THE QUESTION OF MORMONISM

It Cut a Figure in Statehood Proceedings Today.

PRECEDENT ESTABLISHED IN HOUSE

The Venezuela Muddle Still Unsettled--Ex-Governor Fishback Dead.

Washington, Feb. 9.—When the statehood bill was taken up, Mr. Kean, of New Jersey, continued his remarks in opposition to the measure.

Mr. Rawlins, answering some references of Mr. Kean to the Mormons, said that in Salt Lake City the non-Mormons are glad to aid in electing Mormons to important political offices because of their desire to give to the municipality good government. Certain elements, in the church, he said, by reason of long habit, were disposed to yield to the dictates of prominent individuals in the church.

"It is not to be denied that their influence is very considerable," said he, "but there is still a large element among the Mormons who resent the idea of such interference."

Mr. Kean said people of the United States are opposed to polygamy and mean in every way to stamp it out.

Answering Mr. Nelson, Mr. Kean said Mormons who fled from Idaho to Mexico would undoubtedly return to the United States and mix in the politics of Arizona and attempt to usurp the public authority of that state should it be admitted.

Mr. Hale interrupted to remark that every time this phase of subject is reached it presents some new information and before anything further is done he thought somebody should submit amendments in order to have an expression of the feeling of the senate on this subject and bring it determinedly before the senate for its action. Mr. Kean said he would offer an amendment of this kind.

In the course of Kean's remarks, Mr. Patterson, of Colorado, interrupted to read from a speech made by the president at Las Vegas, New Mexico, upon the occasion of the Rough Riders' reunion, in which he is said to have favored the admission of New Mexico as a state and would go to Washington and work for such a bill.

Mr. Kean declared this did not put him on record as favoring the omnibus bill.

Mr. Patterson thought the president, being then a distinguished republican leader, having enthusiastically pledged himself in favor of New Mexico's admission, his opposition to the omnibus bill should vanish.

Anti-Trust Bill.

The Littlefield anti-trust bill was received by the senate today from the house and referred to the committee on judiciary.

The army appropriation bill was sent to conference, Messrs. Proctor, of Vermont; Quarles, of Wisconsin, and Cockerell, of Missouri, being the conferees.

Mr. Carmack, of Tennessee, then addressed the senate on the Rawlins resolution, calling for the records of courts martial of officers serving in the Philippines.

THE NATIONAL HOUSE.

Speaker Henderson on Deck—A Bad Precedent Established.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Speaker Henderson, who has recovered from his recent indisposition, presided over the deliberations of the house today.

After the reading of the journal, Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, took exception to the presentation of the conference report on the department of commerce bill at yesterday's memorial session. He contended that the action of yesterday was void.

The speaker ruled that it was regular. He said in his ruling that it had been repeatedly held that Sunday could be made a legislative day. There had as a fact been no legislation at yesterday's session. By unanimous consent the house simply permitted the filing of the conference report under the rule. The house when in session at any time, he stated, was omnipotent, except for the limitations of the constitution.

Mr. Richardson protested against the ruling as a dangerous precedent and moved to correct the journal so as to strike out the action of yesterday. Eleven republicans voted with the democrats for this motion, but it was defeated on a rising vote of 89 to 88.

Mr. Richardson demanded the ayes and nays, and the roll was called.

VENEZUELAN MATTERS.

The German Protocol Has to Be Returned to Berlin.

Washington, Feb. 9.—As the Venezuelan issue stands today the British protocol is so drawn that Mr. Bowen may accept it in principle; but the German draft is unacceptable and the differences between the negotiators as to this protocol are more marked than in the case of any other. One statement made (not by Mr. Bowen) was that while the Germans, with the other allies, in principle, accept the reference to The Hague, the question of allowing preferential claims, yet their protocol is so drawn as to practically require such preferential treatment in advance of the submission of the case to that tribunal.

Mr. Bowen feels that the German protocol would not be acceptable to the Venezuelan government, and he has therefore refused to sign it in its present form, which necessitates the reference of the document back to Berlin and an extension of the negotiations.

FISHBACK DEAD.

Died at His Home in Fort Smith of Paralysis.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 9.—Former Governor Fishback died today at his home in Fort Smith of paralysis. He was 72 years of age. He was widely known as the author of the Fishback amendment, by which the legislature is forbidden ever to pay certain bonds issued during the reconstruction period.

Report Untrue.

New York, Feb. 9.—The report that Speaker Henderson, of the house of representatives, would enter the law firm of Simpson, Thatcher, Barnum & Bartlett, of this city, was denied today by the firm. The statement was authorized by the firm that the report was unfounded and untrue.

A Pueblo Accident.

Pueblo, Colo., Feb. 9.—By intense heat molten metal from a ladle which tipped over, J. Kuplick was killed and five injured, three fatally. Thomas Crowe, superintendent at the converters of the Minnequa steel plant, where the accident happened, was painfully but not dangerously injured. He saved himself by dropping on his face. The accident was caused by a chain of the ladle breaking. The fatally injured: Virgil Trine, foreman; W. H. Hartman, John Lepich.

TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE.

Bill to Locate Several Institutions Introduced.

Special to The Citizen. Santa Fe, N. M., Feb. 9.—A bill to locate a miners' hospital at Raton, reform school at Alamogordo, and blind asylum in Rio Arriba county, was introduced in the council. It will be fought to a finish by Hughes, Albright, President Chaves and others.

IN MORE TROUBLE.

Democratic Senators Will Fight Compromise Statehood Bill.

LATEST ABOUT OUR CHAMPION.

A Washington dispatch, under date of February 7, says:

Democratic senators on the territories committee have served notice on Senator Quay that they will resort to all the parliamentary methods in their power to prevent the compromise statehood bill from passing the senate. This can be interpreted only as a threat to kill the compromise bill by filibustering. If democratic opposition alone is manifested the compromise bill would still have a better chance of passage than the omnibus measure, but some of the republican senators who have been active in their fight for statehood will fight the Quay-Aldrich proposition. The parliamentary status of the bill is such that the senate can do nothing at this time but talk.

Differences among the opponents as well as the advocates of statehood have made the work of compromisers almost as difficult as that of promoters. Republican leaders have "got together." That is, some republican leaders "got together." Other leaders are apart and as for the followers, they are trailing along without a guide.

Senator Quay was offered by Aldrich and Allison all that he hoped for. Mr. Quay's interest is centered in New Mexico, and if New Mexico and Arizona become one state New Mexico will dominate, for it has nearly twice the population of the other territory. When Senator Quay came to discuss his plan with some of his republican supporters, however, he found them decidedly non-committal. They had pledged themselves to follow wherever he led in advocacy of the omnibus statehood bill, but they were under no other pledges. Compromises had not been talked of at Mr. Quay's dinner. As for the democrats, no statehood seemed preferable to many of them than the bill proposed by the compromisers.

Two days have passed without making any real progress. Mr. Quay won't talk. Mr. Foraker thinks it is the omnibus bill or nothing, and the final effort will be made to put the omnibus bill on the appropriation bill as a rider. The talk of compromise has developed deep distrust among the advocates of statehood, as the democrats don't know what to expect from Mr. Quay. Every day Mr. Quay goes to the white house. Lodge, who is fighting Quay, is generally there at the president's door when the Pennsylvania leaves. Mr. Roosevelt, after all, may be the solution of the problem which Quay and Aldrich only succeeded in complicating.

With the exception of Bacon and Tiltman, all the democrats have signed a request to Mr. Frye asking him to submit the point of order which will be raised against putting a rider onto the agricultural appropriation bill without passing on it. Enough republicans have signed the request, including

COAL COMMISSION

Arguments for and Against Now Being Heard.

WILLIAM HOOPER YOUNG GUILTY

Reforms are Proposed for Macedonia --Treacherous River Clyde.

THE DELAWARE POLITICAL MUDDLE

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.—Arguments for and against the demands of the United Mine Workers, which will continue before the coal strike commission for the next six days, was begun today when the miners, through Daniel J. McCarthy, of Hazleton, made the opening argument. Mr. McCarthy was followed by former Congressman Brumm, of Minersville, and Henry Demarest Lloyd, of Chicago. The operators will begin their argument tomorrow, continuing three days and closing with George F. Baer, president of the Reading. Then Clarence S. Darrow, of Chicago, the principal counsel for the miners, will take off Friday and Saturday until adjournment in summing up and in answering President Baer. President Mitchell is expected here during the week. Whether he will address the commission depends upon developments.

The Gibsons Entertained.

Misses Cella and Edna Gibson, the charming daughters of Trainmaster E. J. and Mrs. Gibson, entertained a number of their friends on last Thursday evening at progressive whist. Mrs. D. A. Macpherson won the ladies' prize, a pretty chatelaine bag, and the gentleman's prize, a choice pack of playing cards, was won by Mr. Macpherson. Beautiful piano and violin music was rendered after the game, and choice refreshments were served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Macpherson, Mrs. F. L. Myers, Misses Marie Wincheck, Stella Lewinson, Sadie R. Leavitt, Messrs. Stanley Weld, Robert T. Blair, Leon Hertzog, Seymour Lewinson and Mr. Adams.

Another Big Blaze.

Well-Filled Warehouse of Gross, Kelly & Co. Destroyed.

HEAVY LOSS TO FIRM.

An uncontrollable blaze consumed the big warehouse of Gross, Kelly & Co., which was formerly the main office, and all the contents, consisting of a valuable assortment of supplies, at an early hour last night. The alarm was sounded about 7:15, just at the hour when the streets were filled with people, and in a few minutes hundreds of spectators were on the scene. Besides the whistling of the fire engine, two locomotives and the shop whistle took up the call. The city fire department was soon on the ground and connected up two lines of hose but the fire had reached a stage where it was impossible for the department to extinguish the ravaging flames. The Santa Fe shops department tendered their services and soon had a stream playing on the fire, and the Alvarado hose was also used, making four streams in all. But the only good pressure was from the big hose at the north end of the building. The streams from the other hoses were not strong enough to break a window. The inflammable contents and the dry timbers of the building furnished a kind of food for the flames that the four streams of water made little impression on.

The fire appears to have originated in the upper part of the building at the southern end. Officer Harry Cooper, who was one of the first to see the smoke curling out of the roof, made a careful investigation and there was no evidence of fire around the bottom at all, which would not substantiate the firebug theories.

Manager George Arnot was seen by a Citizen representative this morning, and he stated that the insurance on the stock amounted to $15,000, divided as follows:

On the Stock—Royal Insurance company, $7,500; Fire Association, $2,500; St. Paul Fire Insurance company, $2,500, all represented by P. F. McCanna, local agent, and in the Liverpool, London & Globe Fire Insurance company, $2,500, represented by E. H. Kent, making a total of $15,000.

On the Building—In the Royal Insurance company, $1,000.

"The loss," said Mr. Arnot, "will run between $15,000 and $20,000. We are not able to give the exact figures as goods were being placed in and being taken out every day. The loss may be fully covered and again it may fall short. But the loss will run somewhere near the figures I have given. It is my opinion that the building was set on fire. There had been no fire in the building since the first of December, about nine weeks, and there had been no one in the warehouse for about thirty hours. The night watchman passed the building at 6 o'clock. He tried the doors and everything seemed to be all right. Several, who saw the fire from the viaduct, before it had

PROPOSED REFORMS.

Russian and Austrian Embassies Helping Macedonia.

Constantinople, Feb. 9.—The plan for the proposed reforms in Macedonia which the Russian and Austrian embassies will present to the porte this week, is understood to contain no proposal of a political character, both Austria and Russia desiring the maintenance of the status quo. The scheme simply proposes palliative administrative measures.

RIVER CLYDE.

Inundated a District, Causing Loss of Extensive Works.

Glasgow, Feb. 9.—The river Clyde burst its banks above Glasgow today and inundated the Austrian district of Ruthglen, where a dozen extensive works were flooded. The main road was ten feet under water and many houses were rendered uninhabitable. Several residential districts south of Glasgow were also flooded. Elsewhere in Scotland traffic on the railroads has been stopped. Bridges were swept away and houses have collapsed. No fatalities have been reported.

DELAWARE POLITICS.

Balloting for United States Senator, with Addicks Leading.

Dover, Del., Feb. 9.—The seventeenth ballot for United States senator today resulted:

Long Term—Addicks, 21; Handy, 20; Ball, 8; Higgins, 2.

Short Term—Addicks, 19; Tunnell, 20; T. C. Dupont, 2; H. A. Dupont, 8; H. A. Richardson, 2. No election.

Democrats Caucus.

Dover, Del., Feb. 9.—The democrats held a caucus shortly before noon. It was finally decided to vote for L. Irving Handy for the long term, and E. W. B. Tunnell for the short term. The agreement is effective today. The decision of the democrats was not presented to the regular republican caucus before the ballot was taken. It is believed the democrats did not want the action taken today.

Republicans Caucus.

Dover, Del., Feb. 9.—The regular republicans held a caucus this afternoon in an endeavor to reach some agreement. After it adjourned Representative Flynn said that nothing had been done except a decision to continue voting for the two men now being supported.

FELL FROM CAR.

Albert Keesey Badly Injured at Fire Last Night.

Albert Keesey, a carpenter, who has been employed on the Whittlesby building, fell from the top of a box car in front of the depot last evening during the big fire, and sustained a badly bruised hip. Mr. Keesey, like all the other spectators, climbed on top of a box car to get a better view of the big fire. He was walking along, keeping one eye on the fire and the other where he was going, but he made a misstep and fell over the edge just at the corner. He lit on his hip, and most fortunate the fall was broken by a hose that was strung along the side of the car. He was picked up by several gentlemen, who were close by, and taken to his room at the Arcade rooming house. Dr. Pearce attended the wounded man, and pronounced no fracture of any kind. It was thought at first that the hip was dislocated, but upon close examination it was discovered that the hip was badly sprained and bruised, and it will be several weeks before Mr. Keesey will be able to get around.

STRIKE AVERTED.

Cotton Belt Grants Conductors and Trainmen the Increase.

St. Louis, Feb. 9.—The agreement reached between the St. Louis-Southwestern Railway company (Cotton Belt) and its conductors and trainmen, in which the latter are granted a 15 per cent advance in wages, similar to that given by the three other southwestern lines to their men, will be signed some time during the day, thus positively averting the strike that seemed imminent last week.

The question of a raise of wages for trainmen and conductors of the Washash system with other matters of difference between employers and employees will be taken up next Friday and definitely settled. Delay in this matter has been caused by the absence from St. Louis of several Washash officials in authority.

THE FAIR ESTATE.

The Fatal Automobile Accident Will Cause Legal Battle in Courts.

New York, Feb. 9.—The heirs of Mrs. Charles Fair, who, with her husband, was killed in an automobile accident in France in August last, have commenced an action here to set aside an agreement which they entered into with Mrs. Theresa Oelrichs and Mrs. Virginia Vanderbilt, sisters of Charles Fair, not to start a contest over the estate. By the agreement Mrs. Nelson was to receive $125,000 and her daughter's jewelry, valued at $100,000. It was claimed at the time that under the California laws Mr. Fair outlived his wife and therefore his relatives were entitled to the estate, estimated at $6,000,000.

Mrs. Fair's relatives now say they are prepared to prove that she lived thirty minutes longer than her husband, and as he had executed a will leaving the entire estate to her they are entitled to the whole of it.

Final arrangements will be completed in a day or so.

Who is McNellis?

The Denver Times published the following story, which comes from Pueblo, Colo.:

"Mrs. W. J. McNellis, who with her three small children was deserted about ten days ago by her husband and left in a dying condition with consumption, received a letter from her husband, dated at Albuquerque, N. M., McNellis informed his wife that he had left her for good and was going to Arizona. She has placed the case in the hands of the sheriff and the county commissioners and an effort will be made to apprehend the man and bring him back to stand trial for non-support."

No one seems to have heard anything about McNellis being in Albuquerque, and if the letter was sent from here, it was probably while he was passing through, on his way to Arizona.

National Banks.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The comptroller of the currency issued a call today for the condition of National banks at the close of business February 6.

Word was received at the sheriff's office yesterday that John Daugherty, one of the prisoners who escaped from the county jail on New Year's day, had been captured at Ash Fork, and was being held there. Deputy Sheriff Newcomer left last night to bring the prisoner back to Albuquerque. Daugherty was up for burglary, having been charged with stealing a kit of tools from the carpenters who were at work on the viaduct.

New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

NEW COUNTY.

There is a formidable movement in this county favoring the creation of a new county out of the northern portion, the line east and west to be near Alameda. This city is willing that such a division should be made. The county is too large, and if divided the two counties could conduct their affairs in a more economical manner. The legislation delegation from this county is in favor of the proposed new county. The bill will be introduced this week. The proposed new county will contain about 7,000 people and have at least $1,000,000 taxable property. The remaining county containing this city will be the smallest in area in the territory, will contain about 17,000 people, and have several millions in taxable property. If the line dividing the two counties can be amicably adjusted, which is probable, there will be no opposition to the bill. A few years ago an effort was made to divide the county on the lines now proposed, but it was defeated. This city will be greatly benefited by the division.

ARIZONA AND UTAH BOUNDARY.
Governor Wells, of Utah, has appointed three commissioners to visit Phoenix, Arizona, with a view to securing the co-operation of the legislature of that territory in an effort to induce congress to annex to Utah that part of Arizona which lies north of the Colorado river.

At present the boundary between Arizona and Utah crosses the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river, and thus throws part of the land lying north of that river into Arizona, notwithstanding it is almost inaccessible from the south side of the canyon. This land is of but little value, being barren and in the main unavailable for agriculture. The streams are small and there is little of it that can be irrigated.

For jurisdictional purposes it would much better be attached to Utah, since owing to its inability to support sufficient population it will never constitute a county by itself. County officials must therefore cross from the south to the north side of the canyon to execute civil process, to make arrests and to discharge other official duties in that section.

The canyon of the Colorado being both very deep and very steep it is almost impassable. For this reason the locality in question must always remain isolated from the main part of Arizona. Its connection with Utah, however, is direct, no barriers standing in the way; and officials from that state could easily enter it and discharge all their duties if it were placed under Utah's jurisdiction. Its annexation to Utah would involve little or no loss to Arizona, whereas it would clearly define the boundary between the two jurisdictions.

CHEER UP, ALL YE RED-HAIRED.

A red-haired young woman of South Dakota has sued a young man for damages because he broke his engagement to marry her for dislike of her auburn tresses. But it is excessively doubtful if he jilted her for that radiantly rare reason, says the Denver Post.

One cannot help a strong suspicion of the existence of some other plausible cause—possibly another maiden with deeper and richer flame in her hair. Probably the young woman who brings this extraordinary suit is the victim of the strange hallucination which sends appeals to the query departments of newspapers for recipes to transform the color of red hair—a most grotesque idea, considering the glowing facts.

Seldom do women with the heart of the fire on their white brows appear as the spurned defendants in divorce cases. Indeed, it is believed by poets that there is no cure tins side of the grave for love of a woman with blood lambent tresses and eyes of the mystic intermediate between yellow and blue. And, by the by, did you ever know of a red-headed man being divorced? Really it is high time to take a firm stand against the foolish self-abusement of the auburn complexion and stop this demand upon newspapers for recipes to ruin nature's special mark of vitality and courage and individuality and fire.

Why auburn hair should be regarded as common when it is rare is one of the mysteries. Artists and poets regard it as beautiful.

A queen with the molten halo of fiery tresses would melt the heart of her subjects.

Some day an opera will take the country by storm with its gorgeous galaxy of none but red-haired beauty. It would be the hit of the age. The critics would have delirium tremens of praise over the ravishing "Temple of Flame" and its lissome maidens of burnished tresses.

Cheer up, ye red-haired! One of these days the woman born under the glory of the sunset will be the rage, and the possessors of the real thing may look with disdain upon the dyed votaries of fashion. "She has real red hair," will be whispered admiringly.

And everybody knows that a red-headed regiment could whip an army. And—let's whisper it—some day a red-headed president of the United States may bust the trusts!

AARON BURR'S BIRTHDAY.

One hundred and forty-seven years ago—Feb. 6, 1756—Aaron Burr was born at Newark, N. J., son of a distinguished father and grandson of Jonathan Edwards. He entered the continental army as a private and reached the rank of colonel. He was subsequently admitted to the bar, and moved to New York city. In 1791 he was elected to the United States senate.

Burr had a genius for political organization, and soon brought his party, the anti-federalists, into a state of efficient discipline. The federalists called him, the Little Band. It was to his efforts that the success of his party in the presidential contest of 1800 was due. Burr was elected vice president, serving from 1801 to 1805. The change of one electoral vote would have made him president instead of Jefferson.

In 1804 a coalition was arranged between the New England federalists, who were hopeless of victory in the south, and Burr's followers. As a part of this scheme Burr was first nominated for governor against the candidate of the Clintons, the Livingstons and the Schuylers, the great New York families, supreme in that state.

Alexander Hamilton's personal efforts did much to defeat Burr; the celebrated duel between the two followed, ending, as is well known, in Hamilton's death. This was the last of Burr in politics. He was subsequently arrested on a charge of treason, based on an expedition to the west, the design of which was said to be the establishment of another republic west of the Mississippi. He was acquitted. After several years spent abroad, he settled down to the practice of law in New York City.

TERRITORIAL CATTLEMEN.

The cattlemen of New Mexico will ask for legislation for the better protection and benefit of the interests of the industry in which they are engaged, at the hands of the present legislative assembly. They say they are willing to tax themselves in order to pay any and every necessary expense that will give them these results. This is as fair as it possibly can be. Therefore, the legislation demanded by them and which will not be detrimental or interfere with the sheep raising industry or any other important industry of the territory should be enacted by the assembly. The cattle growing industry is very great and a heavy taxpayer in this territory and is entitled to the fullest and fairest consideration.

The chances are favorable that a compromise will be made this week on the statehood bill.

The people of this territory demand the repeal of the coal oil inspection law.

RAFAEL ROMERO.

He Visited Denver and Talked Statehood.

Hon. Rafael Romero, of New Mexico, was a distinguished guest at the Brown Palace hotel, says the Denver Post.

He is one of the leading men of New Mexico and has large grazing and agricultural interests. He has been speaker of the house of representatives and a member of the council, which corresponds to the senate in Colorado.

Senator Romero lives northwest of Las Vegas and is at present superintendent of public instruction for his home county. He is anxious concerning the fate of the statehood bill, and inquired for the latest news concerning it.

"We are entitled to its passage," he said, "and I do not believe our people would accept the two state compromise, which unites New Mexico and Arizona. If congress passes such an enabling act I believe our people will vote it down, although we realize that if we do not accept the provisions congress makes for statehood at this session it will be a long time before New Mexico can become a state. Our people are united in their demand. Ninety-nine out of every 100 want it admitted without union with Arizona. Of course, occasionally you find a disgruntled man, but he does not at all represent the general sentiment."

"Our people are entitled to admission as a state by every qualification and circumstance, beginning with a solemn treaty obligation to that effect. I do not believe the proposition to put the capital of the proposed union of the two territories at Santa Fe will be acceptable to our people. There are certain sentimental and historic reasons why Santa Fe should be the capital, but these are outweighed by consideration of locality and transportation. I should say that if such a union were made the capital ought to go far to the south to Albuquerque or even to Gallup. I understand the people of Arizona are more in favor of union than we are, but I don't believe the two territories will ever be united."

Senator Romero is a cousin of Senator Barera and visited the capitol to see how the Colorado senate and house compare with the New Mexico legislators over whom he presided.

The Easy Pill.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers do not gripe nor weaken the system. They cure biliousness, jaundice, constipation and inactive livers, by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectively, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach, liver and bowels that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely. These famous little pills exert a decided tonic effect upon the organs involved, and if their use is continued for a few days there will be no return of the trouble. B. H. Briggs & Co., and S. Mrs. W. H. Greer, of Deming, who has been suffering from a very severe cold and tonsillitis during the past week, is improving, but is still confined to her apartment at the Palace hotel.

Judge N. B. Laughlin, member of the democratic statehood committee, who was to have left Wednesday evening for Washington to work for statehood, was detained by important legal business, but left on Saturday morning's train for the nation's capital.

Chas. Watlington reported for work Wednesday night last at Rincon, and B. W. Cruickshank is back on his old run.

The other day Conductor Howard Sweet and wife returned to San Marcial from a pleasant visit with friends in Topeka.

Eugenio Romero, of Las Vegas, is still hustling for the choppers for his big contracts along the Santa Fe Central railroad.

William Dean, formerly an employee of the local shops, has gone to San Bernardino and entered the Santa Fe shops at that place.

H. J. Moore and wife have returned from Topeka, Kansas, where they were visiting Mrs. Moore's sister. Mr. Moore is an employee at the local Santa Fe freight depot.

The Santa Fe line between Shawnee, nee, Okla., and Paul's Valley, I. T., will be opened for traffic during March and will be operated as part of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe.

General Superintendent Sanborn, of the Boston & Maine railroad, has issued the following order: "The playing of games with cards for money or chips on the Boston & Maine railroad is strictly forbidden."

W. S. Chambers, who for some time past has filled the position of yardmaster for the El Paso & Southwestern road at Deming, has removed to El Paso, where he will occupy a position for the same company.

Conductor Fred Russell, of San Marcial, was a visitor to Santa Fe the other day. He would not tell the object of his trip to the capital, but it was noticed that he had several confidential talks with members of the legislature.

A quit claim deed has been filed by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company conveying to the Las Vegas Hot Springs company, twenty-one and one-hundredths acres of land, for the consideration of $1; also, a deed from the Las Vegas Hot Springs company to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe company, conveying two and one-half acres of ground for the same consideration.

Conductor Harris, of the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, late of Deming, but who has had a passenger run out of El Paso of late, has been discharged from that road. It is claimed that Mr. Harris was to blame for the accident on the road at the time the engineer met his death a few weeks ago, but those who were so situated as to judge of this matter impartially claim that Harris was in no way to blame and that a gross injustice has been done him by his discharge.

Car Smashed—Eggs Smashed.
There occurred another wreck of small dimensions in the Las Vegas yard Friday night, says the Record.

Two road engines had just finished taking water at the tank on the hot springs branch, opposite the round house, and were backing up toward the main line when the switch engine came along with the line refrigerator, taking them to the freight house to be worked, and as both trains could not pass on the one track they came together with a crash just opposite the coal chutes. One of the refrigerators, containing eggs and packing house products was broken square in two and otherwise rendered up for kindling wood, while the surrounding country looked as though a ham and egg factory had broken loose, and was distributing its contents on the ground. If the ground is any good egg plants ought to flourish there this spring. No one hurt.

WOULD HAVE WIDE EFFECT.

Rock Island May Build a Lot of New Lines.

In announcing the Rock Island-Santa Fe traffic alliance the Denver Times says:

It is considered almost certain that the Rock Island will build from Limon Junction into Denver, as has been so often predicted. This distance of eighty-nine miles is now made over the Union Pacific tracks.

It is understood that the agreement between the Union Pacific and Rock Island for this track privilege, which was entered into for a period of ninety-nine years, is of such a nature as to let the Rock Island out whenever it wishes to build its own line. If a break in the agreement comes between Harriman and the Rock Island at other points it will surely affect this contract also. The same applies to the relations with the Colorado & Southern, by which the Choctaw route from Memphis to connected with Denver. The Santa Fe would here be given the business from Trinidad, where the Dawson line will connect at an early date. This line from Santa Rosa to Dawson is now about completed and was part of the original plans to build into Denver from the south.

A system composed of the two merged systems would be the most complete in the world. It would have lines direct from St. Paul, Chicago, St. Louis and Memphis to the Pacific coast, and from Minnesota to the Gulf of Mexico.

The tremendous undertaking of trying to get control of the Santa Fe in the open market is shown by its capital stock, which is placed at $102,000,000 of common stock and $114,000,000 of preferred. The average price for both is about $4.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide.

A Wreck at Lamy.

Another rear-end collision took place Friday night at Lamy. An extra west in charge of Conductor Joe Koebke was standing on the main line there when another west bound extra in charge of Conductor Frank Flomerfelt came down the mountain, and without warning went crashing into the rear end of Conductor Koebke's train. The engineer on the last extra claims that for some reason he could not see the caboose lights of the other train until too late to stop. Conductor Koebke's caboose, No. 44, was completely demolished, while the front end of engine 811 was slightly disfigured, which is the extent of the damages. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Conductor Koebke and crew returned to Las Vegas and Conductor Flomerfelt continued on to Albuquerque with both trains, using the engines that were on Conductor Koebke's train.

ENGINEER THOMPSON.

Steps in Front of His Engine While in the Discharge of His Duties and Horribly Mangled.

The news was telegraphed from Seligman that Engineer R. C. Thompson, of this place, had been run over and killed at Seligman. The news came as a shock to many.

Upon inquiry it was ascertained that the deplorable death of Mr. Thompson was caused by him stepping in front of an engine.

He was one of the engineers of a double header freight, which was made up and awaiting for orders to pull out. Mr. Thompson got off his engine to oil up and while so engaged signalled the other engineer to pull up so that he could oil other parts of the locomotive. He stepped back to allow the engine to move up, and in doing so stepped in front of a string of four engines which a hostler was pushing out of the round house.

The conductor came back with orders and asked for Mr. Thompson. The fireman said he was oiling up, but when the conductor looked the engineer was not there. He was then whistled for, and as he did not put in an appearance the conductor started out to hunt him.

He first found Mr. Thompson's torch, and farther on he found the remains of the unfortunate engineer, mutilated in such a manner that it was hard to believe that this was the man who was so cheerfully working but a short while before.

The four ponderous engines had passed over his body, crushing out the life of a good and faithful employee.

The remains were taken in charge by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

ONE WEEK.

Postum Coffee Re-made the Dominie in a Week.

Where a person has no troubles excepting those caused by coffee Postum Food Coffee if faithfully used will usually act with remarkable quickness. Here is an example even where the coffee habit has been one of long standing.

"I had been a coffee drinker for 20 years and until recently regarded it as one of the 'stays of life,'" writes a Tennessee clergyman.

"About a year ago an attack of malaria impaired my digestion and I began to use more coffee than usual, thinking it would help my system throw off the malady. During that year I suffered indescribable agonies of nervous indigestion. Finally I noticed that every time I drank coffee for dinner or supper I was much worse. I told my wife I thought it was coffee and that I would quit it and use hot water. Then I thought I would try Postum. We had heard so much about it."

"From the very day I began to improve and at the end of one single week I did not have even the slightest symptom of nervousness and dyspepsia left. It is many weeks now since then and I have not only gained in flesh but am entirely free from indigestion and am strong and happy. My wife had been nervous and her stomach in bad condition and when she saw the change wrought in me followed my example and after using Postum a short time extremely beneficial results followed."

"I am a Methodist minister in charge of a church at Grayville, Tenn." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

engineers and sent back to his old home at St. Louis. The grief stricken wife, accompanied by Engineer Wilson, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, took the sad journey to St. Louis, where the final resting place will be of him who was so ruthlessly stricken down.

Mr. Thompson's sudden death has caused much sorrow among his many friends, as he was a man who was possessed of an even and genial nature and generous to a fault. He was one of God's noblemen.

The heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Thompson in this dire hour of affliction, and with her unspeakable grief is mingled the sorrowful thoughts of all for a good and affectionate husband and a true friend.—Winslow Mail.

Brakeman's Case Dismissed.

Fred Hager, a brakeman working on the division between Gallup and Winslow, was brought back from Winslow on Thursday by Sheriff Smith on a warrant, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses, says the Gallup Republican.

Attorney Scott appeared for the main prosecuting witness, T. N. Hinch, and amended the charge to obtaining board and lodging under false pretenses. From evidence of Hager and four witnesses, it appeared that Hager had procured money, board and lodging of Hinch on an agreement to pay for same out of his December check; that Hager received the check and left for Winslow. The penalty for beating a board bill in New Mexico is ninety days in jail or $100 fine, or both. Justice De Shon took the case under advisement, and later discharged the prisoner.

A Weak Stomach.

causes a weak body and invites disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures and strengthens the stomach, and wards off and overcomes disease. J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christman, Texas, says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and run down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." B. H. Briggs & Co., and S. Vann & Son.

Judge McMillan Files Answer.

Judge D. H. McMillan, of the Fifth judicial district of New Mexico, has completed and filed his answer to charges of misconduct made against him, in the department of justice, says a dispatch from Washington. His friends state that he has made a complete refutation of the charges and expect that he will be retained in his position. Attorney General Knox has Judge McMillan's answer under consideration.

Cancer Cured.

Mr. W. W. Prickett, Smithfield, Ill., writes, Sept. 10th, 1901: "I had been suffering several years with a cancer on my face, which gave me great annoyance and unbearable itching. I was using Ballard's Snow Liniment for a sore leg, and through an accident I rubbed some of the liniment on the cancer, and as it gave me almost instant relief, I decided to continue to use the liniment on the cancer. In a short time the cancer came out, my face healed up and there is not the slightest scar left. I have implicit faith in the merits of this preparation, and it cannot be too highly recommended." 25c 50c and $1.00. For sale by Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

A COSTLY BLAZE.

The W. P. Chapman Residence, Near the Insane Asylum, in Ashes.

As stated in the Las Vegas Optic Friday evening, the elegant residence of W. P. Chapman, out on the hot springs boulevard, near the insane asylum, is an entire loss. Where but Thursday it stood nothing remains but a smouldering heap of ashes.

The fire originated from a defective flue either in the dining room or kitchen. Mr. Chapman was in the yard at the time and Mrs. Dr. Da Costa was in the front room of the house. The gentleman noticed smoke and on looking up saw the whole roof of the back of the house in flames. The fire alarm was given by telephone immediately, and both departments responded, but owing to the distance being so great the building was in ruins before water could be obtained. The west side department arrived in time to be of valuable assistance in removing furniture from the front rooms, but did not have sufficient hose, and by the time the east side boys made the three mile run the dwelling was past saving.

Warden Geo. Ward, of the asylum, and several of the more rational inmates of the institution lent all the aid possible and they, with the E. Romero's succeeded in carrying out most of the parlor and bed room furniture, a fine piano also being saved.

The whole of the kitchen, dining room and most of the library furnishings were a total loss. Mr. Chapman losing all his books, and a number of very valuable antiques and relics, the accumulation of years, of which he was very proud.

An $1,800 insurance partially covers the loss, but nevertheless Mr. Chapman is still loser by several hundred dollars. He had lumber on the ground for a two room addition, which the BETTER QUARANTINES.Arguments Before Cattle Sanitary Board at Santa Fe.*WILL URGE PASSAGE OF NEW BILL.

The Cattle Sanitary Board met at Santa Fe last Saturday to hear the requests for amendments to the existing cattle laws as presented by influential cattle growers. The members of the board present were: President Martin Lohman, of Las Cruces; Secretary J. A. LaRue, of Las Vegas; Col. E. G. Austen, of Las Vegas; M. N. Chaffin, of Las Vegas; C. L. Ballard, of Roswell, and W. C. Barnes, of Dorsey. The cattle men present who represented owners of many thousands of live stock, asked the amendment of the present laws so that a more efficient quarantine could be maintained in case of emergency and those who appeared before the board in support of the request were: W. H. Greer, of Deming; L. H. Brown, of Deming; Richard Roberts, of Gold Hill; E. E. Everhart, of the Hatcher Cattle company; Ira Baker, of Spear, and W. C. Wamel, of Deming.

These cattle raisers met informally and agreed upon a bill which embodied the necessities of the situation. Their arguments were in favor of the recommendation to the governor by the board, of this bill with the request that it be transmitted to the legislature for passage. The bill agreed upon is as follows:

An act relative to the duties of the cattle sanitary board.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the territory of New Mexico, Section 1. That section 200 of the compiled laws of New Mexico of 1897, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

"Section 200. In case any epidemic or contagious disease including Texas or splenic fever shall exist or shall be likely to exist or shall be threatened in any portion of this territory and the fact shall become known to the governor of the territory, and to the cattle sanitary board, and it shall be deemed necessary to take steps to ward off or stamp out said epidemic or contagious disease, and the board may deem it necessary for that purpose to expend more money than the annual lawful assessment now provided by law may yield, then and in that event the said board together with the governor, treasurer and auditor of the territory shall, upon notice from the governor, meet at Santa Fe, and if at such meeting it shall be so determined, said board may order a levy sufficient for the purpose intended upon the assessable valuation of all cattle within the territory, or said board may issue bonds in the denomination of $100, bearing interest not to exceed 8 per cent, payable annually, at the First National bank of Santa Fe, N. M., which said bonds shall run from five to ten years and shall be payable at any time after five years. Said bonds shall be signed by the president of the cattle sanitary board and by the treasurer of the territory and by the latter registered in a book to be provided by the cattle sanitary board, which book shall be continued in the possession of the treasurer of the territory and his successors. The governor of the territory will preside at all such meetings of the territorial cattle sanitary board and a record of each meeting will be made by the secretary of the cattle sanitary board. All bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be sold at the highest obtainable price. Whenever the territorial cattle sanitary board shall think best, they may order a levy not to exceed one-eighth of one per cent of the assessed value of all cattle within the territory, and shall continue said levy yearly until a sufficient sum is realized to pay said bonds and the annual interest thereon. Said levy shall constitute a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds and for no other purpose, except the payment of interest thereon, and said sinking fund shall be deposited with the territorial treasurer, who shall give a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the governor, for a sum equal to the bonds and interest. The levies provided for by this act shall be made by the several county commissioners of the different counties at the expense of such counties making such levies. The territorial treasurer shall pay said bonds in their numerical order and notice of payment shall be posted in the First National bank of Santa Fe, N. M., sixty days before payment. The bonds when paid shall be destroyed as now provided by law. It shall be the duty of the governor to demand of and cause to be executed a bond by each of the members of the cattle sanitary board to the territory of New Mexico with two or more sufficient sureties, and in such sum as will cover the amount which may be raised and collected by the aforesaid levies, conditioned for the faithful disbursement of said moneys. Bonds to be guaranteed by recognized surety company. In the event that either of said members do not execute said bonds within twenty days, his or their office will be vacant and the governor will at once fill such vacancy and require the two bonds provided for in this act."

"Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage."

Exhaustive arguments supported by many facts and figures were made by the delegation of cattle growers headed by W. H. Greer, manager of the Victoria Land & Cattle company. These were listened to attentively by the board. The board was still in session later in the afternoon, but it is believed it will recommend to the Thirty-fifth legislative assembly the passage of a law embodying the provisions of the bill prepared by the committee of stockmen and that the board request Governor Otero to send a draft of the bill as published above to the Thirty-fifth legislative assembly with a strong recommendation for its early consideration, favorable action and passage.

COLORADO LEGISLATURE.

state of Colorado, and the territories, are among our best and most worthy citizens. They can not be excelled in patriotism or in devotion to the American flag and American institutions. They are an industrious, thrifty, law-abiding and hospitable people. They have, beginning with the earliest territorial days, filled with credit public positions of confidence and trust. Any adverse criticism of them, as a people, and any claim that they are unworthy of American citizenship can only arise from a lack of knowledge of them.

"Whereas, The people of the state of Colorado are especially and peculiarly conversant with the people, affairs and conditions of said territories, Colorado being the only state in the union the boundary lines of which touch all three of said territories, and her citizens being closely associated in business and social relations with their inhabitants; and

"Whereas, where dwell within the borders of Colorado thousands of the same Spanish-speaking people hereinbefore referred to, and the citizens of Colorado are, therefore, qualified to know the value and true worth of such a people;

"Now, therefore, Your memorialist respectfully represents:

"First, That among the people of Colorado there exists the unanimous sentiment, shared by all, regardless of creed or political affiliations, that the said territories are in every way worthy of admission into the union.

Among the Citizens can flag and American institutions. They are an industrious, thrifty, law-abiding and hospitable people. They have, beginning with the earliest territorial days, filled with credit public positions of confidence and trust. Any adverse criticism of them, as a people, and any claim that they are unworthy of American citizenship can only arise from a lack of knowledge of them.

"That said bill embodies the hopes and aspirations of the people of New Mexico, who are well fitted to assume the form of government provided for in said bill, as is evident by the fact that New Mexico has made as much educational progress during the last decade as any other part of the nation.

"That she has taxable property of the value to exceed more than $200,000,000 within her boundaries of said territory.

"That she has sufficient population, who have manifested their devotion and loyalty to the government of the United States by furnishing more soldiers for the defense of the government, according to the population, in both the civil and Spanish-American wars, than any state or other territory in this nation.

New Mexico Especially

Entitled to Statehood

"Now, therefore, In the opinion of your memorialist, the people of New Mexico are especially entitled to the blessing of statehood by virtue of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, and inherit the right to such admission by virtue of the principles enunciated by the declaration of independence, because such admission is vouchsafed them by the policy pursued by the government of the United States in the admission of very nearly all the states to the nation at a time when they were less fitted to assume self government than are the territories of New Mexico or Arizona and Oklahoma, because a territorial form of government is intolerable and obnoxious to a free and ambitious people; because it is an incongruity under American constitutions, an absurdity should be maintained only so long as absolutely necessary to prepare its people for self government; because it is a denial of the right of the people to take part in the affairs of the nation, which require alliance and support from it; and because capital has not complete confidence in such a form of government, and reluctantly lends its aid to the development of its resources.

Petition Passage of the

Omnibus Bill at Once

"We, therefore, most respectfully petition your honorable body to pass, at the earliest date possible, said bill (H. R. 12,543) now pending and popularly known as the omnibus bill.

"And it is hereby resolved, by the Fourteenth general assembly of the state of Colorado, that our senators in congress, Hon. Henry M. Teller, and Hon. Thomas M. Patterson, be requested to do everything in their power for the passage by the senate of the United States said house bill (H. R. 12,543) known as the omnibus bill.

"Be it further resolved, that the secretary of the senate be instructed to forward to the president pro tem. of the senate and to the senators of this state of the United States an enrolled copy of this memorial."

SOCIETY AT THE CAPITALDelightful Entertainments at Santa Fe During Past Week.*THE GOVERNOR'S RECEPTION.

From the New Mexican.

Friday afternoon, Miss Rothgeb delighted the members of the council by an informal musical program at the parlors of the Palace hotel. The afternoon was so disagreeable and stormy that many members of the council asked her to take pity on their forlorn condition. While the afternoon was absolutely informal it was most highly enjoyed by all so fortunate as to be present.

Miss Palen Entertained.

Wednesday, Miss Palen entertained at the family residence on Palace avenue, at 6 o'clock, for Miss Blanche Rothgeb, of East Las Vegas. Miss Rothgeb was given the guest prize, Mrs. William O. Finkbine, of Des Moines, Iowa, won the progressive prize and Mrs. A. G. Kennedy the lone hand prize. Those present were: Mrs. Otero, Mrs. Edward D. Reynolds, of Las Vegas; Mrs. Solomon Luna, Los Lunas; Mrs. D. H. McMillan, Socorro; Mesdames Amado Chavez, N. B. Laughlin, H. O. Bursum, S. G. Cartwright, W. H. Whitman, F. S. Davis, E. A. Fiske, A. G. Kennedy, S. Spitz, W. H. Bartlett, J. Weltmer, W. O. Finkbine, Des Moines; B. M. Thomas, W. E. Martin, Misses LaRue, Rothgeb, Las Vegas; the Misses Staab, Morrison, Atkinson, Hewins, Phelps, Robertson, Davis, Nina Otero and Gilderleeve.

The Watson-Hughes Reception.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. O. C. Watson and her sister, Miss Lou Hughes, entertained at cards at the home of Mrs. Watson, on upper San Francisco street. The first prize was a hand-painted vase, the second a bon bon spoon and the consolation prize a small vase. Those invited were: Mesdames Otero, J. W. Reynolds, John R. McFie, W. H. Whitman, Max Frost, Amado Chavez, A. B. Fall, Las Cruces; Venecio Jaramillo, El Rito; Jay Hubbs, Albuquerque; S. G. Cartwright, L. B. Prince, A. L. Morrison, Jr., W. E. Martin, H. O. Bursum, Solomon Luna, Los Lunas; W. S. Harroun, J. D. Hughes, El Paso; E. C. Abbott, N. B. Laughlin, Kahn, W. H. Bartlett, S. R. Hinkleley, A. G. Kennedy, A. R. Gibson, D. H. McMillan, F. S. Davis, S. Spitz, Arthur Seligman, J. L. Seligman, E. A. Fiske, I. B. Hanna, W. J. McPherson, James Goutchy, C. L. Bishop, Grant Riverburg, the Misses La Rue, Las Vegas; Reece, Albuquerque; Morrison, Easley, Olson and Davis.

At the Executive Mansion.

A very elegant reception and one that was perfect in all its appointments was that given at the executive mansion Friday evening by the Governor and Mrs. Otero in honor of the members of the Thirty-fifth legislative assembly. In the receiving line were Territorial Secretary and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, Judge and Mrs. McFie, Mrs. Jefferson Reynolds, Las Vegas; Mrs. J. A. La Rue, Las Vegas; Mrs. F. H. Pierce, Las Vegas; Mrs. Edward D. Reynolds, Las Vegas; Miss La Rue, Miss Jane La Rue, and Miss Rothgeb, Las Vegas; Miss Palen, Miss Nina Otero and Miss Olson.

The receiving party stood in the drawing rooms and presentations were made by Adjutant General Whiteman, who was in full uniform. He was assisted by the following members of the governor's staff who were in full uniform: Colonel Venecio Jaramillo, of El Rito; Colonel Fleming, of Silver City; Colonel Austen, of Las Vegas; Colonel Tipton, of Las Vegas; and Colonel Twitchell, of Las Vegas.

Mrs. Otero wore a handsome imported gown of white chintilly net with trimmings of pompadour ribbons. Mrs. J. W. Reynolds wore a black velvet skirt with chiffon waist with steel trimmings. Mrs. McFie, white crepe. Mrs. Jefferson Reynolds, black velvet and chiffon. Mrs. La Rue, grey crepe with white lace. Mrs. Pierce, black net over pompadour silk. Mrs. Edward Reynolds, white net over taffeta. Miss La Rue, blue chiffon. Miss Jane La Rue, pink chiffon. Miss Rothgeb, white gown. Miss Palen, pink gown. Miss Otero, white gown. Miss Olson, black net over white.

The decorations were particularly unique and beautiful. The hall was trimmed with Japanese lanterns and so arranged as to give a Japanese effect.

The dining room was done in pink the decorations being very elaborate and pretty. The chandelier in the center of the room was draped with smilax and from it at short intervals peeped tiny pink bulbs of electric lights. A similar arrangement was used in the drawing room, the lights there being white, a large number of handsome Japanese lanterns giving color to the room. The entire first cavalry band furnished the music. One large room back of the drawing room was devoted to dancing, which was kept up until a late hour.

Many articles of vertu adorned the drawing and reception rooms and produced a very artistic effect in combination with the many other decorations. About three hundred guests were received, many of them having arrived from distant towns in the territory to pay their respects to the governor and his accomplished wife, who shares with him, and that justly, well deserved popularity and respect, although no invitations were sent out of town.

The event was indeed a superb social function and one of the most delightful ever had at the executive mansion of New Mexico, and for that matter of any other executive mansion of any other commonwealth.

Special Correspondence.

Kansas City, Feb. 7.—Receipts of cattle for the week amounted to 37,000 head, including 1,200 calves, about the same as last week, and an advance over the same week last year of 35 per cent. A heavy proportion of the week's receipts was corn fed cattle, and light to moderate receipts of stockers and feeders and the stuff was had. Fluctuations were not more than 15 or 20 cents, and prices are almost in the same notch for most kinds as a week ago.

The light supply of she stuff was equal to the demand, and prices are only a shade improved from a week ago. Fat steers and cows are closing the week dull, as most buyers filled their orders earlier in the week. Taking the entire cattle market, however, all kinds included, prices seem pretty well settled, veal calves excepted, which are $1 lower than two weeks ago.

The bad weather was against the market for stockers and feeders the first of the week, and this had an indirect influence against the lower grades of killing cattle. Range cattle came in less freely than for any time this year, but the let up in these was made up for in natives, so it did not benefit the market. Heavy feeders have been in best demand and are probably some higher than a week ago, with other kinds of stockers and feeders steady. The country demand improved as the week went by, and stockers and feeders as a class are closing this week better than other kinds, and better than recent weeks have closed for them.

Some good western beef steers sold at $4.50 Wednesday, and cows weighing 1075 pounds sold at $3.40 the same day. Western feeders, weighing 1050 to 1100 pounds sold at $4.10 and $4.20 Tuesday. Light western stockers, 600 to 700 pounds, sold at $3.85 Thursday.

Sheep receipts are improving, with muttons still forming the bulk of the supply, but the proportion of lambs from the west, especially Colorado, is increasing. No pronounced change has taken place in any part of the market this week, although fed western yearlings are a little higher than last week. Some Kansas fed yearling westerns sold today at $5.00, which is the high price of the winter. Colorado lambs sold at $6.15 Wednesday, and native lambs at $6.25. Western fed wethers are also a shade higher, and sell around $5.00. Ewes sold up to $4.55. Feeding wethers sell as high as $3.75 and feeding lambs at $4.50.

The supply of sheep is much below the needs of the packers here, and several doubles have been purchased by Kansas City packers on other markets this week, and shipped here, this step being necessary to enable them to fill their orders. This condition also has the effect of making local killers eager buyers of such stuff as arrives suitable for killing.

JOSE TELLES CAPTURED.

a team of zorrel horses, and was going to Deming.

Thursday afternoon last Mr. Baca
and two other men, cowboys he had employed to assist him and guard the outside of houses while he searched them, arrived at a little place near the postoffice of Dwyer, on the Mimbres river. He was sure that he was close on to his man and was making thorough searches in every hamlet he came to. At an old house he saw an elderly lady and asked her if there was a man in the house. She said there was not, but Baca had information that his man was in that house. The woman started to go into the house and he stopped her. He then told her to call that man out. She did so and Telles came to the door. As he came in sight Baca pulled down on him with his gun and up went his hands. He was drinking a cup of coffee when he came to the door. The cup was dashed to pieces on the ground.

Telles at first denied his identity and said that his name was Duran. But,
after a little talk with his captor, he found out that he was going back to Santa Fe whether Telles or not. He broke down and acknowledged that he was Telles and the man wanted. He immediately became horror stricken
at the thought of being hanged and begged Baca to shoot him.

His Story.

Telles, as he appeared this morning,
with shackles around his wrists and ankles, seemed resigned to his position. He is a man of fine physique,
about five feet six inches tall, weighing probably 165 pounds. He wore a light colored shirt, badly soiled, a gray coat and dark blue corduroy trousers. His shoes were not mates and one of them
had been slit with a knife, where his foot had been bruised by jumping over
the jail yard fence the night of the escape. His shoes not being mates was one of the clues followed by Mr. Baca
and which led up to his capture.

He speaks very little English and
the reporter had to use an interpreter.
Telles said that the Santa Fe blood
hounds were up to them several times,
and one time they shot at the dogs,
but failed to hit them. The officers,
however, never came in sight, as it is supposed the dogs were too fast for them.

He said that he passed through Albuquerque either the fifth or sixth night after the escape. A few miles below town he traded his rifle for a six shooter. He kept to the railroad pretty near all the way down the river.

He thought that he was beyond possible capture and after resting a few days at the house where he was found
he would go to the state of Sonora, Mexico. He claims that the old lady at whose house he was captured is his aunt.

IN MORE TROUBLE.

ing Quay, Foraker and Gallinger, to make a clear majority of senators. This is proof once more that the friends of the omnibus bill have a safe majority.
A clear majority composed exclusively
of republicans could also be obtained for a bill admitting New Mexico and Arizona as one state and Oklahoma as another. The same problem, however,
would confront this majority as now
confronts the friends of the omnibus bill. How would the majority get the bill to a vote? If Mr. Quay deserts them, the democrats threaten to filibuster all statehood bills to death. In the course of a few years Oklahoma and the Indian Territory will be bound to force their way into the union as one state, and the democrats view the situation with equanimity. If the twin territories come in as one state it will have a democratic majority of something like 40,000 and a population of 1,000,000.

The discussion of the Mormon question, which has been precipitated, has proved most unfortunate for the bill.
It was another "cute Yankee trick"
which Senator Hale has engineered.
Mr. Dubois, of Idaho, and Mr. Rawlins, of Utah, permitted Hale to lead them
into the admission that the Mormon church was supreme in its temporal control. What the opponents of the bill most wish to secure is the support of the public in their filibuster. They look for applause from the Y. P. S. C.
E., the W. C. T. U., the Y. M. C. A. and all the other religious societies, and the indications are that resolutions indorsing the stand of "the noble senators who are blocking the aggressions

of the Mormon church" will be forthcoming before the fight is ended.

Senator Proctor, chairman of the committee on agriculture, which has the omnibus bill before it, said this morning that no report will be made on the bill until next week. This delay is entirely due to Quay. He is now trying to harmonize democrats and republicans and the Indian Territory,
which has not before been considered,
has become a factor in the fight. The democrats regard the proposition to annex the Indian Territory to Oklahoma in 1907 in the manner outlined as absurd. Some agreement which will not require the action of congress must be entered into before the democratic filibuster can be averted.

gained any headway, have stated that it looked to them as though it was burning from underneath. As for the theory that it might have caught from a spark from the switch engine, I don't see how that could have been, as the roof and sides were all iron. Then the motive might have been robbery, and
after securing the goods they wanted,
they set the place on fire."

A considerable quantity of hay,
grain, flour, hides, peats, lard, soap,
and groceries were stored in the building. The southern end of the warehouse contained a large number of sacks of wool, all of which were destroyed either by the fire or ruined by
the water.

The fire seems to have originated in the southern end of the building, but there is a question as to whether it originated at the bottom or in the top.

The loss will inconvenience the firm
to the extent that they will have to draw from their stock of supplies at Las Vegas to furnish supplies for the Lantry Bros., contractors at Belen.
They have a contract with this big contracting firm to furnish supplies for 1,500 men and 3,000 teams for two years, aggregating about $60,000 a month. By reason of this immense contract they had a larger stock in the warehouse than usually, having in the last few weeks added several car loads of provisions.

The new warehouse being erected
east of the main offices will be in readiness in a few days to be stocked with new supplies, so the firm will be able to furnish all the goods contracted for.

A Great Reservoir and Irrigation System

In a comparatively recent geological period the present surface of New Mexico formed the bottom of a salt ocean.

There were a series of upheavals and submersions, the evidence of which is seen in the rocks of the country; the last disturbance formed the present mountain chains and was no doubt accompanied and followed by volcanic eruptions.

Following the last great upheaval was a period when large rivers coursed along the foot of the mountain ranges, while large inland lakes of both fresh and salt water occupied depressions in the mountain plateaus. These were fed by copious rains as well as by mountain springs.

There is much evidence that during this time and for ages following, the country was thickly populated by a people who had attained a remarkable degree of civilization. They built large pueblos, the ruins of which are now found many miles from water. The remains of extensive irrigating ditches and reservoirs prove this lost race continued living here after the birth of the desert, which was ultimately the doom of a great people, the interruption of a civilization which had it been allowed to continue might have equalled any of olden times. As the rainfall grew less and less the people fled to the great waterways where they lived for thousands of years.

Their ultimate fate, which is a subject of much speculation, is not subject matter for this article. One of the most interesting of the large number of ancient lake-beds in New Mexico, is one at the foot of the San Andres mountains just west of the pass which separates the range from the Oscura mountains. Here a lake four or five miles long by a mile in width existed for ages and until a comparatively recent period, geologically speaking. It ultimately found an outlet to the west, which detained it, and now floods of water annually follow the ancient channel to go to waste upon the desert below.

Several years ago Hon. W. S. Hovey built a dam across the channel, but as it was of earth and brush it soon washed away. Other parties have made spasmodic attempts to impound the water all to no purpose, as there is a large watershed to the basin and the labors of many weary years were swept away, often in a few hours. The dam site is now occupied by E. W. Brown as a homestead.

From previous experience and observation Mr. Brown saw the possibilities of the location for a great reservoir and irrigation system. A few months since the San Andres Irrigation company was organized by Messrs. E. W. Brown, C. G. Cruikshank, S. G. Hanna, Frank Johnson and a few other progressive citizens of San Marcial, and it is believed that before many months have elapsed by active work will be under way in the construction of the dam.

While this is a work of considerable magnitude, it is a small undertaking compared with others in existence which do not irrigate much more land than this will when completed, as nature has constructed the two ends of this dam of everlasting mountains of rock from which can be quarried an abundance of material for the work in hand. All this material can be taken from a point above the top of the proposed dam as it is being built. This rock is a hard, fine grained, stratified blue limestone, the different strata varying in thickness from one to three feet, and at no time need the quarried rock be more than a few feet from the end of the dam while it is in course of construction.

The site chosen for the dam is below where the work has been done, or rather attempted, in years past. Here the distance between hills at the top of the foundation is but sixty-five yards.

To the west is a hill which is approximately the top of the dam. To the east is a lower hill upon the top of which the dam will extend, and a careful survey and estimate shows 125,000 cubic yards will construct a dam eighty feet in height, ten feet wide on top, with a base width of ninety feet. A careful survey of the water level from these figures shows an area of one mile by three-fourths which would be covered to a depth of thirty feet, after allowing for evaporation, seepage and siltage.

Surrounding this basin is an extensive watershed, a rough estimate of which gives a matter of 200 square miles from which the water must drain to this outlet, and from past experience the projectors have a right to assume that one heavy storm will fill the reservoir to overflowing.

At the lowest estimate made by qualified engineers, this dam will conserve water to irrigate 40,000 acres of land, and it is needless to dilate upon the fertility of the soil of the Rio Grande watershed. Suffice it to say, it is a rich adobe which under water will produce abundantly. Experiments go to show that thirty bushels of wheat to the acre is a conservative estimate, while corn, oats, barley and alfalfa, as well as fruits and vegetables of all kinds will yield largely. As a wheat crop would be raised upon winter rains, with one irrigation in the spring, the bulk of the water stored would be available for other crops.

The land which will come under the dam is naturally level and free from trees and brush, but several varieties of grass grow luxuriantly and the country is at present a model range for cattle. The soil contains sand enough to make it easily tillable and it would become richer and more pliable the more it is irrigated, as the water from the reservoir would contain a considerable percentage of fertilizing material washed down from mountain and plain by each succeeding storm. The possibilities of a ranch under conditions like these can be fully appreciated by those familiar with farming by irrigation. To the eastern farmer it would be a Paradise.

As there is range for many more cattle than are kept at the present time owing to lack of water, it is likely the cattle business would prove a source of large profit to those interested in this enterprise. Mining would also receive a great impetus, as there would be a portion of the year when the ranch would not need the presence of the male members of the family, and with intelligent development the mines adjacent to the reservoir could be made to pay well, there being deposits of ore for miles in every direction from the damsite.

Considering its proximity to good markets, the assurance of unlimited water, a wonderfully fertile soil, a climate unequalled in all the world for healthfulness, the numerous industries to be fostered by the project, the large profits which will accrue to investors for money advanced and to ranchers for labor expended, the certainty of permanent improvements, the very small cost of original improvements compared with value of results, and last, though not least, the influence of successful consummation of the enterprise would have upon other irrigation projects in the territory, there seems no good reason why the work of construction should be hindered for the want of encouragement by capital.

Engineers are now in the field making all necessary surveys, and the company has made application to the irrigation commission for 40,000 acres of land at the north end of the mountain below the reservoir site. The survey now being made is at the request of the commission, and as soon as the land is set aside the company will begin work. The storage of this water will be the beginning of the actual utilization of the arid lands of the Jornado del Muerto. The promoters hope to get arrangements completed so as to store the rainfall of the coming summer, or at least a portion of it.

Another commendable feature of the enterprise is that no waste water will pass over the dam, but will pass away over a lime stone ridge a mile and a half further east, so that there should be a great overflow at any time the cultivated lands would not be injured by it.

The flood waters from this great watershed have for centuries gone to waste for want of a storage reservoir, but now many thousands of acres of rich, fertile lands, which only produce grama grass for pasturage are to be brought under cultivation, and homes for many people created, where but little toil and exertion is needed to bring about the independence and comfort so generally sought after by intelligent cultivators of the soil.

ARIZONA TOWNS

HOLBROOK.

From the Argus.
H. H. Scorse left for Phoenix, where he will look after his extensive sheep
interests.

Henry Hunsing came in from California,
where he has been visiting and
left for his home in Show Low.

Julius Wetzler left for Phoenix,
where he will oversee the shearing of his sheep. From there he will go to Los Angeles.

Juan and Ambrosio Candelaria, the extensive sheep owners of Apache county, passed through here on their way from Concho to Phoenix to look after their sheep.

A St. Valentine's grand masquerade
ball will be given at the court house Friday, February 13. The reason for giving it on the 13th instead of the 14th is that dancing will not have to be indulged in Sunday morning.

Mrs. V. V. Hathorn, of Navajo, has taken charge of the Apache house, having purchased it from W. C. Ten Eyck.
Mrs. Hathorn informs us that she will run a strictly up-to-date hotel. She has long been a resident of this territory
and deserves a good patronage.

Tendency of the Times.

The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Dr. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack
of influenza (grip), and it has been solved that this remedy counteracts
any tendency of these diseases to ward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia
often results from a slight cold
when no danger is apprehended until
it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale
by all druggists.

WINSLOW.

From the Mail.
Sheriff Houck has but one offender
in the county at present, a 100-day
prisoner sent up from here by Justice Flinn for persuading a man to hand over his personal effects.

Andy Tanner arrived in town with 1,500 head of goats for the William Steffin company, which will be run near here. The goats were purchased from the Onderdonk Live Stock company, of Lamy, N. M.

Cy Dart returned to Winslow after an absence of two months to his old home at Willsborough, Pa. Mr. Dart has been connected with Hart for several years in the sheep business.

Supervisor A. L. Truax, of Apache county, was in town Tuesday. Mr.
Truax is manager for the Wabash Cattle
company, owner of the Salt Lake ranch. He states that this year promises to be a lucrative one for the cattle industry, and the cattlemen out his way expect to get better returns than for years past. There has been plenty of winter grass, and the moisture in the ground from recent storms will make good spring grass. The cattle are in good condition.

A Legacy of the Grip.

Is often a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters,
the splendid tonic, food purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system, and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them.
Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

FLAGSTAFF.

From the Sun.
George B. Blair and wife, of Waukesha, Wis., are visiting the family of C. C. Blair. They are on their way to the coast and will resume their journey next Friday.

Julius Lesser, of the firm of Lesser & Sawyer, of Winslow, spent several days here this week on business connected with the recent sale of their stock of goods to Babbitt Bros. Mr.
Lesser will go to San Francisco, Cal.,
where he will probably engage in business.

Deputy United States Marshal Ut-
ting was here for the purpose of taking the Chinaman, arrested some time ago
by Deputy A. W. Jurden and held for deportation by United States Commissioner Watron, to Phoenix, where with others he will be taken to San Francisco, Cal., and returned to his native country.

The store of Black & Jones, was entered by the way of a back window,
some time during Wednesday night,
by some destructively inclined individual, who seemed to have it in for the cash register as he wrecked that piece of furniture. There was no money in the register and it was unlocked. Nothing was taken from the store that
the proprietors can miss.

The citizens of Flagstaff ought to

a million tons of ice stored for their special use. It is not only cold, but it is pure.

Harrison Conrad, county superintendent of schools, who has been visiting the schools in the northern part of the county for the past three weeks,
returned looking well, after such a
hard, laborious trip.

There were 1,715 persons registered
on the great register of Coconino county in 1902. Of this number 773 paid no taxes. To register the number who paid no taxes cost the taxpayers of the county over $300. A law should be enacted to prevent these little wastes.

WILLIAMS.

From the News.

Mrs. A. J. Bray departed for Kingman,
where she will reside for a time.

Gustave Reimer made final proof on his homestead before C. P. Silvernail.
Mr. Reimer came in from San Francisco.

Messrs. N. W. and E. R. Woodson, of Riverside, Wyo., were here several days this week looking over the mining field and the smelting plant. They were very enthusiastic over the outlook and, after a hurried trip to the canyon, stated that they might make Williams a visit soon again with a view to locating.

C. B. Holloway arrived home from a six weeks' visit at his old home, Memphis, Tenn. This was Mr. Holloway's first trip back in twenty-five years and he found that many changes had occurred in that time. On his return home over the Frisco route between Memphis and Kansas City he narrowly escaped being in a railroad wreck,
having missed the train by only a few minutes.

W. A. Miller, Jr., met with a serious accident the other morning. He was riding up Front street at a good clip
and when rounding the corner in front of the Cheap John store his horse's feet slipped on the frosty crossing, precipitating both horse and rider to the ground. The horse arose and ran on, but as Miller lay still a number of people ran to his aid. It was thought at first that his left leg was broken at the ankle, and blood was streaming from his nose and mouth. A litter was hastily procured and the injured man hastily taken to the hospital, where he was given medical attention and the discovery made that the limb was not broken, but the ankle suffered a serious dislocation the nature of which would cause him more suffering than would a broken bone.

petite and regulate the bowels. Reg-

KINGMAN.

From the Miner.

Mrs. J. W. Tuck, of Needles, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. A. H. Smith, in Kingman.

S. D. Forman, who at one time chlo-roid in the White Hills, is now secretary and treasurer of the Tonopah miners, consisting of Miss Mariam Esk-

ridge, reader and character delineator;
Miss Margaret Davis, piano soloist,
and Miss Mary Carpaneto Mead, soprano, at their hall on the evening of February 13.

Solon Patrick, of the Twenty-eighth infantry, U. S. A., died on the train while en route to Fort Wingate, New Mexico, the other night. The authorities were notified, but failed to respond and the body was buried here.
We understand that it will be dis-interred and shipped to relatives in the east.

For G. A. R. Encampment.

San Francisco, Feb. 7.—Preparations
for the Grand Army of the Republic's
national encampment in this city next August are rapidly assuming definite form. The state legislature now in session is expected to appropriate $25, 000 towards the expenses of entertaining the veterans and this sum will be augmented by local subscriptions. Letters of inquiry are being received daily
from all parts of the country and from all indications the encampment will be well attended, despite the great distance some of the veterans will have to travel.

LAS VEGAS.

From the Optic.

The children of Ambrosio Martinez
are sick with pneumonia on the west side.

The little daughter of Dr. H. C. Bradley is reported down with diphtheria.
Miss Minnie Holzman was awarded the prize for the number of games
won at cards at the Montezuma club
last night.

years, succumbed to diphtheria in the old town, and was interred in the west side cemetery.

Upon the prayer of Charles H. Hild,
who holds a Mexican war land warrant
of the late John Kirchner, S. B. Davis has been appointed administrator of the Kirchner estate.

Brother Arthemian, who came here in December from St. Louis, and who is now in charge of the Brothers' college, on the west side, is very well pleased with Las Vegas. He says that before he came he had an idea that this was the jumping off place, but
now finds that it is quite a nice place

ECZEMA

is due to the retention in the system of Uric Acid
or other inflammatory
poisons which find their way into the blood, and are forced by the circulation through the glands and pores of the skin, causing it to burn like fire, and the incessant itching allows no rest night or day. Eczema appears in a great many different forms, beginning frequently as a mere redness of the skin, followed by little blisters or pimples, from which a clear or straw colored matter oozes, forming into sores, scales
or scabs; this is weeping Eczema, commonly called Salt Rheum. These

SALT RHEUM

acid poisons sometimes dry up the natural oils and the skin becomes hard and dry, often cracking and bleeding and causing intense pain and fearful itching. This form of Eczema is known as Tetter, and oftenest attacks the hands and feet. Unsightly eruptions
in the shape of pimples and blackheads break out upon the face, neck and shoulders as a result of polluted blood, and this humiliating disease is called Acne. Local remedies afford but scant relief. The blood and system being saturated with the poison, the disease cannot be reached with washes, salves, poultices or other local applications. S. S. S. restores the deteriorated blood to its normal condition, stimulates the sluggish organs, and all the waste matter is eliminated
through the proper channels. S. S. S. makes the blood rich and strong, and under its tonic and invigorating effects the general health improves, and the skin becomes soft and smooth again.

Mrs. Cotilda Flores de Sanchez, who died recently at Tucumcari, of diphtheria, was a daughter of Gregorio Flores, a former county commissioner

been married eleven days to Juan Sanchez, a prominent young man of that section of the country.

also issued by the court to pay her $109
which she had advanced to Simon Clements, one of the heirs, the same to be charged against his interest in the estate.

run away.

We have an up-to-date stock of high grade shoes. No shoe store can sell you better goods and no shoe store can afford to sell them on as small margin
of profits as we do. The shoe stores'
entire expense account and net profits
must come out of the shoes, our shoe department bears only a very small proportion of our expense account.
That is why we can undersell them.
The same explanation holds good in our grocery department, and that is why we have been able to make it so interesting for the grocery men for over ten years.

When you want reliable goods at the lowest possible prices come to us.
