FAITH IN WORK NECESSITY FOR AN INSTRUCTOR

United States Commissioner of Education Tigert Says Co-Operation and Loyalty Too Are Needed

Faith and enthusiasm for their profession, and co-operation, are the qualities most needed by the teachers of the country, according to United States Commissioner of Education John J. Tigert, who addressed the closing session of the New Mexico Educational Association annual convention yesterday afternoon.

"The teacher should stay with the profession at least long enough to learn something about it," said Mr. Tigert. "We have too many intellectual traps in the profession, and I don't know but what the word 'intellectual' might well be dropped."

In speaking of co-operation, Mr. Tigert said it is the duty of every teacher to co-operate with her sister teachers and with those in authority over her. As long as the superintendent is the superintendent, and you work for him," said Mr. Tigert. "You primary teacher, you high school teacher, must co-operate with him and obey his orders. You may see faults in his system, but it is not your duty to criticize. You can make the changes after you become the superintendent, which you will if your work justifies."

Plea for Inspiration. In an address on "Leadership in Education," Will C. Wood, state superintendent of California, made a plea for better moral inspiration for the teaching profession. He made the practical suggestion that instead of being taken twice over the subject of geography, the children be given a course in geographical reading. He suggested that the biographical element in history be more greatly stressed, with attention given to peace heroes as well as war heroes. He said he favored the continuation of four years of history, but would introduce a system of study that would give a historical background of the relation of America to the rest of the world, by periods.

A general course in ethics, morals and manners was suggested by Mr. Wood for all schools. He said that such a course would have a salutary effect by instilling in the student that there is something else to be worked for besides self.

Outlook Is Good. President Harry L. Kent of the State Agricultural college and a member of the state board of education, in speaking on "The Educational Outlook in New Mexico," declared that prospects never have been brighter. He said that never in the history of the state have so many persons of college rank been attending the institutions of learning. Never, he said, has co-operation between these institutions and the teachers in general been better. Mr. Kent said it is his belief that the schools can be maintained at their present state of high efficiency, with no cutting of terms or reduction in force, but that a readjustment undoubtedly is necessary to meet conditions as they exist. By economy practiced intelligently, Mr. Kent said, school activities may be retained unimpaired in spite of financial readjustments. He declared that the state board intends to put into effect its program requiring higher standard of qualifications for certification to teach.

Musical numbers during the afternoon were given by the Albuquerque High school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Samuels; the Valck violin duo; vocal solos by Mrs. Ida Pierce Winn of Silver City, accompanied by Mrs. Adolphine Kohn of Las Vegas; vocal solos by Miss Louise Jaramila of Las Vegas, accompanied by Mrs. Colwell Root.

The state palm yields up to 400 pounds of fruit a year.

U. S. AMBASSADOR ENTERTAINED BY AMERICAN CLUB

Herrick and De Jouvenel, French Senator, Given a Dinner on the Order of the Old Fashioned Kind

Paris, Nov. 29 (By the Associated Press).—The American club treated Ambassador Myron T. Herrick and the French senator, Henry De Jouvenel, tonight, to a Thanksgiving dinner as near to the old fashioned variety as the French kitchen can supply. C. Imman Barnard, who presided, showed the guests the medal commemorating the first Thanksgiving dinner enjoyed by the Pilgrims in the seventeenth century and remarked that a good many troubles had happened meanwhile; yet there were still many things to be thankful for.

"Americans abroad," said Mr. De Jouvenel in the course of his speech, "will probably continue to celebrate Thanksgiving. I hope they will always have good reasons for so doing, but Europe will have less reasons so long as the United States remains outside the community of nations."

The senator assured the diners that he wasn't going to ask for anything. "It has become quite a habit, I know," he said. "Since you gave your boys and your resources in the common cause. But at the present time we have come to realize that we can no longer count upon the United States."

"The league of nations is the best means for us to collaborate with the United States, but since the United States did not see fit to come in we have found that the same league is the best medium for us to get along without them. There is no nation in Europe big enough, strong enough and courageous enough to go it alone. The solution of the great problem in the future lies in international union."

Ambassador Herrick thought one of the greatest things the world had to be thankful for was that France and Great Britain had avoided drifting definitely apart.

"The successful passing of this momentous crisis," he added, "is of great portend for the future. Never again will be it necessary for the great peoples to resort to arms to settle their difficulties. Let the whole world be thankful for that."

SCOUT NOTES

Eoy scouts of Troop three will go on an all-day hike Friday up the river. After the hike the regular scout meeting will be held Friday night at the St. Paul's Lutheran church.

A contest has been inaugurated by Scout Master Tegan, through which the scouts may win books on scouting. Seventeen scouts are now registered with Troop three. Two new scouts have been taken into the organization. They are Carl Loyitt and Bud Nesbitt. Joe Klein and Harold Biermann have applied for membership. "Mack" Meredith Cromley, a Troop three scout, will leave December first for California to live. There "Mack" will join a California troop.

W. B. LLOYD AND ASSOCIATES ARE FREED BY SMALL

Men Convicted of Violating the Anti-Syndicalism Act Have Sentences Commuted by the Governor

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29 (By the Associated Press).—Sentences of William Brown Lloyd and 16 associates, serving sentences in Joliet penitentiary and the Cook county jail, for violations of the state anti-syndicalism law, today were commuted to expire at once by Governor Len Small.

The commutations were presented as Thanksgiving gifts to the prisoners. They were to be released tomorrow upon the approval of the penitentiary of Attorney W. A. Gunne of Chicago, who was appointed a special messenger to carry the official papers. The prisoners began serving their sentences last week.

Mr. Gunne represented the prisoners at a session of the board of pardons and paroles sitting today with the governor.

Law's Constitutionality. In taking this action, Governor Small announced he was in full accord with the dissenting opinion of Justice Carter of the supreme court, who, contrary to the majority opinion, questioned the constitutionality of the syndicalism law, when the court decided the men must serve their sentences. "No human agency," declared the governor, "can accurately determine how long any human being shall be incarcerated. These men are not criminals. Since their indictment and conviction in March, 1921, they have suffered severely. I declined to extend clemency in their cases prior to their incarceration. No good can come from longer incarceration for them."

HARDING BACKS HOSPITALS FOR DISABLED VETS

Owsley Delivers Messages, Speaking First Into a Radio and Later Before a Legion Post

Washington, Nov. 29.—Messages from President Harding, Mrs. Harding and former President Wilson to members of the American Legion were delivered here tonight by Alvin M. Owsley, national commander of that organization. Speaking first into a radio telephone broadcast over a local legion post, Mr. Owsley described his visits during the day to the White House and S. street home of Mr. Wilson.

The national commander, in replying to inquiries, had asked him to tell the former service men that the executive was behind the national program for hospitals for the disabled veterans and was determined that it should be pushed to an early conclusion. The president also declared, he said, for a practical administration of the law giving world war veterans preference in employment under the civil service.

As he was preparing to leave the executive offices, Mr. Owsley said he was informed that Mrs. Harding would be glad to receive him. "She got up out of a bed of sickness, dressed herself and was wheeled out in an arm chair," the national commander said. "She told me: 'I want you to say to the service men that their friend has been sick, but is much better now and soon will be on the job again.'"

Mr. Owsley said that on his visit to the Wilson home he had told the war-time president he had come to pay his respects to him as the former commander in chief of the veterans and to ask of a message from him. He declared that Mr. Wilson's eyes flashed that he sat more erect and his jaw set.

"Say to them," the former chief executive was quoted "that I am their comrade; say to them that these were the real soldiers who fought for the liberty of the world; say to them that they were the crusaders for liberty."

DAUGHERTY ASKS ENFORCEMENT OF U. S. DRY LAWS

Federal Authorities Are Requested to Co-Operate Closely With the Federal Pro Officers

Washington, Nov. 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Attention of federal authorities throughout the country has been officially called to the necessity of co-operation with prohibition enforcement agencies with a view to curbing the extensive violations of the statutes.

Federal attorneys have been instructed to push all pending liquor cases and to suggest, when proper, the imposition of the heaviest penalties of conviction. Their attention was specifically called to reports that some cereal beverage manufacturers were marketing a product of illegal alcoholic content.

No suggestion was made in the official instructions that the prohibition enforcement machinery had failed to adequately handle its tasks. The order to federal attorneys, on the contrary, was said to have been drawn with a view to enlisting their co-operation in a campaign to ensure general respect for all laws.

It has long been the conviction of some government officials that a danger to be faced in liquor violations was the certainty that they would engender in an element of the population a lack of respect for other laws, and might lead eventually to a noticeable decay in the country's morale.

Among the suggestions as to methods of co-operation, federal attorneys were instructed to expedite all liquor cases on their dockets and were advised as to the best procedure in certain classes of cases. Joint action with local authorities was urged.

The circular order sent by Attorney General Daugherty to all United States attorneys follows:

"You are requested to give immediate attention to the condition of the enforcement of prohibition laws in your district, to analyze its problems, to examine the condition of your docket in respect to liquor, and to report to the department any suggestions you may desire to make enforcement more effective."

"I urge upon you the necessity of adopting every means of clearing the docket and pushing prohibition cases to an early trial. Where possible, and to what extent you can with propriety do so, we desire that, on your part, you give more severe sentences to violators of the liquor laws."

"Your attention is directed to the injunction features of the national prohibition act. Nuisance proceedings have been found to be an effective means of control and more frequent resort to them is desired. This department is ready as it always has been to assist you by furnishing forms or briefs of authorities for instituting this practice in your district."

"We are sending to United States attorneys in districts where breweries are located criminal information and bills for injunctions for proceedings against individuals and companies unlawfully manufacturing and distributing beer."

We desire that these be filed and tried promptly. The need for this is especially apparent in injunction proceedings as the court may be reluctant to grant restraining orders if the evidence shows the nuisance to have been committed at a remote period.

"Wherever there is an adequate local prohibition law, endeavor by

1922 FOOTBALL SEASON CLOSES ON COAST TODAY

Oregon and Washington Meet at Seattle and Washington State and U. S. C. Clash at Pasadena

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Thanksgiving day football games in Seattle and Pasadena tomorrow bring the 1922 Pacific Coast conference season to a close. In the Seattle contest which will decide the Northwest conference title, the evenly matched Oregon and Washington teams will meet, while in the south the University of Southern California will play Washington State.

The champion University of California team closed its season last Saturday, bringing to a close three years of history-making football in which the Bears were not defeated.

An Oregon win tomorrow would give the Eugene team a tie for first place in the conference race with the Bears.

The East-West post-season games remain on the western agenda. In one, Stanford plays Pittsburgh at Stanford, December 30, and in the other Penn State will meet a team, to be named by the conference, at Pasadena New Year's day. These two eastern teams meet at Pittsburgh tomorrow.

At Berkeley a hard fight is scheduled between Santa Clara and St. Mary's colleges, two traditional rivals who are meeting for the first time after a ten-year break. In the Northwest conference, Idaho plays Montana at Missoula.

WOMAN IS FOUND GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Verdict Carrying With It Life Imprisonment Is Returned in the Case of Mrs. Katherine Shurtz

Burlington, Ia., Nov. 29.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Katherine Shurtz, charged with the murder of her husband, J. V. Shurtz, returned late today a verdict of guilty of first degree murder, carrying with it a sentence of life imprisonment. The jury deliberated about one hour and a half.

WOMAN UNMOVED WHEN VERDICT IS RETURNED

Burlington, Iowa, Nov. 29.—After remaining out but fifty-seven minutes the jury that heard the case of the state against Mrs. Katherine Shurtz, jointly charged with George Leroy Spees, a farm hand and her alleged lover, with the murder of her husband, John V. Shurtz, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree and recommended life imprisonment this evening.

John V. Shurtz was found dead in bed, the top of his head blown off. To authorities Mrs. Shurtz denied all knowledge of the crime or who might have committed it. A love letter from Spees, formerly employed on the Shurtz farm, to Mrs. Shurtz was the first clue. Spees, arrested in Indiana, confessed to the murder and turning state's evidence told how Mrs. Shurtz had planned it. One of the state's chief witnesses against the woman was her 14-year-old son, who slept with his mother on the night of the murder.

Mrs. Shurtz gave no indication of emotion when the verdict was returned.

TURKISH REVOLT IS REPORTED IN WESTERN THRACE

Insurgents Are Reported to Be Masters of the Situation; Holding of a Plebiscite Is Demanded

London, Nov. 29 (By the Associated Press).—It is reported here that a Turkish revolt, accompanied by violent fighting at some places, has broken out in western Thrace. The correspondent of the Times at Constantinople telegraphs that he hears the insurgents are masters of the situation and that an armed band of 5,000 having machine guns is marching toward Dedagatch and demanding the holding of a plebiscite.

A dispatch to the Daily Express from Constantinople describes the situation as dramatic and chaotic. It adds that not only are the Turks reported to have revolted but that bands of Bulgarians and Macedonians have crossed the frontier.

For the convenience of soldiers and sailors money orders were first introduced in 1752.

Judged by Their Usefulness

Christmas gifts, like men, are being judged more and more by their usefulness. Present day standards have discarded the useless bauble, because gifts of utility, such as hardware, are beautifully finished as well as eminently useful.

The gift that fits into your daily routine, such as an electrical appliance, a set of cooking utensils, a new range, is a constant reminder of the giver.

The modern gift of hardware is doubly eloquent of the thoughtfulness of the giver because its use tends to save the time and the energy of the recipient.

U. N. M. FIRST IN ORATORY; VEGAS IN DECLAMATION

Raton Wins First in High School Oratorical Contest; Spirited Rivalry Among Students

The state oratorical and declamatory contests held under the direction of the Lyceum section of the New Mexico Educational association last night resulted as follows:

Oratorical contest, college section, Woodford Heflin, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, first; Miss Josephine O'Malley, New Mexico normal university, second.

Oratorical contest, high school section, Miss Violet Sawyer, Raton, first; Loren Moxley, Albuquerque, second.

Declamatory contest, college section, John Samford, New Mexico Normal university, Las Vegas, first; Miss Estelle Bentley, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, second.

Declamatory contest, high school section, Miss Mary Hunker, Las Vegas high school, first; Miss Charlotte O'Malley, normal university, Las Vegas, second; Miss Katherine Lytton, Albuquerque, honorable mention.

The talent shown by the young people, who represent the best that New Mexico schools can offer, was of a high character. The oratorical contest covered a range of subjects, all of which are largely in the public eye, and showed that the young people have studied these questions and have formulated well defined opinions which they know how to state forcefully. The Ku Klux, the labor situation, the soldier bonus, enforcement of prohibition laws, and purification of politics were the subjects discussed.

The contestants and their subjects are as follows:

Oratorical, college—Woodford Heflin, Albuquerque, "A Duty to Perform"; Josephine O'Malley, Las Vegas, "The True Politician"; Oratorical, high school—Theodore Adams, Springfield, "The Right of Railway Men to Strike"; Peter Lineau, Santa Fe, "The Rattler"; Loren Moxley, Albuquerque, "Industrial Justice"; Katherine Lytton, Albuquerque, "The Bonus Bill"; Irene Wiley, Santa Fe, "Christmas Present for a Lady"; Nadine Diefendorfer, Roswell, "Wee Willie Winkie"; Mary Hunker, Las Vegas, "Story of Patsy"; Charlotte O'Malley, Las Vegas, "Stepmother"; Margaret Rice, Raton, "Within the Law"; Nellie Wright, Springfield, "White Assassins"; Alice Stevens, Deming, "In the Street Car"; The judges were:

Oratorical—G. B. Jones, Las Cruces; Roy L. White, Gallup; Ralph W. Crist, Albuquerque; Declamatory—Mrs. Violet C. Moore, Miss Radley, Mrs. H. W. Goeltz.

LOCAL ITEMS

M. W. Talbot, in charge of grazing studies of this district for the United States forest service, has just returned after a trip of three months over various forests of the district.

District Forest Inspector Quincy Randle has just returned from his annual leave, which he spent on a visit to his old home in the east.

E. V. Berry, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., is back at his desk after having spent a month at the annual convention of Y. M. C. A. Secretaries of the World, at Atlantic City, and a short visit to his old home at Monmouth, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowley came to Albuquerque, from Monmouth, Ill., in company with E. V. Berry. They will visit with the latter for about three weeks and will then go to California. Mrs. Bowley is Mr. Berry's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brown of Newark, Conn., where Mr. Brown is treasurer of the Hour Publishing company, have stopped over in the city for a few days, while en route for California. Both expressed surprise at finding such a thriving city as Albuquerque here. They are stopping at 521 North Fifth street.

The Y. M. C. A. will give its annual Thanksgiving dinner at the Y. M. C. A. today. This dinner is given particularly for young men who are away from home.

W. L. Staley, who has been talking promotion of an electric line from a small community in Colorado to a similar community in Arizona, was taken into custody yesterday by the police, on a warrant sworn to by L. C. Gielitz, bond was set at $250.

C. H. Kinsman of the Manzano forest force, has returned to the city after spending the past few days storing powder and other supplies used on the Telano road project.

MINE EXPLOSIONS ARE ATTRIBUTED IN PART TO WALKOUTS

Washington, Nov. 29.—Recent explosions in bituminous coal mines resulting in 185 deaths are attributed to a certain extent, in a statement today by Director Baile of the bureau of mines, to the miners' five months strike.

"There has been a lessening of morale throughout the coal industry as a result of the strike, which tends toward a less careful attitude of mind," Mr. Baile declared. "Another probable factor is the change in personnel at the mines following the strike and the shifting of miners to camps where they are not familiar with the dangers and, in places where there is a lack of discipline which is essential to prevention of disaster."

"Investigations now under way will determine the causes of past accidents and what, if anything, might have been done to prevent them but investigations at one will give no assurance that similar accidents will not occur again."

Russell F. Mead, manager of the Whitney Hardware company, who was at the cemez hot springs, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Finn of 294 North Sycamore street, are enjoying a short visit from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bryan, who arrived from Franklin, Ky. Mr. Bryan is a retired banker and tobacco raiser. The Bryans are on their way to southern California, where they expect to remain during the winter.

Crystal Opera House—The Metropolitan Players gave a fine show last night, and are again at the Crystal tonight in an entirely new program.

Lyric Theater—Charles Ray, as the leading star in "Smudge," will leave the Lyric after the last show tonight, also repeating "Mixing Business With Pleasure," and also showing "Bray Photograph" pictures.

Pastime Theater—William Fox presents Charles Jones as the star in "Bells of San Juan," by Jackson Gregory; also presenting the comedy, "Our Gang."

Jones is here in Fox "BELLS OF SAN JUAN," PLAYING AT THE PASTIME

Patrons of the Pastime theater are to have a real treat when the William Fox production, "Bells of San Juan," starring Charles Jones, opens today. Charles Jones, who has been called "the most convincing actor on the screen," is said to be at his best in this western story of romance and adventure.

Jones, who is cast in the role of the sheriff of San Juan, is fast becoming one of the leading screen heroes. His feats of daring are especially noteworthy.

The story is one of wild and woolly westerners, in which Jones won his fame. He plays the part of a young westerner who is elected sheriff to succeed his father, who was murdered. He swears to avenge his parent. The keeper of the local dance hall and saloon is suspected and the son of the murdered official brings him to justice.

A pretty love theme is wound through the story. Fritz Brunette, in the role of a lady doctor, is said to do exceptionally good work.

CHARLES RAY KIDNAPED IN NEW PLAY, "SMUDGE," NOW AT LYRIC THEATER

There is a thrilling kidnapping scene in "Smudge," the latest Charles Ray feature, distributed by First National, which is being repeated today for the last time at the Lyric theater.

As Stephen Stanton, owner and editor of a daily newspaper in a small California town, Ray has a role that is unlike anything he has done before. He arouses the enmity of the residents of the town by his editorial policy, and a conspiracy is engineered to discredit and ruin him.

While motoring one day with a girl they are stopped by a band of ruffians, overpowered, and held captive in a large warehouse. Although four men are left to guard them, the insidious Stowe, plotting with complicity, and the girl escape—just in time to get out an "extra" which tells their opponents.

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 29.—The Los Angeles county grand jury today returned indictments against Mrs. Ethel Naomi Lyons, daughter-in-law of a Mobile, Ala., banker, and Dr. George A. Zorb, formerly a Los Angeles police surgeon, charging them with conspiring to defraud Dr. Margaret M. Morris out of $265. They furnished bail of $5,000.

Mrs. Lyons, the wife of Lebaron Lyons, Jr., has filed suit against her father-in-law for damages of $100,000, charging alienation of her husband's affections. There are also pending here a suit for annulment of marriage brought by her husband and her cross complaint for divorce from him.

ASSOCIATION WILL WORK FOR A LAW TO LICENSE ENGINEERS
The Albuquerque chapter of the American Association of Engineers, which is composed of about 40 members, held a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce last night. The principal address was delivered by Dean H. W. Goddard of the agricultural college, who is president of the southwestern district of the American Association of Engineers.

It is the intention of the association to foster public sentiment in favor of a licensing bill for engineers to protect the public, lives, health and property. Members stated last night. There are twenty-one states that already have laws licensing engineers. It is proposed to prepare a bill similar to those now in force elsewhere, for introduction in the next state legislature.

"No person would think of employing a doctor to care for their sick one, that was not licensed by the state, thus showing his ability as a doctor," one of the engineers stated last night. Neither would one place a legal case in the hands of a lawyer who had not been admitted to the bar. There is no reason to expect one to employ on construction work or any engineering project a man who is not likewise recognized as being qualified for the position. The fact that a man hangs out his shingle stating that he is an engineer does not make him one. By licensing engineers the public will be assured that when a man is licensed to engineering work is qualified to complete it with a reasonable measure of success. In the designing of structures it is important for the public safety that the work be done by men who are qualified, as failure to do so would endanger many lives. Likewise in the construction of water works and sewer projects, engineering ability is necessary. This also applies to every branch of engineering.

The formation of a state assembly was completed at last night's meeting, subject to ratification by other chapters throughout the state. The personnel of the assembly is: C. A. Long, chairman; E. Carey, Edmund Ross, James N. Gladding and Guy P. Harrington, Albuquerque; Mr. Davidson and Dean Goddard, Las Cruces.

THEATERS TODAY
"B" Theater—For the last time today, "Blood and Sand," with Rodolph Valentino as the great star, will be shown; also repeating the "Pathe Review" and "Current Events" pictures.

Crystal Opera House—The Metropolitan Players gave a fine show last night, and are again at the Crystal tonight in an entirely new program.

Lyric Theater—Charles Ray, as the leading star in "Smudge," will leave the Lyric after the last show tonight, also repeating "Mixing Business With Pleasure," and also showing "Bray Photograph" pictures.

Pastime Theater—William Fox presents Charles Jones as the star in "Bells of San Juan," by Jackson Gregory; also presenting the comedy, "Our Gang."

Jones is here in Fox "BELLS OF SAN JUAN," PLAYING AT THE PASTIME

Patrons of the Pastime theater are to have a real treat when the William Fox production, "Bells of San Juan," starring Charles Jones, opens today. Charles Jones, who has been called "the most convincing actor on the screen," is said to be at his best in this western story of romance and adventure.

Jones, who is cast in the role of the sheriff of San Juan, is fast becoming one of the leading screen heroes. His feats of daring are especially noteworthy.

The story is one of wild and woolly westerners, in which Jones won his fame. He plays the part of a young westerner who is elected sheriff to succeed his father, who was murdered. He swears to avenge his parent. The keeper of the local dance hall and saloon is suspected and the son of the murdered official brings him to justice.

ALBUQUERQUE MEETS EL PASO PLAYERS TODAY IN GREAT GRIDIRON CLASSIC

El Paso Boys Reported in Great Shape and Confident of Victory; Local Lads Will Have to Fight Desperately But Have Good Chance; Thrilling Game Predicted

Will Long bring "Queque" home in front?
Or will "Pidge" Scotten's speed bring victory unto Tiger team.
With sprint in time of need?
Will Glasman grab the ball from air.
As Roybal passes ponds?
Or will Glom crash through line?
Or Carson skirt the ends?
Will husky Wilson "knock 'em dead?"
Or Cap Dawson leap high
To snatch to him with clutching hands.
The ball, from out the sky?
Will Albuquerque win at last?
Or Tigers on the fray?
"Quicken sabb." All we know is that they'll play great ball today.

Promptly at 3 o'clock this afternoon the Albuquerque and El Paso teams will answer the referee's whistle, opening the Albuquerque football classic for 1922. Since the varsity played Arizona at Tucson and today meets the Aggies at Las Cruces, the game this afternoon is the most important to be played since the season opened. Not only is the game a classic in importance but it promises to develop play in keeping with its importance.

Today's game means much to both teams. To El Paso a victory means the closing of a successful season. To Albuquerque high school it will mean infinitely more. It will mean that the referee's whistle at the head of its most powerful rival it has finally turned the tables. The sweets of victory are as nectar under such conditions. And further than that, a decisive victory for Coach Moore's eleven will mean that the Duke City team ranks with Phoenix as one of the two greatest high school eleven in the southwest.

True, Roosevelt high school may have a claim, since Roosevelt defeated Albuquerque. But that game scarcely enters into the reckoning. In the first place it appears rather significant that Roosevelt refused to play elsewhere than at Roosevelt, although scheduled to play here. In the second place, there were incidents in connection with that game because of which many more than Albuquerqueans doubt Roosevelt can defeat Albuquerque on either the local or a neutral gridiron.

If Albuquerque wins today the team will be rated over most of the southwest as an eleven of first ranking. It will be considered by some as being on a plane with Phoenix.

But prospects for an Albuquerque victory are not as bright as they might be. They are not nearly as bright as they would have been had the two teams clashed when the Duke City boys played horse with the United States Indian school on November 12.

Coblentz Expects to Win
There are two reasons for this. First, the El Paso eleven at that time was not at its best, while today the Tigers are at the top of their form. Luther Coblentz is one of these coaches who is always pessimistic. He rarely predicts victory and usually sends out a wail about his team being out of condition, a long list of cripples, players failing to function as they should, and offers other wails along the same lines.

When Coblentz does predict victory it is usually against a team which he considers so weak that he starts his second string men. And he has been informed that the Albuquerque eleven this year is probably the most powerful in its history.

Yet, before leaving El Paso yesterday, Coblentz predicted his team would win. Further, he said the Tigers are in much the best shape they have been this season and declared that if the team had been in the same physical condition and the youngsters had played the same brand of football they are now showing, they would surely have defeated Phoenix.

Coming from Coblentz that is significant to the highest degree. It means that instead of facing a Tiger eleven weaker than the one met last year, the Albuquerque boys will meet a team of much greater strength.

Glom Will Start
And Albuquerque will not be quite as strong. True, the team is to start with its regular lineup. But while the players will be there, their full playing strength will not.

Glom has been patched up so he will be able to start. Long has come around fairly well and will also start. But a parallel for these two players is hardly to be found in the auto racing game. They are like a patched auto tire and no race driver would dream of starting a race with a patched tire, as it could not stand the strain.

And yet, making full allowance, there is still a good chance for the Albuquerque crew. It has been proved since the beginning of the season—in the Princeton games against Chicago, Yale and Harvard, in the Brown-Harvard, the Army-Navy and many other games—that football parallels love in the adage, "None but the brave."

If the Duke City eleven enters the game without too much confidence, knowing that it is facing odds, but imbued with the spirit of fighting its way over all obstacles, if this determination is maintained from the sound of the first whistle until the referee finally calls a halt, victory may well attend. The Duke City boys may well lead.

It is human enough in victorious fight.
When the blood leaps hot and fast,
To charge straight through and little heed
Whether that charge be the last!
But to sink in the depths of defeat's dead murk,
As Despair's clutch grips the heart,
Then to fiercely fight, till victory's won,
That calls for a noble part!

Fighting under such conditions, fighting even though the odds are heavy against them, the Albuquerque players may snatch victory from defeat, as Princeton did against Chicago, as other teams have done through the season.

High Team Powerful
For Albuquerque really has a powerful team this year. It is a team of which any high school might well be proud. In spite of the confidence expressed by the Tiger coach, in spite of the admitted strength of that eleven, Albuquerque man for man and team for team can well match the Tigers, may even have a slight edge.

It develops itself into a question of Albuquerque not committing the fatal blunder of entering the game flustered with overconfidence. When this sort of spirit obtains the chances of the team is not so balanced as to accept a bad break in proper spirit. And El Paso has the faculty of getting the early breaks. Even against Phoenix the Tigers scored before Phoenix was able to get into swing. They are quite likely to score first against Albuquerque.

But if Albuquerque fights as Phoenix did the night before last, you pull out on just as Phoenix finally won. And starting the game in fighting mood, Albuquerque may well prevent El Paso from getting the jump.

Knight has been proved so uncertain this season that it would be folly to attempt to predict the winner where two teams appear so evenly matched. It is only certain that being matched as they are, with the Tigers always a fighting crew and with Coach Moore having instilled the same spirit into his men, the fans are certain on hand to cheer the Duke City boys on to victory.

There will probably be sufficient of the spectacular to satisfy the most exacting. Even though Albuquerque's defense may stop Captain Stanley Dawson, his very manner of going after a forward pass is satisfying. "Pidge" Scotten will probably pull off one or two plays to bring the fans to their feet. Carson, Light or Phillips may also stage something of the sort.

And Albuquerque is likely to deliver with something of the same. If Long is at his best for even a short period of the game there is every likelihood he will stage something quite sensational. And so may Glom, Roybal, Glasman or some other.

Anyway, it looks like a long, hard winter ahead and a great game of football this afternoon. Let's all hope Albuquerque will be on hand to cheer the Duke City boys on to victory.

The probable lineups follow:
Albuquerque.
Foraker ..... L. E. Dawson, Capt.
Wilson ..... L. T. Talton
Marion ..... L. G. Simon
Moore ..... C. Woodul
Ward ..... R. Carter
Coe ..... R. T. Clark
Holcomb ..... R. E. Blford
Long ..... R. E. Scotten
Glom, Capt. L. H. B. Phillips
Glasman ..... R. H. B. Phillips
Roybal ..... F. B. Carson
Coach Moore announced last night that the following will be the officials for the game today: Referee, "Chief" Williams; Umpire, Ready; Field Judge, Borland; Head Linesman, Rickett.

Amethysts of a very fine quality come from India, Ceylon and Brazil.

The Trouble Shooter

TELLS YOU what's wrong

By E. H. Scott

Knew your motor and eliminate 50% of your motor troubles. This series of articles tells you how.

An anti-freeze mixture in the radiator is a necessity during the cold weather, and the best mixture to use in the radiator is grain or denatured alcohol (not wood alcohol). Depending on the weather use the following proportions:

At zero use 1 part of alcohol to 3 parts of water.

At 5° below zero use 1 part of alcohol to 2 parts of water.

At 20° below zero use 1 part of alcohol to 1 part of water.

Alcohol evaporates rapidly, so that it is a good idea to have two gallons of alcohol in the garage so that you can always replace that lost by evaporation.

Don't take any risks but at the first sign of ice fill up with the first solution. One night of freezing weather is sufficient to crack a water jacket or burst a radiator—both very expensive repairs. If you do happen to be unlucky enough to get caught DO NOT ATTEMPT to start the engine, if there is a water pump fitted, or you will either break the pump shaft or shear the key in it. Thaw out the pump with hot water, then cover up the engine hood and radiator and let engine run slowly with retarded spark and the fan belt disconnected, until you see the water begin to circulate.

MODEL'S HUSBAND MODEL HUSBAND, BUT ONLY WHILE HER HEALTH'S BAD

Mrs. Edith Owens.

"The only bills he paid for me were my insurance premiums, and they were always paid very promptly." This was the testimony of Mrs. Edith Owens in her divorce suit from George R. Owens at Detroit. She charged that Owens was a model husband while she was in ill-health, but that as soon as she recuperated he sought the company of other women. Mrs. Owens, an art model, was granted a decree.

AGGIES-LOBOS IN ANNUAL TILT AT LAS CRUCES

Comparative Scores of Season Favor Aggie Eleven But Varsity Is Confident of Gaining Victory

Lobos and Aggies meet at Cruces this afternoon in the thirteenth annual game between Varsity and the State College, and in what is expected to be one of the most stubbornly contested Lobo-Aggie battles in football history. Both teams are primed for the contest, a victory in which is more coveted by both Lobos and Aggies than in any other game of the season. Although the odds from comparative scores greatly favor the Aggies, it is certain that an Aggie victory will be dearly bought.

The Aggies beat the Texas Miners 64 to 9, a team which the Lobos whipped by the score of only 12 to 0, and the Farmers scored the Albuquerque Indians under, 55 to 0, after the Varsity had beaten them 39 to 0. Arizona scored a 21 to 7 victory over the Aggies, and was able to wrest but a 10 to 0 score from the Lobos. Available figures, while confusing, make the Aggies look stronger.

Figures for the fourteen years that athletic relations have existed between the two schools show that out of a total of twelve games played, the Lobos have won six, the Aggies five, and one game resulted in a 7 to 7 tie. In the last five games victory has rested alternately with Lobos and Aggies, and this year it is the Aggies turn to win. However, the Lobos are no respecters of custom in the matter of alternate defeat and victory, and are determined to repeat last year's victory over Coach Bergman's lads.

An interesting feature of the contest will be the duel between the Jones brothers, Ogle and Sewell, playing left half for the Lobos and Aggies, respectively. Both Jones boys are among the best backs in the southwest, and this afternoon will see them pitted against each other for the first time, a situation which should develop some interesting thrills.

The teams will line up this afternoon as follows:

Aggies
Cripp, weight, 160; center.
Stone, weight, 175; right guard.
Coleman, weight, 160; left guard.
Boone, weight, 175; right tackle.

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S. S. S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood cells. Pimples, pimples, pimples are worse yet! You can try everything under the sun—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C.'s of medical science. Red-cells mean clear pure rich blood. They mean clear, healthy, lovable complexion. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1858 as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleaners and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

NOTED SPEAKERS AND SINGER ENTERTAIN AT KIWANIS CLUB LUNCH

J. J. Tigert, United States commissioner of education, was principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club luncheon, held at the Alvarado hotel yesterday at noon. After the luncheon every person present declared it the most overwhelmingly effective and entertaining ever offered in Albuquerque.

Mr. Tigert selected as his subject: "The Products of the Mind versus the Products of the Soil." His speech was replete with witty remarks and humorous tales. He was applauded time after time through the speech, and at the end was greeted with an ovation by the full attendance of the club. Mr. Tigert emphasized the fact that the products of the mind, meaning ideas, technical skill, etc., are greater, more productive in wealth and in benefits to humanity than the products of the soil. He spoke of the building up of Detroit from an insignificant city to the fourth city in the United States. He said this had been accomplished because Detroit was the one city in the United States which could furnish the ideas and skill required in the automobile industry.

Will C. Wood, state superintendent of education in California, also addressed the gathering. He spoke on "The Possibilities of New Mexico." He said California had been built up through visions and special training, and said the possibilities of New Mexico are fully as great as those of California and might be built up in the same manner. He said that instead of adopting the slogan, "50,000 in five years," Albuquerque should take up the slogan: "100,000 by 1930."

Clare Dux, renowned concert soprano, rendered four vocal selections, and was tendered an ovation after each. Her rendition of "Annie Laurie" and "Mighty Lak a Rose" were declared by the music critics present to be particularly beautiful.

Miss Dux won the Indian pottery prize, a beautiful vase. Walter Rabbe won the attendance prize, which was a turkey. Guy Landershaugh was awarded the customary prize in recognition of a son recently born to Mrs. Landershaugh.

SHIPPERS PLEAD FOR RETENTION OF RAIL MERGER

Separate Operation of the S. P. and C. P. Would Impose Difficulties on Industry, Is Claim

Washington, Nov. 29.—Many difficulties will be imposed upon industry and commerce in California if separate operation of the Southern Pacific and Central Pacific systems is required, H. H. Sanborn, a rate expert, today told the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. Sanborn, testifying in behalf of a committee of California shippers at the commission's hearing on the Southern Pacific's application for permission to retain the Central system, even though the supreme court has declared the present merger of the two roads illegal, supported the contention for continuance of unified operation. Possible increases in rates and certain slowing up of traffic would be entailed, Mr. Sanborn argued, by two line hauls that would be made necessary in many freight movements which are at present confined to a single line by the merged operations of the Central and Southern Pacific.

Mr. Sanborn's general declaration of the application was supported by a number of other witnesses representing California industries who explained their own fears of the effect, if the separation of the unified railroad systems was finally carried out.

Alden Anderson, speaking for the California fruit distributors, a co-operative organization of growers; H. D. Vanhorn, representing the California Packing company, and Perry Smith, traffic manager of the Central California Creamery association, were among the other witnesses. M. S. West, representing the Klamath Falls, Ore., commercial club, joined the California men in expressing objection to the supreme court's edict for separation. Hearings were adjourned over the Thanksgiving holiday.

DISMISSAL OF LIQUOR CASES IN OKLAHOMA TO BE INVESTIGATED

Oklahoma City, Nov. 29.—Clifford W. King, assistant state attorney general, left here tonight for Tulsa with instructions to investigate the dismissal of liquor cases by County Attorney W. F. Seaver of Tulsa, and file charges in Tulsa county against all alleged violators of the state prohibition law. King was ordered to Tulsa by Attorney General George Short after Governor J. B. A. Robertson directed the attorney general to take such steps as necessary to uphold the law. The governor branded the action of the Tulsa county officials in dismissing liquor cases, "as an outrage and anarchy."

ALBUQUERQUE BUSINESS COLLEGE

LET US HELP YOU MAKE YOUR MARK IN THE WORLD

"Better Cooking." What woman isn't instinctively interested in this subject? For every true housewife dearly loves to have her housework perfect and the most important part of housekeeping is cookery. So, no matter how delicious the results you are obtaining, we can make your baking more delightful because your every baking will be equal to your "luckiest day." That is, you will never have any more "unlucky days." This wonderful result is all brought about by the "LORAIN" Oven Heat Regulator which enables you to measure oven temperatures as easily as you measure sugar in a tea cup.

With a gas range equipped with the "LORAIN" you can cook a whole meal in the oven at one time at low temperature without having to watch it. You can be miles away enjoying yourself.

You prepare the meal, put it in the oven in covered receptacles, light the gas and set the "LORAIN" wheel for three to six hours cooking. Then you can go away and forget all about it until it is time to serve the meal. You'll find a deliciously cooked dinner—better cooked than usual, all ready to put on the table, including roast, potatoes, vegetables, entree and dessert. All cooked in the same oven at the same time with one heat. A wonderful economy of time, labor and gas.

We shall be glad to demonstrate to you the "LORAIN" equipped CLARK JEWEL RANGES.

UNIVERSITY GIRLS ARE HOSTESSES AT DANCE

Girls of the women's dormitory of the University were hostesses Wednesday night for a charmingly informal dance at the girls' gymnasium. Thanksgiving decorations of pumpkins and corn stalks were banded around the gym, which was decorated with a pumpkin tree. The novel tree, not unlike a Christmas tree, was hung with pumpkins and beautifully decorated in colors. Orange streamers covered the lights. Evergreens were used effectively as a background for the Thanksgiving ideas. Beautiful little dance programs, hand painted with the Thanksgiving turkeys, were given as favors. Miss Edna Moser, dean of women, chaperoned. Miss Alletta Fisher was in charge of the party. The guests included: Misses Helen Stowell, Mollie Hess, Juliette Fleischer, Ethel Shepherd, Leonora Sundt, Mildred Schroeder, Miriam Harrold, Annette Jacobson, Katherine Grewe, Ethel Carter, Elizabeth Miller, Catherine Shaghan, Elsie Ruth Dykes, Ervin Betts, Mary Faircloth, Elizabeth Edmundson, Freda Mitchell, Goldina Moise, Helen Nelson, Catherine Owen, Edna Park, Penelope, Isabel Carter, Elizabeth Shepherd, Merle Strickland, Alice Sundt, Barbara Nell Thomas, Mary Wilson, Lila Winfield, Mary Wood, Ethel Pollock, Thelma Lickman, Germaine Baer, Leona Beyle, Eleanor Bowman, Pearl Burns, Ruth Hanger, Ruth Bunson, Leslie Craig, Mollie Culpepper, Mary Doss, Marie DuPont, Elizabeth Stevens, Thelma Farley, Helen Fargen, Alletta Fisher, Grace Goodart, Frances Holzeiser, Jane McClane, Mary Lucy McLane, Mildred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Popeloy, and Messrs Dale Snyder, Tom Hughes, Ross Peyton, Earl Gerhart, W. R. McCarthy, Frank Reece, Bob Albers, Dan Burrows, Reece Griffith, David Burton, William Roy, Ervin Betts, William McConkey, Dudley Snyder, Fredwyn Valentine, Harold Pellman, John Whittier, Roy Hickman, Verne Wilkey, Elmer Bryan, Walter Bowman, William Hale, Alfred Rumm, Veon Kiech, Lewis Pollock, Bernard Scarborough, Pat Miller, Louis Cantolito, Joe Cartwright, Jolworth Duce, Walter Ward, Clyde McCulloch, Monroe McKinley, Hugh Graham, Harold Wood, Fred Wagner, Gordon Kinney, George Block, Charles Pearson, George Bryan, George Owen, Martin Lewis, Bryan, Wilkinson, George Stevens, Richard Angle and Wendell Doty.

The H-I-A club, meeting for their regular supper at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night, installed five girls. The new members are Rosalie Perry, Edwina Pru, Margaret Bun, Jane McKinnon and Marcella Reed. Dr. M. G. Cartwright talked to the girls about the day nurses and plans are under way for the formation of a Junior Big Sisters' club.

THANKSGIVING DANCE AT COUNTRY CLUB
An informal Thanksgiving dance at the Country club Wednesday night carried out the Thanksgiving motif in decorations of the club and in the supper which followed dancing. The White Lightning orchestra played.

Mrs. M. D. Schumaker will entertain with a Thanksgiving dinner today at her home, 224 South Edith street.

Mrs. C. P. Anderson of West Fruit avenue will entertain a few guests at Thanksgiving dinner for two former South Dakota girls, Miss Marion Walrath of Las Vegas and Miss Florence Samuels, now of Albuquerque.

Most elaborate of the Thanksgiving social activities will be the dance Thursday night, given by Col. and Mrs. G. E. Breece in the ball room at their home, 809 West Copper avenue.

MISS HOWDEN HONORED WITH BRIDGE
As a pretty compliment to Miss Angelica Howden, a Christmas bride, Mrs. George Simms and Mrs. Frederick Winn of Silver City entertained seven guests Wednesday afternoon at a bridge and handkerchief shower at Mrs. Simms' residence, 108 North Eighth street. Following bridge a dainty luncheon was served. The guests included: Mesdames Antonio Otero, John Milne, R. P. Woodson, Henry Rolf Brown, Margaret Medler and Misses Anita Hubbell, Mary and Helen MacArthur, Enna Ferguson, Louisa Lowber, Katherine Angle and Marcella Matson.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Gekler, Mrs. T. E. Whitmer and Mrs. C. M. Ferguson left early Thursday morning with Miss Ethel Hickey for a motor trip to Grants and Zuni. They expect to return Sunday.

Miss Anita Bergere has returned to her home in Santa Fe after a visit here.

BIRTHDAY DANCE FOR JOSEPH PIES
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pies entertained at their home on North Fifth street with a dinner dance in celebration of Mr. Pies' birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. The host and hostess were presented with a lovely set of hand painted china. The guests included Messrs. and Mesdames R. L. Lehman, W. C. Jones, A. C. Wellman, W. W. McClellan, R. S. Clark, and Miss Marie Pies.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Keenan will entertain with a dinner of ten covers today at their home on West Roma, having as special guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Roslington, Monkbridge Manor.

An informal luncheon for Latin teachers of the N. M. E. A. was held at the Alvarado Wednesday noon.

MRS. DOOLITTLE TO BE HOSTESS TODAY
Mrs. J. M. Doolittle will entertain 16 guests at a Thanksgiving dinner today at her home, 1305 West Tijera avenue.

The Woman's club will hold its regular meeting at the club rooms Saturday afternoon. Following a special board meeting at 2:15, a regular business meeting will be held at three o'clock. The social hour and refreshments will follow.

J. J. Tigert, U. S. commissioner of education, who has been a guest in the city, has gone for a trip to the Rio Grande canyon as a guest of John V. Casey, state superintendent of schools.

Mrs. Grace White was hostess for the three tables of the Ideal Bridge club Tuesday afternoon at her home, 521 North Fifth street.

Mrs. William Bryce will entertain with a Thanksgiving dinner at her home, 119 South Walter street.

Elaborate Thanksgiving dinners for all patients of the Albuquerque sanatorium will be held today. Dining rooms have been decorated in Thanksgiving colors and the tables with dainty place cards and favors for each guest of the institutions. Specially decorated trays will be used for those patients too ill to come to the sanatorium dining rooms.

The Albuquerque sanatorium dinner will be held at 2 o'clock and many of the friends and relatives of patients will dine at the sanatorium. Dinner at the Methodist Deaconess will be held at 12:30. St. John's will dine at 1:30 and the Presbyterian at their usual time.

Many health seekers not in the five big sanatoriums, will celebrate Thanksgiving with friends here. Various church organizations interested in the individual health-seekers, have contributed materially to their happiness. Thursday. Many others have received their "turkey dinners" parcel post from "back home."

Fashion's Forecast
YOU COULD MAKE THIS $7.00 DRESS FOR $1.85.

Doting mothers are ever on the lookout for pretty frocks for their young daughters. This charming little model was originally made of blue linen with collar and cuffs of white batiste. To give a color note red cherries with green leaves were embroidered at each side of the front and at the center front of the collar.

Another pretty possibility would be to make the dress of serge or crepe de Chine in blue or brown with collar and cuffs of a beige tint and the green and red embroidery for a pretty contrast.

The original model cost but $1.85 figuring linen at 50c per yard and batiste at 40c per yard. The pattern No. 1594 cuts in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 8 requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material with 1/4 yard 24-inch contrasting. Price 15c, stamps or coin (coin preferred).

Transfer Pattern No. 622—in blue only—15c extra.

A STENOGRAPHER'S ROMANCE

BY JANE PHELPS

DOROTHY FALLON'S VISITS DEPRESS NELLIE

Chapter 64.

The elder Mr. Fallon was still away, and Nellie was constantly in Mr. George's office—to her delight. She never analyzed this feeling, but felt a happy contentment when near him, even when Miss Jones sat beside him taking his more important dictation while work of less value was assigned to her. Often she would glance up and gaze for a moment on her employer's profile, and say to herself: "There is no one like him—no one in the whole world."

But Nellie's calm happiness was occasionally interrupted, although she scarcely realized it—never gave it a name. On the days when Miss Dorothy visited the office—and in her cousinly way took possession of Mr. George, and joked with him often going to lunch and carrying him off earlier because of some engagement she had made for him—Nellie felt a depression that she tried in vain to shake off.

Miss Dorothy was always kind, never failed to speak pleasantly to her, at times stopping to chat a moment beside her desk. Nellie admired the gay, light-hearted girl immensely. Her lovely clothes, so simply cut, yet so stylish and becoming, caused her no envy, but a desire to dress appropriately, as Cora had taught her—and as she was sure Miss Dorothy always did.

She could not help overhearing the plans for whatever they were going to do, and noticed that Miss Dorothy was always dressed for the occasion, whether it was a yachting trip or a luncheon.

"She knows how to live—all the money," Nellie said to herself. Then one day she learned from something that was said that Miss Dorothy designed her own clothes—her dressmaker simply carrying out her ideas. "I was sure she had something to do with her clothes," she told Miss Jones after Dorothy left.

"Yes, they express her individuality. But it takes a great deal of time and thought to dress distinctively. We working women don't have time to think very much of clothes beyond being neat."

"I'm going to try to learn what suits me too," Nellie decided. "Even if I can't have lovely things like she does."

Nellie's interest in Miss Dorothy, however, did not lessen the depression she left after her visits to the office.

to the office. She was annoyed, wondered why she felt as she did; as if something unpleasant had happened, something affecting her adversely.

"Aren't you feeling well?" Miss Jones asked one day after Dorothy had carried her cousin away despite his protests. He had declared he couldn't go, but she had coaxed until he had laughingly called her a tease, and then given in.

"Yes, why?" Nellie answered. "You looked so serious, and I spoke twice before you answered me."

"Excuse me, I am sorry." Miss Jones looked keenly at Nellie.

"Not thinking of young Horne, were you?" she asked with a smile. "Mercy no! Why should I think of him?"

"You're very much mistaken if he doesn't think often of you. He's a nice boy, Nellie."

"He's all right to run around with," Nellie's answer was so carelessly indifferent that Miss Jones was satisfied she cared nothing for Donald Horne, save as a friend.

Nellie was a queer girl, never showed any interest in the boys and young men as other girls in her position usually did; never talked of them.

Miss Jones admired this trait in the young girl, although she felt it peculiar. Nellie was so full of fun, so bright, so sure to be attractive to the other sex, that her indifference seemed almost unnatural.

"I've never had much use for men," she said when Miss Jones laughingly spoke of her indifference. "You wouldn't either if you had lived in Miss Carter's boarding house at the Corners and heard those traveling men talk. I learned too much about them—how they get girls to do foolish things, then laugh at them afterward. It was a long time ago, but I've never forgotten one word they said, or how they used to long about what they could do with the girls they met. It makes me sick every time I think of it. They put me wise all right."

"Perhaps they did you a service, Nellie," Miss Jones answered, "but you mustn't think all men are bad. There are many fine, conscientious men in the world."

"Some perhaps," Nellie replied, her thoughts on Mr. George. He was fine. She was sure he was good. But he was only one. Her opinion of men in general had not changed.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MORTON

MENU HINT
Breakfast: Bananas, Poached Eggs, Cereal, Toast, Coffee, Luncheon: Rainbow Salad, Bran Rolls, Cookies, Cocoa.
Dinner: Planked White Fish, Potato Chips, Creamed Peas, Rice Pudding, Tea or Coffee.

TODAY'S RECIPES
Rainbow Salad—One cupful kidney beans (canned), one cupful green peas (canned peas), one cupful of New York state cheese, one cupful of celery, diced; one-quarter cup of pimiento (canned pimiento), three sweet pickles, diced; six stuffed olives, sliced. Mix well. Serve with any mayonnaise dressing.

Mayonnaise Dressing For Salads—Beat the yolks of two raw eggs and one yolk of a hard boiled egg; add two tablespoons of corn oil. Beat with a spoon or fork. Beat well, then add two more spoonfuls oil, then add one teaspoonful of sugar. Mix well and beat. Now add one cupful of oil, adding one-quarter cup at a time and keep beating till you have added the full cup; now add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar, then beat. Now add one-quarter cup of oil and one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Beat well. Keep in a cool place. When using this dressing for fruits, take one-half cup and add three tablespoonfuls of cream.

Planked White Fish—Clean and split a small white fish. Put the skin side down on a buttered plank one inch thick, sprinkle with salt and pepper and brush over with melted butter. Bake half an hour in a hot oven, spread with butter and garnish with parsley and lemon.

Rice Pudding—three-fourths cup rice, one quart milk, half cup sugar (more if your family likes things sweet), two tablespoons cocoa, one small teaspoon salt, pinch of cinnamon, whites of two eggs, two tablespoons confectioner's sugar, or a few marshmallows. Cook the rice in the milk in the double boiler. When soft add the cocoa, sugar, salt and cinnamon. Let it cook for a few minutes longer and then put in a baking dish, cover top with marshmallows. Bake the beaten whites of the eggs and confectioner's sugar and brown in oven. If one wants an extra rich pudding the egg yolks may be added. If, however, you do not wish to use eggs, cover the top with marshmallows and brown.

RIPPLING RHYMES

By WALT MASON.

THE DAY OF REVOLT.

Revolt is in the air; young authors everywhere are breaking all the rules, defying all the schools; traditions must give way, and all things old and gray must fall—triumphant Youth will show us what's the truth. The hard we most admire played on discordant lyre; the man we thought a seer but chronicled small beer; the wreaths old writers won were worth ten cents a ton. The era of revolt! The brisk and haughty colt appears to proudly trot around the pasture lot, and age-worn Dobbin flees, or tries to climb some tree. The young colt's neck is arched, his tail is deftly starched, the old plucks hear him neigh to get the right of way. But this is nothing new; since first young roosters crew—and old ones slunk away to hide among the hay, revolt has fired Youth's heart and said to Age, depart! And Youth decrees today, old things must pass away; and still some hopeless sot reads poor old Walter Scott; some mumbly graybeard turns to books of Bobbie Burns; and now and the one meets a boob, who's fond of Keats. It's said that this is so; all time worn things should go.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

By Way of Decoration.
When baking any casserole, such as macaroni, potatoes au gratin, a thin layer of bread crumbs over the top of the dish. It makes it look doubly attractive and appetizing.

Sweet-Smelling Tins.
These brisk, sunny days are just the kind to blow all the mustiness and closeness out of the bread and cake boxes. Don't forget to air them regularly and your bread will keep much longer.

Eliminate Odors and Dampness.
Some people do not realize that cellar windows are for ventilating as well as for lighting purposes. They should be opened for a while each day to allow a draft to sweep through and purify the atmosphere of both cellar and dwelling.

A Winter Chili Sauce.
If you are limited as to space for storing relishes and sauces, a delicious chili sauce can be made as it is needed, by using canned tomatoes. Two cans of tomatoes, three green peppers diced, two onions diced, one tablespoonful of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of cloves, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and one cup of vinegar. Let simmer until vegetables are tender and the juices begin to thicken.

WHAT CAUSES GAS ON THE STOMACH?

It is caused by fermenting, sour waste matter in the intestines. This old, foul matter should be thoroughly cleaned out with simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-Lika. This acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing old accumulated matter you never thought was in your system. Adler-Lika relieves ANY CASE gas on the stomach. ## PUBLIC SPEECH IMPORTANT FOR NATION'S WEAL

Discussion Before Lyceum Section of Teachers As- sociation Favors Instruc- tion in Oratory

"No man who cannot demonstrate the people's sentiments can make a true speech."

"No man can speak who has not a broad, deep heart within his breast."

"A speaker who is sincere and honest and true—who has 'the vision' will be the leader of the people."

"America, in some respects, is the product of foreign orators. These were the main points brought out by Attorney John F. Simms in the session of the combined Lyceum and English sections of the last morning of the convention of New Mexico teachers. Mr. Simms' subject was 'Forensic Oratory in the Development of Our Nation.' First defining the meaning of 'forensic'—having to do with the public forum—Mr. Simms reminded his hearers of the power and influence of Demosthenes, Cicero, Tully, Cato, Burke, Pitt and Gladstone had been in upholding the popular rights of their several nations. He stated that the American people could not act in unison or feel together in colonial times, until forensic oratory—Patrick Henry's speech that gave the signal for the birth of America as a nation—led them into a common cause."

"A man who flouts public speech brands himself as a fool," said Mr. Simms in his endorsement of the art of public speaking in the schools. "The policies of our nation are made by the men who can speak in our United States senate. The man who can speak on his feet will solidify the thought of thousands, where the written word might reach only ten."

At the conclusion of Mr. Simms' speech the business meeting of the English section was held, and the following officers elected: Miss Margaret Kennedy of Las Vegas, president; Miss Alice Leese of Albuquerque, secretary. The program of the English section was then presented, and consisted of an able paper, presented by Miss Barbara Phillips on practical work and requirements for English pupils; a paper, "The Teaching of Literature," by Miss Kennedy, and a scholarly address by Dr. G. S. Hubbell of the University of New Mexico. Mr. Hubbell brought out by his paper that considering all the background of English literature, its wealth of store from which material has been drawn—Greek, Latin, French and other sources—that it is impossible for a young student to thoroughly understand the classics without going on a quest, investigating the sources from which they were drawn. "For instance," said he, "no one can really appreciate the 'Rape of the Lock' unless he has read Homer."

Lyceum Section Makes Change
Revision of the constitution of the Forensic league came up in the business of the lyceum section, and resulted in one important change—the reduction of the number of annual state contests in declamation and oratory from two contests to one, which will take place in the spring of the year at the time of the state track meet. This decision was reached because of the fact, as brought out in the meeting, of the contests being made "side shows" of the convention instead of occupying the center of the stage, as they deserved. Other minor changes were made in the constitution.

Indian School Section Remains
The question arose as to whether the Indian school section was to continue its affiliation with the New Mexico Educational association, same up for settlement in the session that concluded the local session of this section Wednesday; and the unanimous vote of the members was for remaining in the association. The election of four council members resulted in the following list: Superintendent, Reuben D. Perry, Albuquerque; Superintendent H. P. Marble, Superintendent A. W. Leech, Santa Fe, and Superintendent J. D. De Huff, Santa Fe. A. C. Beahm was re-elected chairman, Mrs. Isia Harrington, vice chairman, and Mrs. Henry B. Kramer, secretary.

A feature of the Indian school meeting was a talk by Wesley Bradford, of the American Archaeological society. Some enjoyable musical numbers were given by Mrs. Frances Dunn, Superintendent De Huff, of Santa Fe, and his paper, "The General Good of the Service," was given by Superintendent Leech.

Spanish American Session Closes
"The Spanish Teacher and the Spanish Community," by Mr. Cruz Alvarez, and discussed by Mr. W. Yeager, opened the last session of the section for teachers in Spanish-American communities. "Are the Spanish-American Communities Progressing?" was the subject of Honorable John V. Conway's address.

The sessions of the Spanish American section proved to be one of the most popular in the convention. A spirit of unity and a sincere desire to "get together" on the problems of the rural school teacher, made the meeting huge success with these teachers. Mr. Conway's talk, full of suggestions based on his own personal experience, was inspirational.

The officers elected in the Spanish American section are: President, Cruz Alvarez, Santa Rosa; vice president, Mrs. G. L. Delgado, Belen; secretary, Miss Rose Mary Davis, Mrs. Lola Gorman was elected a member of the council for one year.

A committee to draw up resolutions to be presented before the next meeting of the legislative assembly, and to make suggestions in laws governing schools in rural districts, was appointed and consists of the following: Superintendent Aguirre, Belen; Belen; C. J. Quintana, Taos; and Mrs. G. L. Delgado, of Belen.

Santa Fe Art
The work of the young high school and grade school artists of Santa Fe, under the direction of the superintendent of the Santa Fe schools, Miss Cora Reid, occasioned a great deal of favorable comment among the visitors at the high school on Tuesday and Wednesday. Among these were exhibited five paintings of Miss Reid's, two of Gerald Cassidy's, two of Carlos Viera, three of Sheldon Parsons and one of Mrs. W. E. Rollins. A talk by Miss Reid Wednesday morning brought out the fact that the exceptional work of the Santa Fe boys and girls displayed was accomplished since the opening of school in September, and includes, almost entirely, work from still life, and no copying. These include postures, pictures of adobe, hills and mountains near Santa Fe, fruit, flowers, Indian jars and baskets. Miss Reid supervised art supervisors of the art school of Northwestern University before taking up her work in the Santa Fe schools.

Tobacco Use Decreases
That the use of tobacco among the high school boys of Albuquerque is decreasing was the statement made yesterday by George Olson, president of the senior class of the school, in an address before the New Mexico Anti-tobacco league, which is one of the sections of the state educational association. Olson said that the influence of the Hi-Y and the Boy Scouts among boys has increased interest in athletics and has aroused their interest not only in athletic events but in keeping physically fit. A letter was read from Hiram Hadley, the founder of the league and a pioneer educator of New Mexico, who is critically ill in a hospital in Kansas City. Dr. Hadley, it was announced, had become much more seriously ill since writing the letter a few days ago.

Y. M. C. A. read a paper in which he condemned the use of cigars. R. R. Larkin of Las Vegas spoke on "The Business Man's Point of View." He said that a large book concern, had stated that a man who doesn't smoke is worth $500 a year more to their firm than a man who does.

The league may decide at next year's session to have a large group of older Boy Scouts attend a general meeting of the association and speak on their experiences with tobacco.

Commercial Section
The feature of the meeting of the commercial section yesterday morning was the typewriting demonstration by William F. Oswald of New York. Oswald made a record of 231 words a minute, using familiar sentences, and 145 words a minute in taking straight copy. He copied 135 words a minute of straight copy. Oswald has a record of 131 words a minute for one hour, and has the championship of the country for accuracy.

Much interest was shown in the meeting and the commercial teachers stated that they were encouraged to believe that their department would become increasingly interesting with more pretentious programs during each succeeding year.

The following officers were elected: H. D. Comer, Mesilla Park, chairman; Miss L. M. Kiehn, head of the commercial department of the Albuquerque high school, secretary. Miss Evelyn Parker of the Las Vegas Normal university was named chairman of the program committee, of which Miss Margaret Keeler, Albuquerque, and H. F. Estes, Raton high school, are other members.

Latin Section
The Latin section held a brief meeting, at which a discussion was held of the methods of teaching Latin. Miss Jeanette Inches of the Normal university of Las Vegas was elected chairman of the section, presided at the meeting.

County Superintendents
Elections in the county superintendents' section and the principals' section of the New Mexico Educational association, held yesterday morning at the high school, resulted as follows:

County superintendents—Mrs. Nellie Hauer, Taos, re-elected; Superintendent Kirk of De Baca county, secretary; Mrs. A. E. Thomas, Alamogordo, vice president.

Principals—E. L. Lusk, Roswell, president; Luther Van Buskirk, Albuquerque, vice president; Mrs. L. S. Clark, Valdez, secretary.

The meal of the superintendents and principals was featured by an address by United States Commissioner of Education John J. Tigert.

John F. Simms of Albuquerque gave an address before the lyceum section.

F. B. NOYES IS GIVEN A FAREWELL DINNER

Shanghai, Nov. 30 (by the Associated Press).—Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press, who is touring China, was given a farewell dinner last night by an association composed of eighteen of the Chinese leading newspapers here.

In his response to an address Mr. Noyes urged the Chinese journalists to present their readers with an exact understanding of America. He saluted today for Hongkong.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

P. WEISENBERG AND WIFE DEAD AFTER ACCIDENT

Fatally Injured in Traction- Car Auto Crash at Peru, Ind.; Son and Two Daughters Seriously Hurt

Daniel C. Weisenberg, who had been a resident of Albuquerque for many years, was fatally injured and his wife also received injuries which caused her death, in an accident which occurred at Peru, Indiana, last Sunday afternoon, when the Ford sedan in which they were riding was struck by an interurban traction car, Victor, 24 years old, Thelma, 14 years old, and Margaret, 11 years old, son and two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Weisenberg, were also seriously injured in the accident.

Mr. Weisenberg had been a machinist here at the Santa Fe shops. Four years ago he resigned his position as gang foreman in the shops and left for Peru. His son and older daughter had gone to school here, the son having attended high school. The family accompanied Mr. Weisenberg when he went to Peru. All were well known here.

Mr. Weisenberg has three nephews who are residents of Albuquerque. They are George, Daniel and Frazier Turpin, who reside at 615 South Arno street. George is a student, while Daniel and Frazier are clerks in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad. The two latter left for Peru, upon receipt of telegraphic information of the accident.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia) 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

Women of Thirties Most Beautiful, Say Critics

Full Bloom of Loveliness May Be Preserved Far Beyond Middle Life by Care of Health—Tanlac Has Helped Thousands Regain Lost Vitality.

Many famous men have said that no woman is really beautiful until after she is thirty. Her beauty has been flushed and refined by the fires of experience into a fulsome with which even the freshness of youth cannot compare.

But thirty is a dangerous and deceptive age. A woman may grow even more beautiful and attractive than ever, or she may enter into a rapid decline that robs her of the glowing skin, the clear eyes, the charming smile and the grace of the fully curving figure that are so essential to the comely and attractive.

Nature has provided the danger signals and they should be heeded with scrupulous care if one is to preserve indefinitely the full bloom of loveliness.

DANGER SIGNS
Digestive troubles are the chief danger and Tanlac, the colorated system purifier and body builder is the chief remedy. If you feel tired out all the time, or your skin is sallow and your lips pale, if your cheeks are thin and colorless, and you suffer from headaches and backaches, do not sleep well and wake up with a bad taste in your mouth; if you are nervous and out of sorts, have dizzy spells and black spots before your eyes; if you suffer from acid stomach, indigestion and are afraid to eat certain things, it is a sure sign that your digestive organs are not performing their full duty and the system is becoming clogged with impurities.

Tanlac was designed to overcome just such a condition and thousands of women throughout the United States and Canada have taken this wonderful medicine with such remarkable results that they have expressed gratitude in the public press.

Mrs. Robert O. Reynolds, 127 N. Denver St., Kansas City, Mo., says: "For ten long years I suffered from a very bad form of rheumatism, stomach trouble and nervousness. Three bottles of Tanlac built me up 25 pounds and I haven't a trace of my old troubles left. I believe Tanlac will help everybody."

THIS WOMAN HOLDS UNIQUE PLACE IN WORLD OF MUSIC

Mrs. Gertrude Carter, highly esteemed resident of Toledo, Ohio, pays a remarkable tribute to Tanlac:

"To see me now no one would think I have been through all the suffering I have during the last twelve years. I was a mere shadow as the result of stomach trouble and rheumatism, but Tanlac built me up 41 pounds and made me as healthy and well as any one could wish to be. I look like a different person."

Mrs. Ida Hamburg, 316 S. Main St., Brattleboro, Vt., is still another well known woman who has experienced wonderful benefits from the Master Medicine. She says: "Before taking Tanlac I was in wretched health and weighed only 117 pounds. Now I weigh 144 pounds, my health is splendid and have never felt better. My friends all remark on how well I am looking."

Do not become old before your time. Restore and preserve the full bloom of beauty by building up your health, which is the only source of lasting attractiveness. Get a bottle of Tanlac today from any good druggist.

NOTE: You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Tanlac without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from cathartics and are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction.—Adv.

STABILIZATION OF EDUCATIONAL AFFAIRS URGED

Adjusting Terms of Membership on State Boards Advocated; Support Toward Sterling Measure

In the interest of permanency of policy in the management of the state's educational affairs, the New Mexico Educational association recommends legislation which will adjust the terms of membership on the state board of education and on the boards of regents of state institutions so that not more than one member shall be retired each year. The recommendation is incorporated in the resolutions adopted at the closing general session of the association yesterday afternoon.

Other recommendations are that the distribution of the state school funds be based upon average daily attendance rather than on the basis of the school census; that school lands be classified and sold as to bring in the greatest return, both now and in the future; that rural teachers be employed by county school boards rather than by the school district directors; that greater attention be given by the federal government to the education of Indians in New Mexico.

Following are the resolutions in full: This association hereby expresses its sincere appreciation of the courtesies extended by the city of Albuquerque in permitting the association to use its public buildings and caring for the comfort of visiting delegates. The association wishes to express its special appreciation of the concert so kindly and thoughtfully furnished by the Albuquerque chamber of commerce and of the many other courtesies and services extended by the chamber of commerce and its officers. We wish also to express our appreciation of the courtesies extended to members and groups of members by the University of New Mexico.

Resolved: That we support the provisions of the Tower-Sterling bill. That legislation should be enacted providing for the ending of the state fiscal year on June 30.

That we favor legislation providing that the term of membership on the state board of education and on the boards of regents of state educational institutions shall be so adjusted that the term of not more than one member shall expire each year, thus insuring greater permanency of policy in the management of the state's educational affairs.

That we favor an amendment of the constitution of the state of New Mexico, providing for the distribution of state school funds on a basis of average daily attendance rather than on the basis of the enumeration of all children between the ages of 5 and 21, as at present.

That we reiterate our firm belief in the justice of teachers' pension laws and urge that the legislature pass such a law at the appropriate time.

That we favor a reclassification of the state school lands on the basis of their character as mineral, agricultural, or grazing lands. Most of the original lands granted to the territory as school sections 16 and 36 are not only agricultural in character but also contain coal and other minerals, besides timber. All such lands should be classified according to character and sold under rules and regulations similar to that of the national government.

The lands of the state belonging to the public school fund that are agricultural in character should not be sold in large bodies, but should be sold in tracts not exceeding 640 acres to actual bona fide settlers, who will locate and improve the same. The alternate sections should be held in reserve so that the future school generation can receive the benefit of the increased growth in valuation.

That we approve a plan which provides for a state educational auditor to advise and assist in making educational budgets, but we oppose the revision of educational budgets by the state tax commission after July 15 of each year. We recommend that in filling the office of state educational auditor a person be selected who is not only a statistician but who is also familiar with school administrative and educational needs.

That we commend the state

COULD NOT TURN IN BED
Operation Avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dayton, Ohio.—"I had such pains that I had to be turned in bed every time I wished to move. They said an operation was necessary. My mother would keep saying: 'Why don't you take Pinkham's, Henrietta?' and I'd say, 'Oh, mamma, you won't help me, I've tried too much.' One day she said, 'Let me get you one bottle of each kind. You won't be out very much if it don't help you. I don't know if you will believe me or not, but I only took two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine when I began to get relief and I am regular ever since without a pain or a headache. When I lie down I can get up without help and without pain. I can't begin to tell you how I feel and look. I have begun to gain in weight and look more like I ought to. I think every day of ways I have been helped. Any one who does not believe me can write to me and I will tell them what shape I was in. I am ready to do anything I can to help your medicine.'—Mrs. HENRIETTA MILLER, 197 Sprague St., Dayton, Ohio.

DOCTORS DISCUSS HIS NEW METHOD OF PAINLESS BIRTH

Arthur E. Guedel.

Medical circles are studying and discussing the method announced by Dr. Arthur E. Guedel of Indianapolis recently of bringing babies into the world "with less pain to the mother than is ordinarily caused by a normal tooth extraction." Dr. Guedel, a graduate of the Indiana university school of medicine, says that his method was nitrous oxide gas and equipment for administering it.

board of education and the state department of education for their efforts towards raising the qualifications of teachers by raising the requirements for certificates to teach, and we recommend that the granting of a first grade certificate be dependent upon at least two years of training above high school.

That the state and county boards of education be appointive and that state and county superintendents of education be elected by their respective boards and that a high standard of scholastic qualifications be required for state and county superintendents.

That section 1, article 2, chapter 3, laws of 1917, which has to do with the compensation of the county superintendent, be repealed and that a law be passed providing for "a just compensation," also that when the county board of education considers it necessary, the county superintendent be allowed a deputy to be paid in the same way as provided for other deputies to other county officers.

That we favor legislation providing that the compensation to the county superintendent for visiting schools shall be paid out of the general school funds.

That house bill No. 69, chapter 83, laws of 1919, limiting salary of teachers in one, two and three-room schools, be repealed, and that house bill No. 109, chapter 83, laws of 1921, be amended so as to allow the county board of education to pay to first grade teachers, salaries based on successful teaching, experience and educational preparation.

That that portion of section 5, chapter 3, laws of 1919 which reads: "Teachers shall be employed by the board of school directors with the approval of the county board of education," be repealed and amended to read as follows: "The employment of teachers shall be by the county board of education."

Whereas, the state of New Mexico through large expenditures of funds, is extending and improving its system of rural and city schools and is establishing night schools in cities and moonlight schools in rural districts for the purpose of educating the children of school age and the adults who have not had the advantages of earlier schooling with the end in view of increasing the efficiency and intelligence of our citizenship and reducing the per cent of illiteracy to a minimum;

And Whereas, the state has an Indian population (wards of the federal government) of about 28,000, 75 per cent of whom have never attended school and are illiterate, and 4,500 of said Indian population are children of school age who are receiving no advantages whatever, due to the fact that the federal government has not provided school facilities for them;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the New Mexico Educational association in regular session assembled, that our representatives in both houses of congress, the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of Indian affairs be urged to endeavor to provide funds for the establishment of schools and the enlargement of Indian schools now in operation until ample facilities are provided for all Indian children in the state of New Mexico;

And Be It Further Resolved, that this association request and urge the legislature of New Mexico, when in session next, to memorialize the congress of the United States, requesting that larger appropriations be made for the establishment of new schools and the enlargement of those now in operation to the end that our Indian population be educated and prepared for enlightened and efficient citizenship and thereby the stain of illiteracy be further eradicated in regular session assembled from the state of New Mexico.

Respectfully submitted, MRS. LUELLA CLARK, E. D. MARTIN, H. L. KENT, L. C. RHODES, Chairman, JOHN H. VAUGHAN, Absent.

Cable cars were introduced into New Zealand in 1882, and the following year into London.

PATRONS OF SCHOOLS NAME OFFICERS TO WORK WITH TEACHERS

The patrons' section of the educational association, at its annual meeting in connection with the Parent-Teacher association yesterday, listened to a well balanced program dealing with the relation of parent to teacher, health education, and other problems in which the schools and their patrons are jointly interested. Mrs. John Stucky, Raton, was re-elected chairman, and Mrs. W. M. Swayne, Albuquerque, was chosen secretary. The Parent-Teacher association elected the following officers: Miss Birdie Adams, Las Vegas, president; Mrs. Ruth C. Miller, Santa Fe, first vice president; Mrs. Hattie Perkins, Raton, second vice president; Mrs. C. M. Foraker, Albuquerque, third vice president; Mrs. F. P. Maples, Gallup, recording secretary; Mrs. J. H. Wagner, Las Vegas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. L. Woodworth, Albuquerque, treasurer; Mrs. Mosley, Albuquerque, auditor; Mrs. Josephine Lockard, Raton, historian.

HERNANDEZ IS NAMED FOR JUSTICE IN OLD TOWN DEM. MEETING

The democrats of Old Albuquerque held a primary last night at which Solomon Hernandez was nominated for justice of the peace and J. D. Shoat was nominated for constable. There were two sets of candidates. The balloting resulted as follows: Solomon Hernandez, for justice, 23; Pablo T. Sandoval, 18; J. D. Shoat, for constable, 23; George Martinez, 21.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving, which we observe today, has a peculiar significance in that it marks the tercentenary of the institution on American soil of public expression of thankfulness for the blessings we enjoy. The little company of Pilgrims who celebrated the first Thanksgiving did it in recognition of Providence as the giver of the harvest they had gathered and, in grateful appreciation of its fullness, they lifted their voices in praise. In this material age it may seem that the Pilgrims who settled in the Plymouth forest had little warrant in setting apart such a day, yet they had much. They had come here for "freedom to worship God" and that they found. Their harvest insured them against want in the long New England winter. What more could such a people desire? They had all the essentials of life.

Perhaps as a people we have made a wide departure from the simple practices and precepts of the Pilgrim Fathers, yet as a nation grown from that little settlement, we give proof that we have not forgotten entirely the example thus set in that each year we appoint a day in which to express our thanks for life, liberty and happiness. It is well that we pause, once a year, and take stock of ourselves and of the many things we have to be thankful for, lest we forget.

As a nation we are favored above any other, yet it should make us humble rather than thankful in a pharisaical way. With wealth came greater responsibilities and if our material prosperity is not matched by growth in spiritual power we have missed the better part. We have many causes for thanksgiving, but as a people we might have had many more, had we not often gone astray. By official proclamation we follow the example set by the Pilgrims. If our thanksgiving be real, it must be in spirit as well as in form.

Our forefathers had a personal dependence on Providence, all else having failed them, that stood them well in many a severe trial. A like trust and reliance is needed today and as we recount our benefits in the true spirit of thanksgiving, a consecration to the principles exemplified in the lives of those who were thankful for life and freedom in the wilderness will hasten the day of justice between man and man.

A FUTILE CRUSADE

The evolution fight has shifted from Kentucky to Minnesota. Mr. Bryan went up there and made a speech lambasting the evolutionists and now there is a demand that the schools of that state shall conceal from the pupils the fact that such a theory was ever propounded. It is not enough that they shall be instructed that it is merely a theory. It must go farther than that, lest future generations be corrupted by being permitted to think for themselves. In view of the attitude toward scientific matters on the part of many in this generation we are astonished that those who declared that the world is round ever escaped with their lives. Perhaps the Bryans of those days did not discover the presence of the heresy until it was too late to combat it.

All of which goes to show that in this supposedly enlightened age many people cannot distinguish the shadow from the substance. We cannot see that one who recognizes the possibility of truth in the theory of evolution need be any less a good citizen, mindful of his family and honest in his dealings, than one who rejects such an idea. In this age we are concerned with what men do. There are enough problems that touch us intimately which we need to settle and can settle without wandering off into the realm of the theoretical and becoming angry over differences about matters which cannot be definitely determined, no matter how much we argue them. The disturbance encouraged by Bryan is entirely futile. The most that is accomplished by the agitation is to stir up many who are incapable of forming an intelligent opinion on the subject affecting either its truth or its falsity.

BY THE WAY

Clemenceau's message to America is simply, "Let us be friends." And if France would say that to all nations, maybe the thing could be done.

It was a safe bet from the first that destiny sooner or later would even things up with those Turks; and now every one of them has orders to take at least one wife.

DUG OUT BY ROOT

What do you imagine Professor Terman has to be thankful for?

Pupils of the Duran school are thankful that one of them got licked, precipitating a row that has closed the school indefinitely.

People who raise and sell turkeys are thankful for having concealances that allow them to take the market price.

Father is thankful that Christmas is still almost five weeks distant.

We are all thankful we live in Albuquerque.

Las Cruces has its heated sands, Las Vegas has its snows, But Albuquerque has the wind Which blows some when it blows.

Isn't it strange that most of the aunts are in favor of the pro laws?

Snow has been reported falling in Georgia. The next thing we know that state will go republican.

The deposed emperor of China is to wed a princess he has never seen. If we were compelled to wed a Chinese princess we'd prefer, too, that she'd be closely veiled.

John D. Rockefeller once put a $10 bill in the church collection, and the usher, thinking he had made a mistake, tried to give it back to him. We once, at the age of 7, put in a dime thinking it was a penny, and never were able to get back a blamed cent.

Old Doctor McCarty, Was called from a party, At 6 P. M. Thanksgiving day, To attend little Lummy, Who had pains in his tummy, Where too much had been stored away.

Thanksgiving health note: Albuquerque has numerous allopaths, homeopaths, osteopaths, chiropractors, drug stores, and hospitals. If you do not feel well this evening, see telephone directory.

Albuquerque Twenty Years Ago

Deputy United States Marshal Fred Fornoff returned last night from Santa Fe where he went with two Lincoln county ex-postmasters, Perea and Roland, who will serve short terms in the penitentiary for embezzlement.

Simon Neustadt, general merchant of Los Lunas, was a visitor in Albuquerque yesterday.

The St. Mary's beautiful new hall is almost finished and will be formally dedicated on the 15th of December with a literary, musical and comical entertainment.

A. B. McGaffey, manager of the Hyde Exploring company, left Friday night for a business trip of ten days in the City of Mexico.

The football game at Silver City Thanksgiving day between the Normal School Tigers and the Silver City Guards resulted in a score of 11 to 10 in favor of the Guards.

The girls of the high school basketball team returned yesterday morning from Mesilla Park, where they met defeat at the hands of the college team Thanksgiving day.

The official designation of the Santa Fe Pacific and the San Joaquin valley branches of the Atchafalaya is now "the Atchafalaya Coast Lines." Both these properties are now merged in the system.

The Dawson branch of the El Paso & North-western has been opened for traffic to Altavista, about forty miles north of Tucuman.

The committee of sixty in charge of the work of soliciting funds for the construction of the Albuquerque Eastern railroad, deciding that subscriptions were not being obtained rapidly enough, destroyed the old lists, cancelled all subscriptions, large and small, and yesterday morning, armed with clean, new slips the committee sallied forth to begin work on the basis of bigger subscriptions and more of them. The result of the day's work was encouraging.

TODAY'S BEST THOUGHT

THANKSGIVING.

Not for the wealth that men may count
Do I give thanks today,
But for the truth I've chanced upon
As I went on my way.

I'm glad for tears which showed me need
Of human sympathy,
For failure and for foolishness
Which taught me charity,
I'm glad my work has let me know
How other workers feel,
That my own wounds have made me wish
All other wounds might heal.

I'm glad through poverty I've learned
The falsity of things,
That in my needy night I've heard
The rush of deathless wings
Which sweep my spirit up and up
To peaks where I could see
The trail to peace that ready waits
For all humanity.

For I have found this truth at last,
In all life's troubled span
There is no greater good than this—
To love your fellow man.
For only as you share his lot
With generosity,
Will you grow fit to break your bonds
And set your spirit free.

So not for wealth that men may count
Do I give thanks today,
But for the truth I've chanced upon
As I went on my way.

Christmas

O we wait a long while for Christmas

365 days,

And then at last we get it

One is the most it stays.

Yet we should that annoy us?

Altho it show its sure,

And while it never comes more than once a year.

At least it can't come fewer.

Some children believe in Santa

Klaus.

While some think it's only a name,

But they all believe in presents.

So the results are about the same.

My favorite Christmas dinner is Turkey.

And I like the drum sticks the best

But even if they're gone we'll try to come.

I still have a admiration for the rest.

Of all the hard pites to go to sleep

December the 24th is the worst I remember.

But of all the easy mornings to wake up upon

The 25th is the 25th of December.

A LITTLE LAUGHTER

Phyllis—I told dad that Robert was the mark of all my affections.

Clarice—And what did dad do then?

Phyllis—He told the mark—

Selected.

Caught!

Two young employees of a florist were recently started by the appearance of the proprietor while they were engaged with a game of checkers in the back of the shop.

Justly indignant, the proprietor

roared:

"How is it that I hardly ever find you fellows at work when I come back here?"

"I know," volunteered one, "It's on account of those rubber heels

you wear."—Everybody's Magazine.

Preparedness

A tall, nervous-looking man rushed into the grocer's shop in a

New York state village.

"Sell me all the stale eggs you have," he demanded.

"Well, I don't usually sell stale eggs," said the grocer, "but I could let you have some if you—"

"I must have all you've got,"

"I suppose you're going to see

"Hamlet" at the village hall tonight," said the grocer knowingly.

"Hush!" said the stranger, glancing around nervously. "I am Hamlet."—New York Evening Mail.

How Cool the Ocean Is

Fat Girl—I have an appetite like a canary.

Thin Girl—You have, you have, you eat a peck at a time.—The Monitor.

Positive Proof

Jimmy—Maw, these new trousers are too tight.

Mother—Oh, no. They aren't either.

Jimmy—They are, too. They're tighter than my skin.

Mother—That can't be.

Jimmy—Well, I can sit down in my skin and I can't sit down in these pants.—Los Angeles Times.

Finally Answered

"That old question: 'Why does a hen cross the road?' seems to be dead."

"So is the hen; she got killed crossing in front of an automobile."

Washington, Nov. 25.—President Harding has planned a quiet Thanksgiving day. White house officials said tonight he would do some work, probably during the morning, have dinner with Mrs. Harding in her sick room and spend the remainder of the day resting.

Mrs. Harding has so far progressed along the road to recovery that she is able to spend part of each day in an easy chair.
