The disappearance of Harry Root, one of the prominent citizens of this city, has been a subject of great concern in recent weeks. Root, a well-respected member of the community, has been missing since the night of last week, and his family and friends have been searching for him ever since.

Root was last seen in his home on the west side of the city, and his family believes that he may have been abducted. They have reported the matter to the police, who are investigating the case.

The police have been searching for Root in the surrounding areas, but so far they have been unsuccessful in locating him. The family is hoping that someone will come forward with information that may help them find him.

The disappearance of Harry Root is a matter of great concern to the people of this city, and they are all hoping for a quick and safe resolution to the case.
Railroad Topics

P. H. Mader, engineer of Santa Fe at Dallas, was in Albuquerque yesterday.

Benjamin T. Lewis, who has a coast-to-coast contract for the Santa Fe Railway, called here yesterday.

Chase notes are offered by the Santa Fe at all points for the next two weeks. All notes are payable Sept. 30, 1903.

The body of C. H. Croff, the young railroad man who was burned to death at Frisco, Mo., last week, arrived here yesterday for burial. Mr. Croff was 25 years old and was on a trip to St. Louis.

The last bus of the Railway Age Express arrives at the hotel yesterday. The work done by the Lakie & Bone for the Santa Fe was completed yesterday.

Frank Robinson, the Santa Fe Central railway, was on the road yesterday and was giving the crews of the Pennsylvania trains a much-needed change. He is expected to be back next Wednesday.

The survey crew from Graham to Deming and Silver City was also on the road yesterday. They are making the survey for the Santa Fe Central road.

The New York Times published an article yesterday on the biggest road trouble yet encountered on the Santa Fe Central road. The trouble was caused by the Santa Fe Central road crew who built a road that was too narrow for the trains.

Throckmorton, Vice President, amounting to $25,000, was said by the secretary to have been received by the Throckmorton bank.

Harry Behelmer, President, has been appointed by the Santa Fe Central railway to the position of assistant vice president.

Money is running in Great Demand.

When gold and silver are practically of the same value, the problem of regulating the amount of each is acute. Mr. John J. Vincent, the superintendent of the National Bank of New York, has been appointed by the Board of Trade to the position of assistant vice president.

The United States treasury has been asked for a report on the amount of gold and silver in circulation, but the report is not expected to be ready for several weeks.

CAREFULLY RATE TO THE SANTA FE OFFICE.

The Santa Fe offers inducements for some of the most desirable properties in the country.

The Santa Fe has announced that they will give a special rate for the transportation of livestock. This rate will be valid for the transportation of livestock to any point on the Santa Fe system.

The Santa Fe has also announced that they will give a special rate for the transportation of produce. This rate will be valid for the transportation of produce to any point on the Santa Fe system.
