Huehl, a teaming contractor, was announced today by State's Attorney A. V. Smith of Lake County. Smith said that after a review of the case he gave Huehl choice between the two alternatives and Huehl, a lifelong resident of the county, chose to take his family and stay in life over elsewhere.

KEMALIST PEACE PROPOSALS ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE

They Are Merely "Discussable," Is Decision Reached; Will Be Laid Before Conference Today.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—The Kemalists' proposals which will be held formally before the Mudania conference tomorrow are "discussable, but not acceptable." This was the decision of the extraordinary council, which met at the British embassy this afternoon. It included the allied high commissioners, ambassadors, generals and admirals.

M. Franklin-Bouillon, the French envoy, through whose efforts with Kemal Pasha the conference was made possible, expressed his confident belief to the Associated Press correspondent this evening that an agreement would be reached at Mudania.

"Kemal will make an even greater effort for peace than he has made for war," he said.

Two of the most important questions to be discussed at the conference will be demarcation of new neutral zone on the Asiatic shores of the Dardanelles and at Ismail, and the evacuation of Thrace.

The allies hold that Kemal's demands as outlined by M. Franklin-Bouillon are of such a nature that the Ankara assembly would thereafter be in a position to reject the allied note. Kemal Pasha insists on settlement of all military questions before replying to the allied proposals. He and four of the ministers at Smyrna accepted the allied note in principle, but the attitude of the Ankara assembly is not known.

TURKISH AND FRENCH ENVOY LEAVE TODAY

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Hamid Bey, representing the Ankara government, accompanied by M. Franklin-Bouillon, the French envoy will leave tomorrow morning for Mudania on the cruiser Metz. General Mombelli, who will represent Italy at the conference will proceed on the Victor Emmanuel; General Sharpe, for France, on the Jean Bart and General Harrington on the Iron Duke.

The Mudania conference will begin at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Newspaper correspondents are to be excluded from the meetings. Daily communiques will be issued on the results of the conference and transmitted by wireless to Constantinople.

General Harrington's consenting to meet Ismet Pasha, instead of Mustafa Kemal, is causing much comment; there is a vast difference in their rank, General Harrington being commander in chief of the allied forces, while Ismet is only second in command of the nationalist army.

It is learned that M. Franklin-Bouillon has secured Kemal's pledge to suspend military movements during the armistice conference, provided the allies accept the following conditions:

One, formal guarantees concerning the evacuation of Thrace.

Two, the establishment of allied garrisons in the larger towns of Thrace.

Three, the occupation of Thrace by Turkish nationalists and demerit.

Four, transfer of the civil administration of Thrace to Kemal functionaries.

Five, evacuation of Thrace within eight days by the Greek army.

Six, occupation of the western line of the Maritza river by allied troops.

One of the British proposals will be the establishment of a new neutral zone on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles.

M. Franklin-Bouillon had an interview this afternoon with General Harrington and also meetings last evening and today with the allied high commissioners, to whom he gave an account of his negotiations with Kemal Pasha.

The presence of small detachments of Turks in the neutral zone near Chanak this morning is reported.

WOMAN DESIRES TO ENTER RACE FOR U. S. SENATE

Mrs. Mandell of Mesilla Park Writes Secretary of State She Desires to Run as an Independent.

Special to The Journal. Santa Fe, Oct. 2.—Although not supported by the action of any state or county convention, Mrs. Maud Casad Mandell, of Mesilla Park, has notified the office of the state secretary of state that she desires, under her constitutional rights as a direct descendant of officers who fought in the American revolution, to be registered as an independent candidate for United States senator.

Mrs. Mandell's letter follows:

"Mesilla Park, N. M., September 29, 1922.

"Secretary of State:

"Since we have no provisions or law governing the subject of registration of independent candidates for United States senator, I register under my constitutional rights as a direct descendant of Colonel Ephraim Martin, Sr., and Sargent Ephraim Martin, Jr., who served with General Washington at Valley Forge, to establish these United States of America.

(Signed) "MAUD CASAD MANDELL."

The candidacy of Mrs. Mandell was announced to the public through the press several months ago, together with her platform, which contained some planks rather new to the American government. Among others, was the declaration in favor of a federal act to guarantee the crops of the farmers.

Opinion of the attorney general will be asked on this question before the secretary of state decides what course to follow. It has not been the custom, heretofore, to carry names of candidates not supported by the action of some organized party or convention. There does not appear to be any authority of New Mexico law to require the printing of an individual's name on the state ticket, where such action would be solely upon the request of the individual in question. In the absence of an authoritative opinion, and of any statement from the secretary of state, it does not appear to be likely that this candidate's name will be printed.

There are elements in the republican party described by themselves as "independents," but they are made up mainly of Spanish-Americans in the central and northern part of the state. So far as can be learned, Mrs. Mandell has no affiliation with the other independents.

TURKS SEEK PACT WITH BULGARIANS AGAINST GREEKS

LOS ANGELES UNION STOCKYARDS WILL BE OPENED NOVEMBER 1

Special to The Journal. Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 2.—A railroad has been created in Los Angeles to serve livestock producers of the western states through the new Los Angeles union stockyards. It is known as the Los Angeles Junction railway and is a city owned enterprise. The city purchased last spring by executives of the Chicago Union Stockyards and associates. This site is in use for a twin development project, the Los Angeles union stockyards which will be opened November 1, and the Central Manufacturing district, modeled after the Central manufacturing district of Chicago. The belt line railway will deliver freight, including livestock, to and from all main line railroads at the through rates.

Through traffic agreements just concluded on behalf of livestock, switching charges heretofore collected by the railroads will be abrogated effective November 1, on livestock shipments consigned to the stockyards at Los Angeles. The stockyards are also recognized as a public market in an agreement that the railroads shall load and unload free of charge stock consigned to these yards. This ruling is expected to apply to feeder cattle moving from northern points into the Imperial valley which may be stopped at the yards for feed and rest. Upwards of 50,000 feeder cattle are moved into the valley every year. Through rates from the shipping point to final destination will also apply on shipments of fat cattle stopped in Los Angeles to "try" the market.

DEVELOPMENT OF RESERVE SYSTEM URGED BY MEYER

Different Elements of Nation's Banking Institutions Should Be Welded Into a Closer Unit.

New York, Oct. 2.—The financial policy of the nation should look not only toward further development of the federal reserve system but also the welding into a "closer and more harmonious unit," the different elements of its banking structure, Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation, declared in an address here today before the state bank division of the American Bankers' association.

Expressing the opinion that the fact that two-thirds of the country's banks, representing 80 per cent of its banking resources, were outside of the federal reserve system was "undoubtedly responsible in part, at least, for some of our recent difficulties," Mr. Meyer said, "We have reached a time where we must decide whether we shall continue the more or less haphazard department of our banking machinery, or whether our action shall proceed along lines based upon a comprehensive view of the needs of the country."

The fact that state banking laws frequently permit practices in which the national banks cannot legally engage, Mr. Meyer said, has created a condition of competition between the two systems which may lead to a gradual weakening of both. Discussing in this connection the agitation to permit branch banking by national banks as now permitted state banks without restriction in some states, Mr. Meyer said this practice "may be good, if carried on in a limited way, and had if permitted on an extensive scale," but whatever the opinion may be, he said, the question should be decided on its merits and not as the "product of competition between the two systems."

Agricultural financing, Mr. Meyer declared, "must be based, first of all, upon the fundamental facts of American agriculture, and second, upon the existing economic and financial structure of the country," longer term financing to meet the need of more gradual marketing of agriculture products has been shown to be an "absolute necessity," he said.

REBEL ACTIVITIES IN MEXICO CONDEMNED

Washington, Oct. 2.—Recent revolutionary activities in Mexico are condemned today in a statement issued here by Samuel Gompers, president, and the members of the executive committee of the Pan-American Federation of Labor, which urged that all Mexican citizens lend support to efforts of the Oregon government in its reconstruction program.

Mexico's future as a nation and as a people is yet to be carved, the statement says, and declares that all differences, political or otherwise, ought to be buried while an "unselfish group" of men are working out the country's salvation. The committee issued the statement, it says, because it believes the rebellious activities are the work of a few malcontents.

WILL INFIELD, OUTFIELD OR BOX FURNISH SERIES HERO?

Where will Fickle Dame Fate go to choose her 1922 world's series hero? Will she place some cunning, strong-armed hurler on this year's pedestal?

Will she choose an outfielder or infielder because of his brilliant playing ability or because of his hitting ability? Or will she seek out an almost unknown utility man as she did last year, and place the laurel wreath on his brow? Last year Johnny Rawlings, called upon to fill a gap in McGraw's infield, was the star.

FUTURE WORLD'S SERIES PITCHER ARRIVES IN N. Y.

"Long Jim" Baker From Texas Is on the Ground to Get Used to the Crowds and "All That Stuff."

New York, Oct. 2.—A fast freight train stopped in Newark, N. J., at dusk today and from one of its cars jumped a lengthy, sunburned youth, known down in far, hot corner of Texas as "Long Jim" Baker, star hurler of a semi-professional team named after a grocer for advertising purposes.

Jim came to New York on a tube train and found a cheap hotel.

"Who's going to pitch the first game?" he asked.

"Joe Bush for the Yankees and Little Artie Nehf, the left-handed giant," answered an individual whose face was buried in a sporting page.

"Well," drawled Jim. "I been expecting for some time that some of these hero days I'd be a pitcher. I'd come up to see what they're like, get used to the crowds of folks and all that stuff. Ain't never seed one afore."

Crowds Pour In.

At about 10 o'clock Jim left his freight, and for some hours previously during the day, fast passenger trains were arriving at their New York terminals, bringing crowds of minor and major league players, managers and officials and newspaper men and a fair sized bunch of fans.

It probably is true that the sectional interest is not so great when the series has for its principals two teams of the same city, but a base ball fan is like a little boy when his sister's beau is calling. He can't forego the burning desire to take a peek.

And, too, a funny thing about the world's series is why they call it that. The contesting teams always are American teams and one could hardly conceive of interest in the series being manifest in the orient, or in the far north countries of Europe.

Yet, among the writers who will report the games for newspapers from other countries are a squad from England, two from Japan, one from France, one from Russia, one from Cuba, a couple from Brazil and the Argentine, a half score from Canada and one from Sweden. The latter probably was attracted by the Giants' latest pitching addition, one Mr. Cavanaugh Cronstrom, however, is not a world series eligible.

Press Reservations.

Press reservations have been made by men representing every large city in the United States. Many are from the Pacific coast, while the minor league cities, at least the larger of them, have sent writers along with the fans. Business managers of both the clubs have announced that the requests for seat reservations are much larger than last year.

It is possible to seat about 40,000 persons in the Polo grounds, where all the games will be played. Each team will alternate in being "the home team" with the Giants enjoying the comforts of the home bench on the first day.

Whatever may be the interest beyond the Hudson in this series between the Manhattan teams, there are enough fans among the 6,000,000 folks of the Greater City to keep up a lively sputter-sputter of speculative chatter on the if's and and's and what's and why's of the chances of the teams.

Expect Much From Ruth.

"Babe" Ruth, notwithstanding the fact that he was kept out of the game for more than a month for being temperamental and antagonistic to the much revered umpires, and gave way to Rogers Hornsby, of the Cardinals, for home run honors, is expected to be somewhat of a terror to the Giant hurlers.

SPECTACULAR RACING ON LEXINGTON TRACK

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 2 (by the Associated Press).—Some of the most spectacular racing in its fifty years of history was witnessed at the opening day of the Golden Jubilee meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association here today. The feature event, the Walnut hall cup, went to The Great Vol.

Jane Reeves won the thirty-first renewal of the two-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity.

Finvarra was an easy winner in the 2:15 trot, which opened the meeting.

The closing event went to the Comet, the finishers being close in each heat and the time 2:03 1/2 and 2:03 3/4.

OBJECTS TO BLOCKADE.

Moscow, Oct. 2 (by the Associated Press).—The Soviet Russian government has sent a note to England, France and Italy protesting against the blockade of the Dardanelles and insisting upon the removal of all restrictions to the free passage of trading ships through the straits.

Austria appears to have an emergency from which it can't emerge.—Chicago Daily News.

As in bygone years, a generation and more ago, there were little groups of individuals buzzing each other beneath the stand, but no money changed hands so far as could be ascertained by representatives of the state's attorney's office who were present at the track.

Any betting was "oral" and it was hard to obtain evidence. Officials of the Illinois Jockey club expressed pleasure at the size of the crowd. They said that a continuation of this patronage would assure the return of horse racing.

Meanwhile the state's attorney announced that the evidence gathered against six alleged bookmakers arrested at the track Saturday would be presented to the grand jury.

FAMILIAR FIGURES PRESENT AT SECOND DAY OF HORSE RACING

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Hawthorne's second day of horse racing today found the old, weather-beaten track jammed with "bookies," "touts," "regulars" and other figures in sporting life who were anxious to wager their money on the outcome of the races.

As in bygone years, a generation and more ago, there were little groups of individuals buzzing each other beneath the stand, but no money changed hands so far as could be ascertained by representatives of the state's attorney's office who were present at the track.

UMPIRES ANNOUNCED FOR WORLD'S SERIES

New York, Oct. 2.—W. J. Klem and W. McCormick, for the National league, and C. B. Owens and George Hildebrand for the American league, were announced today as the umpires for the world's series by Commissioner K. M. Landis.

Until last year fourteen umpires had participated in the world's series since the first was held in 1903. At that time only two officials were used, one behind the catcher and one on the bases, as in all ordinary major league games now. The first two were Henry "Hank" O'Day and T. H. Connolly.

INSURANCE RATES FOR WOMEN ARE INCREASED

Geneva, Oct. 2.—Low necks, short sleeves, short skirts and high heels in feminine apparel have increased women as an insurance risk and several Swiss insurance companies which insured against sickness have announced that their premiums are now raised 15 per cent for women because of her curtailed garb.

GOLF TROPHIES ARE PUT ON EXHIBITION

New York, Oct. 2.—Nineteen silver golf trophies, mounted on velvet and enclosed in glass, were put on exhibition at the Commodore hotel today, which offer mute testimony that the American Bankers' association, whose 10,000 delegates are in session here, are optimists. The trophies, for which hundreds of bankers and bankettes will compete on the links during their stay here included: Two huge punch bowls; a silver wine goblet, capacity one quart; several flagons and as many loving cups; three cigarette cases and four beautifully engraved, form fitting pocket flasks.

NELLIE FINDS HER WORK

Chapter 13
"It's just too good to be true," Nellie told Cora Baker that night. There's a nigger in the woodpile somewhere, I'm sure. It isn't my luck to fall into a tub of soothing syrup. 'Needn't stay after he does; and he going at a little after four; to need to worry about me getting sick. Cora—I shan't die of overwork!"

"Be careful you don't get lazy," Cora answered. "I am so glad for you, Nellie. You must do your very best so that if anything happens he'll give you a good reference; and there doesn't so he will pay you more. You will have to have clothes on, and if you try I am sure you'll soon get raised."

"What time do you have to start working?" Gladys asked.

"Oh, grandpa gets there between 10 and 10!"

"Goodness!" the lazy Gladys exclaimed. "Trade jobs with me, Nellie! You don't mind getting up, and oh, it is so hard for me!"

"Little Nellie sticks to grandpa," Nellie answered, "but I'm going to unt that woodpile. Maybe I'll find reason why the place is so easy; maybe he doesn't pay regular or something."

"Nonsense!" Gladys returned. He probably has some little business that doesn't require long hours. Just be thankful for getting the job and don't go enquiring round."

"I'm listening!" Nellie said, her head cocked comically on one side. She was very gay, very happy. No longer would she be a drag on Cora; no longer would she have to help Mrs. Thompson with the housework—work she detested, but which she had been obliged to do for Mrs. Thompson grumbled, wished Nellie hadn't got a job.

"I'll pay you most as much he does room and board if you'll give me all your time," she said.

Nellie thanked her, but refused. To the girls she said:

SCHOOLGIRLS LIKE THE "THREE PIECE"

By ELOISE.

Here is the type of suit which is dear to the heart of the school miss. It is made of homespun, a fabric which needs little or no care in the matter of pressing and ironing. The one piece frock does away with the need of many fresh blouses while the jacket gives the effect of the smartest tailored suit imaginable. It fits the need of dress and suit combined and does away with tailor and laundry bills at the same time. What more could one ask?

Not only the school miss but her mother as well ought to favor these simple costumes. This one is made of tan and brown homespun mixture. The straight line of the frock are unbroken save for a narrow cloth belt at the waist. Pockets and a dainty collar of some kind are the only bits of trimming necessary. The coat may be made on any lines to suit the wearer. This one is a boxy model with wide sleeves, no belt and a collar that may be worn high about the throat or open.

There is here. Oh, well! I don't have anything to do with him, so I should worry."

Tomorrow—Tickets for the Theater.

"I didn't mean to stare," Smith returned in his dull way.

"Don't then!"

"He looks as if he wanted to tell me something, and doesn't, or was getting up his courage. He's a queer old thing, not so awful old either. He just acts as if somebody had set on him and squeezed all the life out of him." She told Cora when questioned about the office.

"Perhaps he's had a hard time," Cora answered slowly. "Men do sometimes. We girls are apt to think we're the only ones who have things hard, but a man who doesn't get ahead much often has it even harder I guess, especially if he has a family."

"He's a poor fish! He doesn't dare say his soul's his own when the house is there. Oh, well! I don't have anything to do with him, so I should worry."

"He looks as if he wanted to tell me something, and doesn't, or was getting up his courage. He's a queer old thing, not so awful old either. He just acts as if somebody had set on him and squeezed all the life out of him." She told Cora when questioned about the office.

"Perhaps he's had a hard time," Cora answered slowly. "Men do sometimes. We girls are apt to think we're the only ones who have things hard, but a man who doesn't get ahead much often has it even harder I guess, especially if he has a family."

"He's a poor fish! He doesn't dare say his soul's his own when the house is there. Oh, well! I don't have anything to do with him, so I should worry."

BEAUTY CHATS

BLEACH FOR DELICATE SKINS

It is always difficult to find a good bleach for a really sensitive skin. Everything affects the delicate complexion apparently to its detriment. Its delicacy is both a charm and a nuisance.

Sun and wind affect the skin easily and the ordinary bleach is only an irritant. It is easy to find a mild cream, but the action of even the best cucumber cream is sometimes very slow. I know of no bleach as effective for this sort of complexion as starch.

I mean by this the ordinary white laundry starch that comes into every household in a paper packet or a plain cardboard box. The cost of which is never more than a few cents a pound. A little bit, about a tablespoonful, should be melted in enough cold water to form a thin paste. The face should be washed with warm water and soap and rinsed with warm water so the pores are free from dirt, then a thick coating of the paste should be spread over the skin. It may be necessary to go over it two or three times in order to get a fairly thick coat. This should be left on half an hour. The starch is fairly drying so if the complexion is naturally too dry, after it is washed off, a little cold cream should be rubbed on. I frequently advise this starch treatment without the cold cream for oily complexions and enlarged nose pores.

Starch is a mild bleach and can be used every day or so with only good results. After exposure to the sun, or to a strong salt wind, it is splendid as a means of preventing freckles. It will also cool and bleach the redness that comes after even slight exposure to the sun, that every girl with a delicate skin dislikes so.

Dotty: Massage the leg that is the larger of the two until you bring it more to the size of the other one.

Hazel: As you have increased your weight at the expense of your digestion you should not try to reduce again through exercise. Correct your diet first. Eliminate much of that starchy food and the sweets but do not cut them out entirely because you have built up all this fat through them and the stomach has been taught to expect such food. Every day eat less of this kind of food and add to it new foods that build up tissue. In a month or so you will no longer have this tired feeling and will be gradually coming back to normal weight. It will then be time to include special exercises that will complete your restoration to perfect health and the proper weight.

WHOLESALE DRUG HOUSES SELLING LIQUOR, CLAIMS

San Antonio Man's Charges Are Echoed by a Number of Other Speakers at Druggists' Meeting.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 2.—The real business of many so-called "wholesale drug houses," which sprung into existence in the last three years is the sale of liquor, William Ochsie, of San Antonio, Texas, told the National Wholesale Druggists' association, in session here today. His charges were echoed by a number of other speakers at the afternoon session.

Ludwig Schiff, of Los Angeles, chairman of the committee on salesmen and selling methods, recommended, in his report, the adoption of what is virtually a profit-sharing system in handling salesmen's accounts by which, after deducting a percentage for invested capital return, a portion of the excess profits is returned in the form of a bonus. The committee also recommended the use of the telephone as a sales medium, especially for proprietary preparations, and for the almost exclusive use of the automobile by salesmen.

Generous terms of credit and leniency in collections are not kindnesses to the retailer, B. H. Gilmer, of Houston, Texas, chairman of the committee on credits and collection, declared. The committee urged that no extension of time on discounts be granted and that interest be levied on past due accounts. Credit losses have decreased in the last year, the committee reported, and sales for the first six months of 1922 show a large increase over the corresponding period of 1921.

PRONOUNCED LACK OF HARMONY REPORTED IN RANKS OF OPERATORS

Cleveland, O., Oct. 2 (by the Associated Press).—Developments late tonight indicated that there was a pronounced lack of harmony within the ranks of bituminous coal operators in session with miners here to formulate a plan for negotiating future wage scales, when it was learned that the operators in caucus this afternoon rejected a proposal of the federal government that a panel of twenty names of persons disassociated with the coal industry be submitted to President Harding for use in creation of a committee provided under the Borah-Windrow law, recently passed by congress.

GUARDSMEN ARE ORDERED OUT TO PROTECT NEGRO

Mob Threatens to Lynch Negro, Who Is Wanted for Shooting Game Warden and Deputy Sheriff.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 2.—Joe Terrell, negro, wanted here for shooting George Wilson, game warden, and Joe Parlin, deputy sheriff, Saturday night, was captured near Union Springs today. Terrell was wounded in the leg by a bullet.

He was brought to Montgomery this afternoon, and later transferred when a crowd gathered about the jail.

A mob of more than a thousand gathered about the county jail at 8 o'clock when the report was circulated that the negro had not been removed. The national guard was called out and a heavy guard placed about the jail, ropes being stretched across the street.

Herbert Miller, a white man, was shot in the hip when several shots were fired in the mob. He is not seriously injured. A negro was reported by the police to have been shot in the back by a white man about a block from the jail.

At 10 o'clock tonight, three companies of national guardsmen had been placed on duty. No one was allowed to cross the line thrown out by the guardsmen except on written order.

COLORED WORKER BRINGS MESSAGE TO HIS PEOPLE

Rev. Charles Stewart Tells Them Success Does Not Draw Color Line on Hard Workers.

Rev. Charles Stewart, A. M., D. D., of Chicago, general missionary of the National Baptist convention, colored, and one of the most noted men of his race in the country, who has been delivering sermons and lectures to his people here, closed last night with a lecture on "Civilized World Wants a Man," before a large audience which filled the colored Baptist church. Many were unable to get inside of the building. He came here at the request of State Missionary Green.

Dr. Stewart has traveled extensively through Europe and all over the United States and is one of the best posted men on racial conditions. He is conservative, and is giving to his people good common sense advice.

"To take his place as a man, the negro must realize that he will have to work his way to civilization as other races have done," declared Stewart. "Civilization is not a garment to be purchased at some downtown store and worn off at first fitting, but it represents years of toil. He cannot make it by complaints and wallows, but by industry, honesty, reliability and thrift. No time to abide any man or race, but build up yourself."

"In this busy country of ours, and especially out here in the west, we have no time for race hatred, race prejudice, race antipathy, but the white men and black men must get in harmonious working order with God and with each other and do it right now."

"We are asking our young men and women to prepare to take part in helping to build up this country out here, and there is no time to sit down and complain. We must be up and doing. These hills and mountains, this soil out here, will not draw the color line. They will not exhibit prejudice, but will give forth their wealth to the man of thrift and industry. If you are a real man, then you are wanted; but if you are a worthless, idle complainer and kicker, and God don't want you and the devil can't use you, and there is no place for you in America, then where will you go?"

LOSSES COMPEL TOM LAWSON TO SELL TREASURES

Will Be Disposed of at Auction to Satisfy Creditors of Once Familiar Figure on Stock Market.

Scituate, Mass., Oct. 2.—The treasures of Dreamworld, the once showy estate of Thomas Lawson, which he turned over to trustees for sale to satisfy his creditors, were being tagged today by appraisers. The proceeding, preliminary to disposition under the auctioneer's hammer on October 12 and 13, marked the latest chapter in the spectacular career of the man who made millions in the stock market. Dreamworld, built on speculative profits, is being sold partly because of speculative losses.

Mr. Lawson, it became known today, suffered not only in the crash of the stock market values in the post-war period but lost heavily also in the more recent failure of the Boston exchange house of Haskell & Co., which succeeded indirectly the firm of Lawson, Arnold & Co., founded by the author of "Frenzied Finance."

From the main building, Dreamworld hall and its treasures of paintings, books, rugs, furniture and bric a brac, and from the smaller buildings the extensive farm machinery and the prized lot of police dogs, the trustees expect to realize upwards of $500,000. In all, it is said, Mr. Lawson spent $3,250,000 on them. His indebtedness is placed at about $225,000 aside from such sums as courts may hold him liable for in the Haskell failure.

Dreamworld was built originally in 1900, it was understood, to satisfy a wish of Mrs. Lawson.

LEGION POST STAGES A HOME TALENT SHOW

Special to The Journal.

Artesian, N. M., Oct. 2.—The high school auditorium was overflowed on Friday evening when the Clarence Kepple post of the American legion presented the "Powder Box Revue," a home show of unusual merit. Hundreds of tickets were sold over one week ago and the entire house was packed early in the evening. Before the curtain raised, all available standing room was taken and the door was filled with people desiring admittance. The crowd at this performance was the largest crowd ever seen in the auditorium.

The saying "noth worth a rush" dates back to the days before carpets were invented, and the floors were strewn with rushes. When an honored guest was expected fresh green ones were cut and spread—but people of little consequence had to be

BROWN IS FOUND GUILTY; HIGGINS ADMITS GAMING

Man Accused of Running Gambling House Appeals; Others to Be Tried Friday Afternoon.

William Brown yesterday afternoon was found guilty of operating a gambling game in the Switzer club on Central avenue, and was fined $30 by Police Judge George Roddy. Brown, through his attorney, W. C. Henrick, appealed to the district court and the appeal bond was fixed at $100.

The cases of Santos Garcia and Joe Napoleon, accused of gambling in a game conducted by Brown, were set for Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. These men were witnesses in the hearing yesterday and denied having gambled. They said they played for chips given on the club and paid for by the two low men in each game.

Medad Higgins, who had pleaded guilty to a gambling charge yesterday morning, testified in the Brown hearing that he had played several games of pitch on Friday evening when the place was raided by Police Captain O'Grady. He said the games were played for money, and chips. Higgins said that when he entered the place, he finished a hand that had been begun by Brown.

Brown testified that he is one of the proprietors of the Switzer club. He said that gambling is prohibited there and none has been allowed. He denied having given up his hand to Higgins on Friday night. He said he had warned Higgins on a previous occasion against letting money cross the table.

Captain O'Grady testified to having seen Higgins throw a dollar on the table on the night he raided the place. He said that when the place was opened a few months ago, a closed-off room had been provided for card playing, but on orders from the police it had been thrown open.

Another man, Eilemon Martinez, who is wanted on a gambling charge, could not be found by the police yesterday. The man Attorney Claude Hutto appeared for the city in the hearing yesterday.

MAN SEVERELY ILL AIDED BY SPECIAL CHARITY FUNDS

Through the use of money from some of the funds provided for the care of deserving cases, the Bureau of Charities yesterday was able to aid a man who had reached the city in a serious condition following a recent operation. The man had come here from Colorado Springs, where he had been obliged to have one of his kidneys removed five weeks ago. He was on his way to Arizona, where he had been told by physicians, that his condition would improve.

On arriving here the man was seized with hemorrhages, and could go no farther. He ran out of money. The Bureau of Charities gave him a bed for several nights, and yesterday by the use of special funds, was able to send him on his way to his destination. He has a family in Iowa. Captain Richard Guest, in charge of the bureau, said the extra funds, which are raised from time to time by charitable persons, often are a Godsend to worthy people.

Theaters Today

"B" Theater—Adolph Zukor presents "The Siren Call," with Dorothy Dalton, supported by David Powell and Mitchell Lewis; also presenting reels of "Pathe Review" and "Current Events" pictures.

Crystal Opera House—Vaudeville stunts, with songs, dancing, etc., by a company of high-class artists.

Lyric Theater—The Goldwyn corporation presents "Come On Over," by Rupert Hughes, with Colleen Moore as the leading star; also showing the usual added attractions.

Pastime Theater—Big program today and tomorrow, Norma Talmadge will appear as the principal star in "By Right of Purchase," also "Fox News" pictures, and rattling good cartoons. Besides this program, the "Reuben Ray's Night at the Circus company" featuring Master Ray, will also appear.

BIG CROWD IN DANCE HALL SCENE, "THE SIREN CALL," AT THE "B"

Three hundred persons were employed in the big dance hall scene for Irvin Willat's Paramount production, "The Siren Call," which will be seen at the "B" theater today. These included, besides Dorothy Dalton, who plays the featured role of a dance hall girl in the Alaskan palace of revelry, David Powell, Edward Brady, Mitchell Lewis and other principals and these groups of types: One hundred and eighty miners, gamblers and prospectors; forty dance hall girls; fifty dance hall women; waiters, musicians, entertainers, bartenders and other habitués.

LEARNS THE IRISH BROGUE TO PLAY PART IN THE PICTURE, "COME ON OVER"

One of the difficulties of playing roles other than that of an English-speaking character, is learning the accent, or brogue of another nationality. Colleen Moore, who plays an Irish Miss in "Come On Over," was spared this difficulty, because she herself is as Irish as the blarney stone. To be sure Miss Moore does not speak with a brogue, but it took no time at all for her to revert to the charming one of her white haired grandmother, with whom she lives.

NORMA TALMADGE IN "BY RIGHT OF PURCHASE" AND "RAY'S CIRCUS—PASTIME"

One of the greatest film stars in the Pastime theater is Norma Talmadge. She is at the Pastime today and tomorrow, starring in "By Right of Purchase," assisted by a list of screen stars. Besides this picture, there will appear Reuben Ray and his company in the laughable stunts of "A Night at the Circus." The papers in the cities and towns where Reuben has appeared speak in high praises of the entertainers of his company, and say the Master Ray has no equal as an acrobat.

MINISTERS TO SEEK RELIGIOUS TRAINING FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

An effort to make arrangements with the city schools whereby students who so elect may be excused for religious training in their own churches, will probably be made by the Ministerial alliance of Albuquerque. The week-day religious education movement may spread to this city through the efforts of the alliance if plans made at a meeting yesterday are developed.

The plan is in operation in many cities and towns of the country. The children who wish to take the courses offered by the several churches are excused during school hours for the special work, losing nothing, however, of their regular school instruction. It is probable that an effort will be made to obtain this concession from school officials in the city.

CAR IS RECOVERED.

Raton, N. M., Oct. 2.—Bob and Catherine Kramer, sought since August 8th for the theft of a new $2,400 sedan, were brought in by Sheriff Abe Hixenbaugh from Fresno, Calif. Unrelenting effort by the sheriff's office, and tireless following of the trail of the Kramers by A. M. Van Dyke, owner of the car, is thus ended.

CITY ELECTRIC CONTESTS LEVY FOR PAVEMENTS

Brings Injunction Proceedings Against City to Test Constitutionality of Paving Assessment.

A test case for the purpose of determining the constitutionality of the present method of making paving assessments has been begun in the district court by the City Electric company against the city of Albuquerque and the city commissioners. A temporary injunction restraining them from assessing the cost of paving around the car tracks on Coal avenue was signed yesterday by Judge Harry P. Owen. The injunction will interfere in no way with paving proceedings, it was assured.

The paving in question in the suit is that between the tracks from Second to Third street on Coal avenue and for one foot on each side of the tracks and for any other paving on that street. A hearing on the temporary injunction is set for October 9 at 2 o'clock.

The complaint states that the levy made by the city is unconstitutional. The City Electric company claims that the paving is of no advantage to the city, that it makes additional expense, and that the property owners should pay for the center of the street as they do where there is no car track.

The assessment against the company for the paving in question is said to be $1,430.80 which has not yet been paid. The city, it is alleged, is threatening to file a lien against the property of the company for the amount.

BROTHER AND SISTER, CHILDREN OF SICK PARENTS, DIE HERE

Samuel Martin, aged 4 years, and his sister, Vera Rebecca Martin, aged 6 years, died on Saturday and Sunday evenings, respectively. Their going was within 24 hours of each other. The children were the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin, who came here recently from Memphis, Tenn. Their parents believe they contracted the disease before leaving their old home.

The father suffered a long illness, and shortly afterward the family was in an auto accident when a street car struck their machine. The father suffered severe internal injuries, the mother's hip was broken, and the little girl got a broken ankle. They came here to recuperate.

The two children will be buried after a funeral service this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Central Avenue Methodist church.

MOTOR CAR TOURISTS PRAISE ALBUQUERQUE

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Anderson, New York, Edith street, have returned from an automobile trip to El Paso and various points in California. They were gone four months. The tourists met on their trip, Mr. Anderson said, spoke highly of Albuquerque, saying it was the nicest city in the west and the people were courteous and accommodating. Many of the tourists, according to Mr. Anderson, said they were going to locate in Albuquerque.

A stretch of bad road was encountered south of Belen, Mr. Anderson said. The road has been plowed up, apparently, by the road gang, and is next to impassable.

INCREASED ACTIVITY SHOWN BY IRREGULAR TROOPS IN IRELAND

Dublin, Oct. 2. (By the Associated Press).—Irregular troops are showing increased activity. Small attacks by them have been reported from various points. They were repulsed by the regulars at the barracks at Mullingar and Cavan this morning.

In the fighting at Mullingar two republicans are reported to have been killed. At Cavan more than 70 irregulars made up the attacking party. The main gate to the barracks was destroyed by the explosion of a mine and then the irregulars opened a heavy fire from three directions on the barracks. There were no casualties.

STOCKMAN OF EDDY COUNTY SUED FOR $40,000 ON LOAN

Alleging that Hugh M. Gage, former stockman of Eddy county, has left the state and left behind him an unpaid loan of $40,000, the Live-stock and Agricultural Loan company has brought an attachment suit in the district court to recover the loan. A $45,000 secured by stock belonging to Gage was made to him on December 23, 1921, according to the complaint. Of this sum, $5,000 was paid. Gage violated the contract on which the note was given, by failing to brand his new cattle as required and by shipping stock out of the state, it is alleged.

TRAIN IS WRECKED; 4 PERSONS ARE INJURED

Chandler, Okla., Oct. 2.—Four persons were injured, one seriously, when St. Louis-San Francisco passenger train number ten en route from Oklahoma City to St. Louis, was wrecked two miles west of here late today.

The injured: Douglas Jones, druggist, Tulsa, internal injuries, serious; Ray Wilkes, mail clerk, bruised; Tillie Thomas, negro, Ardmore, Okla., collar bone broken.

Railroad officials were unable to account for the wreck.

THREE ARRESTED FOR FIGHTING AT BARELAS

Florencio Rodriguez, Pascual Chavez and Stephen Guzman will be given a hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Policarpo Sanchez on the charge of assault upon Feliciano Garcia and Eduardo Archibeque in Barelas on Sunday evening. The two victims are reported to be seriously injured as a result of the clubbing given them by the three men.

AROUND THE COURT HOUSE

The Continental Illustrating company of New York has filed suit against Abe Goodman of this city for the collection of $156 alleged to be due on advertising matter delivered to him.

A suit for the collection of $2,075 damages has been started in the district court by O. B. Van Cleave against the Owenwood Distributing company, a wholesale oil and gasoline firm for failure to comply with the contract made between them for the delivery of supplies.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Raymond Trauth and Helen Kelley, both of Albuquerque; Louis Griegos and Emma Perea, both of Los Griegos; Arturo Gutierrez and Benedita Munoz, both of Los Griegos; John Calhoun Boyd and Fern Nichol, both of Albuquerque; Thomas M. RATON HIGHS LOSE TO TRINIDAD IN OPENER, 14 TO 6

Raton, N. M., Oct. 2.—Raton High failed to get the breaks and lost Saturday to Trinidad High by the score of 14 to 6. For Trinidad Overton was the star. The first touchdown was made in the first quarter by Overton. Trinidad intercepted a pass started by Raton and ran for a touchdown. Trinidad kicked goal.

The second touchdown was made in the second quarter by Creevy. Raton, a straight plunge through the Trinidad line. The half ending 7 to 6 in favor of Trinidad. In the third quarter Raton tried an onside kick and Overton, Trinidad, picked up the ball and ran down the side line for a touchdown. Trinidad kicked goal. Raton made the most yardage, most of the time going through the Trinidad line for gains. Trinidad only made their yardage twice. Creevy, Higgins and Captain Odell made good yardage gains for Raton. The Raton line men were working good. Robinson at end did excellent tackling.

BICYCLE RAN INTO AUTO IS JURY VERDICT

That the bicycle ridden by Paul Boren, 14, ran into the automobile driven by Dr. Charles E. Lukens at 6th street and Central avenue, was proven in the jury verdict given for the defendant in the district court yesterday afternoon. Suit had been brought against Dr. Lukens for $5,000 damages by Charles M. Boren, the boy's father, for negligence in the collision which occurred on September 24, 1921.

The boy on his wheel crashed into Dr. Lukens' car full of children from the Children's Home and Hospital, at the street intersection when the motorist was making the turn into Central avenue. The boy was coming down hill without a light at night and was not seen by the people in the car until the crash had taken place, according to evidence.

The plaintiff charged negligence on the part of Dr. Lukens but failed to offer evidence to prove it. Contributory negligence on the part of the bicyclist was found in his riding in dark places at night without a light as is required by ordinance.

But every letter HE wrote told of another job he'd lost, so she came unbidden.

First thing she found was that her sweet-heart has promised to meet another girl at the priest's.

That was enough to get her "Irish" up. It'll cause you more laughs than you ever laughed before.

It's human—homely—and a howl.
