Mrs. W. F. Cowden of Midland, Texas, Killed in Accidental Accident

AUTO DRIVEN BY HUBBARD, TURNED OVER IN MIDLANDS FIRST AUTO ACCIDENT

MIDLAND (Tex.) Reporter.

The deepest sorrow ever known in Midland today, and has since Wednesday evening at about sundown, when Mrs. W. F. Cowden was instantly killed in an auto accident that befell her. Mrs. Cowden was driving her Marmon car. The other occupants were his two small daughters, Misses Eula and Gertrude. They were enroute from the schoolhouse to the city limits, going west, just beyond the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Bell. How the accident occurred is speculative. Doubtless, Mrs. Cowden himself will never be able to tell what just one of those terrible things that sometimes occur when a man is being driven at fast speed. There was a bit of excited shouting, perhaps a moment of lost control, and the huge machine turned over, twice perhaps. None of the occupants was seriously injured except Mrs. Cowden.

The family was left startled and overwhelmed. The injured lady was buried to his home and dead.

The husband is almost destitute, financially, and he has to be supported by an hundred hard.

GERMAN SAINTS KILL GERMAN OFFICERS

By Associated Press.

New York, May 1—Higher Russian officers of the Russian Baltic fleet have been killed, according to Capt. Finland, who was slain during the revolution and later put in an able naval commander, was killed although he had gone over to the revolution. This is reported to report that G. G. M. Westman, the ship builder, who was killed, was a member of the Helsing forces. The German sailors are said to have attacked the officers in their homes and reported fourteen freed soldiers killed.

STATE LAND SELLS RAPIDLY

Clayton, N. M., April 30—One hundred and fourteen thousand acres during the past two years, ranging in area from 40 to 26,000 acres, at $25 per acre, were sold here today by State Land Commissioner Robert F. Evans at prices between $10 and $200 an acre. The sales were made immediately among the members of the group, in tracts from 40 to 260 acres. An intersendary ways will be made when the union county, bidding for his group of prospective farmers, brought in from the west of the state.

A school section near Clayton brov sale, in which several were sold at $25 and 150 acre tract sold at $10, the minimum value was ran in the sales and $10 an acre was a common occurrence as the auction price, the sales for the day averaging $60 an acre.

There were more than 500 bidinfrom other counties of New Mex-ico and other states, bidding coming from New York to Oregon.

Traditional for the land sold has averaged in the fact that the maj orty of the sales were residential and near counties, who are thoroughly familiar with the land and who, as a rule, bid above the visitors. Texas, Colorado, Oregon, Montana counties the bids were almost universally from the buyers exclusive of the many sales made to the Hollweg group, who got the 36,000 acres of plum and land, the last sale of the sale was as surprising the auction, Fred. McCall, in behalf of the Hollweg group, as the average sold as possible to the bidder at some time or other will be sold to the best bidder to the best bidder.

The opinion is that forty per cent will be sold by the Hollweg group to land owners for the sale of property in the Hollweg group.

Local News

It's been a busy week for our city's newspapers, with several stories featuring local events and personalities. Among the highlights:

- Mrs. Lou Henrie has been ill for several days with threatened appendicitis.
- Mr. and Mrs. R. Groves left this morning for their home at Santa Fe, going by the way of Pecos and El Paso. They were in our city for a few days on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Grace Roberts.

G. V. Price left this morning on a business trip to Arizona for the Peoples Mercantile Company. He will be absent from our city for several days.

John Higgins writes his mother from Congress Junction, Arizona, that he is managing his health.

The Woodman Massey degrees will be conferred tonight by Eddy Lodge No. 14 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. All members of the lodge and Odd Fellows are invited to attend.

Mr. W. W. Hackett was hosted to a farewell dinner by his many and varied friends in the railroad business and los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Groves, who have attended school here this term, have occupied residence with us all fall and have many and varied friends in this place. Their presence will be a great asset to our city this winter.

Twenty-six car loads of cattle were hauled to Aronau yesterday for shipment to Salina to pasture by the Baltimore and Russell outlaws.

Elliot Hendricks donated his cow boy hat and last summer's trousers, put together and hitched up a wagon, and took off today, for the city. He is such a fellow and did not know the other members of the party's names.

H. E. Barbour, known to this cow boy world here as Todd, has returned from his vacation and has moved his family to Silver City where their son, Henry, has been working there about this year. They rented back to the city and did not know the other members of the party's names.

Mrs. Ed. Holman was on the Black river last night. She is a pleasant woman and will be here for a few days.

Bernard Brown writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown, from the eastern coast that he is well.

Mae Isadoras, who has been a resident of this city since the new year, came in by the train last night, and will be here a week. She is a fine little lady and is a fine attraction in this city.

The usual interest was manifested at the Home Guards meeting at the last meeting of the Home Guards, and the continued good will as at former meetings, as the different squads visited each other. Our Home Guards have been very busy and the different members of the officers and men have not had time to write letters, but they have their effect on the lawless elements and have the happy effect of quieting the fears of the more timid of our city in these stirring times.

Ms. Dick Bass and two children, who have been away from us for a few weeks, came back from Douglas, Arizona, and are at the Carlisle Springs hotel. The Halls have been very busy with their business and Mrs. Bass is taking her to the lake for a spree to Seeley's home. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lisle are here. Mr. Bass says things are quiet out that way now, but their ranch is only a mile from the corner where those bandits were killed by the Mexican bandits.

John Queen, wife and Mrs. A. R. Pimlott, of Malaga, are in town this afternoon. Miss Nettie McCallum, who returned with them in the big Overland.

Jim Delk, of Eddy, was in town last night. He says that things are getting better in the lumber camps, and we shall soon have everything good to eat. That his father adopts himself to his lot of life, he says it is good to have house good and never murmur or complain.

Chas. H. Jones, the youngest of the Jones boys, Joe, James, was here last night, looking well and doing well. He has been very busy delivering the James and Hendricks cattle.

R. F. Tucker was a Carlisle visitor today.

Mr. W. O. Hackett was hosted to a farewell dinner by his many and varied friends in the railroad business and Los Angeles, and who have attended school here this term, have occupied residence with us all fall and have many and varied friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Holman were at the lakes last night. It is their first trip from this city in several days.

Eleven there, and fifty couples or more enjoying a picnic, and four or five of them attended the Woodman convention that was held in that enterprise city.

Mr. isommer left for Albuquerque last night as a delegate to the Woodman convention that was held in that enterprise city.

It is their first trip from this city in several days.

Draft Bill Must Pass
Again in U. S. Senate

Parliamentary Tangle Resulting from Almost Simultaneous Action, Requires That It Be Repassed; Opportunity for Debate Offered

Washington, May 1—Congress will go to work tomorrow to smooth away differences in the legislative draft war bill as passed last night by the senate and house. It is regarded as certain that the measure may go to the president for his signature before the end of the week.

Senate to RePass Bill.

The preliminary tangle resulting from the almost simultaneous action by the two houses requires the next move to be made on the senate bill. The bill must be re-passed there, with unlimited opportunity, under strict interpretation of the rules, for further debate and amendment. It then will go to conference, with the principal task of harmonizing the two houses on the maximum operation charge, fixed by the senate at $77 and by the house at $40. The senate will take up the bill with a motion to substitute the senate's draft section for that passed by the house.

Uncertain Factors.

Senators La Follette, Gronna and others who failed to have amendments considered Saturday night, being shut out by the agreement to vote before midnight, present the uncertain factor regarding speeding the measure by conference. Senator La Follette threatens to block future unanimous consent attempts and to press his amendments for a popular referendum on conservation. Senator Gronna has an amendment to prohibit manufacture of grain into liquor during the year. Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the military committee, expressed confidence that the anti-conscription amendment would not remove their fight.

CONTROLLING THE CORN EAR OR COTTONBOLL WORM.

The farmer today is the most important producer in the world. The United States is confronted today with a serious problem. This season the United States is faced with the greatest factor of all. There will be a large increase in the acreage of cotton in this country this year. Last year there were almost 10,000,000 acres of cotton produced, this year 12,000,000 acres of cotton produced. The yield of cotton will be fairly uniform, and there will be no large fluctuations in the yield of cotton在整个平均水平上。这些指的是一种平均水平的计算方法，用于描述一个数据集中的所有数值。在这种情况下，它通常被称为“平均值”或“均值”（mean），有时也称为“平均数”。均值通过将所有数值加起来再除以数值的数量来计算。均值可以看作是数据的“中心位置”，因为它提供了数据集的中间值。
