TRAIN ROBBED IN NEBRASKA

Passengers Relieved of One Thousand Dollars.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR LEE TESTIFIES

Senator Bailey of Texas Receives a Big Fee From a Texas Millionaire.

Lincoln, Neb., April 24.—Passengers on Burlington train No. 41 were held up and robbed of $1,000 early this morning as the train was leaving the Burlington Union depot in Lincoln. The train has been robbed three times within one hundred miles of here. The last haul netted $50,000 to the men who did the work and no trace of them has ever been found. The work this morning was accomplished mostly while the passengers from the Bench and Feeder lines of the Burlington were in the depot waiting the arrival of the trans-continental trains. Many of the persons in the depot were asleep and did not know they had been robbed until the noise arose as the train was being pulled into the station. The conductor and porter of the emigrant sleeper with the passengers were later herded into one end of the car and the search instituted by one man while the others held the crowd back with guns. They left the train between Lincoln and Milford.

ELKS IN CHARGE.

The Bazaar Will be in Hands of the Gentlemen Tonight.

LAST NIGHT'S ACTIVITY.

The only successful social event of the season, the St. Joseph's bazaar, will be in absolute charge of the Elks—the Best People on Earth—and this means that the gentlemen will make an effort to make a visible showing for the one evening they hold full sway. Of course, the attractive Elks' booth will be a favored corner, for here will be found the $100 Elks' charm that is to be raffled off by the Elks by a method devised by themselves.

The dancing will also be under the masterful hands of the benevolent and protective ones.

A merry crowd of smiling faces were entertained by the ladies, who could be seen first in one place then another, thinking only of the worthy cause for which they were working. The differing dispositions of the visitors were appeased by some attraction especially adapted to their particular natures.

To the gentlemen guests, especially those whose busy existence is soothed by a quiet smoke, the comfortable smoking room, in charge of Mrs. Prestel, is a delightful place.

The hall and floors are hung and laid with Navajo blankets of rich and striking hues, and the large easy chairs and lounges renders it a man's rendezvous as soon as he has tasted of its luxuries.

The children find the doll booth one that pleases the eye, and the candy booth one that pleases the taste. The fair warden and the well appearing young man find the ice cream delicious.

The active business man is a judge of good sandwiches and coffee, while the pretty things at the domestic and handkerchief booths appeal to the artistic tastes of the mothers, wives and daughters.

Many of the gentlemen will be interested in learning that a beautiful meerschaum pipe valued at about $20 will be raffled off tonight. The valuable pipe was presented to the bazaar by a former lady of the hospital, who was so well pleased with the treatment she received while confined in the hospital, she sent this present.

The contestants in the saddle horse contest are becoming closer together and there will unquestionably be an exciting race today and tomorrow. There are plenty of supporters, who are going slow until the last minute.

Chief Rafter Scott Knight could be heard by everyone last night, while he told of the merits of the articles sold by the whirl of the wheel. A handsome Indian sofa pillow was received by Mrs. W. J. Johnson. Leon Hertog and Lee Mitchell each captured a box of cigars. This attraction proved to be as interesting and at certain intervals as amusing as on former nights. Very little was said about receipts last night, but from the activity of the visitors and the smiling faces of the ladies in charge, there was no question about the financial end being satisfactory.

From present indications Elks' night will be the evening of an overwhelming success, both socially and financially.

LEE TESTIFIES.

He Tells of Corruption in the Missouri Legislature.

St. Louis, April 24.—Lieut. Gov. J. A. Lee, who returned from Chicago last night appeared before the grand jury when the body resumed the investigation of charges of hoodluming in the general assembly in connection with baking powder legislation.

Attorney General Crow, who is conducting the Jefferson City end of the inquiry, was present and assisted Circuit Attorney Folk in questioning the witness.

Several indictments were returned by the Cole county grand jury as the result of Mr. Lee's testimony at Jefferson City and it is expected that a number will be handed down here.

Lieut. Gov. John A. Lee says the question of his resignation is in the hands of Attorney General Crow and that he will probably do as that official recommends.

Lee says, however, that he has reasons for wishing to remain in office. One of these, he says, is that he is a poor man and needs the salary attached to the office.

DECKER SENTENCED.

St. Louis, April 24.—The sealed verdict returned last night by jury before which Louis Decker, former member of the house of delegates, had been tried on the charge of perjury in connection with the suburban franchise boodle legislation, found him guilty and imposed an imprisonment in the penitentiary of four years. The verdict was read in court today. Counsel for the defendant immediately applied for a new trial. Judge Ryan took the application under advisement.

United States Marshal Forker left for Santa Fe this morning with Moreen W. Jurens, who was sentenced yesterday by Judge Baker to serve two years in the penitentiary at hard labor. Jurens pleaded guilty to adultery. He will now have plenty of time to repent of his faithlessness.

SUITS FILED.

Mrs. Isabel Baird Sues for Divorce From Her Husband.

SUIT AGAINST SANTA FE ROAD.

Mrs. Isabel Baird, wife of William R. Baird, filed divorce papers this morning with District Clerk Dame. She states that they were married on November 19, 1898, in this city, and that immediately after he abandoned and refused to live with her, through no fault of hers; that since December 1, 1901, he has failed to support her and their infant child, Edward.

Papers were filed with the clerk by J. M. Aldrich et al., of this city, against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company. Mr. Aldrich and wife set forth that for the past twenty years they have been in possession of a piece of land in Highland addition numbered lot 6 in block 5, and that at the time of the purchase of the property at the south of it there was a highway known as Coal avenue running east and west, which was used by the public and which has continued to be used up to the month of June, 1901. They further state that the defendant willfully disregarded their rights in the premises and during June, 1901, immediately in front of their residence and front door, erected an embankment twenty-four feet wide and ten feet high, sloping gradually to the east; thus the defendant erected approach to the viaduct unlawfully and without condemning the street, thus depriving them of all means of ingress and egress. The railroad company has refused to compensate them for loss and injury. They claim $2,500 damages.

BAILEY'S BIG FEE.

New York, April 24.—United States Senator Bailey, of Texas, has received a fee of $200,000 from John H. Kirby, the "industrial king," of Texas. The latter recently determined to refinance one of his large companies operating in the pine forests in southeastern Texas and employed Bailey to assist in enlisting New York financiers in the enterprise. He was successful and the fee resulted.

The president of the United States will be here on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 5, and everybody in the city should constitute his or herself a committee of one to see that their yards and abutting vacant lots are cleaned of rubbish, especially old tin cans and disease-breeding cast off clothes.

HOPEWELL HERE.

Thinks Santa Fe Central Will be Completed by May 10.

WORKING ON ALBUQUERQUE EASTERN.

General Manager W. S. Hopewell, of the Albuquerque Eastern and Santa Fe Central roads, came down from Santa Fe last night and is in the city today.

Mr. Hopewell, when approached by a representative of The Citizen, stated that he was here on no special business, but just came down because he liked the city and its people.

Further, he stated that the track laying out of Torrance was being done as fast as can be possible, and that the grading of the Albuquerque Eastern was headed toward the metropolis of the southwest.

The Santa Fe coal fields, the center of which is Hagan, is rapidly making a showing in coal production and as soon as the Santa Fe Central is completed the output of the mines will astonish many who do not realize the importance of the mineral resources of New Mexico.

Mr. Hopewell is anxious for a partial completion of the Santa Fe Central by the 10th of May, at which time he expects General Torrance and a party of friends from Pennsylvania, yet so far no definite time has been set. Mr. Hopewell is meeting many friends in the city today, who enjoy a social chat with him.

TEDDY'S CARD.

To be the Most Unique One Ever Made for a President.

NAVAJO SQUAW ELLE.

President Theodore Roosevelt, who on Tuesday evening was elected an honorary member of the Commercial club of the great, growing and hustling city of Albuquerque, will upon his visit to this city on May 5 be presented with the most unique card of admission that has ever been given to a president, king, prince or any other potentate since the world was created.

It is to be a Navajo saddle blanket made by one of the finest weavers of Navajo blankets in the southwest.

Judge Baker, of the Commercial club, has the matter in charge, and called at the Harvey museum this morning to consult Manager Switzer in regard to the matter. The judge brought a drawing also, and a draftsman will put on the finishing touches, so that the blanket can be got well under construction by tomorrow. Manager Switzer informed a Citizen representative that the blanket will be 53 inches long by 29 wide. It will be red with a large blue diamond running diagonal in which the letters will be worked in white. The inscription will read like this: "President Roosevelt, honorary member, Albuquerque Commercial club, May 5, 1903."

The Navajo squaw, Elle, who has been assigned to do this important work, is a good looking squaw and has nearly reached the 50-year milestone. She is considered by Manager Switzer to be the most expert squaw now living for this line of work. She has her loom all ready set up and is now waiting for the drawing, which will probably be ready for her this afternoon. The finest of material is

Roosevelt Will Leave the Park This Evening.

MANY DETECTIVES IN ST. LOUIS

The Public Schools of Illinois Observing Arbor Day.

COAL MINERS RETURN TO WORK.

Cinnabar, Mont., 24.—The president's train was moved to Gardiner, this morning. The president will probably board it after lunch and before the ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner stone of the park gate begin. The start from Gardiner will be made at 6 o'clock this evening.

WATCHING CROOKS.

Hundreds of Detectives in St. Louis to Guard President.

St. Louis, April 24.—Detectives are being brought to St. Louis from many of the principal cities of the United States. This is because of the dedication of the World's fair and the presence of President Roosevelt next week, which will attract tens of thousands of visitors from the rural districts of the different states—the very kind the crooks and the pick pockets of the large cities follow. It is well known that some of the most dangerous confidence men of the country will be attracted to St. Louis. The detectives from the cities know these crooks on sight, and several will be brought from Chicago to look out for Chicago crooks. Cincinnati detectives to keep an eye on the bad men from that city, and so on.

There are to be more than 100 of these sleuths. Whenever a professional crook is recognized he will be arrested. He will be put in jail at once and kept there until the festivities are over. It will not be necessary for him to commit a crime before he finds himself behind the bars. If there are any old charges on which these professionals, many of them ex-convicts, can be held they will be punished to the full extent. Special precautions will be taken likewise for the safety of the president during his stay in St. Louis. Besides the secret service who are now accompanying him, a special detail has been ordered from Washington and will be here by the time the presidential party reaches the city.

Miners Return to Work.

Mahoney City, Pa., April 24.—Pursuant to the action taken at a mass meeting here yesterday, 9,000 miners returned to work in the Mahoney district today, waiving the Saturday short day pending a settlement of the dispute by a board of conciliation. The Shenandoah valley men have as yet made no move to accept the company's terms.

COMING FROM WINGATE.

Forty Men From Fort Will Act as Presidential Escort.

WILL ARRIVE MAY 3.

Capt. W. E. Dame, who is one of the committee working hard to make the President Roosevelt reception a grand success in every particular, has received important news from Fort Wingate, and it is to the effect that forty men, selected for the purpose, will be here to aid in the reception to the president.

They will come forty strong—three non-commissioned officers, one hospital corps man and thirty-six troopers, under command of Lieutenant Pollon. They are scheduled to reach this city on the evening of May 3, on the No. 8 passenger train from the west, and will act as escort to President Roosevelt on the afternoon of May 5.

In a very short time these soldier boys, with others of the famous Fourteenth cavalry, will leave for duty in the Philippines, and as this will be their last social function for several years to come our citizens should show them all possible courtesies.

convention of the National Municipal league, which has been in session in Detroit for two days past, today changed the theater of its discussions to Ann Arbor, the delegates arriving by special train this morning and being welcomed by the city officials and university authorities.

Explosion in Coal Mine.
Halifax, N. S., April 24.—A dispatch from Sydney, C. B., says an explosion occurred in the Dominion Coal Reserve mine and that four men are missing and are supposed to be dead. Further information received here is that the explosion occurred early today in a slope about two miles from the pit of the Reserve mine. One man escaped but was badly burned. It is not yet known how serious the explosion was. It was attributed to fire damp resulting from the flames in pit No. 1, which have been burning for more than a month.

OUT OF DANGER.

Successful Operation Performed on Mrs. Augustine Sanchez.

CASE OF UNUSUAL INTEREST.

Mrs. Augustin Sanchez, of Barelaz, who met with a peculiar accident, which resulted in an arrested birth, is getting along nicely after having been successfully operated upon for the removal of the dead child.

The case is of unusual interest from the fact that such accidents usually precipitate the birth of the child at the time of the accident. In this case, the woman carried the dead child for nearly four months without having manifested any very decided symptoms to indicate what had happened to her.

The accident is directly traceable to a fright which Mrs. Sanchez experienced four months ago upon suddenly entering a room and finding a man lying dead upon a bed.

These cases of so-called maternal impressions are not unusual in medical literature, although in the present instance this particular case possesses features of more than ordinary interest in medical science.

The woman's husband, who is employed at the local railway shops, consulted with Dr. Crosson, who recognized the condition, and successfully operated upon her. Mrs. Sanchez is reported up and around, and her neighboring friends are pleased to report her out of all danger.

ILLINOIS RUMPUS IS NOW SETTLED

Legislature Resumes Business Without Rioting.

INVESTIGATION OF BRIBERY CHARGES

Judicial Decision Against the Railroads Discriminating in Rates.

Springfield, Ill., April 24.—A number of conferences were held previous to the meeting of the house this morning. Just before the house convened Mr. Allen, who acted as speaker during the session held by the ninety-five members that remained in their seats after Speaker Miller declared a recess yesterday morning, announced the following floor committee to act for the anti-organization forces: Democrats, Wilson, M. L. McKinley and Burton; republicans, Murray, Brundage and Tice. A conference was had with the members of the republican steering committee and it was agreed that no attempt should be made to approve the Journal of yesterday. The plan decided on was to have the matter of the approval of the Journal postponed until the next legislative day, thus leaving the proceedings of yesterday open. Mr. Rinaker was selected to make the motion to postpone. The house was called to order at 9:15 by Speaker Miller. Chaplain Powers offered a fervent prayer, but made no reference to the exciting scenes of yesterday, or of the charge of attempt of bribery, which Speaker Miller made at the session last evening. The clerk proceeded with the reading of the Journal up to the close of the regular afternoon session. Then Mr. Rinaker moved further reading of the Journal and its approval be postponed until the next legislative session. The motion was carried without opposition. Mr. Lindley then started to call up the motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendments to house bill, the Lindley land ownership bill, was adopted yesterday but immediately withdrew his request. Mr. Curtis by unanimous consent then called up a number of appropriation bills on second reading.

Bribery Charges.
Springfield, Ill., April 24.—Until the committee appointed by Speaker Miller to investigate the charges of bribery in the interests of the Mueller traction bill, made by him yesterday, has reported, and until George W. Hinman, of Chicago, has been summoned before the bar of the house, to prove similar charges published in the Inter-Ocean of Chicago no action will be taken by the house upon any of the traction bills now pending. This action was determined upon by the anti-Miller forces today and they carried it through by the passage of a resolution. The opponents of the Miller faction are firm in the belief that no proof of bribery will be forthcoming.

VICTIMIZED.

Drafts Cashed for J. B. Locke Representing J. Pierpont Morgan.

DONE FOR OVER $200.

From the sensational victimizations of the last few months in Albuquerque it seems that the Duke City is a rendezvous for the clever eastern crooks, especially New York, who represent themselves to be well connected with world renowned financiers and prominent corporations of the east. In the early part of January a stately, serious faced gentleman, his locks tinged with the characteristic grey, which invariably marks a man connected and involved in the weighty problems of the world, adorned the Alvarado register with the name of J. B. Locke, of New York. The gentleman had a congenial and winning manner, which placed him within the respect of several citizens.

Mr. Locke, in a business like manner, gave out the information that he was the traveling auditor of J. Pierpont Morgan, and the newspapers learning that a man prominently associated with the affairs of Morgan, published the following notice of his visit to the Duke City:

"J. B. Locke, representing J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., has departed for the City of Mexico, to look into the affairs of the Mexican Central and in interest of the Morgan securities. Mr. Locke holds the prominent position of auditor for the Morgan company. He has also served in the capacity of private secretary to David Bennett Hill while governor of New York, and has held many other positions of trust in the Empire state. His present mission is to get a basis of operations in the Mexican Central railroad. It is said J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. have recently invested heavily in securities in the Mexican Central and that other investments are to be made at once should examinations to be made by Locke prove satisfactorily. Mr. Locke stopped over in Albuquerque to await his baggage which had been delayed, and also the arrival of an interpreter and Spanish stenographer."

This is all the newspaper men could learn of Mr. Locke's visit here, but there were many private transactions between a few of Albuquerque's prom-

SWORD IS GIVEN.

Col. Ochiltree's Blade Presented to Confederate Veterans.

WON AT VAL VERDE BATTLE.

The presentation of the sword of Col. Tom Ochiltree to the John C. Brown camp of Confederate Veterans last night proved a notable event in army circles, says the El Paso News.

Veterans of both sides as well as Sons of Veterans with ladies and friends were present in large numbers, and the Border Rides in full uniform entertained the guests at their armory. The drum and fife corps turned out and furnished some stirring music.

After the presentation of the battle relic had taken place the crowd enjoyed the refreshments that had been provided. These consisted of coffee, sandwiches, beer, lemonade and cake.

The sword which was given by General Green to Col. Ochiltree after the battle of Val Verde for distinguished conduct during the fight, was presented to the camp by Judge Edwards, who represented the donor, Mrs. Eva O. Kneeland, the sister of Col. Ochiltree.

Judge Edwards made a notable speech, in which he reviewed the life and deeds of Tom Ochiltree, whom he had known since boyhood.

The sword was accepted for the camp by Judge Kemp, who made a few appropriate and beautiful remarks.

After this ceremony the crowd partook of the refreshments and the military company gave an exhibition drill in the manual of arms.

CANNOT DISCRIMINATE.

Railroads Enjoined Under Provisions of the Elkins Law.

Chicago, April 24.—Judge Grosscup has entered an order in the United States court of appeals enjoining six railroad companies from discriminating against small shippers in the western territory. The decision is especially important as being the first under the new Elkins law. The government according to the decision is entitled to the injunction against the defending railroads under the commerce act as well as the Elkins act. The ruling applies to fourteen railroads which were covered by proceedings instituted in the federal court. Six of these companies were defendants in the local court, and the others are under the jurisdiction of Kansas City federal court. Judge Grosscup announced that he and Judge Phillips were of one mind relative to all the points involved, and that the latter would render a like decision today.

Kansas City, Apr. 24.—Judge John F. Phillips, of the United States circuit court, said today that he would not render his decision until Monday next.

If anybody is sick at your house, that makes it all the more important that you should come here for the medicines which your doctor prescribes. The markets of the world do not afford purer drugs than we dispense. Our stock of DRUGS and SUNDRIES is full and complete.

CHINESE EXCLUSION LAW.

It seems to be extremely difficult to frame a law which the artful Chinese cannot evade. Recent reports of United States commissioners show that one of the weak features of the existing law is the clause permitting American born Chinamen to pass back and forth between China and the United States. Applications for admission into this country are steadily growing in number from Chinese who assert that they were born in San Francisco.
During the last three months 349
Chinamen have applied for admission over the Canadian border on the ground of being native born citizens of the United States, returning to the country after a visit to China. Of this number 265 have been admitted, and eighty-four have been ordered deported.
Only twenty-five have actually been sent back and the remainder are still on this side of the ocean, awaiting a decision on the appeal which they have taken from the decision of the commissioner.

GROWTH OF SOCIALIST VOTE.

At the recent election in Anaconda, Montana, the socialists carried the city. They elected their general ticket by majorities ranging from 200 to 400, and also elected three of the six aldermen.

In Butte the socialists polled an unprecedented vote, electing one alderman.
In other cities where there were socialist tickets in the field a creditable showing was made.

Socialism is spreading all over the country. Its spread is induced by the growth of the trusts on the one hand and by the growth of the doctrine of city and state ownership of public service facilities on the other—this growth to be complete when the nation has acquired ownership and control of means of transportation and communication and production.

Not only socialists, but an immense number of voters of all political faiths believe in municipal and state control of public service corporations; they fear the growing power of corporations in politics, and they believe it would be better for the entire people if the fortunes being piled up by public service corporations were left in the pockets of the people or the money applied to the payment of the taxes to a minimum.

GROWING COUNTRY.

For the first time in the history of the country, as we are told by the head of the bureau of statistics in Washington, the imports of the United States for a year have just passed the billion dollar mark. The aggregate importation of merchandise for the twelve months ending with March, 1903, were $1,001,596,683, as compared with $902,440,039 for the corresponding period in the previous year, which led all its predecessors. The imports in 1895 amounted to only $704,000,000.
In 1899, however, they were down to $660,000,000. The increase in the country's purchases abroad between this time and that has been marked.

though taking the record for eight or ten years, the gain in exports has been greater than in imports. In the twelve months ended with March, 1895, the country's exports of merchandise were $805,000,000. They were $1,414,000,000 in the twelve months ended with March of 1903. The exports were slightly higher in the two preceding years, having been $1,429,000,000 in 1902 and $1,480,000,000 in 1901, the twelve months ending in March being the year meant in each case.

Judge McMillan in Washington.

A special dispatch from Washington dated April 22, says: Judge D. H. McMillan, of Roswell, N. M., has arrived here in response to a peremptory order of the department of justice to attend the further hearing in his case.
It is believed final action will be taken by the department in a short time. While it is not certain that Judge McMillan will leave the service, there are many applications for his place, the number including half a dozen from New Mexico and several from other states.

Holbrook Jail Delivery.

Sheriff C. I. Houck, of Holbrook, was here Monday looking for a couple of escaped prisoners. Their names are Wm. O'Malley and J. T. Cahill, and were held to the grand jury on the charge of stealing a case of jewelry from a passenger on No. 2 at Winslow.
In making their escape they sawed off four bolts and cut a hole through the brick wall. The Holbrook jail is supposed to be the best and strongest cage in Arizona, and the prisoners must have been supplied with tools by some one. The sheriff left here last night, going east on a freight train, and overhauled his men at Gonzales. They were unarmed and surrendered without any trouble, but both are rated as bad men, and would no doubt have put up a good fight had they been prepared. The prisoners are being held in the city lock-up and will be taken to Holbrook on the first train going west—Gallup Republican.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.
Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic
for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like.
Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. B. H. Briggs &

Police Court.

Charles Smith, a weary looking youth who claimed to be a cook, was before Judge Crawford this morning charged with being a vagrant. He pleaded guilty and the judge gave him five days to rest up in.

A. M. Martinez, a good looking young man from Cripple Creek, was also charged with being a vagrant, but this he denied. He said he was a miner and on his way to Bisbee, Ariz., where he was to work. The judge discharged him on his promise to leave town at once.

The case against William R.
Baird, who, it is alleged, deserted his wife and infant son on December 1, 1901, will not be heard before the judge. Mr. Baird has made provision for their support at present. A suit for divorce has been filed.

A Quart Baby.

Now and again there is an item in the newspapers concerning the birth of a puny baby so small that a quart cup holds it comfortably. If the article told all the facts it would probably tell also of a mother who in weakness and misery had looked forward to the baby's advent with shrinking and fear.

To have fine, healthy children the mother must be healthy, and it is the common testimony of mothers that the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only promotes the mother's health but also gives her strength to give her child.

"Favorite Prescription" accomplishes these results by tranquilizing the nerves, promoting a healthy appetite, and giving refreshing sleep. It increases physical vigor and gives great muscular elasticity, so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best of tonics for nursing mothers.

"I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. W. Stephens of Mills, Northumberland County, Va. "Before my third little boy was born I took six bottles.
He is the finest child and has been from birth and I suffered very much less than I ever did before. I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use the Favorite Prescription."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 37 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo,

Railroad Topics

Route Agent A. J. Powell, of the Wells-Fargo Express company, went north last night.

A batch of natives left last night for the Lantry grading camps at Rio Puerco, and another batch went to southern Arizona.

It is officially announced that the loss of oil at the burning of the Santa Fe tanks at Bagdad several days ago amounted to 49,000 barrels.

F. P. Barnes, the efficient master mechanic in the local shops, who has been visiting cities in the east for several weeks, will return home today.

Four box cars were run over the new track to the site of the American Lumber company yesterday afternoon. This track runs across North Fourth street.

R. H. Ripley and family will arrive in this city this evening. They are on their way to visit Los Angeles. Mr. Ripley is the son of President Ripley of the Santa Fe.

Dr. Eugene Baites, assistant surgeon and physician on the Santa Fe cut-off, is at the St. Joseph's hospital, a patient himself. He hopes to be up and around in a few days.

Lou Atkinson, injured in the steam pipe accident at the local railway shops night before last, is at his room, 219 West Gold avenue, and is reported getting along nicely.

J. D. McLachlen has been promoted and appointed manager of the Western Union telegraph office of Las Vegas, succeeding Bell Brooks in that position, the latter leaving for San Francisco.

Car loads of steel rails and other supplies are being rapidly received by the Santa Fe Central railway at Santa Fe. The Denver & Rio Grande trains are run in with two engines, so heavy is the traffic.

The railroads, in their appeal, give thirty-four reasons why the "merger" decision should be reversed. In the array is every conceivable technicality except that the bill itself once said "hear you" instead of "hear yes."

Officials of the Rock Island declare that the "Golden State Limited" train will not be taken off this summer. It is stated that tri-weekly service will be maintained, as travel to California during the summer has greatly increased.

Mrs. Sam. Bushey, president of the G. I. A. to the B. of L. E., at Las Vegas, has resigned her office and will leave that city. The ladies of her lodge held a meeting the other evening and presented Mrs. Bushey with a handsome star and crescent pin, emblematic of the order.

R. M. Hodges, the wide awake general purchasing agent of the Santa Fe system, together with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, of Chicago, passed through here last evening in a private car bound for the coast. Mrs. Ellis is the accomplished daughter of President Ripley, of the Santa Fe road.

The shut down of the Minneapolis flour mills, undertaken as a protest against discriminatory freight rates on flour, as compared with wheat, has come to an end. While no formal concessions have been made by the railroads, assurances have been received which justify the millers in resuming.

Stewart L. Moore, general freight agent of the Northern Pacific road, died suddenly of pleurisy at his home in St. Paul, aged 50 years. Mr. Moore was at his desk a few hours before death and though he did not feel well he was not thought to be seriously ill. Mr. Moore was widely known in railroad circles throughout the United States.

C. E. Cramer, who is the traveling engineer of the Baldwin locomotive works, came in from Douglas, Ariz., this morning, and will remain a few days with his family. Mr. Cramer was at Douglas personally superintending the putting up of a number of new Baldwin engines for the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, known as the Blisbee road.

A branch of the Order of Railway Clerks of America was installed at Denver by District Organizer W. E. Sanford. The purpose is to affiliate this body with the other railway organizations. The order is said to have already extended over much of the United States and to enjoy a membership of many thousands. All clerks and other employees of railway offices are eligible to membership.

It is not generally known, but one of the big passenger engines in use on the Santa Fe will consume twelve tons of coal in traveling 125 miles. This is probably more than is consumed by any other type of engine in use on any railroad. It almost seems impossible that an engine could consume that much coal in traveling that number of miles, but it is done under ordinary conditions.

At the session of the Transcontinental Passenger association, at Portland, Ore., the committee appointed to take up the matter of east bound rates to a number of annual conventions made its report. The association voted a one fare first class rate from the Pacific coast, except the North Pacific points, with a ninety-day limit from the date of sale and stopover privileges except in California, on going trip. The Elkins act was taken up and discussed sufficiently to show where the diversity of opinion in this matter begins.

It is stated as a matter of interest that James H. Moore, one of the principal owners of the Rock Island, is one of the greatest travelers in the United States and that on every trip he spares no expense to make his travels comfortable. He always occupies his private car and when going long journeys takes his orchestra with him, using five cars to convey his party. For one week passed at Hot Springs, Va., this spring his bills aggregated more than $10,000. He made his fortune in the manufacture of tin plate before he entered the railroad world. Mr. Moore and party were in Topeka last winter on their way to California and at that time two car loads of blooded horses helped to make up the equipment of his special train.

G. W. Martin, general western agent for the Frisco system, returned to Denver from St. Louis. "During my trip," said Mr. Martin, "I saw a great many railroad men. I was impressed with their general determination to conform absolutely to the spirit and letter of the Elkins law, both as regards making reduced freight rates and the issuance of free or reduced transportation. All lines have canceled any and all obligations they might have acquired prior to the passage of the law and which would now conflict with it."

Mrs. Captain Phillips has just completed a very fine painting of Thumb Butte, with a banner hanging on its side with a very finely executed picture of the California Limited train of the Santa Fe. In the corner of the picture are a lot of Santa Fe time schedule folders, so natural looking that if one were about to start off on a journey he might be tempted to try to pick one of them up. The picture has been elegantly framed and is on exhibition in the office of H. P. Anwalt, but will probably be sent east to ornament some hotel office.—Prescott Journal-Miner.

A placard has been tacked on the wall at the Phoenix office of the Santa Fe railroad company which attracts considerable attention and shows that the author has been to Sunday school some time in his life. It says: "Friends, read the Elkins bill, and lead us not into temptation." People who have read the daily papers regularly know that the Elkins' bill is a new law that prohibits railroads from giving out passes promiscuously. It might be said on the side that the authors and promoters of the law were three well known railroad men of this country, two from the Santa Fe and one from the Pennsylvania.

The New Mexican says: There was no train in on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad last night and consequently none left for the north over the road this morning. The trestle over an arroyo on Barranca hill, south of Espanola, was burned yesterday morning. It was expected that the bridge would be repaired by tonight and that the train would come in on time and make the regular trip tomorrow. The train came down as far as Espanola last night and went north from there this morning. It is not known how the fire originated.

EXTEND TO WINSLOW.

Santa Fe Will Burn Oil on an Entire New Division.

When details under way are completed the Santa Fe will be equipped for extending use of oil as fuel over an entire new division, says a dispatch from Los Angeles, dated April 22.

The system is using oil as far east as Seligman and the plans contemplate an extension of the use of this fuel as far as Winslow. The point last named is only 128 miles from the company's present coal supply in its western territory, located at Gallup, N. M. Additional mileage to be taken in and equipped for oil burning purposes will be 143 miles and will include the most mountainous division in the company's entire system.

Well 23, owned by the company in its Fullerton field has developed a gusher. The hole has been in operation several years and was being pumped shallow. It was decided to deepen the well, and at a depth of nearly 2,100 feet the well began Tuesday to throw out nearly 500 barrels of oil in every twenty-four hours.

According to a statement made at Santa Fe headquarters the company for some time has been in the market selling oil. Its consumption at present is 35,000 barrels a month on the lines of the Southern California railway, about 30,000 barrels on the San Joaquin valley division, and in excess of 60,000 barrels a month on the Santa

ITS BREATH

Came Stealing In the Doorway.

The aroma from a neighbor's kitchen was the curious starting point for a great change in the life of a woman in Kansas City, whom coffee kept in bed for days at a time with stomach trouble and severe headaches.

She says: "One day I was attracted to a fragrance from the kitchen of a neighbor who told me that it was Postum Food Coffee and asked me why I did not quit coffee and use Postum to see if it would not benefit my health."

"I made the change recommended and in a few days my headaches disappeared, stomach got better and I began to get well. That was about nine months ago."

"I have steadily used Postum since and am now so well that I can eat practically anything, but I absolutely can not drink coffee without getting right back into the old trouble. I wish I had known of Postum years ago."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Fe Pacific lines. The aggregate is about 135,000 barrels a month, and the proposed addition of the company's Winslow division will increase the consumption to an additional 35,000 barrels a month. When the new territory is added the lines of the entire Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railroad will be provided with oil-burning facilities.

When existing contracts mature the Santa Fe will produce sufficient oil from its own field to supply its entire consumption. This can be done at any time. Fuel oil now used on the Santa Fe Pacific is supplied by contract made for a term of years some time ago. This arrangement will not expire for three years yet.

The surest and safest remedy for kidney and bladder diseases is Foley's Kidney Cure. Alvarado Pharmacy.

The Lawn Question.

The remarks of pleasure and appreciation let fall by the passengers concerning the Castaneda lawns, and the sightworthy building itself, are highly interesting to the loyal Las Vegas, who chance to hear them. The general verdict is that the Castaneda lawns are far ahead of those of the Alvarado in Albuquerque.—Las Vegas Optic.

"Keep your nose out of Albuquerque affairs." There is not a man on the Optic that knows a grassy lawn from a barren desert.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case resulting in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Rate Withdrawn.

Acting upon information received from Las Vegas, General Passenger Agent Jerry Black, of Topeka, has withdrawn the offer of a $2 rate, given on condition that 250 citizens should pledge themselves to go to Santa Fe to the president's reception. The withdrawal of the rate seems to be premature. There seems to be little doubt but as many people as required would take advantage of the reduced rate, but it is not easy to get that number of people to pledge themselves beforehand. Probably the Santa Fe will reconsider the matter if the required number of names are pledged. Otherwise the rate of $3.35 for the round trip will be given.—Las Vegas Optic.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all druggists.

WERST WILL GO.

Resigns Santa Fe Job to Work for Baldwin Company.

C. W. Werst, who has been general foreman of the locomotive department at the Santa Fe shops in San Bernardino, Cal., for the past fourteen months, has tendered his resignation, to take effect May 1. He leaves the company of his own accord in order to accept a more lucrative position with the Baldwin Locomotive works.

The position which he will take with the Baldwin works is that of inspector of work in the erecting department, a much better position than that held by him previous to coming to the Santa Fe.

He will go to Baldwin's in time to take up his new work May 12.

The successor to the office of general foreman has not yet been fully decided upon.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lenhart, Bowling Green, Ohio.

THEIR LAST DEMAND.

Alton Trainmen Confer With Santa Fe and Rock Island Employees.

The trainmen of the Chicago & Alton have just filed their ultimatum with the officials of the road concerning the rate of pay and are now awaiting their reply, says a dispatch from Bloomington, Ill.

The officials were notified that the scale of 15 per cent increase for freight men and 12 per cent for passenger, in addition to other provisions in a new schedule, must be allowed or there would be no further parleying. The conference has just concluded. There was also a joint conference of Alton, Rock Island, Wabash, Santa Fe and Illinois Central trainmen. The Santa Fe has accepted the above scale and the Rock Island is said to be willing, but wished to postpone matters until after President Roosevelt completes his tour of that system. The postponement was granted. The Alton employees have taken the initiative in the demand following the joint conference and insist upon an early reply. The officials have taken the proposed advance and new schedule under advisement and a reply is hourly expected. The schedule is somewhat different from that offered by the company, but the employees say that only the one submitted by the men will be accepted. The opinion is general among the local employees that the answer of the officials will be favorable.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park avenue, Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. Alvarado Pharmacy.

HELP THE CONDUCTORS.

"Train Collectors" Will Take Up Fares on Southern Pacific.

A special from El Paso says: The new train collectors who were appointed on the Southern Pacific the 15th have begun to come in on their runs. Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Boone and Logsdon will operate Nos. 7 and 8, while Messrs. Schloss, Sewell and McGee will be on Nos. 9 and 10 between El Paso and Tucson. The appointment of train collectors was made for the purpose of lessening the duties of the conductors and giving them more time to look after the operation of trains. The train collectors are required to look after the collection of all tickets and cash fares and to take up the necessary portion of the exchange tickets issued by the train agents. The train agents, who work out of this point are Messrs. Turner, Thompson and Winston.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price, 50c and $1. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

He Was Remembered.

Victor Lundgreen, of Chicago, who came here some six months ago on account of that dreaded disease, consumption, having a hold upon him, left last night for Hot Springs, Ark. Victor has been one of the bell boys at the Alvarado during his sojourn here, and a good one, too. He did not seem to gain much in this climate, so he is to try the Hot Springs region. The guests of the hotel learning of his good qualities and faithful discharge of duties made up a purse of $35 and presented it to him to aid him in the fight for health. Victor will remember this generosity as long as he lives.

Many—any, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion, depart. Mrs. Mary A. Vilet, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horehound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00, at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. Ruppe.

IRRIGATION COMMISSION.

Proceedings of the Meeting Held at Territorial Capital.

STORAGE RESERVOIR PROJECTS.

The territorial irrigation commission adjourned Wednesday afternoon after being in session in Santa Fe at the office of Col. George W. Knebel, secretary of the commission, since Monday afternoon.

A number of important matters were considered aside from the routine business.

It was decided to recommend to the territorial land board the sale of 25,000 acres of land to the best and highest bidder, and to request the land board to advertise in the newspapers for the sale of these lands. It is to be disposed of in tracts not to exceed 160 acres to one person. It is the intention to have the proceeds used for making such investigation of the irrigation question as the commission is required by law to do, and also to make experiments if they should be deemed feasible looking toward the procurement of water in the Rio Grande valley by pumping.

The commission also recommended the setting aside of a tract of land in Dona Ana county not to exceed 50,000 acres for reclamation by the means of artesian wells. This land is to be sold at $1.25 per acre in sections in which artesian water in sufficient quantities to reclaim the land is actually developed. It is understood that parties with ample capital at their disposal are proposing to have the necessary experimental wells bored for that purpose.

The commission also reaffirmed its previous decision to recommend the selections of lands to the amount of 200,000 acres with a view to obtain revenue for the rights of pasturage thereon and the granting of such rights of pasturage for the period allowed by law to parties who have offered to advance to the territory the funds necessary for the cost and expense of selling and entering these lands and of carrying on the United States land commission.

Several projects looking to the creation of storage reservoirs under the law of 1901 were placed before the commission but none of these have as yet reached a stage for final action. The commission has received orders for the purchase of large tracts of land but deemed the sale to the highest bidder the best means of disposing of them.

Adjournment was taken subject to the call of the chairman. All meetings of the commission are held in Santa Fe.

RUSSIAN DEMANDS.

That Country Makes Demand on China for Control of Manchuria.

Washington, April 24.—Minister Conger, from Pekin, has cabled to Secretary Hay a synopsis of the demands made upon China by Russia respecting control of Manchuria. Hay will take no action in the matter until he has communicated the facts to the president and has learned the latter's wishes. The political impression here is that the Russian action is a distinct breach of faith with the United States, but officials declare there is no danger if war with Russia over this incident. As the result of Secretary Hay's projected conference with the president is probable that remonstrance will be made.

But it is anticipated that Russia will, for the time being at least, ally foreign opposition or at least that of the United States by carrying out its pledge as to the "open door." An official of the government, well informed regarding Chinese affairs, says the step taken by Russia is one for which she has been preparing for a number of years. Extraordinary as it may seem, he says there appears to be no way of preventing the consummation of Russia's plan. Japan is in no way to dispute the action and even with the assistance of England, it is doubtful, in his opinion, whether the purpose of Russia could be changed.

TYNER CASE.

Papers Abstracted Will Be Returned by Mrs. Tyner.

Washington, April 24.—Ross Perry, attorney for Mrs. James N. Tyner, whose husband yesterday was summarily removed from his position as assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, under rather sensational circumstances, called upon Attorney General Knox today and talked over the case with him. He made to the attorney general substantially the same statement given out by him last night, namely, that the papers taken by Mrs. Tyner from the safe in her husband's office on Tuesday were altogether personal, but they would be returned when called for. The attorney general declines to make any statement concerning the case.

OF LEGAL INTEREST.

The Sheriff Case of Sandoval County—Will Answer Monday.

Charles A. Spiess, attorney, of Las Vegas, has been here in the city for several days looking after legal problems for Sheriff Alfredo Sandoval, of Sandoval county, in the quo warranto proceedings brought against him to oust him from the office. The quo warranto proceedings alleged that Sandoval was not of legal age when he was appointed to the office by the county commissioners and did not own the necessary $500 worth of real estate prescribed by law.

The defendant will file answer Monday and will claim that he is of legal age and owns $500 worth of real estate. It is possible that the evidence in the case will be taken on Monday next.

Attorney Spiess was reticent when asked about the proceedings brought Wednesday by Solicitor General E. L. Bartlett in the matter of the commissioner appointments in this county. He will return to this city on Sunday evening to be present on Monday at the court house.

DISTRICT COURT.

Cases Before Judge Benjamin S. Baker This Morning.

Thomas Dye was this morning granted an absolute divorce from his wife upon the ground of abandonment. The suit was not contested by Mrs. Dye. It appears from the evidence that the defendant had not cohabited with the plaintiff for five years past, and has refused to live with the plaintiff.

In the matter of the appeal taken in the case of the estate of S. D. Wilson, the court this morning set aside an order for maintenance of the wife and exemptions and approved the report of the executor.

For the next week she will be busily engaged in this work at the Harvey curio rooms. She may be selected to present the blanket to Teddy.

LEARNARD RETURNED.

He Visited Valuable Mines in the Cat Mountains.

George P. Learnard, the music dealer of territorial popularity, returned this morning from Magdalena, and other southern towns after a successful business trip.

While at Magdalena Mr. Learnard drove out to the mines in the Cat Mountains owned and operated by Baptist ministers, which are in charge of Prof. C. L. Herriek, formerly of the University of New Mexico.

"I have made many trips throughout the territory," said Mr. Learnard, "but this trip to mines in the Cat Mountains was one of the most enjoyable and instructive trips I have ever taken. The new mill at the mines is almost completed; new buildings are going up and new shafts are being sunk. The value of the ore is increasing with the depth of the mines, and I learned the future prospects are exceedingly bright. These mines present an active appearance and a visitor is treated with the greatest courtesy and respect.

Mr. Learnard sold a goodly number of the Chickering Bros.' pianos while on this trip and will return to that section of the territory in a short time.

ALBUQUERQUE EAGLES.

Their Successful Entertainment Attract Attention in Eagle Circles.

The successful musical performance given by the Eagles on March 19, known as the Eagles' Picnic, has attracted widespread attention in the Eagle circles throughout the country. A newsy paper, The California Eagle, starts out with a story like this: "The Albuquerque Eagles gave a great blow out the other night—but let the reporter of the Albuquerque Citizen tell about it. He was there with both feet one must believe. Then they gave The Citizen's report of the Eagles' Picnic, adding complimentary remarks to Mrs. Rosa Berry, who had charge of the musical features.

The Fraternal Eagle, published by Eagles, for Eagles and covering the entire jurisdiction, contains a meritorious report written by Nat Green, a prominent Eagle of Albuquerque.

As clever entertainers the Eagles of Albuquerque have an enviable reputation.

VICTIMIZED.

ment business men, a few which have just come to light, and many which never will be revealed.

Of course, it was only natural the newspaper men should receive such a well made-up story, as Mr. Morgan's man had won the confidence of the feminine faced day clerk at the hotel, putting a large sized bug in his ear about who and what he was. Mr. Locke even dreamed an immense pipe to the clerk that he intended to buy the street railway here and develop the hidden mines under the city. The flattered clerk communicated these tales of wonder to the inquisitive reporters in an almost inaudible whisper, but for some unknown reason retained the most important information.

After receiving the indorsement of the newspapers, Mr. Locke did not leave town, but placed himself in a smiling attitude in the presence of a prominent democratic lawyer and politician and a republican territorial official, whose headquarters are in Santa Fe, but whose residence is in Albuquerque, and handing them a conversation of touching merits, they cashed a couple of drafts amounting to over $200.

On acquiring his easily gained wealth, but as far as can be learned only two mortals mourned his loss. Mr. Locke next showed up in El Paso, where his operations, if they were more successful than in Albuquerque, it is not known.

The next heard from the clever swindler appears in the columns of the San Francisco Examiner, March 23, just a month ago, under the following head, "Officials Bemoan Loss of Their Money." "Senator Smith, George Scott and Others Victimized by a Smooth Individual Named John Locke or John Search."

Then comes the special dispatch to the Examiner from Sacramento, March 22, "Senator Fred Smith, of Los Angeles, and George Scott, a clerk in the secretary of state's office, were victimized during the session of the legislature by a smooth individual who gave him name as John B. Locke. He was also known as John Search, Locke or Search gave it out that he was a representative of J. P. Morgan, the eastern financier, and that he was in attendance upon the legislature in the interests of the Western Pacific railroad bills.

"After several of the senators and assemblymen and others connected with certain of the state offices in the capitol had 'warmed up' to him he sprung the old game of the well connected man who was in daily expectation of the receipt of money from the east, but could not understand why it was slow in coming. Locke made such a favorable impression upon some of his new formed friends that a few of them volunteered to advance him money until he received his money from the east. He told such a plausible story about his connections with J. P. Morgan that some of the legislators took rather kindly to him, with the result that they are now heaping the loss of several dollars, and uttering imprecations upon the head of the swindler. He secured $150 from Senator Smith, it is stated, and managed to induce Scott to part with $25. He also became friendly with Clio Lloyd, chief clerk of the assembly, but secured no money from Lloyd.

It is current rumor here that one of the principal reasons for the opposition by some of the legislators to the Western Pacific bills was the numerous efforts Locke made to borrow from members of the legislature. They considered that although it might have been possible that Locke was in some way connected with J. P. Morgan, yet they could not understand how he could be without funds. This fact caused feeling of distrust to spring up regarding Locke, which had much to do in interfering with his swindling tactics in the halls of legislation.

If Locke is apprehended he will be brought back to this city and prosecuted.

A Citizen reporter called on one of the gentlemen of this city, but did not receive enough information to write the introduction of a book on "Easy Street in Albuquerque."

The gentleman stated that it was true that he had been swindled, and it wasn't necessary to make excuses.

But that Locke's story of his connections with Morgan seemed very plausible, and that the eight drafts issued on J. Pierpont Morgan looked to be genuine, but they were returned ushonored after Locke had gone over the horizon.

Locke had a winning manner which could unquestionably gain the confidence of the shrewdest of men, as did the impersonator of Howard J. Gould, whose sensational victimizing by the wholesale is still fresh in the minds of the people.

Locke left Albuquerque on the 7th or 8th of March and was seen in El Paso by several Albuquerque gentlemen during the mid-winter carnival at the Pass City. He was seen by one of his victims in Albuquerque, but it was before the drafts had been returned dishonored. Whether or not he was successful in his unique manner is not known. At least there has been no reports of any business man in that city misplacing his confidence.

While in Albuquerque Locke met many gentlemen, all of whom were told the same story about the Morgan connections. He spread his wings in a lofty flight taking prominent gentlemen to dinner and entertaining them in a royal manner. During his visit here he met a gentleman, Mr. Cunningham, of New York, who is spending the winter at the Alvarado. Mr. Cunningham had known of Locke for the past twenty-five years, but had never been intimately acquainted. To the inquiries of the reporter last night, he said:

"I have known of Locke for about twenty-five years. His home is in Albany, N. Y., but for the past ten years he has been in New York city. Locke was private secretary for David B. Hill while he was governor of New York, and held many positions of trust. He is from a fine family, and studied law, being admitted to the bar in New York. He told me, when he was here, that he was auditor for Morgan, but not being interested I never inquired further into the matter. Locke was a fine appearing man and had a way of winning friends on short notice. I had never known or suspected that he was crooked. After he left I heard of his crooked work, and have not heard of him since."

It was nearly two months after Locke left Albuquerque before he turned up in Sacramento under the same name. Had the victims here placed the story in the hands of the newspaper men, which would have reached the Associated Press, Locke's confidence game would have been checked. But the matter was hushed, only a few men knowing of the crooked work of Locke. The authorities of the coast cities are hot on his trail and expect to bring him to justice.

The idea of associating with a celebrity exposes many a man's vanity and places him on easy street for the clever swindlers who go west quite often for the health of their pocket-books.

Herbina Cures

Fever and ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midland, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbina in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for la grippe, bilious fever, and malaria." 50c at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. Ruppe.

A Citizen reporter called on one of the gentlemen of this city, but did not receive enough information to write the introduction of a book on "Easy Street in Albuquerque."

The gentleman stated that it was true that he had been swindled, and it wasn't necessary to make excuses.

But that Locke's story of his connections with Morgan seemed very plausible, and that the eight drafts issued on J. Pierpont Morgan looked to be genuine, but they were returned

Charles Mead, who was employed as pharmacist at the Winters drug store, Las Vegas, passed through the city for San Marcel, where he goes as manager of a drug store, which he has, in conjunction with his brother-in-law, Lee Shallenberger, lately purchased.

Caution!

This is not a caution word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25-cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

R. W. Goodyear, who has been in the Duke City to take civil service examination for Uncle Sam's service, returned to his home in Fort Bayard last night.

A PESTIFEROUS GERM.

Burrows Up the Scalp Into Dandruff and Saps the Hair's Vitality.

People who complain of falling hair as a rule do not know that it is the result of dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite burrowing up the scalp as it digs down to the sheath in which the hair is fed in the scalp. Before long the hair root is shriveled up and the hair drops out. If the work of the germ is not destroyed hair keeps thinning till baldness comes. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and until now there has been no hair preparation that would do it; but today dandruff is easily eradicated by Newbro's Herpicide, which makes hair glossy and soft as silk.

TO TAKE PART.

National Guard Will be at Roosevelt's Reception at Santa Fe.

NECESSARY ORDERS ISSUED.

The following important orders from the adjutant general's office of the territory, concerning the part the national guard of New Mexico is to take in the reception of President Roosevelt in Santa Fe on May 5, were issued by Adjutant General W. H. Whiteman: Territory of New Mexico, Office of Adjutant General, Santa Fe, N. M., April 22, 1903.

General Orders No. 10:
1. Company F of the First regiment of infantry, and the Cavalry band will assemble in full uniform at Company
F armory, at 7:30 o'clock a. m., May 5, 1903, for the purpose of assisting in the reception to be given to his excellency, the president of the United States.
2. All officers and soldiers of the national guard at stations outside of Santa Fe, are invited to participate in the reception to be given to the president of the United States in the city of Santa Fe, May 5, 1903. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company has granted a round trip rate of 1 cent per mile for the occasion to all officers and soldiers of the national guard visiting Santa Fe in uniform.
3. The ranking infantry officer present at the reception to the president is charged with the duty of organizing the visiting officers and men into provisional companies for the purpose of assisting in the ceremonies. He will have command of the provisional battalion and will select his aides from the junior officers present, and will report to the chief marshal, George W.
Knaebel, who will designate the proper position for the battalion in the parade.
4. All officers of the national guard present in uniform on the occasion, not on duty with their respective commands, or on detail, will be temporarily attached as aides on the staff of the commander-in-chief.
5. The officers commanding on the occasion will detail an officer of the rank of captain to act as officer of the day, and an officer of the rank of first lieutenant to act as officer of the guard. He will also detail an officer to command the guard, the strength of which will be fixed by the commanding officer after consultation with the chief marshal, who will also advise him as to the proper stations of the guard to prevent intrusion upon the president.
6. Sleeping quarters will be provided for members of the national guard

in Company A armory, where blankets will be furnished for their comfort.

By order of Miguel A. Otero, governor and commander-in-chief.

W. H. WHITEMAN,
Brig. Gen., Adjutant General.

ARBOR DAY.

School Children of Illinois Planting
Hundreds of Trees.
Springfield, Ill., April 24.—Advises received by the state superintendent of public instruction indicate that Arbor day is to be more generally observed by schools and colleges throughout the state today than has been the custom heretofore. Persistent efforts are being made by the state authorities, aided by various interested societies, to have the public attach more importance to the planting and preservation of trees. In his proclamation designating today as Arbor day Governor Yates said in part as follows:

"The forests of this country are of great economic value. It is estimated that the annual consumption of wood is at last twice as great as the annual growth. Aside, therefore, from beautifying the home surroundings and the public grounds and highways, it is good public policy to increase the practical knowledge which may lead in due time to restoration to the balance. For these reasons I urge in an special way that the work of planting trees on the grounds of schools of all grades be continued, and that all teachers employed by the state or any school district provide for suitable instruction in the care of trees and their importance."

MORMONS TO BE DEPORTED.

Prussia Will Expel Mormon Missionaries From that Country.

Berlin, April 24.—The governments of Prussia and of the Grand Duchy of Mecklenburg have decided to expel the Mormon missionaries, of whom there are 145 in Germany and 50 in Prussia, on the ground that they are propagating a form of religious belief incompatible with the laws of the state and public morals and because polygamy is not excluded from their doctrines. The missionaries, who are all Americans, will be allowed sufficient time to settle up their personal affairs. None of the Mormons have yet been deported.

and bladder right. Don't delay taking.

Supreme Court Declined.

Denver, April 24.—The supreme court today declined to take original jurisdiction in the suit of the News-Times company, to have declared invalid the general appropriation bill passed by the last legislature. The suit will be filed immediately in the district court.

In the case of James O. Parish and others against the fire and police board, to oust the old board and seat
the board appointed by the governor, the court announced that it would take original jurisdiction.

Telegraph Office Closed.

Butte, Mont., April 24.—Acting from instruction from Superintendent Mc-Michael at Minneapolis, Manager Wild closed the local office of the Western Union Telegraph company at midnight, and announced that business through this office will be entirely suspended till further notice. The order applies to all leased wires as well as others. The trouble arose out of a strike of the messenger boys, the decision of the company to close the office following an unsuccessful attempt to deliver messages yesterday.

affords security from all kidney and bladder diseases. Alvarado Pharmacy.

Rio Grande Trains Collide.
Glenwood Springs, Colo., April 24.—
Through the failure of the air brake
to work, east bound passenger train
No. 6 and west bound No. 1 on the Rio Grande, collided in the Grand Canyon.
The engine of the east bound train was badly demolished, but no one was hurt.

Low Excursion Rates.
Denver, April 24.—The Rock Island system announces a series of low excursion rates from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo to Chicago, St.
Louis, St. Paul and intermediate points. The rate will be one fare plus $2 for the round trip on June 5, 6, 12 and 13, good for return to October 31.

"Davy Crockett."

That the public likes this play has been made very evident. The play of "Davy Crockett" differs from many of its kind and in a way to be commended. In the first place it is not a harrowing affair. It seeks to present a heart-holding story to command the sympathies, and in the last scene of all to thrill. It does all of these. It is smartly written, and its scenes follow
one another in sprightly fashion.
"Davy Crockett" with a capable company will be at the opera house Wednesday, April 29.

NEW YORK NEWS LETTER.

New York, April 24.—Flowers as an accessory of fashion were never in greater demand than this year. Indeed the modish woman's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of flowers, with apologies to Tennyson, as the young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love in the springtime.

Blooms of all descriptions run the entire gamut of new dress and millinery trimmings and there are even variations for those who wish flower-bedecked lingerie.

A pretty effect contains in an afternoon gown of pastel green cloth of light weight and high finish. The corsage and skirt are almost covered by a white green silk braiding upon which are applied small sprays of silk rosebuds and green leaves. From the waist broad plaits are interlaced by inlet pieces of the cloth worked over with the flower trimmed braiding.

Plaits similarly braided on the bodice meet a triple pointed yoke having shoulder epaulettes forming a double pelorine.

Accompanying this toilette is an oval toque with loops of shaded green and white straw arranged in flower shapes, massed closely together over the crown and around the deep brim. These flowers, if they may be called so, are each formed of four loops, the white ones fitting in the interstices of the green. Around the deep brim a few green and white grapes with the bloom on and some tendrils, curl.

Elegant separate shirts of black crepe de Chine, voile and etamine designed for wear with separate bodices have exquisite flounces of chiffon and net embroidered with flowers of all kinds. Though black pond lilies and wild roses are blooms that exist only in the modiste's mind, they make an effective trimming for these deep flounces. The upper parts of the shirt are either tucked transversely, plaited or shirred all the way around at intervals of about eight or ten inches.

With restrictions the separate bodices still enjoy popular favor despite predictions to the contrary. Dame Fashion has succeeded, however, in reducing the subject to the white waist and no other is permissible with a separate skirt. This is an ornate and beautiful in detail as ever and may be carried out in any of the silky diaphanous materials trimmed with lace, embroidery and flowers.

There is an extensive range of cream and pastel groundvoles stamped and embroidered with flowers for late spring and summer gowns. One of the favorite blossoms is the gardenia which is worn en bouquet with violets and imitated in embroidery of water color decorations.

Sharing some of the favor accorded the gardenia is the simple old-fashioned geranium. It is remarkable how well this flower holds its own against the fleeting changes of fashion. One reason is that it is so realistic in the variety of reds that are now de rigueur. And, incidentally, red was never more fashionable. Whole costumes in glowing scarlet relieved with black are seen everywhere and have a stunning ensemble when topped with a chic hat to match.

A smart chapeau worn with an afternoon gown is red granite had a foundation of pale grey tulle and was very large and flat. Caught in care less clusters all over the tulle was a mass of purplish-red berries, while at the back a large scarlet velvet bow with purplish sheen glistened against the hair.

The back was neat in effect and the sides were shirred in several groups of five rows each. It takes a slender figure to wear such a skirt, though, as does the sun ray skirt, which is another new style. The latter is made of small plaits, which spread suddenly from the top into a wide flare at the hem.

The bodice of the grenadine gown has insertions of heavy creafate threaded with black and there was a lace yoke with incrustated bunches of black and steel beads.

An elegant costume which might serve as a model for home dressmaker and developed in champagne ladies' cloth. The corsage has a quaintly shaped tipped collar bordered with a similar color taffetas upon which are incrustations of needle point lace.

The skirt, having a hip emplacement of taffetas incrustated to correspond, falls into innumerable narrow plaits to the hem. This falling from a flat placement gives the figure a sheath-like effect distinctly becoming and allows the supple cloth to follow the figure in the plaits in the graceful lines, destroying any tendency to bulkiness.

Deep frings are seen on gowns of all descriptions and are graceful and effective when properly used. A blue muf face voile, a charming new material which may be mistaken for and is less expensive than crepe de Chine, affords a striking arrangement of fringed ornamentation. It begins in an unlined yoke of blue lace, from the lower edge of which a fringe of fine steel beads falls to the waist line.

The skirt, which is scant and clinging, trails in the back and is formed entirely of overlapping rows of fringe matching that on the bodice. The lowest row is very wide and each succeeding row is narrower, although that at the top is fully nine inches deep.

No woman with fashionable pretensions is ready for any day-time function nowadays without a bag of some sort, consequently there are a number of designs from which one might make a selection. The prettiest bags are of delicate gold and silver filagree finished like many of the silk bags with drawn strings in the shape of chains to match the bags, run through metal rings a couple of inches from the top, the tops then fall back in metal ruffles and have little points finished with tiny round pendants.

Black jewelry is very fashionable and one does not have to be in mourning to wear it. It comes in enamel, gun metal, dull jet, bog oak and bright cut jet. Set with gold and studded with peering, grey or white, the dull or bright jet is delightfully pretty and loses all the sombreness which one might be apt to associate with it. These odd trifles are at all prices from fifteen cents for a gunmetal safety pin ornamented with a single baroque pearl, to fifty dollars for a brooch of cut-jet flowers.

It is an assured fact that elbow sleeves and collarless waists will be quite the rage as soon as real summer weather arrives so the girl with skinny arms and scrawny necks should consider herself forewarned and look up grand-mother's receipts for the skin-foods and creams that will build up relaxed tissues and fill out the hollows. Nothing looks prettier than a well rounded neck and arm and there will be an opportunity this summer to show them off more fascinatingly than ever.

For the woman who does not smile approval on the collarless bodice there will be narrow neckbands of transparent lace supported by boning or delicate ribbons run through them.

Maude Griffins.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, of Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by all druggists.

The Citizen reproduces the following article from the Hillsboro, Ohio, Gazette:

Milton McKeehan, president of the McKeehan-Hiestand Grocery company, of this place, died at his home on Walnut street on Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock, after an illness of about three weeks. His death was not unexpected, as his condition had been precarious for some time, but the end came suddenly and painlessly, and was due directly to a weakened heart.

He was born in Sinking Spring, this county, about 66 years ago, and developed a fondness for mercantile pursuits and in early life was engaged in the grocery business in Cynthiana, Piqua county, and later at Locust Grove, Adams county. In 1867 he removed to Hillsboro and was engaged in the retail grocery business for about fifteen years, and then became a member of the jobbing firm of Amen, Gregg & Co. Later the McKeehan-Hiestand Grocery company was organized and he was made the president of this large establishment and continued to act in the capacity until the time of his death.

Mr. McKeehan leaves a wife, who is a sister of Senator Foraker, and five children, as follows: Mrs. S. T. Logan, of Westwood; Miss Fannie, now engaged in teaching school at Redlands, Cal.; Frank, who resides here; Fred, of El Paso, Texas; and Homer, of Cleveland.
