NO ARREST WILL

DERNIER MURDER

Street Gossip Accuses a Phoenix Business Man; Authorities Claim Evidence Is Not Sufficient

PLENTY OF GOSSIP HEARD ON STREETS
Suspect Has Offered to Give

Himself Up But Has Been Advised by His Lawyers
 Not to Do So.

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 11.—Phoenix has just about come to the conclusion that there never will be an arrest in the Derner murder case. Street gossip openly accuses one man—a prominent Phoenix business man—but the authorities claim that it is impossible to produce enough evidence against this man to warrant his arrest. And that, in short, is the summary of the Dernier case.

Ever since the body of Guy Dernier, clad only in a suit of athletic underwear, was discovered floating in the Arizona canal September 12, the name of this one particular man has been linked with the case. At present, it is said, he is out of town; his lawyers say they know where he is, but to everybody else his whereabouts are a mystery.

Sheriff Leaves Phoenix.

Tuesday morning, Sheriff John Montgomery left Phoenix in an automobile, saying he was going to Bouse, 35 miles west of Phoenix, to investigate a new angle in the Dernier mystery. But in the sheriff's automobile were a couple of high-powered rifles and to the casual observer it appeared that he might be starting out to launch a private war or else that in the Dernier case inside of 48 hours." Then, the very next day, this same official is quoted as saying, "There never will be an arrest in the Dernier case."

He might have bethought him that there was a chance for a deer down around Bouse or wherever he happened to be going.

Difficulty in sifting down reports, especially for newspaper men, is increased by supposedly official statements issued from time to time in regard to the case. One high official, for instance, is quoted as saying, "There will be an arrest."

Probably on still the next day according to reports alleged to have emanated from his office, the same official is reported to have said, "Certainly we know who killed Guy Dernier; but we can't make an arrest, because we haven't

And so it goes. Wild statements, wilder gossip, speculation, all play a prominent part in the drama of the Dernier mystery at present.

No Real Evidence.
But in all this mass of conjecture and imaginings not one single bit of real evidence has been unearthed that can be said to point to any particular person as the slayer of Dernier.

There are no grounds for an arrest, according to official statements from the county attorney's office and he sheriff. The officers are working on every view that has presented itself and, they say, they are still just as much in the dark as ever.

Street corner conversation has tried and found guilty, a thousand times, one particularly prominent Phoenix business man. But street corner juries and judges are not particularly interested in ascertaining the authenticity of evidence.

Offered to Surrender.
It is said that this particular Phoenix man has offered to give himself up but has been advised by his lawyers against such a move. His motive in offering to surrender to the authorities, it is said, by his friends, is that he wishes to rid himself of all the suspicion that has been heaped upon him ever since Dernier's body was found.

And so Phoenix, wearied and a little dazed by the whole affair, would cry quits for a time. The wild stories sent out to papers in Los Angeles and elsewhere are be-inning to get on the nerves of Phoenix citizens.

"Where do these Los Angeles papers get this stuff?" is a query ejaculated in disgust, to be heard all over town.

DIETERICH AND HIS ANTI-SOVIET FORCES
SURRENDER TO REDS

SURRENDER TO REDS
Honolulu, Oct. 11 (by the Associated Press).—General Dieterichs, head of the Vladivostok government, and his anti-soviet forces have surrendered to the reds, according to a cable dispatch received today by the Hippi Jiji, Japanese language newspaper here, from Tokio. It is stated that the surrender of the Vladivostok de-

Recent dispatches from Tokio reported that Dieterichs and his army had been badly beaten and were retreating before the onslaught of the soviet troops. The Vladivostok defenders were said to have been short of rifles, although plentifully supplied with ammunition. Soviet cavalry was attempting to cut the line of communications between Vladivostok and Nikolskoye, sixty miles northwest of Vladivostok.

STRIKE IN COAL FIELDS CAUSED ENORMOUS LOSS

It Is Estimated at $1,190,000,000 by West Virginia Man; Urges Labor and Capital to Co-Operate

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11. (By the Associated Press).—The recent strike in the coal industry caused a total loss of $1,190,000,000, J. G. Bradley of Dundon, West Virginia, former president of the National Coal association, declared here today before the annual convention of the American Mining Congress.

Resolutions condemning the fatalistic attitude of the government, deploring the entrance of government into private business enterprises, and urging industrial co-operations between labor and capital as a means of increasing production, augmenting prosperity and lowering prices, were introduced and sent to the resolutions committee.

According to Mr. Bradley, the loss in wages by the United Mine Workers of America, as estimated by the American Educational association, was $450,000,000; the loss to railroads over $300,000,000; the loss to the public in the cost of fuel, $400,000,000, and the loss to the mine operators, $400,000,000.

"The price of the struggle which has just been gone through is an enormous one. It is at least to be hoped that it has had its lesson from which both sides may profit. It also is hoped above all things that the public has learned that it too has a responsibility for the outcome of the conflict."

Mr. Bradley asserted that the coal fields in the state of Washington, Colorado, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky and that part of West Virginia south of the Kanawha river have passed out from control of the United Mine Workers.

Conditions entirely outside of the coal industry, the strike and a coal famine, Mr. Bradley declared, resulted in the agreement of operators and miners in the northern and western states, which "restored" the wage rates in effect to April 1, 1922, and undid the work of the after-war readjustment which had made rapid strides in 1921.

"Many harsh things have been said about the arbitrary methods of the operators of West Virginia independent districts," he added, "but every user of coal owes them a debt of gratitude for keeping up the supply which they need for the country over the winter."

COACH HOPES TO HAVE ALL REGULARS IN THE YALE GAME SATURDAY

Iowa City, Iowa, Oct. 11. (By the Associated Press).—We hope to have all our regulars in the Yale game Saturday and if we can throw our full strength into the contest, Iowa should play a good game, was the only statement Coach Howard H. Jones of the University of Iowa would make this afternoon as the western conference team left for Chicago, en route to New Haven, where his players will meet those of his brother Tad's in the Yale bowl Saturday.

The announcement cheered Iowa backers, however. They saw in it unofficial proof that John Held, center, and Leland Parkin, quarterback, who have been out because of injuries, would start in the game against the Blue.

Iowa's farewell to her team was an awe-inspiring one. More than 5,000 students were at the station to bid the Hawkeyes players farewell and good luck. This is the first time Iowa has traveled as far as New Haven to defend its colors.

LOST DOOR KEY FOUND IN A MAN'S STOMACH

Chicago, Oct. 11.—A door key that his father "lost" more than 20 years ago, was found by surgeons operating on the stomach of Philip J. Keifer, 59, recovering today in the Ashland Boulevard hospital.

Shown the key, Keifer said he "probably would have got a kicking" if his father had known it was responsible for losing it.

RAIN NEEDED IN MOST PARTS OF UNITED STATES

Recent Moisture Will Not Improve the Situation More Than Temporally, Weather Bureau Reports

Washington, Oct. 11.—Although the drought which had prevailed for some weeks was "effectually broken" by the recent rains, the weather bureau in a review of crop conditions, reported tonight that insufficient rain has fallen to improve the general situation more than temporarily. The rainfall was beneficial in all sections but moisture was said to be needed generally to make conditions better permanently.

In the central and eastern sections of the winter wheat belt, the rains were beneficial, the review reported, adding that satisfactory progress in seeding had been made in Missouri and Kansas. In the same territory wheat was up to a good stand but further west, conditions were not so favorable.

The week's rainfall was sufficient, said the Mississippi valley, for the germination of crops and diatom pastures are good in most portions of that territory. Corn harvesting made rapid progress almost everywhere, according to the review, which said that the previous dry weather had hastened the process of maturing. The crop was "practically safe" from frost in Illinois, while less than five per cent was subjected to frost in Iowa. The harvesting of white potatoes in the north and west made rapid progress because of the small amount of rain.

GUINARD LINE TO TEST DAUGHERTY LIQUOR RULING

Launch Steps to Test in Court Order Barring Intoxicants From Ships Flying a Foreign Flag.

New York, Oct. 11. (By the Associated Press).—Officials of the Guinard line announced tonight that they had launched steps to bring a test case in the United States supreme court of the ruling of Attorney General Daugherty that ships flying a foreign flag would not bring liquor for passengers within the three-mile limit.

The line sent its attorneys, Lord, Day and Lord, of New York to Washington today to confer with the attorney general and to arrange for petitioning for an injunction to restrain the government from putting the liquor ban into effect.

DIVA'S EFFECTS TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Geraldine Farrar's Belongings Will Be Disposed of and She Will Embark on a Concert Tour.

New York, Oct. 11.—"Memories for sale" might well be tacked above the doors of four big chambers at the fifth Avenue Auction rooms which were opened today for inspection of the effects of Geraldine Farrar, scheduled to be sold at public auction this week.

For into these chambers American famous diva has crowded all the physical mementoes of her long and brilliant career on the stage and all that could remind her of an equally famous but more brief and less successful career as the wife of Lord Telford. Gorgeous costumes, wigs, shawls and jewels she wore in her most famous roles are there in profusion. So are the rich furnishings of the home which she occupied with her actor husband—furniture, tapestries, rugs, even the rubber doormat with its initial "G."

Farrar, through with opera as she is with romance, plans to hit the trail soon in a private car for a concert tour of the United States. After that she is expected to appear on the speaking stage under the management of David Belasco.

Exhibition Draws Thousands.

The exhibition, opened today, drew throngs of Farrar devotees—from first nighters who were present a decade and a half ago, when she made her metropolitan debut, down to the youngest Gerry flappers who have watched with breathless awe, Gerry's career as a prima donna and a screen star as a bride and a near divorcee.

And what they saw established forever Farrar's reputation for lavishness. There are 875 items in all—and every single one fraught with memories of stage or shattered romance.

About 20 of the diva's most famous costumes are draped on headless dummies in one of the exhibition chambers. Among these are the red spangled frock worn during the liberty loan campaign and the court dress of blue velvet with quene's cape of blue velvet and ermine, reputed to have cost $11,000, which she wore but three times in the ill-fated La Reine Flanette.

Other Famous Costumes.

Scores of other famous costumes hang about the walls in series like ordinary garments in a clothes closet. Her Carmen robe alone would be sufficient to equip half a dozen Carmen road companies. There are six "Basil" costumes, 14 shawls, six black wigs, five mantillas, a dozen Spanish fans and enough beads, corals, brooches, necklaces, girdles, hair combs, and jet trinkets to outfit a cigarette factory full of Carmenes.

Farrar's wigs alone fill several show cases, for she invariably covered her own black hair with a wig, even in operas where her role called for black hair.

All are of human hair save two worn in the early scenes of Thais. These are of gold tinsel, for it was the custom among women of Thais' time and profession to gild their hair.

Among the brightest spots of the exhibit are the kimonos worn in Butterfly. The two—ten of these—each lying with all the others for the ultimate in gorgeousness.

Interesting Hat.

One of the most interesting hats on exhibition is the famous affair, with the blue, yellow and green ostrich plumes which she wore in Tosca. The first night she wore it, it also contained a red feather which she carried so many gasps that everybody agreed the red feather should be deleted.

Among the trappings of her romance with Lord Telford, offered for sale, are a Louis XVI drawing room set; Farrar's bedroom set of ivory enamel, the old rose damask hangings and Telford's bedroom set of Kingwood with yellow striped hangings, done a la Louis XV.

Even a picture which stood on Farrar's dressing table, showing the singer and her mother in the days of the Berlin triumphs which preceded her American debut, is for sale.

Besides there are linens, table ware and the like, all initialed "G" or "G F" and the doornat.

MAIL DELIVERY SPEEDED UP BY AERIAL SERVICE

More Than 12,000 Pounds Is Delivered Earlier Every Day, Assistant Postmaster General Says.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—More than 12,000 pounds of first class mail is delivered from three to four hours earlier each day than would be the case if the postoffice department had no air mail service, Assistant Postmaster General Henderson declared today in an address at the annual aerial meet here today.

The point of view of the department, he added, is that the people of the country are entitled to the additional speed in the matter of handling mail matter.

Mr. Henderson explained that the air mail service at the present time consists of a relay advance of mail from New York across the continent and vice versa, that is to say, we do not take any particular mail for a complete trip across the continent.

Mr. Henderson explained that "to get from the airplane all that it may offer in the shape of postal service it will be necessary to fly at night."

"With this thought in mind," he continued, "we have for the past four months conducted an extensive series of experiments and study on the subject. Our experiments and study have reached the stage where it is, I think, safe to conclude that it is entirely possible to fly at night. We expect within a few weeks to light an experiment over our Chicago field, and I predict that within six or eight months we will be able to fly from Chicago to Cheyenne at night."

"If we are successful in this it will mean that we will be able to make a transcontinental flight from New York to San Francisco in one continuous movement, flying from New York to Chicago in the day time and Chicago to Cheyenne at night and from Cheyenne to San Francisco during the early part of the second day. We should be able to maintain a schedule of twenty-six to thirty hours between New York and San Francisco if this night flying experiment proves out."

Some years ago we started to attain the same supremacy in shaving cream. First, we asked 1,000 men what they most desired. Then we worked 18 months, making and testing 130 formulas, to meet those desires better than anyone else had done.

Their 5 desires

Palmolive Shaving Cream excels, we claim, in these five major ways:

- It multiplies itself in lather 250 times.
- It softens the beard in one minute.
- It maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes on the face.
- It has strong bubbles to support the hairs for cutting. Weaker bubbles let the hairs fall down.
- Its palm and olive oil blend leaves the face soft and smooth condition.

'KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.' WOMAN PLEADS

Mrs. August Belmont Pleads Against Any Curtailment of the Peace Time Program of the Red Cross.

Washington, Oct. 11.—A stirring plea for home service work and against any curtailment of the peace time program of the American Red Cross was made tonight by Mrs. August Belmont, of New York, an influential worker in the organization and a member of its central committee, in an address before the annual convention. The session was presided over by Chief Justice Taft of the United States.

Mrs. Belmont's statements on program policy met with approval. She declared home service was one of the greatest rights and privileges of the Red Cross. "I have no sympathy for the chapter that has no home program," she said. "I have less sympathy for the chapter that says there is no need for a home program, a peace time program."

"It is a privilege and a right to serve the former service men and their families," she said, "and while she dwelt upon the great need in the Near East for relief for thousands of refugees, and emphasized the work the Red Cross would do there, she admonished the convention delegates to 'keep the home fires burning.'"

Development of public health nursing is the most important part of the Red Cross peace time program, she said.

Chief Justice Taft, in opening tonight's session, declared the difficulty in the Red Cross now was in "steering it." There was danger, he said, of spreading too wide its efforts and of "going into fields where it does not belong."

The executive committee of the democratic organization has the power to fill vacancies on the ticket and will select a nominee in the place of Mr. Macpherson in a few days, it was stated yesterday.

The men who will leave tonight are: Greener, center; Greener and Ferguson, guards; Greener and Cartwright, tackles; Bryan and Kelly, ends; Jones, half and quarter; T. Popejoy, half and quarter; Harrington, half and quarter; Hernandez, full; Hammond, half; Gremko, half; L. Hernandez, end and center; Stinnett, tackle and guard.

Yesterday afternoon's workout was a fairly light one, most of the practice period being spent by Coach Johnson in explaining plays, and the remainder of the period being utilized in running signals. Captain John Popejoy, captain and star tackle, will not be able to play in Saturday's game, and probably will be out of the game for the remainder of the season with a sprained knee.

THUG ASSAULTS MAN ON STREET; ATTEMPTS TO ROB

George J. Allen Reports By-standers on South First Street Made No Effort to Give Him Assistance.

In broad daylight and in plain sight of at least 20 people, a thug yesterday morning at 10 o'clock knocked down and kicked George J. Allen, a visitor in the city, and then walked calmly away from the scene.

"Do they do that often here?" Allen inquired at police headquarters, where he went to report the occurrence. He was told that such things are extremely rare.

Allen, who is stopping at the Craig hotel on West Silver avenue, said that he was walking alone, and when in front of the Pioneer bakery, 207 South First, a man came up behind him and reached into his inside coat pocket. Finding nothing there, the man knocked him to the pavement, which cut his head, and then kicked him, and walked away.

Several bystanders, asked why they did not stop the attempted robbery and assault, said they were "watching the fight."

Allen said he had recently shown several travelers checks in a downtown store, and he believed somebody who saw him thought he had a supply of cash in his pockets.

GERMANS' VISIT TO DEVASTATED AREA POSTPONED

Atmosphere in France Is Not Yet Sufficiently Clear for Proposed Love Feast, It Is Reported.

Berlin, Oct. 11 (By the Associated Press).—The proposed visit of German industrialists to the devastated regions of France, where they were to have been the guests of the leaders of French finance and industry, has been indefinitely postponed, according to information received here from Paris.

While no official invitation had been received in Berlin, it was understood the tour would begin next Saturday when the Germans were to be met at the French frontier by Marquis de Lubersac and others. No reason is given why the program is not to be carried out, but the view taken in some quarters here is that the atmosphere in France is not yet sufficiently clear for the proposed love feast.

It is even hinted that the French premier, M. Poincare, is more than plucked over the recent utterances of Dr. Wirth, the German chancellor, concerning the question of war guilt.

Industrial leaders declined to say this probably is the reason why the trip is not being carried out as planned. They declare the visit has not been abandoned, only postponed.

FITZSIMMONS' ARENA IS ORDERED SOLD TO SATISFY TAX CLAIMS

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Floyd Fitzsimmons' boxing arena at Michigan City, Ind., has been ordered sold at a public auction to satisfy tax claims of the United States government, it was learned tonight. The date of the sale was not announced.

The Michigan City promoter was said to be delinquent to the extent of $5,000 in taxes due the government on the July 4 and Labor day boxing bouts.

The action of Governor McCray of Indiana in preventing the Dempsey-Brennan fight on Labor day is said to have been a severe financial blow to Fitzsimmons, despite the promoter's attempt to cover his losses by the all-star exhibition staged as a substitute for the cancelled heavyweight championship bout.

OIL COMPANY TO INCREASE STOCK BEDFORD STATES

Standard of New Jersey to Boost Capital From $110,000,000 to $625,000,000 on November 8

New York, Oct. 11.—Following the lead of other Standard Oil companies, Chairman A. C. Bedford of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey announced today that a special stockholders' meeting has been called for November 8 to act on a proposal of the directors to increase the authorized capital stock of the company from $110,000,000 to $625,000,000 and declare a 400 per cent stock dividend for each share of common stock now outstanding. The par value of the new shares will be $25, the same as at present.

When his new financing has been completed there will be $500,000,000 par value common stock outstanding. The balance of the proposed increase, about $125,000,000, will be held in the treasury to meet such needs of the company as may arise in the future, it was stated.

Mr. Bedford declared that since 1898 it has been the policy of the company to reinvest in its business all earnings remaining after the disbursement of dividends, and since 1911 there has been no change in the regular rate of dividend payment.

During this period the substantial growth of the company's business, in line with the growth of the petroleum industry generally, has resulted, he declared, in a very considerable augmentation of its assets, largely by reason of profitable employment of such surplus earnings. On December 31, 1931, the surplus was $592,621,632.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is the parent company of the so-called Standard Oil trust, which was dissolved by a decree of the United States supreme court in 1911 into the 23 individual companies. Since the dissolution the aggregate quoted value of the stocks of the various companies has increased approximately $3,000,000,000.

BOY KNOCKED FROM BICYCLE BY AUTO

A car driven by John Umhoeffer of North Fourth street ran over a bicycle ridden by Herbert Dooley, a boy who lives at San Jose, on Second street about 6 o'clock last night. The boy rode out of the alley between Central and Gold avenues just as Umhoeffer came along in his car. The boy attempted to turn quickly, and his machine skidded under the car. The youth luckily fell out of danger. Both wheels of the bicycle were demolished. Umhoeffer took him home. He said he was not driving fast.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE BARBER POLE DOOMED

Chicago, Oct. 11.—In a few years the time-honored and traditional red, white and blue barber pole may be obsolete, according to members of the National Barber Supply association, now in convention here. In place of the well known barber pole, they said, customers will see a red, white and blue clock. The change was ascribed to an effort to "keep abreast of the times."

CUBS DEFEAT WHITE SOX.
Chicago, Oct. 11.—The Cubs got the edge on their White Sox rivals today by winning, 3 to 5. The National league has now won two games to the American league one. Osborne, who won the first game, came back today and was credited with the second victory. The Cubs won the game by bunching their hits. Inability of the Sox to hit in the pinches cost them several runs.

ALLIES' HEROES PAY TRIBUTE AT SOLDIERS' TOMB

Visit the Grave of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery; Are Received at White House.

Washington, Oct. 11.—A group of the elect among the allies' heroes, passed through Washington today, paid tribute to the Unknown Soldier, were received by President Harding in the White House and left tonight on their special train for New Orleans, where, Friday, as delegates they will begin the annual convention of the International Inter-Allied veterans, prior to that of the American Legion, October 16 to 20.

The delegates, representing British, French, Belgian, Italian, Russian, Czechoslovakian, Serbian, and American war veterans' organizations, were greeted upon their arrival from New York shortly before 5 o'clock by a reception committee representing the District of Columbia department of the American Legion, the army, marine corps and navy. They were welcomed by Captain Watson B. Miller, department commander, and Charles Bertrand, member of the French chamber of deputies and president of the federation, responded briefly.

The party then was taken to Arlington national cemetery, where, as M. Bertrand expressed it, they performed their "first duty" on American soil at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. He placed on the tomb a tablet pledging to "the Unknown Hero of the American People the homage of his allied comrades in arms who fought for liberty by his side." Marcel Herard then presented a gold palm on a black slab on behalf of the municipal council of Paris, of which he is a member.

The delegates were guests of the American Legion at dinner, and afterward were received in the blue room of the White House by President Harding, who expressed the hope that the visit to the United States would bring closer the cordial relations between the peoples.

Q. When should a house be painted? E. V. B.
A. Painting, especially the priming coat, should be done in dry weather and preferably before a fall. The settled weather of the fall is therefore more desirable than the unsettled weather of the spring.

Q. How many British war medals have been distributed to Canadian soldiers? A. O. McE.
A. Of the authorized issue of 450,000 British war medals for Canadian soldiers, 216,359 have been distributed to date, and of the authorized issue of 250,000 medals, 246,581 have thus far been distributed, according to a statement of the honors and awards department of the militia.

Q. Is General Pershing the only army officer who has skipped any files without the formality of being promoted to them? M. D.
A. The war department says that several other army officers have skipped more than one file at a time.

Q. How many uses does sawdust have? W. F. J.
A. In a report of the forest products laboratory uses are given, ranging from its use in circus rings to the dressing of wounds. The report states that its list of fifty uses is incomplete.

Q. How is the word pronounced that was the password of the Forty Thieves? M. E. O.
A. "Open, sesame" were the magic words. Sesame is pronounced in three syllables, see-sa-me.

Q. Was the "Duke of Wellington" created a duke or was he born to the title? S. V.
A. The title "Duke of Wellington" was granted by the British government to Arthur Wellesley, who was born in Ireland, 1769. The duke was one of the greatest of British soldiers, first becoming noted in Indian service, later in the Peninsula war. He achieved his greatest fame in the campaigns against Napoleon. He was created Duke of Wellington after the victory of Vittoria and received then a grant of 400,000 pounds. After the Battle of Waterloo he received another grant of 200,000 pounds and the title "Prince of Waterloo." He also received large estates in Holland, and an order of decoration from Louis XVIII of France. The title did not carry a landed estate.

Q. Of the three clarinets, C, B flat and A which is regarded as the richest in tone? R. B. R.
A. Langraas says the B flat has the finest tone. It is almost universally adopted by the gymnasium and school bands, and is, of course, to be expected, of the others, with the exception of the A clarinet, which remains beyond reach.

Q. Will it kill a fish to scale it? L. C.
A. A fish cannot live after it has been scaled.

SUPREMACY OF WHEAT MARKET IS THREATENED

Hedging and Trading in Futures Is Being Driven From Chicago to Winnipeg, Mauff Declares.

Chicago, Oct. 11 (By the Associated Press).—"Hedging and trading in wheat futures is being driven from Chicago to Winnipeg and Liverpool by the threat of the Capper-Tincher law," John R. Mauff, secretary of the board of trade, the federal trade commission today.

The supremacy of the Chicago market, which now handles more grain than all the rest of the world's exchanges together, is seriously threatened, he said. If the new law is upheld by the supreme court, he added, buyers of cash grain who wish to "hedge" to protect themselves, will be forced to go to a British market to deal in futures.

Victor Murdock, vice chairman of the board of trade rule limiting future dealings to four months of the year, did not entirely restrict the movement of the crop.

Mr. Mauff denied that the four months' trading was a restriction and pointed out that when Herbert Hoover was controlling the market during war time, he limited trading to two months. The board of trade secretary said that the board was not responsible for congestion in public warehouses, and there was no connection between the congestion and the limited trading season.

The examiners questioned the witness about the connection of Professor James E. Boyle of Cornell University, with the grain market. From the board's minutes the examiners said it appears that Professor Boyle had been employed by the promotion department of the board in 1919 at a salary of $500 a month to write a book about the grain market. The examiners produced a book by Professor Boyle, entitled "Speculation and the Chicago Board of Trade," published in 1919, by a New York publishing house, but the secretary said he knew nothing about Boyle's connection with the board, or whether he had been paid to write the book.

Professor Boyle, he said, had presented a letter signed by Woodrow Wilson to him in 1918 and announced that he was to take charge of the board's books as federal investigator. After the witness of war time control, the witness said, he understood Professor Boyle had worked for the promotion department, but did not know the nature of his employment.

Returning to his question of "hedging," Mr. Mauff said it had definite advantages, and pointed to the fact that an eight cents margin is required in the wheat pit, where there is no future trading, while corn is handled on a one cent margin and wheat and oats on a two-cent margin.

The department of agriculture, under Secretary James Wilson, persuaded farmers to increase the bar-

How I Got Rid of Burning Feet

And Pains from Corns and Bunions Without Soaking, Powders, Plasters, Etc., After Suffering Indescribably for 20 Years.

Prof. F. T. McIntyre, well known world tourist and lecturer, says: "For years I was compelled to wear shoes two sizes too large, to be able to walk with any comfort at all. I tried soaking my feet in medicated baths, powders, plasters and foot-treatments galore, but the burning callouses and soreness refused to go, while the pains from corns and bunions continued to torture both mind and body, which upset my entire nervous system. One day, very fortunately, I met a lady from Egypt who gave me a little box of Gypsy Foot Relief, which she said was a secret from the desert. After using it a short time, the awful burning stopped, the callouses came off in chunks, leaving the feet of my feet clean and smooth, while the pains from corns and bunions seemed to disappear as if by magic. From that time, I said a joyful goodbye to over 20 years of indescribable foot misery. I would not take a hundred thousand dollars to saggy go through those years of agony. Now I feel like telling every foot sufferer to get a box of the wonderful Gypsy Foot Relief."

Note.—Gypsy Foot Relief, referred to by Mr. McIntyre, may be applied in a minute, without fuss or bother. Sure, quick relief comes three minutes later, or the makers give back the small amount you pay. It is sold in this city by Alvarado pharmacy, Briggs pharmacy, and Woodworth's prescription pharmacy.—Adv.

ley crop from 50,000,000 bushels in 1900, to 200,000,000 bushels at the present, Mr. Mauff said, and then the Volstead law came along and ruined the barley demand, destroying the brewers' business. As a result, he said, barley has been thrown into competition with oats and corn, and part of the trouble in those markets is due to the surplus barley crop, he said.

Joseph P. Griffith, former president of the board, who followed Mr. Mauff, said the decline in the price of wheat in the summer and fall of 1920, following the resumption of future trading, was not due to the reopening of the hedging market, but was coincidental with the deflation in all other lines.

A STENOGRAPHER'S ROMANCE

BY JANE PHELPS

A SATURDAY NIGHT BEAU.

Chapter 21.
William had set Saturday night as the time he would call for Cora. They both worked hard, and had to get up very early, Sunday morning they could sleep later.

Nellie insisted upon lending something to Cora—for lack, she explained. So she loaned her best set of collar and cuffs and sewed them in Cora's best dress, a dark silk that in the daytime showed wear, but which at night was quite elegant—so Nellie declared.

Cora insisted the girls go down in the dingy parlor to meet William Dalton, and he was so well behaved, so genuinely pleased at the courtesy, that both girls were delighted with him.

"He's one little bit of all right!" Nellie said as she and Gladys watched him walking beside Cora. "They make a nice looking couple, don't they? I wonder if she will marry him?"

"It's pretty early to talk of that!" Gladys laughed. "This is the first time they have gone out together. Then I imagine he is poor, doesn't earn a great deal more than Cora, and he told her his mother was an invalid."

"Wasn't it nice of her to introduce him to us?" Nellie went on. "Yes, I guess Cora knows more about those things than the rest of us. She had a different bringing up. Most girls would have a girl for being introduced to her friends. I sort of takes the place of the chaperone society girls have. I can't explain it very well. Nellie, not as well as Cora could, but a fellow who is treated like Cora treats them doesn't ever get fresh."

"I see! Yes, they wouldn't! They think she's proud of them, so they are on their good behavior. Men are queer animals! I don't understand them at all! But I know enough to make them mind their own business and let me alone. I do hope Cora enjoys herself," she added.

Nellie insisted upon getting the home meals, and most of the time she also cleared away. Gladys begged to let her help after Cora left, but she replied almost indignantly: "Nice little expense I'd be if I didn't do such a little bit after all you two girls have done for me; and me having the soft job I have, easy hours and all, while you two work like dogs. It makes me sick because I can't do more and—eat less. I eat as much every meal as you two together, and I only pay for a third of the grub. But this funny stomach of mine always seems to be hollering for food. It always has ever since I can remember! Maybe if I live long enough I'll get filled up, and it will stop pestering me—it don't make me fat either."

"Thank you stars for that! You're too short to be fat. You'd look like a regular roly-poly if you were." Then: "Never come to see me, Cora. I'm not worth your time. I'm not worth your time."

"These poor office girls were far more thoughtful of each other, far kinder than many girls who would have considered their notice. Yet they talked little of what they did. It was a matter of course with them."

Cora came in about 10:30, having spent a delightful evening. She looked bright and animated, really happy. She had seen "Way Down East" and had to tell them the entire story.

"After the show we had ice cream and cake at the restaurant next to the theater. William wanted me to have something more, but I know he is poor, he supports his mother and a woman who takes care of her, so I refused. But I had such a nice time!"

"You see I didn't have to feel that way when he took me out. I wasn't afraid of hurting his pocketbook," Nellie broke in. "But I guess lots of fellows who work in offices are just as hard up as we girls. I used to think a man didn't have no troubles. But since I have been in the office with that white-faced bookkeeper, I have sort of changed my mind. That I am has troubles—and I know it!"

The girls spent a long quiet Sunday. It rained hard all day, and they looked over their clothes, washed and ironed a few things. Nellie declared:

"It can't be wrong for us because we have no other time and God knows it!"

Her references to the Deity always amused Cora and Gladys. She was in no way sacrilegious. It was as if God were one of them, knew their needs.

Tomorrow—Lunches and Flowers for Nellie.

LOCAL RED CROSS TO BE REPRESENTED AT DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Two representatives of the Albuquerque chapter of the American Red Cross will go to the annual district conference which will be held in El Paso on October 23. Miss Edith Childers, secretary, and Mrs. Roy Graham, a member of the executive board, will attend from this city. The conference, which is held annually with representatives of the division officers, was held in Albuquerque last year.

Plans are being developed for conducting the 1922 roll call, which will begin here on November 11. D. S. Rosenwald, new president of the chapter, is acting chairman of the roll call. Mrs. Roy Graham will have charge of the street campaign of women; Miss Erna Ferguson will conduct a tag day with young girls, and Capt. Dick Guest will organize the solicitation from business men of the city.

Mr. Rosenwald has called a special meeting of the chapter at the home service office in the federal building at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon for the purpose of selecting a sub-committee for the roll call. Mrs. Graham, Howard Gruhl and Capt. Guest are new members of the executive board recently appointed by Mr. Rosenwald. Mrs. John W. Wilson has been appointed chairman of the junior Red Cross and will soon begin an organization in the public schools with the principals as leaders. An extensive program is planned.

BIG LEAGUE STARS IN CARLSBAD-ARTESIA BASEBALL CONTEST

Special to The Journal
Artesia, Oct. 11.—The Artesia baseball team lost a fast game to the Carlsbad nine on the Artesia diamond this week, by the score of 4 to 7. The game was interesting and a record crowd witnessed it.

Manda, of the International league, and Brainerd, formerly of the New York Giants, but a member of the Newark, New Jersey, team last season, appeared in Artesia uniforms. The lower valley team also had imported a few stars for this game, including Green and Williams.

Martin began on the mound for Artesia, but appeared to be off. The visitors connected with the home side in the third inning for two two-base hits and one single, or six hits in the first three innings. Brainerd relieved Martin and held the visitors to three scattered singles. An error by Hawkins in the seventh inning allowed the Carlsbad nine to overcome the lead, which had been maintained by Artesia.

Morris did the twirling for Carlsbad and sent 12 men to the bench by the strikeout route and allowed seven hits, two of these being three-baggers by Brainerd. Brainerd and Martin each struck out six men.

Several long hits were features of the game. Hawkins connected with one of Morris' deliveries for a three-base hit in the fourth inning. Smith was marked with a two-bagger. Brown was also marked with a three-base hit, while Morris secured two singles and one two-bagger in four trips to the plate. The game was called at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness. Artesia has lost four games to Carlsbad this season by one run.

The batteries were: Artesia, Martin, Brainerd and Kuykendall; Carlsbad, Morris and Stewart.

STATE AUDITOR HOLDS HEARING ON TAX MATTERS

Makes Investigation of Conditions in McKinley County on Request of Democratic Committee.

Special to The Journal
Gallup, N. M., Oct. 11.—State Auditor A. M. Edwards today held a public hearing in the court house here Monday on charges preferred by the democratic county committee.

One of the charges was in effect that the Gallup State bank was not paying taxes on a proportionate amount of assessment. This was the first matter brought up. The republican county officials were represented by Assistant District Attorney A. M. Edwards of Santa Fe and J. W. Chapman. The democratic central committee was represented by H. G. Coors of Albuquerque and A. T. Hannett of Gallup.

Although there was no one present from the Gallup State bank to represent its side of the contention, evidence was admitted which showed that the bank was paying taxes on a total assessment of substantially $12,000, whereas, it was alleged, the proper assessment should be about $60,000.

Assistant Assistant District Attorney Edwards stated to the investigating committee that he admitted there appeared to be a discrepancy there, but it was brought about by the present existing state banking laws, as they have been interpreted and executed.

A second charge was that the Banner drug store had not paid taxes in about four years, or since paying the first half of the taxes assessed for the year 1918. These charges were supported by the records of the books of the collector's office. It was also stated during the hearing that the treasurer of the county of McKinley had paid numerous warrants to the Banner drug store during this period of time and it was difficult for the investigators to determine at this time whether or not all of the back taxes could be collected, inasmuch as the business had passed through bankruptcy proceedings and had been sold at public auction. The assistant district attorney advised that he had instructed the county treasurer to proceed immediately to force payment for the taxes of the last half of the year 1918, at which time W. H. Morris of Gallup was the owner of the drug store. The amount of taxes for the half year amounted to $250, but with interest and penalties at this time amounts to over $400. The total delinquent taxes of the drug store about $7,000, it was stated. An attempt will be made to force payment on the additional delinquent taxes of the drug store, and on all other delinquent taxes of the county. It was announced.

Another matter that was given an airing was the recent sale of a tract involving about 13,500 acres of grazing land about 75 miles off the railroad. This land was recently sold to the United States government by the Chaco Land and Cattle company, the known stockholders of which are G. Page, H. Neumann, and Mrs. G. L. Lyons. For the sum of approximately $23,000, the land, which had been purchased from the Atlantic and Pacific Railway company, in June of this year for the sum of approximately $23,000. In the additional 2,300 acres which were sold to the government in September was some homestead land for which the government had granted patent less than a year ago. The only contention in this matter was that the government had paid too much for the land. And a comparison was made with the sale price of the assessed value of the land, which was approximately $19,000.

All parties connected with the hearing were well satisfied that the traveling auditor had called the hearing, and that he had acted as the judge in the case. Good is bound to come from the investigation, all agreed.

The state traveling auditor took all matters under advisement, and as soon as all of the testimony is transcribed, which is lengthy, he will make his report.

MOST "TERRIBLE" OF "TERRIBLE TURKS"

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, whose rise has flashed over the near east like a meteor, is a man of dual personality. He is a polished diplomat, who speaks accomplished French, wears English clothes and sits at a desk like a western official. But that's just one side. On the other, he's a buccaneering chief in oriental robes, with a jeweled scimitar and the irresistible impulse of a Meher Ali or an Ahrabi Pasha, Moslem conquerors of a bygone age.

FARM INFORMATION SERVICE

Issued by the Extension Service, New Mexico Agricultural College, STATE COLLEGE, NEW MEXICO.

It is the exceptional farm horse that works on an average of more than 100 full days throughout the year. This is true in spite of the fact that the cost of keeping the required number of horses is one of the heaviest expenses involved in operating an average farm.

Probably no farmer would think of hiring a man and then letting him idle away two-thirds of his time. If it were necessary to pay at regular intervals, in cash, the actual cost of keeping a horse, as in the case with man labor, the idle horse, in all probability, would receive more attention than he does now.

The idle horse will never be entirely eliminated on an average farm. The seasonal demands of most farm operations is the cause. He should not be considered, however, entirely as a necessary evil. By careful management and the undertaking of such enterprises that will result in a more uniform distribution of the work throughout the year, it is possible to materially reduce the horse labor cost on the majority of farms.

It might be found more profitable on many farms to market the grain in the form of pork, butter, and eggs.

The following ration for laying hens is recommended by the New Mexico Agricultural College.

Grain in litter: 100 lbs. wheat, 100 lbs. cracked corn, 100 lbs. oats. Mash: 200 lbs. bran, 100 lbs. ground oats, 100 lbs. ground corn, 100 lbs. meal scraps.

A ration which is equally good is identical to the same as above except that 90 pounds of 50 per cent tankage is substituted for the meal scraps.

Scrub Sires Must Go. If you believe that purebred stock is a luxury to be enjoyed only by the rich, you should get the opinion of experienced stockmen who have been raising purebred stock. The United States department of agriculture has compiled the opinion of 525 experienced livestock owners, living in 35 states, who own 25,000 head of breeding stock. All these farmers are purebred sire users, but their female stock is known to include purebreds, cross breeds, grades and scrubs, thereby giving ample basis for comparison.

Based on utility alone, entirely apart from its breeding or sale value, purebred livestock has an earning power from a third to one-half greater than scrub stock. The average superiority of purebreds over scrubs for all classes of farm animals is about 49 per cent.

Of the principal points in which purebreds excel other stock, the most prominent are: Superiority and uniformity in conformation.

and type, greater sale value, greater and more economical production, and earlier maturity.

Surplus purebreds are readily salable at satisfactory prices in a majority of cases, but sales and prices depend largely on the quality of stock as shown by breeding and production records, also on the business ability of the breeder.

With rare exceptions, purebred sire users are satisfied with the quality of the offspring obtained, except that the desire is created in many cases to further improve the quality.

The progeny of purebred sires has practically a 50 per cent greater sale value than the progeny of non-purebred.

Purebred sires of good quality are readily obtainable in the experience of three-fourths of the breeders reporting. The principal difficulties are: Paying the price and finding the desirable type, but there is practically unanimous agreement that the results justify the cost.

Curious was the matrimonial method of Signor Tasino, a wealthy and eccentric old gentleman of Naples, who had one weakness, a passion for macaroni. As he was unable to find a cook sufficiently skilled in preparing this delicacy to his taste, he placed a public competition and gave his hand and fortune to the woman who proved herself the cleverest artist in macaroni.

Shay Hunt, instructor and supervisor of the boys' department at the Rio Grande Industrial school, was fined $20 last night by Justice George Roddy after a hearing on a charge of assault and battery upon Rev. W. W. Evans, superintendent of the school. Hunt admitted having struck Rev. Mr. Evans, but said he had great provocation, as the minister had humiliated and browbeaten him almost constantly.

The complaint set forth that the attack took place on the school grounds Tuesday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock. Mr. Evans testified that he called to his wife, who was leaving for Albuquerque in a car in company with Hunt and others, and said that every employee leaving the grounds for the city was expected to take the mail to the postoffice. Then, the minister said, after Hunt had stated that he would go and get the mail, the man climbed out of the car and knocked him down and kicked him.

Hunt said that Tuesday afternoon is supposed to be his weekly vacation, but that he is required to teach until 2:30, and when he comes to the city he is given so much time for himself, he said the clergyman had appeared angry with him because he did not go to church last Sunday, remaining at the school house because the Hunt expected company for dinner. While his guests were in the house, Hunt said, the superintendent ordered him to go out on the campus and supervise the boys, who were playing football. On Tuesday afternoon, he said, he was asked to wait until 4 o'clock and bring Mrs. Evans to the city, and when the minister spoke to him sharply about the mail, as he was starting on his belated half-holiday, he could stand no more and he climbed from the car and struck Mr. Evans.

Mr. Evans previously had testified that he had made it a rule of his life to strike no man, and when Hunt hit him, he simply put up his hands to ward off the blows. Mr. Evans and his wife both testified that Hunt, after striking Mr. Evans, called him a hypocrite and other names.

PRODUCTION OF AT RAPID RATE COAL INCREASES

Is an Index to the Efficient Railroad Co-Operation Obtained for the Industry, Spencer States.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Coal production this week at a marked and almost record-breaking rate, which Fuel Distributor Spencer declared in a statement today was an index to the efficient railroad co-operation obtained for the industry in the attempt to make up deficiencies in the country's fuel supply due to the miners' strike.

At the same time the Chamber of Commerce of the United States gave out the results of a survey it has made in co-operation with the government, indicating that stocks of coal intended for domestic consumption in most parts of the country are non-existent and that there is still a critical necessity for more coal to be moved into certain areas for this purpose.

According to reports to the American Railway association, on Monday, 40,596 cars of bituminous, 14,101 more than on Saturday of last week, were produced. This is the largest day's output since December, 1920, and amounted to more than 2,000,000 tons.

Mr. Spencer declared that railroads were being urged to maintain a movement of at least 11,000,000 tons of bituminous coal per week.

AROUND THE COURT HOUSE

Two insane men, one of them in a straight-jacket, from Silver City, were cared for here by the sheriff's office yesterday on their way with a deputy sheriff to the state asylum at Las Vegas. They were kept in the county jail between trains.

The private chambers of the judge at the courthouse are being refurnished with new linoleum. The county school superintendent's office is full of posters designed by the teachers to advertise the annual school marm's book ball which will be given at the armory tomorrow night to raise money for the school book fund for the poor of the county. Tickets for the ball have been contributed by Thomas Hughes, it was announced.

Marriage licenses have been issued to L. N. Candelaria and Estrella Duran, both of Albuquerque; and Tom Ruiz, Jr., of Old Albuquerque, and Sophia Armijo of Candelaria.

An answer and cross complaint has been filed in the district court in the case of Meta Murphy against Dr. W. T. Murphy, the Murphy sanatorium and the trustees of the property of the Episcopal church. The cross complaint alleges that the church trustees have been ready to carry out their part of the contract for purchase of the institute but have been held up by Dr. Murphy. It asks that a receiver be appointed for the property of the sanatorium.

DEVELOPMENT

The first civilizations known to history were founded upon irrigation—in Egypt and Mesopotamia.

Irrigation was practiced in New Mexico in prehistoric days, but its problems are still with us.

The areas to be reclaimed in the development of the San Juan Basin, the drainage of the lands on the Rio Grande and the further use of its waters, the extension of the Carlsbad system, to mention only a few, are so vast and the necessary works so expensive that governmental action is essential. Almost all of this land belongs to the United States, is of little present value and pays no taxes. Transforming it to productivity is not charity, but simply good business.

The Smith-McNary bill is a recognition of this condition and an attempt to improve it. Whether under such a general plan or through specific appropriations for particular projects, the waste lands of this nation must be reclaimed.

The Republican candidates for Congress are pledged in favor of such governmental action.

London's Estimate.

London, Oct. 11 (by the Associated Press).—One of the questions on which it is expected there will be important differences between the Turks and British is the cost of the British occupation of Constantinople and other areas in Asia Minor since 1918. The British have been careful to estimate the expenditure which is regarded as an ultimate charge against Turkey. It is believed the bill will run into a hundred-million pounds sterling, without regard to what claims might be advanced by France, which maintained 20,000 troops in these regions for a year.

Likewise, the Kemalists have consistently refused to print their own money, in order to maintain the stability of the Turkish pound.

CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

As the discovery of electricity by Franklin made the telegraph and the telephone possible, so the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus opened the way for future discoveries which were to add the Western Continent to the map of the world. And as if it were a prophetic vision, the first sign which heralded the sight of land was light and it was the dawn of day. Little did Columbus dream that his discovery would "bring forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." Not only a new physical world, but a new political order grew out of the vision of this one man.

GHOSTS OF THE PAST.

It cannot be denied that the leaders of both parties showed a disposition to heed the public demand for a decent county government. The result, however, leaves much to be desired. The democrats were at a disadvantage in having to condemn their own administration which has been palpably weak and inefficient. They blundered in repudiating Tony Ortiz at the behest of those whose interests he did not serve in the performance of his duties as a public sheriff. One of the reasons why is becomes increasingly difficult to enlist capable men in public service is the tendency on the part of the leaders to put political expediency above public welfare.

The republican county convention made an auspicious beginning in the nomination of Don Rankin for Commissioner, whose election will be a distinct gain for the people, as will also that of Felipe Hubbell for County Assessor. The republicans would have fared better had they not predicated their success at the polls upon fictional obligations and rejected the plea that they were bound by any agreement which made their success contingent upon a division of the spoils of office. There was no need to fear the ghost of a dead political past.

The next Bernalillo County Convention will be held by the voters on November 7.

A CORRECTION.

The Santa Fe New Mexican, unable to find any ground upon which to attack Stephen B. Davis, seized upon what any intelligent reader would have recognized as a typographical error in the printed report of the republican candidate's admirable speech at Belen last week. Judge Davis spoke in part as follows:

"Whenever Senator Jones addresses an audience that he thinks is Democratic, he speaks against a protective tariff and when he speaks to a Republican audience, he speaks in favor of a protective tariff by declaring that he is for a higher tariff on wool than the Republicans, because he favored the emergency tariff, a Republican measure."

The emergency, thanks to a Republican administration, no longer exists.

NOBILITY.

For a question that involves a hundred considerations pro and con, the American Bankers' association in convention in New York made a remarkably quick job of cleaning up the foreign debt problem. That is to say, many of them declared that they thought it would be nice if the government became noble and charged up these debts to experience or altruism that they thought it would be nice if the or something, retaining only a recollection may prove to be about as bad as its word when the bond matures.

The time may come when it may be the notion that, after all, a desperate nation's debt is taken it must be with the consent of the people who will have to pay the debt in increased taxes for another generation or so. The money loaned Europe was not produced by waving a wand over a hat. Liberty bonds in thousands of American homes represent the government's indebtedness to its citizen's growth; out of these foreign loans. It will be for the bondholder to say whether he is willing to pay for Europe's badly learned lesson in the folly of war. And bankers are only a small proportion of the persons qualified to decide.

Speaking of bankers, they advanced millions of dollars to allied countries in the early years of the war. Their loans were private transactions, and the money realized was spent here for munitions and supplies. This proceeding netted the banker a healthy discount and the manufacturer the ample margin customary in the war promotion business.

Yet the New York gathering was mysteriously silent about the nobility of cancelling these private loans.

TODAY'S BEST THOUGHT

COLUMBUS.
He was a man whom danger could not daunt.
Nor sophistry perplex, nor pain subdue;
A stoic, reckless of the world's vain taunt;
And steered the path of honor to pursue;
So, when by all deserted, still he knew
How best to soothe the heart-sick, or confront
Sedition; schooled with equal eye to view
The frowns of grief, and the base pangs of want.
But when he saw that promised land arise
In all its rare and bright varieties,
Lovelier than fondness fancy ever trod,
Then softening nature melted in his eyes:
He knew his fame was full, and blessed his God,
And fell upon his knees and kissed the virgin sod.

No. 1—Missing Mark Found on Hand

A short line is drawn on the palm of the left hand and a similar line on the back, using the blackened end of a burned match.

The hand is closed and the right hand, wiping off the mark from the back

Opening the hand, the missing mark is found, lying across the one originally there.

The first mark was made at an angle across one of the creases or lines of the hand. Hence, in closing the hand another mark is made automatically, crossing the line at the opposite angle.

The rubbing off of the other line is just a bit of play to heighten the effect.

FINANCIAL

Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 11.—Heavy buying of shares of industrial companies holding large surpluses on further reports of a melon cutting again featured the stock market today, the main price tendency of which was again upward. Rails, which have been lagging behind in the last few days, became quite active today and some substantial gains were recorded by the high grade shares.

Immediately after the market closed, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey announced its intention of declaring a 400 per cent stock dividend, payable in shares of the present $25 par value, the capitalization of the company to be increased from $119,000,000 to $625,000,000.

The stock market fluctuated today within a radius of 30 points, closing at 236 1/4, a net gain of half a point on the day, but 14 1/2 below yesterday's high. Mexican Petroleum closed at 129, a net gain of 5 1/4 points, after having established a new high for the year at 205.

Shares of coal carrying companies benefited most from the demand demonstration staged in railroad shares.

Steel prices were forced down during the afternoon reaction, but improved fractionally later in response to publication of weekly trade reviews showing a steady increase in production. Equipments also sold at slightly higher levels.

United States Realty broke about 25 points on announcement that no dividend would be paid and that a preferred stock issue would be sold to retire debenture bonds now outstanding, but it rallied later, closing at a net loss of 3 1/2 points.

An easier tone was noted in the call money market, the opening and renewal rate of 5 1/2 per cent easing to 4 1/2 before the closing.

Foreign exchange rates were better, demand sterling improving a point at 44.43 1/2.

FIREMEN THANKFUL FOR AID IN FIRE PREVENTION PLANS

The Morning Journal yesterday received the following letter of appreciation from Fire Chief Robert Henderson:

"Oct. 10, 1932.
"Manager and Editor,
"Albuquerque Journal,
"Dear Sir:

"I wish to thank you in behalf of the fire department for your grand co-operation during Fire Prevention week. Though we knew that this campaign was for the benefit of all of Albuquerque, still fire prevention is a hard lesson to teach the public. I only hope the city will profit by what has been brought before the people this last week and that the lesson will not be soon forgotten.

"We knew at the start that it was only through publicity in the newspapers that we could hope to reach the people. The support you gave us was magnificent, and shows the true spirit of an Albuquerquean for Albuquerque.

"And in again thanking you, we feel confident of your full support in this cause next year or in any matter pertaining to the benefit of our city.

"Yours truly,
"ROBERT HENDERSON,
"Chief Fire Dept."

BERNALILLO COUNTY DEMOCRATIC WOMAN'S CLUB IS ORGANIZED

Mrs. Frances E. Nixon of Fort Sumner vice chairwoman of the democratic state central committee, last night organized the Bernalillo County Democratic Women's club, composed of the women of Albuquerque and the outlying precincts. The meeting was held at the democratic headquarters, Central avenue and Fifth street.

Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Florence Joyce Johnston, president; Mrs. John F. Simms, first vice president; Mrs. John McReilly, second vice president; Mrs. R. H. Hanna, third vice president; Mrs. Frank Butt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. H. Zolman, treasurer; Mrs. Dennis Chavez, press reporter; Miss Irma Ferguson, assistant press reporter; Mrs. C. C. Meacham.

Program committee: Mrs. John F. Simms, Mrs. C. C. Meacham, Mrs. D. J. McClanahan, Mrs. W. S. Patterson and Mrs. Ira Sprecher. Mrs. Nixon addressed the club and explained that similar organizations have been formed all over the state. "Mrs. Nixon's address gave the local club great impetus," said one of the members last night. "The club will hold a grand rally next Tuesday night, to which the men will be invited. Meetings will be held each Tuesday night thereafter until November 7, election day.

"When asked the object of the club last night, one of the members replied:

"To win the election for the democrats."

To the Citizens of Bernalillo County

The democratic party of Bernalillo county, at its convention assembled, nominated me for the position of sheriff on the said party ticket.

In order that the citizens of this community who are not personally acquainted with me, may know who I am, I wish to state that I was born and reared in Bernalillo county and have lived here all my life. I received my education in the public schools of Albuquerque, when a young man I was clerk for several years in the business house of Spitz Brothers; after leaving their employment I devoted my time to farming my lands at Rancho de Albuquerque, and to stock raising, which business I still follow. I am familiar with the conditions in the city of Albuquerque and in the rural sections of our county; I am a firm believer in the principles of the democratic party but I fully appreciate that a public officer is not a public boss, and that said officer must serve all the people; have never held an office except that of jury commissioner of this county to which place I was appointed by the Honorable M. E. Hickey, our respected district judge; I have no axes to grind, no one to punish and no one to compensate; not tied up in any way with any man or set of men and if the voters of this county in their judgment decide that I am to be the sheriff for the next two years I assure you that I will do my duty and that I will be only a public servant.

Hunt's California Canned Fruit

A complete line of Hunt's Brand of California Canned Fruit is now available in this market. There is nothing packed in the can that is of better quality than this famous brand. Being an independent packer, the trade is assured of purchasing these goods from their grocerymen at the right price.

Hunt's Hesperian Brand is the good old fashioned standard, within the reach of nearly everybody's pocketbook, and is what is termed a "Standard", and while the syrup is not as heavy nor the fruit as large as the higher grades, it is a good eatable fruit. Should you feel that the "Standard" is not quite good enough, their next brand above is the Staple Brand. This is an extra choice. Hunt's Staple Brand is equal to, if not better, than any of the well-known brands of canned fruits on the market. The syrup being heavier than the standard and the fruit larger. This brand would certainly suit the most fastidious. In addition to these two brands, Hunt's put up what is called a Supreme Brand. This brand is considered the last word in canned goods and is of exquisite quality. One is impressed on opening a can of the Supreme Brand, not only by the looks of the fruit, but by the exquisite flavor of the heavy syrup. Not many stores carry this brand, but it may be had if one desires it. In addition to the three brands mentioned, Hunt's also put up what is termed in canned goods language, a Second. The Cascade Brand which is quite popular, where one will look to price. The consuming public of Albuquerque in these four brands can find something to suit their individual pocketbooks and certainly will be pleased. Ask your grocerymen when purchasing canned fruit for one of the following brands:
