CASUALTIES IN WORLD-WAR FOR MONTH OF AUGUST MUCH LESS THAN FOR JULY

By Associated Press.

None of the three big campaigns now in progress on the western front seem again to have got into full swing. General Cameron, whose great drive for Trieste is perhaps the most spectacular, is displaying activity more pronounced than either of General Petain or Hal at their respectivefields at Verdun and in Arna, Flanders. Even the Italian's commandant, however, appears to be in the midst of one of the phases characteristic of virtually all great drives against so strongly fortified positions in this war.

None of the official statements report important actions although the British forces on the Rhine front were engaged in much notably heavy fighting during August including at least one great storm of the Anglo-French forces in Flanders. The casualties were not made public last week.

The British figures for August given by London total 58,811 compared with 73,912 for July.

Rev. E. H. Barth will fill the pulpit at the Baptist church here Sunday morning and evening. He has chased a very good meeting at Monmouth, and as he finds it necessary to come this way going to Abilene, Texas, he will be here tomorrow.

The Triumphant March of

WHEN we announced Bevo recently, our hopes were high. We knew that we had the most unusual soft drink that had ever been offered: A beverage combining the nutritive extracts of wholesome cereals, the zest of Saazer Hops, a flavor all its own and absolute purity. We knew this because, true to our own ideals, we had experimented for years before we were satisfied to say, "We offer you Bevo—it is a different soft drink—it is good and it is good for you."

High as were our hopes for its reception, we have realized them far and beyond our expectations.

Bevo today is an established popular success. Everywhere the same question is asked—"Have you tried Bevo?"

Now, one final word. We promise you that, in accord with the known principles of Anheuser-Busch and all its products, Bevo not only will forever maintain its present high standard of quality, but as time goes on our great endeavor shall be to make this soft drink even more perfect in every detail of its good- ness.

You will find Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

Guard against substitutes. Have the bottle opened in front of you, first seeing that the seal is unbroken and that the crown top bears the Fox.

REV. U. T. TRACY DEAD.
The venerable clergyman, Rev. U. T. Tracy, father of our fellow townsman, F. G. Tracy, died Thursday morning shortly after midnight at the home of his son in La Huerta. He was eighty-eight years of age, was born in New York city April 18, 1820. His son, Francis, went to New York a few weeks ago and brought his father home with him to see the change which would prolong his days. But time has made his sleep perfectly natural and he seemed to travel in national politics, yet the son did not suffer but wanted to sleep. And when the Reaper came that night and conveyed him to his heavenly home, the family might look back over four some and eight years and profits by his usef

He was selected to preach the gospel April 18, 1869, in Christ Church, Bay Ridge, now a New York City church. This church was his first charge. Two years later he was married to Miss Frances May Stewart, a native of Iowa born 1862. She was the daughter of Bryan S. Stevens and Francis Galloway. This union of three children were born, who hope for a reign of righteousness upon this earth. They are tenderly guarding the casket with the young son. George Tracy and family, arrive here.

It is important to know how many members can be obtained and how many workers are willing to give time in making supplies needed by the suffering thousands in the war-wrapt world. The call for help will not wait. It is now with the wounded soldier in the trenches or the starving baw in the war zone.

ROED CROSS ITEMS.
A joint meeting of the committees on membership and propaganda was held on Thursday afternoon to devise a plan for increasing the local membership of the Red Cross.

After various suggestions were dis- cussed it was decided to make a house to house canvass of the town. By doing this everyone will have an opportunity to join or not join. It was the opinion of the members of both committees that many had not been invited simply because the matter had not been presented to them directly. Now everyone in Carlsbad will have an opportunity to answer that invitation of the great Captain of Israel, who said to patriarchs and slacks-

s, "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve" the cause of humanity and of righteousness and anarchy the cause of the Kaiser.

The following were appointed to solicit memberships: Mrs. John Merchant and Mr. Mary Thorne, Canal street, Greene Hepburn and La Huerta.

Mrs. W. H. Jenkins and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, Canna street.

Mrs. Clarence Bell and Mrs. V. V. McCullum, Guadalupe and Alamada streets.
