceremony yesterday of Sam Jung Ford, a Miss Daisy Staley. The groom is a Chinese merchant recently of Chinatown, San Francisco, and the bride is the daughter of J. A. Staley, a wealthy fruit and nut gardener of California. She is 20 years old and very pretty, being a decided beauty, with blue eyes and a rosy complexion. When seen by The Citizen, representative Mrs. Ford wore a stylish brown tailor made skirt and silk shirt waist of a very pretty figure.

She said that she met Sam Jung Ford five years ago and became acquainted with him while trading at his store in San Francisco. They have been keeping company since shortly after their first meeting.

Mr. Ford is 32 years older than his bride, and there is considerable gray in his heavy shock of once black hair. Besides his interests in San Francisco, he also has an interest in a store at Fresno, Cal. He said that he and Miss Staley came to Albuquerque on train No. 3 of Wednesday night and were married the following morning. They came here with a view to locating, and have already looked at some garden land north of the city which is for lease.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford have taken rooms on South Second street.

Western Illinois Medicine.

Quincy, Ill., Oct. 28.—The convention of the Western Illinois Medical association here today was largely attended by prominent physicians and surgeons from all parts of the territory embraced by the organization. The meeting was devoted to papers and discussions on a variety of topics of interest to the profession.

Reconciliation.

Reconciliation with God is not brought about by mere repentance or by any other outward means, but by a thorough searching of the heart and by the renovating of man's disposition and will.—Rev. A. Gutman, of Holbrook, Baltimore, Md.

Rush for Stocks.

New York, Oct. 28.—There was a rush today to get back the money sold yesterday on account of the fright over the Anglo-Russian crisis, and very heavy buying orders filled nearly all the principal stocks.

A DENIAL.

Chairman Gallup, of the territorial independent republican committee, says that H. B. Rogers, the independent candidate for delegate, was in Santa Fe yesterday and last night, hence he could not have been at Raton.

Chairman Gallup pronounced that "Special to the Morning Journal" dated from Raton, a fake in every particular, and, therefore, as Rogers was not at Raton last night, his recognition was not a "denial" from Mr. Rogers in under the impression that the "special" was manufactured in the Journal office.

SENATOR ANDREWS IN CITY OF RATON

Special Correspondence.

Raton, N. M., Oct. 22.—The latest political meeting in the history of Colfax county was held in this city last night by the republican campaigning party headed by Senator William H. Andrews.

Fully two thousand people gathered in the opera house, crowding the doors. Many ladies and children were present, escorted by fathers, husbands and brothers. For nearly four hours the entire audience remained, participating heartily in the resolution to the candidate, and listening with fixed attention to each of the numerous speakers.

Never before in the history of Colfax county have the republicans presented a ticket which met with such unanimous approval or has the opposing party so early practically discontinued its opposition. It is only a question of majority for the republican party in this county, this fact being well illustrated at the meeting of last night.

During the latter part of the afternoon and early in the evening Senator Andrews was the recipient of a constant stream of visitors, the great number of railroad men being particularly noticeable. Mr. Andrews has achieved a remarkable popularity with the railroad boys along the line wherever he has stopped. Not a single train crew has carried the candidate which has not before the end of the trip voluntarily come to the Senator and promised support at the polls. This was particularly the case at Raton where several lifelong democrats called to wish Senator Andrews "good luck." One little party had a spokesman who stated, "We are probably not what you would call straight republicans," in fact, we have voted the democratic and independent tickets in the past. Mr. Andrews, we thought we would call on you and tell you that we have decided to give you any little support in our power. We are railroad men and so are you. We know how you have treated the boys on your line. Count on our votes."

That such was the judgment of not only the railroad men but of nearly every citizen of Raton was shown when the campaigning party entered the large hall. Not one seat was vacant. In the rear the entrances were crowded so that any slight movement was nearly impossible.

The candidate received a hearty, straight from the heart cheer when he took his seat on the stage. This sentiment was prevalent throughout the entire meeting.

Dr. T. B. Hart, of Raton, was selected by his fellow citizens as chairman of the immense rally. The first speaker introduced was the Hon. Jerry Leahy, a resident of the northern city and a candidate from that district for the territorial council. Mr. Leahy made one of his characteristic forceful addresses. The speaker touched on national and territorial issues in a very able manner, and had a little to say concerning the opposition, its methods, platforms and past record. He touched on conditions that were prevalent under democratic administrations, bringing his argument home to his hearers when he brought back certain unpleasant recollections concerning personal losses by mismanagement of national affairs by democrats endeavoring to stand by platforms created simply to oppose and not for real merit.

Mr. Leahy then introduced Senator Andrews, who was received with such an ovation as only an audience which was present to meet a candidate could give.

Senator Andrews devoted the greater portion of his brief speech in complimenting Raton on its strong republican showing and stating what were his plans regarding the future of the territory if he was the choice of the people at the polls. "The people of Raton," said the senator, "will always have my appreciation of this reception, unequalled in any city of its size we have visited in the country. I elected to congress I shall do my very best for the interests of New Mexico, and no one particular section will receive more consideration than its neighbor. I am for New Mexico and not for any certain portion of the territory. This territory needs many things. If I cannot secure them in Washington for you I shall not be the proper man for the position. I think I can, but if I cannot I will resign and come home."

Lord applause greeted the conclusion of the candidate's brief statement of his position. The Raton band, in conjunction with the Santa Fe band, played "Columbia," much to the satisfaction of the audience, which kept time with the stamping of feet and clapping of hands.

The chairman then introduced in turn Chief Justice W. J. Mills, Judge A. J. Abbott, Dr. George W. Harrison and Captain D. J. Leahy. All of the speeches were received with the same enthusiasm, the speakers each devoting a portion of their time to the head of the national and territorial issues and to a discussion of items of interest in the present campaign.

A male quartette, composed of local talent, at the conclusion of the speaking portion of the program, sang a selection, bringing in the names of the several candidates.

At the close of the meeting proper Senator Andrews stood by one of the aisles while a constant stream of humanity passed by to shake hands.

The party then adjourned to the Commercial club, where an informal banquet had been prepared, the small hours of the morning being in evidence before the special finally left Raton for Trinidad, and then on to the visit toward the south.

In speaking of Senator Andrews Mr. Leahy said:

"We have selected as our candidate for delegate to congress the best man we could obtain in the territory. You are aware of what Mr. Andrews has done for the territory many times. He is irrefragable. Since his residence among us he has done more for our people and for the territory as a whole than any other man in its history. He has opened up the railroads, last night many of the railroads against our commonwealth, forced recognition from the state and his friends, is the man who is more capable than any other possible person to secure a statehood for this territory under the name 'New Mexico' and by constant demands and ability to have, contracted in our midst an irrigation system second to none in this world. He is a business man. He is a worker. He is a man who knows how to do things as things should be done. He has a wide acquaintance in the east and in congress. He is a man not of words but of actions. He is the man we need and the man who will be our next delegate to congress. The man who 'does things.'"

WILLIAM GERIT BLEYSTER.

(From Wednesday's Daily Citizen.) Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, just after The Citizen had gone to press with the announcement that the little boy was dangerously ill, a message came to this office that William Gerit Bleyster had yielded up his life in his Maker.

The deceased was first stricken with diphtheria and had recovered from that disease, when congestion of the brain, followed by partial paralysis, set in. Last Saturday night, owing to his changed condition, the attending physician and watchful parents remained at the bedside, but his condition did not improve and the physician gave up the case. His death was on a matter of a few hours. Thus, all that loving hands could render and medical skill give, the spirit of little Willie Bleyster fled from its transient clay to that home not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

The deceased was born in Albuquerque, September 7, 1893 and had just passed his eleventh birthday. For his age he was an unusually bright and attractive little fellow, and, with his sister, who is about eighteen months his elder, he was admired by a host of friends and cherished and loved by fond parents. To the latter, The Citizen extends its condolences.

The funeral services will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, No. 708 East Railroad avenue, Rev. Marsh officiating. The residence has been thoroughly furnished and friends of the family are invited to attend the service.

LAID TO REST.

Funeral and Burial of Willie Gerit Bleyster This Afternoon.

(From Thursday's Daily Citizen.) The funeral of Willie Gerit Bleyster took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bereaved parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bleyster, No. 708 East Railroad avenue, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the sorrowing family. Beautiful touching words were pronounced by Rev. Marsh, who conducted the service, and sweet hymns were sung appropriate to the death of a little child. After this the little casket, covered with wreaths, crosses and beauteous flowers, was carried to the hearse, and many mourners followed it to Fairview cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Davis, of Las Vegas, the latter a sister of Mr. Bleyster, came in last night, and attended the funeral and burial of their nephew this afternoon.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

OF REPUBLICANS HELD AT LAS CRUCES ON TUESDAY.

In the district convention of republicans held at Las Cruces on Tuesday the following legislative ticket was nominated: For the council from Dona Ana, Grant, Otero and Luna counties, Charles E. Miller of Anthony; for member of the house from Dona Ana, Grant, Otero and Luna counties, James W. Hannigan of Deming; for the council from Dona Ana, Grant, Otero, Luna, Lincoln, Chaves, Eddy and Roosevelt counties, A. A. Temple of Deming.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Albuquerque to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. You know that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itching of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

"J. H. Cross, of 523 South First street, employed in the Santa Fe shops, in the mill department, says: 'Exposure and sitting on damp logs and cold stones while in the mountains some three months ago, brought on itching hemorrhoids. More or less they were called piles. While a severe and serious they were very annoying and I put off doing anything to get relief until compelled to. One evening I stepped into the Alameda Pharmacy and asked Mr. Briggs for something to bring relief. I finally decided on Doan's Ointment. The first application gave relief and in a short time I was practically cured. I have great confidence in this remedy for what it did for me. I never used anything which was so soothing and healing. I recommend it to others and know they will not be disappointed in the results if they give it a trial.'"

"THE MAN IN OVERALLS"

PRODUCED BY MARIE FOUNTAIN COMPANY LAST NIGHT—THE AMERICAN DRUMMER.

(From Thursday's Daily Citizen.) The clever specialties of Goldie Cole was the feature of the performance given at the Elks' opera house last night by Marie Fountain and her excellent company of dramatic performers. The announcement that the bill would be "The Man in Overalls" brought out an unusually large crowd.

Bobby Fountain in the leading role was a success. Miss Heimlich, as Polly Crawford, was equally as good as on the night previous, when she appeared as Polly West and captured the house in the role of a country school teacher.

"The Man in Overalls" is an interesting story of all that the title suggests. A young man of uncertain birth proves to be a genius, invents a machine which makes another man, who is his employer, rich; as superintendent of a large factory he is a friend of the laborers; he loves his employer's daughter, pleads his love, is lifted because of his lowly position, but he bears his burden heroically and in the end wins out, of course. The characters portrayed are very difficult, to say the least. There is little or no comedy and lots of grief. It shows the bright and the dark sides of life, with an overabundance of the latter. There is nothing about it so very impossible; just plain facts.

Tonight the bill is "The American Drummer," an Irish comedy-drama of four acts, and there will be lots of fun for the people who like to laugh.

SOCIALIST TICKET

The socialists of this city announce the following ticket:

For county surveyor, Anthony Delmer.

For vice commissioners, W. E. Kerr, J. E. Burnett, J. W. Weir, C. F. Allen, George J. Pearson.

War Makes Carpets Dearer.

New York, Oct. 27.—An advance in the price of carpets is expected in a few days as a direct result of the Russo-Japanese war. The war has forced the price of carpet wools so high that the manufacturers have been making goods at a loss for some time. Russia and China are the two great sources of supply for carpet wools. Both countries have been denuded practically of their supply. Russia has taken her own wool for clothing for her soldiers, and Japan has bought up all the available Chinese supply. What is left has advanced in price until it is almost on a level with the fine clothing wools, and in addition to this the increased valuation has put it into a class paying much higher duty.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Myrtle Allen, of Las Vegas, to Charles Julius Matheny, of Champaign, Illinois, at Champaign, Monday, of this week.

The heaviest frost of the season fell last night and all who had any house plants outside that were not protected have no doubt lost them. The leaves have commenced to fall very fast and soon winter will be here in earnest.

Solomon Spiegelberg, of Las Vegas, for nearly fifty years a resident of this city, is in town on a visit and can be found at the store of his son, A. E. Spiegelberg, on San Francisco street. He will remain here for a week or ten days and until A. E. Spiegelberg returns from Mexico, to which country he has gone on a purchasing trip. Captain Spiegelberg has many good friends here who are always glad to see him. He is very hale and hearty and does not seem to feel any older than he did twenty years ago, although he is over eighty years of age.

Meets in Springfield.

"Springfield, Ill., Oct. 27.—The Central Illinois Homeopathic Medical society held its twenty-second annual meeting in Springfield today, the sessions being held in the supreme court room of the state capital. The meeting was devoted entirely to the forum of medicine, of which Dr. W. E. Neidberger, of Bloomington, is chairman. The treatment of tuberculosis was one of the principal matters discussed.

A FISHY FISH STORY

BUT IT'S TRUE, AND CAN BE VERIFIED BY SEVERAL WITNESSES.

(From Thursday's Daily Citizen.) Trout are as plentiful in the Pecos valley as ordinary "cutters" back east, and it is seldom that the Advocate is called upon to chronicle anything new or strange in this line. Says the Artesian Advocate: This week we have a fish story just a little out of the ordinary, and it is published for what it is worth. A few days after the rains of last week, numbers of small fish appeared in the ditch supplied by the Artesian well of the C. A. P. Land & Cattle company, east of town, and Mr. Cecil declared they came from the well. The gentleman's veracity could not be questioned, but still folks were inclined to be skeptical. But Mr. Cecil's word was corroborated Monday. The big flow of water was struck in Harry Hamilton's well that afternoon. The rotary was stopped and while Billie Swearngen and assistants, together with his wife and his father, were watching the water pour out at the top of the casing, a smelt trout was thrown out with the spray from the floor of the derrick. It was immediately captured and brought to town by Mr. Swearngen. The well was 375 feet deep and the drill bit had but recently penetrated to the subterranean river. The Advocate has no opinion to give on this fish story. It is just a simple fact that can be substantiated. The fish was not blind, as might be supposed, but looked like the ordinary fresh water trout, and probably went down into the big river below from North Spring river, above Roswell—that stream unquestionably being supplied from the same great fountain head that gives Artesian water to the lower valley.

NEW YORK'S GREAT SUBWAY.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Rapid Transit railroad, the subway, as it is popularly known, and the most colossal undertaking of its kind in the world's history, was formally opened today with imposing ceremonies. The ceremony took place under the joint auspices of the Interborough company and the board of aldermen. In City Hall park, where the greatest subway terminal is located, and where the principal ceremonies of the day took place shortly before noon. The park and City hall were lavishly decorated.

Bishop Potter opened the ceremony with prayer, and was followed by an address by Alexander E. Orr, president of the Rapid Transit company, who turned the subway over to the city. Mayor McCallan accepted the transit, and then tapped the road over to August Belmont, president of the Interborough company, who also made a brief address. Archbishop Farley closed the ceremonies.

At 1 o'clock the first train was started over the road, operated by Mayor McCallan in person. Bands of music were stationed at all the principal stops along the route. Included among the passengers on the first train were the city officials, officials of the Interborough company, a large party of distinguished newsmen, and other invited guests. Promptly at midnight tonight the road will be opened to the general public. That part of the road that will be operated for the present includes the whole of the main line from City Hall park to the Harlem river on the upper west side. It is expected to have the entire west side line opened to traffic within a month or so and also the east side branch to the Bronx.

The great subway opened today consists of 21 miles of railroad under the city's existing streets. The actual work of construction has taken just four years, and the cost has exceeded $50,000,000. When the entire system is completed it will enable one to travel from the limits of Brooklyn to the northernmost end of Manhattan entirely under ground.

A dazzling array of facts and figures tell the story of the building of the mammoth underground road. For instance, more than 3,000,000 cubic yards of dirt and rock were blasted and dug from the streets of the crowded city. To tear away the rock 90,000 pounds of dynamite were used. Eleven thousand men were employed in the work, and of this number several hundred lost their lives through accidents, premature explosions, cave-ins and falling rock.

It is estimated that the road will carry 115,000,000 passengers a year. The fare is 5 cents. When the extension to Brooklyn, under the East river, has been completed, it is estimated that the road will carry 200,000,000 passengers a year.

Express trains will run through the subway at the rate of a mile a minute for the benefit of the local bus lines from the Bronx to the limited sections of the city below Fourteenth street. Local trains will stop at all of the underground stations, every half dozen blocks along the route. The tunnel is ventilated by a system of electric fans and illuminated the entire route by incandescent lights.

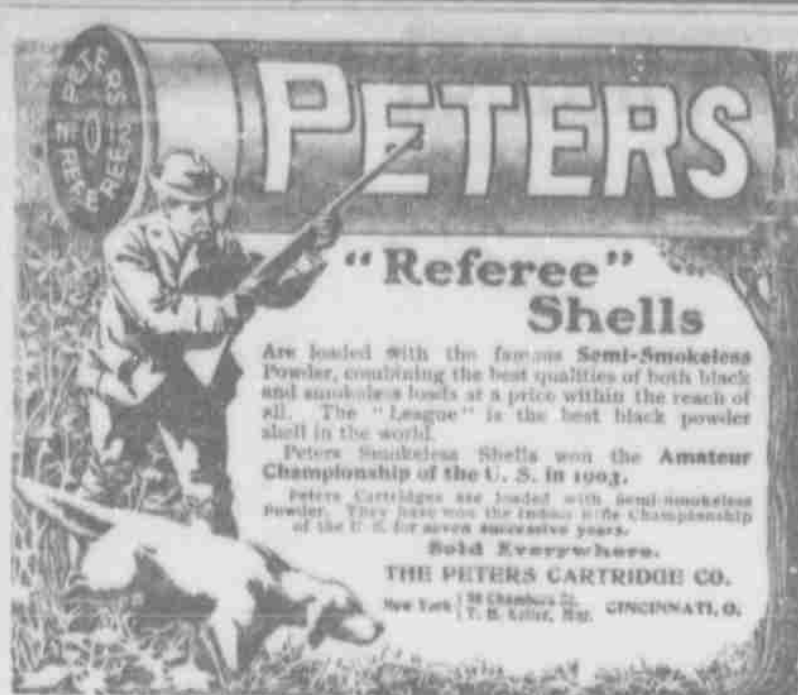

A trip through the great tunnel is all that is necessary to convince one of its entire security. White enamel bricks wall up the sides to a bristling arch overhead. Everything else is of stone and steel, and heavy plate glass at the stations to let the light in from the street overhead. It would seem impossible for a disaster to occur where everything is new and strong and perfect, apparently, as it is within the power of man to construct.

The town of Wilcox. It is said choice cuts of beef sell at ten cents a pound in Wilcox, Arizona. The reason for cheap choice beef at Wilcox are that the town is located near Paradise and Tombstone. In commenting on the subject, however, the Lordsburg Liberal makes this suggestion:

"Wilcox is forty-two miles north-west of Paradise, thirty-eight miles a little east of north from Tombstone. It is possible it was a little farther from Tombstone, and a little nearer Paradise, beef might sell for eight cents."

Campaigning Down South. Judge A. L. Morrison left Socorro Sunday morning for the southern part of the territory where republican meetings will be held and speeches made by him. Before returning he will visit Hillsboro, Kingman, Deming and Lordsburg, and probably Silver City. If rail communication is established to the latter town within the next few days.

H. R. Nicholson, vice president of the Mexican Central, with headquarters in New York City, has gone to Mexico City on official railroad business.

RATON.

From the Range.

Miss Essie and Elva Stevens are at home again after a several weeks sojourn in St. Louis and vicinity.

Mrs. Charles Bruner, of Lugansport, Ind., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McMath, have arrived and will spend about three weeks at the Model Dairy ranch.

Mrs. M. M. Myers, a former resident of Raton, spent several days here the guest of Mrs. Durand. She was on her way to Pueblo, where Mr. Myers is now located.

The first snow of the season visited this portion of New Mexico last Tuesday morning. It was simply a breath from the north and did not last long, but was a gentle reminder to the average citizen that it is time to prepare for the rapidly nearing cold season.

County Commissioner E. N. Birch, of Johnson Mesa, was in the city Saturday. He reports a deplorable condition as a result of the recent unprecedented rains. The hay crop is practically ruined, potatoes are rotting in the ground and the range is in a sad state.

From the Reporter.

Mrs. H. L. Bonner has returned from a few days spent at Las Vegas with Mrs. John Finley.

James and Thomas Miller went to Topeka in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of their father.

J. B. Thomas, engineer, returned from St. Louis last Saturday, accompanied by his brother, W. C. Thomas, and wife, whose home is in Winslow, Arizona. They visited in Raton until Monday, when they proceeded on their journey home.

Rev. and Mrs. Armstrong were tendered a farewell reception at the Methodist church Wednesday night, when a host of sorrowful friends had assembled to say farewell to this much-beloved pastor and his wife. They left Friday night, Rev. Armstrong going to Dalhart, Texas, where his duties as an evangelist call him, while Mrs. Armstrong went to Baldwin, Kansas, to be with her daughters, who are attending school at that place.

Sanitary Precautions Needed.

The people of Lordsburg used to have sympathy with the people of Clinton and Moriame when they were suffering from typhoid fever, but they are getting hardened to their troubles. If the camps were examined by scientific men, who make a business of looking after the public health, the source of this disease could soon be ascertained, and the disease eradicated. When, however, the chief men in the Arizona Copper company, the physician in charge of the Detroit Copper company, the cashier and manager of one of the leading banks, as well as other prominent citizens, suffer from this disease, why should outsiders mourn because the men in charge of the camp will not take the proper sanitary precautions?—Lordsburg Liberal.

Injunction Steps Building in Street.

A dispatch from Santa Fe to the Denver Republican, dated October 24, says:

Judge John R. McPhee, upon application by the city of Santa Fe, has granted an injunction against Luis M. Ortiz, ordering him to suspend building operations upon a structure which he was erecting across the proposed extension of Gallatin street.

Three Sundays ago the city attempted to open the street across the property of Ortiz, but all those who participated in the work were arrested on a charge of violating the Sunday law, as an injunction issued on Sunday would have been against the city. Since then Ortiz had been pushing work on the structure which he is constructing on his lot facing the street.

The Town of Wilcox.

It is said choice cuts of beef sell at ten cents a pound in Wilcox, Arizona. The reason for cheap choice beef at Wilcox are that the town is located near Paradise and Tombstone. In commenting on the subject, however, the Lordsburg Liberal makes this suggestion:

"Wilcox is forty-two miles north-west of Paradise, thirty-eight miles a little east of north from Tombstone. It is possible it was a little farther from Tombstone, and a little nearer Paradise, beef might sell for eight cents."

Campaigning Down South.

Judge A. L. Morrison left Socorro Sunday morning for the southern part of the territory where republican meetings will be held and speeches made by him. Before returning he will visit Hillsboro, Kingman, Deming and Lordsburg, and probably Silver City. If rail communication is established to the latter town within the next few days.

PARKER-DAVIS NUPTIALS YESTERDAY

(From Thursday's Daily Citizen.) A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Holy Faith at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at Santa Fe, when Associate Justice Frank Wilson Parker, of Las Cruces, and Miss Anna Davis, of Santa Fe, plighted their troth.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Dye, in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties from town and abroad. The church was decorated in white and gold, white and yellow, chrysanthemums predominating and the altar was draped in the same colors. The bride was charmingly attired in white crystal crepe, made over cream tulle, trimmed with chiffon and pearl ornaments, and wore a picture hat to match. There were no bridesmaids; the groom was attended by Dr. J. A. Manate. The ushers were J. Howard Vaughn, W. G. Sargent and Morgan O. Lowinsky.

After the ceremony was concluded there was no reception but an informal wedding supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan G. Kennedy, with whom the bride made her home. Only the intimate friends of the bride couple were present.

Last evening Judge and Mrs. Parker left on their honeymoon tour to be absent about a month. They will first visit the "rubies" former home in Michigan and then several of the eastern cities, taking in the exposition at St. Louis on their return trip. They will make their future home at Las Cruces, which is the headquarters to the Third judicial district, of which the groom is the presiding judge.

The bride, who has been for several years a resident of Santa Fe, leaving her home with her sister, Mrs. Allan G. Kennedy, is very popular in social circles, and is a charming young woman of attractive personality and many attainments who will be greatly missed by her many friends when she takes up her residence in Las Cruces. She does not, however, go to that city as a stranger, as she formerly resided there and also at Hillsboro, before coming to Santa Fe.

Judge Parker is too well known throughout the territory for much to be said concerning him. This is his eighth year as a member of the supreme bench of the territory, and for over twenty years he has been a resident of New Mexico. He is held in the highest esteem by his colleagues on the bench and he enjoys the respect, good will and friendship of the New Mexico bar and of all the citizens of the territory who have the good fortune to know him, in a remarkable degree. He is properly classed among the best and leading citizens of the territory and has done much for its benefit and progress in a material way as well as for its elevation and advancement from a moral and judicial standpoint.

The sisters and best wishes of their many friends throughout the territory will accompany Judge and Mrs. Parker through their journey of life henceforth. May this be happy, long and prosperous.

Among those from out of town who attended the nuptials were Chief Justice W. J. Mills, of Las Vegas; H. R. Holt, Nicholas Gules and Eugene Van Patten, of Las Cruces.

Marriages at Carlsbad.

Miss Ethel Little, of this city, and R. F. Baird, formerly of Wagoner, Indian Territory, were united in marriage last evening by Rev. R. L. Woods, pastor of the Baptist church. On account of the recent illness of the bride's brother and with a cousin still confined to his bed with typhoid fever, the wedding was a quiet one, only a few of their most intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Baird will enter on the duties of housekeeping in this city, where they will remain during the winter.

Thursday morning, when Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Knox left for a short trip to St. Louis, they were met at the depot by a large company of their friends, from whom they received congratulations and best wishes, supplemented by a superabundance of rice, old shoes and streamers of ribbon. Their clothes, pockets and grime were filled with the crowd. Large placards attached to the grips and suspended in the car were calculated to enlighten the casual observer that a wedding ceremony had recently been performed. It is very probable that the newly-wedded couple felt relieved when the train moved away and broadened the distance between them and their tormentors.—Carlsbad Argus.

ROBWEEL MILITIA.

Captain Calfee Secures Consent of Adjutant for Equipment.

Edgar Calfee returned to Roswell from a trip to Santa Fe and Albuquerque, says the Record. Mr. Calfee went to Santa Fe to see Adjutant General Whitman in regard to the equipment for the Roswell militia. Mr. Whitman consented and the arms and supplies will arrive as soon as arrangements can be made with the railroads for free transportation. It is the intention of Mr. Calfee to make the Roswell militia one of the best in the west. He will give much of his time and attention to the drilling. Mr. Calfee is a man of affairs, and when he undertakes anything he always brings it to a successful termination.

Heavy Individual Loner.

The heaviest individual loner from the Roswell in New Mexico was M. W. Mills, of Springer, whose big Red river orchard was almost entirely swept away, and whose eight-mile irrigating ditch, costing $10,000 to build, was totally destroyed. His loss is estimated at fully $20,000.

CAMPAGNING AT LAS VEGAS

SENATOR ANDREWS AND PARTY GIVEN A BIG OVATION AT LAS VEGAS.

Special Correspondence.

Las Vegas, Oct. 25.—Senator William H. Andrews, republican candidate for delegate to congress, invaded George P. Money's home country today, in one of the most stirring mass meetings ever held in this section of the country.

Twenty-two hundred citizens of Las Vegas gathered in the west side court house this evening, and packed the room almost to suffocation. Mr. Money undoubtedly has many loyal supporters among his friends in his own city, but the rally was purely republican, showing conclusively that San Miguel county will be for Senator Andrews when the votes are counted the night of November 5.

Governor Otero was unable to be present, having been called back to Santa Fe by the death of his friend and colleague, Attorney General Bartlett. The balance of the party entered the room from the private car at 8 o'clock, and with the Santa Fe band heading the procession, proceeded to the place of meeting. Several hundred persons formed in line behind the carriages as an escort of honor to Senator Andrews.

When the court house was reached the room was found to be so crowded that it was necessary to clear a passageway before the platform could be reached. The stairs were jammed by eager listeners anxious to reach a position closer to the speakers.

A delegation of Mora county republicans, who were advised before the arrival of the campaigning party that Mora could not be visited owing to the impossible condition of the roads, drove overland to attend the rally. Everybody was in the best of humor, no one failing to participate in the continuous ovations rendered the candidate.

The meeting was opened by Bernardino Romero, who in a few words introduced Captain D. J. Leahy, who was in turn to introduce Senator Andrews. Mr. Leahy told the people of Las Vegas how he had been a delegate to the Albuquerque convention. He explained that he was one of the office holders mentioned by Mr. Leahy who had been a party to the proceedings incident to the nomination. "That I was an administration appointee," said the speaker, "who voted for Mr. Leahy, and there were twenty more besides me." Mr. Leahy in his statement evidently forgot that many of the office holders voted for him as well as Senator Andrews. He also forgot that leaving off all previous and official votes, that Mr. Andrews still had a majority in the convention. This shows conclusively that Senator Andrews is the choice of the people and as such will have my support no matter what foolish scheme Mr. Leahy or others of the same caliber may see fit to take.

"Gentlemen, I present to you the Hon. William H. Andrews, the man who built the Santa Fe Central, is building the Albuquerque, Elcamo, and will soon start work on other extensions which will make the progress of New Mexico possible in comparison with other states and territories."

All shout for Andrews. When Senator Andrews arose he was received with an enthusiasm that rivaled that of Las Cruces, Taos and Tierra Amarilla. Several moments elapsed before the speaker started on his usual short, pointed speech. The very brevity of the speech made the candidate more popular with his friends in the audience. Senator Andrews spoke for less than five minutes. He touched on what was mainly needed for New Mexico, railroads and irrigation. He told what could be expected from him and left the balance with the voters.

Indio A. J. Alford of Santa Fe, was called on by Chairman Romero and responded with a few reasons why Senator Andrews should have the votes of San Miguel county. He showed what had been done would be done and could be done by Senator Andrews in comparison to the doubtful record of the opposing candidate, who would be handicapped in congress by being a member of the minority with practically no experience.

Judge Abbott then entered into a very thorough and able discussion of territorial affairs. This well known speaker showed in the absence of Governor Otero how that executive had ably managed the business of New Mexico, financially and otherwise. Judge Abbott closed with a citation of the difference between general conditions under republican and democratic administrations, and pointed out the impossibility of the democratic platform.

George B. Klock, the man who nominated Bernard S. Rodey in the Albuquerque convention with an eloquent speech, told the voters that when a man is defeated in a convention that he is not a candidate of the party, but should take off his coat and work for the choice of the people, even although it may be a certain extent be a trifling matter. Mr. Klock at Albuquerque worked hard for Rodey's renomination, but he could not see why he should support an independent movement when the majority of the convention desired another candidate. "I am a republican," shouted the Albuquerque attorney, "and believe in supporting the straight republican ticket. We nominate our candidates in our convention. After the convention we should all work in unison for the nominee." Mr. Klock then devoted a few moments to national questions, ending with an eloquent plea for a heavy republican vote in San Miguel county for Senator Andrews in November.

Independents for Andrews. Calls were heard at the conclusion of Mr. Klock's address for Marcelino Martinez, who was present, lending his support to Senator Andrews. Mr. Martinez, up to a few days ago was one of the strongest supporters of the independent ticket. When his party endeavored to supplement the name of Senator Andrews for that of Rodey, Mr. Martinez decided that he would take no chances on such an action, and in the future would support regular tickets.

The former advocate of the independent ticket arose and briefly stated his position: "I will not support Rodey in place of the regular republican nominee," he explained. "I have withdrawn from the independent party in this county with many others, and we are now heart and soul with you."

Bernalillo County Man Speaks. In George W. Harrison, of Albuquerque, a member of that city's council, one of the delegates to the convention, and an appointee of Governor Otero, was called on for an impromptu talk. Dr. Harrison spoke briefly, but decidedly to the point. "I voted for Rodey in the territorial convention, was an appointee of Governor Otero at the same time. I do not believe in holding the ticket for such reasons as has evidently led Mr. Rodey to do such an injustice to the party that has twice honored him with the highest position New Mexico can give. He is not only hurting the republican party, but also himself. Such methods cannot receive the support of the honest republicans. Tonight I am attending an Andrews meeting and assisting to my limited extent. This should in itself show my position."

Money, Rodey and democrats and independents in general received a general rippling up the back when Eusebio Romero, at the request of Senator Andrews spoke for only a few moments. If Mr. Romero has anything to do with conditions in San Miguel county, which fact cannot be disputed, no independent candidate, nor democrat will receive the slightest consideration.

The chairman then closed the meeting at midnight, thanking the audience for its attentiveness and requesting the vote of every man present for Senator Andrews.

Several hundred then advanced to meet the candidate personally after which the party adjourned to the private car to secure a little rest before leaving for the Raton meeting. The Santa Fe railway has agreed to allow the campaigning party the use of its tracks until election day, and the party in the future will not be obliged to await the arrival of regular trains, to which the coaches have been attached for the last few days.

SCHAUB, THE PITCHER HE WAS HERE WITH THE GALUP TEAM, BUT HIS SUPPORT WAS WRECKED.

(From Saturday's Daily Citizen.) Probably the best pitcher with any team at the fair tournament was Schaub, who officiated in the box for the Gallup aggregation, but as no one player can win a game, his team suffered three defeats. Schaub came from Ottumwa, Iowa, pitching for the Ottumwa team in the Iowa league. The Daily Courier of that city has this to say of his record:

"Schaub has the distinction of striking out a larger number of players in any one game than any competing pitcher in the league. Sixteen Waterloo players and a like number of Ft. Dodge men went to their waywardness in their first encounter with Schaub early in the season. Then upon May 25 at Burlington he shut out the Flint hitters of that city, allowing not a single man to hit safely in one hour and twenty minutes of play. He allowed but three men to reach first base. Two of these died at that station, while the other was caught stealing second. This feat was only equaled by Pitcher Melanson of the Burlington club, who on the following day held the heavy hitting Stand-Patters down to neither a hit nor a run. In the twenty-nine contests in which he pitched, Schaub struck out 238 men. And on numerous occasions he did perform the remarkable trick of striking out three men in an inning. Schaub's career was the most puzzling of his opponents had to face. He masters a slow drop that invariably mystifies the batter, while his unusual speed has caused many a reliable pitcher to fall miserably in a meeting with the ball.

Louis Schaub will wear a Denver Western league uniform next season, having been sold to that club by Manager Kennedy.

After Scalpers' Scalps. The railroads of the United States are making an effort to have passed a law at the next session of congress which will make the business of ticket scalping impossible.

The railroads want a law making the offense of manipulating railway tickets as great as the offense of manipulating United States bank

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. It is a new discovery representing the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. B. B. Bell of Greenwood, Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for several years. Kodol cured me and I am now using it for my wife."

Kodol Digests What You Eat. Bottles only $1.00. Size bottle 2 1/2 times the usual size. Write for 10 cents. Prepared by E. G. DAVITT & CO., CHICAGO. For sale by B. H. BRYAN & CO., and R. VAN & SON.

notes. With this object in view all the principal railroads in the country have submitted to the interstate commerce commission specimens of manipulated tickets which have been presented for passage on the trains, some of which were honored before it was discovered that they were bogus, and others which were detected before the passenger had gotten the use of them.

Upon the showing which is made before the interstate commerce commission it is hoped that that body will recommend to congress the advisability of such a law. At the same time the conditions are being pointed out to congressmen in all parts of the country by the representatives of the railroads. It is their hope that the congressmen will be so impressed with the showing which is being made to them that they will give the railroads the legislation desired.

The railroads are not asking for a law to prevent the transferring of local one way tickets. They want a law which makes it unlawful to manipulate tickets by ticket scalpers. The tales of ticket manipulation sound to the average person like fairy tales. But it is a fact that there is not a form of railway ticket which is completely beyond the reach of persons who wish to doctor it and make it good for passage to points not originally intended when the ticket was sold.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

ON THE DEATH OF C. B. HAWLEY BY DEGREE OF HONOR.

(From Saturday's Daily Citizen.) To the officers and members of Excelsior Lodge No. 1, Degree of Honor.

It is with unspeakable sorrow we, the committee appointed, draft the following resolutions on the death of our dearly beloved brother, C. B. Hawley.

Resolved, That his infinite judgment saw fit to remove from our midst one of the charter members, one who loved the Degree of Honor and had its interest at heart.

Resolved, That Excelsior lodge No. 1, extend to the bereaved son and daughter our heart felt sympathy in this, their hour of sorrow. We know not what it is, this sleep so deep, and still the folded hands, the awful calm, the cheek so pale and chill, the eyelids that will not lift again, though we may call and call, the strange white solitude of peace that settles over all.

The child who enters life comes not with knowledge or import, so those who enter death must go as little children went. Nothing is known but we believe that God is overhead, and as life is to the living, so death is to the dead.

RAILROAD NOTES

(From Saturday's Daily Citizen.) James J. Fox, the western freight agent of the New York Central lines, who was in New Mexico on business, has returned to his headquarters at Denver.

The railroads of the United States are making an effort to have passed a law at the next session of congress which will make the business of ticket scalping impossible.

A surveying outfit of the Southern Pacific were at St. Johns, Arizona, the first of the week. Solomon North took four of them to Navajo and the rest went on to Gallup across the country.

The P. and S. Southwestern pay car left a roll of very comfortable sleep in Albuquerque upon the occasion of its visit there Tuesday. All of $15,800 was disbursed among the employees having headquarters there.

The sudden activity and advance in the price of Rock Island shares is accounted for by the fact that former Judge Moore and his associates have again taken up the plan for a general financial reorganization of the entire system.

Misa Loma Barr, who recently resigned her position as a stenographer to the World's fair commission at St. Louis, is the guest of Agent J. R. Beam of the Santa Fe Central at Kennedy. Next week Misa Barr will open a stenography and typewriting office in Santa Fe.

Officials of the western roads say that the traffic conditions continue to improve. Shipments of all kinds are gradually growing, and the demand for coal cars is becoming acute. The transportation of flour, general merchandise and wholesale dry goods has continued excessively large. Every day, it is said, brings a healthy shortage of cars in some sections.

The Santa Fe Central railway now has a through service without transfer. All washouts on the El Paso & Northwestern and Rock Island have been repaired, and through passenger and freight service has been resumed to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and the east; also to El Paso and California points west.

The Gallup Republican says: From all appearances the Santa Fe evidently considers the strike at an end. They have relieved all of their special officers who they had employed. John J. Howard, who has been acting in the capacity of special officer at Gallup, left for Winslow yesterday, where he will be stationed permanently. He informs us that he has gone into regular detective service for the company. He was the last of the special officers to be relieved.

A number of mine owners of Chino, Arizona, are said to have offered to repair the breaks in the Arizona & Utah railroad and put it in first class operating shape, provided they are allowed to reimburse themselves out of freight tolls, says the Kingman Miner. The Samson company has two cars of machinery in the Kingman yards awaiting shipment to Chino and several cars of ore at the Chino waiting shipment to the smelters. Other companies are in a like condition.

A work train and a large gang of Mexican laborers are at work filling in the numerous washed out sections of the railroad in the canyon south of Kingman and raising the track to its old level. Another gang is at work blasting down the big cliffs to the east of the track in the canyon, the rock to be used for rip-rapping the water side of the embankment.

In the canyon. Practically the whole of the washed out sections of track near Kingman have been put back in thorough repair, and within a few weeks the roadbed will be thoroughly aired.

TRINIDAD LOSES.

Santa Fe to Use Hotel for Depot, and Build Hotel at Raton.

The Trinidad Chronicle-News says: Since the food there has been a persistent rumor to the effect that the Santa Fe officials are contemplating moving the Cardenas hotel fixtures to a new building which the Harvey system will erect at Raton and will use the present hotel building for a railroad station and that the old station will not be rebuilt.

An official high in authority stated in regard to this that no action had been taken at all towards a permanent settlement of the affairs here, and that nothing would be done until after the road is opened up and the washouts are made good along the line. He said that so far as he knew there was nothing in the rumor.

The fact remains, however, that the temporary track which was built around the old station has been strengthened and the curve made perfect, and it now has a look of permanency. Apparently nothing has been done towards replacing the ground eaten by the flood. The ticket agent was this morning installed in the Cardenas hotel, and the baggage room will be in the laundry for the present.

The Harvey people have complained since the establishment of the hotel here that it has never paid, and that it would have been much better for them had they built the hotel at Raton. They have had ample time to test whether or not the hotel at Trinidad will be a better paying proposition than it would be at Raton.

A rumor is current that W. C. Green, the Cananea copper king, and ex-Governor Murphy of Arizona, have either purchased or secured an option on the Sierra Madre railroad, running from El Paso into the Sierra Madre mountains in northern Mexico, and that they will make it a part of their proposed system to open the vast timber regions in northern Mexico by connecting it with the Green's Cananea line and with the Chihuahua & Pacific.

Ko Union Depot for Los Angeles. The Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Salt Lake & Los Angeles roads have agreed to disagree on the proposition of a union passenger station in Los Angeles, and as heretofore, each company will, for a number of years to come at least, maintain its own station. It is on this account that the Southern Pacific people have decided to tear down their present arcade station building and erect a new $250,000 structure. The old River station building is also to be torn down and a $50,000 three story structure put in its place. The Salt Lake & Los Angeles company has just won its suit for a depot site near First street and the river in Los Angeles, and will soon erect a large passenger station there. Plans for a $100,000 structure are being prepared at the instance of Senator W. A. Clark, president of the company.

A MORMON RAILWAY.

Concession Granted for a 1,500-Mile Line in Mexico. The following from the New York American and Journal is interesting if true, and shows what is said there:

"Through the agency of the Mormon people Mexico plans to open up the great fertile valleys between the Sierra Madre mountains and the Pacific coast. A concession for a railroad through this region has been granted, and Bishop W. Derby Johnson has resigned as an official of the church to manage the project in Mexico. John W. Young has charge of the New York end of the business, including the financing of the enterprise, which will require millions.

"While the Mormon church as an organization is not interested, it is known that its millionaires among the membership are heartily in favor of the new railroad. They expect to make a paying investment in it aside from the outlet it will give to the young men and women of their religion. More than 20,000 Mormons stand ready to take up their residence in the new country as soon as the way is opened, according to the statement yesterday of a banker interested. There is no idea of moving the head of the church from Utah.

"The new road is to be about 1,500 miles long, and will extend from Ciudad Juarez on the Rio Grande to near Guadalajara, where it will make connections for the City of Mexico over the National railroad of Mexico. The grant gives a monopoly of railroads along the Pacific coast, as it forbids the building of any other road within thirty miles of this one. To bar out other lines, this one is to hold out as to make another road an impossibility. Instead of diverting the main line for branches, branches are run off to them, thus simplifying the general scheme of building.

"No land goes with the concession, but the land is for sale at such low rates that colonists will have no difficulty in securing desirable sites for settlements. The building of the road is said, will be remarkably cheap, as it has no heavy grades to overcome. Most of the heavy work is in bridges.

"Bishop Johnson is now in Mexico arranging final details with the government, and the work is to be got under way in the near future. As the route would supplement the Salt Lake line there is a suspicion in many minds as to possible subterranean connections between the new enterprise and either the Harriman or the Gould group of roads."

PEARL SKINNER ALL RIGHT AGAIN

THE BALL, FIRED WITH SUICIDAL INTENT, FAILED TO REACH THE HEART.

(From Tuesday's Daily Citizen.)

Pearl Skinner, the printer, who two weeks ago attempted suicide by shooting himself in the breast, is again able to be out. The ball missed the heart about an inch and a half and furrowed through the body, lodging against the shoulder blade.

Skinner attempted to end his life while depressed because he had been unable to secure work and because of the prolonged illness of his mother. He is now exuberant and glad that he is alive. He left the hospital on Saturday of last week.

GREAT LOADS OF FREIGHT FOR ALBUQUERQUE

STUFF RELEASED BY CLOSING OF WASHOUTS HAVE BEGUN TO ARRIVE BY TRAIN LOADS.

Just at present the freight department of the local Santa Fe station is very busy handling the large amount of freight which has been released the past few days from places along the road, where it congested during the washout period, and has begun to arrive.

There is no place along the western lines of the Santa Fe Cat. road as much freight as does Albuquerque. There have been months that the freight charges for Albuquerque alone has reached the enormous sum of $200,000. This means a large number of cars each day, and now, considering that Albuquerque had no railroad communication for several weeks, the amount of freight arriving can easily be imagined.

The freight house force has been increased and the transfer companies are decidedly busy hauling goods and filling up emptied store houses and depleted stocks.

One wholesale liquor house yesterday used four horses and drove at a swinging trot, transferring goods from the depot to their place of business, so great was the rush.

SOCORRO MAN GAVE $40 FOR $10

DEPOT MASTER CURTIGHT MADE A LUCKY CAPTURE—CROOK RETURNS MONEY.

C. H. Ramsey, recently employed by the Santa Fe as an operator at Socorro, was the duck victim of a short change grafter at the Santa Fe station Saturday night. His losses were $30 in greenbacks. However, as a result of the quick work of Depot Master Curtright, Ramsey may get his greenbacks back.

Ramsey, with his wife, was en route east. They were about to take the train, when a very ordinary appearing young man appeared and asked for big bills in exchange for a bunch of smaller ones. The crook counted the change out before Ramsey's eyes, but the hand was quicker than the eye, and when Ramsey made a count of his money he had taken ten dollars for two twenty-dollar bills.

He complained to Officer Curtright, and a search resulted in the capture of the short change man, who gave his name as Haines. He gave up the thirty dollars, and pleaded for mercy but the law must take its course. In Judge Crawford's court this morning, Haines waived preliminary hearing, and was bound over to the grand jury under $250 bonds.

PEACE TO HIS ASHES

FUNERAL AND BURIAL OF GEN. BARTLETT AT SANTA FE YESTERDAY.

(From Monday's Daily Citizen.)

The remains of E. L. Bartlett, the late soldier general of New Mexico, were laid to rest in Fairview cemetery at Santa Fe Sunday, with profound respect and with the honor due his official dignity.

The funeral services were in charge of the Grand Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of New Mexico, and Knights Templar in large number from various parts of the territory were present.

The initial services were held at the territorial capital and thousands of friends and curious people followed the remains through the city and to the cemetery.

A song and prayer service was held at the Episcopal church, Rev. W. R. Dye officiating.

Grand Commander C. N. Blackwell of Raton pronounced the ritual service of the order. The assemblage sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the earthly career of the late General Bartlett was at an end.

The Grand Lodge and Knights Templar present were: C. N. Blackwell and J. T. Donovan of Raton; Alex. Stevens, Arthur Everett, W. J. Cardwell, Jas. Wilkinson, J. C. Fenger, W. F. Fox, E. B. Harsch and A. A. Keen of Albuquerque; William Connell, of Grant Beach, Kansas, and the whole of the Masonic order of Santa Fe.

Besides the judiciary and members of the bar, the territorial officials were represented by Governor Otero, Secretary J. W. Reynolds, Treasurer J. H. Vaughn, Auditor W. O. Sargent, Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Franco Chavez, Traveling Auditor Charles V. Safford and others. The military, by Adjutant General W. H. Whitman, Lieutenant Manuel R. Otero and officers of Company F.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectively and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given to children with confidence. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

Willing to Give Up.

The beggar approached the bald-headed man who was enjoying his after dinner cigar on the veranda.

"Please, sir," said the mendicant, "have you a copper to spare?"

"Sure," replied the man behind the door. "You'll find him on the back porch making love to the cook."

Big Poultry Show Opens.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 24.—The poultry department at the World's fair, for which extensive preparations have been going on for many months, opened today in the live stock section, and will continue until the second week in November. The show is the largest in number and variety of birds exhibited ever seen, surpassing the great London exhibition of 1901.

The exhibits amount to over 9,000, representing directly forty-one states and territories in the United States, and six foreign countries.

Where Money Talks.

"I am a poor man," he began, "but if the devotion of a true and loving heart goes for anything with you, I—"

"Oh, it goes with me all right," interrupted the fair but practical maid, "but I'm afraid it won't go with the grocer and the butcher."

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills?

For answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take, and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

Arkansas 1, O. O. F.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Oct. 24.—The familiar insignia of the three links is much in evidence about the streets today and throngs of visitors are in town for the annual session of the Arkansas grand lodge, I. O. O. F.

Two sessions of the grand lodge were held today, and there was also a meeting to arrange the program for the state Rebekah assembly, which begins tomorrow. The Odd Fellows will parade tomorrow, and later there will be a welcoming demonstration in the Elks' theatre. The sessions will continue through the greater part of the week.

Head Head is an emblem of the scalp—very severe sometimes, but it can be cured. Don't's Ointment, quick and permanent in its results. At any drug store, 50c.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

A girl's red hair gets very much more golden when you fall in love with her.

It makes a woman a-fair nervous to think how nervous she would be if a button came off.

The more will power a man has the less he tries to convince his wife of anything he knows is right.

Even Christian Science can't fool a woman into thinking green apple candy hasn't a stronger grip on a boy than any other influence.

The satisfaction a woman gets out of her husband not being a genius is it makes it sure for their boy, because it never strikes twice in the same family.—New York Press.

Broke Into His House.

S. LeQuinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure. 25c. at any drug store.

Medal for Carnegie.

New York, Oct. 24.—Andrew Carnegie is to be highly honored at the meeting of the British Iron and Steel Institute, which began a three day session at the new Hotel Astor today. Mr. Carnegie will be presented with the Bessemer gold medal in recognition of his services to the iron and steel industry of the world. The Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Salve, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size. Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of absorbents in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhs, the proprietors of Ely's Cream Salve have issued a small pamphlet, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Salve. Price including the shipping tube is 5 cents. Be cautious to read. The liquid form contains the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

only other Americans who have received the medal are John Fritz, the pioneer steel man of Bethlehem, Pa.; Peter Cooper and Abram Hewitt of New York, and Alexander Holley, an eminent inventor and engineer.

Lee Newman Hurt.

Thursday Lee Newman met with an accident that will lay him up for a long time if it does not prove fatal. He was hauling logs for the Dennis Lumber company at Rhoades when the loaded wagon turned over and a projecting log struck him, knocking him from his horse; he was riding one of the wheel horses. He received a blow above the heart and three ribs were broken. Dr. Adams attended to the injured man and made him as comfortable as possible. J. R. Wright and Frank Leslie brought Mr. Newman to this place and he is at the residence of the latter, where everything is being done for his comfort.—Flagstaff Sun.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which evades plentifully in secret dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most violent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal with marvelous and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

Murderer Commits Suicide.

New York, Oct. 24.—Frank Gaston, the convicted murderer, who today was to have been sentenced to death, committed suicide by hanging in his cell during the night. Gaston shot and killed his wife last June and at the same time wounded his brother-in-law, Eric Johnson, and Miss Ellen Hanson.

For Over Sixty Years.

An old and well-tried remedy—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, always all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Taft On the Stump.

New York, Oct. 24.—With a speech in Brooklyn tonight Secretary Taft will inaugurate a week of activity on the stump. In addition to appearing in a number of smaller places, he will be heard during the week at mass meetings arranged for Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo.

Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives instant relief in all cases of cough, croup and is a gripe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heats and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Sold by B. W. Briggs & Co. and S. Vann & Son.

Mimbres River Valley Damaged.

The floods which came down the Mimbres river during the heavy rains were the largest ever known. Scarcely a rancher escaped without loss, but the people of the valley, with the indomitable energy which has always characterized them, went at once to work to repair the damage and save what they could from the wreckage. The principal loss was in growing crops, which were just maturing and ready for harvest.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christman, Texas, says: "I could get out because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery was dashed. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures what you eat and cures. Sold by B. W. Briggs & Co. and S. Vann & Son.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main St., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got for her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 50c. Sold by J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

MADE HIS ESCAPE.

THE LOVE AFFAIRS OF GEORGE LEWIS CAUSE HIM TO LEAVE TOWN BEFORE TWO DAYS—TOO MANY WIDOWS.

(From Tuesday's Daily Citizen.)

George Lewis was arrested Wednesday evening on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Anna Lawler, a woman he had been living with as his wife, and a peculiar state of affairs was developed by the arrest, says the Flagstaff Sun.

Lewis came here early in the year from Colorado and found work in the bicycle store of P. C. Ashton and afterwards he started a shop of his own, which he sold and purchased the Benate restaurant, which he conducted up to the present time.

A few months after he came here he was joined by a woman, whom he introduced as his wife, but under the

HOW TO GAIN FLESH

The life of food is the fat within it—the more fat the more real benefit from the food; that is why cod liver oil is a powerful builder of flesh.

Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil solves the problem of how to take cod liver oil. That is one reason why doctors have been prescribing Scott's Emulsion for all wasting diseases, coughs, colds and bronchitis for almost thirty years.

ANNUAL REPORT OF ARIZONA GOVERNOR

GAIN IN POPULATION IS SHOWN AND DEBT IS PAID OFF—PEOPLE DON'T WANT JOINT STATEHOOD.

The annual report of the governor of Arizona to the secretary of the interior says the territorial population has increased considerably and that the total population is now between 165,000 and 170,000.

It expresses a desire on the part of the people of Arizona for statehood, but says that "finding themselves confronted with a plan to unite their territory with New Mexico, the people of Arizona have protested vigorously and will continue to do so until they have defeated this repugnant scheme. They would desire that their commonwealth remain a territory indefinitely rather than to be joined with New Mexico."

The governor adds his belief that the merger would not be acceptable to the people of either territory. The report says that the floating indebtedness of Arizona, which on June 30, 1902, was $92,341, has been wiped out and a balance of $20,449 remained in the general fund at the close of the last fiscal year.

The taxable property in the territory has gained $1,081,805 during the year. The total taxable property of the various counties is $45,069,545. Substantial progress in other directions is reported.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawdell, of Hartford, Conn. "Recently a gentleman came into my store to overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy, which helped him. I repeated the dose, and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." For sale by all druggists.

Made a Home Run.

It was exactly at 11:45 p. m. by the clock.

"Speaking of base ball, Mr. DeBorum," she said between yawns, "there is a shortstop in each nine, isn't there?"

"Sure, Miss Higgins," he replied. "And there is a longstop, also," she asked.

"No, of course not," he answered. "Well, it's a pity there isn't," she continued, "for if there were every club in the league would be willing for your services."

Shortly after he crossed the home plate.

Cures Chills and Fever.

G. Wirt, Naconogoches, Texas, says: "My daughter had chills and fever for three years; he could not find anything to help her till he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it." 50c. Sold by J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

MADE HIS ESCAPE.

THE LOVE AFFAIRS OF GEORGE LEWIS CAUSE HIM TO LEAVE TOWN BEFORE TWO DAYS—TOO MANY WIDOWS.

(From Tuesday's Daily Citizen.)

George Lewis was arrested Wednesday evening on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Anna Lawler, a woman he had been living with as his wife, and a peculiar state of affairs was developed by the arrest, says the Flagstaff Sun.

Lewis came here early in the year from Colorado and found work in the bicycle store of P. C. Ashton and afterwards he started a shop of his own, which he sold and purchased the Benate restaurant, which he conducted up to the present time.

A few months after he came here he was joined by a woman, whom he introduced as his wife, but under the present developments proved that she was not. She was then and now Mrs. Anna Lawler, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, where she has two grown daughters and is possessed of considerable property.

Everything went well with the couple until a few weeks ago when Lewis met and courted a Mrs. Aurelia Benson, of Springfield, Mo., who was in Arizona for her health, and Lewis began to neglect his first love and finally persuaded her to leave for her Colorado home, but she was suspicious and only went to Winslow. Her suspicions were not without foundation, for the next train brought her rival for the affections of Lewis here.

Friends here sent word to Mrs. Lawler at Winslow and she returned to make it warm for Lewis, and his arrest followed.

The hearing was set for Thursday afternoon, but before the trial Lewis promised to marry Mrs. Lawler the next day and he was allowed to go on his own responsibility. During the night he changed his mind and left without leaving his address, and so far he has not been located.

Mrs. Benson says that she met Lewis several weeks ago and she liked him, and they were engaged to be married. She says she did not know that Lewis was tied up with another woman, and now, while she still loves him, she will have nothing to do with him.

Mrs. Lawler is still here and wants to see Lewis prosecuted and now believes that the time spent with him has been wasted, and regrets her actions, which have placed her in a questionable position with no hope of having Lewis marry her.

One of Many.

H. A. Tisdale, of Bursumont, S. C., suffered for twenty years with the plica. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ringworm, skin diseases, etc. Sold by B. W. Briggs & Co. and S. Vann & Son.

Gone on a Vacation.

B. S. Green, supervisor of the San Francisco mountains, Black Mesa and Grand canyon forest reserves, left Flagstaff on his annual vacation, which he will spend at his old home near Chicago, Ill. He will be absent for thirty days and will cast his vote for Roosevelt.

Mr. Green has been requested by Gifford Pinchot to deliver an address before the National Irrigation congress which meets in 32 Paso next month and he will probably accede to the request.

THE BEST DOCTOR.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Texas, writes, July 19th, 1899: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pains. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

NOW FOR FOOTBALL.

IRIDIRON ENTHUSIASTS THINK ALBUQUERQUE SHOULD HAVE A WINNING TEAM THIS SEASON.

(From Tuesday's Daily Citizen.)

The baseball season closed with the territorial fair tournament and the fans of Albuquerque have no reason to regret the result of the season's work.

The crispness of the air these cool mornings and the presence of frost in the low places reminds one that the season for football has arrived. Albuquerque led the southwest in baseball as it leads in everything else. Why shouldn't Albuquerque have the winning football team of New Mexico?

A gridiron enthusiast at the Alvarado last night recounted the material he had for a starter and the situation is really flattering. A suggestion was made that a meeting be called at the sporting goods store of Frank J. Houston some evening in the near future and plans for a campaign on the gridiron laid out. Frank Houston will most likely be selected as manager, and P. E. Montgomery, who is in the city for the winter, would be an available and a very acceptable coach. Mr. Montgomery holds from the Washington-Jefferson university, of Pennsylvania, where he coached the team of 1902-3 and 1903-4, the latter with great success. During this latter season the Washington-Jefferson team defeated the United States Naval academy aggregation, of Annapolis, by a score of 14 to 6.

Previous to going to Pennsylvania Mr. Montgomery coached with success the University of Illinois team.

Benson and Whitlock, former Washash college boys, who are here for the winter, the former at 190 pounds and the latter at 160, would make good tackle and end. Small is another college player in the city who is ready for a tackle over the pile. Small is from the University of California. Hewighe 180 pounds and is good at any place on the line.

The home-grown material we have are Hale, Wagener, Roy Stamm, Ward Anderson, Strangeness, Allen and Joe Scott. All of them have had some experience and are a husky lot, and with proper training would be a great bunch to go against.

The Tramp Question Solved.

A town in Kansas has solved the tramp question. The city council had a thousand meal tickets printed, good for one meal when signed by the marshal. They were promptly distributed among the women of the town and when a tramp calls he is given one. When the tramp calls to the marshal the latter promptly puts him to work on the street for a couple of hours to pay for the meal. The plan is working well.

A Woman Miner.

The familiar object on the streets of Tombstone during the last few days is a little brown woman with dress about the same color, and a man's hat. She is usually seen, guided by two men, her husband and her brother-in-law, and you would take the combination for poor Mexicans, but this little woman's check would be honored for $10,000 in ten seconds. She has handled three small mining propositions. One she located and sold, another she located and mined and sold the option, and another she sold on commission, and must be worth something like $25,000. All this reminds us that you can't always stir things up by their heels.—Prospector.
