CALL FOR BOOK REVIEWERS

Here at the Natural Resources Journal we receive review copies of many good books in a variety of fields dealing with natural resources and the environment. We would like to expand the number and range of reviews of these books in the Journal. To that end we are putting together a list of interested reviewers and invite interested subscribers to sign on.

Book reviews for the Natural Resources Journal run around 1,500-2,000 words. The reviews should describe the work under review and assess the book's strengths and weaknesses. They should also place the work in the broader context of the field to which it belongs and say something about the book's place in that field.

Please contact us at the address given below if you would be willing to join the Journal's stable of reviewers. When contacting us please indicate the specific kinds of books and the general areas you are particularly interested in and include with your contact information an email address. As books come into the Journal we will contact you to see if you are interested in reviewing them. If you agree, we will send you the book for review and you may, of course, keep it.
