SPOTS ON THE SUN.

Astronomers are much interested now in certain spots on the sun, two of which have lately made their appearance, one of which is said to be 30,000 miles in diameter. These are in addition to the well-known triangular spot 70,000 miles in diameter. As the world has a diameter of about 8,000 miles, while that of the sun is about 865,000 miles, its volume exceeding that of the earth 1,282,000 times, these spots are not relatively large enough to excite alarm, although by some their presence is supposed to account somewhat for the unusually cold weather which prevails so widely.

SOMETHING NEW IN WAR.

The official statement comes from the headquarters of the Japanese general Oka that in his entire army, since May 6 last, only forty deaths have occurred from disease. During that time General Oka has been in command of more than 150,000 men, and 24,642 have been at some time in the sick list. That only forty should have died is one of the most extraordinary facts in the history of military operations. In the same period General Oka has lost 5,127 men killed and 21,080 wounded, yet only forty succumbed to disease. During the civil war the Union forces lost 67,055 killed in action, while 129,773 died of disease. Both American and European armies suffer heavier losses from disease than from actual fighting.

In the civil war 42,012 Union soldiers died from wounds, and here again comparison with Japanese armies shows an immense margin in their favor. The Japanese surgeons perform few field operations, and after first aid to the wounded, send them to the rear, where the chief dependence is on the reparative forces of nature. No statement is given of how General Oka's medical officers treated 31,547 Japanese, but the fact that the mortality was less than 3 per 1,000 will attest the most elaborately organized army medical departments. Either the Japanese soldiers have marvelous constitutions or their medical officers know some important things not yet mastered elsewhere.

A JUST PROTEST.

The Roswell Record has the following sensible protest against the recent graft food sufferers' bill:

"The legislature at Santa Fe last Thursday passed a bill appropriating $50,000 for food sufferers. It goes to some thirteen counties and four towns or cities in those same counties. This bill was passed in both houses in about thirty minutes, and with only three dissenting votes. Almost the entire appropriation goes to the Rio Grande counties, and all of it except $1,900 along the Santa Fe main line. Not a dollar along the Pecos and the largest river in the territory not a dollar to the Fifth judicial district. Now, there is no doubt some of this is just and deserving, but why this haste? There was no part of this territory suffered more from floods than the Pecos country. The lowest estimate of the loss in the city of Roswell was $15,000, and it is well known that along the Hondo in Lincoln county the loss was great and many are in needy circumstances on that account. The loss was even greater in Eddy county. Why didn't the legislature investigate and consider all claims? A citizens' committee and the city authorities of Roswell have been having surveys made and estimates of the cost to leave the Hondo against future floods. They expected to ask the legislature for help. It was not contemplated that a general appropriation would be made as a general tax levied, as has been done, but it was anticipated that each county or city would be compelled to tax themselves. Since the other plan prevails and we have to pay our proportion of the taxes, we want our proportion of the money."

TAKE THIS TO HEART.

It is not the site of a town, but its character that makes a desirable place to live. A live and prosperous town is a desirable one, and a town may live and prosper, and yet be small. Every citizen in a town should be interested in its prosperity. One of the ways to help a town is to speak well of it. It is true patriotism to stand by your own town and interest in it.

Another way to help your town is to do all you can to beautify it. Beautify your own property all you can, then do all you can to beautify your streets. Be friendly with everybody and courteous to strangers. Your civility will help make good impressions, and will be carried away and cherished. Never forget you are a part of the town and that your deportment helps to make up the stranger's estimate of the place.

GROWTH OF THE SOUTH.

The Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore has accomplished a most excellent work in giving to the country the present status of the southern states, in comparison with previous periods.

In 1890 the assessed valuation of property in fourteen states, West Virginia included, aggregated $4,510,925,237. At the end of 1904 the figures show $9,196,977,515, an increase of $4,686,052,278.

The magnitude of this increase is strikingly illustrated when compared with the progress made between 1890 and 1900, when the total increase in assessed valuation was $775,000,000, and that of the four years succeeding. During this period the gain was $900,000,000, or at an average of $225,000,000 per annum.

taking in a 20-year period, the total increase in the assessed value of property in the states named, from 1880 to 1900, was $2,310,000,000, whereas during the four years 1901 to 1904, inclusive, the total average was $900,000,000, or, in other words, during these four years the gain in the taxable property in the south has been 40 per cent as great as it was in the twenty years preceding.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It would pay little to tell that a man's stomach and liver are badly affected by grave trouble ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but I took Electric Bitters. I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by all druggists at 50c. a bottle.

HOUSE

Morning Session—Twenty-sixth Day.

Speaker Dallas called the house to order at 10:20 o'clock yesterday forenoon. Every member answered to the roll call. Chaplain Hubert proffered the invocation. The reading of the journal was suspended.

PETITIONS.
The citizens of Polvadera, Socorro county, presented a petition to the house asking for aid and relief. The house of last year having carried away their houses, stock, furniture, crops and supplies valued at over $40,000 to $50,000, and leaving the residents practically destitute. The petition was referred to the committee on finance.

Mr. Howard was given the floor to explain that after the committee from Polvadera, which arrived in Santa Fe yesterday, had been informed that Polvadera is included in the benefits of the Martin relief bill, it expressed itself satisfied and left for home. The petition was therefore withdrawn from the committee on finance and tabled.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.
The rules were suspended to take up council substitute for house bill No. 4, by Mr. Crockett, an act to authorize the construction of dykes, dams, banks and ditches to protect lives and property and authorizing a levy of taxes therefor in counties of the first class. The bill was passed by a vote of 23 to 2. Mr. Crockett alone voting against it.

Council bill No. 3, by Mr. Greer, an act to prohibit cattle roping exhibitions, was adopted favorably by the committee on agriculture, manufactures and live stock. The report was adopted and the bill was passed by a vote of 23 to 2. Messrs. Wright and Wilkinson voting no.

A motion by Mr. Wilkinson to take up amended council bill No. 26, by Mr. Greer, providing for a force of mounted police, met with some opposition. Mr. de Baca speaking against the motion as well as against the bill, and Messrs. Sanchez and Wright voting very forcibly in favor of the bill. The motion to suspend the rules was carried by a vote of 16 to 8. The bill was passed by a vote of 18 to 4. Messrs. de Baca, de Leon, Sandoval of Santa Fe and Ellis voting no. Mr. Crockett, in explaining his affirmative vote, brought Mr. de Baca to his feet, who objected to a personal allusion, the chair sustaining him.

The house adjourned until 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

JUDGE KIBBEY IS ARIZONA'S NEW GOVERNOR
PROMINENT IN TERRITORIAL POLITICS AND IRRIGATION AFFAIRS FOR MANY YEARS.

Judge J. H. Kibbey, who has been selected to succeed Governor A. O. Brodie by President Roosevelt, is a resident of Arizona for nearly twenty years, and during that time has occupied a prominent place in politics, law and irrigation affairs.

All that remains now to make Kibbey governor is his confirmation by the senate, which is only a matter of course. It is probable that he will take his new office shortly because of the fact that Brodie leaves for Washington the latter part of this month to help prepare for the inauguration of President Roosevelt March 4.

Kibbey is well known in Prescott, having made frequent trips to this city in recent years on law and mining business. He figured prominently during the last territorial republican convention which was held here. A. Fowler for delegate to congress.

Kibbey arrived in Prescott the day before the convention and began a campaign for the nomination of Fowler. He brought influence to bear that won for Fowler. But for the presence in Prescott of Kibbey the nomination would probably have gone to Cooper, of Tucson.

The new governor of Arizona was at one time chief justice of the Arizona bench, and while there delivered a notable decision in a Salt river valley irrigation case that has since become famous all over the west.

At the present time Kibbey is attorney general of the territory, receiving the appointment from Governor Brodie at the time of Judge Ed. W. Wells' resignation from the position.

For years he has practiced law in Phoenix, and is known throughout the territory as one of the ablest legal logicians Arizona has ever had. His grasp on legal questions bearing on land and irrigation matters has especially won him much distinction.

Kibbey and B. A. Fowler have almost been sainted by the people of the Salt river valley on account of their steadfast allegiance to the irrigation interests of the people. To them belongs the bulk of the credit for getting a federal appropriation for the Tonto Basin storage reservoir.

Kibbey is believed to have been appointed by President Roosevelt as a reward for a division of the proceeds therefor between the parties, according to their respective rights, and for all proper equitable relief.

Said real estate is situated in the county of San Diego, Territory of New Mexico, and is described as follows, to-wit:

Said tract being two leagues square and containing, according to the official survey thereof, sixteen thousand seven hundred and thirty-one acres, reference to which survey and plat made for more particular description.

You are further notified that the plaintiffs' attorneys are McMillen & Reynolds, whose postoffice address is Albuquerque, New Mexico, and that unless you, and each of you, enter your appearance in said cause on or before the first day of April, 1905, judgment will be rendered against you, and each of you, by default.

We have a set of school directors here, and one of them cannot sign his name. It seems strange to put such a man in an office of that kind. There are but three or four persons who can read and write in this school district, and it was an easy matter to get a man of some intelligence to fill the position. The same man is road supervisor also, having been appointed to that position by the county court.

Now that there is some chance for New Mexico to come into the union under her own name and present boundaries, there seems to be a unanimous wish among the people to see the bill pass the house and become a law, and the people are all in favor of voting for its enactment. We all want to see the county seat of this county changed to some point on the railroad so it can be reached easily.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE WHO CANNOT READ AND WRITE, THEREFORE CANNOT SIGN HIS NAME.

Algodones, N. M., Feb. 11.—Farmers here have commenced planting some peas, and wheat was planted this week, while others are busy plowing for the spring crop.

There is some trouble here over the squabble. Some kind of an election was supposed to be held for mayor-domo and ditch commissioners last October, but they either refused or neglected to qualify, and another election was held on the 12th of January, but the election was voided. Now the ones who did not qualify want to act and the new ones also want to act, hence there is a clash.

We have a set of school directors here, and one of them cannot sign his name. It seems strange to put such a man in an office of that kind. There are but three or four persons who can read and write in this school district, and it was an easy matter to get a man of some intelligence to fill the position. FORESTS UNDER A NEW REGIME
Range Riders to be Civil Service Men and Subject to Regulation Examination.

The newspapers of the territory have received an order from the United States Department of Agriculture, acting through the present, but attached his signature to an act providing for the transfer of forest reserves from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Agriculture. By this act the administration of the federal forest reserves is transferred to the department of agriculture.

By executive order of December 17, 1904, the entire forest reserve force of the United States was placed within the civil service and in the future all appointments thereto will be made through civil service commission.

Postmaster Hopkins and the secretary of the local board of examiners will in the near future be furnished with rules and regulations governing examinations and appointments incident to the proposed increase of the ranger force in the New Mexico forest reserves, and all persons desiring to join this branch of the government service will be required to take the examination, which will, at first, be very simple and practical.

Those who are at present engaged in the forestry service as rangers or in other capacities, will be exempt from examination.

BOGUS ART WORKS

FOR AMERICANS

ROMAN PAPER DECLARES MORGAN, CARNEGIE AND THE WOODS HAVE BEEN SWINDLED

The managers of Rome, Italy, standing of many bogus works of art purchased in Europe by American collectors and dealers, says: "E. P. Morgan is worried because the greatest part of the art works he has collected at great cost are imitations. The citizens of New York are even more to be pitied than Morgan, as their Metropolitan Museum contains articles which are even less genuine than the works of Saluberrimus."

"Even the famous collection of drawings possessed by the Vanderbilts is the work of clever imitators. The statues of Titian, in possession of Carnegie, are the work of every day plasterers. In the millions of acres who have taken up the roll of art patrons have been cruelly deceived. Kings of steel and coal and railroads have spent enormous amounts for the rescue of European museums."

JUAREZ STATUE MAY COST $100,000 WHEN COMPLETED

Juarez citizens are jubilant over the receipt of a communication from the city of Chihuahua, dated by acting governor, Creel, in which it is announced that the Juarez monument project has taken on much greater proportions.

Instead of being the gift of the state of Chihuahua, says the El Paso Herald, it is planned to make the monument a gift to the city of Juarez from the entire republic, in commemoration of the great statesman, Benito Juarez, and his beneficent works for the republic.

Such magnitude has been assumed by the project that plans are on foot to secure ground to set off the proposed statue to advantage. It is not at all certain that a suitable plot of land can be secured, but the city will be carefully gone over with that end in view before the scheme is abandoned.

From aiming at a statue to cost $25,000 Governor Creel urges the republic to look toward a statue to cost at least $100,000. Of this sum the state of Chihuahua expects to contribute the lion's share, leaving the remainder to be raised by individual subscription and by donations from the other states of Mexico.

Governor Creel announced in the letter, over which the Juarez people are rejoicing, that he has appointed a commission at the city of Chihuahua to have the statue project in charge. The Juarez citizens are waiting eagerly for the time to come when they can exhibit their enthusiasm over the statue project by their subscriptions toward the general fund. A subcommittee to have the work in charge at Juarez will probably be appointed at the next meeting of the council.

RAILROADS DOING WELL WITH CONSCIENCE FARES

"I want to clear myself before God on the judgment day," is the way a plaintiff letter, J. P. Valley, of the Burlington road, calls the Denver woman, who would not sign her name, says the Denver News.

"About ten years ago," the letter continues, "I rode on the Burlington from Omaha to Denver, but I only paid the conductor $2. I received the balance."

"I do not believe we ever got the original $2," smiled Mr. Valley, as he opened another letter. This also was for the conscience fund. Unlike the first, it did not include a fare long overdue. Instead, it included a bill and asked for a schedule of fares for several different rides.

"I got several rides falsely over the Burlington," read the letter, which was from Greeley, "and I want to pay now what I owe, but I do not know the amount."

"Please tell me what the fare is from Port Morgan to McCook, Neb.; from Bartley to Hastings, Neb.; and from Omaha to Grand Island," said this chronic offender's note.

The Greeley man said he was truly penitent for his sins and wanted a schedule of his debts rushed to him. He signed his name, and the reply forwarded said that he owed $14.03.

The wave of goodness which is increasing the Burlington "conscience fund" also hit the Colorado & Southern yesterday. A man who refused to give his name walked up to G. H. Lindsey, chief clerk to Passenger Agent T. E. Fisher and handed out $2.20. "I beat your road out of that twelve years ago, and it has worried me ever since," was the only comment of the stranger.

Net Much Stock Killed

When it was learned yesterday that the temperature had been down to 29 below zero in this locality, the general disposition was that the stock had suffered. Indeed, that many cattle and sheep had been killed. Several prominent stockmen were interviewed, and none of them had received word of the killing of a single animal. They had expected a few bad reports, but none had come.—Herald.

TWO WIFE BEATERS ARE SENT TO JAIL

ONE WHITE MAN AND THE OTHER COLORED—OTHER TRANSGRESSORS BEFORE THE COURT

(From Friday's Daily Citizen.)

It is a very mean man that will abuse his wife. At least that is the way the court of criminal correction of Albuquerque looks upon it.

Sunday night J. W. Wright, an employee of the late shops, got up from his bed at the Minneapolis house, saying as he did so that there was something in his eye. Mrs. Wright, good housewife like, told him to go to the doctor and not to let any old body poke in his eye. Mr. Wright did not return home until last night. He kicked the door of his wife's room in and grabbing her by the neck said: "Give me that money, damn you, and I will leave." Mrs. Wright sought shelter in a neighboring room and this morning appeared before Judge Crawford with a plea to be protected from her husband. Her husband was there, and she was unrelenting, and Wright was sent to the county jail charged with wife beating to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. Ida Bowman, colored, appeared before the court with the request that she be relieved from the persecutions of her husband, U. S. Bowman, also colored. She claimed that her spouse had threatened to kill her and that she would like to have him locked up. Mr. Bowman went the route given Wright, and their bonds were fixed at $250 each.

A young man, who gave his name as George Bangle, was discovered in the room of H. A. Kead at the Lindell house yesterday. He could not give a good explanation why he was there, and he was bound over to the grand jury to stand an investigation, which may find him guilty of larceny from a residence, as a gold pin was missed from the room in which he was discovered.

It is a true saying that one never forgets the taste of champagne. F. H. Cleveland came from Boston to work for the American Lumber company. After a couple of months his high class of services were dispensed with. Mr. Cleveland soon went broke, but he had stimulated a habit from which he could not break, and last night he wandered into Zeiler's cafe and ordered a fine supper and a bottle of Mumm's extra dry. He could not settle the bill, and a policeman took him to the city hall. He is a large man, with a light mustache, and is doing ten days on the street under the direction of Commissioner Thorne.

STANDARD BILL

TO CONFERENCE

Special to The Citizen. Washington, Feb. 17.—The standard bill, under a special rule adopted under the previous question, came to conference this morning. Hamilton, Powers and Meyer are the conferees.

B. S. ROBEY. Bill Sent to Conference. Washington, Feb. 17.—The house today by a vote of 161 to 127 adopted a resolution sending the standard bill to conference. Before the bill was ordered to conference, Lloyd, (Missouri), offered that thirty-five republicans who were in sympathy with democrats on standard question had been coerced by rules and leadership.

Powers, (Maine), said he was not aware that there were thirty-five republican recalcitrants or that "Lloyd was designated to present a statement of coercion."

The rule likewise was criticized by Williams, (Massachusetts), who said both New Mexico and Arizona desired separate standard. "I challenge the gentleman now. I dare the majority of this house to let us have a vote on that question," he said.

Williams referred to the so-called recalcitrant republicans who had been whipped into line as "black and white." He said that if they had been let alone and not bound in writing hand and foot the minority plus those men would have been able to adopt the amendment as to New Mexico.

Williams provoked laughter when he noted the speaker with the noted Indian chief named "Old Man Afraid of His People," and said that the speaker would go down in history as the "Old Man Afraid of His Majority."

Governor delivered some sarcastic remarks on the futility of "following the minority of the house that was serving smaller by degrees and visibly less," and said that the position of Williams if carried into execution would defeat creation of any state during this congress.

McLachlan, (California), voted with the democrats in opposition to the resolution. The speaker announced as the house adjourned that the position of the conference committee Hamilton, Powers, Maine, and Meyer Tennessee.

BIG FAIR WILL BE HELD SEPTEMBER 18 TO 23

A quorum of the executive committee of the New Mexico Territorial Fair association, for the 1905 fair, met last night at the office of the secretary at the Surety Investment company, and among other business transacted, set the dates for the fair fall, namely, the third week in September, or to be more exact from September 18 to 23, inclusive.

The object in holding the fair a month earlier than the past three fairs was to give the ranchmen, the farmers, the fruit and truck raisers an opportunity, before the cold, frosty season, to give on exhibition the actual resources of the territory.

The secretary announced that he had conversed with several dry goods merchants as to colors for the fair and they would have an extra supply of red, blue, and green. The colors adopted are green, cardinal and cream.

The secretary read a number of letters, proving conclusively that even at this early day people on the outside, exhibitors and privilege men, are anxious to learn something of the fall festivities which will be held in this city the third week in September.

The horse races for the fair, and the carnival attractions were fully discussed, and these matters will be taken up in plenty of time to secure "the best on the road," by the secretary and executive committee.

This was the first official meeting of the executive committee, and much enthusiasm was manifested. It is a foregone conclusion that the Twenty-first annual territorial fair will be a whopper, and Col. D. K. B. Sellers, president, and Col. D. K. B. Sellers, the secretary with the aid of a good working committee, will make it the very best ever held in this city.

The meeting adjourned subject to call by the president.

THIRTY-ONE BELOW ZERO AT LAS VEGAS

A special weather dispatch from Las Vegas, dated Feb. 15, to Denver News, says: Snow covers all this country for many miles. The temperature last night reached thirty-one degrees below zero, sixteen degrees colder than records of the bureau have ever shown before, and the St. Louis committee of fraternal sanitarium managers on the way here to seek a site for a national sanitarium are reported lost in the snow somewhere near the Colorado line.

They Like Santa Fe. A large flock of birds, whose habitat in Mexico have taken up quarters in the yard of the Church of the Holy Faith on Palace avenue, Santa Fe, are the annual visitors and always choose the same headquarters. Sort of a religious flock, you know. However, they are armed with very strong bills and are very voracious and destroy whatever vegetation they can get hold of.

Carbolic Acid Route Too Hard. Mrs. Texas Brady, who has been in the jail at Alamogordo since last fall, on Wednesday swallowed a dose of carbolic acid with suicidal intent. The reason which the jury found caused her to do so was that her husband, who was summoned and she will probably recover. The woman is being held on the charge of blackmail. Her male companion, who had been arrested with her, died at the county jail last week from the effects of a surgical operation. Involuntarily, over his death was the cause of Mrs. Brady's attempt at suicide.

Arrested for Illegal Fencing. Three persons were arrested last week near Fort Mora county, for illegally fencing the public domain lands. A GOOD ADVERTISING SCHEME. A progressive western town has hit upon a rather novel advertising plan, and it might be adopted elsewhere to good advantage. On all trains stopping at his town a man passes through the cars and distributes to passengers neatly printed circulars on which is the following:

Traces of such a character matter have been detected in the liquor, and although harmless in itself, it is an adulteration of pure distilled spirits and is prohibited by law.

With thread on thread and line on line She wrought each curious design, The symbol of the day and night, Of desert and of mountain height, Of journey long and stormy blast, Of village peace and dangers met, Of winds and seasons, cold and heat, Of famine harsh and plenty sweet.

THE VALUE OF A SUNNY SOUL

Who can estimate the value of a sunny soul, who scatters gladness and good cheer wherever he goes, instead of gloom and sadness? Everybody is attracted to these cheerful faces and sunny smiles, and repelled by the gloomy, morose and sad. We envy people who radiate cheer wherever they go and bring out gladness from every pore. Money, houses and lands look contemptible beside such a disposition. The ability to radiate sunshine is a greater power than beauty or than most mental accomplishments.—Success.

Alamogordo Postoffice Site.

J. P. Sawyer, superintendent of salaries and allowances of the postoffice department, will headquarters in Kansas City, was in Alamogordo and received the bids on buildings for a postoffice site, says the Advertiser.

While the matter is passed upon in the office of the first assistant postmaster general, Mr. Sawyer's recommendations usually decide the matter. We are informed that the bids on three buildings offered for the postoffice varied but very little, and while Mr. Sawyer did not express himself definitely in the matter while here, all the arrangements he had indicated in his own mind, and he has decided on the Knights of Pythias hall, and it is quite likely that there is where the Alamogordo postoffice will be before very long.

In the bid which was made by the Knights of Pythias off-ials the front of the building was reserved and will likely be rented for some small business.

Socorro Will Entertain Committee.

Several of the business men of the city held a meeting in the office of C. T. Brown the first of the week to arrange for the reception and entertainment of the committee that is expected to visit Socorro in a few days to see what inducements the city and vicinity offer for the location of the great fraternal sanitarium. Dr. C. G. Duncan was elected a committee of one to take entire charge of this important matter. Mr. Brown was elected to impress the services of any citizen of Socorro whose services he might need. ## COWBOY SONG

The following beautiful piece of poetry appeared in a recent number of the Comopolitan magazine as part of a story entitled "The Turkey Track Ranch," written by Will C. Barnes, secretary of the New Mexico Territorial Cattle and Horse Board. The story is set on the time of "My Double-Less Over the Ocean," and upon its publication met with instant favor, especially in the west where cowboys and stockmen form a good part of the population, and who are doubly appreciative of the tender bit of verse. Mr. Barnes is well known in Albuquerque and has a cattle ranch near Las Vegas.

Cowboy Song.

Last night as I lay on the prairie, And looked at the stars in the sky, I wondered is ever a cowboy Could drift to that sweet bye and bye.

The road to the bright mystic region Is narrow and dim, so they say, But the trail that leads down to perfection Is staked and is blazed all the way.

I wonder, was there ever a cowboy Prepared for that great judgment day? Who could say to the boss of the drivers I'm all ready to be driven away.

For they're all like the cows from the Jimsones, That get scared at the sight of a hand And have to be dragged to the round-up, Or get put in some crooked man's brand.

For they tell of another big owner Who is never overstocked, so they say, But who always makes room for the sinner Who drifts from that straight narrow way.

And they say life will never forget you, That he notes every action and look, So for safety you'd better get branded And have your name in his big tally book.

THE SANTA FE ROAD READY TO CO-OPERATE

It is barely possible that the city of Albuquerque and the Santa Fe railway company have at last gotten together on the dyke question. This afternoon Major Frank McKee, City Engineer, Pitt Rose, and Alderman Hanley, representing the city, and General Superintendent D. C. Cain, representing the Santa Fe, met in Mr. Cain's private car to discuss the situation. At the time the reporter called, Mr. Cain had a map of the situation spread out on his knees and the other gentlemen were grouped around in a semi-circle. It is plain that the Santa Fe is anxious and very anxious to get a substantial dyke built on the east side of the Rio Grande north of this city, although Mr. Cain would not say so, and it is more than likely that the company will co-operate with the city in the matter.

On being quizzed as to what his business was in the city, Mr. Cain said that he had come down from La Junta to escape the cold weather, but it is more than probable that he came for the special purpose of meeting the city council on the dyke business.

IS HELD AT GALVESTON

President Frank Trumbull of the Colorado & Southern and General Manager T. U. Mudge of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, who arrived at Galveston Sunday, held a conference Monday. The purpose of this conference cannot be obtained. Neither gentleman would discuss his mission and pleasantly met all interrogatories by stating he was merely out on a little trip for recreation and pleasure.

Both left in their special for the north. The conference of President Trumbull with the Santa Fe official is significant and important, in view of the recent and contemplated changes in officers of the Santa Fe system.

WORK TRAIN AND NO. 2 COLLIDE

No one injured, but several hundred dollars damage done in Santa Fe Central wreck.

Train No. 2 on the Santa Fe Central was wrecked Monday afternoon between Santa Fe and Kennedy, and as a result traffic on this line was tied up until late yesterday afternoon.

Train No. 2 left Kennedy Monday morning with ten passengers aboard, and at a point near mile post 18 the engine ran out of water and the train stopped just over a large hill. A work train was following train No. 2, and in some way yet unexplained the work train ran into the rear of No. 2, smashing the platform of the combination car. Fortunately no one was injured.

The damage is estimated at several hundred dollars. Snow has drifted daily in the cuts, but the line was cleared yesterday afternoon. Train No. 1 of Tuesday was held at Kennedy and proceeded to Torrance as soon as the engine could coal and water.

SAYS SANTA FE IS PERSECUTING HIM

D. E. Scott, machinist of Seligman, Arizona, charges railroad with conspiracy to blacklist former dispatch.

A special dispatch from Prescott, Arizona, to Denver News says: D. E. Scott today filed an answer to a charge of alleged contempt of an injunction restraining forty Santa Fe strikers in Arizona from interfering with the company's property or employees. Scott is under arrest for violating the Santa Fe right of way at Seligman and taking away ten gallons of water, which he admits in his answer, but Scott makes a sensational charge in his answer in which he says he follows:

"That he believes because he was formerly employed by the company that a conspiracy exists on the part of the Santa Fe and its employees to prevent him from working at his trade as a machinist, and that one C. Seligman has stated to a number of persons that he would prevent the defendant from working in this country."

Scott further alleges that the Santa Fe is following him with malicious persecution. He has recently been employed at Jerome.

(From Thursday's Daily Citizen.)

PENSION FOR EX-SNATOR ROSS

THE AGED VETERAN QUIETLY RESIDING IN ALBUQUERQUE WITH HIS SON.

From Kansas City Star.

It may be imagined that the lapse of years has so mitigated the bitterness of other days that most of the older residents of Kansas will read with a degree of resignation—if not pleasure—the announcement that last week Senator Edmund G. Ross has been granted a pension of $20 a month for his service in the Union army. Few men have paid a higher price than Ross for the privilege of following their convictions. His vote for the acquittal of President Johnson has long been justified by historians, but it cost him providing care for his family. The United States senate and made him a wanderer on the earth.

The generation that has risen since the Civil war finds it hard to realize the intensity of feeling of those days. The passions of the time culminated in the impeachment of Andrew Johnson, convinced as the nation was of the president's reasonable intentions, it was intolerant of any opposition to his removal from office. The seven republican senators who refused to countenance illegal proceedings even for a temporary gain, became at once the objects of the fiercest execration. It was warned that he would be killed if he returned to Kansas. He was hurried in effigy throughout the north. "Your motives," one Kansas telegram said, "are Indian contrivances and greenbacks." Kansas repudiates you as she does all perjurers and shams." Another reminded him that while the rope with which Judas hanged himself was lost, the pistol with which Jim Lane committed suicide was at his service. "This creature Ross," the Leavenworth Conservative said, "is dead to honor, dead to liberty, dead to Kansas." At that time, the great emotion of asperity, has changed the attitude of the nation toward the senators who voted for the acquittal of the president, Andrew Johnson, with all his frailties and imperfections, has become only a memory. His actions, dispassionately considered, are now known to have included nothing meriting impeachment. Probably even poor Ross could come back to Kansas to live without arousing dead antagonism. But, in spite of his tardy vindication and of the bestowal of a meager pension, the life of the ex-senator remains of the minor tragedies of American politics.

Believed to Have Perished.

About the first of January Chris Jergensen, while crossing Anderson canon, south of Canyon Diablo, broke his wagon. He was within a mile of Walton's sheep camp, and Al. Grady saw him returning to his wagon with the repairs, and asked him to stay all night at the camp. He declined the invitation, and Grady was the last person to see him. The wagon and contents still stand in the canyon, but all efforts to find Jergensen have failed. It is believed that he has wandered away from his wagon, and becoming lost has perished in one of the numerous canyons which abound in that section. Jergensen is an old resident of the southeastern portion of the county and knows the country, and it is hoped that he will turn up safely at some one of the camps in that section.

HANOVER MINING DISTRICT.

(From Wednesday's Daily Citizen.)

For some weeks past it has been known that J. W. Bible has been engaged in buying a number of claims in the Hanover mining district, says the Silver City Enterprise. The exact number of claims has not yet been learned, but it is said to be anywhere between twenty-five and thirty. In fact, definite information of any kind is not forthcoming, but it is understood that the purchase of so many claims augurs well for the future of the camp. It has been known that over since Mr. Bible came to Hanover he has had powerful and influential backing in the east, and that the present wholesale buying of so many claims in that district may have some connection with this backing. Since coming to Hanover Mr. Bible has held out a prospect of property and made steady producers of them, and has thus established a reputation as a practical, conservative and successful mining man. While, as stated above, no definite information as to the ultimate outcome of the buying of these properties is obtainable, as the mines are not yet being worked, and unostentatiously still is regarded on good authority that it will result in vast benefit to the Hanover mining district and make that a good camp for ten or fifteen years to come. Among the claims that have been sold to Mr. Bible are the Humboldt, owned by Joe Schenck and Robert La France; the Copper Kettle, owned Queen, Magel and Kettle, owned jointly by Carl Abrahamson, Horace Pettus, Wes Wetly and Cornelius McCarthy; Sam Allen's properties of eight claims near Santa Rita; the Pinto group of eight claims joining the Santa Rita copper properties on the east and owned by the Pinta Copper company of Iowa, Kansas. Development work is being pushed at the present time on all these properties and will be continued indefinitely. A brand new Cameron pump and other machinery necessary for deep work have recently been installed on the Pinto group and some work is being done. Just what the next move will be by this mysterious purchaser is hard to foretell, but it is sure to be one of advancement and progress, as the expenditure of such a large sum of money as has already been invested in the camp calls for an outlay of still more capital to develop and work the properties in order to make the investment a paying one.

PHILOSOPHY.

An exchange philosopher says: "The rose that smells the sweetest is the first to fade, the boy who runs the fleetest is the soonest one to fade. The brightest of the evenings has the gloomiest of dawn, the man who buys the biggest yard must cut the biggest lawn. The apple that is largest has the fattest worm of all, the fellow who gets on in life is always full of gall. The soup that is the cleanest is the first to show the flies, the fellow who would sell the goods must pay to advertise. The horse that lays the largest eggs will be the first to set, and things we always hanker for are last of all we get. The simple way is always best and yet we pass it by to dabble with the innel shades that catch and fool the eye."

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for "consumption, coughs and colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to be wary of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over thirty-five years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. H. BUCKLEN, CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER MAY RETIRE

Washington, Feb. 11.—Rumors regarding the possible retirement of Chief Justice Fuller were set afloat again today when it became known that this was the seventy-second birthday of the chief justice and the age at which he becomes eligible for retirement from the supreme bench and enjoy a salary of $10,500 a year as long as he lives. Those who pretend to have inside information declare that Justice Fuller will resign his office next month, or immediately after he has administered the oath of office to President Roosevelt.

Should Chief Justice Fuller resign, as reported, he will establish a precedent, as no chief justice of the supreme court has ever resigned before. All have died on the bench. The resignation of Justice Fuller would likewise remove a most interesting figure from Washington official life. He is a native of Maine, but lived "out west" so long that he is regarded as a typical westerner. He was born at Augusta, Me., on February 11, 1832, was graduated at Bowdoin, and attended a course of lectures in Harvard law school. He was admitted to the bar at Augusta in 1855, and was associate editor of a democratic newspaper. The following year he went to Chicago, and practiced there until 1858, when he was appointed to the supreme bench by President Lincoln. He had been a member of the Illinois constitutional convention, of the legislature from 1863 to 1865, and a delegate to the democratic national conventions of 1864, 1872, 1876 and 1880.

Chief Justice Fuller has administered the oath of office to four presidents—Lincoln, Grant, Hayes and McKinley twice, and next month will add a fifth to his record-breaking list.

Starting Out True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number, or over 3,000 people, died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Two men cannot be so in good of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter Laura of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia."—W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by all dealers.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children, for colds, croup and whooping cough, and it affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.

AN APPRECIATION.

(From Wednesday's Daily Citizen.)

A few months ago there stopped quietly at Albuquerque a gentleman who since his advent has proved himself to be a strong moral force in our community.

Reference is made to the Rev. William Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city.

The Methodistists are to be congratulated in having in a preacher of noted ability, both in theological and scientific research. His diction is clear and forceful.

The reverend gentleman was trained at the famous Northwestern university and at the Garrett Biblical institute of Evanston. He served a number of churches in the Des Moines conference, and later in the Rock River conference. Coming from good Scotch-Irish stock, Rev. Fisher possesses broad sympathies and the members of his congregation find in him a man to be esteemed and loved.

He has an exceptionally fine mental poise, which is most valuable in the smooth working of such a large up-to-date church, with so many and various activities.

It is to be hoped sincerely that Albuquerque will be able to retain the Rev. Fisher for many years to come.

MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Feb. 12.—Offerings of cattle from distant points were scarce last week, but Colorado, Texas and Oklahoma each contributed a few. Prices on steers were a little lower each day till Friday, by which time receipts had dropped down so sharply that packers found themselves unable to get enough cattle for local trade, without active competition, and since that time the market has gained 15 to 30 cents on steers. Colorado and Kansas killing steers, 1,250 to 1,300 pounds, sold at $4.35 to $4.75. Cows and heifers, better, all the week and gained 15 to 25 cents in price. Fat western cows sold at $2.25 to $2.75, one drove of western heifers at $4.05. Cows and feeders did not change much, as supply is small, and the cold and stormy weather makes receipts and prices for good cattle. Run of cattle today is 2,000 head; market active and 15 cents higher than close of last week, and called the highest since the first of January. The present advance is probably temporary, on account of the abnormal conditions, but it is hoped a price of $3.00 will be reached.

All sheep and lamb price records at Kansas City were passed last week, but the market this morning is 15 to 25 cents higher than last week on lambs, thirteen doubles of which were up to the supply today. Light western lambs, 55 to 67 pounds, sold at $7.70 today, and 68 to 72 pound stock sold at $7.75. In the condition of the market today choice heavy lambs would make $8. Western yearlings closed last week at $6.25 to $6.75, western $5.25 to $5.50, ewes up to $5.25. Prices on sheep were not tested today, as nothing but lambs were received. Most of the supply of 23,000 head last week came from the Arkansas and San Luis valleys in Colorado. Present prices look fair, and if they stand without a serious break it will be a fine commentary on the foothold the sheep have gained in consuming centers in the last few years.
