County Superintendents.
The department of education is sending out to the newspapers of New Mexico a circular letter on the qualifications of county school superintendents which embraces a resolution passed by the board of education at its meeting September 15. It cites Section 18, Chapter 97, Laws of 1907, which states:

"County superintendent's election qualifications. A county superintendent of schools for each county shall be elected at each general election and shall enter upon the duties of his office on the first day of January following his election. Said county superintendent shall hold office for two years or until his successor shall have been duly elected and has qualified, unless sooner removed for cause."

"From and after the date of passage of this act, no person shall be eligible to the office of county superintendent of schools who is not a person of culture and practical experience and learning in those branches of education taught in public schools, as provided by law, and a person of good moral character, such qualifications to be passed upon and approved by the board of examiners of each county. Provided, This section shall not take effect until January 1st, 1909."

The school board desiring to prevent any complications that might arise if the people should elect a disqualified person to that office makes the following statement as to eligibility:

"That any person to be eligible under said act for the office of county school superintendent must show that he or she has been educated in the following branches, reading, penmanship, orthography, English (grammar and composition), geography, arithmetic, physiology, and United States History. "Practical experience in these branches taught in the public schools" is interpreted to mean one must have had experience in teaching in the public schools or have had experience in supervising the public schools."

Adjutant General A. S. Brookes of the New Mexico National Guard, and Captain E. P. Buja of Carlsbad, will leave Santa Fe this evening for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will attend the 10th convention of the National Guard of the United States of America. This convention is a very important one and at every effort will be made to outline arrangements for getting congress to appropriate enough money to pay the guardsmen throughout the land at other times during the year than at maneuvers, and encampments.

Executive Order.
Executive order of December 19, 1906, withdrawing township 16, north of range 1 east, Jones Meridian, for the benefit of the Indians of the Jemez Pueblo, is hereby amended to read as follows: "It is hereby ordered that the following described lands in New Mexico, namely, township 16 north, range 1 east, New Mexico Principal Meridian, excepting any tract or tracts the title to which has passed out of the United States government, or to which valid legal rights have attached, be, and the same are, hereby withdrawn from sale and settlement, and set apart as a reservation for the use and benefit of the Indians of the Jemez Pueblo."

WM. H. TAFT.

NEW MEXICAN WAS FAIR.
SAYS H. B. FERGUSON.
H. B. Ferguson, Democratic nominee for Congress and one of the Democratic war horses said after the convention yesterday, "The Santa Fe New Mexican treated me with absolute fairness in its reports of the convention just held, and I think its account of the speeches delivered was written in an effort to give the whole news, regardless of the fact that the New Mexican is a Republican paper."

REPUBLICANS KEEP JUDICIARY OUT OF POLITICS.
Santa Fe, Oct. 6, 1911.

Hon. A. A. Jones, Palace Hotel, Santa Fe, N. M.

Dear Sir—Appreciating fully the desirability of eliminating the state judiciary from politics, I, as chairman of the Republican state central committee, having charge of the campaign of the nominees on the state ticket, suggest, on behalf of the Republican party, the propriety of keeping the nominees for justices of the supreme court from engaging in public political speaking and active political work during this campaign. The nominees for justices of the supreme court on the Republican ticket will not speak from the political platform and will not engage actively in this campaign and it is my earnest hope that the nominees of your party for the same positions will pursue a like policy.

PEOPLE FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES

Telephone and Telegraph Connection With a Big Town Broken Off.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 6.—Breaks have occurred in both the upper and lower dams of the La Crosse Water Power Company at Hatfield on the Black river, sixty miles northeast of here. The five million dollar property of this company is menaced and a large district, including the city of Black River Falls with 2,000 inhabitants, is under water. A great district in the Black River valley also is submerged.

People Are Fleeing.
At noon, the Black River Falls telephone operator reported that water was surrounding the telephone building, that people were moving out of houses in the lower part of town and that it was dangerous to remain longer. Thereafter, it was impossible to raise Black River Falls on either telephone line connecting it with La Crosse.

Scouts Warn Farmers.
Relief parties are being hastily organized here, scouts are being sent out among the farmers warning them to take to the high lands and preparations are being made to combat the higher waters expected tonight among the small villages along the Black river.

Houses Float Down Stream.
Several farm houses, floating down stream in the flood that is flowing around the west end of the Hatfield main power dam and sending water to a depth of eleven feet over the top, struck and tore away the bridges at Black River Falls today. The families that had occupied these houses, it is feared have perished.

Hatfield Under Water.
Hatfield is under water but it is thought that no lives were lost there.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Badajoz, Spain, Oct. 6.—The Portuguese government admits that Royalist disturbances are in progress in northern Portugal near the Spanish frontier. It is asserted that 6,000 men are following the white and blue flag of the deposed King Manuel. TAFT DEFENDS SUPREME COURT

Bitter In His Denunciation of Those Who Criticise Unjustly

JUST JUDGE AS EARTHLY IDEAL

Prosecution of Illegal Combinations Will Be Continued by Government

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Pocatello, Ida., Oct. 6.—In a speech before the Chamber of Commerce here today, President Taft bitterly assailed the critics of the United States supreme court and asserted anew his views as to the relation of government to business.

Prototype of Justice Here.
"I love judges and I love courts," said the president. "They are my ideals on earth that typify what we shall meet afterward in heaven under a just God. An when a court is doing its duty, when it is trying to interpret the law as it ought to be, to have it condemned and attacked and its motive questioned for mere political purposes without any solid ground for attack, goes to my heart and I resent it with deep indignation."

Challenge Flung at Bryan.
President Taft said he had received many criticisms on the point, but as yet he had failed to receive an answer to his challenge to W. J. Bryan and other publicists, to cite a single case of combination in restraint of trade which ought to be condemned and which would not be condemned under the supreme court's interpretation of the anti-trust law in the Standard Oil and Tobacco trust cases.

Railroads Entitled to Square Deal.
Mr. Taft said the railroads were entitled to proper treatment and should be saved from the attacks of the demagogues or the man who would seek by the position of his victim to climb over his shoulders into popular esteem.

Uncle Sam's Guardian Angel.
"What distinguishes this country from any other one," said the president, "is the supreme court that we have in Washington, that often has stood between us and errors that might have been committed that would have been greatly injurious to this country, and to turn upon that court and to question its motives and to attack it seems to me to lay the axe at the root of the tree of our civilization."

The Berlin I, Lieutenant Leopold Vogt, pilot, Lieutenant Schoeller, aide, landed near Austin, Minn., at 1 o'clock this morning.

CANNOT TAKE DYNAMITE TO LOS ANGELES.
Indiana Judge Refuses Petition of State Attorney J. D. Fredericks.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 6.—Judge Joseph Markey, of the criminal court of this county, today denied the petition of State Attorney J. D. Fredericks of Los Angeles county, California, that dynamite seized in this city a time of the arrest of John J. McNamara be removed to Los Angeles to be used as evidence in the trial in the McNamaras.

BIG RECEPTION FOR REYES IS PLANNED.
But Secret Agents of Francisco I. Madero Are Spying on Rebel Junta.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 6.—Arrangements were made today by friends of General Bernardo Reyes of Mexico for a demonstration on his arrival here from New Orleans. It is expected that agents of Francisco I. Madero will take part.

PROPOSED BIG COPPER MERGER IS ABANDONED.
Calumet and Hecla Will Not Absorb Nine Subsidiary Michigan Companies.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Boston, Mass., Oct. 6.—The abandonment of the proposed merger of the Calumet and Hecla with nine subsidiary Michigan companies, was officially announced just before the close of the stock market today.

WAR CLOUDS GROW THICKER

Italy May Send Armed Expedition to Attack the Arabian Ports

TURKS SEIZE BRITISH VESSEL

Forts On Eastern Coast of Africa Fire on an Italian Cruiser

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Rear Admiral Boredollino has been made Italian governor of Tripoli following the military occupation of the city by men and guns from the Italian fleet. Today's advices describe the Arabs of the vicinity as offering submission to the invaders, while the Turkish defenders of the garrison have retired to the interior.

Many Casualties.
News dispatches from Tripoli continue meager, as the Italians exercise strict censorship. Reports from the frontier indicate that there were more casualties during the bombardment than has been officially confirmed.

May Attack Red Sea Ports.
The only other development of importance today was a statement from Rome that Italy would assume the offensive in the Red Sea, attacking the seaports of Yemen if necessary, because the fort of Hodeidah had fired on an Italian cruiser.

Turks Seize British Ship.
Salonica, European Turkey, Oct. 6.—The Turkish battleship Feth-i-Bulend held up and searched the British steamer Orchid and finding forty barrels of powder on board, brought the vessel here as a prize of war.

Fire On Cruiser.
Massawa, Eritrea, Africa, Oct. 6.—The fort at Hodeidah, a seaport of Arabia, fired many shots at the Italian mining cruiser Aretusa which was cruising in the Red Sea to protect Italian commerce. The shots were without effect. The Aretusa replied with her guns.

Twenty Additional Guards Have Now Been Placed at San Francisco

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 6.—Beyond the posting of twenty additional guards about the local shops and the sending of strike breakers to San Luis Obispo, there were no developments today in the shopmen's strike situation on the Pacific coast.

Trainmen Make No Demand.
F. G. Athearn, head of the Southern Pacific Bureau of Economics, said today that the decision of the trainmen convention in Denver to make no demands on the western roads at this time was the most important development since the strike began.

One Killed; Many Wounded.
New Orleans, La., Oct. 6.—Eight strikebreakers and a deputy United States marshal were wounded in yesterday's clash incident to the railroad strike and five of the former are in hospitals. Louis Lackauer of Brooklyn, died today from his injuries. Twelve strikebreakers, a half dozen strikers and a detective are in jail, charged with rioting.

National Guard to Quell Riots.
McComb City, Miss., Oct. 6.—The gulf port and Aberdeen companies of the national guard, left here today for Water Valley where there has been rioting growing out of the Illinois Central strike.

Strikers Declare Truce.
New Orleans, La., Oct. 6.—Following an assault at 11 o'clock today on a brick building in which are quartered 215 strike breakers, 800 ex-employees of the Illinois Central railroad and strike sympathizers withdrew on the approach of police reserves and at noon declared a truce, until 3:30 o'clock, to permit the railroad company to transport the strikebreakers out of the city.

National Guardmen Killed.

The close was steady at 64 5/8 for December, a net loss of 3/8.

Oats, though firmer at the outset, were dragged down by corn. December started a shade up at 48 1/8, but descended to 48 7/8.

French Colors Lowered.
According to the latest advices the Frenchmen were defying the local calliph of Agadir, who on his own responsibility, had ordered the French colors lowered, but it is expected that Frenchmen will yield when they learn that their government has disavowed their act.

Germany is Satisfied.

Don't seem to know that I'm the main tableau vivant around here, and that it doesn't.

Matter if other people did come to see the show, the ill-bred things daring to.

Look at me in that way just because they're selfish enough to want their money's worth when I have.

So much to talk about and so little to say. Of course I'll.

Giggle if I want to, even if it is an affected scream—I want people to know I'm here.

And anyone who thinks I'm doing the needle work or snuffing the coc' is crazy with the heat.

For I'm a lady and if the people sitting near me don't think so.

They can take a look at these furs and sparklers.

For if they don't signify a perfect lady I don't know what does.

Oh, dear! I wish that music would stop, I can't hear a word.

I'm saying and I know it must be interesting. What's.

That—I'm annoying people who want to find out what is going on on the stage? Well just let them leave the theatre or be educated up to.

A proper respect for the independence of their superiors. Why, honestly it is easy to imagine that the time will.

Come when people will be required to stop chattering. During the process of a play, and I'd like to know.

Why anyone should go to the theatre if not to talk. Why what would the first night of a new play be worth if.

It weren't for people like me condescending to come—well. Did you hear that man in the seat behind us—I thought for a moment.

He was referring to us, and I was going to have you request him.

To apologize—what did he say, did you ask—yes.

He was enquiring as to the best and quickest way to administer chloroform to climbing magpies.

I'm glad nobody talks about me that way. Oh, is the play over—well.

Let's go where we can have a nice long talk.

NOT SALTS, OIL OR PILLS BUT CASCARETS

No Odds How Sick Your Stomach; How Hard Your Head Aches or How Billious—Cascarets Make You Feel Great.

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage way every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and sour gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Santa Fe Citizens Show the Way.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of serious kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and yet these ills can be cured. Read what a Santa Fe citizen says:

Toribio Rodriguez, 110 Johnson St., Santa Fe, N. Mex., says: "Two and a half years ago I gave a statement for publication regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. Today I am stronger in my praise of this remedy than ever. I suffered greatly from disordered kidneys, the pains in my back being so acute that I had to stop work and sit down. The trouble steadily grew worse and I rarely knew what it was to be free from an ache or pain. Soon after I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, my pains and aches disappeared and my back became strong."

SO CALLED "PROGRESSIVES" LAND TWO OUT OF 16 NOMINATIONS

Democratic State Convention, After Three Days Deliberations, Puts Complete Ticket In Field—Santa Fe to Be Campaign Headquarters.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Governor: W. C. McDonald, Carrizozo, Lincoln County.
Lieutenant Governor: E. C. de Baca, Las Vegas, San Miguel County.
Secretary of State: Antonio J. Lucero, Las Vegas San Miguel County.
County
Attorney General: W. R. McGill, La Lande, Roosevelt County.
State Treasurer: O. N. Marron, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County.
State Auditor: Francisco Manzanares, Fort Sumner, Guadalupe County.
Superintendent of Public Instruction: Alvan N. White, Silver City, Grant County.
Land Commissioner: J. L. Emerson, Carlsbad, Eddy County.
Corporation Commission: O. L. Owen, Clovis, Curry County; Serafino Martinez, Black Lake, Colfax County; George H. Van Stone, Estancia, Torrance County.
Supreme Court: Summers Burkhardt, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County; W. A. Dunn, Roswell, Chaves County; Richard H. Hanna, Santa Fe, Santa Fe County.
Congress: H. B. Fergusson, Albuquerque, Bernalillo County; Paz Valverde, Clayton, Union County.

The above is the complete state ticket nominated by the Democratic State Convention which adjourned shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday evening at the capitol, after a three days' session, the last of which was a stormy one.

The feature of the ending of the convention was the clash between those two Democratic war horses, Judge W. R. McGill of La Lande, Roosevelt county, and H. B. Fergusson of Albuquerque, over Mr. Fergusson's nomination for congress. As stated in the New Mexican yesterday Judge McGill told the convention frankly that he had been slated for the place, that Mr. Fergusson had told him he would support him, and that he considered a raw deal had been worked on him in some manner.

Mr. Fergusson was not in the hall during the delivery of these "judicial" remarks but he heard of them later, but not until after he had accepted the nomination, in a brief speech. Mr. Fergusson returned to the hall and amidst wild scenes, he demanded the floor on the ground of "special privilege." With great emotion he said:

"Gentlemen of the convention, I am placed in a position I cannot endure. I am going against every member of Bernalillo, my county, but I cannot accept this nomination for congress. It is true, Judge McGill indicated to me some time ago he wanted to run for congress. I told him I hoped he'd make it. I told him that if he came to the convention I had no doubt of his nomination. I had no idea THEN of the events that had transpired here today. I did not hear his speech, but several delegates of this convention have come to me since I told you I would obey your orders and I found expressions of these men were 'Won't you tell me you did not say that to Judge McGill?' I answered that I did not intend to say it. Judge McGill is a friend of mine. (Applause.)

"So much am I wrapped up in the success of this campaign I was willing, if drafted, to take up any work as a good soldier. But nothing in the world would induce me to be a DOUBLE DEALER. I beg of you, therefore, to accept at once my withdrawal from the nomination for congress."

There was intense silence and then shouts of "NO."

Judge McGill relieved the situation by arising and saying in that clear voice of his:

The Judge Replies.

"As I said a while ago I knew Mr. Fergusson was possibly nearer the heart of the Democrats of this state than is any other man. If there is any man wronged in this proposition it must be your humble servant. (Laughter.)

"Now, I would not be a Democrat should I allow this man of your choice to resign this position and I won't allow it. I move that his withdrawal be refused."

Then there was much shouting, numerous seconds and the nomination was thrust back on Mr. Fergusson.

Judge is Repaid.

And Judge McGill was repaid in a measure for his generosity in this instance for when J. Lee Lawson of Almagordo made it known to the convention that, under no circumstances, would he accept the nomination for attorney general, which had been thrust on him. It was handed over to Judge McGill and he was given the post without a dissenting voice.

Evening Session.

The New Mexican carried an account of the nomination yesterday until about 4 p. m.

Following the nomination of Mr. Fergusson for congress came the nomination of Paz Valverde of Clayton, Union county by John A. Pace of Clayton. There were many seconds and finally Mr. Valverde's nomination was declared unanimous. A committee consisting of C. M. Sanchez, Antonio Pacheco, Henry Grant, Dr. Joyner, Dr. Rice and Eugenio Romero was appointed to escort Mr. Valverde to the hall. Mr. Valverde made a short speech, thanking the convention for the nomination. He said among other things that he believed in the convention of that character the words "Spanish-American," "English-American," etc., were out of place. He denounced the Republicans and said that the declaration made by some of their campaigners that the safety and future of New Mexico lies in their hands "is an insult to the intelligence of the people of New Mexico." He referred to Larrasolo but paid no tribute to the former Democrat.

Felix Martinez Has the Floor.

Again the "boss," Felix Martinez cracked the whip and the convention sat up and took notice. They knew something of great importance was about to come and it did. Mr. Martinez discussed in his soft, pleasing voice, the "hand wagon" and the origin of the use of such an expression. Then he finally got down to business and boldly tackled the subject of the Progressive Republican "intrigues" with the Democratic party which had led to an alliance "for the success of the Democratic party." He was too gallant to admit that the Progressives had done the wooing, which was to culminate in matrimony, but said: "The Democratic party in the last few days made 'proffers' to the Progressives. Then, having prepared the convention for the sound of the wedding bells, he read the Lohengrin wedding march (which was written by Mendelssohn Martinez???) which was as follows, (with a few grace notes left out):

The Resolution.

"Resolved, It is the sense of this convention that the Committee of Twenty-six and the Democratic Central Committee join in order to carry into effect the provisions of the resolutions heretofore adopted, that the supreme court and the corporation commission be NON PARTISAN and one 'Progressive' be named on the supreme bench and one such representative be on the corporation commission.

"And that such shall be declared the sense of this convention and if so declared the convention will then proceed to select two Democratic candidates for the supreme court and the corporation commission."

Judge McGill Asks Questions.

H. B. Fergusson followed Mr. Martinez with a motion that the resolution be adopted by acclamation. Judge McGill was one to rise in protest against this alliance, saying he thought the resolutions "out of place and incomplete" in that they did not specify the character of men the Progressives would have to put up for the ticket. J. H. Crist, from Rio Arriba, answered the Judge and so did Mr. Martinez, making it plain that the convention would be asked to vote on men that were selected with care and that the committee had had names submitted and would put up for nomination only men acceptable to the delegates.

Judge Sherry Calls a Halt.

Judge McGill withdrew his nomination and all looked plain and serene for the able-stroll of Democracy leading Progressive Republicanism on his arm when Judge Sherry halted the procession. His deep, sepulchral tones were ominous. He stood in the center of the aisle and with great deliberation and dignity he said:

"I ask the Democratic party NOT TO LOWER ITS FLAG. If we are in a party that has to go outside of it to get men on its ticket, we are in a sad way. FOR ME I SAY NONE BUT DEMOCRATS ON GUARD." There was a deep silence and Judge Hewitt of White Oaks followed Judge Sherry, saying that this was a late hour to "spring anything like that" on the convention; he said the names of these Progressives should have been presented to the convention in the morning and he moved that the convention have time to consider the matter. He asked for a recess.

His request was greeted by shouts of disapproval and a vote was taken at 4:40 p. m., carrying the resolutions, with a few dissenting voices heard and they were of older men who protested against what they considered an "unboly alliance."

More Speeches.

It was evident that more nominating speeches had to be heard, although the delegates were looking furiously at the clock, as they wished to pack up and start for home.

Then the Fergusson incident occurred and left its impression. Following Mr. Fergusson, H. L. Bickley of Colfax county, read a telegram stating that his constituents had read both the Santa Fe New Mexican and the Albuquerque Journal but had not seen a speech by him in either. There was much laughter at this announcement.

Mr. Bickley then made a fine speech, occasionally touching the heavens with a poetical allusion. Chairman Richardson saw that in his fervor to delight the eyes of his constituents Mr. Bickley had exceeded his time and again and again was Mr. Richardson on the point of striking his gavel on the desk, but some poetical gem caught his ear and he desisted, awe stamped on his countenance. Mr. Bickley kept right on and after finishing his poem about the grandeur of a state he plunged into the nomination of Serafino Martinez for corporation commissioner.

Then O. L. Owen was nominated and so was C. L. Pollard.

The nominations came so thick and fast that even the dozen newspapermen had trouble keeping up with them. It was clear that there were "plenty of horses" in the running.

Lawson Withdraws.

Soon Mr. Lawson announced, through Mr. Paxton, that he would not accept the nomination for attorney general and his resignation was accepted. Harry Patton nominated Judge McGill for the honor, calling him the "indomitable war horse." Felix Martinez seconded the nomination. AND THAT SETTLED IT. He was nominated by acclamation. There was wild cheering.

Many Judges.

Felix Lester of Albuquerque, former mayor of that city, nominated his townsman, Summers Burkhardt for judge of the supreme bench. W. E. Rogers nominated Judge W. A. Dunn of Roswell for the same honor. John Morrow nominated H. L. Bickley for the judgeship and said that Mr. Bickley enjoyed the distinction of being a nominee for the bench to enforce laws he had not helped make. Felix Martinez seconded the nomination.

Alexander Gusdorf of Taos then addressed the convention briefly.

Grant and Curry county delegations seconded Burkhardt's nomination. The Santa Fe delegation announced the name of Judge Laughlin for judge. Union county seconded the nominations of Dunn and Burkhardt. Then John H. Crist made a nomination speech which he had been unable to make before for failure to get the floor. He nominated Judge N. B. Laughlin, whom he praised as an upright judge, while he was on the bench and an upright citizen off it. He served warning on the Democrats to forget their selfishness and said ninety per cent of the candidates put forward are totally unknown in their county. He made a plea for a better geographical distribution and the nomination of men who are better known and who would meet with more general approval.

After he finished, The Socorro delegation seconded the nomination of Judges Laughlin and Burkhardt. A vote was then taken and great interest was manifested. From the start it looked like Judges Burkhardt and Dunn, though Judges Laughlin and Bickley made occasional spurts. The vote resulted as follows:

Marron Offers Resolutions.

Delegate Marron of Albuquerque then offered a resolution that, thanks of the convention be extended first to the good people of Santa Fe for the warm reception extended

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may have shortness of breath on exertion, palpitation of the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alternative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Sick to this day and same remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you good in such good.

Also to the railroads for granting excursion rates and looking after the transportation.

Also to the temporary and permanent officers of the convention for the fair and courteous manner they had performed their duties.

Then the convention empowered the central committee to fill any vacancies that might be created on the ticket.

Crist's Sarcasm.

John H. Crist, of Rio Arriba, who has law offices in Santa Fe, then made a brief and telling speech teeming with sarcasm. He appealed to the chairman to know IF ANY CRUMBS FALL FROM THE MASTER'S TABLE FOR THE DEMOCRACY OF THE NORTHWEST?

Chairman Richardson, who is from the southeast (of Roswell, Chaves county), was visibly embarrassed by the nature of the question. But he replied with much firmness: "I am one who has a great respect for the northwest, and I wish it were fishes and leaves and not crumbs."

Progressives Pledge.

Then the Progressives held sway: Attorney M. T. Dunlavy of this city, nominated R. H. Hanna for the supreme court (!!!). He said Mr. Hanna is a man who has fought corruption where he found it; he stands high in his profession and he added (as many people smiled), "HE IS DISPASSIONATE, impartial, and just."

Mr. Hanna's nomination went through swimmingly, without any but a rising vote. Then Mr. Dunlavy performed the same service for G. H. Van Stone for the corporation commission. Mr. Van Stone having also been selected from the Progressive party. There was a murmur of surprise as it was thought by many Mr. Boatright was to have this nomination but the convention took immediate action and made Mr. Van Stone's nomination unanimous. Both gentlemen were brought to the convention hall, and Mr. Hanna, in a few words, thanked the convention for the honor and he said he would pledge the support of the Progressive Republican League to the entire Democratic ticket.

Many of the delegates by this time had started for home and while Mr. Van Stone was voicing his thanks there were many vacant seats. Mr. Martinez, a nominee for corporation commissioner, followed with a brief address. Judge McGill was also asked to say a few words. He did. He said: "Gentlemen: I started out for bigger game but I thank you for the honor in nominating me attorney general and I elected I shall strive to fill the post honestly and efficiently."

There were cheers for the Judge and the convention then adjourned "sine die."

There were many compliments for Chairman Richardson for his efficiency and courtesy as a parliamentarian during the most trying scenes and for Secretary Zimmerman, whose big voice charmed all. The work of the interpreters was also much appreciated for they accomplished their task untiringly. Arthur P. Hill of Santa Fe was one of the interpreters and Santa Feans were proud to see that he could hold his own, in commanding the two languages, with any of the interpreters.

REAL DANGER.

If there is any danger of New Mexico public lands being grabbed under the new state government, it is from large corporations owned by foreign stockholders who have absolutely no interest in New Mexico, except to draw dividends from the natural wealth of this domain, and which control the ranges in such counties as Lincoln. These corporations have been the enemy all over the West, of the homeseeker, of the sheepman, of the small cattleman, of the farmer and they have not stopped at bloodshed to maintain control of the public range. They have illegally put up drift fences and they have made it impossible for the small man to establish himself. There was a time when Lincoln county had scores of small cattle owners, when sheep and goats gave a livelihood to hundreds of herders and sheepmen, but that day has passed, the big corporations have driven off the small cattle and sheepmen, and have the waters and the range in their iron grasp. Why is it that Lincoln county has not settled up with farmers as Quay and Roosevelt counties have done the past few years? Why is the small cattleman disappearing? Is it not because of the czarism of the foreign corporations?

The Democrats have nominated for governor, the manager of the biggest English corporation operating in Lincoln county and probably in the United States. He has been the servant of the British stockholders for the past twenty years. The New Mexican does not question his ability or his integrity as a faithful servant of his British overlords, but is he the kind of a man who is to be the first governor of New Mexico? Is it really true that New Mexico is owned and controlled by foreign corporations as the enemies of the commonwealth have so persistently asserted?

The answer will be given by the people of New Mexico on November 7, and the New Mexican does not fear that the answer will be in the affirmative.

WE LEAD, OTHERS FOLLOW.

How the Democratic Convention loved the dear Spanish-American people, how they slobbered over the native born patriots! But that is only when election is on. Until now they have not only neglected, but spurned the Spanish-American people. Octaviano Larrazolo has pointed out the Democratic hypocrisy, and they have sought to make good by following the example of the Republicans by naming five Spanish-Americans on their ticket out of sixteen candidates. But the native born citizen is neither an infant nor an imbecile. He knows his friends and those who protect his own industries. It is peculiar that the Democrats have always held their conventions after the Republicans have held theirs. They want to have a cue, and those who have followed the Democratic deliberations the past three days must have noticed how step by step they have sought to follow the Republican action; how candidate for candidate they have sought to checkmate the Republican nominees and how miserably they have failed. The Democratic party is not a party of initiative, it does not originate, it does not build. It always seeks to find out what the other fellow does and then declare itself "ferocious".

The first duty of the Democratic central committee is to buy cheapness for those who have a sensitive olfactory nerve and yet, despite such warnings, insist on voting this ticket on November 7.

WHICH DO YOU CHOOSE?

Businessmen, land owners, working men, sheep and cattle men, all expected that the moment that statehood was granted to New Mexico there would be an influx of capital, great prosperity, a tremendous revival of trade.

They had a right to look for it, and keen has been their disappointment. Business is moving along as slowly as it had before, capital is no easier to get, railroad construction has not been resumed, land is not in greater demand. Why?

Capital and enterprise are timid. Capital and enterprise have heard it whispered by Democrats in the east that the Democrats have a fighting chance to carry New Mexico on November 7. Of course, no such chance exists, but capital and enterprise are holding off until after the election.

If the Republican ticket is elected, capital and enterprise will take it as a guarantee that for five years, New Mexico will build up instead of tear down; that property and personal rights will be protected; that every one will be given the square deal, and capital and enterprise will pour into the State by New Year in an overwhelming avalanche.

But if the Democrats should win? Capital and enterprise will go elsewhere. There are other fields for it than new states, states in which demagogues make uncertain the future. Even Mexico and South America are preferred by capital to such a state.

What do you want, Mr. Voter? What do you favor? Prosperity, good times, development, increase in wealth and population, or do you prefer retrogression, sloth and uncertainty?

TICKET FOR TICKET.

Let the voters compare the Republican and the Democratic state nominations, ticket with ticket, name with name, reputation with reputation and character with character. Let them make this comparison beginning with the governor and ending with the corporation commission, let them delve into the records and examine the standing of each man. There can be but one result—as to personality each Republican nominee towers high in ability above his Democratic opponent.

Then compare platform with platform, plank with plank, and here again it is certain that real statesmanship, real solicitude for the welfare of New Mexico, are dictating Republican policies, while the Democrats resort to buncombe where they do not advocate policies that would do New Mexico irreparable harm. It has always been thus, it is that way now and will probably be the same in years to come. The Republican party is the party of principles, of prosperity, of equal rights; the Democratic party is the party of opportunists that grasps at any evanescent issue on which to ride into office.

The Republican central committee did the respectable and logical thing in proposing to the Democratic central committee that the supreme court candidates do not engage actively in the political campaign. Both parties have declared in favor of keeping the supreme bench out of politics, and the Republicans will make good their pledges. The ermine should be kept spotless.

What do the Prohibitionists think of Summers Burkhardt for the supreme bench and Francisco A. Manzanarez for state auditor?

What does the Albuquerque Journal say about political banking now?

SCHLEY.

It is one of the saddening facts of life that the attention of the world can easily be diverted from the really significant deeds in a man's life and induced to dwell noisily and acrimoniously upon a really minor point.

At present, at least, Admiral Schley, who was buried yesterday, is generally thought of as the man who figured in the Schley-Sampson dispute. Admiral Schley did not emerge from that affair as victoriously as his friends hoped he might; and in the minds of many people the glory of the Schley name and fame were partially dimmed.

Yet the real attributes of this fine old officer were quite apart from the controversy which raged around him. When there was need of a man who was willing to jeopardize his life in an effort to rescue the Greely expedition to the North Pole, Schley was the man who volunteered and who succeeded in the tremendous task allotted to him.

Throughout his long career as a naval officer Schley won and held the profound esteem and respect—the affection, too in most cases—of the men who served under him. As a good officer he knew that his most important duty was to see that the men entrusted to his care were conscientiously treated; and in this high duty he never failed.

These are the things by which the dead sailor should be remembered. It was his misfortune, during the Spanish-American War, to be the ranking officer present during a battle when Admiral Sampson was absent because of an emergency. Thus the correspondent and others were quick to declare that Admiral Schley had won a great victory.

Schley never said anything of the kind. With the humility of a true soldier, he said "there is glory enough for us all." Still, he was made to be the scapegoat in a war of words launched by friends of Sampson who resented the attitude of Schley's friends; and as is nearly always the case in military tribunals, the ranking officer was given the decision.

This had nothing to do with the life of Schley, nor with his services to his country. He did much and he claimed little. He was faithful in little things and he was capable of rising to a big emergency. Best of all, he was devotedly loved by those who knew him best—and can any man be put to a more final test?

WHAT DOES HIS NEIGHBOR THINK OF HIM?

It is a political rule in shaping a political ticket, to select men who will add strength to the ticket in the particular locality where they live. It is not significant, that the Democratic nominations, will weaken the ticket in the particular locality where each candidate lives? Will not E. C. de Baca, candidate for Lieutenant governor, and Antonio J. Lucero, candidate for secretary of state, be snowed under in San Miguel county, where both live, where both are employed in the same office, where both have been employed by Felix Martinez? Will not Harvey B. Fergusson be scratched unmercifully in Bernalillo county? Will not Francisco Manzanarez weaken his own ticket in Guadalupe county, and especially at Fort Sumner?

On the other hand, Holm O. Bursum will run strongest in Socorro county; Secundino Romero will sweep San Miguel county; Malaquias Martinez will lead in Taos county; George Curry in Lincoln county; R. P. Ervien in Union county; W. G. Sargent in Rio Arriba county; Sylvestre Mirabal in Valencia county; Frank W. Clancy in Bernalillo county; Frank W. Parker in Dona Ana county, and other candidates in their own particular ball-wicks. A man who is not popular among his neighbors, in his own community, lacks something that unfits him for being a servant of the people in state office. There is a streak in his make-up that must be watched.

Pennsylvania is world famous as a great manufacturing center, but census figures published this week, give such enormous totals of the capital invested, almost three billion dollars, and value of products, more than $2, 600,000,000, as to stagger the imagination. Forty times all the taxable wealth of New Mexico would not equal the annual output of the mills and factories of the Keystone state. Three million horsepower are utilized and 973,000 persons are given employment, drawing annual salaries and wages in the enormous sum of $566,524,000. Most of these industries have been developed by protection under the domination of Republican principles. Democratic tariff for revenue only, such as the Democrats of New Mexico advocate in their platform adopted this week, would mean ruin to these industries and the throwing out of employment of at least half a million people.

Wisconsin is a great state, it is an enlightened state, it is a state in the hands of the so-called Progressives, and yet, at the hearing of the bribery charges against Senator Stephenson, the following is characteristic of the entire testimony:

"A man has to be ready to spend a couple of hundred thousand dollars to get the senatorial nomination in this state. Isn't that so?" asked Senator Sutherland.

"Well, if he had not got the money he'd better keep out of politics," responded the witness. It was pointed out that in some counties Senator Stephenson spent an amount equal to $5 a vote.

In other words, this is the kind of purchasable cattle that vote at the polls in the Progressive state of Wisconsin.

The value of the domestic animals on the farms of Texas, according to a bulletin of the Census Bureau issued today, is $314,000,000, or six times the entire assessed wealth of New Mexico. The Lone Star state has 6,721,502 head of cattle; 1,758,084 sheep; 1,157,749 horses; 672,781 mules; 16,581 burros; 2,329,723 swine; and 1,079,277 goats. It has besides 13,669;

645 fowls and $675,327 worth of bees. It is rather remarkable that the value of cattle in Texas, in itself, is more than twice all of the assessed valuation of all kinds of wealth in New Mexico, and the value of horses, one and one-half times the taxable wealth of this Territory.

It would be a great help for a political banker to have as state auditor a weakling. The Democratic bosses have seen to it that such was nominated for that important post.

Gemini, or The Twins, should be the name for that double constellation consisting of Felix Martinez's editors and newspaper managers from the Meadow City.

If Shakespeare were living today he would choose McCall, and not Falstaff for his principal comic figure.

It has been set down as a political certainty that Richard H. Hanna will not carry his own precinct.

The Democrats have nominated one peach of a ticket.

BOY SCHOOLS TAKE UP SCOUT MOVEMENT.

Principals of Preparatory Schools Find Activities an Excellent Supplement to Class Room Work.

The leaders of the Boy Scouts of America have made arrangements with several boys' preparatory schools throughout the country to adopt the Boy Scout movement as a supplement to their educational work. Many other academies are considering the adoption of it. Scouting activities in a general way have been taken up by several schools and have been found very helpful and popular. The different phases of scouting can be added to the school work and give additional incentive to the boys both in their studies and in their athletic work. For instance, a boy who becomes a scout can win badges for being proficient in various studies, in athletic events and in his tramps on holidays through the country around the academy which he attends.

The training which the boys receive by engaging in other scout activities can be used as a substitute for military drills and tactics. In the majority of schools the military training is given simply as a means of discipline. Scout activities provide discipline, body building and character training, and they take the boys' mind away from the thought of war.

Educators are enthusiastic over the scout movement. Captain Ferrara, commandant of the Department of Military Service of the State University School, Okla., has taken up scouting. Thomas Aston, principal of the public school in McAlester, Okla., is interested in the educational value of scouting. Captain J. W. Bare, who is an instructor in the Culver Summer Naval School, Culver, Ind., has been teaching boys under his charge scouting for several years, following the principles laid down in the manuals of the British Boy Scouts and the Boy Scouts and the Boy Scouts of America. Captain Bare already has turned out first class scouts. "Our Requirements," he says, "are stiff and are somewhat more detailed than covered generally."

Speaking about the plan of winning over the boys schools, Samuel A. Moffat, Business Secretary of the Boy Scouts of America says:

"For years emphasis has been placed upon military training by preparatory schools and academies using the military drills and tactics. Undoubtedly this makes a strong appeal to the boy and his parents, but I am firmly convinced that at this time when the dominant note is for peace, that the educational institution availing itself of the opportunities of the appeal that the scout movement is making to boys by including some of these activities in its curriculum will take a forward step in educational work which, I believe, will prove of great benefit both to the institution and the boys with whom it works. I believe scouting will prove helpful."

"The scout laws provide a program for self-government that cannot be equalled. The boy op taking the scout oath is placed upon his honor to obey these laws which require that he be trustworthy, loyal, helpful, courteous and obedient. The movement places the burden of the demand for recreative exercises and physical training upon the boy. Scouting presents an attractive method of interesting the boy in history, civics, geology and kindred subjects."

"Wherever military drill is compulsory it soon becomes monotonous and loses its grip upon the boy. The great variety of activities in scouting will suggest some features that may substitute or supplement the military drill and continue to hold the boy's interest. Such activities as the first aid and the fire drills, signaling, and calisthenics with scout staffs are suggested."

William F. Brogan, managing editor of the Albuquerque Herald, who covered the convention for his paper, left today for Albuquerque. "Bill" Brogan formerly resided in Santa Fe and is well known here and will return to take charge of the Republican press bureau.

H. B. Fergusson, nominee of the Democrats for Congress, was still in the city this morning, but will likely leave this afternoon for his home in the Duke City. Like many other Democrats, Mr. Fergusson is tired out from the long sessions, committee meetings and the strain of speech-making.

William Butler, editor of the Farmington Times Hustler of San Juan county, left today for his home, having attended the Democratic State Convention, both as a newspaper writer and as delegate from San Juan. Mr. Butler frequently addressed the convention and when he talked he said something. He is a member of the new Democratic Press Club and of the Democratic state central committee.

Tony A. Ferlet, a St. Louis and Texas journalist, who with his wife, has spent the past two years on a farm near Anthony, Dona Ana county, in retirement from newspaper work, left for his home this afternoon after attending the Democratic state convention to which he was a delegate. Mr. Ferlet is much interested in the propagation of game, and sought Game Warden T. P. Gable today to discuss with him co-operation for the introduction of Bob-White quail in the Mesilla Valley.

W. H. Andrews, delegate to congress from New Mexico, is a visitor in Silver City. He spent Sunday in Santa Rita and Central, coming to this point yesterday morning. While in town he is the guest of W. D. Murray. Mr. Andrews is frequently mentioned as one of the first senators from this state.—Silver City Independent.

A card was received today from Dr. Frederick M. Bishop, stating he is in Corsica and visited Ajaccio, the capital and birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte. Corsica is one of the chief torpedo stations of the French navy, but it is not thought that "Doc" has become an insurrecto or insurgent, taking part in the Moroccan affair.

A. L. Fales, of Roswell, general missionary of the American Sunday School Union, spent the past few days in Santa Fe, looking on at the Democratic state convention.

been to change by force the power thus concentrated in the hands of a few individuals to the state and then we should have had state socialism. It was the inevitable result of the movement toward trusts unless broken up.

Competition or Socialism. Which? "Now we can get back to competition. We must get back to competition as an element in this country. If it is impossible, then let us go to Socialism, for there is no way between. I, for one, am not discouraged as yet, in the hope that we may return to a legitimate and independent competition. I am an individualist and not a Socialist."

Scores the Muckrakers. Mr. Taft then pleaded for kinder feeling between various elements of the community. He declared the business of "muckraking" would cease if people would disregard the attacks upon the motives and character of those exercising authority and ascribe proper motives until the motives are shown to be improper.

When Every One Is Happy. "It is good times, it is prosperity," the president concluded, "when people are happy, when wages are good, when prices are normal, when the family has shoes and something to eat, and the children go to school. Those are times when everybody is happy."

TAFT LEARNED HIS TRADE AS REPORTER.

Received His First Political Pointers In Writing Up for the Cincinnati Papers the 1880 Convention.

(Rocky Mountain News). "Father calls me William, Sister calls me Will, Mother calls me Willie, But you fellows call me Bill."

With these words, James Noland, president of the Denver Press Club, introduced William Howard Taft, President of the United States, to the newspaper men of Denver, at the Press club rooms yesterday afternoon. He assured the "fellows" that it will be all right to keep on calling the President "Bill" in the future, for he is one of them, being a member of the club.

President Taft smiled broadly at the liberty taken with his front name and smiled even more broadly as he told, after Senator John Fry had presented him his gold membership card, of his special qualifications for membership in the club.

President Taft's Speech.

"Mr. Chairman, Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Press Club: "I am very much honored by being made an honorary member of your club, and I am more honored even by the very kindly words with which you accompany the communication. I can not mistake the soft tones of a man who comes from south of the Mason and Dixon line, nor the expression of good fellowship that finds equal source in that part of our country.

"I am glad to be a member of the Press club, because I was once a newspaper man myself. I have kept that as confidential as circumstances required. But I was reporter on the Cincinnati Times and again on the Cincinnati Commercial and did what they called the law work of those papers and stood about the courthouse, and as a budding lawyer, gathered inspiration, such as I could get, from the decisions of the local courts and the methods of trial pursued by successful jury lawyers.

"At times I tried my hand on reporting opinions in important cases that concerned large property in the neighborhood, and I found myself, so far as some members of the bar, and indeed some members of the bench, were concerned, as far from the rules of proper interpretation as some people seem to think I am now in the construction of the recent decisions of the supreme court.

Attended One Convention. "There was only one assignment that was not really in the line of the law which I remember with a great deal of interest, and that was reporting the Democratic convention that was held in 1880 for the nomination of General Hancock, and there it became my duty to interview as many gentlemen who were supposed to know what was going to happen as I could reach. It is the only national convention that I ever attended, and I have to hark back to that in order to understand what goes on in national conventions today.

"I am glad to be in Denver, and I want to congratulate the Denver Press club on having such pure air to breathe, which I doubt not elevates the tone of the press. I infer from your pictorial pages that you have got the artistic here, high up in the mountains, from the presence of the mountains. I am not able to congratulate you always on your subjects, but I have observed that you prefer the curve of beauty to any rigid, straight lines.

Praises Correspondents. "I am on a long trip, and I am happy to bring into the Press club a collection of newspaper men who are my associates in the trip, and who accompany me for different reasons, but between them all I have no doubt that the public will ascertain just what does occur to me, from their united judgment thrown together, as Jonathan Bourne throws together the citizens in order to get a composite citizen, you may get a composite result that will give the exact facts.

"It is, of course, pleasant to have associated with you members of the press in whom you have confidence. The experience that I have had in Washington with the Washington correspondents has been such as to give me a very warm circle of acquaintances among the correspondents—men whose duty it is to criticize the administration, some of them, whenever occasion arises, but men who do it with that reluctance which ensures a judicial poise in what they do.

Doesn't Mind Criticism. "Of course, when one goes into public life one expects to be criticised, and he cannot complain either of unfairness or misstatements because there is so much to be stated that error must creep in, but, on the whole, the net result, after all—if you give the people and the press time, six months or a year—finally comes out, and I think the result is one that historians and those who are in favor of substantial justice can not complain of. I am sure that is the result in Denver among the press and elsewhere. Every once in a while your fist doubles and you would like to hit somebody, but as you are in a position where you cannot gratify that sentiment, and therefore, are entirely safe; you do not do it—you wait six months or a year, as we propose to in our peace treaties, and then the thing is forgotten, and has made no

The President remained ten minutes at the club, arriving at 3:45.

50,000 ACRE RANCH SALE IN SONORA, MEXICO.

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 6.—Bishop Orson Brown, of Colonia Morales, Mexico, is in San Antonio negotiating a deal for the sale of 50,000 acres of the Pitacachic Mountain Ranch, in the State of Sonora, thirty-five miles south of Douglas, Arizona. As part payment on this land, the Bishop will take ten sections in Texas at a point somewhere between Abilene and Sweetwater, where it is said the Mormon church plans to establish a colony.

EDITORIAL FLASHES

In another column of this issue will be found in part the Governor's proclamation for Fire Prevention Day. As Moriarty has no organized body to look after this clean-up day, the businessmen will have to work individually. Because we have a new town on the frontier is no reason why we should be careless about the appearance of the town. Whose business is it to see that the place is kept in a clean, sanitary condition? A Commercial club composed of all the live energetic businessmen and farmers who have the success of the town and country at heart could do wonders along this line and many others suggested at different times by The Messenger.

Moriarty has been fortunate in having but one fire and through the strenuous effort of its citizens that one was extinguished with only a small loss. We trust this will continue, but perchance some one may drop the rabbit's foot.—Moriarty Messenger.

A FINE NIGHTCAP.

The Best Thing in the World to go to Bed and Sleep On.

My wife and I find that 4 teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and a cup of hot milk, or some cream, with it, makes the finest nightcap in the world," says an Allegheny, Pa., man.

"We go to sleep as soon as we strike the bed, and slumber like babies till rising time in the morning.

"It is about three years now since we began to use Grape-Nuts food, and we always have it for breakfast and before retiring and sometimes for lunch. I was so sick from what the doctors called acute indigestion and brain fog before I began to use Grape-Nuts that I could neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort.

"I was afflicted at the same time with most intense pains accompanied by a racking headache and backache, every time I tried to eat anything. Notwithstanding an unusual pressure from my professional duties, I was compelled for a time to give up my work altogether.

"Then I put myself on a diet of Grape-Nuts and cream alone, with an occasional cup of Postum as a runner-up, and sometimes a little hot toast. I assure you that in less than a week I felt like a new man; I had gained six pounds in weight, could sleep well and think well.

"The good went on and I was soon ready to return to business, and have been hard at it, and enjoying it, ever since.

"Command me at any time anyone enquires as to the merits of Grape-Nuts. You will always find me ready to testify." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HIGHWAY FROM ROSWELL TO MALAGA TO BE BUILT.

District Court is Now Hard at Work at Carlsbad—Addition to School Building at Loving.

Carlsbad, N. M., Oct. 6.—The Commercial Club held a rousing meeting last night to consider matters of interest to the town. The first matter taken up was the highway from Roswell to Malaga. The committee reported good progress and that the farmers have come to the front and agreed to build the road through the farming districts. It remains to find means to build through the desert between the farming sections.

The meeting also arranged for getting the people to come out on Saturday to the Roswell exposition. The special train is already arranged for and it remains now to get out the largest crowd possible.

The excursion of business men from El Paso will arrive tomorrow evening and remain till Thursday. Proper committees were selected to entertain the visitors.

The district court is now hard at work. William T. Reed of the Argus was selected as foreman of the Grand Jury. This body has much work before it and is likely to be in session for ten days. During the week, court cases will occupy the attention of the court, as the district attorney will be busy in the Grand Jury room.

The addition to the school building at Loving is nearing completion. Last year the work was hampered for lack of room, but with three rooms the accommodations will meet the needs for the present.

You will see the best rendition of the play you ever saw. More new music, songs, dances, comedians, dramatic artists, finest scenery, costumes, mechanical effects and other paraphernalia to make it what it is. A challenged band and concert orchestra with Ellers' mammoth, matchless, magnificent, scenic production of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," which is announced to appear here for one night only, Saturday, under canvass.

NEW MEXICO POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Wanted to Get On—Was Left Off.
You can't blame Barney Roy for feeling sore after coming 6,000 miles to see that ticket nominated.—Albuquerque Morning Journal.

Judicial Convention.
The Democratic judicial district convention for Grant and Luna counties will meet tomorrow at the Orient Hotel at Silver City. Grant county will have 14 and Luna county four delegates.

Judicial District Convention.
The judicial district convention for the counties of Quay, Colfax, Union and Taos met last evening and nominated T. B. Lieb of Raton for district judge, and E. F. Saxon of Tucuman, who was a member of the constitutional convention, to be district attorney.

Conceding Early in the Game.
We concede the election of Land Commissioner R. P. Ervin and of Attorney General Frank W. Clancy, declared three of the Democratic leaders in the New Mexican office last evening, in the presence of several gentlemen. That is beginning rather early in the game and indicates that before November 7, the election of the entire Republican ticket will be conceded.

Democratic Central Committee.
The Democratic Central Committee organized last evening by electing A. A. Jones of Las Vegas chairman for the territory. An executive committee of four was named to consist of Arthur Seligman, of Santa Fe; W. B. Walton of Silver City; Granville A. Richardson of Roswell, and Isaac Barth of Albuquerque. This committee will select a secretary and headquarters and is empowered to fill any vacancies that may occur on the ticket. Each member of the executive committee is to reside at headquarters and give his entire time to the work, a particular department of the work to be assigned to each member.

Political Rally at East Las Vegas.
On Saturday evening, at East Las Vegas, the first great rally of the Republican campaign will take place. The principal speakers will be Holm O. Bursam, nominee for Governor on the Republican ticket; Hon. Frank Springer, the eminent scientist and attorney; Attorney General Frank W. Clancy.

Fort Sumner Republican Club.
Resolution passed by Fort Sumner

Republican Club at its meeting on October 3.
We, the members of the Fort Sumner Republican Club, do hereby reaffirm our allegiance and devotion to the principles of the great Republican party, through whose administration of affairs this nation has attained unbounded prosperity.

We denounce the Democratic party as an exponent of false promises and tendencies toward the demoralization of stable government, as it has developed at the present day principles, which, if effective, would disrupt the great business institutions of the country and bring about general dissatisfaction and panic.

We desire to thank the loyal, patriotic citizens of New Mexico, in public life who assisted in bringing about statehood, and we especially thank our esteemed president, William H. Taft, without whose aid and determination, statehood would have been impossible, and we desire further to express our gratitude and admiration for our worthy delegate in Congress, Hon. William H. Andrews, whose devotion to the cause of the people of this territory ultimately resulted in success, and that it is the sentiment of this club that he be rewarded by election to one of the highest offices within the gift of the people of New Mexico, in token of his faithful services in Washington.

That we are also unanimous in our choice of Governor William J. Mills for United States senator from New Mexico, as his keen legal acumen, profound learning and far-sighted executive ability has demonstrated his fitness for a position in the higher branch of Congress.

That we especially commend the successful leadership and party loyalty of our chairman of the state Republican central committee, Hon. Holm O. Bursam, and that we exert our best efforts in his support as the Republican candidate for governor in the coming election.

Be it resolved that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to each senator and representative elected to the state legislature, and further that copies of these resolutions be sent to President Taft, Delegate Andrews, Governor Mills and Hon. Holm O. Bursam.

Be it further resolved that the copies of these resolutions which are sent to the members of the state legislature be accompanied with the request that the sentiments herein expressed be given due consideration.

NATHAN SALMON TO GO ON CAMPAIGN TOUR.

Says the Syrian Merchants Will Bring 1,500 Votes to the Republican Ticket.

Nathan Salmon, the well known merchant, is keenly alive to the business interests of New Mexico and believes that the Republican party is the party that best guards those interests and insures prosperity.

For that reason he will begin a campaign tour Monday, visiting all the cities in New Mexico where there are Syrian merchants and impressing on them the necessity for polling as large a vote as possible for the Republican ticket. Mr. Salmon says there are 152 Syrians in New Mexico and that each can be counted on to bring ten votes to the Republican ticket.

Mr. Salmon will go first to Albuquerque and then, on October 16, he will visit Raton, thence go to Las Vegas, Las Cruces and Gallup. There are 50 Syrians in the Duke City alone and Mr. Salmon will address them Monday night.

TARPON FISHING ALONG GULF COAST IS GOOD.

Galveston, Texas, October 6.—Mackerel in four hours, the fish averaging as Gulf coast already is attracting fishermen from the north and east. Some of these come for two and three months' stay and the rivalry as to who shall catch the largest tarpon during the season is very keen.

While mackerel fishing offers less sport than the tarpon, it is yet attractive enough to have many followers. A woman, Mrs. R. E. Farley holds the championship at this time at mackerel fishing, having pulled in 136 mackerel in four hours, the fish averaging one and a quarter pounds each.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Resall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Resall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Three sizes, 50c, 25c, and 10c. Sold only at our store.—The Resall Store. The Fischer Drug Company, 232 San Francisco Street.

BAILEY DISGUSTED WITH DEMOCRATIC INSINCERITY.

Real Reason for Abandoning Public Life to Go into Private Law Practice at Fort Worth.

Washington, D. C., October 6.—It is somewhat interesting that in his correspondence, Senator Bailey's intention of abandoning public life was foreshadowed recently. The senator's motives may or may not be formally given to the public, but it is certain that he is dissatisfied with his environment, that he thinks too many of his colleagues are afraid to voice their true convictions, and that he thinks the standard of statesmanship is deteriorating very rapidly.

Senator Bailey's great ability has never been questioned and so it is not strange that he received flattering offers to go to New York city and enter on the practice of his profession. He was told that he could be assured of at least $50,000 a year if he would do so, but he declined all such offers and declared that he would hang out his shingle in Fort Worth and remain among the people who had signified their belief in him by repeatedly sending him to Washington to guard their interests. Of course, Texas and Fort Worth are proud that Senator Bailey reached this decision.

Acres of Flowers.

California has always been known as the land of sunshine, fruit, and flowers. At the Panama-California International Exposition to be held in 1915, at San Diego, the claim of the state to pre-eminence in these lines will be demonstrated. The directors of the Exposition have determined on a vast scale of floral and horticultural decoration which will be a surprise and a delight to the average visitor. It was found that to secure the plants required for this scheme would require a canvas of the entire country and even then that it would hardly be possible to secure the quantity needed by the plans as formulated. Director-General D. C. Collier, was not willing to abandon the plans which had fascinated the board of directors and he thought out a way to meet the difficulty. It was to use as much of Balboa Park, where the Exposition is to be held, as might be needed—all of its 1,400 acres if they should be required—for a city farm and nursery, wherein the Exposition could propagate the plants it would require. The city officials adopted the idea enthusiastically, and 30 acres were at once prepared for a nursery, and two commercial nurseries were bought outright as a starter. Citizens donated cuttings, and for weeks 100 men were kept busy carrying these to the park and setting them out. Geraniums, roses and poppies have been planted by the million, and all kinds of trees and ornamental shrubs have been set out in large numbers. The exposition is four years away, but the floral display is to be on a grand scale and the preparations were begun none too soon to make it a success.

Find Measles Virus.

Science has given the world the power to combat smallpox, diphtheria and typhoid fever by inoculation, and now the Marine Hospital and Public Health Service has found the measles virus. It is believed by medical men that a way will be found to give immunity against this disease, to which every human being seems to be subject at some time in life, age being no protection for those who have never suffered from the measles.

SONS OF SOCIALISTS JOIN BOY SCOUTS.

After Studying Movement in Many Instances They Admit They Can See No Objection to Activities.

Frank E. Miller, scout master of Troop No. 3 of the Reading, Pa., Boy Scouts of America reports that he has many sons of socialists in his organization. As the boys cannot join the organization without the consent of their parents the fact that the Reading boys are taking up scouting is proof in itself that many socialists who have made a careful study of the Boy Scouts of America appreciate the value of the movement to the boys. They realize that it has an educational, a body building and character strengthening value.

One of the active members of the troop is William Baker, 14 years old, son of Henry C. Baker, a prominent socialist of Reading. Young Baker walked from Reading to Philadelphia, Baltimore and many other places in Pennsylvania and Maryland. He is a sturdy hiker and finds great delight in the tramps. He is always accompanied by his dog and sometimes by another scout named William Shultz. The activities of Baker, Shultz and many other sons of socialists under the guidance of Miller who is at the head of the Olivet Boys' Club of Reading has helped much the strengthening of the Scout movement in that city and is also proof to socialists that scouting helps all boys.

The First Boy Scouts in Alaska.

Alaska has a troop of Boy Scouts of America. The organization was effected by the Rev. Winfred H. Ziegler of Valdez, Alaska. He has gathered American boys and Indian boys into patrols and is putting them through the course of training for the tenderfoot degree. The boys, it is reported, have taken eagerly to the scout work, and under the guidance of Mr. Ziegler, who is the head of an Episcopal mission in that city, they are not only engaging in hikes, bridge building and camping, but are doing many things to show their patriotism.

Mr. Ziegler has applied for a Scout Master's certificate through his brother, the Rev. Howard B. Ziegler, who is connected with St. Paul's Chapel. Winfred Ziegler was assistant Scout Master of the 32nd New York Troop before going to Alaska. The moment he got there he decided that the educational and other advantages of the scout movement were so great that he wanted to start an organization at once.

Every territory and every colony of the United States now has a troop of Boy Scouts of America. There are troops of the Boy Scouts of America in the Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico and Alaska. The total number of scouts in the colonies amounts to several thousands. The scout movement also has spread to Cuba, Mexico, the Work of the Porto Rican Scouts.

M. L. Oxenham, an American who taught school in Manati, Porto Rico, last winter, and who is incidentally a Scout Master of a troop of Boy Scouts in Porto Rico, gives this account of the work:

"In this land of perpetual summer scout work takes place on a different aspect. Porto Rican boys have not even accustomed to camping trips, hikes to neighboring towns, nor the association of men in their sports. The work of the past year has proven that the youngsters take hold of the idea fully as well as their northern cousins, provided there is someone to show them how to start. In San Juan the scouts conducted at the Park a permanent camp, which was frequently visited by their parents and friends who wanted to see the boys cooking and otherwise practicing their newly acquired knowledge.

The scouts of Manati built a one story armory in a corner of their drill field, and doubly enjoyed the use of it as they put it up themselves during the Christmas vacation. Other towns in the island have troops which are doing similar work, and when a visiting patrol arrives in town the local boys are very proud of their equipment and lost no time to show the newcomers what they have.

"Once the parents learn of the benefits which the boys receive they are very ready to give permission for them to take part in the scout activities. Boys seventeen years of age have gone on scout excursions of two and three days' length, when they never have been away from their parents overnight before.

"The success of the movement seems to lie in active intelligent supervision, promoting various rallies etc., which will keep the boys interested and working progressively."

A Boy Scout's Fortitude.

Roy T. Byram, member of the Phil Carney Troop of Boy Scouts of Arlington, New Jersey, and a flier in the dram corps, proved himself a heroic little scout recently when he met with an accident that caused him to suffer his misfortune. His friends were impressed by the fortitude and the bravery with which he took misfortune and when anyone sympathized with him he always said: "I am a scout and must be cheerful." His cheerfulness in spite of his misfortune was brought to the attention of James E. West, executive secretary of the Boy Scouts of America and Mr. West wrote him a letter and sent him a copy of two or three of Daniel Carter Beard's books.
