GOVERNOR GOES TO TAOS

Superintendent of Construction at Elephant Buttes Dam Named

MILITIA HOME TOMORROW

Commander in Chief Praises National Guard For Soldierly Bearing.

Before leaving this morning over the Denver & Rio Grande for Taos, Governor Mills spoke enthusiastically of the New Mexico National Guard which he reviewed this week at Camp Mills. "I was delighted to see the large number of men and to witness their efficiency at drill," said the governor. "I think the guard reflects credit on New Mexico and on the adjutant general, A. S. Brooks. Lieutenant Young of the United States Army expressed his pleasure at the way the men and officers acquitted themselves in drills, sham battles and throughout camp life."

The governor said he was doubly pleased to hear that the men are well satisfied with the food at camp and he added that he had not heard one complaint. The governor said, with a smile, that of course, the service was not that of the Castaneda or Alvarado or Delmonico's, but that the men realize that this is camp and not hotel life.

Goes to Taos.
The governor left at 10:15 a. m. with Territorial Engineer C. D. Miller for Taos where the governor will be given a reception by Mr. and Mrs. Jose Montaner Sunday evening. The governor will look over road matters with the territorial engineer Monday and return here Tuesday.

Companies E and F, and the First Regiment Band, of the New Mexico National Guard will leave Las Vegas at 2:15 p. m. tomorrow on their way to Santa Fe which they will reach at 6:15 p. m. It is desired that as many Santa Feans as possible turn out at the depot or line the streets to welcome the boys in khaki who will represent the Ancient City at the encampment, having as many men there as any two cities in the Territory. The boys will be glad to get home and especially so if Santa Fe extends a warm welcome to them when they see the Ancient Gates once again.

S. BURKHART IS DISGUSTED

Found Leading Democrats Favorable to Admitting New Mexico Now

BUT OPPOSED TO RECALL

New Mexican Correspondent Predicts that Nelson Resolution Goes Through

Special to the New Mexican.
Washington, D. C., July 29.—Disgusted with the fear that the "four Democratic patriots" from New Mexico had not succeeded in placing the kibosh on statehood at this session, Summers Burkhardt, secretary of the territorial central committee of New Mexico, with checked hand grip and face unusually florid, rushed to the Union station after having informed the members of Congress that Delegate Andrews is not being correctly informed at the White House or is not being given the kind of information that is desired.

He met with only a weak response from the members of the House and Senate but nevertheless quickly flashed home the message: "Nothing will be permitted to pass except the Flood resolution." Burkhardt has another guess coming on August 7. The truth came out in a local interview of Representative Underwood in which he said: "I am confident that all the bills on the Senate schedule, not including the tariff revision, will be approved by both houses before they adjourn. A compromise has been reached regarding the initiative, referendum and recall in the Arizona constitution. There is little sentiment, even among the Democrats of the House for the recall, especially as applied to the judiciary. The Senate will have its way in this and that objectionable and revolutionary idea will be stricken from the constitution."

The words of Judge Alton W. Parker, and the chairman of the Democratic caucus and house judiciary committee, Clayton of Alabama, against the recall are quoted, and others are merely waiting for the others to declare that they are not Democrats because they are opposed to the recall as applied to judges. The president insists on nothing less than what he asked for when in New Mexico, "a safe, sane constitution" for Arizona, and with the assistance of such Democrats as Champ Clark, Underwood, Clayton, Littleton and others he will get what he asks for. Victory for statehood at this session under the Nelson resolution is assured.

Andrews' Irrigation Bill.
Washington, July 29.—The Senate committee decided to make a favorable report Monday on Senator Borah's measure, amending existing laws so that irrigation districts are exempted from the operation of the law limiting territorial indebtedness to four per cent of the assessed valuation. A unanimous report on a bill of similar import was secured from the House committee on territories almost two months ago, but the House has never considered the bill. The bill directly affects many irrigation districts in New Mexico and is expected to become a law now that it is out of committee.

SMALL GAINS MADE BY LEADING STOCKS.
Trading on Wall Street was on an usually small basis, but the market kept steady.

Trading on Wall Street was on an usually small basis, but the market kept steady.
(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
New York, July 29.—Small gains were made by all of the more prominent stocks with the exception of St. Paul, Amalgamated Copper, and Pennsylvania, in the early trading today. Canadian Pacific gained a point, Union Pacific 5/8 and Reading & Erie 1/2. The market was quiet.

Trading was on an unusually small basis during the first hour. No attempt was made to renew yesterday's bear drives and the list held steady without material changes.
The market closed steady. A decline of 2 points in Texas Company, 2 1/4 in United Railways and Investment, preferred, and 7 points in Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, with one point gains in Western Maryland and Pacific Mail were the only striking features of the final hour.

GOVERNMENT WILL APPEAL

Hopes to Win Harriman Merger Suit Decided in Circuit Court

A YEAR TO PERFECT ACTION

But Department of Justice Will Push Litigation as Rapidly as Possibly.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Washington, D. C., July 29.—The government will appeal to the supreme court the Harriman merger suit which was decided in favor of the railroads by the United States circuit court at St. Louis.
Attorney General Wickersham today directed C. A. Severance, the government's special counsel in the case, to prepare the appeal and file it as quickly as possible.
Although the government has a year in which to perfect its action to the highest court, the department of justice intends to hurry the suit. Opinions have been expressed in some quarters that the government's appeal would be only routine matter to have the questions involved decided by the highest court. At the department of justice, however, it is stated that the government is appealing the case in the hope of winning it.
Mr. Severance has reported to the attorney general that he believes the government has a good chance.

REVOLUTIONISTS SURROUND HAYTIAN CAPITAL.
President Simon Ready to Quit if Various Factions Promise to Be Good.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Port au Prince, Hayti, July 29.—The revolutionists have surrounded the city but early today had not made an attempt to take possession.
The American gunboat Petrel returned today from a cruise in the northern districts and reported that region was in the hands of the revolutionists but the overturn had been accomplished without bloodshed. It is strongly believed here that Simon would resign if he was assured that the rival revolutionary factions would settle the matter of his successor peacefully.

Salem Sent to Hayti.
Norfolk, Va., July 29.—Bound for Port au Prince to reinforce the American warships now in patrolling the coast of the Haytian republic incident to the revolution, the scout cruiser Salem passed out of the Virginia Capes this morning under full steam.
The Salem is one of the fleetest vessels of the navy and is in hurry orders. She is due at Port au Prince next Tuesday.

STANDARD OIL IS GIVEN MORE TIME.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
St. Louis, Mo., July 29.—A decree modifying the original order for the dissolution of the Standard Oil Company was filed in the U. S. Circuit Court here today.
The modification extends until December 21, the dissolution of the corporation and the privilege of asking for more time should the company find itself unable to wind up its affairs by that time is granted.

RICHARD ARNST RETAINS WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP.
Sculling Record Broken on Paramatta River, Australia for Three Miles, 330 Yards.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Sydney, N. S. W., July 29.—Richard Arnst, of New Zealand, the world's champion, defeated Harry Pearce, champion of Australia in a race on the Paramatta river for the world's sculling championship today. The time, 19 minutes and 45 seconds, is a record for the course. The distance was three miles and 330 yards.

LET EVERY ONE WELCOME THE BOYS.
Companies E and F, First Regiment, New Mexico National Guard leave Las Vegas at 2:15 p. m. tomorrow on No. 1 and arrive in Santa Fe at 6:15 o'clock tomorrow evening. Santa Fe will doubtless turn out at the depot to welcome the boys in khaki home after 12 days' absence. No one but a soldier knows now such an attention will be appreciated. The boys have had a severe twelve days' drill in camp and they will come home with glad hearts if Santa Fe welcomes them at the depot and along the line of march, which will probably be down Montezuma ave. and past the executive mansion, along Don Gaspar ave. and along the plaza to the armory.

The band, which was so many laurels at Camp, will there and will play stirring airs of "Johnny Comes Marching Home Again."

RECIPROCITY THE ISSUE

Canadian Parliament Dissolved Because of Deadlock Over Treaty

APPEAL TO THE COUNTRY

Elections Called for September, Week After Nominating Convention.

SENATE.—Not in session.
Lorimer election investigation continued.
HOUSE: Met at noon.
Cotton revision bill debate continued.
(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Ottawa, Ont., July 29.—Parliament was dissolved this afternoon. Nominations are fixed for September 14 and elections for September 21.
Reciprocity at Stake.
Ottawa, Ont., July 29.—The dissolution of the Canadian parliament carries the question of reciprocity between the United States and Canada before the Canadian electorate where the reciprocity issue from this time until the election on September 21 will be the controlling issue. The announcement of dissolution was a fulfillment of Premier Laurier's ultimatum delivered to the opposition forces last Monday that continued resistance to a vote would be met with an appeal to the country.
The present liberal government has a large majority in the Dominion parliament but the absence of a cloture rule has made it impossible to secure a vote by which this majority could adopt the reciprocity measure. In the event of the success of the Liberal party at the polls in September, the new parliament will at once pass the reciprocity measure whereas a defeat of the Liberals will mean the passing of Premier Laurier and the permanent shelving of reciprocity between the United States and Canada.
The present House of Commons consists of 133 Liberals, 85 Conservatives and 3 Independents.

EIGHT KILLED, FOURTEEN HURT
Head-On Collision of Excursion and Regular Passenger Trains

MISUNDERSTANDING ORDERS
Accident Occurred at Grindstone on Bangor & Aroostook Road.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Grindstone, Maine, July 29.—Eight persons, including three trainmen, are dead, and fourteen seriously injured as the result of a head-on collision which occurred at the Bangor & Aroostook railroad station here shortly after 9 o'clock last night.
The trains were a special of three light coaches containing about 150 excursionists, and a regular passenger express.
The five passengers killed and all of the injured, were in the smoking car, directly behind the engine of the excursion.

The accident appears to have been due to a misunderstanding of orders.

ARBITRATION TREATIES TO BE SIGNED NEXT WEEK.
Both With Great Britain and France at Washington, D. C.—For a Formal Exchange.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Washington, D. C., July 29.—The general arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain and the United States and France will be signed in Washington next week. An announcement to this effect was made today. After the signing of the treaty, there will be a formal exchange between the governments concerned. Secretary of State Knox will sign the treaty for the United States.
Settling on Exact Words.
Washington, D. C., July 29.—Slight delays in the settlement of the exact verbiage of the two treaties have prevented the execution of the original purpose to conclude them this week and Secretary Knox is now bending all his efforts to have all in readiness for the signatures of the plenipotentiaries next week.

GAMBLER AWAY $45,000 LOOT

Lived on Free Lunches Given Him at San Francisco Saloons

IS STARVING AND PENITENT

Illinois Banker Who Learned the Old Story of the Pace That Kills.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
San Francisco, Calif., July 29.—Carey A. Manker, 65 years old, arose from his "flop" in a water front lodging house here early today, walked between aisles of sleeping "dosers" to where the proprietor sat on a little dais, watching to see that each lodger kept to the space allotted him.
"I am a fugitive from Pearl, Ills.," Manker said.
"I embezzled $45,000 from the Bank of Pearl, wrecked the institution and escaped. I am starving and want to give myself up. I have been hunted since 1908."

"Thirty-five thousand dollars was gambled in stocks," he told the police.
Ruined by Gambling.
"I made a desperate attempt to cover the shortage in my accounts and stole $10,000 more. Then I fled. I have been in nearly every city in the country, working at anything I could do. I am old and broken and starving. I have given up the fight."

Free Lunches at Saloons.
Manker came to San Francisco from Portland a week ago. He has sought work as a waiter in water-front lodging houses and lived on free lunches given him at saloons.
A policeman was called and Manker taken to the city prison. Investigation shows his story to be true.

MORGAN MADE LOAN TO MOORE & SCHLEY
Tennessee Coal and Iron Company Stock Was Collateral Put Up by the Borrowers.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
New York, July 29.—That the brokerage firm of Moore and Schley, that was saved from ruin in 1907, through the purchase of Tennessee Coal & Iron Company by the United Steel Corporation, owed money to J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., which was secured by Tennessee Coal & Iron stock, as collateral, was today revealed to the steel trust investigating committee by Lewis Cass Ledyard.

Representative Littleton asked Mr. Ledyard about the nature of Moore and Schley's loans. He mentioned several and then said: "The firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. had loaned the firm considerable money."

"Was it secured by Tennessee Coal & Iron stock?" asked Mr. Littleton.
"Yes, it was, but the Morgan firm had never bothered Moore & Schley and did not call the loan."

Following his statement about the Morgan loan, Mr. Ledyard denounced the inferences that have been made concerning a conspiracy in the Tennessee transaction.

"There never was a more infamous outrage than the suggestion that has been made that either Mr. Morgan or the U. S. steel corporation brought about, engineered or inspired an attack on the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co. Such a thing is absolutely false."

Mr. Ledyard made a defense of the absorption of the Tennessee Company and said he never saw anything illegal in it. He said: "Since the recent decisions of our learned chief justice, I am more than ever convinced that it was not illegal."

WESTERN FEDERATION TAKES A HOLIDAY.
Will Resume Its Sessions on Monday and May Elect Its Officers Next Tuesday.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Butte, Mont., July 29.—The delegates attending the Western Federation of Miners convention took a day off and paid a visit to Anaconda where they inspected the Washoe smelters and were the guests of the management. They later dined with the mill and smeltermen. Today closed the second week of the session. The election may come next Tuesday, but inasmuch as the desultory discussions have already taken up most of the twelve sessions held, it is thought the convention will be deliberating for another fortnight.

FIFTH MURDER FOR MONTH OF JULY.
The fifth murder to be committed in New Mexico during the month of July is reported from Blanco, San Juan county, where Eufemia Arcoleuta, is accused of killing David Griego, an itinerant musician. Griego was drunk when killed. Sheriff Dufur arrested the woman but released her upon her friends furnishing $1,000 bond.

Mrs. Arcoleuta is 25 years old and has two children and her husband has been away in a sheep camp the past six months. Her victim was 35 years old. Two shots were fired, one penetrating Griego's heart and the other going wild.

CUERVO RANCH IS RAIDED

Fifty Socialists Take Americans and Others Away as Prisoners

FIGHTING WITH MADERISTAS

Result of Battle at Carrizo Unknown But Situation Is Grave

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
El Paso, Texas, July 29.—Sierra Blanca special to the Herald:
"Authentic information was received here today by telephone that fifty Socialists raided the Cuervo ranch taking every one, including five Americans, prisoners."
The Socialists were followed by thirty-five Maderista soldiers, and fighting took place at the Carrizo ranch but the result is unknown. The Maderistas have asked for reinforcements to be sent them and Jose de la Luz Blanca has the matter up with Madero by wire. The Cuervo ranch is situated 75 miles south of Sierra and is controlled by an American syndicate. Among the captured Americans are Ame Cressy, A. V. Mayes and James Edmondston, who are all well known at Sierra Blanca. Grover Stephenson, a cowboy, was also captured but escaped and walked to the Love ranch on the American side of the river.

Permission to Cross Line.
El Paso, Texas, July 29.—If permission can be obtained from the United States to send Maderista soldiers on American soil at Sierra Blanca, reinforcements will be sent to the force at Cuervo ranch this afternoon. It is understood General Blanco has requested permission to send a force across at this point.

CHICAGO PEDDLERS CALL OFF THEIR STRIKE.
Will Move Heaven and Earth However to Have City Ordinance Against Noise Repealed.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Chicago, Ill., July 29.—The peddlers have voted to call off the strike against the city ordinance which prohibits them from crying out their wares.
The vote was taken last night after the hundreds who had jammed the hall had listened to speeches counseling peace from Congressmen A. J. Sabath and others. The decision affects approximately 1,500 peddlers.

"I counsel you to go back to work," said Congressman Sabath. "When the council meets, I will move heaven and earth to see that the law is repealed."

Otherwise It Would Have Dashed Over Broken Rail Down Nasty Grade in Ohio.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Bellefontaine, Ohio, July 29.—A shirt, frantically waved by Robert Cook of DeGraff, today probably saved 150 passengers on Big Four flyer No. 11 from death and injury.

Cook, while walking on the track, discovered a broken rail at Quincy curve, a nasty grade, few miles from here. Tearing the shirt from his back he ran half a mile up the track and succeeded in stopping the heavily loaded passenger train.

MEXICAN RAILROAD FREIGHT TRAFFIC TIED UP.
Strike of Shopmen at Orizaba Followed by Sympathetic Walkout of Engineers.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Mexico City, July 29.—The freight traffic on the Mexican railroad is tied up today as the result of a strike of the shopmen at Orizaba and a sympathetic walkout of engineers and trainmen.

Passenger trains are operating but with more or less delay. The shopmen were granted an increase in wages several days ago but made new demands amounting to a 25c advance.

The Mexican railway is not a part of the National system, but is English owned and extends from Mexico City to Vera Cruz.

SPAIN HELPS PORTUGAL TO SUPPRESS MONARCHISTS.
Ten Thousand Troops Gathered on Northern Frontier Are Being Reinforced.

All Portuguese found near the frontier are being ordered to remove to the interior of Spain.

The Portuguese government has ten thousand troops on the northern frontier and further reinforcements are being sent.

LORIMER HAD BEEN SLATED

Yates Had Tipped Off Reporter Before Session of Legislature

WAS MOST POPULAR MAN

Thus Testified Lawrence B. Stringer, His Democratic Opponent.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Washington, D. C., July 29.—Lawrence B. Stringer, Democratic candidate for Senator against Lorimer, testifying before the Lorimer election committee today, told of Lorimer's popularity with the Democratic legislature but at the conclusion of his evidence, expressed the opinion that improper or corrupt practices was an ingredient entering into Lorimer's selection.

Edward O. Phillips, a Chicago Record-Herald reporter who was in Springfield during the session of the legislature in 1909 was the only other witness today.

He said former Governor Yates was his authority for a newspaper article he wrote on January 6, 1909, to the effect that Lorimer would be elected by the combination of Democrats and Republicans that elected Shurtliff speaker, if Lorimer would consent.

Phillips said in conversation with Lawrence B. Stringer the day before the election of Lorimer he gathered the impression that Stringer was out of the race because a "consideration had been asked of him that he could not furnish."

Anything to Win.
Washington, D. C., July 29.—Senator Johnson took an unusual interest in the long list of Democrats who received complimentary votes during the meeting of the legislature in 1909. "No Democrat of prominence was safe from a complimentary vote?" inquired the Senator.

"That is about true," replied Mr. Stringer.

Senator Kern led the witness to break down much of the favorable testimony which Mr. Stringer had given in behalf of Lorimer.

"Was it generally understood that Senator Lorimer stood for the good things or the things that were not good?" asked Senator Kern.

"I think that it was the general impression that Senator Lorimer was for the school of politicians that adopted the policy of winning the election," replied Mr. Stringer.

Not in Same Class With Bryan.
This answer did not satisfy Senator Kern.

"Was it understood that Senator Lorimer stood for what Bryan did, for instance, in politics?"

"I do not think he was in the same class with Bryan."

"Did you regard the election had resulted from a good and wholesome combination?"

"No, I did not think it was."

Congratulated Lorimer.
From the time of the story about an attempt to buy votes for Hopkins, Mr. Stringer said an air of suspicion hung over affairs in Springfield and enveloped the election of Senator Lorimer. He explained he congratulated Lorimer because it was the courteous thing to do and he had no evidence himself that anything was wrong.

"Do you think that the termination of the contest was due to the general mixup and the desire to end it without regard to party consequences or was it the result of improper and corrupt practices?" Senator Kenyon asked the witness.

"I am inclined to think that the ingredients you mentioned on both sides of the question assisted in bringing about the result but to what extent I don't know."

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CORN DANCE.
Dr. Edgar L. Hewett has made arrangements for a special train to the Santa Domin go Corn Dance on August 4.

HIS MOTHER.

"The only visitor who called on him before he was taken to the penitentiary was his mother."—From a recent news item.

Walls of stone and steps of stone and walls of stone as well.

And iron bars and locks of steel to hedge him in a cell.

And wardens walking up and down all silent and all grim.

His mother saw not one of these; she only looked at him.

She could not see the things we make to punish and destroy;

She could not see the stain of sin—she only saw her boy.

What friends he had in other days might be his friends no more.

For friendship dies beneath the clang when shuts the prison door;

And friendship takes the easy path—it is not fashioned of

The pain and hope and heart's desire that builds up motherlove.

She could not see his shifting eyes, to her they were as clear

And honest as in long gone days that still to her are dear.

She stumbled up the prison steps; she covered in the hall;

She heard the sullen echoes beat against the prison wall—

Yet none of this might have to do with him who is her boy;

Her memories were dancing with the days that were her joy.

There is no path so dark with dread where you must stumble through

But that your mother will come there to walk the way with you.

She came away and left him there—something in her eyes

Told that her prayers were as words that beat on empty skies

And yet a haunting smile was there, and it was plain to see

She thought of when she held her boy, a baby, on her knee.

Did the recording angel's tears blot out with kindly blurs

Some of his sin, because of this great motherlove of hers?

INQUEST HELD OVER BODY OF WM. PHIPPS.

No New Light on Brutal Murder at Suwanee, West of Albuquerque, on Wednesday Night.

Albuquerque, N. M., July 29.—The inquest held on the body of William Phipps, who was murdered in his store car at Suwanee on Wednesday night, brought out no new facts to shed light upon the mystery of his death. The coroner's jury therefore heard the testimony of the witnesses to the finding of the injured storekeeper and adjourned until Wednesday morning when a further investigation will be held. Permission however, was given the undertakers to prepare the body for burial and the funeral services will be held at Strong Brothers parlors this morning at 9 o'clock.

The jury summoned to sit on the case was composed of George Moore, Felipe Gurule, J. J. Ryan, William Beauchamp, Jack Cole and William Reed. On Wednesday morning at the next meeting, the jury will hear the reports of the Santa Fe special officer who have been working on the case.

Contrary to expectation the officers failed to get service on Firmin Regnosa the man who first saw Phipps after he was injured, and in consequence he was not present to testify yesterday. The gang with which he was employed had been moved from Suwanee to McCarty's and it was necessary to send to the latter place for him after word had been sent to Suwanee for him to come to Albuquerque to testify.

Roadmaster McNutt who has general charge of the work of the Holmes Supply Company gangs was present and at the hearing yesterday testified as to his knowledge of the facts.

According to the roadmaster the last seen of Phipps was at 11 o'clock the night previous to the finding of the injured man, by Firmin Regnosa. At that time the storekeeper was standing in the door of his commissary car. It was also brought out that some days previous to the murder assault, five hoboes had been seen in the vicinity of Suwanee and that the house of the section foreman had been broken into and certain valuables stolen, and on the night of the assault two box cars had been broken open and some of the contents, fruit and vegetables, taken therefrom. The hoboes were according to the testimony, two of them Greeks, two Mexicans and an American. The morning following the assault the Greeks were put off the work train, but the other three had disappeared.

Dr. John W. Colbert, the attending surgeon who operated upon Phipps after he had been brought to the Santa Fe hospital at Albuquerque, testified, that death was caused by a fracture at the base of the skull. A blow with a heavy blunt instrument would have caused the wound. It was remarkable," said the doctor, "that death was not instantaneous, as two plates of the bone were found pressing against the brain, and it is probable that he was paralyzed on the right side the moment he was hit. A close examination of the wound at the time of the operation showed that there was a struggle. Two gashes 1-1/2 and 3-1/2 inches long were seen to be connected after the head had been shaved and the blood clots removed. The thick bone at the base of the skull was fractured probably from the jar from the same blow. This caused the hemorrhage from the nose and eye. He never regained consciousness. I do not think the wounds could have been caused by a falling can from the store, or by the man himself falling and striking anything. He could not have done it by a fall except from a great height."

that the deceased was a man about 45 years of age, and had been in the employ of the company but a month. He could not have been short in his accounts very much as he had no great quantity of stores and then the goods are sold to the laborers on credit and the amounts subtracted from their wages. Phipps who had spent about 25 years among the Mexicans understood the people and spoke the language well. The work train was at Suwanee for the purpose of repairing a washout at North Garcia. The work was completed about 11 o'clock the night of the tragedy, and the next camping place would have been at McCarty's.

The testimony of M. Sandoval foreman of the gang added nothing to the facts already known. The examinations were conducted by District Attorney George S. Klock.

The theories developed as to the cause of the murder are almost as numerous as the number of men engaged in ferreting out the guilty parties. Some think that a Mexican or two, who probably had a grievance against the Holmes Supply Company wreaked vengeance against the storekeeper, as the present representative of the company against which they were aggrieved. Others think that there may be a woman in the case and the man killed by parties who had hunted him down from the Pacific coast where he had been living up to a month prior to the killing. Others think that possibly jealousy on the part of some of the members of the gang with which he was traveling may have been the cause, the jealousy being aroused by attentions of the dead man toward the women of the party. Others think that there is a connection with the murder of the unknown Mexican on Monday of last week at Winslow, and still others think there may be a connection with the murder of Storekeeper Abel Sedillo at Duero last April.

The officers were busily engaged on the case all yesterday and the day before and a report of their findings will be submitted to Judge George R. Craig, the examining magistrate sitting as a coroner, and the jury at the meeting next Wednesday morning.

statement I gave in praise of Doan's

Kidney Pills about seven years ago.

RESTORING WORK OF THE CONQUISTADORES

Famous Palace of the Governors Now a Monument Worthy of the Commonwealth and Its People.—Restoration in Competent Hands.

The old Governor's Palace is at last coming into its own.

As the average citizen of the territory passes under its time-worn portal arches there is little to suggest the transformation that is being wrought within its historic walls. But he has only to step within the vestibule of the American School of Archaeology and Museum of New Mexico, to realize what has been done during the past two months to restore the old building to something of its former self.

No Modernizing.

There has been no remodeling, no modernizing of the old structure, and this is a source of great satisfaction to the old timers of New Mexico.

Save for the few indispensable features of modern life: steam heat, electric lights and good floors, there is nothing to suggest the present century unless it be the cement finish of the walls, which is made to look like adobe, and which gives a permanence and stability that was lacking in the original construction. The steam heating plant is in a detached building, and in the electric wiring every precaution has been used to guard against fire.

Monument to Conquistadores.

Shortly after 1600 when the old

Conquistadores set about to erect a building as official headquarters for this vast domain, they built the best they knew, and the old Palace stands today as a monument to the integrity of their work. When the heavy walls

some of them four feet in thickness, had reached the required height, they laid as supports for the roof, heavy ceiling beams or vigas. These were great pine logs dressed with the broad axe and draw knife to show their beautiful grain. And over these they laid a ceiling of rough hewn pine slabs, and on these they constructed the flat adobe roof. Early visitors in Santa Fe who enjoyed the hospitality of the old Palace, tell of the leaky roofs, and it is not surprising that soon after the American occupation a more substantial roof took the place of the flat adobe affair. As they fell into decay another and another was laid over it, as is shown in the restoration of the old post-office room at the west end of the building, where on less than five floors were found, one above another.

Crowding the Past.

In addition to covering the old adobe roof, later official occupants who cared less for historic associations and more for the fleeting vanities of the period, plastered the walls and drew on the "States" for wall paper and all the comforts of home.

They hid the fine old beams with tightly stretched muslin, and on this they plastered the wall paper, and thus limited the ceilings they had left back east. And they looked like left ceilings too, until they began to sag, and they might have fooled even the veriest tenderfoot until a troop level floor. Inclines were built in the old Moorish structures of Spain, and in this there is good precedent for their use.

Mural Paintings.

The vestibule is to contain a series of three mural paintings by Carl Lotave. These are already completed and illustrate three periods in the history of Santa Fe. The first room reached from the vestibule is to be known as the Pajarito room. It will house the collection of Pajarito pottery loaned by the New Mexico Normal University, and also the original

Hewett collection of pottery from the same region, recently returned from the Smithsonian Institute. Next comes the Puye room, with the exception of the new Pajarito room the only one in which a plastered ceiling is used. This room was designed by Carl Lotave as a setting for his beautiful mural decorations, and in the wall cases are shown valuable specimens obtained from the excavations at Puye.

The Rito Room.

Next comes the Rito room, the first in which the old beams were exposed.

Not all of them could be saved, as some were too badly decayed to be used. From the Rito room one enters the large lecture hall and library formerly occupied by the post-office.

Here a large square hall had been made years ago by tearing out the intervening walls between four small rooms, and supporting the roof upon pillars. These square box pillars have been replaced by huge dressed logs, which support rough hewn capitals modeled after smaller ones found in the work of restoration. The reconstruction of the roof has increased materially the height of the room.

This hall, forty feet square, will give ample space for lectures and other public meetings, and here will be placed the scientific library recently purchased for the school by Mr.

Frank Springer of Las Vegas.

Reception Room.

The office rooms of the school are at the front of the building and are reached both from the vestibule and the Museum rooms. Here, also, lies the historic old reception room of the governors, the beams and huge hewn slab ceilings of which are remarkably well preserved.

Public Spirituality.

The restoration of the vestibule and Pajarito room was made possible through the generous assistance of Mr. Springer, while the funds for the restoration of the library and lecture hall were contributed by several public-spirited citizens of Santa Fe.

A Master Craftsman.

The work of reconstruction has been under the supervision of Mr.

Jesse L. Nusbaum, who, since joining the staff of the school some two years ago, has familiarized himself with every detail in the construction of the old building, and it is due to his knowledge of practical building, com-

Rome, July 29.—A good story is told to illustrate the discipline and self-control of the famous Carabineers, that ancient body of military policemen who had their origin in Piedmont and about whom so much has been said during the Camorrist trial.

The other day a company of them was drawn up outside the railway station for the arrival of a royal prince.

The prince appeared at the door of the station and all hands were raised in salute when a Carabinieri felt a little tug at his pocket. Then he felt another stronger pull, and remembered with anguish that all his pay and other wealth was in a purse in his trouser pocket which was being insidiously attacked, being exposed by the raising of his arm. What should he do? The foreign prince was just opposite, and to put down his hand and not salute was unthinkable, but at the same time could flesh and blood, and an officer of the law too, deliberately allow himself to be robbed and ruined?

RESTORING THE PALACE OF THE GOVERNORS.

The restoration of the Old Palace to its original architectural outlines, both interior and exterior, is proving a task of great magnitude, and has become possible only through the liberality of men like Hon. Frank Springer, a number of businessmen who have taken life memberships in the Museum Society, the work of a band of Santa Fe women and the devotion of Dr. Edgar L. Hewett and his staff, including especially Messrs. Jesse Nusbaum and K. M. Chapman and the artist Karl Lotz. Now that part of the work is fairly completed, every one recognizes that it has been worth while, and that it has restored to the United States one of its foremost historic monuments, in fact, in point of age and romance, the most interesting historic building in the country.

The planing mill window casings, the incongruous brick fire places, the other additions and accumulations of the past fifty years, have been removed and it becomes apparent that the Conquistadores built well and built for posterity, when they erected the Palace of the Governors 300 years ago. It is peculiarly appropriate too, that the building has been dedicated to the study of the archaeology and the history of the southwest; that it shall be forever a monument and museum housing the treasures which a past age has left for the present but which would be scattered irretrievably were it not for the work of the archaeological and historical societies.

An article on another page outlines some of the work already accomplished in restoring the building and adapting it to its public purpose and also gives a hint of the treasures stored there and which to the people of this town should be as familiar as the hearthstones of their own homes. It is only by visiting the museums and studying each object and each collection, that the patriotic people of Santa Fe can put themselves in position to inform correctly the visitor, the tourist, the stranger who comes here to see for himself the attractions and beauties of this ancient city. The New Mexico Museum should be a place of pilgrimage, a shrine, for all of New Mexico, which the people will take pride and pleasure to make the foremost museum of its kind in the world.

The often quoted words of ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince in his history of New Mexico, will always bear repeating for they sum up in classic lines, the romance of the ancient building, a romance to which the present has added beauty, interest, patriotism and treasures incalculable.

"Without disparaging the importance of any of the cherished historical localities of the east, it may be truthfully said that this ancient palace surpasses in historic interest and value any other place or object in the United States. It antedates the settlement of Jamestown by nine years, and that of Plymouth by twenty-two, and has stood during the 300 years since its creation, not as a cold block or monument, with no claim upon the interest of humanity except the bare fact of its continued existence, but as the living center of everything of historic importance in the southwest. Through all that long period, whether under Spanish, Pueblo, Mexican or American control, it has been the seat of power and authority, whether the ruler was called viceroy, captain-general, political chief, department commander, or governor, and whether he presided over a kingdom, a province, a department, or a territory, that has been his official residence."

"From here Onate started in 1598 on his adventurous expedition to the eastern plains; here, seven years later, 800 Indians came from far-off Uriturito to ask aid in their war with the Axtas; from here, in 1613, Alonso de Salazar set forth to the Mogul country, only to be turned back by rumors of the giants to be encountered; and from here Penabaz and his brilliant troop started on the 6th of March, 1622, on their marvelous expedition to the Missouri; in one of the strong rooms the commissary general of the Inquisition was imprisoned a few years later by the same Penabaz; within its walls, fortified as if for a siege, the bravest of the Spaniards were massed in the revolution of 1808; here on the 19th day of August of that year, was given the order to execute 48 Pueblo prisoners in the plaza which faces the building; here, but a day later, was the sad war council held which determined on the evacuation of the city; here was the scene of the triumph of the Pueblo chieftains as they ordered the destruction of the Spanish archives and the church ornaments in one grand conflagration; here Don Vargas, on September 14, 1692, after the eleven hours' combat of the preceding day, gave thanks to the Virgin Mary, to whose aid he attributed his triumphant capture of the city; here, more than a century later, on March 3, 1807, Lieutenant Pike was brought before Governor Alencaster as an invader of Spanish soil; here, in 1822, the Mexican standard, with its eagle and cactus, was raised in token that New Mexico was no longer a dependency of Spain; from here, on the 6th day of August, 1837, Governor Peres started to subdue the insurrection in the north, only to return two days later and to meet his death, on the 9th, near Agua Fria; here, on the succeeding day, Jose Gonzales, a Pueblo Indian of Taos, was installed as governor of New Mexico, soon after to be executed by order of Armijo; here, in the principal reception room, on August 12, 1846, Captain Cooke, the American envoy, was received by Governor Armijo and sent back with a message of defiance; and here, six days later, General Kearny took formal possession of the city, and slept, after his long, weary watch, on the carpeted earthen floor of the palace.

"Coming down to more modern times, it may be added that here Gen. Lew Wallace wrote Ben Hur, while governor of the territory, in 1879 and 1880."

VIEWS OF SENATOR OWEN.

Senator Owen has made a report of his own on the Flood stevedore resolution. It is printed by the government printing office and is dated July 24, 1911, under the precise and appropriate heading "Views." His opening is characteristic:

"I have joined in the favorable report of the committee on territories approving House joint resolution 14, providing for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona, as amended. I do not believe, however, that the words 'at his request' should be struck out, because I think the individual voter should ask for the ballot and have enough intelligence to ask for it."

If Senator Owen had his way, he would apply the "grandfather" rule to the Spanish speaking people of New Mexico, whom he seems to regard as the Democrats of Arizona and Texas, or as Oklahoma Democrats regard the negro.

But Senator Owen is real anxious to have New Mexico admitted into the Union, for he says so, and one can imagine his pose, smiting his breast in Indian fashion, as he declares: "In my anxiety to see New Mexico admitted without further delay and to see the people of New Mexico given a speedy opportunity of self government, and in saying for themselves, as far as it is practicable under their lax methods, whether they should be allowed to easily amend their own constitution, I have not insisted on amendments which might jeopardize their speedy admission."

This slam and slur will be overlooked by New Mexico, if Senator Owen does his duty on August 7, and works and votes for the passage of the Nelson resolution, thus proving that his "anxiety" is real and not merely simulated. If New Mexico had no knowledge of political conditions as they prevail in Oklahoma, it might accept his criticism in a more humble spirit.

However, Mr. Owen still has one amendment to offer and it provides: "Any bribery or coercion, in holding the election in New Mexico or Arizona, of the voter, or attempt to bribe such voter, shall constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by five hundred dollars fine, one-half to go to the informer, and it shall be the duty of the United States attorneys resident in New Mexico or Arizona, to prosecute all such cases presented to them, at the expense of the United States. No informant giving information of bribery or coercion shall be subject to any punishment on the charge of having received a bribe."

The South is very sensitive about federal interference in elections; and it is to be wondered how the Democratic brethren will receive this proposed amendment of Mr. Owen, whose solicitude for New Mexico is colossal. New Mexico has good laws for the punishment of election crooks and an amendment of the kind offered by Senator Owen is a gratuitous insult, that New Mexico has just as much right to resent as Oklahoma would have resented it when it was admitted into the Union, and as every southern state would resent it, if Congress were to "force" upon it such provision to govern elections in the South.

The rest of the report is devoted to the recall, Arizona's constitution and incidentally every other state constitution, except that of New Mexico. For which favor New Mexico is duly thankful.

How these Democrats love each other, how harmonious they are in all things, appears from the felicity with which Democratic Chairman James R. Nugent, of the New Jersey state committee calls Governor Woodrow Wilson an ingrate and a liar. These sweet compliments were paid the Governor in the presence of some fifty National Guardsmen at Seagirt who did not seem to resent the insult to their commander-in-chief.

Present financial conditions put out of the question a complete sewer system for Santa Fe, but there is no reason why the sewer system already existing should not be gradually extended as means permit. The Palace avenue sewer, for instance, should be extended immediately as far as the Arroyo Salis and even beyond to the city limits, as recent tests have demonstrated that it is amply large enough to take care of the entire street.

The census bureau today publishes the agricultural statistics for the state of Alabama, which has come to the front in late years as a great manufacturing state. Alabama in the census year had 262,720 farms, or eight times as many as New Mexico. It had under cultivation, almost ten million acres and the value of lands in and buildings on farms was given as $287,673,000, which makes a rather low average of a little over a thousand dollars for each farm. The average value per acre is given as only $10.45. About one-half of the farms have an area of less than fifty acres while only 815 have more than a thousand acres. Although the increase of the number of farms in the past ten years has been only 18 per cent against almost 400 per cent in New Mexico, the farm values in Alabama during the past decade increased 114 per cent. Most significant, perhaps, of the new spirit in the South of doing things thoroughly and scientifically, is shown by the item of $7,627,000 expended for fertilizers in 1910, an increase of 193 per cent over 1900.

With Delegate Andrews securing a quarter million acres and $100,000 cash for the University of New Mexico, the Duke City will have another reason besides the federal building and many other favors in the way of bridges, additions to the Indian school, etc., to remember the Delegate by. If there were such a word as "gratitude" in the political catalogue or decalogue, Bernalillo county would be unanimous for anything that Senator Andrews might ask and its delegation would be at his beck and call whenever he desires anything for himself personally, no matter how it lines up on other propositions. But it has been noted, that the community that is served best by public servants, is the last to appreciate or reward such service.

Love of fine togs, inveterate cigar smoking and disinclination to soil the hands at manual work, are the three characteristics that convey a pretty thorough mental picture of the bell boy who brutally murdered a seventy-year-old broker at New York this week in order to obtain $6 cash and a gold watch which he pawned for $18. Of course, if parents insist upon bringing up that kind of boys, who can blame the boy when he becomes a victim of circumstances and of unsatisfied desires?

A dispatch says that Ensign Robert S. Young, Jr., of Concord, N. C., has been placed in the Broad Oak Sanitarium in Morgantown, N. C., after two weeks' mysterious absence from the U. S. torpedo boat destroyer Perkins. He is to be given treatment for nervousness, says the dispatch, but looked hale and hearty as he was taken to the Sanitarium and appeared not the least bit nervous. That deepens the mystery and strengthens the suspicion that the Ensign was merely on "a bit" as the boys would say.

With Carlsbad peach orchards yielding $275 net profit per acre it is no wonder that the average man is not wild to invest in railroads or industrial enterprises, or mines or even printing establishments. The story of the harvesting of the peach crop in Eddy county, as told on another page by F. G. Tracy, is of more than passing interest and shows what can be done and how it should be done in every irrigated valley of New Mexico.

Representative Holstlaw, the banker, who confessed that while a member of the Illinois legislature he accepted $2,500 in bribes, although he was already worth a quarter of a million dollars, does not give a very exalted idea of the kind of cattle they send to the legislature from that particular district in Illinois.

The asphaltting of a block on Palace avenue will be watched with much interest by tax payers and is certain to be followed in due time with the paving of every street in Santa Fe. The day is past when Santa Fe will waste its income patching up annually streets that are bad at their best.

While Delegate Andrews is securing bridges to cross the Rio Grande, south of Domingo, he should not forget that a bridge across that river at the Indian Pueblo of San Ildefonso, would serve several nearby pueblos and a large farm population, and is a "real" necessity.

It did not take the price of a postage stamp to finance the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, according to a witness before the Congressional investigation committee yesterday. If only some of the New Mexico political booms could be financed on such a basis!

Willard will have a "water carnival" on September 19. And that in the heart of the dry farming region! Is it merely a ruse of the Prohibitionists?

The Blee Military Academy of Macomb, Mo., has been leased for a long term of years by Dr. W. A. Wilson, an educator of large experience in Mo. and Texas. This splendid school was founded by the late Colonel F. W. Blee who spent over $100,000 in its equipment. It is thought to be the best equipped Military School outside of West Point. Dr. Wilson's broad scholarship and long experience in school management give assurance to the friends of Blee that the institution has fallen into safe hands and that no pains nor expense will be spared in carrying out the high ideal of its generous and great hearted founder.

Hearing Injunction Suit—Judge McFie is spending today hearing the injunction suit brought by Rosario Pacheco de Tofaya vs. Maclovio Martinez and his mother, Mrs. Martinez, over land in Rio Arriba county. The judge will likely hear late this afternoon the case of the territory vs. Fred Fisher, of Moriarty, charged with selling liquor without a license.

of an inch fell in the course of an grees and the minimum last night 52 degrees. The relative humidity was

Ben Hur Lecture a Success.—The stereopticon lecture on Ben Hur giving last night at the first Presbyterian church was a decided success. Although the evening was stormy, a good crowd was in attendance. The pictures were very clear and Rev. B.
Z. McCollough gave the lecture in a very pleasing manner. The feature of the evening was the recital of the Chariot Race by Mrs. A. M. McCord in Grecian costume. Graceful in every movement and each word well articulated, the race was most realistic to the appreciative audience. A nice little sum was realized for the work of the Endeavor Society.

Every Person should see it "The Coronation of King George at the Elks' tonight."

Citizens Protest Against Saloons.—
The Civic League of Albuquerque has protested against granting a license to sell liquor to the Albuquerque Brewery which made application to open a saloon in the Highlands outside of the city limits, and the Good Citizens' League protested against the opening of a saloon at 1300 Broadway. Action in both cases was thereupon deferred until a hearing can be had.

Saloon Closed Pending Investiga-

Paso sold liquor to minors, Depeder's

Romero, who was a delegate to the constitutional convention, this week lost 84 sheep near Magdalena, they ing killed by eating poison weed, probably wild carrots.

ing "Pull the chicken," at Tajique, Torrance county, 10-year-old Alejandro Montoya, son of J. M. Montoya, was thrown by his horse and dragged a long distance. He was fearfully battered and will probably die.

THE JOY RIDE.

A reckless pace,
A laughing band,
On steering gear
A reckless hand,
No thought of care,
Wide open speed,
Of life and limb
No thought or heed.

A trust in luck,
A folly blind,
A danger sense
Left far behind,
Increasing speed,
And more and more,
A wild contempt
For what's before.

A dash—a crash—
A roar—a scream
Of agony,
A horror's dream,
A heap of junk,
A gasping breath—
The joy ride ends
In jaws of death.

HE'LL BE PLEASED.

"Will you give the waiter a tip?"
"Yes, I'll give him a good one. I'll tell him to go into some other business."

"Why, a year ago you told me this place was easily worth $15,000.
Now you estimate its value at less than $10,000."
"You must remember that I was trying to sell it to you then. Now you want me to sell it for you."

THE LEAVINGS.

"Every dog has its day."
"Yes, and every cat its night, and poor man takes what is left."

Who Wrote "Em?"
"Cease to do evil."
Learn to do well."
"Is an excellent rule."
As many can tell."

She Laughed It Off.
"What is wrong between them?"
"He suggested jokingly that his hair was false, and she started to laugh it off."
"And did she succeed?"
"Yes, when she threw back her head to laugh it off it caught in the back of the chair and came off."

A Black Outlook.

emn this morning?

A LITTLE PARABLE.
I made the cross myself, whose weight
Was later laid on me.
This thought is torture as I toil
Up life's steep Calvary.
To think mine own hands drove the nails
I sang a merry song,
And chose the heaviest wood I had,
To build it firm and strong.

If I had guessed—if I had dreamed
Its weight was meant for me
I should have made a lighter cross
To bear up Calvary!

The men in Company F, First Regiment New Mexico National Guard, evidently took their Santa Fe manners over to Las Vegas with them when they went to camp as will be seen by the following appropriate and graceful expression of appreciation.

Camp Mills, July 26, 1911.

To the Optic:

The undersigned company, on behalf of the enlisted men, wishes to thank the Las Vegas Optic for the complimentary ball given the enlisted men of the Territorial National Guard.

We desire also to thank all young ladies who attended, for the social courtesies shown us.

Thanking you again for the social evening passed by us and wishing you as much success in business as in social affairs, we beg leave to remain, Yours for the Optic, Camp Dinner.

While at Camp Mills Governor Mills was entertained at a camp dinner at which his staff and many officers were present. The officer's big mess tent was brilliantly lighted by acetylene gas, the regiment possessing its own lighting plant. Major Ludwig W. Hild, who has charge of the field and staff officers' mess was in charge of the dinner which was an appetizing one. Describing it the Las Vegas Optic says:

"Adjutant General Brookes, at the conclusion of the last course, introduced Governor William J. Mills as guest of honor. Governor Mills spoke highly of the courtesies shown him. He said it was a source of much pride for him to have visited Camp Mills and found the New Mexico national guard so efficient. He said that General Brookes was responsible for the remarkable increase in efficiency of the guard and too much credit could not be given him. Each of the succeeding speakers complimented General Brookes, whose record as head of the military forces of New Mexico has been an exceptionally good one."

WHEAT LOWER, CORN NERVOUS, OATS HARD.

Considerable Selling Pressure Developed in Provisions Pit on Chicago Market.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Chicago, July 29.—Week-end profit taking in wheat today counted against values. The result was to cool down buying enthusiasm, notwithstanding the bullish outlook for the spring crop in the northwest.

September started at 90 1-8 to 3-8, varying from 1-8 cent off to 1-8 cent advance declined 89 7-8@90; and rallied to 90 1-4. The close was steady with September 1-8@1-4 lower.

Local scalping operations made corn nervous. September opened the same as last night to 1-4 cent up at 63 3-8 to 5-8, touched 63 5-8@3-4 and dropped to 63 1-4. The close was firm with September 1-2@5-8 cent higher.

Oats showed a tendency to harden owing to the smallness of offerings. September started a shade lower to a like amount up at 41 to 1-8 and advanced to 41 1-4.

Considerable selling pressure developed in the provision pit. The source was not disclosed. Opening figures were 7-12 down to 10 higher, with January delivery, 16 1-2 to 1-8 for pork, 8-50 for lard and 3-32 1-2 for ribs.
