CONGRESSIONAL!

Speaker Reed's Rulings Sustained by Republicans.

Efforts to Bring up Cuban Belligerency Resolution Failed.

Chairman Hitt Made Extended Statement on Cuban Situation.

HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The house convened today the leaders on both sides were arraying their forces for a renewal of the battle over Cuba.

Mr. Lundy (rep., N. Carolina), from the committee on elections No. 1, reported that M. G. L. Comer had abandoned the contest against H. G. Clayton from the Third Alabama district, and a resolution was adopted declaring Mr. Clayton entitled to his seat.

Grout (rep., Vermont) reported the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

Mr. Lacey (rep., Iowa) asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill to extend the homestead laws to the territory of Alaska, and to grant the right of way to any railroad under the laws of any state.

Mr. Lacey explained several applications that were made to his committee by several companies projecting roads into Canada, and the committee decided to report this general bill.

Mr. Simpson said the bill was too important to consider by unanimous consent and objected.

Mr. Brucker (dem. Mich.) asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a resolution to instruct the committee on foreign affairs to report without further delay the senate Cuban belligerency resolution. Mr. Hitt, chairman of the foreign affairs committee, raised a point of order, which the speaker promptly sustained, and was about to recognize Mr. Hitt to call up the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, when Mr. Bailey demanded recognition.

"Let us first dispose of this question of order," he said. "The chair sustained the point of order," retorted the speaker. "Then I appeal," called Bailey across the hall to Brucker, who entered an appeal from the decision of the chair. A dozen members were on their feet demanding recognition to debate the appeal, but the speaker recognized Mr. Dalzell, who moved to lay it on the table. This cut off debate. On a rising vote the republicans stood firm and voted 107 to 94 to lay appeal on the table.

The house went into a committee of the whole and resumed its consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill. As soon as the first paragraph was read Williams (dem., Miss.) offered an amendment to direct the president to appoint three commissioners to proceed to Cuba and if possible to negotiate a treaty of peace, amity and commerce with the republic of Cuba and appropriate $15,000 for defraying the expenses of the commissioners. It was ruled out of order.

Lewis (dem., Wash.) offered another amendment providing to emphasize the fact that a state of war existed in Cuba the consul general of Hawaii be withdrawn and the government notified of a suspension of diplomatic relations at that point.

Hitt raised a point of order, which Hepburn, in the chair sustained.

"I appeal from the decision of the chair," said Lewis.

"I make a point that the appeal is dilatory," exclaimed Dalzell (rep., Pa.).

"The chair sustains the point," declared Hepburn, who directed the clerk to proceed with the reading.

Excitement was at a boiling point. Terry (dem., Ark.), shouted a protest. "Can it be possible that we have reached a point where this side of the house cannot appeal from a decision of the chair?" he called.

Hepburn directed Terry to take his seat. Lewis found a parliamentary way of discussing his amendment, however, by moving pro forma an amendment to strike out the last word.

Chairman Hitt, of the committee on foreign affairs, made an extended statement on the Cuban situation. He reviewed the course of the administration in the successful demands for the release of American citizens, its protest against the inhuman methods of war resulting in the removal of Weyler. This showed what spirit animated the president and what might be expected of him. He appealed to all to uphold the hands of the president just as all voices united in upholding the president in the Venezuelan crisis at a moment when his action was fraught with profoundest responsibility.

The democrats made frequent ineffectual attempts to amend the bill so as to meet the Cuban situation in some shape, but all amendments fell under points of order.

IN THE SENATE.
In the senate Mr. Vest gave notice that he would at the conclusion of the morning business move to take up the Teller resolution, reported by the finance committee yesterday. Mr. Hoar offered a resolution relative to a recent order of

THE TOWNS OF ARIZONA!

The Sister Territory Supplies Our Readers With Good Paragraphs.

BREVITIES CULLED FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

KINGMAN.

From the Miner.
H. M. Jones and Charles Wilkins, of Cerbat, were in Kingman purchasing supplies preparatory to moving to the Colorado river valley.

Owen McNeely shipped eighteen tons of seven-ounce gold ore from his Oro Plata mine and has plenty more of the same grade in sight.

Stanton & McClellan have shipped to the sampler twenty-two tons of ore from the Oro Plata mine. The boys have a fine showing of ore in their lease.

Cleek Bros. & Poland have just received returns from three carloads of ore that averaged over five ounces gold and twenty-eight ounces silver to the ton.

Thomas Ewing has twenty men at work grading a road around Shit-tail mountain to a point on the river, below Bull Head, where a big mill will soon be built.

Last Sunday at noon, in the Methodist Episcopal church, Miss Ethelyn Beecher, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Beecher, was united in marriage to James S. Withers, one of Kingman's most popular young business men.

Died, in Kingman, January 12, 1898, Antoinette Randall Ver Mehr, wife of Alfred Ver Mehr. The sudden death of Mrs. Alfred Ver Mehr has cast a gloom over our entire community. A loving mother, from the little children. An affectionate wife has been called from the duties of this life to the home "not made with hands."

PHOENIX.

The public schools of Maricopa county cost the taxpayers a trifle over $53,000 annually.

The duck hunters are now swarming to the favorite spots. The Gila river is reported to be "alive" with mallard and teal.

Mrs. W. H. Phillips left Thursday night over the Santa Fe for Bay City, Mich., having in charge the remains of her husband, who died in this city last Sunday night.

The new opera house is an art accomplishment. The plans were finished Saturday, and Manager Patton exhibited them to all interested parties. The two-story building will occupy the entire block, in the center of which the opera house will tower up a story higher. The entire cost is estimated at $130,000, and when built will be the finest business block in Arizona.

The 1897 crop of tobacco raised at the experimental farm west of Phoenix is being worked into cigars by a local factory, and will be turned out as the finished product in a few days. Nearly five hundred cigars will furnish ample opportunities to test the quality. So far as known this is the first tobacco raised in Arizona and made the subject of a test.

The crop of 1897 did not amount to a great deal for the reason, it is stated, that it did not receive proper attention.

There is but one United States prisoner in the county jail—Jaime Aras, charged with counterfeiting. For several years there has been a steady diminution in the number of United States prisoners held in this county. Three years ago there were usually a score, and often twice that number of federal criminals cases tried here. There are several reasons for this decrease. One of them is that the deputy United States marshals have been stripped of most of their fees and perquisites in these cases, and they have therefore become less active. Another cause is that prosecutions under the Edmunds law have greatly diminished. Selling of whisky to Indians is also a crime that has been growing less, for now the buyer of the whisky is held equally responsible with the seller.

GLOBE.

From the Silver Belt.
The county court house has been insured for $8,000 in the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance company, W. V. Brooker, local agent. The policy was written for three years at a cost of only $330, which is considered cheap insurance here.

It is reported from San Carlos that the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern railway company, has made application to the war department for permission to locate a temporary telegraph office half way between Geronimo and San Carlos. This is further evidence that the railroad company expects to begin construction at an early date.

R. H. Cameron, resident of Coconino county, and Thos. Sawyer arrived from Flagstaff last Tuesday to recover a band of 250 sheep stolen from the Arizona Live Stock company of Coconino county. Sheriff Williamson of Gila county and deputies located the sheep and gained possession of them near the Continental mine last Friday, but the thieves in charge, who are unknown, made good their escape.

We learn from County Treasurer H. C. Hitchcock that in the matter of the amount of taxes collected for the year 1897 in Gila county, the showing is very satisfactory. Of the total amount to be collected $47,507.00, there remains delinquent only $4,570.22, scarcely more than 10 per cent, and which is the smallest delinquent list since the county was organized. In 1896 the total taxes were $40,890.50, and the delinquent tax is $9,922.00.

ARIZONA AT LARGE.

R. Toohney, who has a number of good gold claims at Herqua Hala, near the old Bonanza mine, has bonded four of them to Mr. J. H. Johnston, of Kansas City, for $75,000. These mines have had about $100,000 worth of work done on them.

The Arizona Copper and Gold Mining company filed articles of incorporation with the territorial secretary yesterday. The incorporators are Louis C. Hughes, Thomas D. Shatterwhite and Sherman M. Woodward. The capital stock is

Who is He?
A recent issue of the Los Angeles Record contained the following item: "F. G. Armit, of Albuquerque, N. M., is found at the Nadeau. 'We are making a great struggle for a statehood, to which we are justly entitled,' said he, 'but the question is apparently no longer one of rights for the people, but a political one. The bug under the chip is the fear that silver senators would be sent to congress. The powers have taken up onto Oklahoma, Arizona and other seaports, which, in the scramble for the fish-pots, will possibly lose the whole lot what they want.'"

Wrangling Over Evidence.
In a contest over the will of the late N. C. Creede at Los Angeles, Cal., the time of the court was taken up in listening to the wrangling by various attorneys over the introduction of evidence to show that Mrs. Louis A. Creede was legally separated from her husband by a decree of divorce.

The case threatens to be a long drawn out affair. During the afternoon session Ida Bloom, a German servant girl in the Creede home, testified to the fact that Creede and his wife lived together for some time before the marriage ceremony was performed that made them man and wife, and that Mrs. Creede is addicted to the use of morphine. When under the influence she imagines all sorts of peculiar things are happening around her.

In connection with the above the Las Vegas Optic says: No doubt witnesses here and at the springs could testify to the same thing, as to the living together.

SHOT BY HER BOY.

A Phoenix Mother Accidentally Killed by Her Son.
Mrs. Catherine Riden, 45 years old, wife of J. G. Riden, died at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at her home two and a half miles northeast of the insane asylum from hemorrhage and gun shot wound. The innocent cause of death was her 10-year old son, Duncan, in whose hands a shotgun was accidentally discharged.

The tragedy occurred about 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Duncan, then into the sitting room of the Riden home with his single-barrel shotgun in his hands and asked that a younger sister be allowed to go rabbit hunting with him. Mrs. Riden stood before the mantelpiece darning the drape with her back to her son.

"No, Duncan," she said, "I'm afraid your gun goes off too easily."

"Why, no, it doesn't mother," replied Duncan, "just see!"

In an instant there was a flash and an explosion and Mrs. Riden sank to the floor badly wounded in the hollow of the left knee, the shot grinding and breaking the bones and muscles. Her clothing caught fire from the burning powder. The children
