A telegram was received Saturday by the several headquarters First New Mexico Infantry, notifying the commanding officer that certain officers who had taken examinations for special promotions had been passed and approved by the secretary of war. A comparison of the list with the number that took examinations shows that in two cases, officers who were before the regular army board were successful.

The following officers were included:

"To be captains: Ames, Ely, McNair, Chamberlain, Hendry, McAllister, Hoff, and Meallister."

To be second lieutenants: Crow, Cresson, Lucas, Lowe, Lasseter.

Miss Alps Atkinson, who spent a few days here with her aunt and cousin, went to Santa Fe and left for her home in Roswell Friday night, leaving on the early train.
As an example of the extreme people sometimes go when the track of the law and the quietness under which they adjust matters; a farmer residing near the street of Gulf and Alex, has been at times known to drive a pump. He was, it appears, too near whose mines were nearest and was driven at the point of a gun to the edge of his garden. A large crowd of old miners and his team was left standing on the streets of Gulf for two days without feed or water. The man had no connection with the miners. This shows the conditions of that line of operations. The men have their faults no doubt but the fault was hers and was different to those of the mine owners, who is said, his mine is just as bad. He would make the men out of town if they refuse to be moved from the mine next week.

TAKE THE CHILDREN RIDING.

Yesterday we saw a man whistling along the street in his big auto. Such a big automobile is not unusual in the vicinity, where auto's are numerous. Well, it was the fact that the driver had about a dozen children under his care. It was the largest family of children we have ever seen and were among the most remarkable in that we know of. However, we inferred from a conversation we heard them that the children that they did not all belong to one family and that the driver was simply playing the Good Samaritan and taking a load off the roads.

It has often been a mystery to us why the mining companies do not send some of their employees out early in the morning to take children or to be taken children or adult about the streets and along the roads. Certainly there could be nothing more commendable than to see it done. The little ones out in the day time in those whose station in life will not permit them to own auto's or even spend a few days in the mountains in the winter, and enjoy cool, pure invigorating breeze, inhaling a fresh breath in the crisp air of the rippling brooks. The little ones are tiny little children in one of the children who do not have any of these advantages and do not possess themselves fortunate if they go out and enjoy the beauties of the nature. Their daily fare in these times of high prices makes it very hard for them to bear the change. A mount of money, a ride in an auto, a visit to a beautiful city is nothing they ever have had the privilege of enjoying. Many of these cases and others such as these and most of the right side of life Albuquerque Herald.

DEER KILLERS NABBED IN GAME WARDEN'S NET

The Albuquerque Game Protective Association received a telegram today from Game Warden T. G. Jones, informing the arrest and conviction of Mary and Mr. Ronald, with Arbor and Marya for killing deer out of season. They were apprehended yesterday in the mountains west of the city by Mr. Ronald, who reported that he found them with deer in possession. They took place today at East Las Vegas and were in a field of true and a all sentence each.

The crew of the G. P. A. point out that wilful disregard of the game laws is not only unnecessary but exceedingly expensive. A messenger of congratulations was sent Mr. Ronald.

GOOD SEEDS FOR AUTUMN SEEDING

Uncle Sam's income from the national forests of Arizona and Nevada will increase this year, as the forest year just closed, according to figures just made public by the district forester, the gross receipts are reported from 400,000 acres to have paid over a million dollars for the first time in the history of the forests. An active market in lumber, more cattle and sheep on the range, and higher grazing fees com for most of the increase.

Forests just received from Washington show an increase in income of 400,000 from the national forests throughout the country. A larger volume of business is shown in timber sales, livestock grazing and especially in house and home sales. Sales of terrivertig privileges, however, fell until small.

It is pointed out by forest officers that properly on the national forests is shared by the states in which they lie. Of the $62,000 yielded by the southwestern forests, Arizona and New Mexico will pay about $6,000 for their roads and schools.

The few tell and whistles called every one to their feet Saturday night about 7:30. The auto hilarious of George Lucas was on fire. There was no luck in the book in the Albuquerque to visit the boys and may not get home today. Frank Jones, one of the most noted of soldiers in the southern mines, had some improvements one as the former, Jones, and others. The boys turned to the windows and were in the windows of every house in town. George is using it today.

Investigation of Employment of Miners Is Begun

District Attorney George R. Craig, whose appointment at the request of the county, yesterday began an investigation of the employment of the miners, most of them, not, from the Gallopping photograph.

The district attorney, at the request of Frank Heflin, financial representative of the United Mine Workers of America, Thursday, gave the miners an opportunity to present their complaints. Among the miners, interviewed the exiles at Belen present Tuesday night for Gallup continued the investigation, acting upon the advice of Attorney General Jones. The telegram which caused the district attorney to go to Belen follows:

"District Attorney, Albuquerque N. M.

Men depicted from Gallup most emphatically protest against action of sheriff and professional gammon. We are law-abiding and in way connected with the I. W. W. Men demand to be restored to their families and homes. Can you come on next train for full particulars.
