TROUBLE NOT OVER AT LINCOLN

Telegrams Are Said To Be Pouring In Here For Governor's Attention

TO PROTECT MIGRATORY BIRDS

Territorial Treasurer Receives Fat Check From Otero County.

Upon his return from Clayton tonight it is believed that Governor Mills will find he has been the recipient of many telegrams if reports received from Lincoln today are true. It seems that the trouble there over the moving of the county records to Carrizozo, the new county seat, is far from being quieted and it is rumored that prominent citizens of Lincoln have been appealing to the governor to take a hand in the matter.

Reports that the governor has been asked to order out the national guard were in circulation this morning, but as this is the customary rumor when there is any trouble in the territory, even in the shape of kidnapping, little attention is given to it.

For the Treasury. Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero has received the sum of $8,639.52 from J. A. Baird, treasurer of Otero county.

Big Demand for Publication.

Territorial Engineer C. D. Miller's publication on Good Roads has been in great demand and the big stack of copies in the engineer's office has dwindled down until only a few copies are left.

Installed Gages.

Hydrographer G. H. Russell has returned from the Rio Grande station where he transferred the automatic gages to the Frenal Hydrographic Survey near Alamogordo, as automatic gages of a new type will be placed at the Rio Puerco station.

A Good Bill.

Game and Fish Warden Thomas P. Gable has received from Representative D. R. Anthony of Kansas, a copy of the bill Mr. Anthony introduced in the house to protect migratory wild fowl in the United States. The first clause of this act reads: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled that it shall be unlawful for any person to kill or capture any wild goose, wild swan, wild pelican, wild crane, wild duck, snipe, plover, woodcock or rail from January 10 to August 15 inclusive, each year."

This act is to apply to all migratory game birds whose habitat is not fixed but is of a migratory or interstate character.

Mr. Gable says he thinks the bill is wise one for heretofore the people of each state have disregarded the rights of these water fowl who fly from state to state and Mr. Anthony wishes to protect them the same as birds less nomadic in habits, are protected.

COLORADO FACTORIES IN BIG COMBINATION.

Inside Information as to Beet Sugar Trust That Has Ostracized New Mexico.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Washington, D. C., June 24.—In the sugar trust investigation it was testified today that the companies in the Great Western group were located at Greeley, Eaton, Longmont, Loveland, Windsor, Fort Collins, Sterling, Brush, Fort Morgan, all in Colorado, with factories at Billings, Montana, and Scotts Bluff, Nebraska.

The last of these the government claims, were erected to forestall erection of sugar plants by interests independent of the Great Western Sugar Company and of the Havemeyers. The amalgamation of these companies, Mr. Morey testified, was proposed first by himself, and associates in Colorado, and after directors in many of the companies had approved the plan, he went to New York and took up the matter with H. O. Havemeyer.

"How much of the Great Western stock does the American Company now own?" asked Representative Nally.

"Thirty-three per cent."

"How much is owned by the Havemeyer estate?"

"Thirty-five per cent is controlled by the Havemeyer estate."

"Then the representative of Mr. Havemeyer's estate and the American Sugar Refining Company control a majority of Western Sugar stock?"

"Yes, that is correct."

Morey on Stand.

Washington, D. C., June 24.—Chester S. Morey of Denver, who succeeded H. O. Havemeyer, as president of the Great Western Sugar Company, upon Mr. Havemeyer's death, resumed the witness stand today before the house sugar trust committee of inquiry.

Mr. Morey was interrogated as to the details of the organization in 1905 of the Great Western Sugar Company, which is an amalgamation of Colorado beet, sugar factories. The American Sugar Refining Company financed many of the smaller factories and in the organization of the consolidated company, now capitalized at $30,000,000 acquired a majority of the stock.

FLOOD RESOLUTION REPORTED 6 TO 3

Slight Amendment Provides for Return of the Little Blue Ballot

TAFT IS TURNED DOWN COLD

His Wishes Regarding Amendment of Arizona Constitution Are Disregarded.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) St. Louis, Mo., June 24.—The senate committee on territories today voted 6 to 3 to report favorably the house resolution admitting New Mexico and Arizona to statehood, with the provision that the Arizona constitution containing the judiciary recall shall be re-submitted to the people. Slight amendments to the house resolution were made. If the senate sustains the committee, the resolution will have to be sent to conference.

Committee Unfriendly to Mexicans. A motion to eliminate Arizona from the bill made by Senator Nelson on grounds that the constitution adopted by the people of that territory was severely discriminatory against the Mexican element of the population was defeated.

Ballots to Be Returned.

The amendment to the house bill provides for the return of ballots used in voting on amendments to the New Mexico constitution, whether they are used or not. The object of the provision is to prevent repeating.

Taft and Cameron Turned Down.

Delegate Cameron's suggestion for an amendment of the Arizona constitution so as to eliminate the provision for the recall of judges failed to receive any consideration. The suggestion was regarded as beyond the power of the committee.

If the senate accepts the house resolution and it becomes a law, the people of the two territories will be assured of statehood.

Smith is Optimistic.

The re-submission of the portions of the two constitutions is intended only to give the voters another opportunity to say whether in the case of Arizona they desire the right to recall their judges and in that of New Mexico, whether they are satisfied with the strict provisions against amendments. It is provided that whatever the vote, the instruments shall become effective.

Chairman William Alden Smith of the committee believes the senate will act before adjournment.

Bailey Will Fight Arizona.

Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, D. C., June 24.—The senate committee on territories agreed on a report amending the Flood house resolution No. 14, to the extent that each voter without request must be handed a separate ballot containing the proposed amendment to the New Mexico constitution. Thus amended, the recommendation was unanimous that the resolution pass the senate. The motion to strike Arizona from the resolution was lost by a vote of 3 to 6. The resolution was then ordered reported, Senators Nelson, Burnham and Lippert reserving the right to make a minority report. Senator Bailey announces that he will speak against the initiative, referendum and recall in Arizona, but will not filibuster against New Mexico's admission. Indications for statehood are more favorable than ever before and the New Mexico contingent here is optimistic and joyful.

TIFF BETWEEN COUNSEL AND JUDGE AT DENVER.

Only Sensational Feature in Today's Session of the Trial of Frank Henwood.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Denver, Colo., June 24.—After a brief examination of only two witnesses the trial of Frank H. Henwood for the murder of George E. Cope land was adjourned today until Monday.

The brief session was notable for a sharp exchange between Judge Whitford and John T. Bottom, the attorney for Henwood.

The latter, in questioning a bell boy of the Brown Palace hotel, had again sought to bring out evidence of a threatening attitude upon the part of S. Louis Von Phul in advance of the shooting of Von Phul and Cope land by Henwood. The bell boy had said that Von Phul was partly facing Henwood when the court ruled that this testimony did not show an attitude sufficiently threatening to warrant the shooting.

In the colloquy, Attorney Bottom finally exclaimed: "I object to the remarks of the court in the presence of the jury."

"And I object to the remarks of the counsel," replied Judge Whitford, who finally ordered the attorney to take his seat.

Attorney Bottom has thus far been frustrated in his efforts to introduce testimony that would show Von Phul had threatened Henwood, in advance, on which will hinge the appearance of Mrs. Springer as a witness.

Fifty-Eight of Mosby's Men Killed.

San Diego, Calif., June 24.—The losses of Mosby's men in the Tia Juana fight Thursday were much heavier than first reports indicated. Celso Vega, in command of the federal troops, reported that his men buried 31 bodies yesterday and that a total of 58 have been found.

RULE OF REASON IS APPLIED

Purchase of Southern by Union Pacific Not in Restraint of Trade

CIRCUIT COURT DECISION

Investment of Harriman in Santa Fe Lines Was Legitimate Enterprise.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) St. Louis, Mo., June 24.—The United States circuit court of the eighth district today handed down an opinion that the purchase of the Southern Pacific by the Union Pacific "did not amount to a direct and substantial restraint of either interstate or international commerce." The recent decision of the United States supreme court in the Standard Oil case was cited among others by Judge Elmer B. Adams, who wrote the majority opinion.

Supreme Court Justice Willis Van Devanter while a circuit judge of the eighth district, participated in the hearing, deliberation and conclusion in the case and concurred in the opinion.

Judge William C. Hook, filed a dissenting opinion, in which he expressed the belief that the government's petition was well founded and should have been granted.

The majority decision was written by Judge Elmer B. Adams and mailed to the clerk of the court here.

"The only question," read the opinion, "was the Union Pacific Company extending only from Omaha and Kansas City on the east, to Ogden on the west, a competing line, prior to 1901, for transcontinental business with the Southern Pacific Company, whose line extended from New York in the east over the sea to New Orleans, and thence by rail to San Francisco and Portland on the west."

"While the Union Pacific was entirely dependent upon the Southern Pacific for its connection westward, the Southern Pacific was not at all dependent upon the Union Pacific for its connection eastward," read the majority opinion.

"Our conclusion," continued the opinion, "is that all the facts of the case considered in their natural, reasonable and practical aspect and given their appropriate relative significance, do not make the Union Pacific a substantial competitor for transcontinental business with the Southern Pacific in or prior to the year 1901."

The court held that the investment of the Harriman lines in the Santa Fe was not for acquiring control and that if it was for obtaining information concerning the operation of a great competitor they chose a lawful way for doing it.

"The conclusions of fact dispose of this case," the opinion concluded, "without the necessity of determining the question much debated in brief and argument of whether holding control of the Southern Pacific Company by purchasing stock of individual owners, could in any view of the case have contravened the anti-trust law. Of the facts of this case with all their reasonable and fair inferences we conclude that the government has failed to substantiate the averments of its bill."

The bill must be dismissed and a decree will be entered to that effect.

Condition Improved.

Their physical condition has been vastly improved and their efficiency for public service, as well as for private profit, has been greatly enhanced.

The whole proof taken together, we think, fails to disclose any conspiracy to restrain interstate or foreign commerce in violation of the first section of the act.

Shippers Made No Complaint.

St. Louis, June 24.—The merger, according to the court, did not cause a change in rates, no complaints of discrimination and no conspiracy. Concurring in these features, the opinion reads: "The proof shows that after 1901, as well as before the rates for transcontinental traffic were the same over both the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific lines. There has since then been with respect to either of these lines, no impairment of service, no discontinuance of efforts to satisfy the public, and no complaints of shippers of any inferior or inadequate service."

"On the contrary, hundreds of millions of dollars have since 1901 been expended on these roads."

Hook's Dissenting Opinion.

St. Louis, Mo., June 24.—Judge Hook in his dissenting opinion, refers to the government's complaint of unlawful contract in restraint of trade between the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific railroads, thus destroying or suppressing competition. He says the combination was effected by the purchase by the Union Pacific of part of the stock of the Southern Pacific road. Judge Hook says there is no substantial difference between the holding of the corporate stock of two companies by a third, such as was condemned in the Northern Securities case and the holding by one of these two in the stock of another.

He says: "It would be idle to hold that while two competing railroad companies cannot lawfully submit to a common control through a separate stock holding organization they

KIT CARSON THE PIONEER

GRAND DAUGHTER PULLS CORD

Governor Shafroth Made Address at Dedication of Great Memorial.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Denver, Colo., June 24.—A great granite monument surmounted and surrounded by bronze figures and groups, was unveiled here today in memory of the pioneers who fifty-three years ago in their search for gold camped on the present site of Kit Carson, the Great New Mexico Scout.

Denver. Green Russell and his party found gold and started a human flood from the east and south into the "Pikes Peak country." The monument is surmounted by a heroic statue of Kit Carson, mounted and pointing onward. A bronze group all of which are the work of Frederick MacMonie, representing "The Trapper and Hunter," "The Miner and Prospector," and "The Pioneer Mother," surround the base of the monument.

Miss Leona Wood, granddaughter of Kit Carson, pulled the cord that released the draperies from the bronze figures. Governor Shafroth delivered the principal address.

DAY OF SHIPS AND SAILORS

Seventeen Nations Represented in Naval Review off Spithead To-day

DELAWARE LARGEST SHIP THERE

Magnificent Pageant Covered Eight Square Miles of British Channel.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Portsmouth, Eng., June 24.—This was the day of ships and sailors. The king and queen and the foreign representatives at the coronation left the capital and came here for the great naval review off Spithead. Fine weather put the finishing touches on one of the most magnificent displays of the week. Seventeen nations were represented in the vessels moored in Spithead road in the English channel, between the mainland and the Isle of Wight.

Of the number, ten were battle ships of the dreadnaught class from the British navy, and one visiting dreadnaught, the German ship Von der Tann. First, however, in size and armament, was the American battleship Delaware.

In addition to the official representatives of the seventeen visiting nations there were secondary vessels from Japan, Italy and Chile.

Various types of warships added to the British units of dreadnaughts, and invincibles made the total British contingent 170 ships.

All the vessels in the roadstead, including the foreign warships and excursion steamers with spectators were moored in lines supplemented by shorter lines of submarines and torpedo boats. The fleet occupied an area of about eight square miles.

INGWERSON PRESIDENT OF LIVE STOCK EXCHANGE.

Next National Convention is to Go to Portland, Oregon, According to Officers.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Sioux City, Iowa, June 24.—It is expected that E. W. Ingwerson of Chicago, first vice president of the National Live Stock Exchange will be elected president at this afternoon's session. The next convention will go to Portland, Oregon, according to officers of the organization.

TAX DODGERS AFTER LORIMER

Real Motive of Bitter Attacks On Illinois Senator Are Brought Out

HEARING TAKES NEW TREND

Had Taxes of McCormick Family Increased from $8,000 to $500,000.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Washington, D. C., June 24.—The scope of the Lorimer investigation was materially widened today when the senate investigating committee decided to allow Lorimer's counsel to question the motives which might have prompted any official of the International Harvester Company to oppose Lorimer's political advancement. This gave Lorimer's counsel all the latitude they desired in attacking the statement of General Manager Clarence S. Funk, of the International Harvester Company, that Edward Hines of Chicago, had asked that company to contribute $10,000 on account of Lorimer's election expenses.

Attorney Haney for Mr. Lorimer referred to the statement as a "creation."

The attorney further said he desired to show that there were reports that Senator Lorimer was not only opposed to the International but that he was the moving spirit behind tax proceedings as a result of which the members of the McCormick family, who were interested in the Harvester Company, were subjected to an increase in taxes from $8,000 or $9,000 to $500,000.

"I do not think Senator Lorimer had anything to do with it," said Mr. Haney, but his friends may have, and it was reported Lorimer was behind it."

Herman H. Kohlsaat, editor and publisher of the Chicago Record-Herald, was the second witness of today. Under examination by Attorney John H. Marble, Mr. Kohlsaat gave his opinion of Senator Lorimer.

A Dual Character.

"He is a dual character," declared Mr. Kohlsaat. "In his private life I admire him. He has beautiful children and his home life is ideal. But I have always opposed Lorimerism."

"What is Lorimerism?" asked Senator Kern.

"It is an affiliation and co-operation and cohesion of Democrats and Republicans for party self-interest."

Mr. Kohlsaat declared that former President Roosevelt's refusal to attend the Hamilton Club dinner last year if Senator Lorimer was to be present, was the outcome of the disclosure to him by the witness of the alleged request for contributions to reimburse those who raised the Lorimer election fund.

Roosevelt Had Been Posted.

Washington, D. C., June 24.—That Colonel Roosevelt has known since early last fall the entire story of how Edward Hines is alleged to have asked Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester Company for a $10,000 contribution to a $100,000 fund "used to put Lorimer across at Springfield," was testified to today before the Senate Lorimer committee by Herman H. Kohlsaat, publisher of the Chicago Record-Herald.

Mr. Kohlsaat told the story to Colonel Roosevelt just before the Hamilton Club dinner at Chicago, which Roosevelt refused to attend until Lorimer's invitation was withdrawn. It was upon this information, Mr. Kohlsaat said, that the former president based his action in declining to sit at the same table with the Illinois senator.

Mr. Kohlsaat further testified that he had written an account of the conversation between himself and Funk, but without mentioning Funk's name, to Senator LaFollette and Root.

This was done at the request of Walter L. Fisher, now secretary of the interior and others.

"Senator Root wrote me in reply," said the witness, and thanked me for the information. He said it had greatly influenced him in making his speech against Lorimer on the floor of the Senate."

"What?" exclaimed Senator Gamble, "do you mean to say that senators were influenced in arriving at their decision by matters not in evidence?"

"I did not discuss that question with Senator Root," replied Mr. Kohlsaat.

The witness said that Senator LaFollette tried very hard to get him to come to Washington to talk about the conversation, even threatening to send a sergeant-at-arms after him.

Mr. Kohlsaat said that besides Colonel Roosevelt he had only divulged Mr. Funk's name in connection with the conversation to Victor S. Lawson, and to Mrs. Kohlsaat.

At 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the famous De Vargas procession will take place from the Cathedral to Rosario chapel, going by way of San Francisco street and returning by Johnson street and West Palace avenue.

DE VARGAS PROCESSION 2:30 P. M. TOMORROW. Reports of various officers and committees occupied the morning session. This afternoon was devoted to a discussion of the prevalence of crime and suicide and the responsibility of newspapers and morbid literary workers therefor.

Eugenics and hygiene in public schools also were topics discussed during the first open meeting at noon.

EGYPTOLOGIST GIGNOUX IS HERE

Reader of Hieroglyphics Is Skeptical About Our Sphinx.

GIVES PALM TO OLD GIZEH

But Declares Santa Fe and Southwest Should Be Seen First.

Gerard C. Gignoux, son of a New York financier, graduate of Groton School and Harvard University; archaeologist, Egyptologist, and Swiss mountain climber; successful explorer of the Sahara desert and traveler of note; student of many modern and several ancient and "exact" languages including Greek, Sanskrit and Egyptian, etc., etc., has come to Santa Fe to study some of its antiquities.

Mr. Gignoux is a resident of Great Neck, near the historic city of Flushing, Long Island and he is a guest of Bronson M. Cutting, his "companion" at Harvard, and on a journey many hundred miles down the Nile.

"Are you aware that we have at the cliff dwellings a sphinx much older than the over-rated creature in Egypt?" said the representative of the New Mexican.

Mr. Gignoux smiled, and paused before answering. Finally he said: "Far be it from me to diminish the glory of your antiquities, for I have read Miss Agnes C. Laut's illuminating article in the Saturday Evening Post and in many of her statements I agree with her. But that you have a sphinx much older than the famous Egyptian sphinx at Gizeh, I greatly doubt. Still, that is a matter for discussion. Certain it is, Santa Fe and the Southwest should be seen before one goes abroad."

Mr. Gignoux is greatly interested in the history of Santa Fe and was a caller yesterday on Governor and Mrs. Bradford Prince, who reside part of each year at Flushing, near his own birthplace. Mr. Gignoux spent hours going over the many curios in Governor and Mrs. Prince's museum, and said they have one of the most interesting private collections to be seen in the Southwest or anywhere.

Is a Great Traveler.

Mr. Gignoux is still under 30 years of age, but he has travelled much and studied more. He was a member of the party which went up the Nile in a private yacht which included Bronson Cutting, his brother, Bayward Cutting, the diplomatic service; Gordon Gardner, the military expert and strategist; Dr. Frederick M. Bishop, the distinguished London physician and playwright; Lord and Lady Desert and their daughter, Lady Sibyl Cutting, sister-in-law of Bronson Cutting, and many others.

Reads Hieroglyphics.

Mr. Gignoux explored the temples and kings' tombs at Thebes, and his knowledge of hieroglyphics aided him much in his studies. He later made a daring caravan trip in the Sahara desert to Semah, and battled with the great sand storms which try the hardest traveler.

He was prominent as a mountain climber, ascending the Dolomites in Tyrol. These peaks assume the most fantastic forms and are much frequented by travelers every summer.

Never having seen an Indian dance, Mr. Gignoux was taken by Dr. Bishop to the San Juan Pueblo this morning in Mr. Cutting's car and there he will see a type of men and women rivaling in physical endurance the Nubian princes and princesses he saw on his caravan trip.

WILEY WILL INVESTIGATE LAGER AND BUCK BEER.

Brewers Are to Be Grilled to Discover Whether Their Labels Are Misleading.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)

Washington, D. C., June 24.—The beer industry of the United States is to undergo a searching inquiry at the hands of the board of food and drug inspection. Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the department of agriculture, and chairman of the board, has given notice of a general hearing on beer in this city on July 31. Dr. Wiley has formulated a formidable list of questions. One of the points upon which the board desires light is the meaning of the terms "Lager," and "Bock" as applied to beer.

If any domestic brews of beer, ale, porter or stout are masquerading under the names of foreign products the board is likely to find it out.

MEDICOS DISCUSS CRIME, SUICIDE AND EUGENICS.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Los Angeles, Calif., June 24.—The business session of the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the American academy of medicine, began here today, preliminary to the American Medical Association's convention, which will open Monday.

Reports of various officers and committees occupied the morning session. This afternoon was devoted to a discussion of the prevalence of crime and suicide and the responsibility of newspapers and morbid literary workers therefor.

Eugenics and hygiene in public schools also were topics discussed during the first open meeting at noon.

GREAT PAGEANT OF DE VARGAS

Practice March Yesterday Afternoon Proves It Will Be Great Success

ROUTE IS NOW ANNOUNCED

Representation Is to Be Historically Correct in Every Detail.

The route that De Vargas covered from the battlefield west of Santa Fe to the Old Palace in that memorable September, 1692, when he recaptured this city from the Pueblo Indians after they had held it twelve years, is to be closely followed by the De Vargas pageant on the forenoon of July 4, previous to the grand parade of which the pageant will form a part.

Re-Conquistador Don Diego de Vargas Zapata Lujan Ponce de Leon, will meet his brilliant retinue dressed in the splendor of that period at 3 a. m. at the historic Rosario Chapel in Rosario Cemetery adjoining the National Cemetery, and will march up Rosario street to Catron street thence east along Catron street to Federal street to Lincoln avenue, thence to San Francisco street to Seligman street to Palace avenue, thence west to the Old Governor's Palace in front of which De Vargas will be greeted by the Indian chiefs and their followers.

At this point a cross will be erected under the shadow of which De Vargas, after dismounting, will formally take possession of the city. He will read the proclamation issued in 1692 by De Vargas and of which Hon. B. M. Read, the historian, has furnished a copy.

Every effort is being made to have the pageant historically correct, to follow the costumes of that period to the minutest detail and to reproduce faithfully as far as possible the scene of that September day 213 years ago when the coming of De Vargas re-established Spanish domain over the Southwest.

After the pageant, the cavalcade will take its position in the grand parade which will include fifty or more automobiles, many of them decorated with flags and bunting or with flowers.

As has been announced Hon. George W. Armijo will represent De Vargas. His costume, his trappings, his noble charger, the silver saddle, all will unite in producing a noteworthy figure. Some hundred Pueblo Indians, descendants of those who ruled in Santa Fe from 1680 to 1692, will take part in the pageant and have promised to come in their most brilliant war array. The retinue of Don De Vargas will include the members of the Americana Hispana Alianza. Altogether it will be a brilliant display that will reflect glory on Santa Fe and will establish a foundation for a pageant each year that will make the old town famous the world over.

Yesterday afternoon the principal participants had a practice march and report that everything is now ready for the final demonstration.

PRESIDENT TAFT STANDS PAT ON RECIPROCITY.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)

Washington, June 24.—It became known at the capital today that President Taft, talking over the long distance telephone from Providence last night, repeated to several senators his determination to veto the Canadian reciprocity bill in case any amendment is added to it.

Senators accept the president's ultimatum on reciprocity as applicable to modifications which might be made at the instance of Republicans as well as Democrats.

A BALLAD OF MIDSUMMER.
The rose still blooms within the clift
parterre,
A boon to lovers; still the south
winds sigh;
There is a sense of languor in the air,
Each croons the cuckoo where the orchards lie
Aswoon in dreams from morn to mellow morn;
The wheat is golden 'neath a gold-
blue sky,
And hopes of harvest kindle in the corn.

The thrush at twilight weaves a silver snare
Of song that quavers till the moon is high;
There is an orient altar everywhere;
Each hour that passes seems too
sweet to die.
The shrill cicada sounds its sudden cry
In the hot bush, then leaves the silence lone;
An amber ripple runs along the rye,
While hopes of harvest kindle in the corn.

The mountains call us, stair on stately stair;
The glades invite us; we are fain
to fly,
Leaving behind the thrilling bonds of care.
(Each hour that passes seems too
sweet to die.)
Forgetful of the web of ashen ply
To toil whereat were weary mortals
born,
Grasping the meed the darker days deny
How hopes of harvest kindle in the corn.

Envoy.
Love, let us share its glamour, you and I.
Each passing hour that seems too
sweet to die!
Life is at floodtide, or no glory shorn.
When hopes of harvest kindle in the corn.

June Divorces Popular.
Ruth Browning has filed suit for divorce at Albuquerque, against her husband, Alva Browning, a landscape painter, on the ground of non-support.
She said that the last time she sent him $100 he failed to reply and she has not heard from him since. She has been earning her living by working at the Harvey house and sent her savings to her husband. Jose N. Tana of Sandoval county, was granted a divorce from Dolores Salazar Tana.

High Water in Rio Grande.
The continuous high water in the Rio Grande thus far this year has resulted in considerable erosion on farms in Dona Ana county and farmers have been compelled to build rip-rap work between Anthony and Rincon.

Lovelorn Man in Trouble.
All because she refused to marry him and married a man named Mc-Clellan instead, has brought a heap of trouble to Joseph Masten of Roswell, who was fined $5 for assaulting Mrs. Stella McClellan, and is charged now with sending her a letter threatening to kill her. He is also charged with carrying a deadly weapon.

Last Stand of Booze.
The last stand of the saloon advocates in the lower Pecos valley is an injunction suit brought in the district court by P. C. Jacoby, the proprietor of the saloon at Dexter, to prevent the village trustees from interfering with his business. It is the last saloon that is left in the lower Pecos valley.

Old Albuquerque Eliminates Red

Light.
Old Albuquerque has joined with the City of Albuquerque to drive out the red light. The Bernalillo county authorities, too, are determined that the demi-monde driven out of Albuquerque shall not make its home anywhere else in the county but must proceed on to Santa Fe and other cities where the people will permit them to play their nefarious business.

Lucky Bill.
President Taft has been invited to visit Uby, Mich., by John Lusk, proprietor and editor of the Uby Counter. Lusk in writing to the President pointed out that when Mr. Taft was a "club reporter" on the Cincinnati Gazette at $12 per week Lusk was getting $25 on the same newspaper.
Lusk was an editor then. He was a printer. In the last issue of his paper Lusk says: "After all, we don't know whether Taft has much on us if it wasn't for the rheumatism."

Grant Case Decided.
Judge Ira A. Abbott decided the case of E. Holmes and Alfred N. Gossett, against forty decedents of Ignacio Chavez, for the Ignacio Chavez grant of 42,000 acres on the Rio Puerco in Sandoval and McKinley counties. The court gives to the defendants fee simple title to the agricultural lands at Guadalupe some 2,000 acres, and also decided that the public roads and ditches are to remain unmolested but that the remaining lands are in the plaintiffs.

Cross, Sick Children Will Take 'Cascarets'

It is Cruel and Needless to Force a Feverish, Irritable Child to Take a Nauseating Dose of Oil.

Look back at your childhood days.
Remember the physic that mother insisted on once in a while—castor oil, salts or cathartics. How you hated them. How you fought against taking them. How you dreaded their after-effects. That was all wrong, but then nobody knew better.

With your children it's different.
They belong to the day of the gentle in medicine. The day of harsh physics is over. We don't force the bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after-effects. And the dose is a candy tablet.

Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't know what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender bowels are harmful by them. The modern way is to give a gentle laxative, and to give it more frequently. To keep the bowels always active. The best method is Cascarets. One-half a tablet, as often as needed, does more than anything else to keep a child well. Keep a 10 cent box at home always. They are best for mamma and daddy, too.

Concerning Man. The sermon at the Presbyterian church will be preached by the pastor of the Methodist church. B. F. Summers, pastor.

EDITORIAL FLASHES

Oh, You Gloomy!
Every once so often the New Mexican comes out as it did yesterday about some eastern senator or representative being New Mexico's "devoted friend." A short time ago it was Penrose, now it is Mr. Willis. Probably if we wait a few more weeks, months or years the New Mexican may discover enough "devoted friends" at Washington to bunch up and give us statehood. As the matter stands now our devoted friends are not cutting much ice.

From what we can learn of New Mexico's "devoted friends" they could have served New Mexico best by taking a pleasure trip to the coronation in London or a tour of inspection along the Nile green Nile; from a distance they could really do us some good—the greater the distance the greater good—Raton Range.

THIS IS CERTAIN

The Proof That Santa Fe Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Year ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Mrs. Agripina D. de Gonzales, 102 Garcia St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "In September, 1906, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and used them for backache which had been a source of much annoyance. In the morning when I arose my back was so lame and painful that I could hardly stoop. I knew that my trouble was due to disordered kidneys and I was finally led to try Doan's Kidney Pills, by the good reports I heard about them. The contents of one box drove away all my pains and I am happy to state that my cure has been permanent."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Coronation Celebrations Will Hold Boards Far Into Next Month

NAVAL REVIEW HELD TO-DAY

Monday There Will Be Gala Performances at Covent Garden Opera House.

London, June 24.—The impressive ceremonies of coronation day have ushered in a series of coronation events of almost daily occurrence for the next month up to about July 21. Beginning with the Naval Review at Spithead today these coronation receptions and festivities keep the King and Queen moving throughout the kingdom. The royal visit to Ireland from July 7 to 12, the investiture of the Prince of Wales at Carnarvon on July 13, and the royal visit to Scotland from July 17 to 21 are some of the principal events.

The program for these various royal functions, beginning with the Naval Review today, is as follows:

June 24—Naval Review at Spithead. The King and Queen spend the night on the royal yacht.

June 26—Their majesties return to London and attend the gala performance at the Covent Garden opera.

June 27—Royal garden party at Buckingham palace, followed by a gala performance at his Majesty's Theatre.

June 28—The Royal guests depart. The King visits the Royal Agricultural show at Norwich.

June 29—Royal visit to the City of London. Thanksgiving service at St. Paul's Cathedral, followed by lunch at the Guildhall. Return journey to the palace through the North London boroughs.

June 30—King's fete to 100,000 London school children at the Crystal Palace. The King and Queen will be present at a dinner given by the Minister and Mrs. Asquith. Coronation medals will be presented to the colonial and Indian troops who have participated in the ceremony.

July 1—Their majesties leave for Windsor, alighting at Slough and proceeding by road to the castle.

July 7 and 8—Royal visit to Ireland. Arrival at Kingston on board the Victoria and Albert. Landing, and reception by the Lord Lieutenant. Drive to Dublin. Visit to Phoenix Park races. Dinner at the castle.

July 9—Service at St. Patrick's Cathedral. Visit to Artane Industrial school. Inspection of pensioners and girls at Drummond Institute.

July 10—His Majesty receives addresses at the castle and holds a levee. The Queen receives an address from the women of Ireland and visits Coombe hospital. Visit to Leopardstown racecourse. State banquet at the castle. His Majesty afterwards holds a chapter of the order of St. Patrick.

July 11—The King inspects the Royal Irish constabulary at the Vice-regal lodge and attends a review of the troops and the presentation of colors in Phoenix park. Garden party at the castle in the evening.

July 12—Their majesties leave Dublin and embark at Kingston on board the Victoria and Albert.

July 13—Investiture of the Prince of Wales at Carnarvon.

July 14—The King opens the new University College at Bangor.

July 15—The King lays the foundation stone of the Welsh National Library at Aberystwith.

July 17—Royal visit to Edinburgh. The King and Queen with the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary arrive at the Caledonian railroad station in Princess street at 6 p. m., where the Duke of Connaught awaits their arrival.

July 18—Inspection of the King's bodyguard of Scotland (the royal company of archers) and presentation of colors by his Majesty at 10:30 a. m., to be followed by presentation of the "Redendo" and by the presentation of addresses by various bodies. The Queen visits the women's and children's hospital at Brunsfield. The King in the afternoon pays a visit to Edinburgh castle and to the Royal Scottish Academy.

July 19—The King attends St. Giles' Cathedral in the morning for the dedication of the chapel of the Thistle. Their majesties in the afternoon lay the foundation stones of the Usher Hall and afterwards pay a visit to the Royal Infirmary. Their majesties hold a court in the evening.

July 20—in the morning the King presents colors to the Royal Scots in the King's Park and inspects the veterans, the boy's brigade, the Church lads' brigade, a detachment of boys from Queen Victoria school. Dunblane and the Boy Scouts. A visit will be paid to Linlithgow castle in the afternoon.

July 21—Their majesties leave Edinburgh.

The gala performance at His Majesty's Theatre on Tuesday, June 27, is to be one of the most brilliant functions connected with the coronation.

A prologue written for the occasion by Owen Seaman is to open the proceedings, and this will be followed by scenes from "Money," "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "The School for Scandal," "Julius Caesar," and "The Critic." Ben Johnson's masque, "The Vision of Delight" will then be given and the performance is to conclude with the singing of the national anthem.

The official program is as follows: Prologue, spoken by Forbes Robertson. Scenes from the "Merry Wives of Windsor," in which Mrs. Kendal, Miss Ellen Terry, and Mrs. Charles Calvert will appear.

The second act of "David Garrick" with Sir Charles Wyndham, Edward Terry, Wedon Grossmith and Miss

Miss Moore.

The forum scene from "Julius Caesar," the actors including Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree and E. S. Willard.

"The Critic," including George Alexander, Arthur Bourchier, Cyril Maude, Charles Hawtrey, Oscar Asquith, Gerald du Maurier, Laurence Irving, Lady Tree, Winifred Emery, Marie Tempest, Gertrude Miliar, Lily Elsie and Violet Vanbrugh.

"The Vision of Delight," in which will be seen Mrs. Langtry, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Lena Ashwell, Ellis Jeffreys, Evelyn Millard, Gertrude Kingston, Marie Loehr, Eva Moore, Lillian Braithwaite, Evelyn D'Alroy, Lilian McCarthy, and Constance Collier. A large number of other leading actresses and singers will compose the choruses.

"The National Anthem" will be sung by Miss Clara Butt.

The King and Queen will be received on their arrival at the theater by Sir Herbert Tree and Sir John Hare, the latter of whom will remain at their majesties' disposal throughout the evening as representative of the executive committee, which comprises the following well known members of the dramatic profession: Sir Charles Wyndham, chairman, Sir John Hare, George Alexander, Cyril Maude, Charles Hawtrey, H. B. Irving, Herbert Trench, Herbert Tree, and Arthur Bourchier, organizing secretary.

The entire grand tier of the house has been rearranged so as to form the royal box, in which the king and queen and their principal guests are to be seated while two other large boxes and 250 stalls have also been engaged by the court officials.

The design for the decoration of the interior of the theatre is a novel one and consists almost wholly of real fruit of the most vivid colors surrounded by its own leaves. For the royal boxes and the vestibule in which their majesties will hold a reception of their guests, however, great masses of crimson rambler roses, hydrangeas and lilies will be utilized and these will be toned down gradually to harmonize with the rest of the scheme. On the outside balcony the columns are to be draped with imperial purple curtains, interlaced with garlands bound with gold ribbons. Small growing trees will be placed all over the balcony, in the center of which a fountain of water will play.

The general auditorium will be adorned with a design in pink, white and crimson, with festoons of fruit and garlands in green and gold. Relieved by crimson banners with the royal arms placed below the seats of the king and queen. In the stalls and dress circles the public will be required to wear court dress or uniform and in other parts of the theatre evening dress.

There has been an enormous demand for seats and some very high premiums have been paid. The prices of those places open to the public were fixed by the management as follows: private boxes from $262.50 up to $525; orchestra stalls, $105, dress circle, $26 to $52 and amphitheatre $8.50.

JUBILEE OF ITALIAN UNITY

Excessive Zeal of Bishops on Behalf of Vatican Does Not Please the Pope.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)

Rome, June 24.—The celebration of the Jubilee of Italian Unity with the Exhibitions in Rome and in Turin, has emphasized the strangeness of the situation between Italy and Austria. Emperor Francis Joseph and the Government of the Dual Monarchy, alone of all rulers and great powers, have sent no representation to the Italian celebration and it has been only in the most recalcitrant manner that Austria has participated in the international Exhibition of Fine Arts here, while she was the only nation which did not take part in the Exhibition of Industries and Labor of Turin.

This is significant when one considers that Vienna and Rome have been allied as Members of the Triple Alliance for nearly thirty years. Nor can it be said that Austria's attitude is inspired by a desire to spare the feelings of the Vatican, as Austria in 1870 was the first country to congratulate Italy over the fall of the Temporal Power, and the relations between the Austrian government and the Holy See has been recently strained. The attitude of Austria is due to the ancient antagonism between the two countries, which is reaching a more acute stage now that the health of Emperor Francis Joseph is failing, and the reins of the Dual Monarchy are practically in the hands of Crown Prince Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

The old Emperor has witnessed during his reign greater political and family catastrophes than any other living sovereign with the exception, perhaps of King Manuel of Portugal. He went from the defeat of Sadova to the loss of Lombardy and Venetia, from the incurable infirmity of Empress Elizabeth to her murder by an anarchist, besides that yet unexplained tragedy which led to the death of his only son, Archduke Rudolph.

Such a succession of sorrows induced the venerable old monarch to be strongly opposed to his country participating in any conflict, and the one which might have been the most probable was avoided through the alliance with Italy and Germany, and the great respect that the aged ruler inspired through Europe. His successor will not command the same influence, so that the disappearance of Francis Joseph may have a capital influence in the foreign policy of Europe, it being doubtful that he will maintain the present attitude of submission to Germany, while his intransigent clericalism may revive in Austria the "Loss of Rome" movement, and cause a rupture with Italy, which would not please even the Vatican, as Pope Pius X is averse to any event which might revive an acute stage between church and state in Italy, as he proved by his mild attitude in connection with the present celebration of Italian unity.

Vatican Reserved. The attitude of the Vatican towards the celebration of the Jubilee of Italian Unity has been so far characterized by a most dignified reserve, as while it can not approve of manifestations which commemorate the fall of the Temporal Power, it does not desire that anything should be done which might embitter the relations between Church and State, which since the Pontificate of the present pope began, have been characterized by a spirit of mutual tolerance which in some cases has even reached cordiality. Therefore, the excessive zeal of certain Bishops, who being so far from Rome have not an exact grasp of the situation here, does not meet altogether with the approval of the Vatican. During this year of Italian Jubilee the Vatican has decided to suppress all kinds of pilgrimages, being inspired by the same idea of preventing conflicts between its adherents and those of opposite opinions, and is also most strict in not admitting to private audiences with the Pope, people who are connected with the Italian celebrations.

Gift of Two Lions.

Tradition is a tenacious thing and not easily overcome especially in the countries of the Old World. Two thousand years ago the triumphs of a Roman Emperor was not complete unless it included some wild beasts. In these days in Rome, Pagan customs have been adapted to Christian ideas, and so the Monarch, while he no more goes in procession with the Kings of the Forest, receives them as gifts—and hands them over to the Zoological Gardens.

In this manner the new ruler of Abyssinia, Lig-Jasu, has shown his deference towards the King of Italy by sending two magnificent lions, a buffalo and a zebra. They were first taken to the garden of the palace, where the lions roared, the buffalo bellowed and the zebra—made his own kind of noise. The racket roused the neighborhood, to say nothing of the King and Queen and their little ones. It may be stated without fear of contradiction that the only ones pleased were the children who wept loudly when the beasts were taken to the Zoo. Prince Umberto being heard to remark that he did not think that was the way to treat the wishes of a future king!

A MOTHER'S DUTY

It is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and a benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy.

Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

CARLETON JOSEPH ENNIS
DEAD AT LOS ANGELES.

Faithful Employee of the Santa Fe and Well Known Throughout New Mexico.

Word comes from Los Angeles of the death of Carleton Joseph Ennis, who had many friends in New Mexico and was an esteemed officer of the Santa Fe railway system, with which he had been identified for more than twenty-five years. He was born at Fort Union, Mora county, in August, 23, 1866, the only son of the late Lieutenant Joseph J. Ennis, Third U. S. Cavalry, and Olive Colvin Ennis-Hite, and stepson of Wallace Worth Hite. His father was killed by the Indians at Cimarron, Colfax county, in 1869. The son began service with the Santa Fe at Albuquerque in 1889 and was employed continuously up to the time of his death, except for a short time in newspaper work in New Mexico and with the Tonopah and Tidewater railroad in Nevada. At the time he passed away at the Santa Fe hospital at Los Angeles, he was one of the contracting agents of the Santa Fe. He was faithful to his duty even when his feet had entered "The Valley of the Shadow" and he was anxious to go to the office up to the last. He was a soldier's son and true to the fighting blood that meant obedience and loyalty. The funeral took place at Los Angeles under the auspices of the Elks, his mother Mrs. Olive Ennis Hite, has many friends among the old timers in Santa Fe, whose sympathy goes out to her in the bitter bereavement.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

FINISH THE SCENIC HIGHWAY.

It is to be regretted that the best month in the year for road building in the mountains has been permitted to pass by without anything being done to put the Scenic Highway in Santa Fe canyon and over the Dalton Divide into proper shape. This road is the biggest advertisement for New Mexico imaginable and would bring more money into the territory than a new railroad if it were finished to the Pecos and kept in passable shape. More than $20,000 is invested already and it seems a pity that this capital is permitted to remain non-productive when work by convicts would in short time establish connections between the two ends. Not until the Scenic Highway is built to the Pecos will the La Bajada or the Glorietta or other roads in this vicinity receive the large amount of traffic for which they are intended, for the local star, the upper Pecos country, is the point that travelers and tourists want to reach. The promise of great railroad systems has been obtained that they would advertise this Scenic Highway between Santa Fe and Las Vegas as the Grand Canyon and Yosemite are advertised, that they would spend thousands of dollars to bring travelers to New Mexico to view this great mountain road, which is two-thirds finished but is now neglected although it is New Mexico's greatest asset in more than one respect. Ten thousand travelers brought here would mean a million dollars a year more for New Mexico merchants and railroads and incidentally many new residents and investors.

The work on the Scenic Highway is ideal employment for the convicts. Experience has taught that convict labor on good roads is too expensive unless it is prosecuted within fifty miles of the base of supplies and in places where the convicts are not too near farmhouses and villages. They have learned this in Colorado and a Denver dispatch says:

"Nineteen convicts, five of whom were serving a life term for murder, were brought from Canon City to the camp above Paradise yesterday, unshackled and unhandcuffed by a lone, unarmed guard, Frank Hudson, 22 years old.

"Then the supposed desperate men were taken into the darkness of the canons in the dead of night, where a thousand opportunities of escape offered, and turned over to the guards at the convict camp, where the automobile road to Glenwood is now being constructed by Mesa county.

"The remarkable incident in connection with this trip is credited to the honor system which Warden Tynan has installed among the convicts at Canon City.

"Not all the convicts are given this chance at time off for good behavior, but only those who earn that consideration.

"The guard who accompanied the men on the train declared that a dozen opportunities were offered them to escape, by permitting them to go unattended to either end of the coach, but he had not the slightest fear that they would take advantage of it.

"The men were so glad to secure outdoor work which will shorten their sentences that they were anxious to reach the road camp. Splendid work is being done, and the county commissioners expect to have convicts remain here permanently until the roads of Mesa county are in splendid condition."

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

The coming of statehood will give renewed impetus to the commission form of government in New Mexico.

Denison, Tex., affords a good example of the working of the commission plan of government in a small city. Denison used to be a typical frontier town, wide open as all outdoors. It is asserted that it was a badly governed city where pure politics were unknown and where public spirit was dormant. No street could be paved without the consent of the property owners, and as they feared to trust their funds with the existing government the streets went unpaved.

When Denison got a chance to say whether it preferred a continuation of the old system or the installation of a new one the verdict was strong in favor of the change. The first thing done was to elect trustworthy men to manage the affairs of the city. The awakened public spirit began to show itself in all kinds of plans for improvement. The wide open element left town under the clean city regime the streets were paved, a self-supporting municipal water system was established and in other ways the citizens proved that they could make a good government when they were permitted to use the proper kind of machinery.

Every indication now points to the Fourth of July celebration being an unprecedented success. The invitation has gone out far and wide and Santa Fe will harbor more visitors on the national holiday than it has for some time. The celebration will be significant in that it will link the past to the present, in that it will be historic, in that it will be the beginning of big things for the town.

SANTA FE AND THE ESTANCIA VALLEY.

There is no community that has contributed as much directly and indirectly for the development of the Estancia valley as Santa Fe. The valley is properly Santa Fe trade territory and the spirit of co-operation should animate the people from Mount Baldy to the Pecos. They can and should assist each other in every respect. The further settlement of the Estancia valley would redound to the benefit of Santa Fe and the growth and prosperity of Santa Fe will help the valley. One of the ways in which Santa Fe can be made the most convenient and most profitable marketing place for the Estancia valley is pointed out in the following editorial of the Estancia News:

"A group of our valley farmers have proven themselves boosters of the first water. Having heard it said that there was no market in Santa Fe for Estancia butter and eggs, W. S. Kirk playing the roll of a Missourian, went up to be shown. As a result he returned with a standing order, shipment to be twice a week. He interested several other farmers with him, and is showing the people of the Ancient City that they can get the best hen and cow fruit by demanding Estancia products. The order has been increased several times and Mr. Kirk has found it necessary to interest other farmers in his scheme. Every pound of butter and every egg is guaranteed and should there be any dissatisfaction among the patrons, the goods will be replaced or money refunded. A system has been installed so that any goods not giving satisfaction are traced to original producer and he must make them good, which is a protection to those who produce only a first-class article. In this way Estancia butter and eggs will soon be recognized as first-class articles and the demand will increase accordingly. The prices obtained in this manner are quite satisfactory."

A GREAT WORK.

Hon. O. A. Larrazo in his address at St. Michael's college this week, referred in flattering terms to the recent history of New Mexico by Hon. B. M. Read. Eminent historians like ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, high ecclesiastics like Archbishop Pifarré, have been unstinting in their praise of the monumental work which brought New Mexico history not only up to date but also said the last word on many disputed points of the early days, being based on the original documents and records which Mr. Read made accessible at considerable cost. The New Mexican is pleased to learn that the volume found ready appreciation and that the first edition which came from the press of the New Mexican Printing Company is almost exhausted. A translation into English is in preparation, as is also a second edition in Spanish which will bring the history up to the last day of publication. It is a labor of love that Mr. Read has performed and to which he has given his time and means but it has also established his name permanently among the leading historians of the nation.

There are ways of doing things and there are ways not to do them. The finance committee of the Fourth of July celebration has set an example that should prove the standard in Santa Fe in the future in public matters of that kind. The committee did not wait until after the celebration to collect the subscriptions but set to work at once, and as a result every dollar except $40 has been collected, and over a thousand dollars are in the hands of the treasurer to meet the expenses. Every one is to be paid in full and in due time a complete financial report will be published such as every public committee or public officer should deem it his duty to put before the public.

There is many a slip between what the editor writes and what the paper prints. In an editorial appeal of the New Mexican yesterday to the people of Santa Fe to give thought, time, energy and means to the upbuilding of the city, the editor had written in conclusion: "What are you doing to help the work?" and marked the word "you" to be printed in "capitals." As it appeared in the paper it read: "What are 'capital' doing to help the work?" This is not of much consequence to the reading public except to demonstrate to those who are peeved because a mistake appears in an item in which they are interested, that even the editor cannot always have things the way he wants them in his own paper.

This was on the postcards sent out by the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts on Post Card Day: "Uncle Sam finds that the average value of farm lands in New Mexico has increased 160 per cent; the number of farms 180 per cent; improved lands in farms 348 per cent; and the total value of farm lands 469 per cent; all in the past ten years. The educational system has increased about 500 per cent in this period." Pretty good ad, isn't it?

A DEMOCRATIC WEAPON.

Says the New Mexico Democrat: "The Flood resolution, if it passes the senate, will be a most effective instrument to wield for chopping off of heads of those who opposed its passage. It will be used by the people at large in both New Mexico and Arizona. The New Mexicans will want to put it into use early and swing it often, beginning the political decapitation in the capitol city of New Mexico. Of course the State Democrat don't presume to say who shall be the first led to the political guillotine, but if its sharp edge should fall upon the goatee of the once prominent republican in Santa Fe, the p. r.'s loss will be the people's gain.

"Is it possible that the great majority of the people of Santa Fe permitted the Hon. T. B. Catron to rule them. The State Democrat knows that Santa Fe county wants statehood and they want it now. Then why did not the chamber of commerce take action favoring the admission of New Mexico at this session of congress?" When the frantic appeal for action reached Secretary Charles G. Ritchie of the Santa Fe chamber of commerce, he lost no time in inditing a telegram to the senate committee asking for immediate statehood, statehood in any form and not necessarily by the road of the Flood resolution. President Samuel G. Cartwright joined in signing the telegram. The other 98 members of the chamber of commerce knew nothing about it, but that was just as well, for that is all that these demands and protests and resolutions of chambers of commerce generally amount to. As to the effect it had in Washington it was the same as that a terrestrial June zephyr has on Halley's comet.

COMMENCEMENT EPIGRAMS.

The address of Hon. B. M. Read this week to the graduating class at St. Michael's College contained epigrams that should be impressed upon boys generally. For instance, he said:

There is nothing more pitiable than an uneducated person.

Education only can form the character of men and women. I mean the Christian education and not a mere moral training of the human mind.

In these schools (Catholic) the young men and women are taught that the Almighty Dollar is not the only thing worth living for; they are taught the salvation of their souls is the first and most important consideration.

Young men, do not lower yourselves to be made the victims of adulation; detest flattery; detest ephemeral, undeserved political honors; value a man for what he is and not what others make him.

You are well prepared to fight your own battles, but unless you make it the rule of your lives to adhere strictly to the teachings and examples of the good brothers, FAILURE, DESTRUCTION AND RUIN will be your reward.

Whatever may be the trade or the profession you adopt in life let your motto be Perseverance, Honesty and Punctuality.

Wagon Mound has declared September 20 as "Bean Day" when it will serve to visitors free beans in any style or quantity. Wagon Mound probably shipped more beans last year than any other place in New Mexico and if other towns have their strawberry day, or melon day, or cantaloupe day, there is no reason why Wagon Mound should not glorify its chief product and have a "frjolole day" once each year on which the nutritiveness and appetizingness of the bean is proclaimed to all the world. New Mexico owes more to the bean than it has thus far acknowledged.

The dedication of the Santa Fe Trail Marker at the end of the historic highway, the latter part of August, will bring many notables to Santa Fe. It will be another event to advertise Santa Fe far and wide and which will demonstrate that in this ancient city the United States possesses a place where history and romance have made their indelible mark, where varied nationalities mingle, where the picturesque of the historic and even of the prehistoric is blended with the intensive modern spirit of progress.

Kentucky has 258,742 farms, or more than eight times as many as New Mexico. Kentucky has in improved acreage 14,234,099 acres, or ten times as much as this commonwealth. Kentucky's farm values are $633,782,000, or six times as much as those of this Territory. But that is an increase of only 66 per cent in ten years, while those of New Mexico increased almost five hundred per cent. At that ratio the day is in sight when New Mexico will have caught up to Old Kentucky both in number and value of farms.

The crop statistics of two states were made public today by the Census Bureau, Colorado and Illinois. Colorado's crop production in the census year was valued at $36,000,000; that of Illinois, half as large, at $345,000,000, or almost ten times as much. There is evident room for increase and expansion in the Centennial state. Colorado last year raised $6,500,000 worth of wheat; oats more than $4,000,000; corn almost $3,000,000; potatoes almost $4,000,000; forage crops more than $17,000,000; barley a little over a million dollars.

If it is perfectly proper for President Taft to telephone from Providence that he would veto the reciprocity bill if any amendment, no matter what its form, is made to it by the senate, it would certainly not be indiscreet for him to announce what he would do to the Flood statehood resolution if it reaches him in the present form. One sentence from him would clarify an intolerable situation.

OUTBURST OF BUYING ON STOCK MARKET.

Court Decision in Southern Pacific Merger Suit Causes Great Buoyancy.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) New York, N. Y., June 24.—News of the decision of the Harriman merger suit in favor of the companies was followed by an outburst of activity in the stock market and stocks rose buoyantly. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific advanced two points and St. Paul, Great Northern preferred, Northwestern, Northern Pacific and Atlantic Coast Line nearly as much.

The market closed active and strong. Further gains were made in the last hour on an increased volume of business but in the final trading profit taking resulted in some slight recessions. The more important gains included Union Pacific, 3 3/4. Southern Pacific, 3 5/8; Great Northern, preferred, 2 1/2; Northern Pacific, 2 3/8; St. Paul, 2 1/4; Lehigh Valley, 1 5/8 and U. S. steel, 1 1/8. Underwood Typewriter gained 6 3/8 and National City Bank, 12 1/2.

Grain Market. Chicago, Ill., June 24.—Aggressive pushing of the idea that the wheat market had been overbought had much effect today in making prices lower.

Rain in the northwest turned attention away from talk of crop damage in North Dakota and Minnesota. September started at $9 1/4, a loss of 1/4 to 1/2, fell to $8 3/4, and rallied to $9 1/4.

The close was steady at a loss for September of 1 1/8@1 3/4.

With promises of moisture being fulfilled, corn proved heavy. September opened 1 1/2@5 1/8 to 7 5/8@1 cent off at 5 1/8 to 5 3/8, but steadied around 5 3/8@1 1/2. Unloading on account of wet weather featured oats. September started 1 1/2@5 1/8 to 1 1/4@1 3/8 lower at 41 3/4 to 42 1/2, dropped to 41 5/8 and recovered to 42 1/2.

The close was steady, but 1 1/8@1 1/4 down for September. Provisions dropped in sympathy with weakness at the yards. First sales were unchanged to 15 cents lower, including September delivery at 15 5/8 for pork, 8 3/8 for lard, and 8 3/2 1/2 for ribs.

NATIONAL REUNION OF SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

It Will Be Held in Oklahoma City August 21 to 23—Military Order of the Serpent.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Oklahoma City, Okla., June 24.—From every state in the union, requests are being received for hotel accommodations for the national reunion of the Spanish War veterans which will be held in Oklahoma City, August 21, 22 and 23. From the mountains of New Mexico the cowboys who enlisted in the Roosevelt Rough Riders, will journey to the Oklahoma capital to meet their former comrades from the banking houses of Wall street and the college halls of Boston.

The activity shown by the camps of the order and by individuals promises an attendance of more than 15,000, or twice as many as attended either the Boston or the Denver reunion. Perhaps the spectacular feature of the reunion will be the annual session of the military order of the Serpent, which is a side issue and contains members from every state in the union and from the island possessions.

An enormous serpent, 300 feet long, is being constructed as the emblem of the order, and will be shown in the night parade. Brilliantly illuminated with many thousand globes of great power, this electric-lighted reptile will pass through the principal streets of the business district, winding its way through the mass of people gathered along the streets to witness the most unique freak of a decade.

ed some of the improvements which are under way, "and I hope to see the day when Taos can say as much."

When asked about the new railroad which is to be built through Taos Mr.
Hart said: "It is all we need. As soon as we can get a railroad through there, Taos will be one of the leading commercial and agricultural valleys of the west. Construction on the road will soon be started and the promoters want to complete it in time to carry some of the people who will go to the Pan-American exposition at San Francisco."

Mr. Hart is looking very well and always enjoys a visit lough.

The beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs.
J. A. Rolls on east Palace avenue, in its setting of splendid orchard and spreading lawns, was a vision of hospitality and delight on Tuesday evening when it was thronged with the representative people of Santa Fe who had come to bid welcome to Rev.

B. Z. McCullough and bride who had come from Billings, Montana, to make their future home with the residents of this ancient city, Mr. Mc-Cullough being the pastor-elect of the First Presbyterian church.

Roses, pink and fragrant, both inside and outside of the house, furnished the keynote for the celebrations, in the dining room especially, the garlands of dainty and airy green setting off the pink roses and the rosebuds which were twined in bow-knots of pink tulle. The appointments of the table, the delicious refreshments, were all in keeping with the decorations and the occasion and the house seemed set for a June wedding.

The heartiness with which Mr. and Mrs. McCullough were greeted, the evident pleasure which it gives Mr.
McCullough to be in Santa Fe and the charm of his bride, all contributed to make the reception an occasion of good cheer and social note.

In the receiving line besides Mr.
and Mrs. McCullough, were Mrs. Mc-Fie, (Judge McFie having been detained by court at Tierra Amarilla), Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bishop, Mr.
and Mrs. R. J. Crichton, and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McCaord, the gentlemen being members of the session, under whose auspices, assisted by the Ladies' Aid Society, the reception was given. Mrs. F. P. Crichton and Mrs.
Walter presided in the dining room and were assisted by Mrs. Haynes, Mrs. Sparks, Mrs. Corrick, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. E. C. Abbott, Mrs. Fischer, and Mrs. Vickroy. All evening long guests kept coming and going, practically all the churches of the city being represented among those who called, giving evidence of a desirable spirit of fraternity which animates the new Santa Fe.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullough have taken possession this week of the Manse adjoining the First Presbyterian church on Grant avenue. They will be at home to callers from next Monday on.

The Pathway to the Drug Store

Is most frequently trodden by those whose scientific knowledge of medicinal chemicals is slight. The Druggists themselves are largely dependent upon the manufacturer for the quality of chemicals dispensed. For that reason, we use Squibbs Chemicals
only, to safeguard our Customers as well as Ourselves.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA ARE INCREASING.

aim is to Enlist One Million Youths Under its Banners—Teaching Universal Sign Language.

The Boy Scouts of America are learning a universal sign language and therefore, are developing the real Esperanto. Under the guidance of Ernest Thompson Seton, Chief Scout, the boys are learning the signs of communications not only between the boys of this country but also between the boys of every other nation. The plan now being developed means that eventually the boys of all nations will have a common language and that they will be drawn more closely together. Such binding of the boys of the different nations together, it is asserted by the leaders of the Boy Scout movement, will tend greatly toward the promotion of universal peace.

The sign language is simple. It is common to all nations. It perhaps was developed long before the art of speaking. It is natural to use gestures and signs to emphasize one's ideas in speaking. These gestures may express entire sentences. For instance, the traffic patrolmen in crowded thoroughfares in New York use the sign language. They are on duty all day directing the traffic of thousands of vehicles, and perhaps never speak one word.

Baseball players have a sign language. Every sport has given rise to certain gestures or signs that are perfectly natural and are understood easily by persons not versed in that special activity. Children and grown-ups use gestures and, therefore signs, instinctively. More than 100 signs are used by the children in the public schools. There are 3,000 signs that students of the language have picked up. A person can communicate his thoughts intelligently with 600 of them. The ordinary person uses a vocabulary of not more than 2,000 words. The signs have been developed in the deaf and dumb schools so that the deaf and dumb alphabet is discarded, except for the spelling of proper names and unusual words.

"It is a fact," says Chief Scout Seton, "that at many deaf and dumb schools where lectures are delivered and sermons preached by the use of a highly developed sign language. A single sign may convey an entire sentence. The savages out West have a sign language. A person who understands the sign language can talk to an Indian. He can convey his meaning adequately to persons of different nations, such as Russia, China, and India without speaking a word."

Chief Scout Seton points out that the use of the sign language makes a person more observant, and that observing persons use it. The sign language may be used in signalling. It may be employed in places such as hospitals, where persons may not be permitted to speak. It is used in places where the noise is so great that the voice cannot be heard for perhaps in speaking to one another across a room. Its use is so greatly recognized that it is being developed in the army and many other places.

Chief Scout Seton has prepared a dictionary of signs, with illustrations which will soon be ready not only for the use of the scouts, but for all persons who are interested in learning the sign language. "Every person uses signs," says Chief Scout Seton, "but the Boy Scouts in developing it are spreading it throughout the entire world, and are putting into practice the real Esperanto language. They will naturally come in closer contact with one another, and will be united in a universal brotherhood. What can be more helpful in the promotion of universal peace? I hope every Boy Scout will study sign language."

Admiral Dewey Praises Scouts. Many letters have been received at the National Headquarters of the Boy Scouts of America, praising the new manual. Admiral George Dewey, who is reading the book for a second time, writes: "I find it a most excellent and valuable book containing so many suggestions in which I am interested,

I am so pleased with it I shall take it with me on my vacation this summer to the Green Mountains, where I am sure it will prove of great benefit as a guide in studying Nature gifts to the woods."

Gifford Pinchot of Washington, D. C., writes: "I have only had time to go over it roughly, of course, but it seems admirable, and I am delighted to have it."

President Davis of the Normal College of the City of New York, says: "It is a wonderful book. It has made me wish more strongly than ever that I might be a boy again. It has a mainly ring to it that will appeal to boys and is so full of suggestions for them that every boy can find something in it to inspire him no matter what his temperament. I believe the manual will help greatly to develop wholesomely the characters of the boys of America."

Lord Kitchener to the Scouts.

Lord Kitchener, the greatest soldier of England, believes in the Boy Scouts. He has watched them drill and has written a letter praising them. A striking thing is, however, that though Lord Kitchener is a soldier, he lays chief stress on the development of character and physical and mental alertness and makes no suggestion of militarism. He writes to the boys as follows:

"The more I know of the scout organization the more admirable I think it is, and the more fully persuaded I am that it should appeal strongly to every father and mother who desire to bring up their sons well. It breaks down class prejudice, promotes comradeship, discipline, resourcefulness, self-reliance and sympathy. Its ideals are the highest: Christianity and patriotism, and later, when these scouts are grown up, what better title can they each aspire to than to be known as true man and pure patriot? And that is what they are all now learning to become."

"You Scoutmasters who have gone through the hard work of making this movement so successful, must be well pleased with the result of your labor when you see these smart lads around you, and consider their ever-increasing numbers, and their improved moral and mental, and physical condition, and you, Scouts, I feel sure, already realize the benefits you have received by being members of this national association."

"There is one thought I would like to impress upon you—once a Scout always a Scout. You will find the Scout Law and Scout training very useful through life, so never allow Scouting to be looked upon as a game that is over. Keep it going as long as you are alive, as boy and as man. Help it by all the means that lie in your power, and when we have a million men and boys, as I hope we shall have, imbued with the spirit of Scouts, or nation may well be proud of its manhood."

Policeman Praises Boy Scouts. William A. Haedler, sergeant of the Woodlawn police station of Chicago, is a staunch friend of the Boy Scouts. He believes he can prevent a lot of mischief and crime by getting the boys to help him rather than being hostile to them. Speaking to the Boy Scouts recently, he said: "Let us direct our efforts to the uplifting of the child and not to any nonsensical parole system for those beyond redemption who come back and prey upon society and re-stage wrong examples to our boys and girls. I am under the impression that we have been trying to reform at the wrong end, and, as parents and friends of posterity, we should start reform at the incipency of misconduct in the child, and place such environment around our children as will lead them in the paths of righteousness."

"Tom Sawyer's" Trip. Boy Scouts in Omaha are planning to build a big raft on which they will float down the Missouri River to St. Louis to attend an encampment of the Boy Scouts of America near that city in July. Five Boy Scouts of Omaha Troop No. 1, under Mr. M. O. McLaughlin have obtained the consent of their parents to make the trip and they are enthusiastically at work on the big raft. The craft will be twelve feet wide and fourteen feet long and will have a tent cabin for sleeping apartments. The boys will have plenty of provisions. The trip will take eleven days. The youngsters expect to tie up at night at convenient places. They anticipate a big lark. As "Tom Sawyer" the hero of one of Mark Twain's books took this trip, the boys are reading about their hero. The boys who will make the trip are Walter Young, Herbert and Wilbur Grau, and Laurie and Julian Allwine. L. S. Dale's Effective Work.

L. S. Dale, organizer of boy scout troops in the Northwest, undoubtedly is one of the most effective workers among boys now in the field. He has organized 5,000 boys into scout troops in more than one hundred towns and cities in the Northwest. He estimates that there are about 8,000 Boy Scouts in Minnesota, and about 20,000 in Minnesota, Wisconsin and North and South Dakota. In his work in the last year, he has addressed 50,000 school children telling them about the aims and activities of the Boy Scout movement.

Dale is a self made man. He was born in Norway twenty-eight years ago and when sixteen years old came to the United States. He worked for a year on a farm in Swift county, Minnesota, and after saving $30 entered Wilmar University. He next became a reporter getting money to give him a start in the University of Minnesota. He fought his way through the university for three years, earning his expenses writing poetry and doing various odd jobs, but in his senior years was compelled because of the illness of his brother to leave college. Dale next became a city editor, took an interest in Boy Scout work and proved such an effective organizer that he was put in charge of the organization work in the Northwest.

Governor Eberhart on Boy Scouts.

Governor Adolph O. Eberhart of Minn., who believes that the Scout movement is the most efficient factor of modern times in character building, practical education and prevention of crime among boys, has this to say about the development of the organization throughout the country: "The fact that the Boy Scouts have increased in numbers as rapidly as they have during the past few months proves that this movement was the one thing needed to crystallize and render effective the energy of our boys. I sometimes doubt that the general public appreciates the great value of the work already accomplished by the Boy Scouts, to say nothing of the wonderful possibilities of the future; but it is only a question of a short time when the full significance of this movement will be given wide recognition."

STOPPED THOSE PAINS.

Copper Hill, Va.—Mrs. Ida Connor, of this place, says: "For years I had a pain in my right side, and I was very sick with womanly troubles. I tried different doctors but could get no relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I took Cardui, and it relieved the pain in my side, and now I feel like a new person. It is a wonderful medicine." Many women are completely worn-out and discouraged on account of womanly troubles. Are you? Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Its record shows that it will help you. Why wait? Try it today. Ask your druggist about it.

COMES A TIME

When Coffee Shows What it Has Been Doing.

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a matron from Rome, N. Y.

"Its lightest punishment being to make me 'log' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood."

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit the coffee and try Postum."

"It went right to the spot! I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well. 'All my ailments, the 'loginess' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am rejoicing in sound health which I owe to the use of Postum.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Wallace Club is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Dorman on Don Gaspar avenue. Besides the members of the club Miss Zane is a guest.

The Saturday Card Club is meeting today at the home of Mrs. A. B. Renahan on East Palace avenue. Besides the members of the club, the guests are Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. A. J. Fisher.

The members of the Guild are planning for a "Tea" to be given in Library Hall next Friday afternoon. Home-made cake, surprise packages, tea and coffee, ice cream and cake, will be among the attractions. A pleasant social afternoon may be expected and the ladies hope to see all their friends.

Miss Maude Hanlon gave a card party Thursday night at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. P. Davies, in honor of her guests, Miss Tritz and Miss Schiel, two beautiful young ladies from Waterloo, Iowa. The game of 500 was played until 11 p. m. when dancing began. The party was a very delightful one.

Mrs. George W. Armijo and son, Theodore Roosevelt Armijo, went to Lamy this morning to accompany Luciano Salazar, who met his father, Hon. E. H. Salazar, receiver of the land office at Fort Sumner. Luciano Salazar has been attending St. Michael's college. Mr. Salazar will go with his family from Las Vegas to Fort Sumner where his new house is completed.

Manuel Lujan, a graduate of St. Michael's college who won a gold medal and the history prize, a copy of the History of New Mexico by Hon. B. M. Read, has completed his course and before returning to his home at San Ildefonso, northern Santa Fe county, will attend the teachers' normal institute in this city. The theme of his commencement oration was: "A Plea Against the Referendum."

Mrs. John B. LeVert, entertained Tuesday afternoon at Bridge in honor of Miss Rugh, a Pittsburg society girl who is making her home in Santa Fe where she already has many friends. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and the affair was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Mrs. I. C. Wilson won the prize, a handmade sewing bag which was much admired.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl Patchell, of Michigan, and who spent a few days of their honeymoon here, residing at Miss Disette's home on Manhattan avenue, have gone to Laguna but expect to return to Santa Fe to attend the summer school of archaeology this summer. Both are prominent missionaries in the Congregational church and have traveled all over the world. Mr. Cahall is on a six months' leave of absence, having recently visited Spain and Africa.

Mrs. J. Leahy entertained several of her lady friends at three tables of bridge in honor of her visiting guest, Mrs. David J. Leahy of Las Vegas. Mrs. Kate Hartzell was presented with first trophy for the highest score at the close of the bridge and Mrs. D. J. Leahy with a pretty guest prize. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon's closing hour. Those present were: Mesdames D. J. Leahy, C. F. Remsburg, A. C. Price, C. A. Whited, A. R. Streicher, Clara Chase, Kate M. Hartzell, S. Ruffner, J. J. Shuler, E. B. Humphreys, W. A. Chapman, and the Misses Winnie Shuler and Hilda Seaberg—Raton Range.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morrison, Jr., gave a delightful party Saturday night at Library Hall in honor of their twenty-fifth or silver wedding anniversary. There were 50 couples invited and they danced to a late hour. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour and the affair was a most enjoyable one. Library Hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of cut flowers and both Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, whose appearance is far too youthful to suggest they were celebrating a silver wedding anniversary received the best wishes of every one that they may live to celebrate their golden anniversary.

The Royal Highlanders had a very interesting party Tuesday in Elks' hall. It was a "Poverty Social" and some of the costumes were very funny. Although the attendance was not so large as was expected, everyone voted the party a success.

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

Santa Fe, N. M., June 24.—
For New Mexico—Fair weather, or tonight and Sunday; not much change in temperature.

Lariat Ropes all fixed at Goebels. Ice Cream on Sunday at Capital City Dairy. Milk and cream always on hand. Phone Black 188.

Buy monuments and iron fences from Bills Bros., 771 Broadway, Denver. P. A. Sandoval, Santa Fe, local representative.

One Imported Auto Coat in Pongee. Spot and dust proof at Goebels.

Game Tomorrow—Cerrillos Browns vs. the Vectors Club at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow on College grounds. Small admission fee.

Union Services—Tomorrow evening at the Presbyterian church, Union services will be held by Presbyterians and Methodists. Rev. B. F. Summers will preach the sermon.

Box Rents Due—A sign is posted in the local postoffice calling attention to the necessity of paying post office box rent before the end of the month. Otherwise the lock boxes will be closed.

Frank Gormley is today unloading a Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine of a capacity of 20,000 gallons an hour. This engine will be used by A. B. Renahan, on his ranch south of the city.

Yesterday Was Warm. It started the Munsing Union suits to move at Seligman Brothers. This line is called to your attention in their change of advertisement today. By far the most desirable line made.

Stone Image—F. P. Sturges, vice-president of the New Mexican Printing Company, was today exhibiting a unique stone image, either of St. Joseph or St. Anthony, dug up among the ruins of the Pecos church, twenty miles southeast of Santa Fe.

Fans Went to Las Vegas—Santa Fe's base ball team, looking husky and hearty, left this morning for the Meadow City to do battle with the baseball team of that place. The Santa Feans will play there tomorrow afternoon and return tomorrow night.

Judge Knaebel Better—The condition of Judge John H. Knaebel is reported better today. The judge is receiving the best attention at St. Vincent's Sanitarium. His son, Ernest Knaebel, assistant attorney general of the United States, will arrive here Monday.

Apologies to "T. R."—Through a misunderstanding of the program of St. Michael's College commencement Thursday night the name of T. R. Armijo was inadvertently left out in describing the instrumental number "A Little Flower" which was played by Master Armijo, Luciano Salazar and Juan Lopez.

Board Met and Adjourned—Four of the five members of the board of regents of the New Mexico Spanish-American Normal school met this morning and adjourned to meet again July 5. Those present were Former Governor L. Bradford Prince, Squire Hartt Jr., Dr. J. H. Sloan and Malaquias Martinez, but Colonel Venecio Armijo did not arrive and it was decided to meet again in July when he could be present.

The opinion states: "Under one or both of these tests, the Union Pacific could probably have lawfully purchased control of all the great railroad systems in the United States."

Railroad Officials Pleaded.
New York, June 23.—The stock market today made quick response to the announcement of the United States circuit courts decision in the Harriman merger suits. Naturally the Harriman issues were the most effected and they showed gains of almost four points. Other stocks were up from 1 to 3 points. Trading was on a heavy scale.

Officials of the Harriman railroad offices were greatly interested in the decision. "We don't know anything about it yet," said Alexander Miller, secretary of the Harriman companies. Then he was told that there was no question that the court had decided in favor of the railroads and against the government and he was greatly pleased. Robert S. Lovett, president of the Harriman companies is in Europe. None of the lawyers of the company would discuss the decision until they heard more about it.

IN SANTA FE.
Justice McLaren and Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman Among Those Who Addressed Convention.
(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
San Francisco, Calif., June 24.—But one regular session of the International School convention was held today, the delegates devoting the afternoon and evening to recreation and excursions. At the morning session, "Dividends on Our Investment," was the subject discussed briefly by Justice McLaren, of Toronto, Ontario; John R. Pepper of Memphis, W. N. Hartshorn of Boston, and E. K. Warren, of Three Oaks, Michigan. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, of New York, spoke on "Soul Winning and Christian Service," and Marion Lawrence of Chicago, general secretary of the association, discussed "The Responsibilities and Opportunities of Our Association."

The report of International Treasurer P. A. Wells of Chicago was presented.
