Will Test Salary Question.

In order that the misunderstanding prevalent throughout New Mexico regarding the status of the salaries of county officers pending the action of the first state legislature may be decided by the courts as quickly as possible, District Attorney Charles W. G. Ward has prevailed upon the board of county commissioners to issue an order authorizing the payment to him of a small fee and to Lorenzo Delgado, county clerk, one week's salary. The issuing of the order in favor of Mr. Ward and Mr. Delgado will be the cause of the institution of a friendly suit before Judge David J. Leahy in the district court to determine the legality of the payments. Judgment pro forma will be rendered. This will be appealed to the supreme court, giving that body the first opportunity of passing upon the provision of the state constitution relating to the salaries of county officials.—Las Vegas Optic.

ARMED CLASH WITH HONDURAS

United States Gunboat Petrel Lands Seventy Marines at Cortez

SEIZE WHARF AND RAILROAD

Native Troops Given Orders to Stop All Trains For Present.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)
Puerto Cortez, Honduras, Feb. 7.—(Delayed in transit.)—There has been a clash between United States and Honduran authorities over enforcement of a government decree directing representatives of W. S. Valentine to surrender to the government authorities, the railroad, wharf and other properties held under lease by the Valentine syndicate. Seventy-five marines from the United States gunboat Petrel landed and seized the wharf and railroad. Honduran troops were then ordered to stop all trains. The governor has filed a protest.

Population Is Incensed.

Puerto Cortez, Honduras, Feb. 9.—The population here was greatly incensed at the landing of the marines. Acting on the authority of Congress which declared the Valentine contracts cancelled, President Bonilla ordered that civil proceedings be brought against W. S. Valentine of New York, ordered delivery to the government of the railroad and wharf and demanded an accounting for alleged damages sustained by the government.

The decree was served on A. G. Greely, local manager of the Valentine syndicate, who asked time to communicate with Mr. Valentine. This was refused. Greely appealed to the American consul, who asked the cooperation of the commander of the gunboat Petrel now in the harbor.

The commander requested that the enforcement of the decree be delayed 24 hours until then the American consul could communicate with the state department. The governor also refused this and demanded that the railroad and wharf be turned over to him by 8 o'clock this morning. The commander of the Petrel then landed 75 marines and placed them on the wharf and at the railroad office.

The British, Italian, Mexican, Danish and Norwegian consuls were summoned and through them the governor protested to the American consul and the Petrel's commander against the landing of the marines.

Bonilla Is Warlike.

President Bonilla was informed and ordered that detachments of armed troops immediately be placed at Laguna, one mile south, and Chamelico, 28 miles south of Puerto Cortez, with instructions to stop all trains. When this order was given several banana trains were out and its enforcement meant that several ships in the harbor would not be able to get cargoes.

Up to the hour of sending this dispatch, (Feb. 7), the commander of the Petrel had received no instructions from Washington and was contemplating withdrawing the marines.

Railroads Racing to Have It Completed Before the Panama Canal.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 9.—No impediments are now standing in the way of a double track bridge being built over the Ohio river, twelve miles below here marking a long step in the race of transcontinental trunk lines to secure direct connection with gulf ports in anticipation of the opening of the Panama Canal. Plans for the structure were announced here this morning, bids will be opened on March 15, and the contract for the construction will be let within thirty days hereafter. The bridge is to be built jointly by the Burlington, which initiated the enterprise; the Illinois Central, the Louisville & Nashville, the Frisco, and the Big Four railroads. It will cost $3,600,000 and another million will be spent in constructing terminal facilities and shops.

TAFT CAMPAIGN ON IN EARNEST

Active Work for President's Re-Nomination and Re-Election

EARLY BOOMERS ARE BUSY

Congressman William B. McKinley May Be National Chairman.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)
Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—Active work for the re-nomination and re-election of President Taft, aside from that done at the White House, began here today when Representative William B. McKinley of Illinois, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, took up his new duties as manager of the Taft campaign.

Mr. McKinley began work early and planned to see many of the party leaders now in Washington. Quarters for the Taft boomers have not been secured but within a few days Mr. McKinley expects to open offices.

Although Republican leaders said today that it was too early to talk about the plans of the campaign after the Chicago convention, many friends of Mr. McKinley were of the opinion that if President Taft is re-nominated Mr. McKinley will be his choice for chairman of the Republican national committee. Mr. McKinley probably would be acceptable to all the old line party leaders. Some of these leaders have objected to Postmaster General Hitchcock and Secretary to the President Hill, both prominently mentioned heretofore for national chairman.

Taft on First Ballot.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—President Taft will have 780 votes out of the total of 1,076 on the first ballot at the Chicago convention, or 241 more than the majority necessary for nomination, according to Representative William B. McKinley of Illinois, Secretary to the President C. D. Hill, and Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts.

The three held a conference today, which practically was the opening of the Taft campaign. The figures were reached after a careful canvass of the country, it was said.

NATION-WIDE RAILROAD UNION IS PLANNED.

Next Strike That Is Ordered Will Bring Out 100,000 Men From Start.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)
Chicago, Ill., Feb. 9.—Labor leaders are secretly perfecting the formation of an organization of railroad shop employees that will include every road operating west of the Mississippi river, according to the Record-Herald today.

A meeting to place the finishing touches on the organization will be held in Kansas City on March 4.

As soon as the organization is launched demands are to be made for a general advance in wages on every road.

It is the aim to unite all the mechanical trades on one railroad so that concerted action may be taken when wage demands are made.

Demands will be made on all railroads in the same territory at the same time, so that all railroads will be involved simultaneously if a strike is called.

Labor leaders say they discovered the weakness of their former plans during the recent disputes with the Harriman lines and Illinois Central and that the next time they strike it will be on a broader scale.

The new organization, if consummated on the line as planned, will embrace more than 100,000 men.

To Prevent Strikes.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 9.—Albert Hinzman, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, in talking of the proposed organization of railway shopmen, said he had known for some time that the plan had been discussed, but that he had not been officially notified of any action. March 4, he said, had been named as a tentative date for a meeting to be held here. "A gigantic organization of all unions would do more to prevent strikes on railroads than any other remedy," Mr. Hinzman said.

"Each of the various unions west of the Mississippi river, have a separate branch on each railroad, and each local will send a delegate to the meeting here."

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—The Senate committee on expositions today acted adversely on the resolution requesting the President to invite Latin-American countries to participate in the Panama-California exposition in San Diego, California, in 1915. As San Francisco is to hold an exposition the same year, in which the nations of the world already have been invited to participate, the committee decided that an invitation to a second fair was inadvisable.

Cortelyou Explains Fraud Orders.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—George B. Cortelyou told the House committee on expenditures in the postoffice department today of his action in issuing fraud orders against E. G. Lewis, of St. Louis in 1905 and 1907, while he was postmaster general.

A publishing company owned by Lewis and also the United States bank of St. Louis were affected by the orders. Frank Madden, who was third assistant postmaster general under Mr. Cortelyou, is now counsel for Lewis.

Mr. Cortelyou said Madden had refused to issue fraud orders against Lewis, and that he had issued them personally.

Mr. Cortelyou denied that any extraneous influences had anything to do with his action in the Lewis case. His attention was called by Third Assistant Postmaster General Britt to testimony taken in the investigation of the case suggesting that former United States Senator Platt and the express company interests had sought the destruction of the Lewis Company's bank, and that it was through Platt's influence that Mr. Cortelyou had been made postmaster general.

"Did former Senator Platt or any express company or express trust," asked Mr. Britt, "either influence you or attempt to influence you in your action in this case?"

"Not in any way whatever," Mr. Cortelyou replied.

"Mr. Platt never appeared in the case at any time to my knowledge. There was no such evidence introduced that I ever heard of."

Reading from the record, Mr. Britt reviewed testimony of Madden, in which references were made that the express companies had sought to break up the Lewis bank because it did a mail banking business which interfered with the money order business, and that Senator Platt had Mr. Cortelyou appointed to attack the bank and destroy it. All such inferences Mr. Cortelyou emphatically denied. That anything entered the case except the evidence before him through regular channels, he also denied.

"There never was anything before me or in my mind to cause me to issue an order prejudicial to the Lewis Company," said Mr. Cortelyou. "I acted in the case because it was the duty before me."

FREIGHT RATES SUSPENDED

Revised Western Classification No to Go Into Effect Until June 25.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—A new Western classification of freight on which western transportation lines worked for many months, and which recently was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, today was ordered by the commission to be suspended from February 15 to June 25.

The proposed classification contains hundreds of changes resulting in many advances and some decreases in present rates. Naturally, rates would be affected by the new classification not only in western territory but throughout the country, on all freight originating in, or destined to points in that territory. A hearing was given on the proposed classification on January 9, but it was found impossible by the commission to conclude its inquiry before the effective date of February 15.

Advances in freight rates proposed by trans-continental railroads were suspended by the commission from February 28 until August 28. It was found impossible to conclude the inquiry within the time originally fixed by the commission.

The commission ordered a general investigation of the practice of interstate carriers, with respect to the issuance of passes, freights, and free transportation service.

Information has reached the commission that many carriers are violating the law in that regard. Indications are that the offending carriers may be obliged to face prosecution.

Labor Leader on Trial for Contempt a National Capital

REGRETS UNJUST CRITICISM

Pathetic Tale of Scene in Court the Day Before Christmas Eve.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—John Mitchell's trial for contempt of court, in which he was involved with Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison, officials of the American Federation of Labor in connection with the Bucks Store & Range boycott case, took on a dramatic touch at the hearing today.

Mr. Mitchell had seemed to be criticizing Justice Wright, before whom he is on trial, and the justice had displayed some impatience with his critic.

"Let me explain this," said Mr. Mitchell. "I have much in my heart which I never have said, which has, perhaps no place in these proceedings. At the time I was summoned to Washington to appear before this court for judgment I faced a long term in prison. It was on the day before Christmas Eve. I was living in New York. I had not seen my family and children, who were in Illinois, for two months. I had bought and packed in my grip toys and gifts for my children. I asked that the decision be postponed. It was not, I was brought here and sentenced."

"I had merely done what I believed was my right under the government my father had sought to uphold. So when I appeared and was sentenced, and discuss it afterwards I could not attempt to, and did not disguise my feelings at being sentenced on the day before Christmas, and I felt outraged that I did not receive the same consideration that would have been given the worst offender in the land."

"Mr. Mitchell," said Justice Wright, "you have shown some bitterness toward the court for the manner in which you were sentenced. What reason have you for believing that the court knew of your request for a postponement?"

"I wrote to the president of the American Federation of Labor and asked it," replied Mr. Mitchell.

"I supposed that my request had been conveyed to the court," said Mr. Mitchell.

"No request was conveyed to the court," replied the justice. "It came as a demand. There was an atmosphere of antagonism about it. It was a demand from the vice president of the American Federation of Labor for a postponement. I did not think he had any more right to demand it than any other man."

Attorney Alton B. Parker, for Mr. Mitchell, suggested that there had been a mistake and asked who pre-

Questions of Presidency and Capital Is Worrying Statesmen.

Mukden Manchuria, Feb. 9.—The city of Kaiping, province of Chi-Li, was subjected to a severe bombardment today by the revolutionary troops. According to the latest reports the town is in flames. The attacking force of republican troops brought twelve heavy field guns into action and for several hours fiercely shelled both the city and the fortress.

Twenty-three officers belonging to the garrison of the city were executed by the general in command without trial on suspicion of collusion with the revolutionary commander.

Rival Candidates for Presidency.

Shanghai, China, Feb. 9.—Tang Shao Yi, the representative of Premier Yuan Shi Kai, today declared that he was confident that the abdication of the throne would be an accomplished fact before February 18.

There appears to be less confidence now than there hitherto has been that Yuan Shi Kai will be selected for the Presidency of the Republic. On the other hand, the name of General Li Yuan Heng, the present vice president is mentioned, and it is possible that he may be eventually selected.

Chinese Magna Charta.

The draft of the proposed Magna Charta of the new Chinese Republic has been completed by Dr. Wu Ting Fang, the minister of justice in the republican cabinet, and now awaits the approval of the senate at Nan-king. The document provides for a presidential term of five years, but the senate probably will make the first term only one year. It is thought that a compromise may be reached on the question of the future capital of China. President Sun Yat Sen, however, asserts positively that Nan-king will be selected, although he admits that an agreement may be made to keep Peking provisionally as the nominal capital.

Outpost Fighting.

Desultory outpost fighting continues in many places, but the reports as to the casualties are very much exaggerated on both sides. Tang Shao Yi declared positively today that there would be no more serious fighting.

Mrs. Crandall Released from Blackwells Island Learns of Fortune

HAD BEEN IN TENEMENT SCRAP

Served Sentence For Disorderly Conduct and Mischievous Mischief.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)

New York, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Frederick Crandall, nee McManus, came to New York today from Blackwells Island and learned for the first time that her husband was an heir of the late Edwin Hawley, and a prospective millionaire. Since January 20 last, she had been an inmate of the workhouse sentenced for "disorderly conduct, and mischievous mischief," the outcome of a tenement house row. The children of the pair have been at Chatham, N. Y., awaiting their mother's release and it is understood she will join them there.

Young Crandall once was one of the late railroad millionaire's favorite nephews, but they quarrelled in 1896 when Mr. Hawley learned of Crandall's attentions to Miss McManus, then a telegraph operator in the offices of the Southern Pacific railway, where he was employed. Since Hawley died intestate, Crandall will receive a share of the estate amounting it is said, to more than $2,000,000.

Justice Wright explained that a Washington lawyer had approached him in chambers.

"I have been under the impression that my request was conveyed to the court and was denied. If I have been wrong in that I would not do the court an injustice, and I regret that I have made it appear so," said Mr. Mitchell.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)

Guadalajara, Mex., Feb. 9.—Sixty federal troops today fought with 200 Zapatistas, near Ponjamo, in the state of Guanajuato near the Jalisco railroad line. Seven federals and fifteen rebels were killed.

Bandits have been operating in Guanajuato and Michoacan for several days and as a consequence the express company refuses to accept valuables for shipment in those states.

The railroad bridges at Torreon have been hastily repaired and Abram Gonzales, minister of the interior, proceeded to Eagle Pass, Texas, by special train last night.

A Difficult Problem.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—Although Mexican federals have been victorious against the Zapatistas in several instances according to reports to the state department today, the federal government is still facing a difficult problem.

Rebels Take Chapala.

Chapala, in the state of Jalisco, is reported to have gone over to the rebels, and events in the state of Michoacan are reported to have taken a serious turn. A report from the American consul in Chihuahua, note the situation there unchanged.

Picking Camps for Troops.

The purpose of Lieutenant Colonel Surig's trip from San Antonio to Houston, it was explained at the war department, was to obtain information of sites for maneuver camps in the event of a mobilization.

El Paso Is Frightened.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 9.—Some frightened El Pasoans have been protesting to Governor Colquhoun against the passage of Mexican federal troops through Texas from Eagle Pass to El Paso and then into Juarez, some fearing that it might result in a battle in Juarez, or as the troops attempt to cross from El Paso to Juarez. The governor replied that he has not yet given the state department permission to pass the Mexicans through and is considering the matter. Ordinarily no apprehension is felt among El Pasoans if the troops do pass through here.

Juarez Without Troops.

The Juarez garrison is now virtually without troops, since the soldiers were sent south yesterday to operate against the Zapatistas now holding the country west of Chihuahua. Some cavalry horses and soldiers' wives arrived this morning from Chihuahua and other soldiers are expected tonight, but they are to be sent south at once, following those sent south yesterday, to attempt to restore peace along the line of the Mexico North-western railroad between Juarez and Pearson.

Railroad Track Destroyed.

Advices from Chihuahua today state that the Mexican National between there and Torreon is still torn up and that such of the Mexico North-western rail has been destroyed between Chihuahua and Madera, along which much of the early fighting of the Madero revolution took place.

Chihuahua People Fleeing.

Several bands estimated at from one hundred to five hundred men, each, are in action west of Chihuahua. Residents of Chihuahua anxious to escape being killed as innocent spectators are taking trains to El Paso as fast as they can get them. Disinterested people estimate that there are many more men in arms against the government in Chihuahua than there are supporting it. Pascual Orozco still declines to take the governorship, and Governor Abram Gonzales is unable to reach there from Torreon, where he has been marooned by burned railroad bridges.

Texas Rangers Would Stop Troops.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 9.—Governor Colquhoun has not granted permission to Mexican federal troops to move through Texas territory from Eagle Pass to Juarez. The state department is reported to have given such permission to the Mexican government but the state department wired the Texas governor to know if there would be any objection and Governor Colquhoun still has the matter under consideration. In event the Mexican troops attempt to cross into Texas territory from Eagle Pass, they could be stopped by the Texas rangers, it is explained.

By Josephine Foster in Rio Grande

What matter it, if roses bud
Or summer clouds are softly draped
About the hopes, the hearts of us,
By which our lives are shaped?
The shades of life may close us

It's pain may sting or wound, or

May we not soothe our griefs with

Mercediana Apodaca died at Albuquerque of tuberculosis, leaving a husband and four children. J. W. Hoyt, aged 62 years, died at Albuquerque of consumption. He leaves a wife. Hoyt was an Odd Fellow and a Red Man and came to New Mexico from Muncie, Indiana.

Civil War Claims.
The Omnibus Claim bill of congress has the following New Mexico items: Anastasio de Baca, administrator of Francisco de Baca, deceased, of Santa Ana, now Bernalillo county, $1,325; Edward H. Bergman, of Santa Fe, $1,200; and Mary W. Little, widow of William J. Little, deceased, of Lincoln county, $632.18.

Thirteen Arrests at Las Vegas.
During January 13 arrests were made by the police of Las Vegas, six of them for drunkenness, two for vagrancy, three for fighting, one for resisting an officer and one for disorderly conduct. Jail sentences of twenty days were inflicted on each of two of the drunks and in other cases the penalties were lighter.

Rebels Captured in Dona Ana County.
Thirty heavily armed rebels from Mexico were captured at Noria, Dona Ana county, by troopers of the Fourth Cavalry and taken to Fort Bliss. Several of the group said they were Madristas and others declared they were Vasquistas. Sixteen horses, thirteen rifles, ten revolvers and a lot of ammunition was taken from them.

More than $200,000,000 are spent annually to bury the dead in the United States and at first blush this seems a useless waste of money. But then coffin makers, undertakers, florists, grave diggers have to live and many a man who never lets go of a penny during life is given a sumptuous funeral that distributes the coin into places where it will do more good than in its former hoard. There are always two sides to a proposition of that kind.

Sacrificed on Altar of Reform.
W. H. M. Smith, editor of the Truckee, Nevada, Republican, was shot twice and fatally wounded by P. M. Doyle, merchant and owner of the local electric power plant. Smith through his newspaper had been waging a crusade against the saloons of Truckee and against Doyle as being connected with them.

Santa Fe officials at Albuquerque.
Second Vice President W. B. Storey, General Manager Arthur G. Wells, General Manager F. C. Fox Superintendents J. M. Kurn, I. H. Hibbard, E. J. Gibson and other Santa Fe officials were in conference at Albuquerque yesterday.

Confesses Killing a Man.

Masses N. Gatliff surrendered to the authorities at Albuquerque yesterday confessing that five years ago he shot and killed Robert Rigby at Mount Vernon, Kentucky in self defense. Gatliff is a typical mountaineer 31 years of age and had been working for the American Lumber Company in the Zuni forest.

Midwife Acquitted.

Mrs. Alma Dittman, a midwife, who was charged by the Colorado state board of health with murder, because of an alleged illegal operation which resulted in the death of Mrs. Blanche Grace Ainsley, and against whom the district attorney issued an information, was discharged in the west side court at Denver when the state's attorneys announced they had no case against the woman.

Wedding at Albuquerque.

Harriet Floyd McAdoo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo of Irvington, New York, was married to Charles Tabor Martin of New York at Albuquerque, the ceremony taking place in St. John's Episcopal church yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The father of the bride, is the president of the Hudson and Manhattan Railroad Company and constructed the McAdoo tunnel under the Hudson. Archdeacon W. E. Warren performed the ceremony. The couple will reside at Prescott, Arizona.

Views on Flirting.

Whether flirting is a crime or a disease is the question engaging Trenton, N. J., authorities since the action of Magistrate Naer in sentencing Sarah Reed to serve six months in the workhouse on that charge. Several physicians criticize the sentence on the ground that flirting is a disease and lawyers contend that if this is true, offenders are not responsible and can appeal to higher courts. Charles A. Leigh, a leading business man, says a youth who will not endeavor to flirt when he sees a pretty girl should be in jail.

Smoked at the Funeral.

Is it a breach of law for a priest to ride through a cemetery, smoking a cigar and with his hat on, while a funeral is in progress? This somewhat complicated inquiry summarizes the charge on which Italian residents of Rock Springs, Wyoming, caused the arrest of the Rev. Father M. J. Kelley. His accusers assert that while the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Rolando was in progress, no priest officiating, the Rev. Father Kelley rode around the lot and funeral party with his hat on his head and a lighted cigar in his mouth.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

SAFETY HABIT MOVEMENT.

The report of the claims department of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company, for the six months ending December 31, 1911, shows that there were 36 employees of the company killed and 3,608 injured, a decrease of 10 killed and 447 injured, or a decrease of 28 per cent in the number of employees killed, and 12 per cent in the number injured.

"These figures," said J. D. M. Hamilton, claims attorney for the Santa Fe, "indicate that there is sweeping over the country a wave of 'Get the Safety Habit.' Reports made to the government and state authorities show that there is a material reduction in the number of accidents, not only on railroads, but in factories and other industries in which machinery is used. The vigilance of employers, as well as of employees, the character of the machinery and appliances, have worked together to bring about this change of conditions."

"At least 75 per cent of the accidents to labor is chargeable to carelessness. The average man having to do with the operation of a train is the personification of carelessness in the protection of passengers, but too often he gives no heed to his own safety. It was with the view of injecting into the mental caliber of the railroad man a more efficient degree of personal safety that the Santa Fe inaugurated the 'Safety Habit' campaign six months ago. The results to date are most satisfactory, and we expect to make a better showing in the next six months."

"We also hope to interest the general public in our 'Safety Habit' work. People gathering at depots where there are moving trains should keep in mind that care should be exercised all the time. It is dangerous to rush to the edge of a platform when a rapidly moving train comes in. It is dangerous to board a moving train or alight from one, yet this is done daily, notwithstanding the efforts of train men to enforce the rules. We hope to interest school teachers in this movement, having them set aside a few minutes every day for the purpose of keeping pupils 'Get the Safety Habit.'"

"More people are killed annually while picnicking, hunting, swimming, joy riding, etc., than are killed in railroad accidents, and if the 'Safety Habit' were taught to children in the schools, the casualty list of the next generation would be greatly reduced. During the last six months of 1911 only two passengers were killed on the Santa Fe, proper, covering 6,000 miles of lines. One of them was a circus man who went to sleep on top of a car, fell off and broke his neck. The railroad company was not responsible for the accident. The other case was one in which the passenger was shot by a crazy man. These, with the 36 employees killed, make a Santa Fe railroad fatality list of 38. In the towns along the Santa Fe in this territory, during the same period, according to the newspaper reports, 3,376 people met violent deaths in accidents occurring off the railroad right of way. The public, therefore, will readily see that the 'Safety Habit' movement ought not to be confined to railroad circles, but should be encouraged by society in general as an instrument for the preservation of human life."

Will Robinson over Roswell way, jumps roughshod on the editor of the New Mexican accusing him of being biased in favor of President Taft because the latter is keeping the aforesaid editor in office as postmaster of Santa Fe. Two postmasters have come and gone, and a third has been on the job for over a year, since the aforesaid editor voluntarily resigned the postmastership to engage in more congenial work than being a footman for the dear public. Robinson must lay the New Mexican's partiality for Taft to no other cause than that Taft has made good, and that it is the New Mexican's sincere belief that the nation will be best off if it makes no change in the Presidency for another four years.

Missouri has been offering prizes for a state song. It selected one after a spirited competition, it advertised it widely and distributed thousands of free copies but somehow, no one will sing it. On the other hand, complains Governor Hadley, he can hear the following at every street corner and in every by-way:

Every time I come to town
The boys keep a-kickin' my dog around.
Makes no difference if he is a hound,
They gotta quit kickin' my dog around.

Public taste is a peculiar proposition and he who can keep up with it has made his fortune.

Many people will find satisfaction in reading the nephew of Millionaire Hawley who incurred his uncle's displeasure because he married a "mere" telegraph operator, will after all get $2,500,000 of the Hawley estate. It is to be hoped that the kind of snobbery that objects to a relative marrying a poor girl who is making her own way in the world, has died with Hawley.

ARIZONA'S OFFICIAL VOTE.

Arizona cast only one third as many votes at its first state election as did New Mexico. To be exact, the neighboring state cast 22,709 votes, and only 16,943 votes were cast on the Constitutional amendment, New Mexico on the other hand, cast 60,842 votes of which 57,728 were cast on the constitutional amendment. In Arizona, only 1980 citizens voted for the retention of the recall. Eugene W. Chaffin, a one time prohibition candidate for president, received 88 votes in the entire state of Arizona for Congressman and ran ten votes ahead of the other prohibitionists at that. Governor Hunt was given a plurality of 1,957, over Judge Edward Wells, the Republican candidate, as against 3017 plurality given Governor McDonald.

The official count shows some mighty interesting facts. It shows for instance, that in the race for the senate Marcus A. Smith, Democrat, turned a neat trick on Ralph Cameron, Republican, who had defeated him for delegate in 1908. In that election Cameron's plurality was 708 and in the late election Smith won over Cameron by 958, which shows a change of 1666.

The vote for senatorial candidates shows that the question of conservatism and insurgency did not cut as much figure as might have been expected. For instance, Henry F. Ashurst, an out and out insurgent, got only 274 votes more than Smith, who is, or at least always has been, a conservative. Cameron and Howell Smith, the Republican candidates, made their campaign on the same platform and it was a distinctly progressive platform. Yet Cameron got 412 more votes than his running mate. The truth seems to be that the Democratic candidates won, not because they were insurgents, but because they were Democrats. It was simply a Democratic year in Arizona.

On the day before the election one of the insurgent leaders in Phoenix announced that Ashurst would run at least 1500 ahead of Mark Smith; but the result seems to demonstrate that even insurgent prophets can be mistaken at times. Ashurst's vote is 10,872, M. A. Smith's 10,598, Cameron's 9640, and Howell Smith's 9228. The Socialist candidates got slightly more than 1200.

The real Democratic vote getter is Carl Hayden, congressman-elect. Hayden received 11,556 votes, a plurality of 3071 over Jack Williams. Osborn, for secretary of state, came through with a plurality of 1194 over Cleveland. The judges of the supreme court got about 1350, which may be taken as the average Democratic plurality.

ON THE BRINK OF A VOLCANO.

That even in large cities with an ample police force, the work of suppressing crime and criminals is difficult, is apparent from a statement in the Rocky Mountain News that "a wave of crime, the worst known in Denver in three years, has held sway for three weeks," and that "for three weeks highwaymen, who are little more than boys, have been skipping about the city, seldom striking more than twice in the same vicinity. Their victims number more than thirty men and women." There is no doubt that wherever police and city authorities permit a wide-open town, there crime is most rampant and hardest to subdue.

A map of the city of Denver, printed in yesterday's News, shows that twenty-nine policemen are required at night to guard the so-called Red Light district, while in areas ten times as large, only one patrolman is on duty. The callous indifference of the so-called decent people to conditions of vice in their immediate neighborhood, is one of the puzzles of humanity. Not until some member of a so-called "respectable" family is sand-bagged and slugged or killed by a stray bullet, or dragged down to the depths, are the other members aroused to at least a mild protest against conditions that seem to hark back to the vilest days of Rome or heathendom, when and where orgies of immorality and drunkenness, marked the rapid decline of the nation. When reading of the destruction and havoc caused by outbreaks of Vesuvius or Aetna, periodically one often wonders why people are so foolish as to build homes on the brink of a volcano, but the peasants of Italy certainly are not more fatalistic and hardened to the 'decent' people who will tolerate a so-called "wide-open" city with red lights, and all the vice and crime conditions, that inevitably accompany these.

Taking the tariff from zinc will inevitably ruin many zinc ore producers in the United States just as the proposed reduction of the steel tariff by the Democrats will send back that industry twenty years and will reduce the thousands of men working in it at present at high wages to penury.

El Paso is spending $2,500 for an audit of the municipality's books for two years past. And it is worth it.

Not since 1884 has there been so little snow in the mountains of southwestern Colorado, says a dispatch from Denver. That item is of much significance to the users of water in San Juan and upper Rio Grande valleys of New Mexico. It also emphasizes the urgency of the construction of permanent storage and irrigation works on the tributaries of the upper Rio Grande, which has been halted by the unjust and unreasonable embargo on the waters not only of the Rio Grande, but also its tributaries by the Reclamation Service.

Every one wonders what Congressman Curry whispered into his former Colonel's ears yesterday afternoon at New York. Was it an assurance that Curry would deliver the New Mexico delegation to the Rough Rider? The ex-governor will have to do more terrific rough riding even than he did in the Philippines to keep such a promise.

With silver at sixty and copper at fourteen cents, there should be an even greater increase in the production of those two metals in New Mexico than was recorded the past few months. If these values are maintained, 1912 will eclipse all former annual records as far as the production of those two metals is concerned.

William Jennings Bryan is not impressed with the sincerity of his Democratic brethren in Congress. He rather thinks they are under the thumb of the money power. He certainly ought to know.

fighting Committee regarding conditions at the Homestead Plant of the United States steel corporation. Miss Hyington once wrote a book on that subject. This is the first woman to appear before the committee.

Chairman Stanley assured Attorney Reed for the steel corporation that he believed the company treated its laborers as liberally as any other similar employing concern, and perhaps better than some. He said he regarded conditions at the Colorado Iron and Fuel Company's plant at Pueblo, as the worst of all.

"We have nothing to do with that," said Mr. Reed.

Aimed at Roosevelt.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—Senator Reed of Missouri will introduce a resolution next Monday providing for a constitutional amendment to bar any man from holding the office of President of the United States more than two terms of four years each, the filling of an unexpired term to be regarded as a full term.

Ahead of Sugar.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—The Democratic bill to revise the chemical schedule of the tariff will be presented to a caucus next week. The ways and means committee has decided to report it ahead of the proposed revision of sugar tariff. Consideration of the measure in the House probably will follow the disposition of the military and agricultural appropriation bills. The bill increases duties on many toilet luxuries and decreases those on chemicals in common use.

NOT IF McDONALD CAN HELP IT.

Curley Visits Las Vegas to Confer With O'Malley Regarding Johnson-Flynn Fight.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) East Las Vegas, N. M., Feb. 9.—Jack Curley, manager for Jim Flynn and promoter of the Johnson-Flynn battle for the heavyweight championship, arrived here last night from the Pacific coast, and is conferring today with Charles O'Malley and a committee of Las Vegas business men, relative to the proposition for staging the big fight event here on July 1.

Las Vegas has offered a bonus of $100,000 for the fight. Though no announcement has been made, it is believed that Curley looks favorably upon the offers of this city. Albuquerque the favorite. Albuquerque is the first choice of Jack Curley, manager of Jim Flynn. The Pueblo fireman, who is matched to fight Jack Johnson for the world's heavyweight championship on July 4, as the place for staging the battle. Other towns under consideration are Las Vegas, N. M., and Wendover and Jawbridge, Nev. The foregoing sums up a statement made last evening by Curley, who was in Albuquerque for half an hour, on his way to Las Vegas, where he conferred with fight fans of the Meadow City, who have offered $100,000 for staging of the fight there.

DYNAMITE CONSPIRATORS TO BE ARRESTED MONDAY.

Several of the Forty Men Accused Have Disappeared From Their Usual Haunts.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 9.—Federal authorities in the twenty cities where are known to be the forty or more men indicted in connection with the dynamite conspiracy case today were informed of the identities of the defendants. Plans for simultaneous arrests of the men probably on Monday, are progressing.

Reports that some of the men were not to be found at their usual haunts caused no alarm at United States District Attorney Miller's office. When word for their arrest is sent out, it was said, it will be found that the government had been kept fully advised as to their movements.

Many of the defendants, it is reported, have taken steps toward furnishing bond for their appearance for arraignment here on March 12.

Everybody knows that the best fed people stand the best chance in the world, if they are careful to keep their stomachs in good trim. We say positively that there is nothing that will do you so much good when you have stomach trouble and are rundown, worn out and weak, as Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil.

Letha Cheyenne, Lucknow, S. C., says: "Indigestion, loss of appetite and general weakness have been troubling me for nine years. When I began taking Vinol a few weeks ago I noticed an improvement in a very short time and now I feel much stronger than I have in years. Vinol has built me up, improved my appetite and digestion, and I am delighted with its splendid results."

JOHN B. SNEED WILL LIKELY PLEAD INSANITY.

Case Takes Unexpected Turn After Business Partner Goes on the Stand.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 9.—When the trial of John B. Sneed, accused of the murder of Captain A. G. Boyce, was resumed here today the defense began with testimony aimed to show that Sneed thought his wife insane when she eloped with Captain Boyce's son. It was out of the elopement that the killing grew.

W. A. Fuqua, banker, of Amarillo, and partner of Sneed, in the banking and cattle business was the first witness.

Fuqua recounted part of a conversation in which he said he advised Sneed to give up his wife and start over again somewhere else. Sneed, the witness testified, had replied: "Mr. Fuqua, I can't do it. She is insane." The case took an unexpected turn when Sneed's attorneys announced that the question of the prisoner's sanity, beginning with the period after his wife's elopement, would become an issue in the trial.

the order overruling the objections of the respondent, G. H. Van Stone, to the rule requiring him to show cause, and granting the motion on behalf of O. L. Owen of the attorney general to file an information in quo warranto against Mr. Van Stone requiring him to substantiate his title to the office of corporation commissioner. This is the end of the first round in the fight of Mr. Owen to oust Mr. Van Stone from the office of corporation commissioner on the ground that he was not legally entitled to it.

Service of the information and a summons was had upon Mr. Van Stone late last evening which was duly acknowledged. The papers were served by Charles C. Closson, sheriff.

In an interview this morning, Judge H. D. Terrell, attorney for the relator, O. L. Owen, said:

"It is probable that the respondent will demur to the information on the same grounds which he maintained in the supreme court and the district court."

"The information filed simply sets forth the facts surrounding the election which are and have been common property. It will tell of the nomination of O. L. Owen by the Democratic convention to the office of state corporation commissioner, the certifying of the same under due form of law, to the probate clerks of the various counties and of the failure of the clerks of the counties of McKinley and Luna to comply with the election law in printing the name of O. L. Owen on the official ballot. It will further contend that it was the intent of the electors, casting ballots with the name of 'Sol' Owen printed thereon in the place of O. L. Owen, to vote and cast their ballots for the relator as the regular nominee of the Democratic party."

"It now develops that in precinct No. 24 (Kennedy), of Santa Fe county there were 12 votes returned for

"Sol" Owen of Clovis. Yet the ballots of Santa Fe county were regular and it was an apparent mistake on the part of the election officers in the returns, as all the other Democratic candidates received from 11 to 13 votes in the same precinct. It further develops that in one precinct in Sandoval county, 60 votes were cast for O. L. Owen, but returned by the judges of the election for "Sol" Owen for the reason that the Democratic ticket of the precinct received from 59 to 60 ballots.

"Mr. Van Stone must appear at 10 o'clock a. m., Feb. 14, to answer to the information. The demurrer, which he probably will enter, will have the effect of raising a purely legal question."

"In the fight being waged by Mr. Owen he has not received financial or even moral support from the Democratic 'Junta' of the new state, nor has his counsel been conferred with up to the present time."

PERE HYACINTHE DEAD
AT RIPE OLD AGE.

He Created Stir in His Day By His Independence of Thought and Preaching.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Paris, France, Feb. 9.—Abbe Charles Loyson, known throughout the world as Pere Hyacinthe, died today in his 85th year after a brief illness.

Pere Hyacinthe was the monastic name of the clergyman who was born at Orleans, France, on March 10, 1827. He studied at St. Sulpice, and in 1851 became priest and taught philosophy and theology at Avignon and Nantes. Subsequently, entering the order of the Carmelites, he became known as a powerful preacher, and gathered crowded and enthusiastic audiences of all ranks of society to the Madeleine and Notre Dame in Paris. Almost as remarkable as his eloquence was the boldness with which he denounced alleged abuses in the church and Archbishop Darboy defended him against the accusations of the Jesuits till in 1869 the general of his order imposed silence on him. Hyacinthe replied by a letter in which he called for a thorough reform of the church and was excommunicated. Relieved from monastic vows by the Pope, he became a secular priest under the name of Abbe Loyson. He protested vigorously against the dogma of infallibility but though he attended the "Old Catholic" congress at Munich and on visits to the United States and England fraternized with the Protestants, he always declared his intention of remaining in the Catholic church, trying to obtain reforms such as the liberty of marriage for the clergy. In 1872 he married an American woman. In 1873 he was chosen cure of a congregation of Liberal Catholics at Geneva but soon left them. He published sermons and a lectures and in 1877 established a Gallican congregation in Paris which in 1884 attached itself to the Old Catholic church in Holland.

GAME BIRDS SUFFERED DURING COLD SPELL.

But Great Elk Herd in Jackson's Hole Country Was Well Provided for This Winter.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Washington, D. C., Feb. 9.—Quail and other game birds suffered severely during the recent cold weather, according to reports from various parts of the country to the United States Biological Survey. Dr. Henshaw, chief of the bureau, said today that much was done through the National Association of Audubon Societies to preserve the birds, but that the measures taken were inadequate. Provision should be made early in the season, he said, for feeding birds in severe weather and such precautions should be more systematic and thorough. There has been no loss by starvation of Elk in the Jackson's Hole region, Wyoming, such as characterized the preceding two winters, and the animals thus far have been in good condition, Dr. Henshaw reports. Hay was stored early in the season at various points near the wintering ground of the big elk herd and they were fed when they could not rustle for themselves.

TWELVE KILLED AND SEVEN INJURED BY EXPLOSION.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Port Francis, Ont., Feb. 9.—A premature explosion on the construction work on the Canadian Northern railroad, near here today, killed twelve men and seriously injured eight others.
