$30,000 DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE AT HOSPITAL AT FT. BAYARD, N. M.

Flames Sweep Through the Women's Quarters; Ten Occupants Leap From Their Bedroom Windows.

SCORES FLEE, CLAD IN SCANTY ATTIRE

Little That Was Saved Was Carried Out by Patients
From Infirmary Wards;
Several Are Ill.

Special to The Journal.
Fort Bayard, N. M., Oct. 31.—An early morning fire broke out in the women's quarters of the government Hospital here Tuesday, and ten women lodged in the main building had to leap from their bedroom windows, eighteen feet to the ground in order to escape all other exits being blocked by the flames. No one was injured but the nurses' Red Cross building and the main building were destroyed. The damage is estimated at $30,000. The fire started in the nurses' Red Cross, which is located in the center of the women's quarters of the post, and is closely surrounded by half a dozen frame buildings, which would have provided easy victims of the flames except for the efficient work of the fire department, patients and personnel.

Scores of women from all the closely grouped buildings fled from their quarters in the scantiest attire, most of them seizing their party dresses discarded only half an hour before when they returned from a dietitian Ballou's party given in the Red Cross building, where the fire started. None took the time to don more than a bath robe and until the male personnel and patients arrived were running about in their nightgowns. The fire was discovered at 1:40 a. m. and is supposed to have started from a defective fuse.

The little that was saved from the burning building was carried out by patients from the infirmary wards, who were the first on the scene. Lifting any article whatever is one of the chief prohibitions placed upon them by the medical staff, but they could not resist the appeals of the women for their clothing to be brought from the burning and threatened buildings. Several of them are very ill today as a result of their exertions.

REGULAR DIVIDENDS DECLARED BY U. S. STEEL CORPORATION

New York, Oct. 31.—Directors of the United States Steel Corporation at their quarterly meeting today declared the regular dividends of 1 1/4 per cent on the preferred stock and 1 1/4 per cent on the common, but the corporation again failed to earn all the common, taking $1,335,602 of the undivided surplus to make the payment.

Total earnings of $27,468,329, as compared with $27,286,945 in the preceding quarter, show that the steel industry is prospering.

The net income for the quarter ending September 30 was $16,297,294, as against $16,219,512 for the preceding one, indicating that the steel industry is prospering.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 31.—Work of tearing down the B. C. Allen mansion in Broadmoor, about three miles from Colorado Springs, has been started under orders from Mrs. Allen, prominent Colorado Springs and Philadelphia society woman, whose future plans contemplate construction of a small hotel on the site of the present home, which is one of the show places of the region. Mrs. Allen, wife of B. C. Allen, a Colorado Springs club man who died in 1914, has been the owner of the Broadmoor property. Mrs. Allen will spend the winter in Philadelphia with her daughter, while Mr. Allen will look after his interests in the Pikes Peak region. The original cost of the Allen home is estimated at approximately $500,000. One hundred men are at work tearing down the property.

PRINCESS HAD A HARD FIGHT TO LAND WILHELM

A Lot of Other Women Were Anxious for the Heart of the Former German Emperor, She Declares.

London, Oct. 31.—Princess Hermine of Reuss thinks her fiancé, the former German emperor, is one of the most generous, kind hearted men that ever lived, and she is sure that she is going to be the happiest woman in the world after their marriage next Sunday. That, at least, is what she told the correspondent of the Daily Express today.

"I know I love the emperor," she said. "Surely he is not so rich that it can be said I am marrying him for his money."

The princess said that a lot of other women were anxious for the heart of the former German emperor and described how mad some of them were with envy and jealousy when her engagement to Wilhelm got noised around the world by telegraph and cable.

"They did their best to hinder our engagement my intrigue," she said. "I had a hard fight. All of my friends and so-called friends had their own plans. You know, several prominent women including the widow of Col. Von Rohow thought of marrying the emperor."

Tells About the Romance.
In her most charming manner the princess conversed with the correspondent at the old Silesian castle which is her ancestral home. She told him a little about the romance and of her plans for the future.

She was like this, she said. "Some friends, who were in attendance to the emperor and who knew of our childhood attachment invited me to his home at Doorn. The crown prince came to the castle and in the friendliest sort of way he chatted with me about the affair of the heart. With a laugh he said: 'You know my father is a very good man, but some times he is hard to get along with.'"

The princess told the correspondent that the house at Doorn was being conducted along very economical lines. Indeed, she explained, the meals set upon the emperor's table were occasionally so scanty that they almost looked beggarly. Nevertheless the princess declared she would adhere to the strict principles of economy which have been in force since the former emperor took up his residence in Holland.

"Do you think you will miss your Silesian home?" the correspondent inquired.

"Oh, no," said the princess. "I have a signed statement with the emperor allowing me to stay twice a year for eight weeks each at Sabor and my other estate in order to keep in touch with my children who are going to remain in Germany. Besides, I have to manage my estates, because they are to be kept separate from the imperial property."

Everything is Settled.
"As a matter of fact the economic arrangement for the marriage at first frightened some people, but now everything is settled and nobody will complain."

The princess said all of the emperor's children were going to attend the wedding. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, have not been invited she declared.

MRS. PHILLIPS A 'MORON,' HER LAWYER STATES

Defendant in Hammer Murder Is Subject to Epileptic
Convulsions; Has the Mentality of a Child.

Los Angeles, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Clara Phillips is a "moron," "subject to epileptic convulsions," and has the "mentality of a child," her attorney, Bertram Herrington, declared today in opening the defense in her trial for the murder of Mrs. Albert Meadows.

The attorney asserted he would prove that the defendant did not wield the hammer with which the state contends Mrs. Meadows was beaten to death on Montecito drive on July 12, last. He declared it would be shown that Mrs. Phillips, every action on that day was "guided by Peggie Caffee," prosecution witness, who testified she saw Mrs. Phillips striking Mrs. Meadows with the hammer.

The state rested after examining Lester Atkins, who corroborated Mrs. Caffee's statement that he and a man named Gentry met Mrs. Caffee and Mrs. Phillips at Long Beach a few hours before the slaying. He said the woman came to his apartment and Gentry and Mrs. Phillips went out and returned with a pint bottle of whiskey, of which they drank partook. He said he and Gentry drove the woman to Los Angeles, Mrs. Phillips carrying with her the bottle and what remained of its contents.

MRS. CARLETON CONFESSSED SHE LOVED MINISTER HUSBAND STATES

Former Judge at Havre, Mont., Knew of His Wife's Feeling Towards the Rev. L. J. Christler.

SAYS HE IS GOADED INTO EXPRESSION

Preacher Had Led the Woman to Believe That He Returned Her Love; Real
Blame Is Placed.

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Margaret Carleton, who, with the Rev. Leonard J. Christler, was found shot to death in the Christler home at Havre, Mont., last Friday, had confessed her love for the Rev. Mr. Christler, former judge of the district court at Havre, Mr. Carleton declared tonight in a signed statement to the Associated Press.

"I can no longer remain silent in the face of the studied and desperate attempt to whitewash this bishop of all outdoors," the statement said, "and which attempt was climaxed by the statement given to the Associated Press that I believe as a result of the investigation I have made of the tragedy which occurred in the Christler home early Friday morning and after questioning those who knew about it. That if this woman had been able to work her will on Mr. Christler he would be alive today, unfaithful to his wife, but still living."

"This attempt to make it appear to the world that Margaret threw herself upon this man and that he tried to remonstrate with her and lead her into spiritual orthodoxy has goaded me into expression."

"I wonder did his reverence know when he made the statement above referred to that this pastor, who, it is now claimed, maintained only a friendly and ministerial interest in the Carleton family, had written letters to Margaret Davenport, my wife's maiden name, and sent them care of her father?"

"Let it be well understood that in making this statement I intend to cast not the slightest reflection or condemnation upon my wife, for no one knows as well as I do the influence which this man held over her and which could reasonably be termed hypnotism. Pray tell me if this minister had preached the teachings which he expounded from the altar why this influence which he had over her was not utilized to save her from this infatuation. Pray tell me why he was necessary for him to seek her out in Chicago and elsewhere?"

"I have known of Margaret's love for this man for several years and it is only fair to her to say that she was not alone in this. I will not further violate her confidence, but I do want to state unqualifiedly and unreservedly that it is a fact that this preacher had led her to believe that he returned that love."

"I want to say to the world that Margaret is not to be blamed for this tragedy, but that the real blame should justly be placed upon the man who paid the price that must be paid by all who prove unfaithful to their trust."

LIVES OF MILLER AND SMITH ARE INSURED BY A WALL STREET FIRM

New York, Oct. 31.—The lives of former Governor Alfred E. Miller and Governor Nathan L. Miller have been insured for $20,000 each by a firm of Wall Street betting commissioners who are handling a large number of wagers on the New York state gubernatorial contest, it was announced tonight.

The policies were taken out to protect the firm against loss in handling the bets in the event of the death of either candidate which would invalidate these election wagers.

SPECTATORS AT MURDER HEARING HISS A WITNESS

Prison Guard Testifies That Mrs. Rosier, Accused of Murder, Showed No Signs of Insanity.

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—The defense in the trial of Mrs. Catherine Rosier, accused of the slaying of her husband, Oscar Rosier, an advertising man, and now on trial for shooting his stenographer, Miss Mildred Geraldine Reckitt, to death at the same time, closed its case after submitting medical testimony in support of its theory of "emotional insanity" for Mrs. Rosier. Rebuttal testimony was begun for the commonwealth with the intention of showing that the defendant was sane and normal in the hours just after the double slaying on January 21, 1922.

Women spectators hissed a woman guard who testified that Mrs. Rosier had shown no signs of insanity in support of its theory of the unruly disposition of the spectators brought warnings from Judge Barrett.

Dr. Margaret Nelson, a prison physician, testified that in her opinion Mrs. Rosier was sane, but admitted under cross examination she had made an official report that Mrs. Rosier was subnormal and mentally deficient.

Important Witness in Hall Case Sticks to Mule as "Conveyance"

Mrs. Jane Gibson, her mule "Jenny" and Detective Totten.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, who lives "down the road again" from the spot where the murdered bodies of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall of New Brunswick, N. J., and his choir leader, Mrs. James Mills, were found, is now the important figure in the investigation which so far has failed to result in an arrest outside of that of the boy, Clifford Hayes, who was freed. Mrs. Gibson only recently told her story to the authorities, saying she had not bothered about the case because "they got what they deserved." She is rated as virtually an eyewitness. She says she had ridden on her mule to the locality of the murder to investigate robbery of her corn and chickens, heard the shot fired and heard Mrs. Mills cry a man's name. When she saw the bodies, she fled to her home, and which are heretofore unpublished, is the statement that Mrs. Gibson made during this period of time.

STRONG CABINET CHOSEN BY NEW ITALIAN LEADER

Comprises a Body of Men Who Were Prominent in the War; New Premier Believes in Expansion.

Rome, Oct. 31 (by the Associated Press).—Whatever the outcome may be when the new Mussolini cabinet goes before the chamber of deputies, there is general agreement that the new premier has gathered about him a cabinet exceptionally strong from the nationalist standpoint, comprising a body of men who were leaders of Italy in the great war and the outstanding protagonists for Italy's territorial claims in peace.

Mussolini brings with his ministry a well defined foreign policy, the cornerstone of which is expansion. The fascist party, since its inception a year ago, has always preached the extension of Italy's territorial claims.

Mussolini himself has declared that the Mediterranean is an Italian lake and he advocates complete control of that waterway by Italy. The claim of Greece for the Dodecanese islands was always bitterly contested in fascist circles.

Total repudiation of all soviet has been a constant cry among fascists.

In the domestic policy the aims of the fascist party have been clearly defined. Indeed, it has been constantly maintained by their opponents that they have no domestic policy. One thing, however, has stood prominently in all their domestic actions, namely, their hostility to the extreme socialists and communists.

They have defiantly fought the strike in any form. Wherever and whenever strikes have been declared they have strained every effort to keep industry going.

Communism has been rendered almost helpless in Italy by the onslaught of fascism.

PRESIDING JUDGE OF COURT OF CUSTOMS APPEALS RESIGNS

Washington, Oct. 31.—Marion Devries, presiding judge of the court of customs appeals, today resigned after 12 years service on the court and his resignation was accepted by President Harding. He will resume the practice of law.

In his letter of resignation Judge Devries informed the president that on December 21 he would have completed 30 consecutive years of public service and it now became incumbent upon him to resign in support of the theory of the interest of the welfare of his family to retire to the practice of law.

Judge Devries at one time was an assistant district attorney in California and served two terms in congress as a representative from that state. He represented the customs service in 1900 as a member of the board of general appraisers and was the originator of the idea of the United States court of customs appeals. He was appointed an associate judge by President Taft and presiding judge by President Harding in June, 1921. He will practice law in Washington.

NEW PARK FOR THE BLUES.
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 31.—The Kansas City club, American Association will open the 1923 baseball season in a new park, according to an announcement last night by George Muehlbach, president of the club. The new park will cost $250,000, he said.

MAKES WAY 2 MILES THROUGH BRUSH WITH LEG BONE SHATTERED

Fort William, Ont., Oct. 31.—The engineer of a slow freight train today saw a man standing on the tracks leaning on a cane and waving a red bandana.

He stopped. The man collapsed. The stranger, suffering from a high fever, was taken to a hospital. This was his story, gleaned from his ravings.

He was William Anderson and he lived in Amherst, Ont. Hunting on Birch lake, he accidentally shot himself in the leg two days ago. The bone was shattered.

With one paddle he made a splint. His shirt he used as a bandage. His necktie served as a tourniquet.

He took his other paddle for a crutch and began dragging and pushing himself along through two miles of brush to the railroad tracks. It was slow work and bitter cold. He moved only a few yards an hour but he kept on.

He reached the tracks yesterday. For 24 hours he waited without food or water for a train.

He may recover.

WILL QUESTION WOMAN FURTHER IN POISON CASE

Many Points Regarding the Sending and Receiving of the Death Cake Are Not Clear, Coroner Says.

Philadelphia, Oct. 31.—Mrs. W. W. Sterrett will be questioned further by authorities regarding her movements 24 hours before the poisoned cake which caused the death of her husband, an expert accountant of Devon, and her own serious illness was received, it was announced tonight.

Coroner William Neville of Montgomery county, said today there are many points regarding the sending and receiving of the death cake which are not clear.

Investigators pointed out that the box containing the poisoned pastry was mailed within a stone's throw of Mr. Sterrett's office. Mrs. Sterrett explained the difference in effect of the poison upon her husband and herself by the fact that her husband suffered from indigestion.

"I cut the cake in half and ate it," she said. "I cut the cake in half and ate it. I can only believe that because of his indigestion the cake had more effect on him."

BURGLARS GET $300 WORTH OF GOODS AT A LAS VEGAS STORE

WARN CONGRESS NOT TO ACCEPT FORD PROPOSAL

His Plan to Take Over Muscle Shoals Constitutes a Violation of the Law, Committee Claims.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Formation of a national committee for the "defense of the federal water power act" was announced here tonight by Philip P. Wells, chief law officer of the United States forestry service, who, in a formal statement called upon all conservationists for a reaffirmation of support to the law. The statement was also provisionally accepted by congress of the proposal by Henry Ford to take over the Muscle Shoals Federal power project, declaring such action would be a violation of the basic principles of the act which was passed in 1917, and which bears his purported signature and is

EXPECT ORDERS FROM MEXICO TO OPEN CONSULATE

Was Closed Friday as a Protest Against Granting by Courts of a Writ of Attachment.

New York, Oct. 31.—Local firms doing business with Mexico and the various departments of the Mexican government were unable today to determine how far President Obregon's order to suspend all commercial relations with New York business firms could affect their Mexican business.

Most of the firms furnishing steel and railroad supplies to the Mexican government have only local offices in Mexico and their headquarters here refused to comment on the order until they had received from Mexico City official confirmation of the government's intentions. Export firms doing business with Mexicans as individuals said the order would not affect their relations so far as they could determine at this time.

The Mexican consulate, which was closed last Friday as a protest by the Mexican government against the granting by New York courts of a writ of attachment against its funds in connection with a suit for damages of the Oliver American Trading company, still remained closed tonight. The order vacating the writ of attachment against the consulate was furnished the attorneys for the Mexican government today and it was stated that orders to reopen the consulate were momentarily expected from Mexico City. In the meantime, the usual business of the consulate was referred to the Mexican consul at Philadelphia for disposition.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CASHIER IS ROBBED

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 31.—Miss Leonora Edwards, 20, a cashier for the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company, was held up at noon today as she stepped from an automobile at the door of the Hyland Exchange Building, with the weekly payroll of the latter exchange, amounting to $1,544. The chauffeur of the automobile obeyed the mandate of the robber and "beat it" when commanded to do so. Miss Edwards struggled for a moment with the robber and then released the money bag and fled into the exchange to give the alarm. The robber escaped.

AFFIDAVITS ARE SAID TO REFUTE MULLER, NEIS

Latter, It Is Said, Was Not in Santa Fe on Sept. 15;
Men Deny That Letter Is Genuine.

That C. J. Neis, to whom a letter alleged to have been written by Frederick Muller, deputy land commissioner and candidate for commissioner of public lands, was not in Santa Fe on September 15, as stated in a disclaimer made public by Muller and Neis last Saturday, although both Muller and Neis have stated publicly that the latter was in Santa Fe during this whole period. It will be observed that in neither of the affidavits made by Muller and Neis and which are heretofore unpublished, is the statement that Neis was in Santa Fe during this period affirmed.

Judge John T. McClure makes an affidavit to the effect that he saw Neis in Roswell on September 12, and up to September 20. Judge McClure's offices are directly across the hall from Neis' office.

Neis, who lives near Roswell, saw Neis in Roswell on September 12, 13 and 14.

Attorney J. C. Gilbert has examined the records at the United States land office in Roswell and states that Neis filed certain papers there on September 11.

Attorney J. E. Osborn says that he saw Neis in Roswell on September 12.

E. P. Greiner says that he saw Neis in Roswell on September 12 and 13.

Byron O. Beall attended a democratic meeting in Roswell on the night of September 12 and says that he saw Neis at the meeting and again on the next morning.

Dr. W. C. Mathews is said to have made a statement in the presence of two of the above attorneys that he attended the republican state convention in Albuquerque as a guest of Neis and returned with him to Roswell immediately after the convention, arriving there on the night of September 10. This is in direct contradiction of a statement made by Muller that Neis went to Santa Fe after the convention, on September 9, and remained there for a week or ten days. It also refutes the statement made by Neis that he stayed at Captain Russell's home during this period.

It is further stated that on the morning of September 15 Neis went to a place 20 miles south of Roswell, near Hagerman, and made a trade and entered into a contract either for the purchase or sale of land. This contract is said to have been acknowledged by Neis before Ed. S. Gibbons, a notary public of Roswell, on September 15.

The following affidavits were sent out by Fred Muller, C. J. Neis and N. A. Edwards.

ITALIAN KING'S SOLDIERS ENTER CITY AS PEOPLE WEEP FOR JOY

"In 1870," Old Romans Declare, "Italy Was Born;
Today She Has Been Saved From Bolshevism"

BENITO MUSSOLINI RECALLS GARIBOLDI

Younger Generation Has, in a Few Days, Wrought a Tremendous Change in the Political Aspect.

Rome, Oct. 31 (by the Associated Press).—The triumphant entry of fascist troops into Rome today was the apotheosis of Italy's bloodless revolution. Old Romans who witnessed the entry of the soldiers of the king of Italy into the capital of his newly welded kingdom of September 29, 1870, wept for joy and vowed that October 31, 1922, will forever mark a great epoch in Italy's national life. For in 1870, they said, Italy was born; today she has been saved from bolshevism.

The younger generation, which, in a few days, accomplished this tremendous change in Italy's political aspect, will look back upon their youthful leader, Benito Mussolini, as those veterans with dimmed eyes today recalled Garibaldi.

Day Broke Clear.
The day broke clear and fine with one of Italy's brightest suns lighting the way to Borghese park as the fascist troops, abroad early, proceeded up the Pincian hill from Trevi, Santa Maria del Popolo and other places on the outskirts of the city where they had been camping for the last three days.

With military precision, they formed and automatically fell into the places assigned them—dark visaged youths with set, determined faces.

They were armed only with riding crops, the president of the man from Ancona swinging a baseball bat.

Briskly they swung into line to the tunes of innumerable bands, the continuing march of the army of the people entered the kingdom's capital through the gates of the republic, leading the Corso Umberto, Rome's main street, lined with flags.

Straight through the heart of the city the procession continued, the youths never looking to the right or left, and acknowledging the acclamations and cheers only by singing fascist marching songs.

This ceremony is said to have been acknowledged by Neis before Ed. S. Gibbons, a notary public of Roswell, on September 15.

The following affidavits were sent out by Fred Muller, C. J. Neis and N. A. Edwards.

FATHER VAUGHAN, JESUIT PRIEST, DIES SUDDENLY

Several Years Ago He Toured Through the United States, Canada and Later Lectured in Japan.

London, Oct. 31.—(By the Associated Press).—Father Bernard Vaughan, one of the most prominent Jesuit priests in the world and a brother of the late Cardinal Vaughan, died here today. Several years ago he toured through the United States and parts of Canada and Alaska and later lectured in Japan, where he addressed the house of peers.

Father Vaughan became ill two or three months ago at Sheffield but recovered sufficiently to be removed to the Jesuit college at Putney. There he was able to get about in a rolling chair.

He was bedridden only three days before the end. His brother in the Society of Jesus were around his bedside when he died.

Father Vaughan first came into prominence in the latter part of the nineteenth century by his sermons and addresses in various parts of Europe all sorts of men, including King Edward VII. He was a cathedral preacher at the Eucharistic congress held at Montreal in 1910. The next year he lectured in various parts of the United States and Canada, later crossing the Pacific to speak before the World's Catholic Congress at Tokyo. Before leaving for China, he addressed the house of peers and ladies of society.

While in New York in 1912 he gave a series of lectures on socialism. In the war his fervid utterances brought down upon him the attacks of his brother Jesuits in Germany. It was his contention that the Germans "did not play the game" in fighting the world war.

On the first anniversary of America's entry into the conflict this message by Father Vaughan was flung across the sea: "We congratulate with all our hearts the champions of the rights of mankind—the American people."

Mormonism shared with socialism the fire of Father Vaughan's denouncing oratory. At times he would warn England of her receding birth rate and caution against race suicide. Three years ago he assailed the fashions then prevailing in women's gowns. When the Irish humorists came into prominence he contended that they were deliberately committing suicide.

Father Vaughan was born August 20, 1847 at Courtfield, Herefordshire, the son of Colonel Vaughan. Of his eight brothers, six became priests. All of his sisters took the veil of nuns. His brother, John, attended the bishopric of Sydney, where the red hat of a cardinal. Father Vaughan was ordained in 1876.

He was the author of several books, some of the more recent being "Socialism from the Christian Standpoint," "What of today?" "The Menace of the Empty Cradle" and "The Worker's Right to Live."

STRIKERS' SIDE OF COAL FIELD STRUGGLE TOLD

Women Living in Tents, Barns and Chicken Coops Corroborate Stories Told by Their Husbands.

Windber, Pa., Oct. 31. (By the Associated Press).—The strikers' side of the industrial struggle in the open shop coal field of the Berwind-White company was painted in vivid colors here today at the hearing conducted by Mayor Hyman's investigating committee from New York. Women living in tents, barns and chicken coops corroborated the stories which their husbands told the investigators. The keynote of these stories was that the strike, which began on April 6, was not primarily the consequence of an effort to unionize the Berwind-White properties, but was the response of the employees to a drastic cut in wages which became effective on April 1.

Men and women insisted that prior to the cut the average weekly wage of the miners was from $15 to $22.

The meeting was ignored by the coal operators.

Louis Chaney testified he worked from eight to eight and one-half hours, six days a week and earned between $15 and $22 a week. Out of this his rent and groceries bills were deducted, he said.

"I drew dollar cash every two weeks," he declared.

"How did you pay for your clothes?" Chairman Hirschfield asked. "My wife has had one dress in two years, and me—well, the women bought me their pants or I couldn't be here," was the reply.

claimed to have been written to one C. J. Neis of Roswell.

Affiant says that he never wrote said letter or dictated the same or requested anyone to write the same for him and had no knowledge of said letter prior to its publication; that said letter is a rank forgery.

Affiant further says that on September 2, 1922, as shown by his records of the State Land Office, C. J. Neis applied in person for the selection of 640 acres of land and that said application was thereafter approved and that arrangements for the selection of said lands and the approval of the application were made by Mr. Neis in person with the Commissioner, Honorable N. A. Field.

Now comes C. J. Neis of Roswell, New Mexico, who after first being duly sworn deposes and says that he has read a certain purported letter dated September 13, 1922, and now being circulated broadcast in this state for the purpose of defeating Captain Fred Muller now running for Commissioner of Public Lands; that the contents of said letter were unknown to affiant prior to its publication for the reason that said letter was never received by affiant; that there was no occasion for the writing of said letter for the reason that every transaction which affiant has had with the State Land Office was always discussed with the Commissioner as well as the Assistant.

N. A. Field Statement.

Santa Fe, N. M., October 30, 1922.

Hon. H. B. Woodward, Chairman, Republican State Committee, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Dear Sir:

In response to your request that I advise you as to all the information in my possession relative to the Etchevary lease and the Neis application for the selection of certain land, referred to in the letter which the Democratic State Committee claim was written by Captain Muller, I beg to advise as follows:

July 11, 1922, Jim Etchevary made application for the selection of 1120.21 acres of land in Township 24 South, Ranges 19 and 20 East and Township 23 South, Range 20 East. The application was approved by this office and sent to the Roswell Land Office July 13, 1922. On September 2, 1922, a lease was sent to Mr. Etchevary for signature and the same was returned to this office on October 7, 1922 by Mr. Clarence Bell, Cashier of the First National Bank of Roswell, New Mexico. Said application and lease were all made in regular form and all with my knowledge and approval.

At the time of the application Mr. Etchevary gave the State Land Office a check for $35.00 and a refund is made to him of $25.60, over-payment, by reason of a reduction in the rental.

Relative to an application by Mr. C. J. Neis of Roswell, beg to advise that on September 2, 1922, Mr. Neis applied for the selection of 640 acres of land in Township 24 South, Range 20 East. This application was approved prior to October 3, 1922, and on that date the list selection for filing and the relinquishment, which relinquishment was by John S. Powers and Frank Riley, were forwarded to the United States Land Office at Roswell, New Mexico, and were received by the United States Land Office October 6, 1922, as shown by their receipt No. 2678590. The only applications filed for the selection of lands in the Roswell District subsequent to the Neis application above referred to were by W. B. McKnight, for 320 acres in 6 South, 21 East; by Carl E. Sams for the selection of 954.44 acres in 14 South, 23 East; by George L. Ulrich for 320 acres in 4 South, 13 East. These applications were all made in person by the applicants and no one of them was represented by Mr. C. J. Neis or any other person. The above selections were all made with my knowledge and necessarily with my approval and in the regular course of business as conducted in the State Land Office, and no other non-mineral affidavits or relinquishments were filed in this office in any selection in the Roswell District subsequent to the date when Mr. Neis made his application.

I call your attention to the fact that Mr. Neis represented Mr. Etchevary and that the new selection made by Mr. Neis after the Etchevary selection must have been the selection of September 2, 1922, as shown above. That selection as shown by the records of this office was made in Mr. Neis' name and for that selection the relinquishment was filed and the selection made all with my knowledge, approval and consent and that Mr. Neis talked to me in person relative to this application and that Captain Muller was not even present at the time Mr. Neis took the matter of this application up with me.

For the above reasons the latter part of the alleged letter charged to have been written by Captain Muller is absurd and unwarranted by the facts as shown by the records of this office.

Very truly yours,

N. A. FIELD, Commissioner of Public Lands.

BLOOD STAINS FOUND ON CAR OF MAN HELD IN HIS WIFE'S DEATH

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Following the finding of more than 100 blood stains on the car of Henry J. Burns, whose wife's mutilated body was found buried in a shallow grave near Painesville last Wednesday, Sheriff Spink announced tonight he had discovered another link of evidence which he declared may prove "very important" to authorities working on the case.

Burns is held in the Lake county jail at Painesville, charged with first degree murder of his wife, but maintains innocence of the crime.

UNITING PULPIT AND PRESS NEED OF THE NATION

Are the Two Powers That Express the Soul of the Country, Says Shaffer, Newspaper Owner.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Press and pulpit are the two powers that express the soul of a nation and if they can be united they can assume some of the responsibility of helping the world to a better civilization, John C. Shaffer, owner of the Chicago Evening Post and other newspapers, said today in addressing the National Conference on Church Publicity.

"There has been very little cooperation between pulpit and press of late," said Mr. Shaffer, adding: "We have no outstanding national man, either in the pulpit or in the press today who has fallen heir to the mantle of Phillip Brooks, Joseph Parker, Dr. Talmadge, Henry Ward Beecher, Thomas Guard or Bishop Simpson."

"We have no outstanding editor today. No one seems to have had the good fortune of falling heir to the mantle of Garrison, Greeley, Dana, Joseph Medill, Story, Grady or Colonel Watterston."

Press is Commercial?

"The press of today has lost much of its power and influence with the people because it has become commercial. No preacher is worthy of the confidence of the people who enters the ministry for the purpose of getting a large salary and social position. A newspaper is a public institution and the responsibility of an editor or owner of a newspaper is much greater than that of a preacher because we go to hear a preacher but the newspapers are thrust into our faces on every street corner. But any one who enters into the business of owning and publishing a newspaper for the sake of making money or getting political power, pollutes the whole stream of journalism. It is not to be discredited of a newspaper that it makes money. It is, however, a discredit to the owners of a newspaper if that is the primary object of owning and publishing a newspaper."

Standard of Success.

"The standard by which a newspaper's success should be estimated should be:

"What is its ethical standard?" "What service has it rendered to the city, state and national government which has created a deeper respect for law and order, and what has it done to create a better and higher citizenship?"

"Today party politics and partisan papers prevent our government from taking an independent part in righting the wrongs produced by the war, or in helping the governments of Europe in getting back to a normal condition."

"The pulpit and the press must unite on this one proposition: We must not run away from the opportunities of helping the world to get back to normalcy."

"If we could unite the potential power of the pulpit and the press it would be a power sufficient to create a new and better situation in our large cities and throughout the country we would probably be able to assume some of the responsibility of helping the world to reach up into a higher and better civilization."

BULLET CAUSING MRS. CARLETON'S DEATH IS FOUND

Ranged Downward Through Her Body at a Sharp Angle, Instead of Directly in and Slightly Upward.

Havre, Mont., Oct. 31. (By the Associated Press.)—Following findings by two Havre doctors this afternoon that the bullet which killed Mrs. Margaret Carleton in the double slaying here last Friday morning, ranged downward through her body at a sharp angle, instead of directly in and slightly upward, as was testified at the inquest by Dr. Carl Foss, civil authorities were prepared tonight to make further investigation of the tragedy.

Prosecutor Max Kuhr stated that the development was one that merited further investigation, and said that further information was expected. He was called to attend the post mortem examination of Mrs. Carleton's body, as soon as the discovery of the bullet's course was made by Doctors W. F. Hamilton and A. E. Williams.

The examination was made at the request of Mrs. Carleton's mother, Mrs. Joseph Pyle.

The bullet was found by the physicians in the muscles beside the spinal column.

Neither Doctor Hamilton or Mr. Kuhr would comment on the possibility of a self-inflicted bullet striking the course of the one which killed Mrs. Carleton.

U. S. OBSERVERS CAUSE GERMANS' HOPES TO RISE

Roland W. Boyden and Col. James A. Logan Will Attend Reparations Commission Meet at Berlin.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—An exchange of courtesies between Chancellor Wirth and the members of the reparations commission and a subsequent informal visit by the commissioners to the ministry of finance today officially inaugurated what promises to be the most significant series of parleys in the whole range of reparations discussions.

Neither of today's occurrences afforded indication as to what line of action the entire investigation are likely to follow. The meeting with Minister of Finance Hoesnecker and several secretaries of state concerned itself with the question of agreeing upon a working basis for the forthcoming deliberations.

Much importance is attached in German quarters to the presence of Roland W. Boyden and Colonel James A. Logan as American observers, especially in view of the emphasis placed by the German government on the urgency of an international loan in connection with the process of stabilization. Some Germans who persist in the belief that no foreign loan will be forthcoming from any source unless active American interest in connection with the reparations revision is vouchsafed are extracting fresh hopes from the unofficial participation by American delegates in the present negotiations. Just what will be the German government's reply to the demand by the entire representatives that German currency inflation cease forthwith in event such a loan is floated, has not been indicated in official German quarters.

REVENUES FROM TAXATION SHOW A FALLING OFF

Receipts for September Decreased More Than $276,000,000 as Compared With Last Year.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Classified government tax receipts for September showed a decrease of more than $276,000,000 as compared with the same month last year, the internal revenue bureau announced today. For the month of September the total receipts from taxes were $554,284,246 as against $830,758,713 for the same month a year ago. For the three months ended with September, tax receipts amounted to $1,609,742,974, a decrease of over $366,000,000 as compared with the same period of 1921.

Receipts from income and profits taxes declining by $241,000,000, showed the greatest decrease for the month, the total for September, which included the third installment, amounting to $276,000,000, as against $517,000,000 for September last year. Tobacco taxes, however, showed an increase for the month of nearly $2,000,000.

Receipts from estate taxes for September amounting to $5,000,000 showed a decrease of $7,000,000 compared with the same month of 1921; tax collections on distilled spirits amounting to $2,500,000, fell off by nearly $3,000,000, while miscellaneous collections such as transportation and amusements amounting to over $41,000,000, decreased by $28,000,000. Taxes collected from corporations on the value of capital stock, however, amounting to $13,000,000 in September, reflected an increase of over $2,000,000 a year ago.

A NEW MOTORCYCLE RECORD IS HUNG UP

New York, Oct. 31.—A new motorcycle record for a transcontinental run from Los Angeles to New York was established late today when Wally Bennett of Portland, Ore., holder of a number of speed marks, reached his destination in actual running time of six days, 15 hours and 13 minutes. His time was seven hours and 39 minutes faster than the record established a month ago by Edwin G. "Cannonball" Baker of Los Angeles, who covered the distance of 2,296 miles in six days, 22 hours and 52 minutes. This was Bennett's second attempt to lower the transcontinental record. Baker's feat was accomplished on his sixtieth cross-country dash.

Bennett, who also holds the world's 24-hour and 1,000-mile records, left Los Angeles last Tuesday at midnight and crossed the finish line at 6:14 p. m. today, according to an official announcement by motorcycle officials.

FAIR PRICE FOR FARM PRODUCTS WALLACE'S AIM

Secretary of Agriculture Promises Aid of the Government; Says Freight Rates Are Too High.

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 31.—Aid of the government in securing for the farmers a fair price for farm products was promised today by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in an address to students, alumni and officials of the Michigan Agricultural college here.

"Heretofore," Mr. Wallace declared, "the emphasis has been put on showing farmers how to produce more. That is right and proper. But we propose to put the same emphasis on helping farmers get fair prices for their crops by adjusting production to the probable demand and by better marketing methods."

"The federal administration believes a prosperous agriculture as well as a productive one is essential," Secretary Wallace declared.

"Prices for farm products which are below actual cost of production may for a time seem a good thing for the people in the cities," he said. "In the end, however, the result is bad. Farmers cannot and will not continue to produce at a loss."

Freight rates on agricultural products, he declared, were too high with relation to the prices the farmer obtains.

3 PERSONS DEAD AND 5 HURT IN WRECK ON ESPEE

Passenger No. 109 Crashes Into Special Show Train in Louisiana; Cars Reduced to Kindling Wood.

New Orleans, Oct. 31.—Three persons were killed and five others seriously injured today when Southern Pacific passenger train Number 109 crashed into the rear of a special train carrying the C. A. Wortham Shows, at Adeline, La., about nine miles west of Franklin.

The dead: WILLIAMS G. JONES, and HOMER V. JONES, brothers, of San Antonio, Texas; R. L. METCALF, Louisville, Ky.

The injured: Mrs. Williams G. Jones, wife of one of the men killed; Mrs. Irene Murphy; Charles Flohr; Frederick Miller and Charles Jamieson.

Addresses of the last four are not known. All of the killed and injured were members of the Wortham shows. Several other people on the show train received minor bruises and scratches. None of the members of the crews of the two trains was injured.

Both trains were westbound. One of the passenger coaches used on the rear of the show train as a caboose, and four others as sleeping quarters, were reduced to kindling wood. The locomotive of the passenger train buried itself in the rear coach, causing the four cars in front of it to telescope.

According to testimony at a coroner's inquest today, the show train was backing into a siding at Adeline when the accident occurred. The bodies of the three men were shipped to their homes tonight from Franklin.

The show train was on its way from New Orleans to New Iberia.

ROSWELL MOWING DOWN OPPONENTS ON PEGOS RIVER

Last Year's High School Champs Look Good for Repeater: Will Play A. H. S. Saturday.

Artesia, N. M., Oct. 31.—The Artesia high school football team lost to the Roswell high school Saturday by the score of 25 to 0 in the first game to be played between the two teams this season. Much rivalry exists between the Artesia school team and Roswell championship team from Roswell, N. M. The game was played in a severe dust storm and the spectators were unable to follow the game on account of the dust. Practically no aerial work was possible. Artesia attempted one pass, which was intercepted. Roswell attempted six passes and completed two for a gain of fifteen yards.

The Roswell high school has not allowed any opponent to score during the past two years and have run up exceedingly large scores. Artesia was the strongest opponent which met Roswell last season Albuquerque High met defeat at Roswell's hands by a 29 to 0 score. Clovis was trampled by scores of 30 to 0 and 14 to 0. Portales high was wallowed by scores of 66 to 0 and 42 to 0. Artesia met defeat last season by the scores of 20 to 0 and 39 to 0. Roswell has defeated Portales this season by the score of 30 to 0 and also took Artesia into camp last week. Many followers of the sport believe that Roswell will again take the championship of the state, and much interest is being manifested in the Roswell-Albuquerque game next Saturday. On the following Friday, Artesia and Roswell will meet again on the Roswell gridiron.

Captain Adams of Artesia hopes to have O'Connell, stellar tackle, and Davis, star backfield man, in this game. Both players were out of the Roswell game with injuries. With these two men in the game, Artesia and Roswell will be closely matched. Although Roswell averages 160 pound per man and Artesia averages only 142 pounds, the speed of the locals will be a strong factor.

Captain Yeager, who has recently been ill, was the outstanding player for Artesia, in the half-back position. Williams at center, and Jackson and Meadows at tackle also did good work. A run for a 35-yard gain by Williams was also a feature of the game. DeAuremont managed the team in great style from the quarter-back position, during the brief periods which Artesia won on the offense. Fife, at quarter, Skelton and Capt. Rector, in the backfield were the ground gainers for Roswell. Rabb, tackle, Goodin, center, and Hughes, at end, played a good game for the visitors.

BUILDING TAKES DOWNWARD MOVE IN LAST MONTH

Permits Total $51,725 During October; Structures Under Way Require Large Work Force.

Building permits issued during the month of October totaled $51,725. This is $85,567 less than the total of permits issued in September. City Building Inspector Earl Bowdich accounts for the falling off as the usual slump in building operations in the winter months. There are many houses and buildings already under way, however, which will give work to large numbers of men all fall and winter. No large business buildings are included in the October permits. Following are some of the better residences for which permits were issued: J. A. Caples, 6-room brick, 1223 West Tijeras, $4,800; L. P. Spensley, 4-room adobe, 1009 West Slate, $3,000; G. U. S. CONSULATE IN ENGLAND MAY REMAIN CLOSED

British Government Must Unconditionally Withdraw the Charges It Made, Is Position Taken.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The United States government has decided definitely not to reopen the American consulate at Newcastle, England, until the British government has unconditionally withdrawn the charges it made against Consul Slater and Vice Consul Brooks, and publicly exonerated the two officials.

The British foreign office has been made aware of this determination, it was learned today, reached after exhaustive investigations of the situation at Newcastle, which disclosed a foundation whatever, in the opinion of American officials, to support charges which led the British authorities last August to cancel the exequaturs of Slater and Brooks. Action of the British government in cancelling the exequaturs was followed by the closing of the consulate and three separate investigations by the Washington government of charges that Slater and Brooks used their official positions at Newcastle improperly in discrimination of British shipping interests and to the advantage of American steamship lines. The first two were made respectively by the American embassy in London and Consul General Skinner. These reports agreed that no substantiation of the charges against Slater and Brooks could be obtained although British officials had been asked to present all evidence in their possession. Still not satisfied to act on the two reports, the American government sent Nelson Johnson, an executive officer of the state department, to England, with instructions to make an independent inquiry of the most thorough character. His report is in complete harmony with those of Ambassador Harvey and Consul General Skinner and acquits the two consular officers of any wrongdoing.

J. W. Burk, the tourist driver whose car struck Chester Baker, aged 6 years, Monday morning, was fined $25 yesterday in police court for reckless driving. Burk also paid $10 costs and $15 for medical attention for the boy, making a total of $50. He and Mr. Hoffman, owner of the car, took a train for Belen, where the machine was left Monday. Young Baker is reported getting along nicely.

MOSQUERO TO HAVE ADDITIONAL HOTEL

Mosquero, N. M., Oct. 31.—Hard times, scarce money and the general financial condition of the people of Harding county does not seem to be reflected in the growth of the county seat. On account of the large crowds called to town at different times by meetings, conventions and county business the hotel accommodations have not been adequate at all times. Messrs. R. E. Trujillo and Oscar Asprentz have decided to assist in the solving of the hotel problem. They have purchased the large hotel building at Sofonias and have it moved to Mosquero within the next two weeks. It will be placed on the corner of Main and Third street, remodeled, renovated and made into a nice, up-to-date hotel.

Artesia, N. M., 31.—The Eddy county Medical Society met at Carlsbad last week for a regular business session and program. THE TREND

Mr. H. J. Hagerman, President of the Taxpayers' Association, says:

"But, irrespective of details, it is the tone, the trend, in the course of public affairs, and its results which an administration is ultimately to be held responsible for. What has actually been the trend, the tone of our recent state administration and of the dictators of the Republican policies in New Mexico as regards the all important questions of retrenchment of public expenditures and lower taxes."

Here is the Trend of the "so-called" State levy, three-fifths of which goes back to the counties for roads, schools, etc.:

Levy 1919.....	5.75 mills
Levy 1920.....	5.25 mills
Levy 1921.....	5.00 mills
Levy 1922.....	4.50 mills

DOWNWARD TREND IN FOUR YEARS AMOUNTS TO $437,500

Here is the Trend of the Highway Levy, all of which is returned to the counties by which it is paid in:

Levy 1920.....	4.50 mills
Levy 1921.....	3.00 mills
Levy 1922.....	2.50 mills

DOWNWARD TREND IN FOUR YEARS AMOUNTS TO $700,000

Here is the Trend of the School Expenditures through efforts of republican officials. These reductions have been made after conference and agreement with local boards and have not in any instance injured the schools:

In 1921 by State Educational Auditor.....	$ 200,000
In 1922 by State Educational Auditor.....	440,000
In 1922 by State Tax Commission.....	50,000
In 1922 by Surplus applied against levy.....	320,000

Downward Trend School Costs, two years... $1,010,000

TOTAL TREND OF REDUCTION
$2,147,500

DEMOCRATS ARE GROPING; CAN'T FIND ARGUMENT

Hill Says Opponents Shot Their Ammunition Dump Away in Opening Days of Campaign.

The Hill smile was even wider than usual when the republican candidate for governor stepped off a train here yesterday afternoon. "No," said Mr. Hill in reply to a question, "this smile isn't all because we have the democrats on the run; only a part of it is political. The rest of it because I am on my way home where my campaign managers are going to allow me to remain for three days after having had me continuously on the road for more than a month, and it is the thought of those three days that are in store for me more than the thought of my victory over the democrats that is making me happy."

When Mr. Hill had his attention called to the report of the speech delivered here by his opponent, Mr. Hinkle, Monday night, he said: "The trouble with the democratic campaign is that they started it too soon and that weeks ago they ran out of ammunition. In the beginning they made all the charges that they had to make, and the result has been that it has hardly been necessary for us to make any real denials. The people themselves have had plenty of time to look into the charges and from what I have seen in the past month, I think that I am in a position to state that the charges are not believed."

Nobody in the state takes seriously the charges that have been made against me to the effect that I live in Texas and that I will be ruled by the 'bosses'. Mr. Hinkle has amused himself doing this, but by repeating the harmless accusations, and if they have cost me a vote in any precinct in the state, I haven't discovered it. The people simply know that these charges are not true and Mr. Hinkle has only gone about the state wasting his breath in repeating them."

Hinkle Can't Cut.

"The same thing is true in regard to the charges which Mr. Hinkle made here last night in regard to the 'waste and extravagance in the state administration'. The people know that what Mr. Hinkle says about school and road expenditures is not an accurate statement. They know that their school and road levies are made by their own county boards and they have not been misled one bit by Mr. Hinkle's statement that, as governor, he can intervene and materially reduce taxes."

"I have found that the voters of the state are much better informed as to the tax situation than Mr. Hinkle gives them credit for. They are not nearly as susceptible of being fooled as he thought they were when he started his campaign, and consequently when he began to tell the public what he was going to do when he became governor the public generally began to ask the question: 'How in the world is he going to do it?' And the public is still wondering, because neither Mr. Hinkle nor his campaign managers have given a satisfactory reply."

"The statement issued a few days ago by the democratic central committee in Santa Fe, which purports to be a reply to one of the most interesting political mistakes that I have ever known anyone to make. The committee, in this statement, places at the disposal of a democratic governor three agencies which they say he can use to reduce taxes, and they forget entirely that the most emphatically worded plank in their platform is the plank condemning one of these agencies. I pointed this inconsistency out last night in a speech in Gallup but it is worth while repeating it again because it reveals so plainly the weakness of the entire democratic contention."

Mr. Hill left here last night for his home at Hill in Dona Ana county, where he will remain until Saturday, when he will return to Albuquerque to take part in a meeting in conjunction with Stephen B. Davis and Mrs. Otero-Warren.

Blaze in Rear of Kaseman Structure Believed Incendiary; Is Fifth in Five Months.

Fire of unknown origin at 2:30 last night destroyed a frame outbuilding and stairway at the rear of the building at 201 East Central avenue, owned by C. A. Kaseman. The fire started in a pile of papers under the stairway. It was extinguished quickly by the firemen. Both stations responded to the alarm.

Part of the building is two stories in height. It is located adjoining several other business structures, and a fire in that locality is a menace to property worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. When first discovered, the flames towered above the roof of the second story.

It was stated last night that last night's fire was the fifth to occur in that immediate neighborhood within four or five months. The Martinez barber shop, which occupies part of the building, has been threatened three times by small blazes in the rear. Two weeks ago a broom which had been set afire, was thrust through the window of the toilet of the Commercial Printing company, adjoining the Martinez barber shop.

When F. J. Baser, the proprietor, returned to the print shop after his evening meal, discovered the smoldering blaze, which had begun to char the woodwork. He put it out, and reported the fire to the fire department, which began an investigation. Last night's fire, in view of the previous occurrences, is thought likely to have been of incendiary origin.

The damage was about $200, covered by insurance. Mr. Kaseman and the Hahn Coal company have offices in the building.

TICKETS FOR HOOVER DINNER NOVEMBER 11 ARE HALF SOLD OUT

Fully half of the available reservation cards for the chamber of commerce dinner and road expenditures is not an accurate statement. They know that their school and road levies are made by their own county boards and they have not been misled one bit by Mr. Hinkle's statement that, as governor, he can intervene and materially reduce taxes."

"I have found that the voters of the state are much better informed as to the tax situation than Mr. Hinkle gives them credit for. They are not nearly as susceptible of being fooled as he thought they were when he started his campaign, and consequently when he began to tell the public what he was going to do when he became governor the public generally began to ask the question: 'How in the world is he going to do it?' And the public is still wondering, because neither Mr. Hinkle nor his campaign managers have given a satisfactory reply."

LINCOLN RESOLUTION NOT ACTED UPON BY CONFEDERATE VETS

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 31.—The confederate veterans of Missouri adjourned their twenty-sixth annual reunion here late today without acting on an alternative resolution, one condemning and the other approving recent criticism of Abraham Lincoln as responsible for the civil war.

In a stormy final session, A. A. Pearson of Kansas City, newly elected commander of the organization, refused to recognize Judge Joseph D. Showalter of Independence, who was endeavoring to introduce a resolution which had previously circulated, criticizing efforts in the reunion to endorse Lincoln.

GOOD GRAZING LANDS IN ARIZONA OFFERED TO N. M. STOCKMEN

A million and a half acres of good grazing land owned by the Santa Fe railroad in Mohave county, Arizona, is available to New Mexico livestock men for winter grazing purposes, according to information received yesterday by Miss Bertha Benson, secretary of the New Mexico Cattle and Horse Growers association.

A large share of the land is yet unleased. It is reported that the better feed this season than for several years and less livestock is on it than usual. Much of the land is at an altitude of between 2,000 and 3,000 feet and has an ideal winter climate.

Green feed on the land will begin during December. Much beef is shipped off the low ranges in April and May. It is reported. New Mexico stock raisers who are obliged to ship their cattle out of the drought areas of the state will undoubtedly take advantage of the neighboring grazing opportunities.

Socorro, N. M., Oct. 31.—Fred Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Fischer of Luis Lopez, a small settlement six miles south of Socorro, suffered a dislocated ankle Friday morning when a horse he was riding fell with him near his home.

FARMER HAS TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE

"I don't think anybody ever suffered more pain than I have. Twice I was operated for gall stones and a third operation was advised. My pains are all gone and I feel I am permanently cured." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince you. It is sold at Briggs pharmacy and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

E. V. BERRY WILL ATTEND Y.M.C.A. TRENNIAL MEET

Leaves Next Week for Atlantic City to Represent Local Association at International Convention.

E. V. Berry, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, will leave next week for Atlantic city where he will attend the forty-first international convention of the organization which will be held from October 11 to 23. Mr. Berry will represent the local association and will be the only New Mexico representative present.

The international convention proper will be held from October 14 to 19. It will be preceded, however, by a secretary's conference and followed by a conference of railroad association workers, both of which Mr. Berry will attend. The convention is held every three years. C. T. French, president of the association, being the delegate to the 1919 gathering.

All of the sessions of the convention will be held in Young's Million Dollar Pier on the Boardwalk. There will be numerous sectional conferences composed of delegates from city, county, state, railroad and industrial associations. The delegates from each state and province will also meet together.

Among the notable men who will address the convention are Dr. Robert Spear of New York, the Rev. Harry E. Fosdick of New York, Henry C. Wallace of Washington, D. C., Bishop Manning of New York, the Rev. William Horace Day of Bridgeport, Conn., Bishop McDowell of Washington, D. C. The Fisk University Jubilee singers will be the entertainers at the convention.

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS STAGE MEETINGS SATURDAY

Political speeches will be numerous here Saturday night when the republicans and the democrats will hold rival meetings. Stephen B. Davis, Jr., candidate for the United States senate on the republican ticket; Mrs. Adeline Otero-Warren, candidate for congress, and C. L. Hill, nominee for governor, will speak at the High school auditorium. As this is the first appearance here of Mr. Hill and Mrs. Warren since their nomination, and the first occasion on which Mr. Davis has addressed a public gathering since his nomination, much interest has been aroused.

COMMISSION HOLDS MOST HARMONIOUS MEET IN HISTORY

Last night's meeting of the city commission was unusual. Hughes and Swope engaged in no controversies. Well had no remarks to offer, and Tingley said nothing that the newspaper men could hang a story upon. No motions were offered. Nobody asked City Manager Calkins any questions, and no citizens were present to present requests or complaints.

The entire session was harmonious. It being Halloween, Commissioners Hughes, Weil, Swope and Tingley were present in spirit only. Chairman Walton was present in the flesh. He moved to adjourn, but the motion was lost for want of a second. He then declared the meeting had never been opened, and hearing no dissenting voice save a hollow murmur in a dark corner, hurriedly instructed the chief of police to put out the lights, and went home—or to some Halloween party. (This is a skeletonized report of the proceedings, quite appropriate to the occasion.)

BURSUM TELLS STOCK GROWERS OF MEXICAN GRAZING FACILITIES

Special to The Journal

Deming, N. M., Oct. 31.—Announcements of interest to stockmen regarding the shipments of New Mexico cattle to Old Mexico for winter grazing were made by U. S. Senator Holm O. Bursum, who spoke here this evening. Senator Bursum told of the leasing of the Terrazas lands in Chihuahua for grazing and of the arrangements which had been made between Mexico and the United States for this permit.

The fumigation of cars of cattle en route to Corralis, Mexico, has been waived by the Agricultural and Cattle Loan agency, according to a message received by Senator Bursum from the secretary of agriculture. The fumigation is waived provided that the cars are free from cotton seed on their return to El Paso. This provision is made to guard against spread of the cotton boll weevil into this country. Senator Bursum explained. The saving to stockmen will be about 30 cents a head or $18 a car.

LOBOS TRAINING TO MEET TEXAS TEAM SATURDAY

Coach Johnson's Gridsters Score Six Touchdowns to the High School's One in Practice Game.

Scoring six touchdowns to the high school's one, in scrimmage yesterday, the Lobos looked better than they have ever looked at any time this season. But for the fact that Coach Johnson used second and third string men a great deal of the time, many more touchdowns would have been scored against the high school boys, who were going strong in their last scrimmage before leaving for Roswell Friday morning to play Roswell high school.

None of the new plays that are being practiced for next Saturday's game with the Canyon Buffaloes, were used in the scrimmage, as they have not been perfected to the point where they can be used to best advantage. Coach Johnson expects to have them in readiness for the Buffaloes next Saturday, however.

Both in practice and in blackboard lecture, Coach Johnson is emphasizing defense against the aerial attack which the Buffaloes are almost sure to launch against the Lobos, an attack which will result in more than one Buffalo touchdown if the Lobo defense is caught napping, something that probably will not happen.

While specializing on the forward pass, the Buffalo offense is not limited to this mode of attack, by any means. Last year they possessed a well balanced offense, with short and long prominent features. In Fullback Burson, the Buffaloes possess a man who is equally good at passing, bucking the line, and running in a broken field, a man who is dangerous whenever he receives the ball. In Lemmons, they have an end who is sure of a pass, once he gets a single finger on it, and who has the speed to get away for a touchdown with anything like half a chance.

DEMOCRATS ARE SELECTED ONLY UNDER 'DURESS'

County Board Passes Resolution Expressing Unwillingness to Revise Election Judge Lists.

Claiming that the democratic majority on the election judge boards was appointed "under duress and compulsion" of the court order, the county commissioners passed the following resolution regarding their action in revising the lists of judges from the republican majority first selected:

"Whereas this board did on October 28, 1922, select judges of election to serve at the forthcoming election, two from the list submitted by the republican chairman and one from the list submitted by the democratic chairman, and

"Whereas a peremptory writ of mandamus has this day issued out of the district court commanding this board to reconvene at this hour and revoke the appointment of one republican and select in his place one democrat, and

"Whereas, although notice was duly given that these petitioners desired to present today their petition and application to the supreme court for a writ of error and supersedeas, and desired a few hours of time to enable them to get to Santa Fe and present that application, these commissioners being advised by their counsel that they are within their rights and legal duty by the action already taken, and

"Whereas, the court has refused to these commissioners even until 8 o'clock tonight with which to make application to the supreme court.

"Now, therefore, under protest and under duress and compulsion of the order and writ of mandamus issued by the court, and acting solely under such compulsion, and not voluntarily,

"Be it resolved that the board of county commissioners does hereby revoke the appointment of the following republicans as aforesaid appointed by the court as judges of election on the 28th day of October, 1922, to-wit:

(Here is inserted the list of appointments revoked.)

"And acting by like compulsion and under duress of said order and not otherwise, does appoint in place of the persons whose authority has been revoked, the following democrats:

JONES GIVEN A BIG RECEPTION IN HOME TOWN

Las Vegas Turns Out Big Crowd to Hear Democratic Candidate for Re-Election to Senate.

Special to The Journal. Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 31.—Senator A. A. Jones was given a reception here this evening by the surprised and enthusiastic here-to-for.

Jose Baca, candidate for lieutenant-governor, the first speaker, was received in a kindly manner and the audience was packed in its applause. John Morrow, the democratic candidate for congress, made one of his characteristic addresses.

The real enthusiasm of the audience did not develop, however, until W. G. Haydon, who presided, introduced Senator Jones. Senator Jones, who is always a welcome orator in his home town, explained to his audience that upon his entrance into congress, war was declared and it became his duty to help plan the financing of this country's participation in the world struggle.

Senator Jones appealed to his home folks to support him and stayed just as far as possible from partisan matters. He thanked his neighbors and his friends, both republicans and democrats, who supported him six years ago. After detailing his work in the senate he asked those same friends to give him their support in the present campaign regardless of their political affiliations.

INDICTMENT IN THE HALL-MILLS CASE PREDICTED

Prosecutor Declares There Will Be One Within the Next Three Days; Mrs. Gibson Is Irritable.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 31.—Prosecutor Beckman of Somerset county declared late today that "there will be an indictment in the Hall-Mills case within the next three days."

Mr. Beckman's statement came at the close of a day which gave little indication that the denouement was approaching in the investigation of the double slaying of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, a member of his choir, on Phillips farm, September 14.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, self styled eye witness to the murders, who has been absorbing public interest in the drama the last five days, today became irritated at the repeated efforts of reporters to interview her and hustled them off her farm by the simple expedient of firing a charge of bird shot over their heads. Thereafter interviews were conducted by telephone, whenever Mrs. Gibson could be induced to answer the bell.

U. S. WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN LAUSANNE MEET

Government Formally Declines to Take Part in Near East Peace Conference in Switzerland.

Washington, Oct. 31. (by the Associated Press).—The American government, in notes delivered today to the British, French and Italian ambassadors here, formally declined to participate in the Near East peace conference scheduled to be held in Lausanne, Switzerland, next month. Later the state department made public this government's position on the conference as outlined in the "aide memoire" which was transmitted yesterday to the three governments concerned through the American embassies at London, Paris and Rome.

Reference to the "aide memoire" was made in the formal reply to the allied notes inviting participation, but which were not received by the state department until after the "aide memoire" carrying instructions regarding the American view, had been dispatched to the American representatives in the three foreign capitals. The formal replies, like the formal invitations, were directly worded and explained that the United States would send only observers to the Lausanne meeting and added that that conference was primarily a peace conference to end a war in which the United States was not a participant.

SPACE BASIS OF CARRYING MAIL IS CRITICIZED

Head of Railway Postal Clerks, in Address Here, Urges Business Men to Advocate a Change.

The railway mail clerks of Albuquerque last night entertained the national president of their organization, William Collins, of Washington, D. C., at Taft hall. The affair was a dinner and smoker.

Mr. Collins is on a speaking tour of the western branches of the association. He gave a talk on service matters and general working conditions in the railway mail service. Mr. Collins explained the manner in which parcels post is handled by the postal department. He said the department sells its service to the public on a weight basis, and purchases the same service from the railways on a space basis. As an illustration, he showed that a parcel with $8 worth of postage had been transferred at a cost of $100 to the government because of the floor space occupied in the mail car.

Mr. Collins stated that such methods had increased the cost of transferring the mails from $61,000,000 in 1916, when it was paid for on the weight basis, to $93,000,000. To offset this increase the officials are reducing the number of clerks and mail cars used in transporting the mails. Mr. Collins said, which makes the service less efficient, and in the end the public pays by receiving less satisfactory service.

He said that the present method could only be changed by legislation, and he urged every business man interested in good mail service to ask his representative in congress to use his influence to secure a change back to the weight basis.

After a general discussion of service matters with the clerks, Mr. Collins left for El Paso, where he will hold a similar meeting tonight.

About 30 mail clerks and business men, who were their guests, attended the dinner.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN CITY IMPROVING, LOAN COMPANY FINDS

At the annual stockholders meeting of the New Mexico Loan and Mortgage company, held last night, all officers were re-elected, as follows: L. G. Rice, president; P. J. Baser, vice president; Ralph Melbourne, secretary; J. J. Stone-lake, treasurer; D. E. Harrington and J. P. Jacobson, directors. The company declared a dividend of 6 per cent for the past six months. Reports of the officers showed that business conditions in Albuquerque, as reflected by the corporation's business, are much better than at this time last year.

FIRE AT TOP OF NEW BUILDING ATTRACTS PASSERS' ATTENTION

A bright fire, blazing in the top floor of the First National bank building under construction at Third street and Central avenue attracted considerable attention last night at 6:30 o'clock. Several people hurried to tell the foreman the building was afire, but he assured them the fire had been started to prevent the freezing of fresh concrete.

There is hardly anything as expert as a good deal of the "expert advice" that is being marketed.

KLAN KLEAGLE SEEKS ARREST OF MEMBERS ON LARCENY CHARGES

Sacramento, Calif., Oct. 31.—A row within the ranks of the Sacramento Ku Klux Klan broke out today with Klegle Edgar I. Fuller seeking the arrest of 175 alleged members on charges of grand larceny and Attorney Hugh Sydeham, seeking Fuller's arrest on a charge of embezzlement.

The district attorney's office referred both applicants for warrants to the city attorney's office, and the latter office sent them back to the district attorney's office with the result that late today no warrants had been issued.

In a signed statement, Fuller announced dissolution of the local klan and J. P. Simpson, who said he was a special representative of Imperial Wizard Simmons, declared Fuller had the authority to disband the organization and that the national headquarters was behind him.

WEDNESDAY November 1, 1922.

A MISREPRESENTATIVE.

John Morrow, Democratic candidate for Representative in Congress, speaking at a Democratic mass meeting, said that Senator Bursum referred to ex-service men as "lounge lizards." Witness what Senator Bursum did say:

"I want to say to you ex-service men if you want to preserve the integrity of your organization in keeping with your big achievements overseas in the service which you made in behalf of preserving the liberty of this country, that you will not permit politics to control your organization, you will not permit any lounge lizard to capitalize and convert your organization in order to further political purposes."

If this is Mr. Morrow's idea of representation, he is unfit to hold any public office. Mr. Morrow's attempt to create ill-feeling among the ex-service men by deliberately distorting Senator Bursum's remarks only adds the fuel of hatred to the flame of discord.

That Mr. Morrow can distinguish between truth and falsehood is illustrated by his letter to the New Mexican, in which he calls attention to a statement attributed to him to the effect that the Republican majority comes from the Spanish-American counties and the alleged statement goes on to say:

"In fact in order that a woman may vote in these counties fourteen or fifteen times, it is only necessary that she have the use of a black shawl."

Mr. Morrow in his comment says, "The latter paragraph is a false and perverted statement, never made by me, and is gotten out for one purpose only."

Mr. Morrow promptly resents any attempt to attribute to him a statement which he claims he did not make, but has no compunction against making "a false and perverted statement" with reference to others. Undoubtedly he had a purpose in doing so and that purpose could only have been to create a false impression on the minds of his audience against his opponent.

If Mr. Morrow were wise,—which we think he is not,—it would occur to him that in making false appeals to one limited class, he is alienating a larger number of voters to whom truth makes a stronger appeal than petty campaign slanders.

OUR VAST ROAD PROJECT.

The roadbuilding program of the federal government includes about 180,000 miles of improved highway and it will require from 15 to 20 years to complete the project. With about 60,000 miles built or in process of construction two-thirds of the mileage remains to the future. It is a great job which has been undertaken, the most stupendous in that line in the history of the world.

The Roman highways, extensive as they were, were lilliputian in comparison with such an undertaking. These roads are only such as fit into the national system, chief thoroughfares. They have nothing to do with a vast amount of mileage which serves purely local needs. It is estimated that when complete automobile saturation is attained there will be 17,000,000 cars. Were cars to stand still on the highway no insignificant length of road would be required to give them space. The more cars the more good roads will be demanded, for a car is of little value unless there is a road on which it can run. With the increase of cars will come demands for increase of road improvement and that will go on and on.

In the seventies and eighties of the last century there was a tremendous craze in railroad building. Almost every community had a project for a new railroad regardless of how many they had already, yet the eagerness in those days to have a railroad is not a marker to the insistence in this day for good roads. Every center wants roads in every direction and every farmer wants one by his farm, if he owns an automobile. For generations Americans gave little attention to the highways. For the most part the most primitive in road construction would do. It required a powerful incentive to arouse the country to a desire for good roads that would not be denied. The automobile provided the impulse and what improved highways are built are probably but a starter for what the next score of years will see realized.

BY THE WAY.

This 1922 Turkey seems to be a gobbler, all right.

German officers are reported to be joining the Turkish army in large numbers. If there is any place where German officers should feel perfectly at home it is in the Turkish army.

DUG OUT BY ROOT

"Majority of the exhibits in French art show in the nude," says a newspaper headline. Evidently a bare majority.

Lloyd George has not been left speechless, it appears.

We suppose the new tariff is responsible for the raise in the price of shins on Saturdays and Sundays.

After hearing it discussed from all angles, we have come to the conclusion that the tariff is a drier subject than the Volstead law.

A colored man in Council Grove, Kansas, sang songs about a former sweetheart, and his wife shot him through the lung. This probably will convince him that his wife really loved him the best.

There is talk of changing the name of the turkey. But we have not heard anything about changing the price.

Take the porch swing from the house; bring the shovel from the street; haul the clothes line from the sidewalk, where it trips folks off their feet. Who ran off with Willie's wagon? Who cut gashes in the screen? Oh, By Gosh! I sure am thankful every night ain't Halloween.

The reason why they call 'em fowls is probably because so many of 'em go over the ball park fence.

Judging from the standpoint of clothing, a football game is an exhibition, but a track meet is a display.

TODAY'S BEST THOUGHT

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY LIFE.

Three ounces are necessary, first of patience, then of repose and peace; of conscience a pound entire is needful; of pastimes of all sorts, too, should be gathered as much as the hand can hold; of pleasant memory and of hope three good drachms there must be at least. But they should be moistened with a liquor made from true pleasures which rejoice the heart. Then of love's magic drops, a few—but use them sparingly, for they may bring a flame which naught but tears can drown. Grind the whole and mix therewith of merriment an ounce to even. Yet all this may not bring happiness except in your orisons you lift your voice to Him who holds the gift of health.—Margaret, Queen of Navarre.

Fame.
George Jones, a British painter of mediocre talent and now quite forgotten, took great pride in a fancied likeness to the Duke of Wellington and tried in a degree to make up for the part. A friend who was telling the duke about it one day added that the resemblance must be very great because Jones was frequently addressed on the street as "Your Grace."

"Strange—very strange," muttered the conqueror of Napoleon. "Nobody ever addressed me as 'Mr. Jones.'—Everybody's Magazine."

"Mary!"
"Before we go to bed better make sure everything is locked up."
"Yes, I've locked up everything—coal bin, jewel box, safe, doors and all the windows."
"Just like a woman," interrupted Jones to himself. "I'll lose that pint yet."—New York Sun.

The Markets

By the Associated Press.

FINANCIAL

Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 31.—Stock prices moved in a conflicting manner in today's stock market, reflecting the play of opposing speculative forces, but short interests finally obtained the upper hand and again succeeded in forcing a shading of quoted values. Losses of one to two points were quite common.

Opening prices showed a better tone and indicated a relaxation of professional pressure, but the failure of the directors of the Studebaker Motor company to declare another extra dividend on the common stock provided an excuse for another bear attack, which was aided by a heavy liquidation in domestic oil shares, apparently the closing out of weakened speculative accounts. Studebaker registered a net loss of 4 1/2 points on the day.

While the quarterly report of the United States Steel corporation was disappointing to many traders who expected that the dividend on the common would be earned, the showing, in view of the fact that it covered the worst period of the coal and rail strikes, was considered an indication that the steel industry was on the mend. The balance of $11,319,098 applicable to dividends showed that the corporation earned all the $6,304,919 necessary for the preferred and all but $1,359,602 of the $5,353,781 needed for the common.

Domestic oils weakened in response to a sharp break in Pacific oil, which registered a net decline of 3 1/2 points. Losses of one to nearly three points were sustained by Associate, Coaden and Tide-water Oils, Phillips Petroleum and Producers and Refiners.

Equipment shares slipped back in the face of further announcements of huge orders. Baldwin dropping 2 1/2 points, American Locomotive 1 1/2 and American Car 1 1/2. Changes in rail shares were mixed, a drop of four points in Delaware and Hudson and a loss of 1 1/2 in Northern Pacific being the two outstanding features in that group.

May Department Stores was the individual feature, being pushed up for a net gain of 3 1/2 points on rumors of a stock dividend at the next meeting.

Total sales were 1,089,660 shares. Call money opened at 5 per cent and advanced to 5 1/2.

Chicago Board of Trade.
Chicago, Oct. 31.—Persistent scattered selling induced by a material decline in prices at Liverpool and by apparent lulls in export demand had a bearish effect today on the wheat market here. The closing was heavy, 3/4 to 1 1/2 cts. lower, with December $1.13 to $1.14 and May $1.12 1/2 to $1.12 3/4. Corn finished 3/4 to 1 cts. down, oats off 3/4 to 1 cts. and provisions varying from 10 cts. decline to 5 cts. advance.

With Liverpool wheat quotations finishing as much as 2 pence lower in some cases and with an increase of more than 7,000,000 bushels reported on the world's available supply total, the buying side of the market seemed to be at a disadvantage for at least the time being. Rains over a good part of the domestic winter crop belt, the southwest in particular, counted as a future bearish influence. Besides, primary receipts were in excess of the figures last week and last year.

Efforts to develop rallying power in the wheat market proved of little effect, general speculative buying being practically dormant and the short interest outstanding having insufficient volume to be much of a factor. The seaboard reported that there were a good many foreign bids received, but that they were too far out of line. Omaha, however, sent word of the sale of 100,000 bushels of hard winter wheat to be shipped by way of the Gulf of Mexico at 1/4 cts. under Chicago, December 5 cts. and there was also a sale of 50,000 bushels here for export.

Corn and oats were easier in sympathy with wheat. Arrivals of new corn here showed a steady increase.

Sharp breaks in the value of hogs weakened the provision market.

UNIVERSITY SHOULD HAVE A FIREPROOF LIBRARY, SAYS CHIEF

Fire Chief Robert Henderson, who recently visited the University of New Mexico in company with City Manager B. H. Calkins and Foreman Harry D. Shup of the city water works, for the purpose of locating three fire plugs on the campus, said yesterday that he was impressed with the university's need of a fireproof library.

"Every precaution is taken against fire at the university," said the chief yesterday, "but because there is no fireproof place for the storage of books, the school's library is in constant danger. I saw volumes there that could not be replaced, yet a small blaze in the basement where they are shelved would either burn them or cause them to be damaged by water. I believe a good investment would be a fireproof stack room for the library."

Theaters Today

"B" Theater—"If You Believe It, It's So," a Paramount picture, which is being repeated today, with Thomas Meighan and an all-star cast; also repeating the pictures of "Pathe Review" and "Current Events."

Lyric Theater—Milton Sills and Henry Walthall, starring in "One Clear Call," is being repeated today; the management is also repeating "Help Wanted," a rattling good Goldwyn-Graphic comedy.

Pastime Theater—Harold Lloyd, starring in his own five-reel comedy, "Grandma's Boy," is the big attraction at the Pastime today; also showing Screen Snap Shots, Cartoons and Star Land Review.

Theodore Roberts, who plays the character of "Sky Blue" in Thomas Meighan's Paramount picture, "If You Believe It, It's So," which is being repeated today at the "B" theater, says that his record for cigars smoked in one scene was 70 in a picture made several years ago, "M'Liss." In "Old Wives for New" he smoked one cigarette through 23 scenes. His hardest job smoking was in "Forbidden Fruit," where he had to keep a cigar at a certain length for a dozen scenes.

"If You Believe It, It's So" is said to provide Tom Meighan with the best role he has had since "The Miracle Man." The part is that of a city crook who goes to the country and meets the girl who changes his life. Pauline Stark is the girl, and besides Mr. Roberts, the cast includes Charles Ogilvie, Joseph J. Dowling (the "miracle man"), and Edward Brady. Tom Forman directed.

HAROLD LLOYD IS AT PASTIME THEATER AS STAR IN "GRANDMA'S BOY"

Fun, and lots of it, was enjoyed on Harold Lloyd's set when "Grandma's Boy" was under production for Associated Exhibitors, and which is being shown at the Pastime theater. Mr. Lloyd believes in the old adage, "Care will kill a cat," and is just as certain that smiles will infuse new spirit into a company. When something really funny happens nobody else laughs as heartily as he. "When the shooting of the interiors in Grandma's home was finished everybody was tired, for the scenes had been exacting. The 'spree' had brought on the set a pair of handcuffs, which 'Red' Golden, assistant director, was trying out for a 'shot.' For a joke, the cuffs were snapped on Golden's wrists and for an hour the whole company chuckled at 'Red's' expense. When he was released the assistant director, quick as a flash, joined the wrists of Fred Newmayer and Sam Taylor, of the scenario staff, together, and for the rest of the afternoon these two had to move in unison.

A common question used to be "Who's your favorite author?" but now it's "Who's your favorite movie star?"
