RAGING RIVERS DESTROY CITIES

Kaw River Floods City of North Topeka.

DES MOINES COVERED WITH WATER

The City of Beatrice, Nebraska is Heavily Damaged.

Kansas City, Mo., May 30.—The flooded condition along the banks of Missouri and Kaw rivers and west is far more serious than on yesterday, and the predictions of the local weather bureau that the disastrous record of 1881 would be exceeded will doubtless be realized. Since yesterday afternoon the Missouri has risen nearly two feet, and this morning the government gauge here registered twenty-five feet, which is but one foot below that in 1881. Both streams continued to rise steadily today, and a still further rise of two feet at this point is expected within another twenty-four hours, heavy rains having fallen again last night for miles around Kansas City. The principal damage so far sustained in this locality is on the Kaw river at Kansas City, Kas., and at Armourdale and Argentine. It is estimated that 2,500 persons have been driven from their homes within five miles of the mouth of the Kaw river. The streets in the greater part of Armourdale are from two to three feet deep in water. The north half of Argentine is one big lake, and at that place more than 500 persons are without homes. In the west bottoms both on the Kaw and Missouri the water during the night encroached still further upon the packing houses, into the basements of many wholesale houses and the stock yards. At the stock yards a number of pens were flooded and water was beginning to run into the basements of the live stock exchange.

Beatrice Heavily Damaged.
Beatrice, Neb., May 30.—The Blue river has been rising steadily for thirty-six hours. It is now twenty inches above the high water mark of last year. Water is running over Court street. The south and west sides are cut off from the main part of the town. In some places scarcely more than the roofs of the houses are to be seen. No trains are expected to be able to get into town on any road today. All railroad bridges across Blue river are threatened and cannot stand much longer under the strain. No loss of life is reported.

North Topeka Desolated.
Topeka, Kan., May 30.—North Topeka with its 7,000 inhabitants is an island and can be reached by boat alone. Houses with the water below the second story windows are the exception in the residence district. Three business houses collapsed early today. They had been deserted and no one was hurt. Gas, water and electric lights are shut off, while down Kansas avenue, the main street, water is pouring in a swift stream that at many points would swim a horse. It is impossible to estimate the damage. The river is still rising. A cold rain is falling today, adding to the discomfort of the victims. The Rock Island bridge went out early today, and the approaches of the Big Mollan bridge are weakening. The railroads will be heavy losers, as their tracks are not only washed out, but the embankments against the river's approach washed out, which means days of repairing. The Union Pacific depot in North Topeka is abandoned, as is the traffic on that road. The Santa Fe is still getting trains west as far as Emporia.

Lincoln Flooded.
Lincoln, Neb., May 30.—Salt creek is overflowing the Lincoln lowlands. Between the hours of 6:30 and 7:30 this morning the creek rose five inches and is now reported to be within six inches of the high water mark of last year. Thirty families have taken refuge with friends and quarters for more are being provided in the court house.

Des Moines Devastated.
Des Moines, Iowa, May 30.—Four feet of water was coursing through a large section of the East Des Moines business district at daylight this morning, due to a rise of the river of one foot over all past records, and the carrying away of a section of the levee and dam at Center street. Thirty-five thousand people in East Des Moines, 5,000 in South Des Moines and 4,000 in North Des Moines are practically cut off from communication with the main section of the city. Absolutely no attempt is made to transact business. Six thousand persons are homeless, 30 per cent of whom are practically without shelter and have been unfed for twenty-four hours, during which time they have been exposed to the constant heavy rains with the thermometer close to the freezing point. The damage cannot be computed, because of the fact that close to 2,000 buildings are submerged, and it cannot be told whether they will be carried away. Several hundred thousand dollars' worth of machinery is under water. Of the seven bridges in the city only one is open for traffic. Railway service is practically suspended. The weather forecast is for continued rains.

Men Drowned.
Des Moines, Iowa, May 30.—At 10:30 four men engaged in an attempt to rescue household goods from a house near the East Ninth street bridge were thrown into the current and quickly drowned. In South Des Moines from 4 until 9 o'clock upwards of a score of stranded victims sat on the roofs of their houses and piteously begged for boats. When rescued they were half dead from exposure to cold and rain.

North Lawrence Isolated.
Lawrence, Kan., May 30.—The river here raised several feet during the night, and practically the whole of North Lawrence is under water. The Bowersock mill collapsed early today, and the mill, with machinery, was carried down the river, causing a loss of $50,000. Houses and live stock are going down the stream in large numbers. A number of small houses were swept away.

Atchison Damaged.
Atchison, Kan., May 30.—One of the worst floods in the history of Atchison occurred here today. The water followed a steady and very heavy rain which began at midnight, and continued for three hours. The railroad bridges at the western limits of Atchison were carried out as were many wagon bridges.

Lives Lost.
Kansas City, Mo., May 30.—Fourteen lives, it is estimated, have been lost and fully 20,000 persons have been rendered homeless, and financial losses, including damages to houses and stocks washed away and railway tracks and bridges rendered useless, that will amount high into hundreds of thousands of dollars, has already resulted from the almost unprecedented floods now raging in Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Iowa.

Globe, Ariz., passed through the city this morning en route to Kansas City. The first party, consisting of a dozen gentlemen, passed through the city last Monday morning.

E. Wilder, secretary and treasurer of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, was in charge of the party this morning. Those composing it were: J. S. Loose of the Loose-Wiele Cracker company, Kansas City; E. A. Hosier of the jewelry house of Cady & Olmstead, Kansas City; F. W. Cooper, Kansas City; Henry Wilson and William Loose, business men of Kaner, Kansas City; Henry Wilson and Ler & Holtz, Realty company, Kansas City; C. B. Hewitt, a retired dentist of the Kaw valley metropolis, and J. H. Noff, editor and proprietor of the Drovers' Telegram, published at Kansas City, the Stock Reporter of St. Louis and the Journal Stockman of Omaha. They left Kansas City on the 19th and traveled in a private car. In their tour they visited Globe, Tucson, Phoenix, Prescott and the Grand Canyon. They are very enthusiastic over the company's mining properties.

INDIAN SCHOOL.

The closing exercises of the local government Indian school, last night, passed off very satisfactory, with great credit to instructors and pupils. During the afternoon a goodly number of visitors from the city were present and witnessed the work of the scholars in the various industrial departments.

In the evening the band concert was listened to by a very large and appreciative audience. Mrs. Clara M. Robinson, formerly employed as a teacher at the school, now visiting in the city, visited the school yesterday and took in the exercises.

ONLY RUMORS.

No Division Change on the Santa Fe Down This Way.

A PIPE DREAM CHECKED.

Although it is stated that there is likely to be a change in the superintendency of the Rio Grande division, it is denied that Superintendent F. J. Easley of the New Mexico division has succeeded Superintendent McNally.

The pipe dream in the El Paso Herald, published a day or two ago, to the effect that Mr. Easley, the newly appointed superintendent of the Rio Grande division, was then touring that division for the first time since his appointment is without foundation.

A few days ago Mr. Easley, accompanied his wife, who was going to El Paso, to Albuquerque from their home at Las Vegas. This being the end of Mr. Easley's division, he expected to return to Las Vegas, leaving Mrs. Easley to continue her journey to El Paso alone.

Superintendent D. E. Cain of the Western grand division, was in the city, and, on hearing of Mr. Easley's plans, suggested and granted Mr. Easley permission to take his car and wife on to the Pass city. That was Mr. Easley's occasion for being down on the Rio Grande division.

ALAMOGORDO PROMOTER.

Col. A. S. Greig Observing Memorial Day in This City.

Col. A. S. Greig, the prime promoter of the Alamogordo tubercular sanitarium, arrived from the south this morning and is spending the day in the city.

Colonel Greig was en route to Denver and stopped over in Albuquerque to see Santa Fe Architect Chas. Whittlesey, who drew plans for the new sanitarium, but was disappointed in finding that Mr. Whittlesey was in California.

Colonel Greig is well known over the southwest as superintendent of the El Paso & Northeastern railroad, in which position he was succeeded about two months ago by W. R. Martin, formerly with the Southern Pacific.

Colonel Greig will continue his journey to Denver tomorrow morning.

Found Dead.

Denver, May 30.—Del McClelland, a brother of the former United States district attorney, was found dead in a berth on a Rio Grande train coming from Wagon Wheel Gap this morning. The cause is believed to be Bright's disease.

Henry Myers, president of the Retail Clerks' union, was kept busy at the noon hour today. He was around observing whether stores closed, per agreement, promptly at noon. The clerks say that Mr. Myers is making a first-class union president.

THE SLANDERER

Rev. Norman Skinner is Roundly Denounced.

SANTA FE CITIZENS INDIGNANT

Albuquerque Citizen Commended for Its Denunciation of the Pharisee.

STRONG TELEGRAM TO THE TIMES

Special to The Citizen.

Santa Fe, N. M., May 30.—The people of the capital are bitter in their denunciations of Rev. Skinner, of Las Vegas, who publicly vilified the people of New Mexico and denounced the schools of the territory, at Los Angeles the other day, in his talk before the home mission board of the Presbyterian general assembly, and to show our contempt for the slanderer and at the same time to refute his outrageous charges, the following dispatch was wired last night to the Los Angeles Times.

The Citizen, the only Albuquerque daily paper that promptly took up the cause of the people and vigorously denounced this alleged "man of Christ," is requested to publish the dispatch sent to the Los Angeles Times, there being a rumor in circulation here that the banker who owns the Las Vegas Optic and who is also interested in the Albuquerque Democrat has given instructions that these two papers must not say anything in refutation of the slander heaped upon the good people of New Mexico by Rev. Skinner.

We, therefore, commend The Citizen for promptly denouncing this religious pharisee, who so foully and maliciously vilified this territory, her people and her schools without any reason whatever.

The Telegram.

The telegram to the Times is as follows:

Santa Fe, N. M., May 29. To the Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, California.

We, the undersigned, "men with public weal at heart," denounce as utterly false and scandalous, the remarks as reported in the Times, to have been made by Rev. Norman Skinner, at a meeting held on Sunday afternoon last at Immanuel church, Los Angeles, in the interest of home missions, regarding the school children and native New Mexicans. The alleged remarks are brutal, unfounded in fact and degrading to the Christian religion, calculated to baffle the home missions out of large contributions for New Mexico, to the end that Skinner pharisees may live and fawn on our people.

Sunshine, kind friends and these New Mexicans, have restored the Rev. Skinner to health and his remarks are his due appreciation. Never since the betrayal of Christ has an unkind act been done and our "prayer, morning, noon and night is from the Rev. Norman Skinner in our pulpits, sucking our sunshine, and from the Devil, oh, Lord deliver us."

DISTRICT COURT.

The Pullman Palace Car company yesterday filed in the United States court here an answer to suit brought against them on the 22d of April last by Postoffice Inspector C. L. Doran for damages in the sum of $5,000. The Pullman company in their answer deny all the plaintiff charges.

On October 31 last Doran boarded a train at Albuquerque for Trinidad, Colo., and took a sleeping car. The Pullman conductor came along and demanded his transportation. Doran gave him his official commission. The next morning he hunted up the Pullman conductor and asked for the return of his credentials. The Pullman conductor told him he had turned all tickets over to the porter. Doran hunted up the porter, who told him he had given the commission to another man, who left the train at Raton, N. M. It was a month before Inspector Doran recovered the commission and in the meantime his pecuniary loss was great, and his liability, under his official bond, still greater.

The case has assumed an interesting phase and every one connected with the postoffice department in the United States, as well as every traveler who is compelled to yield to the almost peremptory demands of Pullman conductors and porters, will be interested in its outcome. United States Attorney W. B. Childers has taken hold of the case with a view of fighting it to a finish.

Another Suit.

The Co-operative Building and Loan association through its attorney, Felix H. Lester, has brought suit against Minnie Akers in the district court. The association has also entered suit against Henry Eicks with Thomas N. Wilkerson as plaintiff's attorney.

Suit has been filed by J. A. Weinman against R. B. Thomas.

Whooping Cough at San Felipe.

Dr. Frank W. Wood, physician at the local Indian school, returned last night from San Felipe Indian village, thirty miles up the river, where whooping cough is epidemic among the tribesmen. The doctor says that the disease is not as prevalent as it was two weeks ago and that the situation is not dangerous. About twelve cases proved fatal, but the last death occurred ten days ago.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

Western Officials Meet Secretary Wilder Here.

CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD.

There was quite a gathering of Santa Fe officials on the local station platform this morning. They were a distinguished appearing group and very conspicuous to say the least. The tall, erect gray haired gentleman with the pleasing countenance, was E. Wilder, secretary and treasurer of the Atchison system. He was just in the city for an hour, while en route east from Arizona, where he accompanied a party of Kansas City business men, members of the Pacific Mines and Metals company.

The slightly built gentleman, in the dark suit of clothes, with the sharp features and piercing eyes, was F. J. Shepard, who holds the responsible position of superintendent of the Santa Fe coast lines, and the third gentleman, with the robust figure, which is quite familiar to the people of Albuquerque and employees of the local divisions, was I. L. Hibbard, the popular superintendent of the Albuquerque-Winslow division.

The fourth of the party of the group was Agent Myers, of the local station.

Mr. Shepard and Mr. Hibbard arrived from the west on passenger train No. 2.

The west end officials had never met Secretary Wilder, but they were familiar with each other by reputation. They were made acquainted by Agent Myers, and the conversation, which followed and lasted some minutes, to be broken off by Mr. Wilder's train pulling out, was a very pleasant railroad chat.

The west end officials will stay over until tomorrow, when they will be joined by Superintendent D. E. Cain, of the western grand division, and W. C. Kouns, superintendent of transportation, who are touring the Rio Grande division.

Superintendent F. J. Easley, of the New Mexico division, is expected down from the north and there will be a conference of superintendents at the Alvarado.

Lecture Tonight.

This evening at the Santa Fe reading rooms, Dr. Geo. L. Cole will deliver his famous lecture on the "Cliff Dwellers." He will be assisted by Mrs. Cole, reader, and Mrs. F. J. Hardister, pianist. The doctor is one of the most interesting speakers as well as one of the best informed men of the day, and all employees, their families and their friends, are invited. Admission, free.

J. F. Cook of Socorro, where he is known as a pretty good cattleman, is on a visit to the territorial metropolis. He is observing Memorial Day today, and took in the exercises at the city park this morning.

MEMORIAL DAY BEING OBSERVED

Solemn and Impressive Services at Washington.

PRESIDENT TAKING HORSEBACK RIDE

Sixteen Negroes Drowned in the Mississippi River.

Washington, May 30.—With solemn and impressive ceremonies, Memorial Day was observed in the national capital on a more elaborate scale than ever before. Business was suspended not only in the departments of government but throughout the city. People of all classes united in perpetuating the memory of the hero dead who in thousands sleep peacefully in the eight national cemeteries of the District of Columbia. After a short march through the city, organizations in parade boarded electric trains for Arlington, where the principal exercises of the day occurred. Hon. Chas. Emory Smith delivered the oration of the day.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

He is Taking a Long Horseback Ride Today.

Laramie, Wyo., May 30.—President Roosevelt this morning is riding astride a horse over the Black Hills trail to Cheyenne. He arrived in Laramie at 7:30 o'clock this morning and was driven to the University of Wyoming, where he made a short address before starting on his ride. It was about 9 o'clock when he mounted his horse and started on his sixty-mile ride to Cheyenne. He was accompanied by Surgeon General Rixey, United States Senator Warren, Captain Seth Bullock, United States Marshal Hadsell, his deputy, Joseph Lefore, and seven others.

Negroes Drowned.

Memphis, Tenn., May 30.—Sixteen negroes were drowned last night in the Mississippi river near Pecan Point, forty miles north of this city. They left the Chiles plantation after dark in two skiffs. Waves from a passing vessel capsized the frail boats, and all hands save one went down.

Engineer Lee Scalded.

Santa Fe Pacific Engineer Fred W. Lee, son of Judge W. D. Lee, of Albuquerque, was brought to the city this morning from Winslow badly scalded. He was moved to the Santa Fe Pacific ward at the St. Joseph's hospital, where his condition is reported favorable this afternoon.

Will Meet at Buffalo.

Denver, May 30.—The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen have selected Buffalo as the next meeting place in 1905.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps and Citizens Observe the Day.

PROF. BRYAN'S ADDRESS.

This is Memorial day.

All over this grand country of ours, from the Atlantic to the Pacific and the Pine Tree state of Maine to the Golden Gate, and in our possessions beyond the seas, all patriotic Americans are giving reverence and honoring the dead, who fought in blue for the flag in the great civil strife from '61 to '65.

Bright skies and a bracing atmosphere are making it pleasant for the old soldiers and sailors and loyal people in Albuquerque in observing the day.

The exercises this morning were held in Robinson city park and were well attended.

Commander A. Harsch called for the order and Rev. W. A. Marsh, of the Congregational church, asked a blessing for all.

"America," that song so dear to all, was then sung, after which Adjutant W. W. McDonald read the general orders of the commander in chief.

Past Department Commander Leveritt Clarke read "Black Jack's" Memorial day orders, and Lincoln's Gettysburg address was given by Captain Z. H. Bliss.

The Indian school band was present and the boys in the band should be complimented on the patriotism they show.

Commander Harsch introduced Prof. W. D. Bryan, of this city, who delivered the address and The Citizen prints it in full and it speaks for itself. It is as follows:

Bryan's Address.

Soldiers of the Grand Army of the Republic, Ladies of the Relief Corps, Fellow Citizens:—We mourn today the nation's dead. A generation ago they died—the death of heroes—to maintain and perpetuate a government, the most remarkable in history.

Cradled in liberty, nourished with the thoughts, prayers and lives of men whose mastery of themselves made them valiant to subdue the rugged wilderness of a new world, our country advanced toward its glorious destiny, at once the envy of the tyrant and the hope of the oppressed.

Its task was tremendous. A republican form of government was regarded as impracticable. Among the nations, it was looked upon as a reproach to monarchical institutions and destined to result in a revolution destructive of property rights. At home all the conditions of life were new and strange—the great body of the people needed reconstruction to adapt themselves to the untold—its citizens needed training in the school of liberty. The purposes, aims and practices of a government of freemen for freemen, were deciphered slowly, rudely and with many mistakes.

There were, however, schoolmasters in those days whose wisdom and prudence taught the people and whose examples of civic virtue are today, and always will be the prized heritage of lovers of liberty.

The foremost master of that eminent school, the intellectual giant who laid wisely and well the foundation stones of our fabric and constitutional government, was Thomas Jefferson. Had his sturdy ideas of personal liberty prevailed, there would have been no such sectional animosities as afterwards distracted the country. He placed in the first draft of the declaration of Independence, an anti-slavery clause, which was stricken out by congress in deference to the wishes of some of the slave-holding states. In 1784, Jefferson presented to congress a plan for the government of the western country, which provided that slavery should not exist therein after 1800, a region referred to not only embraced the Northwestern Territory, but what afterwards became the states of Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky. The clause prohibiting slavery was lost by one vote.

Throughout his long and useful life, Jefferson was the uncompromising foe to every form of tyranny and slavery. The motto on his seal was "Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God." He said, "I have sworn upon the mind of man." "No man has the power to let another prescribe his faith."

There was a large number in the early days of the republic, who foresaw that disaster was the inevitable consequence of traffic in human flesh and of the subjection of human beings to the debasement of slavery and whose voice and pen were protesting forces. It has always been a source of pride to me, that my great grandfather, George Bryan, when a member of the legislature of Pennsylvania, in 1780, originated and caused to be passed an act abolishing slavery in that great commonwealth.

To us, in these late days, we calmly read of the stirring events which accompanied and followed the birth of this great republic. It is almost inconceivable that men who were willing to endure sacrifices and even death itself, in vindication of their liberty, should, at the same time, be willing to inflict all the curses of slavery upon many of their unfortunate fellow men. We are confused and bewildered as we attempt to understand how the question of slavery moulded the very form

Ohio and Pennsylvania have fallen into line for Roosevelt, and that settles it. Let's talk about the vice presidency.

In the Kishineff massacre of Jews thousands were killed and injured and 10,000 were rendered homeless by the destruction of 1,300 stores and dwellings.

If some people would put the same amount of energy into honest work that they do in trying to live without working they might become millionaires.

The county of Romero will probably be created by the next legislature out of the western portion of San Miguel county, with the old town of Las Vegas as the county seat.

Senator Clark, of Montana, says it is difficult to find a safe investment for

however, to recall any deals in which Senator Clark was a loser.

The country will observe that the republican party is harmonious on the question of the nomination, as on all other issues. There will be no opposition to the endorsement of President

The people on the upper Pecos are anxious for work to begin on that "ce-nic" road from Santa Fe to Las Vegas.
The road will cross the most mountainous portion of New Mexico, and it will be worth its cost in opening up to travel the most picturesque section of the great southwest.

Attention is called to a special dispatch from Santa Fe, published in today's Citizen on the first page. The people of Santa Fe, like those of this city, bitterly denounce the Rev. Norman Skinner for his slanderous remarks against the territory, her people and schools made at Los Angeles the other day. The Albuquerque Democrat and Las Vegas Optic are also denounced for not coming out in support of the people against the Skinner attacks.

The natives of this territory are far superior to such men as the Rev. Norman Skinner class, and the people are commending The Citizen for vigorously denouncing their assailant, Rev.
Skinner. As stated yesterday afternoon, The Democrat does not think enough of the people of the territory, her schools and good name abroad to refute the charges made by this Las egas traducer. And, the Optic is also maintaining a deadly silence on the subject.

Just at present there are no depredations being committed on the Pecos forest reserve, though the mill men in that section need careful watching.

The Washington Post expects the democratic national convention to declare against large families on the theory that it is connected with the administration's policy.

The people's paper—The Citizen.
When the people of the territory, her schools and good name are slandered,
The Citizen rallies to the support of the people. In the present case, when a minister of the gospel (the Rev. Norman Skinner, of Las Vegas,) tells a batch of lies against New Mexico, The Citizen came to the rescue of the people and promptly put the stamp of disapproval on the Skinner remarks. Not so with our much esteemed contemporary, the Democrat.

SOUND JUDGMENT.

President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has again demonstrated his sound judgment in advocating the organization of employers.

President Gompers says: "Employers will find it to their advantage to be organized, and not only this, but to deal with organized labor. The movement to form unions among the business men will tend rather to prevent trouble than to promote trouble. The better the organization on both sides, the better it will be for business. Organized employers will be better able to understand the demand of organized labor and to meet these demands without friction."

"OH, LORD DELIVER US!"

After quoting the remarks of Rev.
Norman Skinner, the now famous Las Vegas traducer, and complimenting
The Citizen for denouncing him in the severest manner possible, the New Mexican in its comment says:

There is not a word of truth in all the allegations made by the Las Vegas minister. The city schools of Santa Fe, Las Vegas, Albuquerque, Deming, Silver City, Roswell, Gallup, Carlsbad and a dozen smaller towns are as good as the average public school in eastern towns of like size and in more than one instance better. Santa Fe, as an example, has a kindergarten and a high school of which many a Pennsylvania town of twice the size would be proud. The public school laws, the territorial institutions, the real progress that has been made and the earnestness with which improvement is sought all give the lie to the Las Vegas minister.

New Mexico may well pray morning,
noon and night: "From vain-glorious boasting, from self deception, but above all from lying, slanderous, unbelieving hypocrites, oh, Lord, deliver us!"

GRATIFYING EDUCATIONAL NEWS

That "the indispensableness of education to worldly prosperity" is being demonstrated in New Mexico at this time is indicated in a marked degree
by the volume and nature of the correspondence of the department of education, says the New Mexican.

There is, perhaps, no branch of the territorial government outside the bureau of immigration which is daily
more forcibly reminded of the widespread attention New Mexico is attracting than the office of the superintendent of public instruction. The heaviest daily mail directed to any of the offices at the capital comes to this department. People write the superintendent of public instruction on all subjects imaginable, but chiefly of course, regarding the status of the educational interests of the territory. It is clearly indicated by this very large correspondence that enlightened people in the east and throughout the central western states have set their faces toward the southwestern "star of empire" in real earnest, and Colonel Chaves was heard to observe today
that if one-half of the people in Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Indiana who write him for office information or apply for positions as teachers should succeed in their expressed ambition to "seek a home in New Mexico," there will be precious little of the public land left two years hence, and the territory will witness a growth in population equalled only by "sooner" days of Oklahoma. It is an established rule in the department of education, notwithstanding the limited office force, to make reply to all inquiries, no matter what the class of information sought, but of late so many inquiries have been received on subjects other than those relative to the public school and college interests that, after acknowledging receipt of the letters and mailing a copy of the annual report containing educational statistics, the addresses are turned over to the territorial bureau of immigration and that office supplies

the inquirers with descriptive pamphlets giving information about the territory in general. It is believed in this way a very large and most desir-

SANATORIUMS IN NEW MEXICO.

The climate of New Mexico seems to be growing in favor among men who are seeking means to combat tuberculosis by establishing sanatoriums, says
the Denver Republican.

For this purpose there is no better
climate in the world, for the air is dry and pure and in winter it is mild enough to admit of outdoor exercise at practically all times.

A sanatorium is soon to be established in the vicinity of Albuquerque and another will be built near Deming in the southern part of the territory. If these succeed others doubtless will be established in other parts of the territory, and thus New Mexico's climate will become a source of strength not only to persons afflicted with tuberculosis, but also to the other inhabitants.
A large percentage of the population of Colorado is made up of people who are there either for their own health or on account of the illness of members of their families. In course of time the same may become true of New Mexico.

Thus a climate may be a genuine source of revenue and support to a state at which men who direct their thoughts to smoke stacks and workshops have no occasion to sneer. It has been so in Colorado, and it will be the same in New Mexico, where the climate is almost exactly the same as that of this state, with the exception that it is warmer. The people restored to health in such a climate become as a rule permanent residents, and then contribute by their wealth and energy to the improvement and development of the community in innumerable ways.

TEMPLE ALBERT PROGRAM.

Pentecost Services Sunday Morning—
Special Confirmation.

The Jewish Pentecost services will be held at Temple Albert, corner Seventh street and West Gold avenue.

The man on the stage who does the trick of escaping from firmly tied ropes, submits to the bonds with a smile. He knows he can get out of the ropes that are being knotted. Put the same man in the woods and let Indian captors bind him to a tree for torture and he would struggle to the last against the bonds.

When the stomach is diseased there are bonds being woven every hour about the organs dependent on the stomach—heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc. The folly of mankind is to passively submit to the fastening of these bonds with no effort to escape until the pain they cause
arouses fear.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery
cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys and other organs, when these diseases are in the case, have their origin in the diseased stomach.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.
Special confirmation services will begin at 11 a. m., after the Pentecost services. Music will be rendered by the following quartet with Miss Alice
L. Braithwaite as organist: Soprano,
Miss Grace Welch; contralto, Miss Grace Houghton; tenor, A. L. Newton.
Following is a complete program of the confirmation service:

The Next Musical Event at Colombo

By special request of many prominent ladies and gentlemen of this city, the famous tenor, Chev. P. Buzzi concert at Colombo hall on June 9 before his departure to Costa Rica.

This great artist, to show how deep-

ness extended to him at his last concert in St. Mary's hall, has secured the co-operation of the celebrated prima donna, Madame Silvia Puerari.

The lady is graduated from the National Conservatory of Music of Rome,
in which she captured the first gold medal, the highest prize conferred by that institution. Besides a brilliant career on the principal stages of Europe, Madame Silvia Puerari was chosen from Mascagni in his tour throughout the United States, as the leading and only true interpreter of all his operas and lately in San Francisco Madame Puerari's success in Cavalleria Rusticana had no equal.

Romero and Rivera yesterday delivered to the Santa Fe railway 3,000 ties.

The Las Vegas lodge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen has announced its eighth annual ball and supper, to be given at the Las Vegas Hot Springs on the evening of July 3.

E. R. Paul, who has been one of the bookkeepers in the office of the Pennsylvania Development company at Santa Fe during the past twelve months, has resigned and will leave for the east, returning to his old home at Pittsburgh, Pa.

R. L. McCance, auditor of the Pennsylvania Development company and of the Santa Fe Central Railway company, and Mrs. McCance will leave Santa Fe on Monday next for their home in Pittsburgh, Pa., where they will hereafter permanently reside.

Mortimer Sherman and Miss Maud Sweet of Coldwater, Mich., were married by Rev. Frank C. Ward at Las Vegas. Mr. Sherman recently entered the employ of the Santa Fe in the freight office and has made many friends during his short residence at Las Vegas.

Carl F. Metzgar, who for the past year has been a resident of Santa Fe, employed in responsible position in the engineering department of the Santa Fe Central railway, has resigned and on Sunday will leave for his old home at Altoona, Pa., where he will again take up his residence.

The roof has been taken off of that part of the Raton roundhouse known as the slaughter house and preparations are being made to greatly enlarge it. The building will be extended three stalls south and otherwise rebuilt to make it about the size of the other part of the roundhouse and is to be covered with an arched roof.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

NEW MEXICO & PACIFIC.

Nearly $2,000,000 to be expended in work.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat has the following:

St. Louis men and St. Louis capital have become interested in a New Mexico railroad project which may become a link in or the nucleus of a new transcontinental line, distinctively a St. Louis enterprise.

The new road, incorporated as the New Mexico & Pacific, as at present planned, will be seventy-five miles in length, but within that seventy-five miles of road is included what is believed to be the only unoccupied practicable mountain pass in the southern portion of the Rocky mountain range. Among the St. Louisans at present interested in the enterprise are Messrs. Hugo A. and Max Koehler, Thomas B. Harlan and O. H. B. Turner.

The line begins at Raton, N. M., and runs to Cimarron, thence westwardly through the canyon of the Cimarron river to the Moreno valley, thence northwardly to Elizabethtown and across into the Taos country. From this territory the road, it is ultimately planned, will make its way to the coast through Arizona, possibly touching southern Nevada and Utah en route. It is expected to spend about $1,800,000 in construction work during the coming year or so.

W. B. Robbins, who has been general agent of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad in Santa Fe for the past several months, has resigned and has accepted the position of general freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe Central railway to date June 1, 1903. General Manager W. S. Hopewell made the appointment yesterday. Mr. Robbins is an energetic and thoroughly posted railroad man, having had twenty years' experience in freight and passenger business. For the past twelve years he has been in the employ of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad in important and trusted positions.

NOT YET 40 YEARS OLD.

New General Passenger Agent of the Rock Island is a Young Man.

The appointment of L. M. Allen to be general passenger agent of the entire Rock Island system gives control of the passenger business of one of the largest rail road systems in the country to one of the youngest men to hold a position as general passenger agent.

Mr. Allen will be 40 years old on July 4. He has been in the service of the road since 1881. He is a native of Davenport, Iowa, at which place he saw his first service as a car accountant's clerk. When Passenger Traffic Manager John Sebastian was promoted to that position from general passenger agent Mr. Allen, who was principal assistant in his office, was moved up to the place of general passenger agent of the eastern lines.

No appointment of an official to hold a similar position in relation to the lines west of the river was made and instead of doing this and dividing the system, it was finally decided to take another step in the direction of solidification by giving him jurisdiction over all lines.

Mr. Joseph Pominville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets on trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box at all druggists.

TRACK PUT DOWN THURSDAY.

A Record Breaker in the Construction of the Santa Fe Central Railway.

Telegraphic information received from General Manager W. S. Hopewell of the Santa Fe Central, who is at Estancia Station on the Santa Fe Central line yesterday, gives the gratifying information that Thursday was a record breaking day for track laying on the road. The Harris track laying machine and the four with it put down 11,200 feet of steel track during Thursday's working hours, which is considered excellent work for one day. Progress is satisfactory now and the track will be about a mile north of Estancia which station was reached at noon yesterday. Thereafter for the next forty miles going north, construction will be comparatively easy and will be rapid. The track laying gang worked south from Kennedy station Thursday and put down 1,700 feet of steel track and is working south steadily and increasing in efficiency and rapidity of the work. It is believed that yesterday's work beat Thursday's record of 11,200 feet, and that it may foot up near three miles of actual steel track put down during the working hours.

ONLY A RAIL-ROADER.

Found a Pocketbook Containing $500 and Returned to Owner.

Some people labor under the impression that the majority of men who railroad for a living are a little below the ordinary run of American citizens. These impressions have been formed entirely from hearsay. Railroaders are a hard life and therefore some people can not understand why a man will work at it. They finally come to the conclusion that he is too low down to do anything else and falls back on railroading as a last resort. This is not true. The fact is that in order to

AN HONEST SKEPTIC.

And Where He Landed.

An honest skeptic will learn things that a prejudiced and ignorant person misses. There have been many skeptics of the great rebuilding value of the pure food Grape-Nuts simply because they did not understand the scientific principle upon which it is based.

A Cincinnati man prepared to die and then got well and strong in spite of his convictions. He says: "I have always regarded your food as only another catch penny to fool the public, but I am now forced through simple justice to admit that it is all you claim. I suffered for years from indigestion and had 'set my house in order' to die. Then I took up the study of the alimentary table, bought a set of chemical devices to analyze the different foods and set to work to intelligently study the food question."

"I selected and ate those vegetables and meats in which I found the most nutriment and which were supposed to be the most easily digested, but I continued to waste away and my stomach grew to be a veritable hell; sour scalding eruptions came up in my mouth, taking my breath away for such a long while that I thought many times my end had come. I would fall in a faint and remain unconscious for some time and when revived would find great dark spots obscuring my vision to such an extent that it seemed to be almost night in my room."

"My stomach grew so weak that I could not digest even well boiled rice. While lying in bed, badly discouraged and more willing to die than live, a voice seemed to come to me, 'Why don't you give up your prejudice and try Grape-Nuts.' I thought about it every little while during the day and late in the evening sent out for some and ate a little, expecting it would hurt me and cause all the terrible trouble over again, but an hour passed and everything was right so I took another little meal and waited. I felt better and the old sick feeling quit. So about 9 o'clock I took a pretty good meal of Grape-Nuts and went to bed feeling good. I laid awake some time fearing my poor weak and scalded stomach would suffer, but, strange to say, I dropped off to sleep and slept sound and peaceful and enjoyed the most glorious night's rest I had for several years."

"I go heavy on Grape-Nuts now and I have gained ten pounds in the last five weeks; have sound, refreshing sleep, no sour eruptions of the stomach, no dark blind spots and my nerves are as steady as can be. I am truly myself again and all due to having at last found the proper food." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

be a good railroad man he must be honorable, industrious and sober. A great many of this kind of men are employed by the Santa Fe today, and C. A. Bidson, a brakeman running between Topeka and Arkansas City, is one of them. On the 15th of this month Mr. Bidson found a pocketbook containing over $500 in currency and checks. No one saw him pick it up and if he had been the kind of man that some people think a railroad man is, he would have put it in his pocket and never said a word about it. Instead of doing this, however, he opened the pocketbook, found the card of the owner and returned to him the pocketbook, money and all. The man who lost the pocketbook is Ralph Potter, traveling representative of the Lee Mercantile company, Salina, Kas., and if you don't believe this story, ask him about it.—Topeka State Journal.

The Best Liniment.

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by all druggists.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says, "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00.

Records were broken Thursday morning when the Lake Shore's Twentieth Century limited, hauled by engine No. 603, ran from Toledo to Elkhart, 133 miles, in 144 minutes. This is two minutes lower than any previous time. At intervals along the run speed averaged seventy-two, eighty and nearly ninety miles an hour, the general average being seventy miles.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver trouble so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in fourteen months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and kidney troubles. Try them. Only one at all druggists.

Officials in Oklahoma of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient report that steel is being laid rapidly in western Oklahoma, although there has been some delay in bridging the North Canadian river. The announcement is made that there will be through trains from the north to Sweetwater, Tex., by January 1.

A Revelation.

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. Alvarado Pharmacy.

The case of Maria Snyder vs. the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company for the death of her daughter, caused by being struck by one of the railroad company's trains near Hot Springs, New Mexico, has been on trial for the past three days and yesterday was decided in favor of the company, the court holding that the deceased was a trespasser upon the company's property at the time of her death. Col. R. E. Twitchell represented the company.

The Waste of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of worn-out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength leaks down, health gives way, and disease set up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the whole some food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by B. H. Briggs & Co., S. Vann & Son.

Queen Quality

Fit and Style!

There are some things which can't be improved. One of these things is the "QUEEN QUALITY" shoe for women.

You can make it more elaborate, you can decorate it, embellish it, use costly materials and all that; but for $100 a pair you cannot make a better shoe than "QUEEN QUALITY," having regard solely to the two great essentials of fit and style.

This means that mechanically it is perfect. As for its appearance, the fact that one hundred thousand women choose it instantly above all other shoes would seem to indicate that it is attractive. Why don't you go so far as to try on a pair the next time you go to the store? It costs nothing to see them fit your foot.

MEMORIAL DAY.

of our confederated government, and, during its early life, dominated every discussion of the proper exercise of the functions of national life. Its importance seemed to increase with the years. Its friends and foes became more and more pronounced and more and more bitter and implacable toward each other. The intense emotions the question developed can only be comprehended by those who experienced their effects. At last they acquired such momentum that all efforts to suppress them were swept aside and the horrors of a fratricidal struggle, of an open rupture between sections of the one great country, of a contest of might between peoples bound together with the same high principles of liberty, of a deadly conflict between men of the same all conquering Anglo-Saxon family, were actualized in what is known as the civil war—the greatest and most sanguinary war of history.

That was a time, when on both sides, heroes were produced; when patriotism was glorified; when devotion to principle led men to leave their homes and place their lives upon the altar—a sacrifice for their country when the holiest moments prompted women to send their husbands, fathers, brothers and lovers to the front to fight for their country; when the love of liberty which was and is the glory of this country rose triumphantly over the smoke and din of the battle, over the council chambers of the nation, over the firesides of the heroes and heroines who staid at home.

We, who enjoy the fruits of those heroic struggles, honor you, soldiers of the Grand Army, because your names are written on the honor rolls of those who fought for liberty. You were participants in the life agonies of the nation, in those dark, dismal days. Your courage, devotion and sacrifice won for us and our posterity, a reaffirmance, in blood, of the principle of individual liberty, which was the guiding star of those ancient worthies who in prayer and hope founded this democracy, which is, today, the headstone for faith in our beloved country, and which is destined, in the unfolding years, to bring joy, happiness and contentment to those seeking the shelter of a government operated for the benefit of the governed.

Let us not mistake this lesson of the great war. Slavery has gone forever. The liberty of the individual is established—that is the right of liberty. Fellow citizens, our incomparable Declaration of Independence announced that governments are instituted among men to secure to them the right to life, to liberty, and to the pursuit of happiness. Does our government, as now operated, secure these desirable things? The civil war, it is true, settled forever the question of human slavery—the actual ownership of human flesh—the buying and selling of human beings as chattels—but are there not still among the forms of slavery which oppress, which thwart development, which defeat the objects of government? Are there not tyrants and despots among us, who under the forms of law, or contrary to law, succeed in practically enslaving human beings? Is the individual perfectly free to live out his own life—to give full scope to the development of his powers? Is public sentiment always helpful to one eager to give rein to his faculties? Is not fashion often tyrannical? Are not religious teachers frequently the most unreasonable tyrants? The profound Jefferson said, "I have considered religion as a matter between every man and his Maker, in which no other, and far less the public, had a right to intermingle." Do parents constantly seek the individual freedom of their children? Do not our teachers and the curricula of our schools and colleges at times dwarf and curtail mental liberty? Do not our own vices and immoralities crush out all love for and hope of liberty to act out our better nature? Do not covetousness and cupidity lead us to forge anew the chains of the slave? Will not child labor stunt the intellect and produce human drudges? Where is the liberty for the individual that capital seeks? Where is the regard for human beings shown by corporations? Do trades unions invariably promote the best interests of their members? What does the political leader care for the individualism of the rank and file? Will it be contended for a moment that the managers for municipal, county, territorial or national affairs work chiefly for the good of the people?

Is liberty then merely a word to conjure with? Is the liberty, you of the Grand Army, fought to establish, merely the right to control in a limited way, one's own body? Is there no larger, fuller idea of liberty? If we have life should we not have such liberty as will bring happiness? We all desire happiness—untiringly search for it—ceaselessly strive for it—if we do not possess and enjoy it, is it not because of our ignorance, our faults, the cruelty of others, or the untoward conditions that surround us?

Another important lesson taught the nation and the world, by the issues of the civil war, was that the rights of individuals living in a state are necessarily controlled and limited by the rights of those associated with them in the social compact. Theoretically the doctrine of "states rights" could be supported by the most convincing logic. The great majority of the southern people believed that they were at liberty to withdraw from the Union whenever they chose to do so. They were willing to fight for that right. They did fight bravely and well, as you who opposed them on the field can testify. But, they were just as wrong on this proposition as they were on the proposition of slavery. The northern states regarded the erection of the Confederate government as a menace to their safety. The great north and middle west could not brook the idea of allowing the mouth of the Mississippi, the natural channel for their products to the markets of the world, to be controlled by a foreign power.

And so the great war was fought and the surrender at Appomattox declared to the world that neither individuals nor peoples could exercise their rights in such a way as to interfere with the rights of others.

The immortal Jefferson expressed this great truth in this way, "No man has a natural right to commit aggression on the equal rights of another; and this is all from which the laws ought to restrain him."

I quote so often from the writings of Thomas Jefferson, because now, more than ever, his wisdom is recognized by the leaders of all parties, and those connected with political affairs look to him as the exponent of the principles upon which our government was founded and by conforming to which the true ends of organized society can be attained.

As we, today, pay homage to those who gave their lives to their country, in the early sixties, let us learn well the two lessons taught us and the world, at so much life and treasure.

Man has the right to the fullest liberty and ought to use it so as to expand every faculty of his being, but he has no right to exercise this right so as to interfere with the rights of others. We are confronted today with grave social and governmental questions. The century and a quarter of the nation's life, marked by many wonderful advances in every department of human activity, has not solved the problem of government. The people are not ensured the full measure of liberty and happiness. We should carefully consider whether under the present economic conditions, happiness is not impossible of attainment. Do not our laws, customs and social ideas force us into involuntary serfdom? Do not greed, avarice and ambition compel us to disregard the rights of others in our mad scramble for place, power and pelf?

As we look forward to the certain increase in world power and influence of our beloved country, may we see exercised by the people and through the agencies of the government, a higher concern for the liberty of each citizen, and well directed efforts to so transform the conditions of life as to promote the development of the peace, comfort and happiness of the people.

In the task before us let us not forget that the people are sovereign. When they clearly understand their rights, and hesitate not to assert them the functions of the government will be operated solely for their benefit. When they learn well the lesson of regard for the rights of others, they will become safe enforcers of their own rights.

Men of the Grand Army, your work is almost over; your faces are toward the setting sun; these Memorial day services remind you that soon your bodies will lie beside the comrades who have gone before, and on whose graves, today, you strew the blossoms of hope and promise; the things of this world pale on your senses, shadowed by the glories of that Eternal City through whose golden portals you will soon pass. This great gathering, these sympathetic friends, this national Memorial day, assure you that you have not lived in vain; that you will not be forgotten; that the country you fought for is dear to the hearts of ever increasing millions; that the lessons enforced by your sacrifices will not go unlearned; that the people of the country you saved will demonstrate to the world, that a government of the people, for the people, and by the people, can and will secure to the people, the right to life, to liberty and to the pursuit of happiness.

Continuation of Program.

The children from the Indian school then sang "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

Adjutant McDonald read the names on the roll of honor that have passed away during the past year.

The Woman's Relief Corps conducted the beautiful service for the unknown dead and decorated the monument.

Three volleys of eight guns were fired under command of David Denham.

Music, "The Star Spangled Banner," and a benediction closed the morning exercises.

This afternoon the soldiers and members of the Woman's Relief Corps took carriages and visited and decorated nearly seventy-five graves in the Fairview, Catholic and Santa Barbara cemeteries. At each cemetery three volleys of eight guns were fired.

After decorating the graves the company went to Bernalas bridge, over the Rio Grande, and strewed flowers upon the water, and a boat full of flowers was set adrift in memory of the sailors.

MONTEZUMA TRUST COMPANY

Board of Directors Increased by Additional Business Men.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

The Montezuma Trust company is the subject of much favorable comment among our people and visitors from New Mexico towns. As heretofore stated in the columns of this paper, the company has taken advantage of the law passed at the last session of the legislature and, as a consequence, its powers are considerably broadened, and its opportunities for profit correspondingly increased. The number of the board of directors has been increased and the following well-known business men of this city were on the 14th inst. chosen additional directors, viz: Alfred Grunfeld, Solomon Weller, Dr. John Tascher, David Rosenwald, Dr. W. G. Hope, Simon
Stern, W. R. Whitney, Solomon Luna, H. F. Reynolds and N. E. Stevens. The personnel of the board of directors is unquestionably representative, and strong, and will not only assure a wise and judicious management of the company's affairs, but will inspire general interest and absolute confidence, and will be the avenue through which it will receive much valuable business.

The company has leased the corner room in the Columbus building at the corner of Second street and Gold avenue, formerly occupied by H. E. Fox
as a jewelry store, and on yesterday moved into its new offices. The room has been newly papered and painted,
and when the furniture and fixtures of the company are set in place it will present a very attractive appearance.
The location is one of the best in the city. The office is well suited for the company's business, and contains a strong and commodious vault.

In addition to the business heretofore done, the company will transact a general savings and trust business and will be prepared to meet all the wants of the public. The savings feature will be given the first attention, as there exists in this city what may be well termed a public necessity for a savings institution that will offer the savings features as contemplated by this company. The company has also leased the abstract files, maps, etc., of the Title Guaranty Company, and will make and certify abstracts of title to real estate. These abstract files were compiled under the supervision of Mr. McClintock, an experienced abstractor and patentee of the Mc-Clintock abstract system, and are ac-knowledgeed to be the most complete and best set of abstract files in Albuquerque.

The company commences its new business under the most favorable conditions. The field that it has entered has heretofore been unoccupied and is an excellent field from every point of view, and it cannot well help but be very successful. A review of the history and growth of the company demonstrates what energy and opportunity combined may accomplish.

der, of Pattens Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.' For sale by all druggists.

COMMENCEMENT.

Albuquerque Central High School Class Does Itself Proud.

"STRIVE FOR THE BEST."

The graduating class of 1903 of the Albuquerque Central High school did itself proud last evening in Colombo hall, and the exercises carried out reflect no little credit on Prof. A. B. Stroup and his able assistants. Thus another turn of the wheel of education has sent out more young men and women better prepared for the hard battle of life.

The hall was filled with a good-looking audience, composed of mothers and fathers, brothers, sister, uncles and aunts and sweethearts of the graduates. Every seat was occupied and many stood during the exercises. The stage presented a very pretty appearance with the decorations of the class colors, green and white, and roses. From the top was hung the class motto: "Strive For the Best." These with the pretty girl graduates in white and the handsome looking young men in black presented an attractive sight.

The Rev. Mr. Renison opened the program with an invocation, after which Mrs. Stevens Himes played a piano selection.

Miss Daisy Huntzinger then delivered the salutatory. Her delivery was fine and her words were clearly understood by every one in the audience. She welcomed those present to the exercises. The public schools, she said, of America have been the mightiest force in elevating and leveling all classes into a co-operative trust for the education of the masses. From the unrivaled success of the public schools has grown not only a sentiment, but the establishment of a brotherhood between man and his fellow man, until a universal co-operative fraternity now exists in America, where the public schools are responsible for our nation's progress and honor. The primary end of education is to develop independent men, to build a strong independent nation. The world's greatest military genius, Napoleon Bonaparte, has said: "Public instruction should be the first object of the government."

Friends, our motto is, "Strive for the Best," and with constant striving we hope not to be like the foolish virgins, who forgot to fill the lamps, and when the bridegroom appeared their lamps were out, and, too late, they saw their mistake. We hope to keep our lamps bright with industry and burning with honor, and ever be ready responsive pupils as we go forth into the school of life. We intend, sponge like, to absorb all that is good in nature and man. In closing she said: "Our grandest hope is that in the great life school we may learn our lessons diligently and well. That our motto, 'Strive for the Best,' may be ever before us in our struggle; that after our last examination we may have the great teacher say, 'Ye have striven for the best—ye are promoted.'"

Miss Adah Vaughn then enlightened her hearers on what the world is seeking today. She says that in this age man must be successful to be in demand. This is the age of haste, and the world wants men that are ready at a moment's notice. It has no time to wait for dreamers. The men who are "doers," not "dreamers," are the ones that are wanted. Those who are always talking never accomplish their aim, but those who set to work generally succeed. After we have determined upon our idea, we must then turn our attention to carrying it out. One great means toward this end is to study along that line; another is to watch for and take advantage of opportunities. These come at unexpected moments, and may as suddenly disappear, never to come our way again. Perhaps the greatest difficulty is that we are too easily discouraged, and give up before the struggle is half over, but we should believe with Browning, that "we fall to rise; are baffled to fight better." Let us not feel that our opportunities are too limited, for the whole world has been brought to our doors. The young people of today have opportunities never dreamed of before. Miss Vaughn's whole address was full of good, practical advice, and if put in operation by the members of the class of 1903 will surely land them at the top of the ladder.

Miss Summers was down on the program at this point for a solo, but owing to a severe cold could not sing, and Mr. Newton supplied. He sang "The Bells of St. Mary."

Miss Irma Schuster recited the class history in a charming way, and each member came in for his or her full history. The audience enjoyed it.

The High School Glee club, composed of young ladies, then sang "Estudiantina," and this so delighted the audience that it wanted more, for the hand clapping was kept up several minutes.

Miss Rose Harsch delivered an essay on "The Mill Will Not Grind With the Water of the Past." In the outside world, she said, as well as in private life, we must endeavor to make our presence felt. Education will not do everything for us; it only aids us to gain a higher standard of manhood. What cares the world for the flourishing of a diploma? Trying of the mind is not the only essential to success; it must go hand in hand with practice. We will never be prosperous if we stand and wait for opportunities to materialize. Our life is our aim; we reap what we sow. Life is a rugged path; we cannot expect to have a smooth journey, but if our purpose is strong we will overcome all difficulties. If we wish to live an effective life, we cannot expect to do so by living on past renown or parental glory. Each must strive for himself; each must work out his own salvation—we either make or mar our own destinies. Her essay was good, and her delivery good, too.

Miss Fitch, a teacher in the Central High school, sang a solo and was herself encored. She favored her hearers again with another charming piece. Her singing was very sweet.

The class prophecy was done up in a novel way to take queen's taste. Carl Holman and Miss Mabelle Yott were the actors. The scene is supposed to take place some years in the future in the largest city in the world—New York. Carl is dressed up as a first-class boxer tourist and Miss Yott a widow in seedy garb. They meet and then the members hear the rosy prospects that have come to them after leaving the dear old Central High school. Miss Yott and Mr. Holman are to be congratulated on their successful acting.

Misses Huntzinger, Duckworth, Pratt and Mrs. Borradaile touched the piano for Polonaise Militaire.

The valedictory was finely delivered by J. E. Strumquist, president of the class, and we predict a future for the young man if he cares to enter public life. In closing he said: "Fellow Graduates, now that we have finished our secondary education, we have finished our course of training, and we are now ready to start in the race of life. The past years were probably the happiest of our lives, and yet, at times, our studies, though blessings in disguise, seemed somewhat irksome, but the diligence of our ever faithful teachers and the untiring zeal, with which they have labored to guide us and aid us in our toilsome march up the hill of knowledge, supported us. You have been in school to prepare yourselves to stem life's current and to make a safe transit over its boisterous rivers. All the necessary equipment of life have been put into your hands and all that is left for you to do is to use them. Our journey into this rugged hill is toilsome, but we should remember that there is no royal road to fame. I truly hope that in whatever field of labor you may enjoy, you will succeed, and of every one of you it may be said with pride he was one of the class of 1903. It is with great sorrow that I say farewell to you, dear classmates, for, as we part tonight, it may be the last time we shall ever see each other. But we must indeed part, and the farewell must be spoken, so let us hope to meet where partings are no more. Farewell. How the sound lingers on the ear, but we pause not, for the resounding echo; farewell."

Professor Stroup then presented the much coveted diplomas. His talk to the graduates was a fine, scholarly one and showed the man to be the right man for the position that he holds.

The Glee Club brought the exercises to a close by singing a selection from Prince of Pilsen. Miss Ada Campbell took the leading part and did it charmingly.

The seniors held forth after the exercises and those who remained were handsomely entertained and lunched. Dancing was indulged in, and Mrs. Rose Berry presided at the piano.

The commencement exercises for 1903 were a credit to Albuquerque. What more can be said?

now and then, at bedtime, will cure constipation, biliousness and liver trouble. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Physician Succumbs to Tuberculosis.
Dr. John Gillespie, well known Philadelphia physician, died in Silver City of tuberculosis. Dr. Gillespie was connected with the Pennsylvania Children's hospital and was widely known in the east. His remains were sent to Warrensburg, N. Y., this evening.

GREATLY ALARMED.

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

A Society Woman Must

Devote the most thoughtful attention to her personal appearance.

Nature does her best to make all women attractive so do not oppose nature.

Make the most of your natural charms and above all try to beautify and preserve your crowning glory.

THE OTHER NAME.

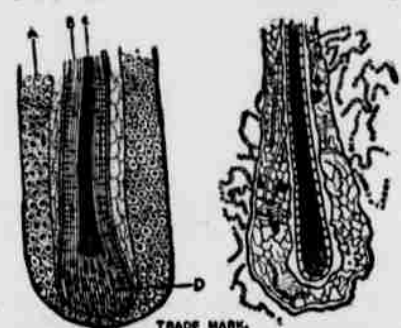

Attractiveness is the other name for beautiful hair, which every woman may have. It requires great care and perseverance in the treatment, but the wonderfully pleasing results that follow fully justify the trouble, to say nothing of the future when the hair will retain its abundance and glossiness, even to a ripe old age. Like a plant, the hair must be entirely free from disease breeding germs, for if the dandruff microbe has entered the hair follicles all the sunshine in the world is of no avail. The hair will appear lifeless, dull and lusterless, followed by itching of the scalp, and, finally, falling hair. The first treatment is to destroy the dandruff microbe, at once, with Newbro's Herpicide. The healing and beautifying influence of this wonderful compound is little short of marvelous; clear and pure as the mountain snow, it cools the fevered scalp, destroys the enemy of hair growth, and sends the blood tingling to the hair roots, where nature's restoration must begin. As a delightful hair dressing Newbro's Herpicide easily leads the world, especially among fastidious and discriminating people. Its purity and freedom from oil, grease, or sediment imparts to the hair the most charming distinctiveness, while its antiseptic action makes it the equal of sunshine in its life-giving properties. Try it; a single trial is convincing.

THE MAN IN THE CASE.

No woman should be satisfied to stop with the preservation of her own hair, while a brother, father, husband or son is losing his. Whirling through the vortex of business strife, thoughtful and considerate of all but himself, frequently exposed to "infected" hair-brushes, and wearing a hat that could not be improved upon as a microbe incubator, this person certainly needs the thoughtful care of someone, if baldness is prevented. Try a course of Newbro's Herpicide; it has benefited thousands, and if the first application is not satisfactory we will refund your money direct.

R. F. A. SEXTON, the well known architect of Seattle, Wash., writes as follows: "I had dandruff ever since I can remember, until two years ago, when your Herpicide was first introduced. Since that time I have not been troubled in the least, and as mine was a very bad case, I take pleasure in recommending Herpicide to others similarly affected." (Signed R. F. A. SEXTON.)

Lively Dispute Over Teacher.

A special dispatch to the Denver Republican from Santa Fe says: The board of education held a very stormy meeting last evening over the election of teachers, the president, T. B. Catron, threatening to resign because the board elected a teacher from out of town.

The election of the principal of the high school was postponed, there being applicants from Texas, Colorado and several other states.

The outside teacher elected is Miss Olive Wrightman, of Atwood, Ill., in place of Miss Berger.

HAIR SOFT AS SILK.

New Scientific Treatment Kills Dandruff Germs, and Makes Hair Soft.

It is an accepted fact, a proven fact, that dandruff is a germ disease; and it is also a demonstrated fact that Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff falling hair will stop, and thin hair will thicken. Herpicide not only kills the dandruff germ, but it also makes hair as soft as silk. It is the most delightful hair dressing made. It cleanses the scalp from dandruff and keeps it clean and healthy. Itching and irritation are instantly relieved, and permanently cured. At all druggists. There's nothing "just as good." Take no substitute. Ask for "Herpicide."

"Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. B. H. Briggs & Co., special agents."

Wanted.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constipation, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25-cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. TAOS POSTMASTER RESIGNS.

Three Candidates Already Announced for the Vacancy.

It is reported in Taos that M. M. Kahn, the present postmaster, has placed his resignation in the hands of Postoffice Inspector A. P. Smithers, who has been at Taos for several days investigating the affairs of the office. There are three leading candidates for the office: Willis E. Sower, who was a bugler in troop G, First United States volunteer cavalry, (Rough Riders), of which Col. W. H. H. Llewellyn was the captain and who participated creditably in the Cuban campaign. Sower stands well in the community and is strongly recommended by many of the business men there.

Alphonso Clothier, who is a clerk in the store of W. M. Adair, is also in the field. He is a young man, well liked and respected and has also some good endorsements. It is said that Mr. Clou-

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks MOTHER'S FRIEND is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers."—Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. MOTHER'S FRIEND takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

thier has been indorsed by Governor Otero.

The third candidate is Mr. Scheck, who has a drug store and who, with his wife, came to Taos about six months ago. It is learned that Mr. Scheck would be willing that his wife should be appointed postmistress.

Caution!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25-cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

LINCOLN CO. SHERIFFALTY CASE.

Judge McMillan Awards Sheriff's Office to Contestant Armstrong and Ousts Owen.

Associate Justice Daniel H. McMillan, sitting as trial judge of the Fifth judicial district, at Socorro, has just decided the case of Robert D. Armstrong vs. John W. Owen, involving the office of sheriff of Lincoln county. Owen was awarded the certificate of election by the county commissioners of Lincoln county last November, the election returns giving him one plurality, contested. The court found that the votes cast for Owen for sheriff of the county by the patients at the Fort Stanton Marine hospital were illegal, and hence awarded the office to the contestant. The opinion is very able, exhaustive and quite lengthy.

The X-Rays.
