THE SUBSTITUTE BILL
FOR MONTOYA AND CROLOTT

Measures on Dyke and River Matters, Drawn Up by Attorney Childers, at Request of the Albuquerque Delegation.

It enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico.

Section 1.—The several boards of county commissioners of the different counties of the first class in this territory may in their discretion levy an annual tax on all the taxable property located within five miles of both sides of any river running through such counties to any amount not exceeding two mills on each dollar of all property situated within said distance from such river at the assessed value thereof for the purpose of creating a fund out of which to construct and maintain dykes, dams, embankments and ditches, or such other structures as shall be deemed proper to prevent flood waters from damaging property or human lives within such counties; such tax to be assessed, levied and collected as other taxes are collected, when so collected to be known as a "county flood fund," and subject to disposition under provision of this act by the boards of county commissioners of said county.

Sec. 2.—The boards of county commissioners of said counties are hereby authorized and empowered to cause to be inspected and examined the streams and water courses in their counties where flood waters are accustomed or liable to cause damage to property or life, and for that purpose are authorized to appoint and employ a competent civil engineer.

And the said boards are further authorized to expend the fund created by this act, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in accordance with plans submitted by such engineer as hereinafter provided for the purpose of constructing and causing to be built such dykes, embankments, dams, ditches or other structures as may be necessary to control such flood waters, and to protect life and property in their said counties against loss and damage.

Sec. 3.—Said boards are hereby authorized in their discretion at any regular or special session to pass upon the necessity for doing any of the work provided for by this act, and may by order, upon the report of such engineer, select and locate sites, and cause to be built and constructed such dykes, embankments, dams, ditches or other structures as may be necessary to control such flood waters; the cost of which shall be paid out of the fund created by this act, and authorized to be assessed, levied and collected. All such work shall be done under the direction and supervision and control of the engineer authorized to be employed by said board.

Sec. 4.—All permanent improvement work authorized under provision of this act shall be let to contract after proper advertisement in the official newspaper of the county in which such work is to be done, so that bidders may have full opportunity to bid a said work. After such advertisement for not less than two weeks, the contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, and the said board shall require from the said bidder a bond and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of this contract, and a money shall be paid on such contract except upon approval by the board of county commissioners of the work done and upon the report of the civil engineer.

Sec. 5.—Upon approval of the work by said county commissioners and the ordering of the bill, for the same, the cost thereof shall be paid by warrant upon the treasurer and ex-officio collector of said counties drawn on said fund, and no warrant or voucher shall be drawn against such fund except for the purposes provided in this act.

Sec. 6.—Such boards of county commissioners, their agents and employees shall have free and unobstructed ingress and egress to any and all lands and premises necessary to carry out the provision of this act; be the same enclosed or otherwise, for the purpose of making preliminary surveys, locating sites, and shall not be liable to damages because of such entry except for wanton or malicious injury to such premises, or property; and said boards of county commissioners may cause such sites and the ground selected by them on which to erect or construct dykes, dams, embankments, ditches or other structures provided for by this act, to be condemned in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of property for public use, and the expense thereof including the value of the land so taken shall be paid out of the said fund.

Sec. 7.—Said boards of county commissioners in all cases when property or lives are threatened by sudden flood waters, and when such provision has already been made, are hereby authorized to summon and call out all the bodied male persons under the age of sixty years residing within the area heretofore prescribed, that is to say within five miles on each side of such stream or river, causing such flood, and require them to work for or to exceed five days during any calendar year when their services may be so needed; and persons having teams may also be summoned and required to appear with their teams for so many days as may be required, or so summoned may render the said services in person or he may furnish substitute or pay in cash the sum of $1.50 per day for each day's service rendered of him.

friends to "assist" at a drawing room concert, but her parents, who had never dreamed that her baby performance would be the herald of future greatness, and disappointed strongly of the idea of a professional career for their daughter, wrote to all their friends begging them "as a favor to stay away." The young girl, naturally chagrined but nothing daunted, sang her loudest and best to an audience of exactly two persons—an incident which often recalls today with much amusement.

The following year, at the age of sixteen, she married, and was now able to sing where and when she chose to her heart's content, deciding first to appear at Melbourne, her native city, from which she took her name. Melba, as Mme. Albani had been inspired to take her from Albany, where she had made her debut in public. Melba will be at the Elks opera house Friday night, February 17.

LEGISLATIVE RECEPTION AT EXECUTIVE MANSION

Since the beginning of the present administration in 1897 it has been the custom of Governor and Mrs. Otero to receive the members of the legislative assembly of New Mexico at some time during the deliberations of that body. Friday night was chosen as the occasion when the law makers should enjoy the hospitality of the executive mansion. It was an affair of state, brilliantly exclusive, with the beauty and civility of the territory splendidly represented. After a ride through the inclement night one became appreciative of the mansion's radiance. An atmosphere of the best cheer pervaded its bright reception halls. They were perfectly harmonized in a color scheme of red and green, a legion of incandescent red electric lamps blending their soft effulgence with the Echevarria carnations and the green smilax, artistically and effectively arranged throughout in great profusion.

Between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock the apartments were thronged. The faintest of refreshments were served. In the receiving line first were Governor and Mrs. Otero, Hon. John S. Clark, president of the council, Hon. Carl A. Dailies, president of the house, Hon. Solomon Luna, republican national committeeman for New Mexico, and Mrs. Luna. The governor and Mrs. Otero, and the receiving party were assisted by Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Bergore and Mrs. S. B. Davis of Las Vegas. Mrs. Arthur Seligman was ill, Mrs. N. B. Field of Albuquerque was detained by a delayed train and Miss Nina Otero was unavoidably detained at Denver or these ladies also could have been of the receiving party.

For Mrs. Otero the reception was another triumph added to a brilliant social career as the first lady of the territory. Those who were present pronounced the society event superb and elegant in every arrangement and detail, and one of the finest that has ever occurred in the interesting social history of New Mexico's capital.

Speaker Stubbs, of the lower house of the Kansas legislature, is not conventional. When a legislator rises the speaker does not say "The gentleman from so-and-so," but "What is it, Mr. Smith?"

Dr. F. W. Wood, physician at the Albuquerque Indian school, went to the Indian Pueblo of San Felipe this morning to attend some diphtheria cases. This disease has prevailed among the San Felipe for some time but only one death from it has been reported.

RAILROAD NOTES

(From Saturday's Daily Citizen.)
Ben Shoup, of the local Santa Fe office, is at the hospital suffering from typhoid fever.

Ben Williams, secret service agent for the Santa Fe, is spending a few days in Albuquerque on official business.

Five railroads are now being constructed across the Central American republics of Guatemala, Honduras, Costa Rica and Nicaragua. Each is planned to penetrate from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean.

William McPhee, a well-known railroad conductor, died at his home in El Paso Wednesday night. His funeral was held under the auspices of the Order of Railway Conductors, the Knights of Columbus and the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors.

Two Passenger Wrecks in a Day.
Passenger train No. 7, which passed through this city yesterday morning, was wrecked near Morieta. The tender jumped the track and several yards of track were torn up. The coaches were dished and several passengers were injured, none seriously.

The cause of the wreck is not known. Trains due here last night were delayed and did not arrive here until noon today.

Train No. 1 of Thursday night struck a broken rail near Klugman, Arizona, and went into the ditch. The coaches remained upright and miraculously passengers and trainmen escaped injury. Trains No. 2 and 4 due last night were delayed by this wreck and did not arrive until late this afternoon. This wreck was very similar to the wreck of No. 7, which occurred between Flagstaff and Williams a couple of weeks ago. The cause in this case was a broken rail.

What difference does it make to the people whether or not a railway employee is willing to work overtime in order to increase his wages? It is to the public that the railway employee owes his duty. It is to the public that the railway employee owes his duty. It is to the public that the railway employee owes his duty.

MESSRS. I. L. HIBBARD AND J. H. HITCHCOCK INSPECTING

Their New Duties and Divisions on the Santa Fe.

General Superintendent I. L. Hibbard and General Manager J. H. Hitchcock of the Santa Fe left Los Angeles the other night for the Valley division on a trip of inspection. Mr. Hibbard is out getting acquainted with the lines which come under his direction as general superintendent, and after going over the Valley lines will probably come east as far as Albuquerque, which is the eastern terminus of the coast line and Mr. Hitchcock's new territory.

Superintendent Hitchcock at San Francisco. The new division superintendent of the Los Angeles division of the Santa Fe, was at his office Wednesday at division headquarters in San Bernardino, and assumed charge. He took hold of the work just like a veteran, as was to be expected, for he is a thoroughly trained railroad man. No changes in the San Bernardino offices have as yet been announced, but few if any are expected.

Automobile Cars.

The Santa Fe railroad will shortly begin experimenting with automobile cars built to run on the railway tracks for inspection purposes.

Most of the inspection cars are provided with two seats. Officials may thus obtain an opportunity for closer observation on inspection tours than is possible from the windows of their private cars.

The disadvantage of a special train for close inspection is obvious. A special train has to maintain a regular schedule in order that it may reach the meeting point arranged with other trains. For this reason it is impossible for the officials to run slower if they so desire and they may not stop at out of the way places, even if they want to.

charge of both freight and passenger traffic, at a salary of $25,000 per annum, or $10,000 more a year than he received as freight traffic manager of the Santa Fe.

Several years ago, when C. H. Warren was practically a dictator on the Rock Island system, he offered Mr. Biddle the position of third vice president, in charge of freight traffic only. Mr. Biddle declined the offer because it did not give him jurisdiction over all traffic.

It has been an open secret in railroad circles that President Ripley was greatly incensed at the revelation before the interstate commerce commission of the relations which had existed for years between the railroad company and the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, particularly as to the payment of secret rebates on coal shipments. That the Santa Fe company would try to make a scapegoat of Mr. Biddle was generally expected.

While he assumed before the interstate commerce commission legal responsibility for the payment of the rebates, all railway men knew that at the time the contract for the rebates was made, Paul Morton was second vice president of the Santa Fe, in charge of all traffic, and that Mr. Biddle carried out orders issued by Mr. Morton on the most important traffic matters.

SHOPE TALKS OF BIG IMPROVEMENT

Superintendent D. A. Shope of Winslow, Arizona, who has entire supervision of the construction work of the lines west of Albuquerque of the Santa Fe arrived in El Paso and was interviewed by a News reporter stating that a few months ago he first took the Santa Fe line with the best road bed and facilities for handling traffic of any road in the west.

Mr. Shope says that the Santa Fe will expend large sums of money on improvements, such as altering grades, building cut-offs and in some few places changing the main line in Arizona and New Mexico so that the distance between Albuquerque and Los Angeles may be covered in much shorter time than at present.

The Santa Fe over the Continental divide and through the Frisco mountains will be made the best yet. This, Mr. Shope claims to have been made necessary by the keen competition for the California fruit traffic of which the Santa Fe has so far been able to hold the large share. Mr. Shope is of the opinion that the Santa Fe through freight service is shortly the best trans-continental service ever offered to shippers.

When the construction work is well under way the Santa Fe will give employment to a large number of new men. Quite a number will be expended on the Santa Fe branch from Albuquerque to El Paso. The damages from the recent floods will be repaired and such precautionary measures taken as will guard against a recurrence of the unfortunate as well as costly circumstances.

(From Tuesday's Daily Citizen.)
Engineer William Holmes has returned to Las Vegas from Lamy, having been relieved at the throttle on the mountain run by Engineer Melton Stewart.

Engineer Bert G. Lynch, who represents San Miguel county in the lower house of the territorial legislature, at Santa Fe, has introduced a bill, the title of which is an act to amend section 2132 of the Compiled Laws of 1897, relating to fire insurance companies.

According to the Colorado Springs Gazette, S. J. Lary, former traffic manager of the Short Line, is to be given one of the highest railroad positions in the United States. He is declared on good authority to be slated to succeed W. B. Biddle, traffic manager of the Santa Fe, whose resignation is now in the hands of President E. P. Ripley.

The Otero says it is said that not a colored porter would stir out of bed this morning in answer to the knock and entrance of the call boy for the train crew; consequently it was necessary to substitute brakemen for porters on the three passenger trains this morning, which had been detained here over night by the engine trouble. The four cars of No. 2 jumping the track this side of Morieta yesterday afternoon.

PUEBLO TO DENVER AND FROM NEWTON TO PARVELL

The Rock Island, another of the western railroads, makes a good showing, with 1,536 miles of track protected by the manual block system.

LA JUNTA SHOPS ABOUT DONE.

Banquet Will Be Held on Occasion of Formal Opening.

A meeting of the board of trade of La Junta was held primarily to make arrangements for a banquet to be given to Santa Fe officials on the occasion of the formal opening of the new shops. The officials declare the shops will be ready for business about February 15, but the banquet will not take place until about the 23d, the evening following the grand ball to be given by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. The banquet will take place at the Harvey house, and all the Santa Fe officials from the president down will be invited.

Blasting Export Rates.
Following the failure by traffic men of western and Gulf roads to reach an agreement on grain rates, the Missouri Pacific has announced the most radical reduction in tariffs to Gulf ports that has been made during the present struggle for export business.

It will reduce the rate on corn for export to the following basis per 100 pounds:
Omaha to New Mexico, 11 cents.
Kansas City to New Orleans, 10 cents.
Omaha to Memphis, 10 cents.
Omaha to Little Rock, 10 cents.
Omaha to St. Louis, 5 cents.

The normal rate from Omaha to New Orleans is 18 cents per 100 pounds on grain for export, and this reduction indicates that the lines to the Gulf are determined to maintain rates at least 45 cents lower than the rates to the lower Atlantic ports.

TEST NEW FIRE BOX.

Santa Fe Will Experiment with Invention of San Bernardino Man.

Engine 2115, equipped with Schuppert's novel design of a fire box, will be taken out next month some time by the Santa Fe and given a thorough test, says the San Bernardino Times-Index. The innovation in this box is that the flanges in the head sheets are turned toward the water, completely surrounding the rivets, instead of toward the fire, where one end of the rivet was exposed. It has been argued by engineers that the turning in of the flanges would make it impossible to walk the seams when the boiler got the least wrench in the box and began leaking. To this it is replied that there will be no trouble in walking the copper casings between the flanges, and that this will prove sufficient to stop any small leak which will be put through a rigorous test, and any possible defects will be quickly ascertained.

THE ELKS MEGAPHONE

MINSTRELS REHEARSING

Seymour Rice, the showman, gave the Elks' Megaphone minstrels their initial rehearsal last night. A large number were present, but not the whole party, according to the party. Mr. Rice explained the plans of the approaching function, and, if it is a success, it will be the biggest thing yet to come to Albuquerque in the way of an entertainment. It will be a musical treat, a side-splitting comedy, a thrilling melodrama and a menagerie of strange comes or anything else one may wish to call it, so it is good, and it will surely make a hit. The cast will be kept a secret as far as men can keep secrets, with the exception of the stars, the endmen. One of these will be United States Marshal C. M. Fowler, brother of Senator Fowler, of Ohio, and the other will be James McCarriston, the current all-star hit. Both of these gentlemen tip the scales at 300 pounds and both are able actors.

It is the plan of Mr. Rice to hold rehearsals every afternoon from now on until the date of the performance, February 20th.

Thousands of Bushels of Corn Spilled in Wreck in Atchison Yards.
Seven Missouri Pacific locomotives were put out of service and thousands of bushels of shelled corn scattered over the ground as the result of a wreck in Atchison, Kansas, Tuesday. An east bound freight heavily loaded with corn and pulled by a "battleship" was coming down Shannon hill into the Atchison yards. The engineer was unable to control the train, through failure of the air, and it coasted down the hill and crashed into a switch engine at the Central Branch shops. The colliding locomotives were badly wrecked, and the others, which stood at the end of a parallel track, were disabled so they had to go into the shops. No body was injured.

KANSAS TIRED OF THE LITIGATION.
The suit brought by the state of Kansas against the state of Colorado to procure the rights of the former to the section of the Arkansas river now appropriated by the Continental state may not continue much longer on the part of Kansas. A recent dispatch from Topeka says:
It has almost been decided that the Kansas legislature will not appropriate any money this year for the further prosecution of the Kansas-Colorado water suit. Governor Hoch failed to make any recommendations regarding an appropriation, and the members of the legislature in favor of spending any more money on the case are from the western portion of the state and are in the minority.
It was said that since the federal government had gotten into the case Kansas would better get out, as under the final settlement both states would be in all probability get a fair deal. The legislature argued that the present session can better keep its promises in the direction of economy by refusing to devote any more money to the water litigation.

The soothing influence of relief after suffering from itching piles, from eczema or any itches of the skin.
Makes one feel grateful to the remedy.
Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds.
Here's what one Albuquerque citizen says:
J. H. Cross, of 523 South First street, employed in the Santa Fe shops, in the mill department, says: "Exposure and sitting on damp logs and cold stones while in the mountains some three months ago brought on itching hemorrhoids. More common they are called piles. While not severe or serious they were very annoying and I put off doing anything to get relief until compelled to. One evening I stepped into the Alvarado Pharmacy and asked Mr. Briggs for something to bring relief. I finally applied on Doan's Ointment. The first application practically cured me. I have great confidence in this remedy for what it did for me. I never used anything which was so soothing and healing. I recommend it to others and know they will not be disappointed in the results if they give it a trial."

ON HUMANE WORK
R. W. D. BRYAN ADDRESS THE MEETING HELD LAST EVENING.
(From Wednesday's Daily Citizen.)
At a meeting of those interested in humane work held last evening in the parlors of the Commercial club, the Albuquerque Humane society was reorganized. Mr. R. W. D. Bryan was elected president and Mrs. E. L. Medler, vice president.
On taking the chair Mr. Bryan delivered the following address which as it explains the purposes of the society is given in full:
"The fact that so many are present this evening is sufficient proof, of interest in humane work. We are so accustomed to the thought of protecting children and dumb animals, that it will doubtless surprise you to know that the first law for the prevention of cruelty to animals, was passed by the British parliament in 1822, and it was some years later, that the mighty arm of law, was invoked for the weak and helpless of the human race.
Henry Bergh, within the memory of many, in 1865, first in the United States, enlisted public aid in behalf of abused animals. He was ridiculed and persecuted but in the face of great opposition, won a notable triumph. Since then laws for both children and animals have found their way on the statute books of every state and territory in the United States, and societies have been organized to enforce those laws, and to educate and induce the people to appreciate and obey them.
"Humane societies cover both classes, and are favored on account of economy and because the helplessness of children and dumb animals appeal to the same sentiments, and for the further reason, that there is a growing tendency to recognize closer relations between man and all other living organisms.
"No right thinking person can without indignation look upon the strong, selfishly injuring the weak and helpless, coming to the thought that society ought to stretch out its arms to the weak and helpless, and to the feeble. We develop and strengthen the altruistic principle, when as individuals or collectively, we forget self, and labor for the welfare of those who by birth, education or adverse conditions remain or fall behind the struggle for existence. Society can afford to stretch out its strong arm for the protection of children and dumb animals, because its future and its well-being, and comfort depend in a great measure on the proper and symmetrical developments of these classes, and because of the debasing and humiliating effects upon its members of performing or even witnessing acts of cruelty on dependent organisms.
"Statistics show that most criminals are developed from boys and girls who have been treated cruelly and unjustly when young, and who in turn, treated dumb animals with cruelty.
"The dumb animals equally with the children, have an absolute right to fair and just treatment. Capital should not be allowed to earn dividends out of the life of the child, and individuals should not be allowed to earn money out of the pain and torture of dumb animals.
Each of these classes was given life, by their Maker. And life demands its right, comfort and happiness. If, some, who have life, have power and control over other living creatures by reason of strength, wisdom or circumstances, the natural law of life requires that such control and power should be exercised, with kindness and sympathy. A harsh course is a violation of this law which will inevitably bring punishment upon the violator.
"Many men and women are cruel to children and dumb animals, from ignorance, thoughtlessness, or because they abandon themselves to their animal desires and passions. That man should find who in his moments will not condemn such cruelty, in others at least. The race as a whole is inhuman, with justice and purposes of kindness and good will toward all creatures. As civilization advances, these altruistic aims, are brought to the surface, developed and made popular. As organized society comprehends its duty and its destiny, the selfishness of the individual will be limited and directed so as not to produce unhappiness, or discomfort to others.
"The startling growth of humane societies, the unselfish devotion of the members to the cause, is a standing proof of the triumphant advance of the principles of peace and good will among men. The inspired prophet, described the coming era of joy and peace in words which have for generations sounded in the ears of the sons and daughters of men, and which are peculiarly appropriate in this meeting of the members and friends of the humane society. 'The lion and the lamb shall lie down together and a little child shall lead them.'
"I congratulate you on this visit of Mr. Reynolds to our city, as it has served to awaken interest in the cause, and to greatly increase the membership of our society. Let all those who sympathize in the cause of the helpless, lend a hand to accomplish the purposes of our organization. Let us remember that we are not to be mere a vigilance committee to punish violators of the law but educators. We want to grow to the state where we are to protect the weak and the helpless, and to show parents that child life can only grow symmetrically, in an atmosphere of love and tenderness, with proper discipline and intelligent training. We want to show children as they grow up, how much more delightful and entertaining it is to treat other children and all dumb animals, with consideration and kindness, than with cruelty and injustice.
"Few members of the humane society, are aware of the importance of their work. We can, however, undertake the work confident that our efforts can not fail to produce present lasting results, and conscious also that the reflex influence of these efforts, can not fail to produce beneficial results in our own lives and characters."
The Knights of Columbus will entertain with dancing tonight at Elks' hall, the occasion being a reception tendered J. S. MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Feb. 6.—Cattle receipts last week were rather light, as the continued bad weather has made it hard to get from the country. The same conditions are in effect today, and only 4,000 head are here, and small runs elsewhere. The right run last week met higher prices for the best cattle, but probably the majority of the receipts sold barely steady; medium to common cows and heifers were lower. Packers' claims for the weather made it hard or impossible for them to ship out their product, as many refrigerator cars were tied up in the east. Today, however, the run is so light that no arguments are of avail to the buyers, and market is strong to 10 cents higher. Cattle, pretty well everything. Stockers and feeders have been quiet, and the supply of them has been small for two or three weeks. Demand has also been limited, as few feeders like to put cattle in the feed lot in zero weather, but prices are about steady. Best western steers sold at $17.50 to $18.00, extra finished. Western fed steers sold at $19.25 to $19.75, stockers and feeders $17.50 to $18.00, a few just right, above that. Texas fed steers sold at $14.50 last week. Nebraska fed Nebraska fed steers $14.50, western steers $15.00 to $15.50, heavy calves $17.50 to $18.00. The market should be able to take care of liberal runs, if the weather breaks up soon.

The sheep and lamb market gained steadily every day last week, and today, and closed at a new record. Point of the season on all classes. Monte Vista lambs sold at $7.35 to $7.50 to-day, and native lambs up to $7.50, and practically all the lambs above $7.15. Yearlings sold at $6.25 to $6.50 today, weathers up to $5.50, ewes $5.10, although market on ewes was not fully tested. These prices were all for westerns. The market has every appearance of extreme strength, but a good many are afraid of it, as present range looks dirty and could become too heavy on a slight scare. Prices evidently have strong undercurrent, and market are not only strong, but active and snappy.

MEBILLA VALLEY WATER USERS AT EL PASO

President H. B. Holt, J. P. Bonham, R. L. Young and O. C. Snow, all of Las Cruces, representing the Mescal Valley Water Users' association, have been in this city two days, conferring with Felix Martinez and other officials of the El Paso Valley Water Users' association regarding the interstate relations involved in the Elephant Butte dam project, says the El Paso Herald. The matters which have been under discussion by the officials of the two associations are of the most vital importance to the success of the Elephant Butte dam project, but are of such a nature that those concerned are not willing now to make them public, but officials of the El Paso Valley Water Users' association say that they may be made public in a few days.

An Act of Charity.

The railroad boys' ball last Friday night was a grand success, both in a social and financial way. The event netted the boys $5.00 over, and above all expenses. The ball was not given with the intention of making money, so the boys brought the amount up to $9 and donated the money to Mrs. J. W. Potter. The railroad boys of Deming are certainly a generous set of fellows and deserve credit for this act of charity and kindness.

The railroad boys desire to thank the people of Deming and vicinity for the liberal patronage which was accorded them on the occasion of their second annual ball.—Deming Herald.

Toy Sing to be Deported.
Chinese Inspector Bonner gathered in a couple of Chinamen who had been working in the Chinese garden at Deming. One of them, named Wong Ying, had a paper that showed he had been admitted into the country some years ago, and Commissioner McKee turned him loose. Toy Sing had no papers, and Commissioner McKee ordered him deported. Toy Sing was turned over to Marshal Forsaker, who will probably buy him a ticket for China.

Dr. Alice Rice has received a letter from the Goldie Sweet which brings the sad news of the death of her father, the Rev. Elmer H. Sweet, which occurred at Chino, Cal., Sunday, January 29. The information will bring sorrow to many Las Vegas, who learned to know and esteem the gentleman during his years of residence, while pastor of the Baptist church of this city.

The lake extending north from lower Matanzas avenue has been considerably reduced in depth, and around this week by means of somebody cutting a short canal through the aqueduct embankment on the south side of the avenue. Wouldn't it be well for the city authorities to spend a few dollars to make the job a more thorough one?

Mrs. Henry Graham and children, will leave to join Mr. Graham in Deming where he has a desirable position in the smelter. This family has lived in Socorro a good many years and will now be greatly missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances here. F. Fischer bought the Graham home property in the west part of the city.

Prof. Francis Church Lincoln, formerly of the chemical department of the School of Mines, is now located at Patagonia, Arizona, where he is engaged in the business of mining engineering and is also operating the Lincoln custom mill and the Trenton and the Gaele mines. Bitter Factions Aid McClintock.

Matters have transpired that make the appointment of Colonel James H. McClintock as governor of Arizona an easy solution of the Arizona proposition for the president, says a Phoenix dispatch. Governor Brodie and his friends are urging the appointment of Judge Edward Wells, of Prescott. Frank M. Murphy, with his brother, N. O. Murphy, and others, are clamoring for the appointment of B. A. Fowler, the defeated republican candidate for delegate to congress. As a result of the clash between these two it will be a very easy matter for President Roosevelt to appoint his old friend Colonel McClintock, who is recommended by neither faction and yet who would be entirely acceptable to both. Probably nothing could help McClintock more than this arrayment of opposing factions.

Triple Birthday Party.

Miss Evelyn Brinkman, Miss Eugenia Shine, and Miss Lottie Giamon were all born on the same day of the month, and in honor of the return of the day the young ladies gave a reception at Mrs. H. Wells' home Saturday afternoon, says the Lordsburg Herald. The reception was largely attended by the young people, who had a most enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Las Vegas Has a Woman Beater.

In the police court this morning Judge Wooster heard W. Montgomery over to the grand jury on $500 bond on the charge of beating and choking Miss Bertha Pash. Montgomery is said to have been considerably the worse for liquor when he assaulted the young woman. Miss Pash says she was complaining of a headache, and he would have hurt her worse and perhaps killed her if she had not run into the house of E. L. Browne. A young woman who was with her substantiated the story. Montgomery has not furnished bail and is in jail.—Optic.

The Government Gouged.

Some time last year our people will remember that several car loads of Mexican children went through Alamogordo over the El Paso & North-eastern from El Paso and other points as little Indians to the Indian school at Chilocco, Okla. Now a squabble is up because a great number of the so-called little Indians are not satisfied and want to return home to their native land and tame land. The government has also discovered that the children are not the kind of Indians the school was established for and so somebody is liable to get left either financially or otherwise. One thing sure, when a fellow is dealing with the government he may be able to get his fingers in Uncle Sam's eyes for a while, but there are so many agents and inspectors in the employ of the United States government that it is practically impossible to make money in an effort to gouge our government.—Alamogordo News.

Shot Up the Ranch.

Last Tuesday a messenger from R. S. Birchfield's ranch, which about thirty-five miles southeast of this city, arrived in town and gave the news that a shooting had occurred at the ranch and took Dr. Moir back with him, says the Deming Headlight.

Dr. Moir returned last Wednesday evening and from him we glean the fact that one Carlos Martinez, who was in the employ of Mr. Birchfield, had shot a Mexican woman through the right breast and lung. He then shot the woman's brother through the right arm, and then shot again at the woman but hit a baby which she held in her arms, the last shot taking effect in the baby's hand. The Mexican then fled.

Mr. Birchfield at once started a posse of his men in pursuit and at last accounts they had him in sight some where in the vicinity of Las Cruces with good chances of capturing him.

The Jarilla Visited.

The party of capitalists and business men who visited Jarilla consisted of R. G. Muller, who had charge of the party, and Messrs. W. H. Hinds, Taos, Winn, H. D. Gilbert, T. D. Hosmer, J. P. Medinger, L. Montgomery and Dr. W. M. Campbell of St. Joseph, Mo., says the Alamogordo News. The purpose of the visit was to inspect the properties of the Jarilla Mining company with a view of taking hold and developing these mines. At this place A. J. King and Superintendent D. Sullivan took charge of the party and with the special car "Condor" they carried these gentlemen to the mines. We learn upon good authority that the party will take hold and work the Jarilla Mining company's properties. Mr. Muller, one of the party, is an old mining man and has done mining from Alaska to Mexico.

SENATOR KEARNS EXPLAINS HIS VOTE

Washington, Feb. 8.—Yesterday's contest found early echo in the proceedings of the senate today in the shape of a personal explanation by Kearns of his vote on the admission of New Mexico as a state. Immediately after the opening prayer Kearns took the floor and said: "I rise to a question of personal privilege. In the first vote on the amendment of the senator from California (Hatch) last evening I voted 'nay' in a distinct manner, and the clerk misunderstood me and I was numbered among those favoring the amendment. My colleague called my attention to the error, and I was on the point of correcting it when it was suggested I could do so on the vote to come in the morning before final passage of the bill in case the amendment should be adopted. This course I pursued. The seriousness of this matter did not impress itself on me until this morning, when I read in the public press the statement that I had voted for the amendment. In order that I might force the matter, I voted the bill to accept my amendment concerning a strip of Arizona to Utah. This I deny in most emphatic manner. Such proceeding I would not countenance nor be a party to. My word has been given the managers of the bill that I would support the amendment, and I would not have played them false for the whole territory of Arizona. If this be the proper time, Mr. President, I desire to have 'recorded and corrected as far as it relates to me my vote upon the amendment of the senator from California in accordance with this statement.'"

Commenced Planting Peas.

T. Rouault has commenced planting peas. With water Mr. Rouault will raise a fine crop which will enable him to can enough peas to supply all southern New Mexico. We say with water because heretofore we have not had any. This season is unusually favorable for a good supply for irrigating.—Las Cruces Citizen.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE

PISTOL BULLET FIRED AT HENRY COHN AND WIFE WHILE THEY WERE LYING IN BED.

An attempt was made early Sunday morning to assassinate Henry Cohn and wife, who were lying in bed, says the El Paso News.

A bullet was fired through a window of their sleeping room.

It missed the mark, striking the foot board of the bed on which Mr. and Mrs. Cohn were sleeping.

Mr. Cohn says he has no idea who fired the shot. About 12 o'clock the same night the house received a heavy jolt as if someone was trying to make a forcible entrance, shaking the building, the light bulbs fell and Cohn suffers from asthma and had been up late, leaving a light burning in the room. He had not got to sleep again when the shot was fired. He got up and investigated, when he heard the shot and the crash of the bulbs, but the bullet had not been aimed at him and he while in bed, he was afraid to make any other investigation, and he and his wife remained huddled in the far corner of the room until daylight.

Mr. Cohn and his wife run a small tailor shop in front of their sleeping apartment, and it is only separated by a curtain. It would have been easy for any one familiar with the surroundings to send a bullet straight to their bed, guided by the light that was left burning.

It was evidently the intention of the would-be assassin for the bullet entered the window about on a level with the bed, and but for the connection caused by striking the glass would evidently have struck one or the other of the old couple.

The police are making an investigation.

Where is G. W. McAdams?

The whereabouts of George W. McAdams is puzzling his wife and friends.

He left here on January 19 for Albuquerque, and after remaining there a few days, he disappeared, and all effort to trace him has been unavailing. Sheriff Henderson is doing all he can to locate Mr. McAdams and believes he will be found in some New Mexico town. His friends think he is temporarily insane.

He has for years been an Indian trader and is favorably known to all who know him. He is about 45 years old, five feet eleven inches in height and weighs 185 pounds, light complexion, hair and mustache. Any information regarding his whereabouts will be appreciated by his friends.—Flagstaff Sun.

A CALIFORNIA SENATOR

CHARGED WITH BRIBERY

Sacramento, Calif., Feb. 16.—Senator Eli Wright indicted by the grand jury of Sacramento county last night on the charge of bribery, says the Herald this morning. His attorneys say that the reason he was not arrested last night was because he could not find a bondsman and did not wish to spend the night in jail. He is now in custody of the sheriff and his friends are making an effort to procure bonds for his release. State Senators Eunkers, French and Eymons, all indicted for bribery, who were arrested last night, were released on $5,000 bail each. These senators are charged with receiving $350 from John S. Jordan, who has made confession. It is stated in the indictment that the money was paid and received for the purpose of influencing legislation, the specific charges being a guarantee of immunity for two building and loan associations.

THE STANDARD OIL

MAGNATES BUY

Rockefeller (pr.), 18,293 570,000,000
Santa Fe, 7,809 441,000,000

Totals 72,740,398,220.00

A New York dispatch, dated Feb. 8, says: Positive information came to light in certain favored quarters today that Standard Oil through Edward Harriman, had secured control of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, and would be in a position practically to dominate the transportation facilities of the country. By this tremendous coup and others of quite recent date, the Rockefeller interests now control a total of 72,740 miles of railway, representing in stock and bonds $2,886,220,000.

This vast network of tracks stretches over the east, west, north and south, tapping the very choicest territory in every direction.

The only portion of the United States not included in the new map is the southeastern Atlantic states. Prior to securing control of the Santa Fe, the Vanderbilt-Harriman interests had a total mileage of 40,849. The Gould-Pacifi group added 12,788 miles, the Rockefeller group, proper, 10,293 miles, and the Santa Fe brings in 7,809 miles more.

Whatever doubt may have lingered concerning Rockefeller-Harriman control of the Santa Fe was dispelled when it became known that a special meeting of the board will be held today, at which places will be given to two members of the Standard Oil party. William Rockefeller and Henry C. Frick are said to be the representatives slated for these places. They will take the places made vacant by the resignations of Edward D. Kenna and John G. McCullough, the latter at one time governor of Vermont.

Prior to the recent annual meeting of the Santa, the Standard Oil people had secured 350,000 shares of the stock, mostly preferred. They laid this fact before the board and asked for representation. This, in part, explains the resignation of Kenna. Meanwhile, a contest arose over the amount of representation, and the Standard Oil people, to make their position secure, immediately began buying all the shares in sight. This resulted in an agreement being speedily reached, the official approval of which will be made at the meeting tomorrow.

The Rockefeller, together with their new railroad friends, now control the transportation industry west of the Missouri river to the Pacific coast, and from the Mexican border on the south to the Canadian line on the north. In the event the Northern Securities case is settled in favor of Harriman, Standard Oil will have complete control of all transportation in the west.

An interesting feature of this tremendous Standard Oil campaign is the fact that Edward Harriman has been chosen as the commanding general. At first it was thought that James F. Hill, the sagacious magnate of the northwest, would be chosen, but Harriman was apparently considered the abler man. This, it is hinted, may also account for the bad feelings between Hill and Harriman, and their fight in the courts over the Northern Securities stock.

Between Chicago and the Missouri river the Standard Oil interests are now sufficiently strong to exercise supervision, if not actual domination. They control the Northwestern and St. Paul roads and are after additional desirable properties. Their strength in the east was shown in the attack upon the Vanderbilt road, whereby the grip of the road was loosened up on the northern half of the eastern territory.

GOVERNOR'S VETO.
The following message from the governor of the territory was received and read:

Veto Message No. 1.
To the President and Legislative Council of the Thirty-sixth Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico.

Gentlemen: I herewith return to your body, being the house in which it originated, council bill No. 44, entitled "an act to amend an act relating to county jails, approved March 14, 1905," without my approval.

The act which this bill is intended to amend, in my judgment, should not be enlarged in its scope and operation. It was passed for the specific purpose of constructing additional quarters for county jails where the prisoners in jail exceed thirty in number, and for the construction of such quarters the county commissioners were authorized to make a special levy upon the taxable property of the county, not exceeding three mills.

It is proposed by the bill here returned to amend the act referred to by adding to the first section of the act the following words: "And for the feeding of prisoners when the county general fund is not sufficient to pay the same."

I do not think this amendment is demanded by any public necessity. I am opposed to the encouragement of filling our county jails with prisoners by this kind of legislation. It would have the effect, in my judgment, to increase the number of prisoners in the jails of this territory, and a consequent increase of expense to pay for feeding them while in jail. Moreover, the amendment carries with it the evident purpose of feeding prisoners sent to jail for the violation of city ordinances, as well as for the feeding of prisoners sent there for graver crimes. I do not believe that the county should be made to pay for the feeding of prisoners who have committed no offense against the territory.

Every city government in the territory should be required to feed its own prisoners, and not expect the county commissioners to pay a special tax on the property of the people of the whole county for that purpose.

I am informed that some of the municipal governments of the territory have their own jails and take care of their own prisoners, while others do not. Those that do not have no great claims upon the taxpayers of the county than those who do.

The passage of the amendment herewith returned would be an unjust and unwarranted burden upon a large number of taxpayers, and I therefore cannot give it my official approval.

Very respectfully,
Governor of New Mexico.
Mr. Martinez moved for the reconsideration of council bill No. 44, vetoed by the governor, which motion carried. Mr. Martinez then moved that the bill be laid upon the table, and the motion carried, all voting aye, thus sustaining the governor's veto of council bill No. 44 by a unanimous vote.

MESSAGE FROM HOUSE.
The chief clerk of the house notified the council that the house had passed house joint memorial No. 2, by Mr. Lacerro, requesting congress to place the Lacey bill establishing the Palmar National Cliff Dwellers' park in New Mexico.

House joint memorial No. 2 was then read and referred to committee on territorial affairs.
Council took adjournment at noon until this morning at 10 o'clock.

I do not think this amendment is demanded by any public necessity. I am opposed to the encouragement of filling our county jails with prisoners by this kind of legislation. It would have the effect, in my judgment, to increase the number of prisoners in the jails of this territory, and a consequent increase of expense to pay for feeding them while in jail. Moreover, the amendment carries with it the evident purpose of feeding prisoners sent to jail for the violation of city ordinances, as well as for the feeding of prisoners sent there for graver crimes. I do not believe that the county should be made to pay for the feeding of prisoners who have committed no offense against the territory.

Every city government in the territory should be required to feed its own prisoners, and not expect the county commissioners to pay a special tax on the property of the people of the whole county for that purpose.

I am informed that some of the municipal governments of the territory have their own jails and take care of their own prisoners, while others do not. Those that do not have no great claims upon the taxpayers of the county than those who do.

The passage of the amendment herewith returned would be an unjust and unwarranted burden upon a large number of taxpayers, and I therefore cannot give it my official approval.

Very respectfully,
Governor of New Mexico.
Mr. Martinez moved for the reconsideration of council bill No. 44, vetoed by the governor, which motion carried. Mr. Martinez then moved that the bill be laid upon the table, and the motion carried, all voting aye, thus sustaining the governor's veto of council bill No. 44 by a unanimous vote.

GOVERNOR'S VETO.
The following message from the governor of the territory was received and read:

Veto Message No. 1.
To the President and Legislative Council of the Thirty-sixth Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico.

Gentlemen: I herewith return to your body, being the house in which it originated, council bill No. 44, entitled "an act to amend an act relating to county jails, approved March 14, 1905," without my approval.

The act which this bill is intended to amend, in my judgment, should not be enlarged in its scope and operation. It was passed for the specific purpose of constructing additional quarters for county jails where the prisoners in jail exceed thirty in number, and for the construction of such quarters the county commissioners were authorized to make a special levy upon the taxable property of the county, not exceeding three mills.

It is proposed by the bill here returned to amend the act referred to by adding to the first section of the act the following words: "And for the feeding of prisoners when the county general fund is not sufficient to pay the same."

I do not think this amendment is demanded by any public necessity. I am opposed to the encouragement of filling our county jails with prisoners by this kind of legislation. It would have the effect, in my judgment, to increase the number of prisoners in the jails of this territory, and a consequent increase of expense to pay for feeding them while in jail. Moreover, the amendment carries with it the evident purpose of feeding prisoners sent to jail for the violation of city ordinances, as well as for the feeding of prisoners sent there for graver crimes. The passage of the amendment herewith returned would be an unjust and unwarranted burden upon a large number of taxpayers, and I therefore cannot give it my official approval.

Governor of New Mexico.
