MOVE TO BRING PEACE TO NEAR EAST IS GIVEN U. S. APPROVAL

Allied Proposals in Negotiating Settlement of Crisis Are in Accord With American Sentiment.

POLICY IS OUTLINED BY SECRETARY HUGHES

Statement of Position May Help Smooth Out the Situation, Is the Feeling Among Officials.

Washington, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—Allied proposals to insure effectively entrance to Dardanelles and protection of racial and religious minorities in negotiating permanent settlement of the Near Eastern crisis, are clearly in accord with American sentiment, Secretary Hughes declared today in the first formal assertion of American policy toward the Turkish problem.

At the same time, Mr. Hughes took occasion to express the trust of the Washington government that arrangements would be made to keep the straits open and maintain peace pending the conference to conclude a final treaty of peace between Turkey, Greece and the allies.

Hughes' Answer.

"The statement was made in reply to a question submitted to Mr. Hughes by the Associated Press as to the attitude of the American government toward the peace proposals made by the allies. His answer follows:

"The American government is gratified to observe that the proposals of the three allied governments seek to insure effectively 'the liberty of the Dardanelles, the Straits of Maroneia and the Bosphorus as well as protection of the racial and religious minorities.' These points are clearly in accord with American sentiment.

"This government also trusts that the negotiable arrangements may be agreed upon in the interest of peace to preserve the freedom of the straits pending the conference to conclude a final treaty of peace between Turkey, Greece and the allies."

Beyond this expression, state department officials declined to go in outlining the American attitude. No authoritative statement was available as to the possibility that the Washington government would accept an invitation to be represented at the conference of Venice to negotiate the peace treaty.

Mr. Hughes declined specifically in answering the inquiry as to the American attitude, to comment in any way on any territorial questions involved in solution of the present Near Eastern problem. The connection, however, it was pointed out at the department that the points upon which the secretary did express the government's views involved only matters in which the United States has a very direct interest of long standing. These include free movement between the Aegean and Black seas for American vessels, the rights under the treaty of commerce and navigation maintained in Turkey by American religious organizations and other similar matters. With the territorial adjustments in Turkey as a result of the great war or of the present developments due to Kemalist successes, the Washington government is now more concerned.

May Help Situation.

There was some feeling among officials that the positive assertion of American approval of the main allied principles of settlement might help smooth out the situation. It was felt that the Kemalist government might be influenced to a certain extent by knowledge of the American viewpoint. As a matter of routine any governmental pronouncement of such importance as Mr. Hughes' statement of today is communicated to American diplomatic representatives abroad and Rear Admiral Bristol at Constantinople will without question be able to advise the Kemalist government of the quite fully of the American attitude.

There also is little question that Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador, in his long conference yesterday with Mr. Hughes, received a clear impression of American approval of the allied peace proposals insofar as the non-territorial points are involved. What further impression he may have formed as to American willingness to join in negotiation of the proposed treaty has not been disclosed.

KING OF GREECE HAS ABDICATED, ATHENS REPORTS

Constantine Surrenders the Throne in Favor of the Crown Prince; Situation Is Very Critical.

London, Sept. 27.—King Constantine has abdicated in favor of the crown prince, according to an Athens dispatch to the Central News.

Athens, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—A crisis is rapidly developing.

The king has proclaimed martial law. Eight thousand troops at Salonika have revolted, insisting on a change in the government.

Sections of the army in the Aegean islands also have revolted. They demand that the king abdicate.

Part of the army in Thrace demands that the king join the army there.

Athens, Sept. 26.—The Greek ministry has resigned. Very important changes are impending but present indications are that a peaceful solution of the crisis will be found.

MARION HOLINS LOSES CROWN AS GOLFING QUEEN

Is Conquered by Mrs. Quentin Feitner, of the South Shore Club, Six Times Metropolitan Champ.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Sept. 26.—Long Island's premier women golfers met today in the annual golf championship of the West Brook club, which was won by Mrs. Quentin Feitner, of the South Shore club, six times metropolitan champion, who won 7 up and 6 to play.

The other well known stars went through the first round of match play in consistent style, none failing to win her match and thereby continue in the tournament.

Miss Hollins, who won her title at Hollywood last year, has played little golf since, because of illness and absence from this country. The lack of steady playing showed plainly.

With a margin of six holes at the turn, Mrs. Feitner never failed to hold the lead she had accumulated. She played superbly. Mrs. Feitner, who was nationally known as Miss Lillian Hyde before her marriage, putted with remarkable steadiness and went through the match with only two putts on any green.

Playing sound and steady golf, Miss Glenna Collett, Providence player, had little trouble in defeating Mrs. H. D. Sterrett, Hutchinson, Kans. by 10 and 8.

Miss Alexia Stirling, Atlanta, three times national champion, played excellently, while Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, winner of ten national titles, defeated Mrs. Canadian and United States, in former years, went through the first round about as had been expected.

After being caught in a trial chase by the bloodhounds, which are being trained at the state penitentiary, during their practice yesterday afternoon, Ray Loyd, of Luna county who is serving a three to five sentence on a charge of perjury and larceny, decided to test the dogs in a real flight and vaulting out of a horse, which had been used by one of the trainers, took to the mountains. He was still at large late last night.

Loyd, who was a trusty, was sent ahead in the practice flight and then followed by the dogs and their trainer, who was on horseback. The horse he is riding is a buck, and Loyd is branded with an "R" and a "L" on the left hip.

TURKS ORDERED OUT OF NEUTRAL ZONE BY ALLIES

Ultimatum Sent Mustapha Kemal Pasha Allowing 48 Hours for Withdrawal of Nationalist Forces.

Constantinople, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—The British general Sir Charles Harrington, commander in chief of the allied forces here, has ordered the Turks out of the neutral zone around the Dardanelles. He has sent an ultimatum to Mustapha Kemal Pasha at Smyrna, allowing 48 hours for withdrawal of the nationalist cavalry detachments, which have occupied Kile Kileh, at the entrance to the Dardanelles, as well as Eren Keul, to the southwest of Chanak and Bigha.

This action was taken by General Harrington after several requests had been made by the British commanders in the areas mentioned that the Turkish forces withdraw and after the Turks had begun to entrench. Likewise, the British forces are throwing up entrenchments, erecting barbed wire defenses and making every preparation both for defense and an offensive movement if that becomes necessary.

Families Ordered Out.

Yesterday it was announced that the wives and families of the allied authorities would remain in Constantinople, but today some of them had been sent out of the city and others were preparing to depart. This carries its own significance. Precautions to prevent disorders in the capital have also been doubled and some relief is felt over the arrival at Chanak of reinforcements and the announcement that additional naval units were on the way to Constantinople from Malta.

These consist of a destroyer, four flutilla and two light cruisers, which are expected to reach here with all dispatch.

The statement by Major General Maurice, the British military expert who is usually a severe critic, that the British forces could hold Chanak, the key position to the Dardanelles, against any nationalist attempt, is highly encouraging and accepted here as voting the opinion of the officers in general.

"We are prepared," he said, "to prevent the Turks from crossing the straits and invading Thrace and can successfully keep them out of Constantinople."

KATONKA SENTENCED TO DIE ON SCAFFOLD AT AZTEC OCTOBER 20

Special to The Journal.

Santa Fe, Sept. 26.—Steve F. Katonka, convicted in San Juan county on a charge of slaying two Gallup taxi drivers more than a year ago, was sentenced by the supreme court today to be hanged Friday, October 20, at Aztec, from the lower court.

Alice Katonka, claimed by Katonka to be his wife, is serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary for her connection with the double murder.

The taxi drivers were slain near Shiprock, N. M., and their bodies hidden in an arroyo. Katonka and the woman were arrested in Pennsylvania several months later and returned to Aztec for trial. Their stories were at variance, Katonka claiming that the woman did the killing, while the woman admitted firing one shot but claimed she was forced to do so by Katonka. The defense endeavored to prevent the woman from testifying, claiming that as the wife of Katonka she could not be compelled to tell her story on the witness stand. The prosecution charged with proof that at the time she went through a marriage ceremony with Katonka she was not legally divorced from her husband, consequently she was not the wife of Katonka.

COAST-TO-COAST AIR MAIL SERVICE IN 28 HOURS BEING PLANNED

Chicago, Sept. 26.—A twenty-eight hour air mail service between New York and San Francisco is a possibility for next spring and night flying in the mail service out of Chicago probably will commence within two months, Col. Paul Henderson, chief of the air mail service, said here today.

The plan for transcontinental mail planes provides a schedule of flying a take-off at New York early in the morning, arrival at Chicago in the evening and a night trip westward to Cheyenne, Wyo., and the completion of the journey to San Francisco, next morning, Colonel Henderson said.

The Chicago-Cheyenne stretch will be the first section to be illuminated at night, he said. Plans also are being made, he said, to provide emergency landing fields, perhaps as near as 25 miles apart, with illuminations to guide the night mail pilots.

"At present, on through mails, we lose all we gain by our average speed of 110 miles an hour," Colonel Henderson said, "in being unable to fly at night, while the mail trains keep right on. We have had to invent our own night flying devices and lights."

WILL ASK FOR A NEW TRIAL AND A CHANGE OF VENUE FOR TURLEY

Denver, Sept. 26.—John Dewees, attorney for Orville J. Turley, found guilty by a jury in the district court here last night of the murder of Mrs. Emma G. Wise, and sentenced to life imprisonment, declared today that he will file a motion for a new trial and a change of venue in behalf of Turley. The motion will be based upon an outburst on the part of spectators which led to the clearing of the court room in the closing hours of the trial, Mr. Dewees stated.

Judge Butler last night granted Dewees 30 days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

PEOPLE OF U. S. WANT WAR DEBT PAID, DECLARES

Representative Burton Tells British Sentiment in America Is Against Cancellation of Loans.

London, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—The disposition of the people of the United States is to require payment of the international debts owing to America, Representative Theodore E. Burton declared in an address today at a luncheon given by the American chamber of commerce.

Mr. Burton, who emphasized that he was speaking as an individual and not as a member of the American debt commission, said three considerations had contributed toward arrival at this conclusion.

Importance of Credit.

"First was the feeling that international credit and especially debts between nations have a certain degree of sanctity, or I might say of sacredness," he said. "No one can exaggerate the importance of credit in the modern financial and industrial world," he continued.

"Credit bridges the chasm between early and sometimes unpromising beginnings and the development of helpful enterprise. Cancellation or repudiation of debts would create not merely confusion and distrust in the financial world, but which is quite as dangerous would seriously impair its future development."

The second consideration was that the amounts loaned to the foreign countries by the United States were provided by loans obtained from the people and with no small degree of difficulty. The advances were not made for the purpose of creating a borrower's debt but were made possible by the action of the United States in becoming a borrower itself with these debts and at the same time.

Burden of Taxation.

The burden of taxation in America, he declared, was quite as heavy if not heavier than that in the European countries whose obligations are held by the United States. In case of cancellation of these debts, he asked what assurance which otherwise would be applied upon the debt payments might not be utilized for the expansion of military and naval establishments and thus create an ever-present threat of future conflict and destruction.

The third consideration, he outlined as follows: An overwhelming fraction of the advances made were after the actual close of the war and were for rehabilitation and the creation of new enterprises rather than for the prosecution of war in time of great emergency.

"It must be said that at the time these loans were made the legislation authorizing them and popular expectation both alike contemplated payment. In the war itself, the United States was subjected to the same surpassing dangers as her allies and in peace were not to be prepared for service in the Near East or any other part of the world.

ENGLAND NOT HOLDING UP ANY BATTLESHIPS DUE TO BE SCRAPPED

London, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—The British admiralty emphatically denied today that any capital ships due to be scrapped under the Washington treaty were being sent to, or prepared for service in the Near East or any other part of the world.

The admiralty further stated that these ships long since have been dismantled and ready for the ship breaker, while several others have already been broken up.

SANTA FE TRAIN KILLS TWO MEN NEAR LAS VEGAS

Pablo Archibque, 58, and William Wildenstein, 13, Lose Lives While Crossing Railroad Bridge.

Special to The Journal.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 26.—Pablo Archibque, was instantly killed and William Wildenstein fatally injured when they were overtaken on a railway bridge one mile north of the city by Santa Fe train No. 1 at 1:45 this afternoon.

Archibque and Wildenstein, in company with Emilio Yara, Sam Cashmore and Hipolito Esquivel, were walking to the city on the railroad track from the farm of C. W. Knigh, where they had been employed. When train No. 1 swung around the curve a short distance away, Yara, Cashmore and Esquivel jumped from the bridge to the bed of the Pecos river and escaped injury. Archibque attempted to reach the end of the bridge and Wildenstein lay down on the guard rail in an effort to escape injury.

Archibque was killed instantly and Wildenstein died without regaining consciousness. Pablo Archibque, who was 58 years old, is survived by his wife and five children. William Wildenstein was the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wildenstein, a brother of Carl Wildenstein, who was through the month two months ago by a playmate.

ANNUAL REVIEW OF VETERANS TO BE HELD TODAY

Wearers of the Blue Meet and Renew Friendships at the Annual Encampment of G.A.R. in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—Fifteen camps, ranging in size from companies to brigades, predominated today, the third day of the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, preparatory to the great annual review to take place tomorrow morning.

Reunions here of a number of regiments were the first in some cases for many years.

The survivors of Vicksburg and Shiloh had the largest reunions, probably for the reason that hundreds of Iowans fought with General Grant in the campaigns of Mississippi and Tennessee.

Forty survivors of the National Association of Naval Veterans attended their camp today and re-elected Commander Leomin Schofield for the coming five-year term.

Senior Vice Commander S. M. French, Chicago, was elevated to the office of commander of the National Association of Shiloh Survivors today.

Among the several thousand visitors and delegates who attended the lawn fete this afternoon was Colonel R. H. Spencer, aged 82, of Alton, Iowa, and his family. Mr. Spencer is 28 years of age. They are the parents of two sets of twin boys, William and James, aged four, and John and Robert, aged six.

PROGRESS MADE TOWARD SOLVING DOUBLE SLAYING

New Witness Declares She Heard Mrs. Mills and Her Husband Quarreling Over Church Rector.

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 26.—Discovery of a witness who declared she heard frequent quarrels between Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills and her husband, James Mills, over the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, today led authorities investigating the double murder of the pastor and his choir leader to subject Mills to another long examination.

Mills has maintained since the bodies were discovered a week ago last Sunday, that he had no suspicion concerning the relations between the slain pair—reported to have planned an elopement to Japan.

Mills' 16-year-old daughter, Charlotte, also was examined again. When the two left the court house, Prosecutor Beekman said that while some progress had been made toward solution of the mystery, it was not as much as had been hoped for.

"Are you working upon any particular theory?" he was asked.

"No, there are half a dozen chances along which we are working," declared the prosecutor, "but in our investigations as far as a possible motive but it is not the only possible motive."

"Has any one been eliminated?" he was asked.

"Nobody," he replied.

The witness to whose testimony the authorities were giving special attention today was Miss Millie Wilson, a neighbor of the Mills family, who had frequently heard Mr. and Mrs. Mills quarrel, and that recently she had heard Mrs. Mills retort, when Mills taxed her with paying too much attention to her church and her pastor, that she cared "more for Dr. Hall's little finger than I do for your whole body."

MAN AND WOMAN ARE HELD ON COMPLAINT OF FORMER'S WIFE

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 26.—Charles J. Brokaw, who says he is general sales manager of a Detroit, Mich., motor car company, and Mrs. Sue Harper of Sioux City, Iowa, were arrested at a local hotel and arraigned in police court today on complaint of the man's wife, Mrs. Helena Brokaw, of Detroit. Mrs. Brokaw said she came from Detroit to rejoin her husband for his treatment of her.

Mrs. Brokaw told County Attorney Shotwell that she had been whipped by Mrs. Harper in front of her Detroit apartment eight years ago and at another time tore the clothes from Mrs. Harper's back. "My husband bought her those clothes with money he should have spent on me," Mrs. Brokaw said.

"Mr. Brokaw was a wonderful husband to me until he met this other woman," she said. "Then he began to lie to me. I heard of this other woman. I met her and gave her a whipping."

The case was continued until October 24.

ANOTHER BONUS BILL WILL PASS WITHIN 3 MONTHS, PREDICTION

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 26.—Hansford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, declared today that "another national bonus bill will be passed within the next three months."

"It will be house bill and senate bill No. 1. The fight has just begun," he asserted.

Asked if the national legion would assist in securing the state bonus in Iowa and Illinois, Commander MacNider replied, "I am sure that the state bonus is entirely up to the state departments."

PRO AGENTS ON SEAS ARE SHORN OF SOME POWER

Search of Foreign Vessels for Liquor, Outside the Three-Mile Limit, Is Restricted by New Ruling.

Washington, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—Curbing of the activities of American prohibition enforcement officers on the high seas was decided upon today by President Harding and his cabinet.

Search of foreign vessels for contraband liquor outside the international three-mile limit may be made hereafter, it was stated authoritatively, only in the event that vessels actually establish communication with American shores by means of their own crews or small boats. Search under such circumstances would not be legal, recently by Federal District Judge Morton at Boston in the case of the British schooner Grace and Helen. An appeal in that case has been taken to the supreme court and it was stated that a decision would be hastened.

Foreign vessels outside the three-mile limit unloading their cargoes of contraband run out to sea from American shores would not come within the federal law, in the view of high administration officials. The American craft undertaking to find the contraband, however, would be subject to search and seizure.

Enforcement of the prohibition act now, which for some time has been the subject of diplomatic exchanges between the American and British governments, occupied much of the time of the cabinet. Search of foreign vessels for contraband liquor with twelve miles of the coast line has been undertaken by prohibition officers under the direction of customs officials and under a more than century-old customs law. The executive and his advisers took the view that there were some authorizations in this treaty of having with present custom law which, if carried out, probably would involve the United States in international embarrassments.

Regulations in accord with the decision of the cabinet and affecting the customs service as well as the prohibition bureau will be issued as soon as practicable. It was stated tonight at the treasury that customs service will be affected, it was explained, because the prohibition officers are under the personal direction of a customs official who decides what action shall be taken by it as a vessel.

Prohibition Commissioner Haynes said the prohibition bureau in supplying craft "simply had furnished the vehicle" for the normal, legitimate operations of the customs authorities. He requested from the treasury for an appropriation to cover a similar arm of the customs service having failed in congress. Emphasizing that his bureau would accept any suggestion from the treasury as "a law," Mr. Haynes said there had been no instance, so far as his personal knowledge went, of a prohibition official having stopped or boarded a ship, outside the three-mile limit.

Rail Signalmen Conclude Arguments Before Labor Board for Higher Pay and Eight-Hour Basic Day.

Chicago, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—Presentation of testimony before the National Labor Relations board today by the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen and forty-two carriers and subsidiaries ended late today at the conclusion of arguments by representatives of the eastern, southeastern and western railroads. The union is requesting its old war time wages with differentials above or below the classes and a return of the eight-hour basic day.

John Higgins, western roads' spokesman, and John G. Waller, representative of the eastern roads, confined their presentations to the two main issues—wages and rules. Both decided that there have been sufficient changes in economic conditions since the last wage reduction—July 1, 1922—to warrant an increase in the rate of pay or changes in working rules.

The union based its argument for wage increases on the general upward trend of wages for similar work in other industries and the advance cost of living.

No intimation as to when the board would announce its decision was forthcoming. However, it was considered possible that its final ruling will be made public in conjunction with or soon after its ruling in the maintenance of wage case—expected about October 1.

Thursday the labor board will hear the petition of the train dispatchers' organization on thirty-nine railroads and subsidiaries. It is expected that the board will rule on the petition by the end of the month.

PUP IS FAITHFUL TO MASTER UNTIL DEATH

New York, Sept. 26.—Faithful to his master until death, a bull pup stood by the side of John Bracken, watchman, trapped in the Long Island City today until flames had consumed the building and smoke choked the master's shouts and the dog's barks for help. They were found dead, the dog's head on his master's chest.

TURKS SHOW NO DISPOSITION TO WITHDRAW FROM CHANAK REGION

Instead of Quitting the Neutral Zone, Another Detachment Numbering 1,000 Crosses Border.

London, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—Anxiety is renewed in the British government that the Kemalists officers to order the withdrawal of Turkish cavalry from the Chanak zone in the Dardanelles. Instead of withdrawing, another detachment numbering 1,000 has crossed the border from Bigha.

ADMIT THE SITUATION ENTAILS MUCH DANGER

Russia Will Not Recognize Any Settlement of the Turkish Question Unless She Is Represented.

It is stated in extension of these movements that they were ordered before receipt of the allied joint note, and the British authorities therefore are making every prudent allowance of the difficulties of communication and the possibility that Mustapha Kemal is making a dash for the border from Bigha.

General Harrington, British commander of the allied forces in Constantinople, has stipulated a time limit of forty-eight hours for withdrawal of the Turks, but considering that the Kemalists are making every prudent allowance of the difficulties of communication and the possibility that Mustapha Kemal is making a dash for the border from Bigha.

The British military authorities, while thus doing their utmost to avert any further trouble, do not conceal that the situation entails much danger. The Kemalists apparently contend that the British and allied governments should wait until the situation during the sittings of the proposed peace conference or, conversely, that the Kemalists should be permitted to continue troops movements during the negotiations. In this case, although the British are believed that Kemal is not desirous of provoking a conflict, apprehensions will continue until the invading army is repelled.

No formal cabinet councils are being held here, but the ministers and defense experts are meeting daily at the colonial office, dealing with military questions and arrangements for removing refugees from Smyrna.

Until Kemal's reply is received there will be no diminution in the war preparations, and as according to the British side, Esad Bey, the Ankara government will insist upon the admission of Russia, Persia and Bulgaria to the conference, there will be many difficulties to overcome before the conference actually meets. It is thought that the British government is less averse to Russia participating than are the French.

The Russian soviet government has addressed another note to the powers, putting forward a strong plea for the inclusion of Russia, Bulgaria and other interested nations in the conference. In Turkish question and refusing to recognize any settlement unless Russia is a party thereto.

Reports from Athens tonight show that the ministerial crisis at Athens has already begun, the Greek government's refusal to recognize any settlement unless Russia is a party thereto.

Technical reinforcements were disembarked at Chanak today and further naval units are en route to Constantinople. The home government has requisitioned the liners Manana and Corsican, both of British registry, as troop ships and they will leave in a few days for the Near East.

One effect of the crisis will likely be the disappearance of the suits of the Constantinople government. Mustapha Kemal probably become grand vizier of the new united Turkish administration.

Troops entrenching in the neutral zone.

Constantinople, Sept. 26 (By the Associated Press).—It is reported that the Turkish nationalist troops are entrenching in the neutral zone of the Dardanelles.

The Turks refuse to recognize the neutral zone and declare they will hold their position.

Kemalist forces also occupied the town of Bigha. The British made representations against this, but these were not heeded.

The region from Pandik to Yaprak along the Anatolian railway, has been proclaimed a zone of operations by the British. The civilian populations of the villages within the zone have been ordered to evacuate and the British are digging three lines of trenches.

GERMANY'S FLOATING DEBT SHOWS INCREASE

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Germany's floating debt increased between September 1 and September 20 by 19,473,000,000 marks.

A Berlin dispatch, September 16, said the floating debt of Germany during the first ten days of September had increased by 10,345,000,000 marks.

LOBO FOOTBALL SQUAD ANNEXES HEAVY CENTER

Varsity Battle With Indian School Saturday Looms Up as Anything But a One Sided Practice Game

The Lobo football line will be materially strengthened by the addition of Dutton, 230-pound center from Louisiana, 230-pound center who registered at the U. N. M. yesterday morning. Dutton has played three years with Louisiana state at center and guard, and with his weight and experience will be a valuable addition to the varsity line. He is a little over-weight now, but will be able to get down to his regular playing weight of 230 pounds within two or three weeks.

John Poppey, Lobo captain and tackle, will be out of the game for at least two weeks with a sprained knee, and Hopkins 200-pound tackle, will be unable to practice for several days because of an infected finger caused by a cut received in scrimmage several days ago.

Couch Johnson is predicting a hard game with the Indians Saturday, and is by no means confident of victory. The Indians have been practicing strenuously for the varsity game Saturday for more than six weeks.

FOREST SERVICE LISTS ALL GOOD WINTER RANGES

Survey Also Made of Sections Where Cut Feed Is Available at Reasonable Prices for Wintering.

A survey of all the available feed in the nearby western states is being made by the forest service, according to an announcement made by F. C. W. Pooler, district forester. The object of the survey is to assist the stockmen who are facing severe winter losses by reason of the drought and lack of feed on the New Mexico ranges.

"One-fifth of the cattle and sheep in the state graze on the national forests," Mr. Pooler states, "and heavy losses will occur in many places unless the stock is moved before winter."

The forest service has utilized the whole organization of the department of agriculture in locating excess feed or range and in determining the prices at which it is available.

By request of the district forester the bureau of markets has all of its men in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas and at large market centers looking up farmers and ranchers who can take care of cattle or sheep and the rates at which winter range will be provided and those who have hay and other feed for sale and the prices that are asked therefor.

Forest officers at supervisors headquarters in Albuquerque, Alamogordo, Magdalena, Santa Fe, Silver City and Taos or at any ranger station will be very glad to furnish to any stockman information concerning range and winter feed conditions in the various places where such may be obtained together with the names of persons who may be written or seen in regard to arrangements. District Forester Pooler stated yesterday.

Reports from the various states and regions within reasonable distances of New Mexico cattle and sheep growers show that there is probably plenty of pasture and rough feed to be had at fair prices if it is possible to get the cattle and feed together. It is quite apparent to forest officers that farmers and ranchers in other states are going to assist New Mexico stockmen by making prices right and by co-operation in the handling of stock so as to cause the least inconvenience and expense, Mr. Pooler said.

California, Idaho and Texas have all the cattle they can carry. Colorado has private range for a few thousand head and some localities are offering several thousand tons of clover and timothy hay at about $6 per ton. In Wyoming there are quite a number of ranchers who can handle outdoor bunches of from 100 to 500 head and there is also good hay for sale. Farmers in Kansas are offering to buy cattle outright or to feed on a per head or per ton basis or on shares. Oklahoma has no excess range but hay dealers have large stocks of fine winter hay with prices ranging from $7.50 to $9.50. The United States of northeastern Utah has from 10,000 head with pasture and cheap hay. The Vernal Commercial club agrees to take responsibility for receiving cattle, for distributing them for feeding and for gathering them up again in the spring.

Possibly the best information is from New Mexico. Offers of cheap range and thousands of tons of hay at $2 to $5 a ton in the state with ample feeding privileges and shelter may appeal to individual or groups of stockmen.

This general information as well as of additional reports that are arriving daily at the district headquarters may be had from any officer of the United States forest service. They are being sent to every field man as soon as received.

NEXT ROTARIAN CONVENTION TO BE AT TUCSON

District Club Officers Complete Plans for Year's Work; Are Luncheon Guests of Local Club.

The next district conference of Rotary club members will be held at Tucson, Ariz., on March 23 and 24, it was voted at the meeting of the officers of the eighth district at the officers' conference yesterday morning. The officers' conference closed its two-day session here yesterday afternoon.

The Albuquerque Rotary club luncheon yesterday was turned over to the two dozen visiting officers of New Mexico, Arizona and El Paso clubs, who were guests of honor. The governor of the eighth district, the popular "Governor Charlie" Crispy, of the Phoenix club, presided over the meeting, assisted by Dr. LeRoy S. Peters, president of the Albuquerque club. C. E. Case, president of the Tucson club, led the group singing.

The principal after luncheon talk was made by William H. Springer, president of the Las Vegas club, who spoke on club attendance. He stated that there had been a 30 per cent increase in attendance at International Rotary club meetings in the past three years. He attributed the increased interest to better programs and a deeper feeling of club companionship and co-operation.

Porter Thiede, president of the El Paso Rotary club, told of the program of work before that organization and of the results of the boys' work department. The Boy Scout troop sponsored by the El Paso Rotary club is in reality a 60-piece band, he said. The Rotary club has also built a swimming pool for the boys in the city. Boys' work was touched upon at yesterday morning's meeting of the officers as well. Various clubs reported entertaining high school boys at club lunches and participating in student athletics. C. M. Barber of the local club, spoke of the annual dinner for the high school graduates and the effect in promoting the pursuit of higher education.

The greater part of the morning session was given over to a discussion of better business methods within the clubs and of methods of financing district conferences. Plans for the next club conference at Tucson were made. The officers before adjourning passed resolutions expressing appreciation of the hospitality of the Albuquerque Rotarians.

A STENOGRAPHER'S ROMANCE

By JANE PHELPS

STUDY AND HARD WORK.

Chapter 8.

Both Cora and Gladys were capable and efficient girls, earning a fair salary. Cora, like many, perhaps most, working girls they helped at home—Cora her widowed mother, Gladys her younger brother and sister. They could spare little for Nellie, yet she must be better dressed before she looked for work.

Nellie was progressing rapidly. Cora found it a real pleasure to teach her, she was so grateful, tried so hard to learn. She insisted upon keeping their room in order, and doing little things for Cora as well. She washed their waists, handkerchiefs, collar and cuffs, other bits of lingerie, and ironed them far better than the laundress Cora had been able to afford. She also did all the errands, buying what few provisions they dared cook or eat in their room.

When Cora begged her not to do so much she replied:

"A nice sort I'd be if I didn't! Sometimes it makes me most sick I can't do more for you after all you've done for me, picking me up and out of the street and making a man of me."

"Making a man of what? That's what I said. I wasn't anything but a poor slob of a girl that nobody wanted—and look at me now!" She flung out her chest, hands on hips, so comical an expression on her face that Cora shrieked with laughter.

"I don't see how I ever lived without you, Nellie."

"You lived all right, but I guess you didn't laugh much here all alone, and one of Miss Carter's boarders said: 'Laughing was good for folks.'"

"She was right. It is. And I didn't laugh much until you came, Nellie. I guess I was getting to be pretty moody."

Cora knew how to sew, and she bought some material and made Nellie a dress, just a simple little serge, inexpensive but suitable for an office. With white collar and cuffs, a new pair of shoes, Nellie would get along much better. Perhaps by the time she needed it, she would be able to earn a hat and coat.

Now began the hunt for a position. Day after day she looked at advertisements, but her lack of experience and references were, she told Cora, a slap in the face everywhere she went.

"Say, Cora, what makes men get fresh with me? I know they don't with you? They act as if they didn't believe I wanted work, some of them—they that don't tell me right off that I have wasted their time because I've had no experience."

"I guess they think you look too young," Cora parried.

"Nix on the young! It's because I don't know anything, that's what it is. They want good stenographers. If they get hold of one who has fine references, and has worked other places they ain't going to slice off their own noses by getting fresh with her. But when I say I ain't got any references, that I am willing to work cheap till they see what I can do, they just laugh—and either get fresh, or tell me to get out."

"Why don't you try something else, Gladys, who was with them, asked."

"No Sirree! I set out to be a stenog, and I'll be one! That is if I don't get so old I have rheumatism in my wrists before I find a job."

"I'll speak to a woman I know who runs an employment bureau for girls. She used to have the rule she wouldn't help any girl who hadn't good references, and some experience. But it won't do any harm to ask her."

"You bet in won't! Oh, Gladys, perhaps she will help me. I heard a traveling man say: Miss Carter's say once."

"What ain't worth asking for ain't worth having."

"You heard a lot at Miss Carter's, didn't you?" Cora broke in.

"A sight more'n they thought I did. Mostly it wasn't any good for me to hear—nor for any young girl. But it warned me a lot, just like I told you, Cora, about studying with you now for three months. I know I could do the work if I could get it, Gladys. You won't forget to ask that woman will you?"

"No, dear, I'll see her at lunch time tomorrow."

"Good! Perhaps she'll give me something because she likes you."

"Not a very business-like reason, Nellie."

VOGUE FOR WHITE EVENING COSTUMES IS GAINING FAVOR

By ELOISE.

All white has been popular since early last spring and it is gaining favor for fall and winter, particularly in the realm of evening costumes. Gowns and wraps of lovely white materials with no color to relieve them are being shown for every age from debutante to dowager. Chiffon, velvet, crepes and satins are the materials used and silk embroidery, silver embroidery or pearl or crystal beading are the favored trimmings for these all-white gowns.

Shown here is a simple evening gown which illustrates not only the new style but the vogue for white as well. It is made of a heavy quality of crepe satin and almost completely covered with a simple design in crystal beads. It is a sleeveless model built on Grecian lines with a blouse which is long and draped at the waist line and a draped skirt. Even the collar of the wearer hints of Greece with its strands of pearls worn in the Athenian style.

with tweezers that have blunt ends, bleaching the fine hair if it shows. The reason for using blunt end tweezers is because they grasp the hair, pulling it out from below the skin, whereas sharp ends clip off the hair like shaving.

Hettie: Use cream abundantly every day and after you have fully recovered from these operations your skin will not be so in need of feeding. A plain oil is not as satisfactory for the complexion as a cream but a cream, to be nourishing, must be made of vegetable oils.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

MORE ANSWERED LETTERS.

L. B.: "Have you a recipe for sour cream frosting for cake?"

Answer: I am sorry, but I have not. Here is a filling recipe, however:

Sour Cream Cake Filling—Sweeten and chill a cupful of sour cream. Whip it, keeping it cold while doing so, and when stiff fold in one cup of chopped nut-meats. If, for any reason, the cream does not become stiff, add one teaspoon of softened granulated gelatin as you finish whipping, and place the cream on ice until stiffened.

Mrs. R. A.: "I have no linen closet in my new home, where should I put my linen?"

Answer: I have an enameled gas range before this, but now I have one of plain iron. Shall I blacken it?"

Answer: I. Buy an old-fashioned bureau without mirror and stand it in your upper hall, to use in place of a linen closet. 2. It is better to oil your gas stove instead of blacken it.

D. B.: "How can I keep stored linen from turning yellow?"

Answer: Wrap it in blue tissue paper, then in white paper, and lay away.

P. E. C.: "I would appreciate it if you would reprint directions for knitting gauntlet mitts for ages from 6 to 10."

Answer: At present I have no such directions but I shall try to find them for you to publish here.

Peg G.: "Please tell me how to get an ice cream stain out of a dark blue Canton crepe dress."

Answer: "Use naphtha, benzine or ether. But do not use them near heat or flame. Of the three, ether is least apt to leave a "ring" on the goods. There is another method which is surer, but this is apt to remove dye or also leave a "ring"; you could try it out, however, on a leftover scrap of the material before going ahead with the dress, so I will give it here:

To remove an ice cream stain from a fabric: Sprinkle the spot with powdered borax, place in cold water, let soak for a few minutes, then pour boiling water through it. This is fine for cotton goods, especially white.

Mrs. L.: "A while ago I saw a request in your column for a formula for rose water. Here is mine, which a nun kindly gave me: To make rose beads: Run rose petals repeatedly through your food chopper (using the finest chopper knives), until reduced to a smooth, pulpy mass. Spread this pulp thinly over sheet iron pans and sit at intervals. The oxidation of the iron soon turns the pulp a dense black, although the operation may be hastened by stirring into the pulp a small quantity of tincture of iron. As soon as the pulp has become dry enough to retain its form, shape it into any shape desired and pierce each bead with a hat pin, leaving it on the pin till perfectly dry and the danger of shrinkage is over."

Answer: Thank you so much, Reader Friend, I knew somebody would respond to the request of the reader who wanted those directions. I hope everybody who is cynical about the generosity of human nature, will read this!

Theaters Today

"B" Theater—Repeating today the William De Mille production, "Bought and Paid For," starring Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt; also repeating the "Fats" Review and "Current Events" pictures.

Crystal Opera House—Repeating today the vaudeville acts and stunts at the Crystal, with afternoon matinees and night show.

Lyric Theater—That great picture, "The Prodigal Judge," featuring an all-star cast, headed by Jean Hersholt, is being repeated today; also repeating "Building Up" comedy.

Pastime Theater—"The Lone Star Ranger," with William Farnum in the title role, proved a good success yesterday and it is being repeated today; also repeating the "Fox News," "Cartoons" and the comedy, "The Riot," with Jimmy Aubrey as the star.

TENSE SCENE DURING THE FILMING OF PLAY, "BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"

In William De Mille's screen version for Paramount, of George Broadhurst's noted play, "Bought and Paid For," which is being repeated today at the "B" theater, there is a scene wherein Walter Hiers, who is playing the role of Jimmy, breaks a valuable vase while calling at the home of the wealthy fiancée of his sweetheart's sister.

When it came to making that scene there was almost as much tension and anxiety as to whether or not the vase would break correctly and the scene appear natural, as if the actor had really prepared to shatter a costly vase instead of the prop provided by the studio plaster makers.

"Do you think it'll break all right?" asked Walter, anxiously.

"I am sure of it," asserted Mr. De Mille, but of course, no one knows anything like that for certain, as directors have often found at a critical moment.

Agnes Ayres, playing Virginia Blaine, Leah, who portrayed Fanny and Jack Holt, as Stafford, waited expectantly and with bated breath. The camera signal was given, the scene was worked up and Walter Hiers let the vase drop. As it fell even the camera men seemed to hush their noise and then, it parted nicely just as was required, and a long sigh of relief went up from all concerned.

"THE PRODIGAL JUDGE," MADE IN TENNESSEE, REPEATING AT LYRIC

Tennessee the locale of Vaughan Keister's famous story, "The Prodigal Judge," which has been made up by Vitagraph into a special production, and which is being repeated at the Lyric today, is the actual scene of most of the picture version.

The story, conceived and directed by Jean Paley and under the direction of Edward Jose, went south to make the final scenes in the foliage and surroundings described by the author.

Several members went to the St. Lawrence river where the famous LaChine rapids and Cedar rapids form the background for several exciting scenes.

SURGEON GIVES UP A QUART OF HIS BLOOD TO SAVE A PATIENT

New York, Sept. 26.—Dr. Felix Scardapane, Brooklyn, surgeon, gave up a quart of his own blood yesterday to save the life of a patient, and it was learned today in hospital announcement that the patient, Mrs. Rose Pasquerella, would recover.

After a diagnosis Saturday Dr. Scardapane said a transfusion of blood was necessary to save Mrs. Pasquerella's life. Her husband, recently employed after months of illness, was unable to leave his work and there was no other source available. Dr. Scardapane called in two other surgeons and underwent the operation himself.

GREB IS WILLING TO MEET BATTLING SIKI

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 26.—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, American light heavyweight boxing champion, declared here tonight he was ready to fight Battling Siki, Senegalese conqueror of Georges Carpentier, "any time, anywhere, for any reasonable amount of money."

"I have had three offers already to meet Siki," Greb asserted, "and to all of them I have replied that I am ready to talk business as soon as he signs a contract."

THE FACE IN THE MIRROR

Your face, does it wear the contented expression of good health, or are the features drawn and pallid? In the latter case, your story is read by all who see you, and what woman of spirit wants to be pitied for her physical condition? There is a way to get the nervous, tired lines out of your face and the slump out of your body. The use of the standard remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will strengthen the nerves and tone up the system to resist that excessive fatigue.—Adv.

A FOOD

Combining the nutritive elements of these whole grains thoroughly and scientifically blended.

ECONOMY

Four heaping tablespoons of GRAPE-NUTS for the usual part of a meal is sufficient for an ordinary person. More may be used if desired.

NET WEIGHT TWELVE OZS.

THE bottom rungs are badly overcrowded, but there is still plenty of room at the top.

What is it that has lifted others—and can lift you—to a higher place upon life's ladder?

Abundant energy for every-day use, and ample reserve energy for emergencies.

If you have the ambition to succeed, and want to keep your whole body charged with driving energy, feed your body scientifically. In place of heavy, starchy, too highly seasoned dishes, eat food such as Grape-Nuts, which supplies unusual nourishment to all the body tissues without overtaxing the digestion or clogging the system with poisonous waste matter.

Eaten with good milk or cream, Grape-Nuts is a complete food, particularly rich in mineral elements—which are so necessary for normal and vigorous development.

The sturdy nutriment of wheat and malted barley is made easily digestible by more than 20 hours' baking which also accounts for that distinctive charm of flavor found only in Grape-Nuts.

Where you don't find Grape-Nuts, you won't find people!

LITTLE PROTEST AGAINST PAVING AT FIRST CALL

Small Percentage of Owners on Gold, Lead, Silver, Eighth and Tenth Oppose Improvement.

The first of the paving protest hearings, held last night by the city commission, developed that there is no formidable opposition to the improvement of West Coal avenue, West Silver avenue, West Lead avenue, South Eighth street and South Tenth street, in the districts outlined in the new paving program.

The meeting was attended by about forty property owners, some of whom came to protest and some of whom came to speak in favor of the paving. The protests, by front footage, are as follows:

West Lead avenue, 10 protests, 633 feet; West Gold avenue, one protest, 50 feet; West Coal avenue, 10 protests, 645 feet; West Silver avenue, one protest, 50 feet; South Tenth, one protest, 50 feet; South Eighth, no protests. Total footage of protests, 1,389 feet.

The total number of property owners affected and notified is 219 and the total footage is 11,490 feet. John Baron Burg headed a list of protestants against the paving of West Coal avenue between Sixth and seventh streets until next year, saying that the opposition at this time was because of heavy expense already incurred by the 1922 paving, but that next year he and the other protestants would not offer objection. He said that protests would be filed on the same basis against the paving of South Seventh street between Lead and Coal avenues.

Several persons were present to urge that the width of the paving be such as to make possible the saving of valuable shade trees, and the commission promised to give that phase of the matter serious consideration.

Decision Next Tuesday.
That proper time might be given to consider the protests in relation to the entire paving program, the commission decided to reserve its decision on last night's protests and those that may be received at other hearings during the remainder of the week.

W. H. Booth told the commission that he opposed the paving because the paving certificates draw a higher rate of interest than other city indebtednesses.

Other hearings are to be held at 7:30 o'clock each night this week, as follows:

Wednesday, September 27—West Gold avenue, Park avenue, North Tenth street, North Eighth street, North Sixth street.

BUENA VISTA OWNERS APPROVE PLANS FOR PAVING TO STATE U.

What appears to be the last obstacle to the East Central avenue paving from the city limits to the university was removed last night, when Col. D. K. R. Sellers received a cablegram from Lyons, France, from Paul Williams, joint owner with J. R. Wilson, of the Buena Vista addition, agreeing to the proposed improvement. Mr. Williams had previously signed the property owners' petition.

Hoping to hasten the improvement, Col. Sellers cabled Mr. Williams several days ago, asking for his approval of the project. The addition controlled by Mr. Williams and Mr. Wilson has a 600-foot frontage on Central avenue.
