Pardon Granted. A full pardon was granted to Eddie Aitken, a youthful inmate of the New Mexico Reform School at Springer, this morning by Governor W. C. McDonald. Aitken was sentenced from San Miguel county for three years for breaking the seal on a box car and stealing a few crackers. The sentence was considered excessive by the trial judge and prosecuting attorney and the pardon was granted on promise of the boy's parents, who live in British Columbia, to care for and educate him.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Tucson, Ariz., April 9.—Engineer C. C. Vaughn, was killed, and Fireman B. E. SENATORS CATRON AND FALL AT WHITE HOUSE.

Appointment of Secundino Romero to be U. S. Marshal Expected at Early Date.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—Senators Catron and Fall called at the White House today relative to federal patronage in New Mexico. The appointment of Secundino Romero to be United States marshal is expected soon.

Representative Ferguson introduced a bill that the Secretary of the Interior be directed to have surveyed without delay the remaining unsurveyed lands in New Mexico and to designate lands that are adapted to agriculture by irrigation and by dry farming methods, including also the lines of reservations and small holding claims. For that purpose, $150,000 are to be appropriated, of which not to exceed $15,000 are to be for office work in the office of the surveyor general at Santa Fe.

WOMEN WORK FOR "WETS"

Use First Suffrage to Defeat "Drys" and Candidates of Same Sex

SOCIALISTS WERE BEATEN

Prohibition Was Main Issue In Most California Municipal Elections.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) San Francisco, Calif., April 9.—Town elections held throughout California yesterday with prohibition as the main issue and with women voting for the first time in most of the townships, apparently resulted in a victory for the "wets" although the margin will be small. Returns have been slow, but of the thirty-six towns reporting on the liquor question early today, twenty-one voted "wet" and fifteen "dry."

A peculiar feature of the elections was the attitude of the female voters toward those of their own sex who sought public office. In almost every instance the women were beaten, although in many townships women cast more than half the total vote. At Redding, women are reported to have worked in behalf of the "wet" cause, which triumphed.

Women candidates for office were not successful at Redlands, and Los Gatos. At the former city, James F. Wheat was re-elected city treasurer, defeating Miss Lenore Ballou, and Los Gatos. The Rev. Eli Winning, candidate for town clerk, did not believe his name by defeating Mrs. Ruby M. Furman.

Socialists figured prominently in the elections in the cities of Southern California. In most instances, they were defeated.

U. S. WILL HELP MADERO

President Taft Authorizes Shipment of Arms to Mexico

OFFICIAL REPORTS ARE SEIZED

Refugees from Parral Searched and All Letters Are Taken by the Rebels.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Washington, D. C., April 9.—President Taft today authorized the shipment into Mexico of several consignments of munitions of war for the army of President Madero.

The exceptions to the American proclamation forbidding the exportation of war material into the southern republic, which proclamation is being applied only to the rebels, include six machine guns with 220,000 pounds of ammunition, spare barrels and belts, 800 rifles with 254,000 cartridges, 800 revolvers and 4 cartridge leading machines. In addition, an industrial concern was permitted to receive 7,500 cases of dynamite.

El Paso, Texas, April 9.—Somewhere in the hills, thirty miles south of Juarez today is a party of Mexican Central employees who are trying to save 40,000 pesos of railroad funds from the rebels.

The money was secured at Chihuahua by Engineer Romero, Conductor Zanari, and Stenographer Morales, all former employees of F. R. Westrup, who retired as superintendent when the rebels took over the road last week. The trio of employees secured an engine and enough box cars to balance the train and started north last night. Fearing to enter Juarez, they abandoned their train at Salamatuca this morning, thirty miles south of Juarez, and made for the south to the west evidently hoping to reach El Paso by a circuitous route.

The regular passenger train arriving this morning from Jimenez brought sixty-five American refugees from Parral the scene of the recent fighting in which the Federal General Pancho Villa, was worsted.

At Chihuahua they were subjected to rigorous search. Many of them were carrying mail, all of which was taken from them, with the statement that "the place for mail is in the mail car." Whether it was transferred to the pouches is not known.

Official Reports Taken. Among those searched, was George Drake, a contractor of Chihuahua, who carried a bundle of official reports from American Consul Letcher at Chihuahua, addressed to the State Department at Washington.

These letters like the others, were taken by the rebels. Only one man, a Mexican, was removed from the train. He had a thousand pesos on his person. The charge was made that it belonged to a security company.

Rebels Take Jo Jutia. Mexico City, April 9.—Jo Jutia in the state of Morelos, has been taken by 1,000 rebels under Emiliano Zapata, according to a report received

FREE SUGAR IS IGNORANCE

Broussard Tells Finance Committee Bill Is "Criminal Speculation"

U. S. WOULD LOSE $150,000

Members of House Must Disclose Business If Lindburg Resolution Passes.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Senate.

In session 2 p. m. Representative Broussard told finance committee United States would lose $150,000,000 if free sugar bill became a law.

House.

Representative Lindburgh, charging Wall Street and corporations are controlling money trust investigation, introduced resolution to compel every member of House to disclose his business and corporation affiliations.

Agricultural committee concluded hearing grain interests on bill to prohibit speculation in cotton and grain futures, and began hearing cotton interests.

Free Sugar Bill Based on Ignorance.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—Representative Broussard of Louisiana, a cane sugar state, testified before the Senate Finance Committee today that the Democratic House free sugar bill was based on ignorance. He contended that the United States would lose $150,000,000 if the bill were enacted. He added that he knew the bill would not become a law, and denounced the agitation for it as "criminal speculation."

Charles V. Safford Qualifies.

Special to the New Mexican. Washington, D. C., April 9.—Senator Mark Smith again moved that the protest of the Arizona legislature against the confirmation of former Governor Sloan as federal judge for Arizona, be printed in the Congressional Record. Senator Lodge vigorously defended the long-honored precedent that such matters be considered only in executive session. Senator Bacon of Georgia, temporarily in the chair, and a Democrat, requested Senator Smith to withhold his request.

Charles V. Safford today qualified as private secretary to U. S. Senator Albert B. Fall. The nomination of E. J. Lehman, postmaster at Clifton, Arizona, was sent to the Senate by President Taft.

To Investigate Investigators.

Washington, D. C., April 9.—A charge that Wall Street and the big corporations are controlling the House "money trust" inquiry, was made today by Representative Lindburgh of Minnesota, Republican, in a resolution which would compel every member to disclose his business, and corporation affiliations. Each member of the House would have to file his own bank holdings and those of his family. Names of members who failed to do so would be published in a Congressional Record "black list."

CONFERENCE OF COAL MINERS

Representatives of Workers and Operators Meet at Kansas City

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTENING

Union Is Expected to Modify Its Demands at Philadelphia Meeting.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Kansas City, Mo., April 9.—Representatives of the coal miners and operators of the Missouri, Kansas, and Arkansas, and Oklahoma, today resumed the joint conference called to negotiate a contract for the next two years. It was believed the conference would be in session several days.

Coal Operators Confer.

New York, April 9.—Although no formal meeting of the anthracite coal operators committee of ten, was scheduled for today, representatives of leading operators conferred here as to their attitude tomorrow, when they will meet representatives of the miners in conference at Philadelphia. They expected that modifications then would be made of the miners' original demands for a 20 per cent increase in wages, recognition of the union, reduction of the working day from nine to eight hours and other minor changes. Representatives of the operators said there had been no change from their original attitude regarding recognition of the miners' union.

ILLINOIS WILL TEST PRIMARY

Both Great Parties Will Express Their Choice For President Today

LORIMER AND ANTI-LORIMER

There Are Eight Republican Candidates for Governorship of State.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Chicago, Ill., April 9.—Illinois citizens went to the polls today to cast ballots in the most momentous primary contest ever held in the state. For the first time, a direct expression of preference for a presidential candidate on the Republican and Democratic tickets is possible to the voters, and the supporters of President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and Senator LaFollette, Republicans; and of Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson, Democrats, were busy with the opening of the polls.

In the Republican party the vote of Congressional districts will control the complexion of the delegates to the national convention except for the delegates-at-large, who will be selected by the state convention. The Democratic delegates will be selected by that party's state convention. The presidential preference vote is advisory and carries with it only a moral obligation. Next to the presidential vote, the gubernatorial nomination in both the great parties is the center of interest. On the Republican side, there are eight candidates, Governor Deneen, Len Small, of Kankakee; States Attorney Wayman, of Chicago; Former Governor Richard Yates; Senator W. C. Jones; State Senator C. F. Hurlbrough, of Galesburg; John J. Brown, of Vandallia, and J. McCan Davis of Springfield.

Lorimer and Anti-Lorimer.

In the gubernatorial fight among the Republicans, the issue is defined by some as Lorimer and Anti-Lorimer. Governor Deneen's followers have contended that a vote for anyone but the governor is, in effect, a vote in favor of the Lorimer forces, who have endorsed the candidacy of Small.

State Senators Jones and Hurlbrough have conducted their campaigns as "Progressives." States Attorney Wayman has carried his canvass through the state and spared neither the Lorimer men nor the state administration in his criticisms. The same trial of Lorimer and Anti-Lorimer runs throughout the state offices and into the list of candidates for Congress and the general assembly down to precinct committeemen, of whom 4,260 are to be elected.

On the Democratic side, the fight is over the control of the state central committee, which forces, characterized as the Hearst-Harrison group in Chicago, and throughout the state as the anti-Sullivan men, are seeking to wrest control from National Committeeman Roger C. Sullivan. The anti-Sullivan faction in general is supporting the candidacy of Champ Clark, and opposed to them are the followers of Governor Woodrow Wilson.

Voting Slowly.

The gubernatorial fight in the Democratic party is between Ben F. Caldwell, of San Gamon county, Samuel Alschuler of Aurora; Edward P. Dunne, former mayor of Chicago, and George E. Dickson, of New Lenox.

Each county and district has minor contests in addition to the general fight over the more important offices. An advisory vote on United States Senator also is tied up in the primary.

On the Republican side, Senator Culom, long a representative of Illinois, in the upper House, faces the fight of his life. Lawrence Y. Sherman, former speaker of the general assembly, and State Senator Hugh Magill are active candidates against him. Sherman has a large personal following and Magill has made his fight as a Progressive. James Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, is the sole candidate of the Democratic ticket for United States Senate.

Because of the many names on the ticket, voting was slow and fewer votes were recorded in the city and country districts in the early hours than is usual. Fair weather brought out the voters in the country districts and campaign workers predicted an unprecedented vote. The election is important nationally, for the reason that it is the first time a preferential vote has ever been cast for president. Preference will be shown only among the Republicans and Democrats.

Four Parties Voting.

The names of President Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, and Robert M. LaFollette, appear on the Republican ballot, and those of Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson on the Democratic. Republicans, Democrats, Socialists and Prohibitionists will nominate by direct vote complete state, congressional, legislative and county tickets. A preferential vote also is being taken for United States Senator among the Republicans and Democrats. Four names appear on the Republican ballot and only one on the Democratic. In Chicago, by special arrangement, the voters may express their views as to whether woman's suffrage should prevail.

Suit for Divorce—Mrs. Cora Edith Elchar filed suit for divorce at Albuquerque against Joseph H. Elchar, a Duke City businessman.

TAFT AHEAD IN KENTUCKY

Out of 272 Delegates 153 Are Instructed for the Chief Executive

COL. ROOSEVELT NOW HAS 119

Charges of Ballot Stuffing and Other Irregularities Are Made.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Louisville, Ky., April 9.—Sixteen delegates to the Republican national convention at Chicago are to be chosen at district conventions in Kentucky today. The first, second and sixth districts yesterday elected six delegates, instructed for Taft. The state convention will be held here tomorrow to choose four delegates at large, completing Kentucky's delegation of twenty-six. Contests numerous enough to swing the majority in the convention have been filed in every district. Chief interest centers in the fifth, or Louisville district's convention. Roosevelt leaders will appear before the credentials committee, they say, with affidavits to support charges of ballot box stuffing in one precinct of the eleventh ward at Saturday's primaries, at which delegates were chosen.

Taft in Lead.

A lively tilt is promised with the possibility of a split in sight. Of the 272 delegates 119 are instructed for Roosevelt. The other 153 are instructed for Taft and bear properly certified credentials, according to Taft leaders, but Roosevelt leaders insist the President only has eighty. At the state convention, the credentials committee will have nearly 1,000 contests to pass upon out of a total of 2,356 delegates. Senator W. O. Bradley is slated by the Taft forces to preside.

TAFT WINS IN NEW YORK

Practically All Delegates From Empire State Are For President

THEY MAY GO UNINSTRUCTED

Hosts of G. O. P. Gathers in Rochester to Name Representatives to Chicago.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Rochester, N. Y., April 9.—Whether New York state's four delegates at large to the Republican national convention at Chicago shall be instructed for the re-nomination of President Taft was a question on which the 1,150 delegates to the Republican state convention were divided when the first day's session began today.

All Delegates for Taft.

United States Senator Elihu Root is leading the forces in favor of instructions, while State Chairman William Barnes, Jr., believes an uninstructed delegation will be the wiser course, inasmuch as it is conceded that the delegation will be favorable to the re-nomination of the President. President Taft in a long-distance telephone conversation with Chairman Barnes, is understood to have said that either an uninstructed or an instructed delegation would be agreeable to him, inasmuch as practically all delegates were for him. Chairman Barnes told conferees that it looked like a fight on the convention floor tomorrow if an agreement could not be reached in committee tonight.

Dr. Butler Chairman.

The selection of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler as temporary chairman was ratified by the convention and Dr. Butler was escorted to the speaker's platform amid a round of applause and addressed the convention. The speech will be found under a separate head on another page of this issue.

The committee on resolutions will not only draft the platform, but will determine the personnel of the "Big Four" and is expected to settle the question of instructions. Senator Root, Chairman Barnes, William Berri, of Brooklyn, and Speaker Edwin A. Merritt, Jr., of the state assembly were prominently spoken of as the likely delegates to Chicago.

Instruction of Delegates Urged.

"If a resolution instructing for Taft is not agreed upon by the committee on resolutions," said Samuel S. Koenig, chairman of the New York county committee, such a resolution will be introduced on the floor of the convention."

If the question is taken to the convention floor, Senator Root is expected to make a speech urging an instructed delegation for President Taft.

ARIZONA LEGISLATURE KILLS EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Phoenix, Ariz., April 9.—The substitute House bill providing for the equal suffrage amendment virtually was killed today by a "joker" motion carried in the Senate by a vote of 15 to 4.

Canada Has Floods.

Saskatoon, Sask., April 9.—With the waterworks submerged, wharves, houses and railway bridges swept away by the Saskatchewan river, a large portion of the city resembled a lake today. Many buildings were in danger. So rapid was the rise of the stream last night that those living along its shores were caught unawares. Within a few hours a total rise of eighteen feet had been recorded.

Appeals for Aid.

Charleston, Mo., April 9.—Mayor George C. Burns of Charleston today sent additional appeals for aid for flood sufferers to state officials. Mississippi county suffered a great loss in live stock and growing crops when the Mississippi river topped the eighty miles of levees. Four-fifths of the county was submerged as were parts

Children Have Whooping Cough.

At Bass Landing, fifty-three sufferers without shoes were picked up. Mrs. Baker and two children on a raft made of two logs, their place of refuge for three days, were rescued near Cherokee, Tenn. Whooping cough has broken out among the children of refugees at Tiptonville. Two negro children have died and several white children in the court house are in a critical condition.

Dyke Gives Way.

Memphis, Tenn., April 9.—Advices received at Memphis this afternoon say the main levee has broken a mile and a half north of Golden Lake, Arkansas, about fifty miles north of Memphis. The water is spreading over a wide area.

FLOOD VICTIMS ARE SUFFERING

Thousands Are Homeless and Many Are Without Nourishment

SICKNESS AMONG CHILDREN

Soldiers and Sailor Are Working to Rescue and Relieve Refugees.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico) Vicksburg, Miss., April 9.—The center of the flood situation has been shifted from Memphis to Vicksburg. In the last twenty-four hours, Chief anxiety centers at points between here and the Molog breaks south of the Tennessee line. Federal Engineer Woodruff, in charge of the situation, departed for a final inspection of the dikes that must stand the brunt of the tremendous tide rushing down from the north.

Thousands of workmen labored by moon and lantern light along the levee stretches last night and today the fight continued. A levee board official today declared the dikes would hold up to fifty-two feet of water. He explained that if the water went higher an overflow might be expected at several points but that this would amount to a gradual rise in the low lands instead of a tremendous tidal sweep experienced in some of the flooded districts north of Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., April 9.—Dikes guarding thousands of fertile acres of Arkansas and Mississippi, against the flood tide of the Mississippi river, held firm today. But where the tremendous pressure of the water was exerted against the embankment at the bends in the river, breaches seemed imminent. In the long stretches of Yazoo and Delta territory, thousands of men labored all night to strengthen the levees. In villages and on farms in the threatened territory in North Mississippi, and North Arkansas, the people are ready for flight.

U. S. Soldiers and Sailors to Rescue.

The task of caring for the flood victims is proving a serious problem. The greater number have sought refuge at Hickman, Ky., Tiptonville, Tenn., Forrest City, and Helena, Ark., and here. In Memphis the Tri-state fair grounds have been converted into a tented city and the Associated Charities is directing relief measures. At Hickman, approximately 2,500 persons are being cared for. Captain Logan of the United States army, has charge of the situation.

The crew of the U. S. S. Amphitrite, anchored in the Memphis harbor, has received instructions to assist in rescuing flood victims. One of the Amphitrite's boats went to Wynoke today to bring here a party reported marooned aboard a raft at Wynoke, Ark.

1,000 Without Meat.

More than a thousand persons, nearly half of them refugees, are at Ridgely, Tenn., nine miles below Tiptonville, without meat. The one story houses there, are no longer inhabitable and the two-story houses are crowded. The remainder of the community is out on a hillside without shelter. The stock is without provender. Provisions will have to be loaded on skiffs

This city will have many Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for Indigestion or Gastritis or any other Stomach misery.

Get some Pape's Diapiesin now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of Stomach Trouble and Indigestion.

FRATER.

Together we came to Life's banquet board

Rich laden, with viands rare,
And each one chose from the good things stored
On God's wonderful bill of fare.

Some asked for Fame; some called for Wealth,
A few for Service and Song;
Some begged for Wine and some for Health;
To each it was passed along.

With quip and jest moves on the feast
While the revellers laugh at Caro.
Till the courier, Dawn, rides up from the east
And reports there's a vacant chair.

For ever, anon making no alarm
A messenger, sombre and dumb,
Came stealthily in to touch some arm
With fingers that spelled out "Come."

Out into the Silence each will go down;
Other banqueters press for our place,
Here's a seat reserved—see the laurel crown?
For the rest; to the swift is the race.

Come, Memory, sound a Reveille clear,
For comrades scattered or near,
Give a Toast and a Cheer
For the few, who say "Here."
For the absent, a smile or a tear?

A Cure for Cancer.

St. Petersburg, April 8.—A radical cure for cancer is said to have been discovered by Assistant Professor von Stejneger of Moscow University. The Cancer Institute of Moscow founded by a wealthy cotton manufacturer, Morozoff, has passed favorably upon it and has introduced it in its clinic. The chief of the institute, Assistant Professor Zytkoff, read a paper before the surgical congress in Moscow this year asserting that cancer tumors always yield an alkaline reaction, whereas sarcoma tumors yield an acid reaction. This idea set Dr. von Stejneger thinking that the logical treatment for cancer would consist in the oxidation of the stricken tissues, and for sarcoma in their alkalinization. In going over the acids in search of one suitable for such a treatment, he settled upon a derivative of gallic acid, namely pirogall, discovered in 1858 and now used as a depletory medium in the treatment of all sorts of skin diseases. Pirogall is obtained from Gallic acid by eliminating carbonic acid from it. Peraloxin, the compound used, is very cheap—a quarter cent per gram—but is produced in only two places in Europe. Dr. von Stejneger is somewhat annoyed at the early publicity which has been given to this cure, as his report had been intended strictly for a scientific body in Moscow.

GOOD BUSINESS ON STOCK MARKET TODAY.

Specialties Were Prominent in Early Hours—Bonds Were Uniformly Steady.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
New York, April 9.—Specialties became prominent in the second hour of the stock market today. General Electric advanced 3 1/2 and International Harvester 2 1/4. Rumors of an extra dividend were circulated in connection with the former, while the familiar dissolution report was associated with the latter's rise. Louisville and Nashville gained 2 1/2. Republic Iron and Steel Company, Preferred gained 1 1/4 and 2 3/4 respectively.

The market was at its best at noon with the especial strength in Union Pacific and the southern roads while United States Steel showed signs of another upward movement. Bonds were steady.

An active buying movement cropped out in Reading which gave a better tone to the whole market. The copper producers report more March, showing a decrease of about 570,000 pounds in supplies in hand, had no adverse effect. Further improvement was recorded by U. S. Steel, Reading, Union Pacific, Louisville, and Nashville, and some of the specialties.

The market closed strong. The last hour's business was uneventful save for a rise in Louisville and Nashville to 163, and Reading to 166 3/4. Final prices were well up to the best figures of the day.

HAD BEEN DOCTORING
A YEAR FOR ECZEMA

A Remarkable and Convincing Statement of the Success of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the Treatment of the Pain, Itching and Burning of Eczema

"I, the undersigned, cannot give enough praise to the Cuticura Remedies. I had been doctoring for at least a year for eczema on my foot. I had tried doctor after doctor all to no avail. When a young girl I sprained my ankle three different times, paying little or no attention to it, when five years ago a small spot showed upon my left ankle. I was worried and sent for a doctor. He said it was eczema. He drew a small bone from the ankle about the size of a match and about an inch long. The small hole grew to about the size of an apple, and the eczema spread to the knee. The doctors never could heal them in the ankle. The whole foot ran water all the time.

"My husband and my sons were up night and day wheeling me from one room to another in the hope of giving me some relief. I would sit for hours at a time in front of the fireplace hoping for daybreak. The pain was so intense I was almost crazy. In fact, I would lose my reason for hours at a time. One day a friend of mine dropped in to see me. No more had she glanced at my foot than she exclaimed, 'Mrs. Finnegan, why in the world don't you try the Cuticura Remedies?' Being disgusted with the doctors and their medicines, and not being able to sleep at all, I decided to give the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment a trial. After using them three days that night I slept as sound as a silver dollar for eight long hours. I awoke in the morning with but very little pain. In fact, I thought I was in heaven. After using the Cuticura Remedies for three months I was perfectly restored to health, thanks to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I will be sixty-four years of age my next birthday, hale and hearty at present." (Signed) Mrs. Julia Finnegan, 2244 Hebert St., St. Louis, Mo., Mar. 7, 11. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 12A, Boston, for free sample of each with 32-p. book on the skin.

SOCORRO COUNTY CATTLEMAN SHOT DOWN ON STREET.

Lige Carter, a Socorro county cattleman, was shot, and perhaps fatally wounded by John Cox, also a cattleman, on the streets of Magdalena. Carter, it was alleged, had testified against Cox before the grand jury at Socorro and Cox had been thereupon indicted, so it is declared, on a charge of horse stealing. This led to a quarrel on the streets of Magdalena, in which Cox drew a knife, it is asserted, and Cox fired two shots, one piercing Carter's lungs and the other going wild. Cox is in jail at Socorro.

Healthful Hospitality

Elbert Hubbard has defined true hospitality as "the gentle art of making folks feel good," and—the shortest road to a man's heart being through his stomach—he argues that hospitality consists largely in providing palatable, wholesome, digestible, well-cooked food. To this end, the shortening medium used plays no small part. Cottolene makes food that accords with all the principles of hospitality. It makes things crisp, short and palatable, and wholesome and nourishing as well. Food cooked with Cottolene makes you feel good and makes you keep on feeling good.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. ### ARIZONA DEMOCRATS GO BACK ON PLEDGES.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 9.—Being in control of the party machinery, Governor Hunt and the president of the senate are certain that they can get a Clark delegation under the old convention plan and have no sympathy with the preferential primary. The Wilson and Harmon supporters are urging that they be given the right to express their preferences at a direct primary.

Wants No Presidential Primary. Hunt and the president of the senate don't want a presidential primary. They have succeeded thus far in heading off the introduction of any bill containing such a provision. Both have been quoted as saying that it is impracticable although it has been comparatively easy to tack the emergency clause on bills creating numerous offices and relieving the saloons in Pima county.

Socialists Are Angry. But it is not all cakes and ale for the legislature. "These men have alienated 2,000 socialists' votes in Arizona by their repudiation of the referendum," Frank H. Blighon, who is a Socialist leader in this state, said today. "We pinned our faith to the absolute honesty of the Democrats in parsing the referendum. We believed they meant what they said. The Socialists threw their strength to the Democrats in the late election because they felt it was to that party they must look to make effective the principles embodied in the constitution and bring the government closer to the people. But the Socialists have been betrayed. This Democratic legislature has shown people of Arizona that the Democrats did not mean what they said when they declared for the referendum. It was a scheme to catch votes; and you wait and see the result when these men come up for re-election."

Hunt and Bullard Differ. Gossip of early legislative happenings include the tenure of office matter. It is said that within a short time the legislature will take action on this question and will take some steps to decide whether the present incumbents of state and county offices will serve only until the first of the coming January, or two years longer. In his message Governor Hunt took the side of the one-year men, in which position he is opposed by Attorney General Bullard. It is said the legislature is planning to devise a means of putting the whole question up to the governor; but just how this is to be accomplished has not been explained.

Drastic Anti-Lobby Measure. Hereafter, any man who tries to influence any member of the legislature regarding the passage of any proposed bill will have to be extremely careful, especially if the Irvine bill, designed to prevent lobbying, becomes a law. As an example of drastic legislation this bill is a model. The measure even prohibits any interested person from privately attempting to influence the action of any legislator. And if he does so "anywhere in the state" he shall be "deemed guilty of lobbying." The prohibition extends to "arguments, briefs or written statements."

There are also penalties, of course. Any interested person attempting to "lobby" as the word is defined in the bill, is subject to imprisonment from 10 days to a year or to a fine of $200 to $1,000 or both. And any person who bribes or attempts to bribe a legislator, or any legislator accepting a bribe, is subject to imprisonment from two to five years and a fine of from $1,000 to $5,000.

Late Measures Proposed. Late bills introduced in the house are as follows:

Regulating the method of assessing and collecting taxes.

Limiting the hours of labor for women.

Limiting the hours of labor for holding engineers.

The bill to expedite the work of courts; the bill respecting holidays, the bank report bill, the bill validating the acts of notaries were passed finally by the house. The proposed divorce bill and bill restricting exemptions were killed.

STORMY SESSION IN THE HOUSE

Results in the Victory for Speaker Baca and House Leader Llewellyn

PRINTING TO ALBUQUERQUE

Duke City Puts In By Far the Lowest Bid for Work to Be Done.

The decision of the House, reported in last evening's New Mexican, to rescind the resolution suspending the four members accused of bribery, J. P. Lucero, Manuel Cordova, Julian Trujillo and Luis R. Montoya, may be more far reaching than appears on the surface, may quash all further proceedings against them, may be a decisive factor in the impending senatorial fight, and may delay the attempt to get the Republican members together to act as a unit on all party matters. The decision was reached after a stormy session that was marked by a number of extraordinary episodes and occasional flashes of humor before a crowded House. After Representative Burg had completed his masterful review of the evidence, as well as his summing up of the law and precedents on bribery, he was given generous applause for his stand in defense of the four accused members of the House.

Then the fireworks began. Representative Blanchard, who is a parliamentarian of wide knowledge and quick action, led the part of the House that was opposed to seating the accused members until their case had been finally passed upon the House. There were dilatory motions and parliamentary duels and rapid volley decisions from the chair. As told yesterday, the test vote was on an appeal from a decision of the chair. Speaker Baca was sustained by a vote of 22 and from that moment on until the gavel fell adjourning the House, events moved with bewildering rapidity. Representative Lucero, as Republican floor leader, led the fight to seat the accused members but the vote was at no time along party lines, the Democrats in greater numbers rallying to the support of Llewellyn. In an impassioned speech, Llewellyn reached a climax amidst hearty applause when he declared:

"We have been in session four weeks. What have we accomplished? We have been moved like pawns on a chessboard. We all know who did the moving. We are tired of it! Twice, Llewellyn by saying the right word at the right time and with tremendous forcefulness, saved the day for that part of the House which favored rescinding the resolution passed four weeks ago to suspend the accused members until they had been cleared of the charges.

After the session, he as well as Speaker Baca and the accused men, were showered with congratulations and a throng surrounded them for half an hour.

The printing committee announced that the New Mexican was the lowest of three bidders, for the printing of 150 copies in English, and 150 copies in Spanish, of the transcript of the hearings in the bribery cases, and the House passed the resolution ordering the transcript, which is very voluminous, to be printed.

Printing Goes to Albuquerque. In the meanwhile, the printing committees of both houses were in session and opened bids for the printing of the bills in English and Spanish. The bids were as follows:

For 300 Copies.
Albuquerque Journal, $1.50 a page.
New Mexican, $1.25 a page.
Albuquerque Herald, $1.05 a page.
George Albright, $0.80 a page.

For 450 Copies.
Albuquerque Journal, $1.50 a page.
New Mexican, $1.40 a page.
Albuquerque Herald, $1.20 a page.
George Albright, $0.96 a page.

The contract was awarded to George Albright of Albuquerque.

LIVES LOST WHEN NILE STEAMER SANK.

Excursion Boats Collided Near Great Dam and One Went Down.

(By Special Licensed Wire to New Mexican)
Cairo, Egypt, April 9.—A large number of passengers were drowned last evening by the sinking of a Nile river excursion steamer after a collision with another steamer in the vicinity of the great dam on the river about fifteen miles to the northwest of Cairo and a few miles from Kalub.

Fifteen bodies have so far been recovered. The steamer had 200 passengers on board who had taken advantage of the Easter holiday to make a trip to the river dam. On the return journey up stream and not far from the dam the excursion boat collided with another steamer and sank almost immediately. All on board were thrown into the river but many lives were saved by the vessel with which the excursion boat collided. Another passenger steamer and several boats from shore hastened to the rescue and picked up many of those struggling in the water.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS AT ROCHESTER

Nicholas Murray Butler Flays Progressives as Well as Democrats

POLITICAL PATENT MEDICINE

Destruction of Independence of Judiciary Means End of the Republic

(By Special Licensed Wire to New Mexican)
Rochester, April 9.—Denunciation of the critics of the Republican party, within and without its ranks, of "political patent medicine men," of "those who would destroy the independence of the judiciary," and of "those who tell us that we must buy their political patent medicine or fail to carry the next presidential election," formed the keynote of the address before the Republican state convention here today of Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, the convention's temporary chairman.

"The Supreme Issue of 1912" was the subject of Dr. Butler's address. This he defined as "the maintenance of our Republican form of Government." In conclusion, he declared that the chief measures of progress confronting the nation were the enactment of a workingman's compensation law; enactment of proper monetary legislation; revision of the tariff supplementary legislation to the anti-trust law; judicial settlement of international disputes; economy in government; and legislation to shorten the law's delays. He said, in part:

"What criticism is made of the Republican administration of the nation during the past sixteen years? There is, first, the honest and fair criticism of our opponents from whom we differ in many matters of fundamental political policy. This criticism is a natural and necessary incident in the conduct of a republican form of government. Second, there is criticism from an element which, however numerous, is certainly in full possession of its powers of speech, and which is found in part within the ranks of our own party and in part within the ranks of the Democratic party. It includes the whole of the Socialist party as well as some of those whose mental condition is one of such blisful elevation that they cannot find any political association quite satisfactory to them.

"These critics tell us that we are behind the times; that we are, in the significant language of the gaming tables, stand-patters; that we have lost touch with the march of progress; that we are out of sympathy with the satisfaction of the deepest human suffering; that we put property rights above human rights; and that some means—violent if possible, peaceable if necessary—must be found to free the government from our paralyzing control.

"To one who knows the political history of the United States, these charges seem strange indeed. One wonders whether he is really listening to the speech of sane men or to the incoherent ravings of Bedlam.

"The answer comes back that our whole form of government is asked; that the Republicans and the Democrats are equally at fault; that all departments of the government are controlled by special and material interests; and that the people, whose government it is, have no longer any voice in its management. If these statements were made of the government of Russia in the seventeenth century, or of the government of China under the Manchus, or of the government of an unreformed Turkey they would neither surprise nor alarm us. But they are made of the government of the United States. These statements are so preposterous, so contrary to recorded and demonstrated fact, and intrinsically so absurd, that unless we were constantly hearing and reading them we might have difficulty in persuading ourselves that they are really made.

"These extraordinary statements appear to mean, so far as they mean anything intelligible, either that the American people are incompetent for self-government, or that they have created a governmental machinery which, while in form under popular control, is really managed by private and special interests. Examine for a moment these alternatives. If the American people are incompetent for self-government, then it can make little difference what program we adopt, sooner or later a people incompetent for self-government will pass under the heel of a despot, where they belong.

"It appears, on farther inquiry, that what is really meant is that representative government and representative institutions are a failure, and that they must be swept aside to make way for a direct democracy. In particular, it appears that the most characteristic and beneficent of American institutions, the independent judiciary charged with the interpretation of the law and with the safeguarding of constitutional limitations, is now regarded as a harmful check upon the people's will and as an obstacle to their free and progressive social and political development.

"If this vehement denunciation of our government and of our courts is one-half true, then the Republican party should get down on its knees and apologize to the people of this country for having three times defeated so farighted a man as Mr. Bryan for the presidency of the United States.

"What these revolutionary elements of the population most dislike is the rule of law. Their conception of government is a sort of glorified lynching before which the achievements at Springfield, Ill., or at Coatesville, Pa.,

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it. N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and tell page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

would fade into insignificance. Any judicial officer who, in obedience to his oath, ventures to declare the law to be something which is out of agreement with their present-day prepossessions, prejudices, emotions or desires, becomes a tyrant who should be dashed from his place on the bench by the profoundly wicked instrumentality of the recall of judges.

"It is forgotten, apparently, that a judge declares the law, but does not make it, and that in declaring the law he is executing the people's highest and most mature will. In so doing he is not imposing anything upon the people save what they have imposed upon themselves as the necessary and well-justified restraints upon appetite and passion. The man who would destroy the independent judiciary because he dislikes or differs from some specific judicial finding is as mad as a man who would set his house on fire in order to improve its ventilation.

"With all this the Republican party must be everlastingly at war. We are not yet ready to substitute government by men of presumably good intentions for government by law. This contest within the party, and this presidential election, may decide whether our government is to be republican or Cossack.

"But, it is said, the constitution was made in the eighteenth century by men who lived under conditions long since passed away. Therefore, the constitution is outworn. It must be adjusted, the phrase now runs, to human rights.

"What about the multiplication table? What about the Rule of Three? What about the law of gravitation? Some of these come down to us from hoary antiquity. Surely they cannot be allowed to pass unamended in the face of such changed conditions as now surround us. Why should the dead hand of the Greeks and of the Arabs and of Sir Isaac Newton control our life and thought? Let us be free and independent and adjust our modes of counting and of computation to the new economic needs that surround us! Perhaps those who invented the multiplication table and the Rule of Three never heard of a corporation with a thousand millions of capital! How could the multiplication table and the Rule of Three be expected to deal with a condition such as that?

"The fact is that in the history of mankind some things, after long toll and tribulation, are settled once for all. They neither invite nor permit amendment and improvement. These achievements, taken together, are progress; they constitute progress; they are the evidences of progress; they are what the word progress means. To attack, to undermine, or to overturn them is not progress, but reaction.

"The fundamental principles which underlie the constitution of the United States are no straight-jacket into which a growing people is forced to its distress and harm. They are rather a chart by which the ship of state may sail safely out on new and untried seas, certain that the danger spots are clearly marked and the heavens accurately indicated. These principles can never grow old; they are everlastingly young and new and true.

"We are today infested with political patent medicine men. Ignorant of ordinary laws of political and social growth, or defying them, they press upon us the odd and curious nostrums of their own making which are to cure our evils, to abolish poverty, to do away with injustice, and to bring about that happy and blissful Utopia

WHAT IT MEANS TO A CITY.

That Santa Fe has a priceless treasure in its School of American Archaeology, and New Mexico in its Museum in the Palace of the Governors, is generally recognized but occasionally forgotten. Here is the San Diego, California, Evening Tribune, which tells something of the ideas prevailing in Southern California relative to this work as applied to the situation there:

"An important organization has been effected in this city looking to the maintenance of a local branch of the American Institute of Archaeology. The immediate object of the association is to assist the exposition directors in their plan of establishing a department in the Panama-California exposition which shall portray the history of man from his earliest development to his latest expression. The purpose is ambitious, but it will be easily accomplished with the earnest assistance of the American Institute of Archaeology which, through Dr. Edgar L. Hewett, director of the exposition's archaeological exhibit, has pledged its effort and support.

"Archaeology, notwithstanding its somewhat portentous designation, is more replete with the romance of 'human interest' than all the other sciences combined. It is an intimate relation of human history, and once reviewed even in cursory reading the layman finds it intensely interesting and easily comprehensible in spite of necessary technical terminology. The archaeologist finds material for his investigation at his very doorstep. There is no place in the world where the science of archaeology may not be applied with profit to the archaeologist and the community in which he lives and there are few places where the science of archaeology may be more profitably applied than in San Diego.

"It will be the permanent purpose of the San Diego branch of the American Institute of Archaeology to preserve the ancient history of this section and the west coast southward to Panama. Especially valuable will be the work of the association in marking the progress of civilization from the time of the Conquest to the present; but there is much to be accomplished through investigation of the aboriginal and prehistoric evidences apparent within the radius of this investigation, which indubitably led to the gradual evolution of the Mayas of Mexico, afterwards absorbed by the barbarian Aztecs and modified to fit the genius of that warlike and enterprising race.

"In the matter of fixing and marking the historic spots within the corporate limits of the city of San Diego, this organization will do valuable and lasting service; and their efforts should receive hearty and substantial support from every citizen, whether he is personally interested in the science of archaeology or not. The Mission of San Diego de Alcala should be rehabilitated and made as nearly a replica of the original mission as possible. The place where Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, landed when he discovered San Diego Bay in 1542 should be marked by an appropriate and imposing monument. A similar monument should be placed on the spot where Sebastian Vizcaino landed in 1602. A memorial should be erected in Old Town on the first site of the mission founded by Father Junipero Serra. The old presidio where the flag of Spain was unfurled should be reserved as a park. The place where the American flag was raised in 1848 should be commemorated. Tablets in bronze or copper should be placed on all historic buildings or structures now occupying the sites of those buildings, suitably and fully inscribed with data of the historical association.

"For many years San Diego was compelled to struggle against adverse circumstances of isolation and nature's niggardly, or grudging favor. The old inhabitants of San Diego were either engrossed in the easy living of a pastoral existence, or they were striving to found a city on a matchless harbor without the necessary concomitant of a water supply sufficient for metropolitan requirement. These were conditions inimical to the proper consideration of matters esthetic, scientific or historical. The people of that period resident in San Diego were making history rather than recording it and it would have been immodest to memorialize their own deeds. There is no excuse now, however, for further neglect of these beginnings of things Californian. It is the duty of this later generation of San Diegans to commemorate the accomplishment of the discoverers and founders of San Diego. Here the first Californian palms and olives were planted and the trees are still growing, uncared for and forgotten save by those who love the memories of old days; here the first aqueduct and irrigation system was constructed by the mission fathers, and some of the construction still remains. These things are worth preserving and commemorating, and the citizens of San Diego now have time aside from their other duties to attend to this special duty—as essentially in the perpetuation and preservation of San Diego's future fame as anything that has hitherto been accomplished. It will be part of the function of the San Diego branch of the American Institute of Archaeology to bring the citizens of San Diego to a realizing sense of their true relation to the salient features of the city's history and what may be expected of them in the effort to properly preserve the records of that history."

SHARP WORDS ON SUGAR.

About six weeks ago in the city of Paris the people of France celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the beet-sugar industry in that country. Its establishment was largely due to the patriotism and foresight of the first Napoleon, who encouraged all enterprises that would advance the wealth and prosperity of the people of his empire.

A month ago the people of England celebrated the establishment of the first beet-sugar factory built in England, and about the same time the American House of Representatives was, in the language of Congressman Fordney of Michigan, engaged in "celebrating the first serious attempt to destroy the sugar industry in the United States."

Mr. Fordney, when asked what effect the free-sugar bill will have upon the beet-sugar product of the country, replied as follows: "If this bill becomes a law, there is one of two things must happen. If the domestic industry is permitted to exist, then the sugar trust of this country, which refines the balance of our sugar, must hold the price up where it is today and receive themselves the benefit of this reduction of duty, and if they put the price down where they can still make a reasonable profit after the duty is removed, the domestic industry must cease at once and go out of existence."

The Democrats who interrupted and tried to disconcert Congressman Fordney themselves emerged disconcerted from their attempts. Attention was called by Congressman Rucker of Colorado, Democrat, to the fact that there is a suspension in the building of ten sugar factories in the southern part of that state, brought about by the threatened legislation. Mr. Fordney added that he had a list of factories in which construction was recently begun east of the Mississippi river that have suspended operations pending the consideration and the outcome of the proposed law. Whereupon Democratic Congressman James from Kentucky asked, with a sneer, "Are they afraid of the Republican Senate and the Republican President on free sugar?"

And Congressman Fordney replied: "You are starting the ball rolling. You are breeding the free-trade theory. Let me say here that a producer of sugar from Louisiana came before a sugar investigating committee, and while testifying he spoke of the ravages of the boll weevil in that country which had caused the people of Louisiana to abandon the production of cotton and to turn their attention to the production of sugar. I asked him, 'My friend, you are a Democrat?' "Yes." "You are a protectionist on sugar?" "Yes." "Which of the two evils do you consider the greater in Louisiana, the boll weevil or the free trader?" "He said: "My friend, the free trader, a thousand times over."

Again Congressman James, unmindful of the proverb which bids a reckless man not to monkey with a buzz saw, said: "Does the gentleman mean to class the Republican Senate and President in the boll-weevil class?" So saying, Congressman James gave the signal which calls for "laughter on the Democratic side." And the unvarnished "laugh" and "lawd" at the exquisite, although uncomprehensible, wit of the blue-grass orator, and Congressman Fordney answered the question and closed the debate as follows: "My friend, I have great hope that when in the Congress of the United States we are compelled to fall back to our second trench—the Senate of the United States—we will pay the life out of you free traders. If not, I have confidence in our good President who was elected on the Republican platform of 1908, which declares for protection sufficient to offset the difference in cost here and abroad, and in addition thereto, a reasonable profit. I have confidence in him that he has the stamina, the courage and the intelligence to place his stamp of disapproval upon that bill if it comes up to him."

THE LEGISLATIVE PRINTING.

The Printing Committee is correct in its stand that legislative printing in Spanish should be confined to measures that are of importance. Representative Mullens is also correct in his attitude that there is no sense in printing the same measure a dozen times if it happens to be introduced a dozen or twenty times during the course of the session. It should be made the duty of the Committee on Printing of both Houses to exercise a close supervision on duplicate bills or measures that are so closely alike or so obviously unlikely to be considered, that their printing is sheer waste. The House, for instance, today adopted a resolution not to consider county division bills and it is waste of money to print those measures. At the best, the printing for the entire session will total $10,000 and more. While this is not exorbitant, compared with $50,000 or more that the Missouri and the Colorado and other legislatures expend for that purpose, nor large as compared with some of the other legislative expenses entailing not near as much material and work, economy is right in every particular. The committees on printing in both houses have let the contract for the printing to the lowest bidder. Still even at this low price, a two hundred page bill in English and Spanish will cost the state of New Mexico the sum of $350. There are several such bills to be introduced. The cost of printing one of these bills, $350, may seem high and yet, the New Mexican confesses it could not, without a loss, do the printing at the low rate which the committees have obtained. The cost of the printing of the twenty bills introduced this forenoon in the House, if each bill averages eight pages, and some of them, such as the local option measure, will be more than double or triple that, will cost the state more than $300, even at the extraordinarily low price at which the work is done. There were bills introduced in the Senate besides, and there are still more than sixty legislative days and entire codes of 200 to 300 pages that are to be introduced in bill form, so that an estimate of $10,000 for the printing is apt to be below the mark unless careful supervision is exercised. The New Mexican's bid was considerably lower than that submitted by the Albuquerque Journal, but at the same time, it was considerably higher than that of the successful bidder, and therefore, the New Mexican has no quarrel with the award as it was made by the committee. If one cattleman must have $22 a head and another sells for $15 a head the consumer can not be censured for buying from the man who sells at the lower figure, even though the higher-priced cattleman proves that his price is fair and equitable.

Llewellyn offered a resolution 10 ex-pel members Manuel Cordova, J. P. Lucero, Luis Montoya and Julian Trujillo. Burg moved the adoption of the resolution. Roll call was ordered. Catron, Hilton, and Skidmore refused to vote. Padilla and Hilton explained their votes. Padilla stated he withdrew his signature from the Rogers report to wait until the evidence had been printed. Padilla voted "aye" on the motion to expel. A heated colloquy took place between Llewellyn and Toombs, when the latter explained his vote.

The resolution was defeated by a vote of 10 ayes to 30 noes. Chaves moved to reconsider and to lay the reconsideration on the table, which carried, thus winning the final victory for the accused men.

The House by a vote of 9 to 33 refused to rescind the resolution ordering the printing of the transcript in the bribery hearing.

The House then took up consideration of the rules, and was still under that business heading when the New Mexican went to press.

PARTNERSHIP INSURANCE

Mr. Business Man, Insure for the Benefit of Your Business.

The sudden death of a member of the firm might, by curtailing the usual credit, lead to temporary embarrassment or even insolvency. Thousands of business houses that have been crippled and driven to the wall by the death of a partner would be in business to-day if they had been thoughtful enough to have provided for just this emergency. The READY CASH promptly paid in by an Insurance Company relieves the surviving partners of all worry in regard to money matters.

The RELIANCE INSURANCE COMPANY of Pittsburgh, Penn., writes the most liberal forms of Partnership Insurance.

PERSONAL MENTION

I searched for love in heart of city's hum;
I searched for love upon the shining sand
Of ocean, beach, and then on towering cliffs I sung
A pleading song that love unto my heart might come;
But love came not.

I searched for love no more, but labored sore
To ease those hearts whom sor-row'd touched before,
Faint hope that in sweet work I'd surely find
Some compensation for a fate unkind—
When, lo, love came."

Madrid counties.

More than 1,000 persons are being cared for at the Masonic Temple, at the court house, and in private homes.
Help, Mayor Burns says, is needed to feed and clothe the refugees here and at Anniston and East Prairie.
Three negroes were drowned.

Hammond, Ind., April 9.—Thirty feet more of the Grant Williams dyke near Shelby on the Kankakee river, done. The break is at Bayou with twenty feet of water and it inundated another large tract of country.

Warned to Flee.
Memphis, Tenn., April 9.—Forty-five townships will be partly covered by water. Marked Tree, Ark., probably will be inundated. Warnings were flushed over the telephone lines to all portions of the section affected, in the hope that the residents would seek high ground before the water reaches them.

6,000 Homeless.

are 1,000 refugees at Columbus, Ky.;
2,000 at Hickman, Ky.; 600 at New

Tenn., and 500 at Caruthersville, Mo.
This list was telegraphed to the Amer-

Wife Are Guests at London Hotel.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
London, April 9.—Frederick O.
Beach, the Wall Street broker, against whom a warrant has been issued in Aiken, South Carolina, charging him with assault and battery, with intent to kill his wife, by slashing her throat, has arrived in London with Mrs. Camilla Beach. Mr. and Mrs.
Beach, who are staying at a leading hotel here, have not left their apartments since they arrived. Mr. Beach declined to be interviewed, but told the Associated Press representative over the telephone there "was nothing in the charges."

Detective Was Slow.
Aiken, S. C., April 9.—The aid of the State Department will be invoked to have arrested in Europe, Frederick O. Beach, of New York, whom a warrant sworn out here yesterday, charges with slashing his wife's throat at their winter home here several weeks ago, authorities said today.
It was said the warrant against Mr.
Beach would have been sworn out long before it was had a detective completed his investigation.

It is said the investigator was after the knife, a diamond studded one,
which it is declared, Beach had carried. The finding of it with blood stains completed the case, according to the officials.

DEMONS OF BLIND TIGER

BURN BOY ALIVE.

Made Drunk in Their Resort and
They Feared He Would Attract Attention.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Gadsden, Ala., April 9.—Wheeler
Beasley and his wife are under arrest today charged with attempting to incinerate Ezra Busby, 16 years of age, after he had imbibed too much liquor
in their blind tiger resort near here.
They feared he would attract attention, it is alleged, and so placed the drunken boy under a brush heap they saturated with coal oil and fired. His screams were heard and he was rescued after he had suffered what may be fatal burns.

COMMITTEE ON THE TERRITORIES.

House of Representatives.
United States, Washington,
D. C., March 11, 1912.

Mr. E. D. McQueen Gray,
Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Dear Sir—I was greatly interested in what you wrote in your letter this morning as well as the article which you enclosed. As you will notice from the letter head, I am on the Committee on Territories, and heard much of New Mexico history from the lips of her prominent citizens who appeared before our committee while the Statehood fight was on. I was greatly pleased to see New Mexico finally get Statehood, and am interested in everything
you are doing out there.

I am a University city man
myself—Ann Arbor, Michigan,
—being a graduate of the Literary and Law Department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, and now residing there.

I am especially interested in what you write about the Spanish language and its use.
I was, for a brief time, American Consul in British Guiana and have traveled considerably
in Spanish speaking countries, as did my father before me. He spoke Spanish fluently. I do not, but appreciate the importance of the language as much as anybody can. Spanish is to have increasing importance in years to come. Your article is a good one and I read it with the greatest possible interest. I take special interest in Latin-American matters.

Glad always to hear from you and assuring you of my deep interest in the special subjects of which you write and everything that pertains to New Mexico, I am,
Very sincerely,
(Signed)
W. W. WEDEMEYER.

P. S.—Any public documents
you have pertaining to the University of New Mexico or to your State generally will be welcome.

AND YOUR BREAD TROUBLES

Flour quality varies according to wheat quality.
Poor wheat means poor
flour, poor flour means poor bread. The gluten
in hard wheat is the element that makes the bread raise. Hard wheat is rich in gluten—that's why it's hard. The more gluten the wheat contains the less flour you have to use—that's why
the use of BOSS PATENT FLOUR means real economy, better results and better treatment of your

A Permanent Cure For Chronic Constipation

Although those may dispute it who have not tried it, yet thousands of others, who speak from personal experience, assert that there is a permanent cure for chronic constipation. Some testify they were cured for as little as fifty cents, years ago, and that the trouble never came back on them, while others admit they took several bottles before a steady cure was brought about.

The remedy referred to is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been on the market for over a quarter of a century and has been popularized on its merits, by one person telling another. The fact that its strongest supporters are women an elderly people--the ones most persistently constipated--makes it certain that the claims regarding it as a permanent cure for constipation have not been exaggerated.

It is not violent like cathartic pills,

Editorial.

"A prominent Democrat of New Mexico is an applicant for the governorship of the territory. It is understood this gentleman has a great deal of eastern and New York backing and is being pushed by some very prominent New Mexico Democrats. There seems to be a chance that this gentleman may make it right warm for the present incumbent."

isolation to control public terminals; federal participation with localities in flood control; prevention of reforestation on non-agricultural lands and reforestation of denuded tracts; amendments of laws controlling water power on navigable streams and within the public domain.

The commission points to the traffic possibilities of the Lake Erie and Ohio canal and says substantial reductions of railroad rates may be expected to follow this operation. The Lake Erie-Michigan canal would obviate the detour around the Michigan peninsula and give a more direct water route from Chicago to New York.

Legislation is necessary to prevent the elimination of water competition and to prevent the raising of water rates under railway control, in the opinion of the commission. It believes the interstate commerce laws are now insufficient to preserve water transportation and foster its growth. It urges that every water carrier in interstate commerce be under control of the interstate commerce commission to enable the commission to establish through routes, joint rates and through bills of lading, without which, the commission believes, the rehabilitation of water traffic will not be complete.

The report arraigns the inadequacy of water terminals and urges that further river and harbor improvements be avoided without assurance of proper terminals on completion. Federal condemnation of private property for public terminals is a local recommendation except where a locality establishes its inability to deal with the terminal problem.

It is recommended that the federal government investigate and report to the next session of Congress whether reservoirs are needed to supply water in the dry season to operate present and proposed locks and dams in the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio rivers and the extent to which the federal government should participate. Each case of reservoir construction, by the commission's findings, should be considered on its merits.

Other recommendations are to subject mining entries to the paramount right of water power uses; land entries to the right of construction of transmission lines or other works and that the states undertake preservation of forests and reforestation of their own lands, not acquired by the government.

The commission recommends that questions between operating water power companies and consumers of their products or service be left to state control, except where local power is inadequate to protect public interest "with the understanding that within the comparatively near future this feature of its regulation must inevitably pass to the federal government."

DR. EDGAR L. HEWETT AT SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

Well Impressed with Plans and Site and Expresses His Admiration of the Promoters.

By Brian B. Dunne. (Special to the New Mexican.)

San Diego, Calif., April 5.--Dr. Edgar L. Hewett, head of the School of American Archaeology at Santa Fe, has been here for the past few days looking over the exposition grounds and studying the scope of the work.

He is well impressed with the plans and expressed his admiration for the splendid men who are directing the great task. Dr. Hewett spoke last night at the Grand Hotel, telling Santa Diegians what new Mexico will take in the exhibit. He returns today for Santa Fe.

The newspapers here have devoted much space to the Santa Fe visitor. The following are extracts from the articles which appeared the day Dr. Hewett arrived:

(From the San Diego Sun)
 "Practically all the big scientists in ethnological and archaeological lines in America are expected to attend the summer school, which it has been decided to hold here during the five days beginning August 26."

"The summer school is the idea of Dr. Edgar L. Hewett, managing director of the Archaeological Institute of America, who arrived here yesterday. He will outline the plan for the school at a meeting to be held in the Grant hotel tomorrow night for the purpose of organizing a branch archaeological society here."

"The big scientists will lecture each afternoon and evening and will effectually demonstrate the value and interest of the 'Progress of Man' exhibit to be shown at the 1915 exposition."

Get Big Exhibits.
 "The big 1915 exhibit will be the richest of the sort ever collected for the British museum, the Smithsonian institute, the National museum of this country and all the museums of Central and South America have granted permission to Dr. Hewett, who will be in charge of the exhibit, to draw freely upon each institution for those articles which he needs to make his collection at the fair complete."

The importance of this permission cannot be over-estimated, and is due to the high personal esteem in which Dr. Hewett is held, as well as the recognition by all the museums of the big educational value of the San Diego exposition.

Valuable Addition.
 "Another valuable addition to the San Diego staff is Dr. Wm. Henry Holmes, director of the Smithsonian institute, who will devote part of his time to the exhibit here."

"Descendants from all the ancient tribes will be brought to San Diego, if there are any in existence, and will be shown using the ancient utensils and living in the prehistoric."

"The exhibit is not to form a part of the regular exposition, but will lead up to the array of modern inventions and appliances."

"The directors of the exposition tendered a banquet last night to Dr. Hewett and to Dr. Eugenio Dahne of Brazil, following which plans for the branch archaeological society were formulated. The society will be a branch of the exposition company, just as the Order of Panama is, but, like the latter organization, will be a permanent affair to remain in existence as a memorial of the big exposition."

A Permanent Exhibit.
 Of Dr. Hewett's plans for an exhibit at the exposition, the San Diego Evening Tribune said:
 "Prof. Edgar L. Hewett, director of the Archaeological Society of America, will organize a San Diego branch at the U. S. Grant hotel tomorrow night."

"Professor Hewett is now here in conference with the directors of the Panama-California exposition to be devoted to an illustration of the progress of man."

"This exhibit will show relics from the British museums, the National museum at Washington and collections from South and Central American states. Professor Hewett, who is paid for collecting rare specimens by museums and archaeological societies throughout the country, expects to bring a large collection to San Diego. The purpose of the organization of a branch society here is to make it a permanent exhibit. All specimens not desired for a permanent exhibit will be disposed of by Prof. Hewett."

MERCHANT AND MINERS STEAMSHIP IS BURNING.
 Crew Has Not Slept for Thirty Hours and Are Still Pumping Water Into Hold.
 (By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican.)
 Montauk Point, L. I., April 9.--The fire which broke out early yesterday morning among the cotton bales in the hold of the Merchants and Miners line steamship Ontario, still was blazing today. Daylight found Captain Bond and his crew of forty, none of whom had slept for thirty hours, still pumping water into the hold. Three revenue cutters, three wrecking boats, and crews of two life saving stations, were nearby to lend aid and if necessary to take off the crew.

On account of the Ontario's position on the rocks the vessels could

Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, Lydia E. of which certain types of men with nothing useful to do habitually dream. "Pious and oracular aphorisms are the stock in trade of the political patent medicine man whose pursuit of a higher office is so compelling that he cannot find time to attend to the duties of the office which he already holds. The plain discharge of present duty does not seem likely to commend him sufficiently to a larger and more important constituency. Neither the Senate of the United States nor the governorship of a sovereign state offers adequate scope for his activities and his genius. He must hurry off, while public business waits, in order that he may sound his own praises and recite his own phrases to the open-mouthed thousands who assemble to greet so great a man.

"It may perhaps be said that, however misleading these political patent medicine men may be, however ignorant and however selfish the popular demagogues of the day, yet they have gained so large a following that we must listen to them and buy their political patent medicine or else we shall fail to carry the next presidential election. I deny absolutely. I deny that the Republican party and its principles are for sale. I deny that a political party exists only to win elections at any cost. If it sells its principles, it is no longer a political party, but only an organized appetite.

"Why should we hesitate to follow precisely the same course in 1912 that served us so well in 1896? Let us stand up before all the people of the United States and say that we propose to go forward with policies of truth, not false, progress; that we propose to protect and care for human rights, whether of person or of property, without privilege and without monopoly; but that we propose to do this under the fundamental guarantees of our constitutional government and in accordance with its representative forms. Let us make the maintenance of our republican form of government the leading and controlling political question.

"So far as one member of the party may make his voice heard, I wish to declare myself for brief, simple, direct, and unequivocal declarations on the chief matters which are now awaiting solution as national questions. Of these I name those which are of most importance.

"Public opinion is asking that greater protection be given to the life and health of the community; that workmen's compensation legislation be enacted; and that there be larger and more prompt recognition of the social problem in its many phases. In so far as the Congress has authority, however, the Republican party should pledge itself to use that authority to the utmost in order that these beneficent ends may be promoted in the highest public interest and without indulging in economic orgies.

"Legislation should speedily be enacted, substantially as recommended by the National Monetary Commission to provide the people of the United States with an adequate, modern and scientific banking system.

"The just expectation of the people that the duties imposed on imports should be revised and reduced ought to be met without delay. There are three ways of fixing rates of duty on imported merchandise. These rates of duty may be fixed, first without any knowledge of manufacturing and commercial conditions whatsoever. This is not a good thing to do. These rates of duty may be fixed, second, on the basis of statements made by interested persons only, whether importers, manufacturers, or wage-earners. This is not a good thing to do. These rates of duty may be fixed, third, on the basis of information as to manufacturing and trade conditions obtained by a government board or commission acting solely in the public interest and with a view to doing justice to manufacturer, wage-earner, importer, and the people as a whole. The last is the only way in which the Republican party can afford to undertake revision and reduction of the tariff.

"During the past twelve years the meaning and application of the so-called Sherman Anti-Trust Law have been defined and clarified by numerous far-reaching decisions of the United States Supreme Court. That law should not, and need not, be amended or weakened. What is now needed is supplementary legislation, conceived in the same broad and statesmanlike spirit that the language of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law itself reveals, which will make possible administrative control, without preliminary judicial process, of individuals and corporations engaged in interstate commerce, so far as this may be necessary to prevent monopoly and unfair practices. This will relieve business, both big and little, from the uncertainty and indecision that now hold it in check.

"The international policies which have dignified and made memorable the administration of President Taft should be continued and extended until we have convinced not only the whole civilized world, but ourselves as well, that we are committed to a policy of peace, good will, and the judicial settlement of international disputes.

"The appalling extravagance of government should be checked and the Republican party should pledge itself to check it. It may well be asked whether, in instituting a much-needed inquiry into the high cost of living, we should not begin with an inquiry into the high cost of being governed.

"Those natural resources of the country that still remain part of the public domain, whether forests, mineral lands, or water power, should be so used and developed as to give the benefits of ownership to the people as a whole while affording opportunity to those who undertake the task of development to gain a fair reward for their labor and their investment.

"That the courts, both federal and state, may bear the heavy burden laid upon them to the complete satisfaction of public opinion, steps should speedily be taken to avoid the long delays and the tedious and costly appeals which now so often amount to a denial of justice in civil cases and to a failure to protect the public at large in criminal cases."

A MOTHER'S CARE.

A careful mother will not give her child a medicine without knowing it is pure, contains no opiates, and has healing and curative qualities. Such a medicine is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, and all affections of the throat, chest, and lungs. Best and safest for children and grown persons. Contains no opiates. For sale by all druggists.

Effective Home Remedy for Tuberculosis

It is a serious matter when the lungs are affected. A trip away to a sanatorium is not only tremendously expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are benefited, but none can safely return. Eekman's Alternative is effective, no leaving home necessary. For example: "I am, Haddonfield, N. J. "In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold, which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise spittle, and my physician told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eekman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now five years since my cure has been effected, and I cannot praise Eekman's Alternative too highly. I have become invigorated with excellent results."

Eekman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet on cough, cold, and asthma to Eekman's Alternative, Philadelphia, Pa. For more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and by Zook's Pharmacy, Santa Fe.

LEGISLATIVE POINTERS

The eloquent address of Representative Vargas, yesterday afternoon, on behalf of his accused colleagues, was well received and applauded yesterday.

A quiet canvass was made this morning to determine whether the House would concur in a resolution for a joint session for a Senatorial ballot.

Senator A. B. Fall was expected in Santa Fe on Saturday evening, but a message is said to have gone forward to him last evening to delay his arrival for the present.

Representative Catron with bulldog tenacity, made an able fight yesterday on behalf of that part of the House that opposed the present seating of the accused legislators.

The following is the letter sent to both houses of the legislature by Former Delegate W. H. Andrews and received with applause in each House:

"I wish to call your attention and through you the attention of the honorable body over which you preside, to the senatorial situation as it exists. Owing to the fact that there will be a vacancy in the Senate in 1903, and that the duty devolves upon the present legislative assembly to elect at this session, that begins in January next, some one to fill that vacancy as a candidate for the Senate and being a great believer in the opportunity being given the people to express their preference in this matter, I would respectfully call your attention to the election that will occur next November at which time a preferential primary could be held without extra expense or cost to the taxpayers, an opportunity could be afforded to the people to give expression to their choice for Senator, speaking for myself, I am very desirous that this be done, and if the electors should not sustain me, I will cheerfully bow to their will and continue thereafter as heretofore, to be a loyal party man.

"Respectfully,"

"WILLIAM H. ANDREWS."

MINES AND MINING

Jack Bidwell and I. B. Bacher left for the Rio Grande mining district where they will begin development work on the King Solomon mining property. Mr. Bidwell bought this property a year or two ago and is still well pleased with his purchase.—Taos Valley News.

Mayor James C. Dahman, Omaha, Neb., often called the "Cow Boy Mayor" writes of the benefit he derived from Foley Kidney Pills and says, "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and they have given me a great deal of relief, so I cheerfully recommend them." For sale by all druggists.

Rain and Colder Weather.—If the Weather Bureau continues predicting rain and cooler weather as it has been doing and is doing today, this section ought to have bumper crops next fall. Yesterday the maximum temperature in the shade was 41 degrees, in the sun 65 degrees. The minimum temperature was 28 degrees. There were snow flurries in the hills and a trace of snow in town.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Santa Fe Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Santa Fe people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Santa Fe reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

J. T. Sandoval, 115 Ortiz St., Santa Fe, N. Mex., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for two years and they have done me a world of good. A dull pain in the small of my back, sometimes extending into my bladder caused me a great deal of trouble particularly when I took cold. I was bothered mostly in the winter, and in addition to the pain in my back, there were symptoms of inflammation of the bladder. The kidney secretions were highly colored and when passed were attended with a scalding pain. I never used another remedy that acted as satisfactorily as Doan's Kidney Pills. They proved to be just the medicine my case required and the complete cure they brought has led me to recommend them on more than one occasion."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The KITCHEN CABINET

WHEN a man will trust his wife with his name, his honor and his children and will not trust her with his purse, it is easy to see on which he puts the highest value.

SOME HOT DISHES FOR COLD NIGHTS.

There is nothing more satisfying and warming on a damp, chilly night than a good bowl of hot soup. Cream soups of different kinds may be had every night in the week, and the variety not run out.

One may have tomato bisque, thickening the cream of tomato for a change, or potato with a little onion and milk makes a most appetizing soup.

Another favorite dish is:

Spanish Rice.—Into a buttered baking dish put a layer of cooked rice, sprinkle with finely cut broiled ham, or fried ham, a sprinkling of onion grated and seasoning of red and green pepper chopped, salt and then another layer of rice. Pour over a generous amount of tomato, and bake until thoroughly heated through. The seasoning of this dish will make or mar it.

Southern Rice.—Melt a tablespoonful of butter in a frying pan, add a clove of garlic and a large chopped onion, a cup of washed rice. Keep stirring the rice until it is slightly brown and crisp. Then add a cup of tomato and fill the pan with boiling water. Cook until the rice is tender without stirring if possible, as each grain will stand out by itself.

Chicken Stew.—Cut up a chicken with a clove of garlic and two small onions; cook until half done, then add the following sauce:

Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan; add a tablespoonful of flour and a generous sprinkling of cayenne. When well cooked add salt and a cup of tomatoes; stir and cook, adding salt and sage, if liked.

Poached eggs are very nice for a supper dish with the above sauce.

A mixture of lard and suet makes a very desirable fat for almost all uses that lard would be put to. The soft beef fat is the best.

HI! PASSING few are they who speak.

But, stormy month, in praise of thee! Yet, though thy winds are loud and bleak, Thou art a welcome month to me. —Bryant.

PAPER BAG DISHES.

For those who delight in the flavor of fish, there is no more agreeable way of serving them than when cooked in a paper bag. But one bag must not be an ordinary, but one bag made for the purpose of the tough fiber paper especially prepared for such cooking.

One might have a paper supper, paper table cover or dollies and napkins, paper candlesticks and shades, paper favors and paper flowers for decoration. This would be especially appropriate for a paper wedding anniversary.

The cocktail may be served in tiny paper bags torn open to show their contents, the salad in paper cases and the meat and fish in individual bags, piping hot, or a larger bag with the whole serving on a platter.

Halibut seasoned with tomato, lemon juice and butter will come out after fifteen minutes in a hot oven, swimming in its own juices and most delicious to the taste.

Apple dumplings baked in a paper bag are elevated from a common dish to a creation. Served with a sauce made of half a cup of softened butter, a cup of powdered sugar, a teaspoon of vanilla and half a cup of whipped cream, if it is handy, will be ambrosia fit for the goddess.

Sallebury Steaks.—Put round steak three times through the meat chopper, to have it well cut; mix with melted butter, salt and lemon juice, using one's own taste in regard to the amount used and depending upon the amount of meat. Pat out into long flat cakes and put into a well-greased paper bag to bake just ten minutes in a hot oven. Serve with baked potatoes.

Green bananas unpeeled, adding a little water to the bag, will bake nicely in twenty to twenty-five minutes and are a delicious accompaniment to the steaks with a little lemon and melted butter poured over them.

When baking small fillets of meat or biscuits, a griddle cake turner is an indispensable utensil in putting things into the bags for cooking.

The manufacturer who decides that he will put out honest, reliable goods and then trust to the system of being "advertised by his loving friends," will undoubtedly in time acquire a delightful little circle of "loving friends," but he will never live to see his trademark rated at a million dollars.
