Ninety-Three Percent of Locomotive Brotherhood Vote For Suspension

65,000 MEN ARE AFFECTED

Officers of Union Will Wait "Reasonable Time" For Counter Proposal.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
New York, N. Y., April 12.—By a majority of more than 23,000 out of 25,000 votes cast, locomotive engineers on fifty railroads, east of Chicago and North of the Norfolk & Western, have authorized a strike, should further negotiations with the railroads for increased pay fail. The count was completed at noon and the result announced by Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to J. C. Stuart, chairman of the General Managers Association of the railroads.

The general managers have called a meeting here April 15 to consider the result. The engineer's officers have notified Mr. Stuart they would remain here for a reasonable time to await a counter proposition. The original demands of the engineer's for increases in pay amounting to fifteen percent, recently were rejected by the railroads. Mr. Stone announced that ninety-three percent of the engineers had voted to authorize a strike.

65,000 Men Affected.
In his letter Mr. Stone asks whether the railroads have any counter proposal to make and notifies Mr. Stuart that if none is received, a strike on the fifty roads is subject to call at any time. In addition to the 25,000 members of the Brotherhood, Mr. Stone said, approximately 15,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and engineers also had voted. Their vote, he said, was overwhelmingly in favor of a strike.

Is Up to Railroads.

"The result speaks for itself," Mr. Stone said. "The next move is up to the railroads."

"If the railroads do not make a counter proposition, will you call a strike?" he was asked.

"That is not a fair question at this time," he replied. "I cannot answer."

UNITED STATES AMMUNITION FOR MEXICAN FEDERAL.

War Materials Are Exported to Troubled Republic With Official Knowledge.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—President Madero is arming his navy as well as his army with munitions of war purchased in this country under exportations to the American proclamation forbidding the exportation of war material to Mexico. President Taft today authorized the Mexican government to export a large box of miscellaneous fittings for the guns of his ships.

Two passenger trains in Sonora were wrecked and fired on by rebels within the last two days, according to State Department advices. A train near Guaymas was attacked Wednesday about thirty miles South of there, one man being killed and two wounded. The next day another train was wrecked at the same place, two people being killed and several injured. In southwestern Mexico, railway operation has been suspended South of San Blas, Sinaloa, and wire communication has again been cut.

LIKE THE LOUISIANA KILLING

Religion Made Cloak of Most Horrible Butcheries by Colored Priests.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
San Antonio, Texas, April 12.—William Burton, his wife, two children and Leon Avers, his brother-in-law, all negroes were murdered while asleep in their homes here today. The head of each victim appears to have been crushed with an axe and butcher knives were found sticking in all bodies except those of the children. There is no clue, but the police believe a negro fanatic is responsible for the crime. The manner in which the negroes were butchered was similar to that in which four or five negro families recently were exterminated in Louisiana, where Clementine Barnabert, a negro woman, acknowledged the crimes. The Barnabert woman said the tenets of her faith not only demanded the killing of all those selected for execution by the sect, but their children as well, on the ground that with their parents dead their children would suffer many privations.

CLARA BARTON DIED TODAY

President of American Red Cross Society Succumbs to Pneumonia

WAS SOLDIERS' GOOD ANGEL

Began Her Work of Mercy in Civil War Looking For Missing Men.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—Miss Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross Society, died at her home in Glen Echo, Maryland, today. The cause was chronic pneumonia with which she was stricken about a year ago. Her brother, Stephen Barton of Boston was with her. Miss Barton was born at Oxford, Massachusetts, in 1821. She had been confined to her home, "Red Cross" at Glen Echo since last fall when she returned from a visit to New England. It was thought her trip was beneficial, but soon afterward she was taken seriously ill. She celebrated her nineteenth birthday anniversary December 25 last.

A Second Florence Nightingale.
Miss Barton might properly be called the Florence Nightingale of America. Like her British prototype, her works of mercy were not confined to her native land, but were carried even into the Eastern Hemisphere. She will be written down in history as the founder of the Red Cross of America, but her powerful personality also made an indelible impression on the international organization itself through her active participation in the periodical conference at Geneva, Carlsbad, Rome, Vienna, and St. Petersburg.

Miss Barton was 40 years of age when she first turned her attention to the great works of humanity which have made her name famous. The Red Cross was established in America in 1881 and Miss Barton was its president from that date until 1904.

The Soldiers' Good Angel.

Before that time she had made a name for herself by her service on battlefields, beginning in the Civil War and extending through the Franco-Prussian War. Congress recognized her good offices in the first case by an appropriation of $15,000 to be disbursed by her in searching for missing men after the various battles of the war.

Ministered in Peace and War.

Miss Barton's work became more extended with the organization of the American Red Cross and covered the new field of catastrophes in time of peace. She distributed relief to the sufferers from the Johnstown Flood and went to Russia in 1892 to carry food to the famine sufferers there. In the following year she was ministering to the destitute survivors of the tidal wave which struck South Carolina and Florida. In 1896, she was aiding the Armenian families decimated by the Turks and when yellow fever appeared among the American troops in Cuba, following the battles around Santiago, it was Clara Barton who, at the request of President McKinley, organized field hospitals and personally spent her time on the battle lines. Her last work of national prominence was in connection with the Great Galveston flood in 1900.

In 1904 the Red Cross was re-organized, President (then secretary) Taft being chosen as President and Miss Barton somewhat broken in health, from exposure to hardships retired from active connection with the organization. She retired for the last seven years at her home at Glen Echo, Maryland, on the banks of the Upper Potomac.

During her lifetime she received many decorations from foreign countries in recognition of her services to humanity and her varied experiences have been recorded in permanent form in her liberal contributions to literature, mostly relating to the activities of the Red Cross.

Parrott, was released from the penitentiary by Warden Thomas Tynan on honor to come alone to this city, appear before the board and return to prison. Parrott was recently stationed at a prisoner's road camp near Fort Collins. He was the only camp guard permitted to carry arms.

LEVEE BOARD REQUESTS HELP

St. Francis Asks Federal Aid in Procuring Seed for Planting

STREAMS REPORTED FALLING

Danger Believed to Have Been Passed at Most River Points.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
Memphis, Tenn., April 12.—Telephone communication was lost today with Luxora and Osceola, and Marked Tree, Arkansas, and the last news was that the levee situation was grave. This announcement was made by the St. Francis levee board. The last report from Marked Tree said the water was rising there an inch an hour. Women and children have been taken to the highest points in Luxora, which for the most part lies below the levee. Every able bodied man at Luxora is engaged in working on the levee.

Telegrams to United States Senator Clarke, of Arkansas, were forwarded by the St. Francis levee board, asking him to take up, with the federal authorities the question of distributing corn and cotton seed for spring planting.

The river here continued to fall slowly. The gauge reading at 7 o'clock this morning showed a stage of 42.5, a fall of one-tenth since 7 o'clock last night. In the Memphis district, Helena, Arkansas, is becoming the center of interest. Water from three breaks is making its way back into the Mississippi river through the St. Francis river, which empties into the Mississippi just above that city. However the levee at Helena, is unusually strong and it is generally believed it will withstand the pressure.

Greenville Levees Holding.

Greenville, Miss., April 12.—The river here today stands at 50.5 feet, a rise of two-tenths since yesterday. This is one and four-tenths higher than all previous records, but all levees are holding strong near here. Reports sent broadcast that the levees had broken at Lunar Landing, Arkansas, opposite Greenville, are without foundation.

GENERAL GRANT DIES SUDDENLY

Son of Famous Civil War Leader Passes Away in New York City

HEART FAILURE THE CAUSE

Mrs. Grant at Bedside in Hotel Bears Shock With Fortitude.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
New York, April 12.—Brigadier General Frederick D. Grant, commander of the Department of the East, and son of the famous Civil War general, died suddenly at midnight at the Hotel Buckingham, where he had been taken secretly on Wednesday evening by his physicians. His presence in this city was not known until the news that he had been suddenly stricken was flashed to newspaper offices by the police. A policeman stationed near the hotel had called an ambulance at the request of an employee, who told that General Grant was choking to death.

Heart Failure, Physicians Say.

According to Dr. Robert Abbe, and Dr. Edward B. Dench, his physicians, the death of the general was caused by heart failure. He had been suffering for some time they asserted in an official statement, "from diabetes, and attendant digestive disturbances." Recent reports that General Grant had been in a private pavilion in St. Luke's hospital in this city, suffering from a cancerous growth under the tongue, the safe affection which caused the death of his distinguished father, were denied today by the hospital authorities. Dr. Abbe who had been the general's family physician for many years, refused to discuss the subject.

Mrs. Grant at Death Bed.

Mrs. Grant was with her husband when he died. A nurse was the only other person present. The first intimation that General Grant's condition had suddenly become serious was given when Mrs. Grant telephoned to the hotel clerk at 11:45 o'clock. "The general is dying," she said, hysterically. "Get a doctor quick," she added that he had been seized with a choking spell. The clerk made an effort to get Dr. Abbe on the telephone. Failing in this, he sent a bell boy to the physician's home nearby. The haste of the boy caused Police-man Malloy to inquire what the trouble was.

"General Grant is choking to death," get a doctor," was the boy's response. Malloy turned in an ambulance call, but before the hospital surgeon reached the hotel both Doctors Abbe and Dench had been located and were at the bedside.

End Came Suddenly.

To newspaper men who reached the Buckingham shortly after midnight, efforts were made by the attendants to deny that General Grant was at the hotel. Doctors Abbe and Dench sent down to the hotel management a statement in which they said: "General Grant died suddenly of heart failure without premonition, at midnight. He had retired at 11 o'clock, apparently in better condition than for several weeks. Since his recent trip, his condition had given no special anxiety to his physician. General Grant had been suffering from diabetes and the attendant digestive disturbances, which seemed, however, to be perfectly under control. This sudden fatal termination came as a great surprise."

Relatives Notified.

Lieutenant Marion Howse, principal aid to the general, announced this morning that Mrs. Grant was bearing the shock with fortitude. She directed and messages be sent to General Grant's son, Captain Ulysses S. Grant, III, of the engineering corps in Washington, and to his daughter, the Princess Cantacuzene, as well as to other relatives.

May Rest in Riverside Mausoleum.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Captain U. S. Grant, III, the only son of the late General Fred D. Grant, did not learn of his father's death in New York until today. He was overcome and took the first train to New York. No one here could make an authoritative statement as to the funeral, nor was it known whether the body would be buried in Arlington cemetery. It was suggested the body might be placed in the tomb where his illustrious father lies in the great memorial in Riverside Park, New York.

General Carter to Succeed Gen. Grant.

Having been an officer of the highest rank on the active list, in the army the late General Grant will be entitled to an imposing military funeral, if such is the desire of the family. General Grant's death vacates the post which, next to that of chief-of-staff, is regarded as the most important in the army, Commander-in-Chief of the great Eastern Division. It is of such importance that it cannot long be permitted to remain vacant, hence it is probable that soon after the funeral it will be necessary to detail an officer of high rank for the position, probably Major General William H. Carter, now Assistant Chief of Staff. General Carter was the commander of the famous maneuver division in Texas last year and has been slated for detail as Commander-in-Chief of the Department of the Lakes.

CUBA GREETES SECY KNOX

Welcome Was Not Hysterical But Was Friendly and Visibly Sincere

NO BOMBS UNDER TRACKS

United States Official Issues Warning to Warring Island Factions.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
Havana, April 12.—Papers here today devote much space to the visit of Secretary Knox. All make a feature of his speech which is described as "another warning to Cuba," however, the interpretation is made on party lines. The government papers say Mr. Knox warned factions to unite in support of the government. The opposition papers say Mr. Knox's reference to those who make a business of politics was intended for those who sat nearest him at the table.

The Post, a government paper, says: "Mr. Knox made a left-handed, but none the less pregnant declaration of what, in his opinion, Cuba must do to be saved. Sifted down to a sentence the secretary of state declared the people and not the politicians must rule."

Most of his remarks were of the complimentary nature which are supposed to be especially pleasant for Latin-American consumption. Only when his remarks turned to political conditions and civic necessities, in countries whose people have been liberated from oppressive tyranny did they savor of criticism.

Knox Warns Cuban Politicians.

Then, indeed, his hearers pricked up their ears and looked at each other significantly. He touched on Cuba only by intimation, but the intimation was so strong that it could not be misunderstood.

The Post explains the failure of the cruiser Washington to salute the mayor of Havana as an oversight. An editorial article in the Post says: "Secretary Knox and his party did not find ranking officials of the government to welcome them, although formalities were carefully observed. In fact, Cuba acted in a perfectly normal way, rendering only due honor to the visiting statesman. It was not hysterical and there were no meaningless demonstrations. Neither were there any bombs beneath the railroad track."

Cuba's Sincere Greeting.

"In the reception of Mr. Knox, Cuba is not in competition with other countries, is not supplicant for either royal or republican favor, and is content in the assurance of President Taft, reiterated by Secretary Knox, that the intentions of the United States are only those of a benevolent protector ready to issue a friendly warning when danger threatens and by kind counsel to maintain the independence of a nation of its own creation. There is no occasion for intervention and no excuse of pretext for annexation."

Nothing Can Weaken Friendship.

The most cordial greeting received by the secretary was from the Veterans' Association, whose recent agitation drew from Mr. Knox a note of warning. The association published a statement saying "nothing can weaken the loyal and sincere affection that the people of Cuba feel for those who came to their aid in an hour of need and dire distress."

The newspapers say three or four anarchists are reported to have landed recently and that Mr. Knox is closely guarded by secret service men. If that is so, the guard is not conspicuous. Mr. Knox will start on the return journey to the United States tomorrow night.

WOOL FREIGHT RATES REDUCED

Radical Change by Interstate Commerce Commission is Announced

WERE UNREASONABLY HIGH

Railroads Must Carry Bales for Less Than Sacks and Re-Classify Tariffs

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—Radical reductions in freight rates on wool transported from western points of origin to eastern destinations were discussed today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The commission held existing rates were unreasonably high; that the blanket system of making rates should be discontinued and graded rates established; that the rates on wool in bales should be about 15 per cent lower than those on wool, in sacks, and there should be a readjustment of the classification to the advantage of the shippers. The carriers will be expected to conform to the commission's suggestions by May 1. If by that date they have not complied a definite order will be issued.

SANTA FE BOY TO PHILIPPINES

Joseph Creamer Given Lieutenant's Commission in Constabulary

WILL SAIL ON MAY 12

Judge Richardson, to Be Commencement Orator at Military Institute.

Roswell, N. M., April 12.—Two members of this year's graduating class at the New Mexico Military Institute expect to sail for the Philippine Islands May 12th. The government has made special inducements to the graduates of New Mexico's "Distinguished Institution." These inducements have been so urgent that the faculty has decided to permit leave of absence before graduation in order that Cadets Creamer of Santa Fe, and Merrill might accept commissions as lieutenants in the Philippine Constabulary. Several other graduates were offered similar places, but for various reasons declined to accept. The Constabulary service is excellent for young men. They start in at a salary of more than $1200 a year, together with quarters and certain privileges, which is considered especially good for young men just completing their college course. It offers them a splendid opportunity of studying conditions in the Philippine Islands and of gaining valuable experience.

Commencement Orator.
The commencement exercises for 1912 will be held from May 19th to 22nd. Judge Granville A. Richardson of Roswell is to deliver the commencement address. Governor McDonald and staff have been invited to participate in the commencement.

Annual Inspection.

The annual inspection of the New Mexico Military Institute, which is made this year by Captain Simmons, general staff, will take place Tuesday, April 16th. The battalion is in excellent condition and has every reason to expect a retention of the government honors which for the past three years has placed the New Mexico Military Institute among the first military schools of the United States. This record is to be maintained. It was maintained before New Mexico was a state, and now under local government, it expects to advance more rapidly than ever before.

Many Improvements.
Many plans are being made for the coming session. The school is being improved in all respects; buildings are to be erected, new courses added. The outlook for the coming session is especially bright; many inquiries are pouring in from all parts of the country, asking for information and reservations.

A Successful Year.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the Institute. The work has been excellent from start to finish. The health of the cadet corps has been excellent, the general discipline good, and the appearance of cadets on parade surpasses that of all former years. The enrollment surpasses that of last year, and the personnel of the student body is the best in years.

Fourteen Seniors.

This year's graduating class is composed of fourteen young men. Two are arranging to go to the Philippines two to the United States army, several will go to the leading universities in order to complete their education, and others will accept business engagements. Graduates from the New Mexico Military Institute are always in demand. Corporations, as well as managers of business firms, desire young men who have had military training, who are self-reliant, and who understand the necessity of discipline.

ARIZONA WILL COMPETE WITH PRIVATE ENTERPRISES.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexico.)
Phoenix, Arizona, April 12.—A bill authorizing the state to engage in all kinds of industrial pursuit, in competition with private capital, was passed by the lower house of the Arizona legislature today by a vote of 21 to 14. The Senate, sitting as a committee of the whole, began the consideration of a series of bills. Among the most important was a measure providing for a system of revenue taxation, fixing property valuations on the so-called intangible assets such as franchises.

OF NEW MEXICO.
New York, N. Y., April 12.—At the concluding session of the Episcopal House of Bishops, held in the Synod of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the Rev. George H. H. Page, formerly of New Jersey, was elected Bishop of South Dakota and the Rev. Herman Page, of Chicago, was elected Bishop of New Mexico.

Since 1900 the Rev. Herman Page has been rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church here. He was formerly at Fall River, Mass., and prior to that had charge at Wallace, Idaho. He was educated at Harvard University and Cambridge Theological Seminary. He has a wife and one son.

STATES THE TRUTH

Richmond Hill, L. 1.—Albert Porter, who has lived here for some time believes that when a man in bad health finds something that is good the facts should be known.

He says: "All winter I had a bad cold and a cough which I could not get rid of I was badly run down besides. A short time ago I started using Vinol and my cough is gone now and I feel well in every way. This shows what Vinol will do for anyone in that condition and I strongly recommend it to everyone."

The reason, Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, cured Mr. Porter is because it went directly to the seat of the trouble which was his weakened, rundown condition. Its curative, blood-enriching and strengthening properties built up his health and his cough disappeared as a natural result.

We guarantee that Vinol will do all we claim, and will pay back your money if Vinol does not satisfy you. The Capital Pharmacy, Santa Fe, N. M.

The merry clatter o'er the plastic clay
Are blended with evening's monotone.

The wearied sun dropped down the flaming west.
So from his level roof-top stately chimed
The Keres brave in gaudy blanket dressed.

To sit him down before his humble fire,
And sup from earthen bowl the meat and corn.
Then on his narrow sheep-skin couch retire

To care-free, child-like slumber till the dawn.
Long years ago a brave Franciscan friar
Within the plaza met his awful doom.

Now all is peace; pale glimmers the last fire—
In shapes grotesque the darkling chimneys loom.
But hark! A hooting owl the silence breaks
A lone coyote trails his human cry.
On terraced roofs the quiet stars look down—
And soft the Rio Grande murmurs by.

CALAMITY HOWLERS RAISE WHEAT PRICES.

Rumored Dry Weather and Ill Condition of Fields Were Excuses Given.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican) Chicago, Ill., April 12.—Assertions that dry weather will mean a scanty crop in Illinois made the wheat market today take a new upward turn. Statements were received that the vegetation had a thin appearance and that the fields were dry and solid. It was predicted frequent showers would be needed to keep the soil from baking. In consequence, commission house buying grew rapidly and carried prices higher. The opening was 14¢@38¢ cents to 5-8 up July started at 101 to 101 5-8, a gain of a shade to 5-8¢@34¢ touched 100 7-8, and then rose to .02 1-2@5-8¢.

Despite profit taking by longs, corn advanced with wheat. Trade, however, was not broad. July opened 1-8¢ lower to a like amount up at 76 7-8 to 77 1-8¢ and ascended to 77 3-8 3-4. The close was firm at 103 7-8@104, a net advance of 3¢. Offerings of oats were moderate. The cereal quickly swung into the advance led by wheat and corn. July 1-16 to 1-14¢@3-8¢ higher at 53 3-8 to 53 5-8, and climbed to 53 7-8. The close was firm with July 7-8¢ up at 77 7-8¢.

Provisions gathered strength from firm quotation at the yards. Initial transactions showed a lift 21-2 to 7 1-2 with September quotations 1990 to 1792 1-2 10 27 1-2; for lard and 10 07 1-2 for ribs.

She met Redeloff by appointment. He angered her and she fired five shots at him, meaning raising her own voice so that his cries for help might not be heard. Several days later she returned to Gary, where she was arrested last Wednesday.

TOO MUCH STARCH. A Food Problem.

An Asheville man tells how right food did that which medicines had failed to accomplish:

"For more than 15 years," he says, "I was afflicted with stomach trouble and intestinal indigestion, gas forming in stomach and bowels and giving me great distress. These conditions were undoubtedly due to the starch food I ate, white bread, potatoes, etc., and didn't digest. I grew worse with time, till, 2 years ago, I had an attack which the doctor diagnosed as appendicitis. When the surgeon operated on me, however, it was found that my trouble was ulcer of the pancreas, instead of appendicitis.

"Since that time I have had several such attacks, suffering greatly. The last attack was about 3 months ago, and I endured untold agonies.

"The doctor then said that I would have to eat less starchy stuff, so I began the use of Grape-Nuts food for I knew it to be pre-digested, and have continued same with most gratifying results. It has built me up wonderfully. I gained 10 pounds in the first 8 weeks that I used Grape-Nuts; my general health is better than ever before; my brain is clearer and my nerves stronger.

CASCARETS CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

No Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Coated Tongue or Constipation.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give you a thorough cleaning inside and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your drug gist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleaning, too.

United States Atlantic fleet last year has been determined upon by the German admiralty. It will include the protected cruiser Moltke, Captain Ritter Von Mann Edler Von Tiechler; the protected cruiser Stettin, Captain Von Krosigk, and the protected cruiser Bremen, Captain Seeborn. The rear admiral who is to be in command of the division has not yet been selected.

The warships will sail probably early in May and return to Germany in June. The officers include Lieutenant Prince Henry of Reuss, and Lieutenant Prince Christian of Hessen-Philippsthal-Barsfeld. Franz Albert of Prussia, the son of the emperor, will not go to America.

Still Predicting Snow.—For several days, the snow predicted by the Weather Bureau has failed to reach Santa Fe, but Director Linney keeps on predicting snow and colder weather for northern New Mexico. Yesterday, the maximum temperature was 59 degrees. The minimum last night was 38 degrees. The relative humidity was down to 20 per cent last evening.

GOOD WORK.

Done Daily in Santa Fe, Many Citizens Tell of it.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Santa Fe still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

Alberta Garcia, Galisteo St., Santa Fe, New Mexico, says: "I deem it a pleasure to corroborate the public statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills about seven years ago. I found them to be an excellent remedy and I have never hesitated to vouch for their merit when an opportunity has been presented. For two years I was in bad shape from backache and kidney trouble and when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice, I resolved to try them. I procured a box and they not only drove away backache, but regulated the passages of the kidney secretions and toned up my entire system."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The new Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the State, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

THE BOSSES.

It is a popular thing for the demagogue to denounce the bosses, the gang, the organization. Over in Democratic Chaves county, the Democratic Roswell Daily Record is denouncing the Democratic "bosses" for calling a convention instead of primaries, charging them with an attempt to force the election of a Champ Clark delegation, when the Record is quite certain in its own mind that the people want Woodrow Wilson.

In other counties, the Democratic press and those who are not getting what they want, are yelling at the top of their voices that the Democratic bosses are ruining the party. One hears the same cry all over the United States, not only in the Democratic camp, however, but also in the Republican camp, and even among the Socialists and Prohibitionists. Whenever a political victory is won, the rank and file forget that the victory was made possible by organization, by leadership; whenever a fight is lost, it is due to the bosses, the gang, the organization.

Not one man in a thousand gives any of his time or means towards the success of political principles; he lets the organization, the bosses, do it for him, but the moment that he stubs his toe or does not get the things he asks for as quickly as he wants them, or when his favorite party is defeated, he lays the blame on the men who have unselfishly given of their time, of their talents, of their means, so that certain principles in which they have faith, might triumph. This is human nature and yet, it is injustice.

Take a church organization, be it an individual church, or a great denomination like that of the Roman Catholics. Each has its cast iron discipline, its organization, its bosses, its salaried bosses—if you please. Without them, even so great and divine an institution, would suffer. Similarly, in the business world. The stockholders delegate supervision, direction, "bossing"—if you please again—to the directors, and give them rigid by-laws and ample powers under which to do it. Any other method would mean chaos and eventual ruin.

It is that way in a legislature, in every co-operative effort to secure results. It is the board of directors, the leaders, the "gang"—if you please, once more—that achieves the results.

Theodore Roosevelt, despite all of his prating about "the people must rule," has created an organization that is about as arbitrary as any that exists. Wilson, Clark, Taft, the Prohibitionists, the Socialists, each have their organization, which determines on policies, issues orders, and as these orders are carried out by the rank and file, in that measure comes growth and success eventually.

What nonsense, therefore, for loyal Democrats to rail at their organization in New Mexico, or for loyal Republicans to rail at their organization, denouncing them as "gangs" and the men who give time and brains and effort and even means without pay and unselfishly, as bosses, to whom must be attributed every ill, every mistake, every defeat that comes to one party or other.

The party, has named these men, it can depose them and put others in their place, through a majority vote, but when it has entrusted the men thus chosen with a task, which at its best is an ungrateful one, though for the common good, it should give those men undivided support, should remember that those leaders desire success just as much as does the rank and file, but that the leader must look at every phase of every political policy, while the individual voter is apt to view it only from his own, personal, selfish standpoint. Any fool can play to the galleries, by denouncing the bosses, the gang, but it is a very wise and brave man indeed, who can successfully lead to final victory through repeated defeats a loose party following that is under no discipline and acknowledges no party rule or law.

NEED OF DEMONSTRATION FARMS

The establishment of an experiment farm by the Santa Fe near Willard, is in line with the very practical work that was done last summer by the railroad in conjunction with the Agricultural College and the Bureau of Immigration. In fact, the New Mexican can conceive of no better method to encourage agriculture and development than a scientifically conducted demonstration farm. It is one of the needs of Santa Fe, to have a farm on which could be shown by actual results that the soil is fertile, that success can be had, both, by irrigating from wells and by scientific farming methods. Let it once be conclusively established that farming between Santa Fe and Lamy can be made a success, and the question of drawing homeseekers to settle on the lands would no longer be a difficult one. At present, the homeseeker and investor come and ask: "Show me your successful farms," but with the exception of a patch here and there, cultivated in a haphazard and crude manner, it is impossible to do so. The effect in the long run, can easily be foreseen. But given a successful demonstration farm, and the sentiment changes immediately, for it is the tendency of human nature to believe that, what one man has accomplished, another can accomplish too.

WOMEN ON NEW MEXICO BOARDS.

In view of the fact that the women of New Mexico have asked to be given a representative on each of the boards governing state institutions that have female students or inmates, the following from the Autobiography of Senator LaFollette in the American Magazine may be of interest:

"It has always seemed to me that women should play a larger part than they do in the greater housekeeping of the State. One of the factors in the improvement of conditions in Wisconsin has been the selection of able women for positions in the state service, particularly upon those boards having to do with the welfare of women. In my first message to the legislature, after I became governor, I recommended the appointment of a woman as a factory inspector and also that women should serve on the boards of University and Normal School regents, and on the very important board of control which has charge of all the charitable, penal and reformatory institutions of the State. At first, even in our own camp, there was some opposition to the appointment of women in the State service, a survival of the old political belief that the boys ought to have the places, and especially the places that carried good salaries, but that feeling has disappeared before the evidences of the high character of the services which these women have rendered."

Senator LaFollette then tells of the women he appointed and the marking they continued to make of their task. He continues: "They are women of tact and broad understanding, and unusually fitted for public work, each having served as president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, in which they have been, since its organization, recognized leaders."

But the New Mexico women do not ask for any salaries. It is quite certain, that if given one place on each board, that each female appointee will give more time and more thought to the welfare of the institution than the male members taken together. With men, an honorary position of that kind, is a side-issue, but to a woman it would be the all important task.

It will be remembered that it was Governor Otero who appointed Mrs. Jan Van Houten on the first board of trustees of the New Mexico Miners' Hospital at Raton; that it was the genius and unremitting work of Mrs. Van Houten that gave the State a hospital for miners that is a model, and cost the taxpayers less than many an institution of far less usefulness. Many other hospitals in New Mexico, including Saint Vincent's at Santa Fe, receiving aid from the state, are managed, and well managed, by boards of women. On such boards as the New Mexico Museum Auxiliary board, the women have been doing most effective work. The Woman's Board of Trade at Santa Fe, is held up all over the United States and beyond, as a model of concentrated and clean-cut efficiency. Today there are five county school superintendents in New Mexico who are women, and who are more than holding their own in their single-minded devotion to duty from which they permit no side issues to distract them.

Here then, is an opportunity for Governor McDonald to extend the precedents, to which he will point in later years with as much pride as does LaFollette to the similar precedents in his Autobiography. Let Governor McDonald, as a starter, name a woman on the board of the New Mexico Normal University at Las Vegas, in place of the name rejected by the Senate. Las Vegas has many women capable of filling the place with tact and ability. The New Mexican believes that the Senate would be swift to confirm the nomination, and that New Mexico would be proud to herald the fact abroad that its first state governor has thus suitably recognized the effective work that women have been doing, and are doing, to place the commonwealth in the front ranks of the states of the union.

FERTILE IDEAS.

The New Mexico Bureau of Immigration under Secretary H. B. Henning, has developed many fruitful advertising ideas that are bringing tangible results. The New Mexican's attention has just been drawn to the post card campaign that grew out of the successful Post Card Day inaugurated by the Bureau. The New Mexican is glad to lend its aid in getting the people of Santa Fe to take advantage of the post card campaign idea and will furnish any applicant with a supply of New Mexico Return Post Cards, upon application. It will cost nothing to slip one of these cards in each letter sent out, and still, by so doing it will help to place the advantages of New Mexico in general, and of Santa Fe in particular, before thousands of people. The card is addressed to the New Mexico Bureau of Immigration and the reverse side has six blank lines for names and addresses and a request that those receiving the card fill out the blank spaces with names of people who may be, or who might become, interested in the new state. Upon receipt of this card, the Bureau of Immigration sends a set of New Mexico booklets and a letter urging careful consideration of the opportunities presented. More than 10,000 names have been received upon such cards since last June and many people have been located through these inquiries, the principal fact, however, being that 10,000 people and their friends have learned more about New Mexico than they ever knew before.

Another big idea that the Bureau is following up, is that of inducing some of the Big League baseball teams to establish their winter and spring training quarters at some suitable point in New Mexico. Several of the teams have already fallen in with the idea and are asking for information about the climate, possible location, grounds, accommodations, etc. Santa Fe, of course, until it has a tourist hotel, can hardly make a bid for such a team, but there are places, especially in southern New Mexico, that could offer good locations. Several of the team managers have written that the bad weather in Georgia, Louisiana, Arkansas, Florida and eastern Texas, compels them to seek sunnier climes for their spring practice next year. Towns ambitious to shine in the head and date lines of all the sporting extras of the big city dailies, with the incidental good advertisement of climatic and other advantages, should write Secretary Henning and help him land for the State one or more of the big teams for the spring of next year.

If the steering committee of the House, stays by the ideals attributed to it by Speaker Bacon, and works for the interests of the people and not to further any personal ambition, it may be made the means of great usefulness, and may help to untangle the deadlock into which the legislature has worked itself. But if it is to be a bludgeon, a vehicle for the triumph of spite and selfish schemes, then it certainly must be regarded as a detriment. The next few weeks will tell how people and history are to judge it.

BROTHER AND SISTER MARRIED BY MISTAKE.

Divorce Followed Discovery and Children Were Given to Father and Brother.

(By Special Lensed Wire to New Mexican) Cincinnati, Ohio, April 12.—A strange story that resulted in John P. Ruch, Jr., aged 22 years, being divorced from his sister, Helen Hoffman Ruch, 24 years old, was related in the solvency court here today. The brother and sister were married October 25, 1910, neither at the time knowing of the blood relationship between them. The discovery of the relationship was disclosed a few weeks ago, and the action for a divorce followed.

It was explained to the court that the mistake had been possible because of the fact that the mother, for a private reason, had hidden from the children the fact that they were brother and sister, allowing them to believe that the girl was only an adopted child. The husband was given the custody of the couple's two children.

After "Tobacco Trust."

Washington, D. C., April 12.—The right of way in the Senate today was given to Senator Cummins of Iowa and Senator Pomerene of Ohio, the former to urge action on his bill permitting independent tobacco interests to intervene in the so-called tobacco trust re-organization and the latter to advocate his resolution directing the attorney general to begin criminal prosecutions against officers of the Standard Oil and American Tobacco Companies. It was expected both speeches would be delivered in the afternoon.

Senator Ashurst of Arizona offered an amendment to the Indian bill for an appropriation of $250,000 for education and school purposes for the Navajo Indians of Arizona.

Senator Smith Slapped Negro.

Washington, April 12.—Senator Mark Smith of Arizona will not stand for impudence. The newly sworn in member of "the greatest deliberative body on earth" became incensed at the conduct of a negro porter in the Ebbitt house and slapped his face. The occurrence grew in the gossip about town, until the report is current that Smith had a hot fist fight with the hotel employe and gave him a severe drubbing. This is denied by Smith and the hotel.

Arizona Postmasters.

President Taft sent the following names to the senate: Reuben S. Galusha as postmaster at Ashfork, and Louisa Ferrall, as postmaster at Grand Canyon, Arizona.

Morrison at Washington.

Robert E. Morrison arrived here from Arizona to give testimony in the Sloan case. Morrison is leading the Republican fight in Arizona against the confirmation of former Governor R. E. Sloan as judge of the federal court for Arizona. He has a small following in Arizona among the Republicans, but the Democrats are almost a unit in the fight against the governor because of his opposition to their so-called "progressive" measures, especially the recall of judges.

Judge E. W. Lewis, a former member of the supreme court, left Phoenix for Washington Monday evening to appear before the Senate judiciary committee on behalf of former Governor Sloan's candidacy for a federal judgeship. There is some talk here that in the event the Senate refuses Governor Sloan a confirmation, the appointment will go to Judge Edward M. Doe, of Flagstaff, Ariz. It is said that such an appointment would be regarded as a victory by the Democratic leaders of Arizona. There has also been some little talk of Judge Kent, who finished a nine years' judicial term in this territory with the admission of Arizona as a state. It is hardly supposable, however, that Kent would be acceptable to President Taft. He is one of the numerous Roosevelt Harvard classmates and was an appointee of the former President. Also, Judge Kent has recently come out in a letter in defense of Colonel Roosevelt's pet idea of the recall of judicial decisions, though he declares himself unalterably opposed to the recall of judges. Morrison may be named as a compromise candidate.

Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, has selected Elroy Irvine, of Phoenix, as a cadet to West Point. John Bennett, of Lassiter, Graham county, and John J. Bartholdi, of Prescott, are selected as alternates.

ANTHRACITE MINERS AND OPERATORS ARGUE.

(By Special Lensed Wire to New Mexican) Indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—Thousand of ballots cast by the union soft coal miners on whether they shall accept the two year wage scale proposed at Cleveland, were received today at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America. The tellers will begin the count Monday.

Two Sided Question.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 12.—The sub-committee of eight representing the miners and operators which are endeavoring to arrange a new wage arrangement for the anthracite mine workers, went into session again today. Several of the members said they expected it would be several days before they will be able to make a report. The eight hour day was discussed. It is understood no new arguments were presented by either side and the operators are not disposed to grant this demand. They argue it would lay idle for an additional hour all mine machinery while the workers argued the eight hour day was worked well in the bituminous regions and points out that under the nine hour day in the anthracite regions, more coal was being produced than when the men worked ten hours a day.

POLITICAL SITUATION EX-CUSE FOR POOR PRICES.

(By Special Lensed Wire to New Mexican) New York, N. Y., April 12.—Politics and the outcome of the vote of the locomotive engineers were the weapons employed to depress the stock market today. Heaviness of the first hour was followed by acute weakness in some cases before midday and other stocks established low prices for the week. The selling of Missouri Pacific, which appeared to be of a liquidating character was associated with the increased heaviness of Colorado Fuel, these two having an identity of influential interest. Hill issues felt the force of the movement, which continued to center around Union Pacific and United States Steel, the latter losing 1 1/8 and Union Pacific lost a point.

Bonds were steady.

The market closed weak. The persistent selling of Union Pacific was an unfavorable influence elsewhere. Southern Pacific, American Smelting, St. Paul, Amalgamated Copper, American Sugar and American Tobacco declined from one to over two points below yesterday with increased activity as prices yielded.

$7,000,000 MADE BY COLO. RADO FRUIT GROWERS.

(By Special Lensed Wire to New Mexican) Denver, Colo., April 12.—Fruit grown in Colorado this year will net the producers $7,000,000, two million more than last year, according to an estimate of Albert Mauff, secretary of the State Board of Horticulture today.

DR. SUN YAT SEN TO SUCCEED YUAN SHI KAI.

New Troops Mutinied at Nanking but Were Soon Surrounded and Subdued.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
San Francisco, Calif., April 12.—Dr.
Sun Yat Sen soon will succeed Yuan
Shi Kai, as president of the Chinese republic, according to L. Bergholz, United States consul at Canton, who is enroute to New York to spend his vacation at his home. He said that White Yuan was acceptable to the Chinese North of the Yangtze River, the South was loyal to Dr. Sun, and since he also was popular in the North, it was certain he would head the government before long. The consul's view of Chinese affairs bears out the belief expressed in the Chinese quarter here that the withdrawal of Dr. Sun in favor of the former premier as provisional president, was only a political move to pacify Manchu adherents.

Dr. Sun's supporters here were alarmed at first when his resignation was announced, but soon accepted the elevation of Yuan Shi Kai as a peace measure.

ed the mutineers, whom they subdued.
No foreigners were injured during the rioting.

$5,000 BRIBE OFFERED TO OVERTHROW GOVERNMENT.
Doesn't Take Much Money to Start
Revolution in Guatemala It Seems.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Los Angeles, Calif., April 12.—That men were being recruited in Los Angeles for service against President Caba-cera of Guatemala was the statement made yesterday by Colonel Alexis de
Clairmont, aide to the Guatemalan
President who stated that he was here investigating an alleged conspiracy to oust Cabaera.

Colonel S. Clairmont said that he knew the details of the plot to overthrow the present government of Guatemala, and that he had been offered an important office and bribe of $5,000 as an inducement to join the conspirators.

PRESIDENT TAFT IS SURE OF RE-ELECTION.
Opposition to Executive is Based on
Appeals to Passion, Brother
Says.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—C. P.
Taft, of Cincinnati, a brother of the President, who was a guest at the White House today gave out the following statement: "President Taft is absolutely certain of re-nomination and of re-election. Democrats everywhere admit that he is the only man they fear next November. If the attacks upon him were based upon facts of his administration or upon his conduct in office, it might be different, but it must be borne in mind that the only real opposition to him is founded on prejudice and appeals to passion, the most dangerous things to the future of this country since the Civil War.

WHEN THEY WENT BACK HOME

Humorist Records Some Surprises That Attended the Occasion of Popular Celebration.

During a recent Old Home Week in an up-state village the following "never-will-amount-to-anthings" were in attendance:

John Wilson Clarke, who was always too lazy to do the chores, came up from New York in his big seven-passenger car. On account of pressing work he could stay but a few hours.

Ex-Gov. Silby Kirkwood, who was naturally thick-headed and half-baked in his youth, stopped over in his private car to see his old home.

Dr. Willus G. Dyer, one of the best-known surgeons in the country, called the town fool when a boy, dropped in and left enough money for a town library.

Miss Caroline Jensen Atwood, too stupid to learn in the old red school-house, now a popular authoress and playwright visited her relatives.

Charlie Druke, the spendthrift, shut up his Wall street office long enough to attend.

One of the most noticeable features of the whole celebration was the absence of the men and women who gave much promise of originality and worth during their youth.

Lack of memory in their old age accounts for the fact that not one of the old fogies present ever said anything but good of anybody, including the successful boys present—Don. Cameron Shafer in Judge.

DICKENS FITTED FOR STAGE

Kate Field, Excellent Judge of Character, Confident He Might Have Been Great Actor.

No one ever paid a much higher tribute to Dickens than did Kate Field. She had the soul of a poet, a discriminating taste in art and literature and wide knowledge of the world. In mentality she was fully as strong as either of her brilliant brothers, David, Dudley, Stephen J. or Cyrus W., and she certainly was as good if not a better judge of character.

She once wrote an appreciation of Dickens in which she declared the world lost its greatest actor when Boz became a writer. She gave a description of one of Dickens readings that was masterly in its vividness of detail. Such versatility as she credited Dickens with displaying as he assumed the character of first one and then another of his creations, the pithy, the humor, the tragedy he put into a tone; the marvelous way in which he stirred the emotions of old and young in his audience, would appear to be a bit extravagant were it not that now and then in later years some old man, looked upon with stern and unemotional, told with faltering voice how he stood in line all one night to buy a ticket to one of Boz' readings, and then went on to talk just about as Miss Field wrote, only before he got as far along in his story the tears were running down his wrinkled cheeks—his old heart strings still attune to the magic of The Master.

Difference in Icebergs.

No two icebergs appear to be exactly alike in size and shape. Some look, for all the world, like Arabs' tents as they glide along, and others like cliffs, castles, cathedrals, yachts, and occasionally they resemble some well known animal. Some of the pinnacles of a large berg rise nearly 1,000 feet above the water, while the base may occupy an area of ten or twelve acres. Seen through a powerful glass, one may detect waterfalls upon these islands of ice, and all kinds of arctic birds, and perhaps a few seals.

Then the colors are almost beyond description. The stately pinnacles glisten in the sun like powdered glass. At times the berg is pure white, at others it looks greenish.—From Harold J. Shepherson's "Icebergs" in St. Nicholas.

"Liked to Be Gulled."

Sir William Gull, the well-known London physician, was once the victim of an amusing piece of repartee on the part of a fellow practitioner. The occasion was a dinner party at which several distinguished medical men were present. The conversation happened to turn upon the subject of quackery, and Sir William Gull expressed his conviction that a certain amount of it was essential to success in practice, adding: "It is an example of the old saying, 'Populus vult decipi' (people like to be deceived). 'Quite so,' said the host; 'now, can any one present give an English equivalent to that?' 'Nothing easier,' dryly remarked a well-known physician of one of the Manchester hospitals. 'The public liked to be gulled.'"

Prosaic "Ghost."

Thinking they had seen a "ghost," a number of Dundee (Scotland) townfolk, while walking through the cemetery recently, took to their heels and summoned the nearest gatekeeper. The "vision" which had aroused their alarm—that of a figure in scanty attire standing behind a gravestone, had vanished when they returned with reinforcements, and all there was to be seen was a large piece of red flannel. It afterwards transpired that the owner being greatly irritated by the flannel, which was next the skin, had gone to the cemetery with the idea of getting rid of it, which he could not do without shedding his garments.

Precautions to Follow.

You can hardly put a sentence on any advertising space without rapidly hearing from it. Of course it is understood that you have something to offer that is not only valuable, but something that is needed. The merchant must select his goods to fit his market. He must not take fur overcoats and woolen blankets to towns in the torrid zone, or garden seeds and fans to the arctic circle. Observing, therefore, these common sense precautions, his way and success are clear.

HER LUCK NOT ALL DESERVED

Printed Prayer Responsible for Return of Pocketbook Only There by Accident.

She had been paying visits most of the afternoon, and on reaching home and putting away her wraps she discovered that her cardcase was missing. In it had been a dollar or two, her cards and a certified check for $200, which she had intended to deposit, but had been too late for her bank.

"Heavens," she exclaimed, "shall I ever see it again?" and sat down in her despair to think over everywhere she had been and might have left it. Suddenly the telephone bell rang.

"Are you Miss Blank, and have you lost anything?" inquired the person at the other end.

"Yes; I have just discovered the loss of my cardcase."

"What was in it?" said the voice.

"My cards, some money, a certified check for $200, and, oh, yes! a little prayer on a slip of paper. Did you see that?"

"Yes," said the voice; "I picked the case up. And just let me tell you that it was that prayer that has brought your property back to you."

The cardcase owner heaved a sigh of relief and thought how lucky it was for her that a Catholic friend had slipped the little printed prayer into her cardcase last summer.

PROBLEM FOR THE SCIENTIST

How May the Energy of the Sun, at Present Largely Wasted, Be Utilized to Advantage?

The enormous energy which is constantly poured out by the sun is almost past the comprehension of the lay mind.

Measurements have shown that on a clear sunny day the sun transmitted to the earth energy which corresponded to about 7,000-horsepower per acre. At present all that is practically wasted. Attempts have from time to time been made to utilize this enormous supply of energy, but not with any great measure of success. If people only knew how to harness it they could, at the expense of lowering the temperature of the earth by a degree or so, obtain all the power necessary to perform the work of the world. Only about three-fifths of the energy sent to the earth from the sun is appreciable to the eye as light. If the sun were twice as hot as it is, four-fifths would be appreciable in that way, and if it were still hotter the whole of the energy would affect the eye as light. Radiant energy is not heat, that is, the energy of the sun does not reach the earth in the form of heat. It is not heat at all until it falls on bodies whose temperature can be raised. It might rather be called electricity; in fact, it is a form of electricity, for all the methods used to detect and measure radiant energy depend upon absorbing it and transforming it into heat.

Loans of Honor.

Tip never had a mite of patience with the fellow who looks with such reverence on a debt of honor. As a rule the debt of honor chap doesn't fret a bit about balking his grocer. But an experiment with "loans of honor"—put in the right places—has shown the average person is honest. Several years ago public spirited men "got together" at Lyons and formed what they called a Loan and Honor society. The purpose was to furnish money to clerks, laborers and apparently to any poor and needy persons. No other security than the borrower's word was asked. In 1910-11 money was lent to 384 individuals. Sixty-eight of these were women. All but twenty-seven of the borrowers were married. Sickness made 119 of the loans necessary; loss of work, 83; previous debts, 84, and starting housekeeping, 27. The sums borrowed varied from $5 to $50. During its several years of existence the society has lost only $200. Yes, the average person is not a thief.—New York Press.

"Solid Gold."

Commercially speaking, the term "solid gold" is a misnomer, since such gold has not been used for many, many years. Some of the ancient Roman jewelry and some of that of the Renaissance period was, indeed, made of pure gold, worked up by hand with the crudest of tools, but since the old days there has been a constantly increasing employment of alloys, for the reason that jewelers found that the harder the gold was rendered by good alloys the greater its wearing qualities and the more secure, therefore, was the setting of the gems it contained. Nowadays jewelry is of 18, 14 or 10 carats, according to the design and character of the article, and it is much more frequently ten than eighteen carats.

Youthful Musical Genius.

Rennes, a sleepy Brittany town, which is known in contemporary history chiefly because the second Dreyfus court-martial was held there, has recently discovered in its midst a musical prodigy. A local professor vouches for this discovery. Young Rene Guillou is aged seven. He is not only a virtuoso on the piano; he is also a composer. He possesses ear to a remarkable degree, and distinguishes every note in symphonic music. According to the master, he hears music inwardly. He composes for voices and instruments without making use of any instrument whatever, writing down melody and accompaniment on to the paper.

MARY.

Mary had a cud of gum. And didn't care a blink. A massive, generous gob—She chewed it at the office, And Mary kept her job. But Mary kept the cud of gum—She loved the gum, you know! She chewed it Sunday evening, And Mary lost her bean. Still, Mary kept on chewing. And didn't care a blink. That's why it wasn't long before She drove her dad to drink. Her way and success are clear.

It is good to live! If but to dream That even in a city street, Above the highest building's top, God's answer and my prayer will meet.

If but to see amid the crowd Two comrades meet and greeting give; A face the lovelight glories; A laughing child—'tis good to live! —Maude Hartwell.

WAYS OF USING MUTTON.

In small places during the cold weather mutton is hard to buy; but a few recipes will be useful when the meat is more plentiful.

Shepherd Pie.—Take a pound of cold mutton, a pint of cold boiled potatoes, one-half an onion grated, one or two cooked carrots; cut the mutton and potatoes into small pieces and put them with the onion and carrot into a deep baking dish. Add a cupful of stock or water, salt, pepper and a tablespoonful of butter cut in bits.

Pare and boil four medium-sized potatoes, mash and add cup of cream, salt and pepper to taste, beat until light, then add enough flour to make a soft dough; roll out and cover the dish with the dough, make a cross cut in the center to allow the steam to escape, and bake in a moderate oven one hour.

A modern shepherd's pie is made like the above with the addition of a few capers and a stalk or two of celery.

Barbecued Mutton.—Make a sauce by melting two tablespoonfuls of butter; to this add the juice of half a lemon, a quarter of a glass of currant jelly, one-quarter of a teaspoon of prepared mustard, one-half teaspoonful of salt, pepper to taste and a bit of grated orange peel. Reheat slices of mutton in this sauce and serve hot. Do not cook after getting hot or it will toughen the meat.

Mutton Left-Over.—Mix together the following ingredients: Two cups of cooked macaroni, three cups of cold cooked mutton, one-half cup of strained tomato, one teaspoonful of curry powder, one egg, one and a half tablespoonfuls of butter, salt and pepper to taste. Butter a deep pie plate or baking dish, make a mound of the mixture and cover thickly with crumbs, well buttered; cover the pan and cook twenty minutes, then uncover and brown. Remove to a hot platter and garnish with sprigs of parsley.

Croquettes are fine made from mutton, using curry for flavoring or a little tabasco and Worcestershire sauce.

HERE are two stones we may not dare to cast. The stone of stumbling in our brother's way. The stone of judgment at our brother's past. We, who ourselves like sheep have gone astray. —Hamilton.

PRACTICAL POINTS.

During the extremely cold weather if the clothes pins are put into a dripping pan and heated hot, the hanging out of the clothes will be made much more comfortable. Do not carry out a full basket, or all the pins. A second trip will more than pay by the comfort.

Always wrap linen that is to lay any length of time, in blue paper. It will keep it from turning yellow.

Hair brushes, if carefully washed in hot soda water and quickly dried, will keep their freshness for years.

A good housekeeper says if we will stir a tablespoonful of vinegar into the lard in which fritters, doughnuts or potatoes are fried, they will not soak fat.

A teaspoonful of salt or a small piece of gum camphor added to the oil in a lamp is said to improve the light, always providing the burner is kept clean.

To lessen the labor of ironing table linens, if they are wrung by hand the wrinkles are not so firmly set and will dry smooth.

Eat apples. They are a tonic and an appetizer. They are rich in flavors and a valuable food adjunct.

If one would have a good complexion, it is necessary to have plenty of fresh air while sleeping and plenty of work to keep the mind busy. The only wrinkles then will be those made from laughter, and those are considered beautiful.

Winter or summer one window in the sleeping room should be kept open, day and night.

One person can exhaust all the air in an ordinary bedroom in an hour. A well-ventilated bedroom and the sleeper's head entirely covered with the bedclothes is no better than sleeping with a closed window.

Don't worry about taking cold. Fresh air is one of the best preventives.

Nellie Maxwell.

Telephones and Ear Troubles.

The ear troubles of telephone users are attributed by Dr. Foster of Charlestonburg to the sharp cracking and other intermittent distracting noises, and not to any electrical or electromagnetic action. The elimination of these sounds is a problem for the telephone engineer. Herr Bahr of Charlestonburg has attempted a solution, and claims improvement by substituting for the iron diaphragm one of mica attached to an iron disc.

Govern the lips As they were palace doors, the king within. —Ibid.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

Try a cream of soup with a cup of grated cheese added just before serving. Such a soup is sufficiently nourishing, with a little bread, for a well balanced meal.

Parsnips make a good soup if carefully made, adding a cup of the pulp put through a sieve to a cream or milk soup.

A most attractive salad is one prepared with cherry hearts cut crosswise, tips of blanched asparagus and a few strips of carotid red pepper (pimentos). Serve with French dressing on lettuce leaves.

Nut Muffins.—Mix and sift together one and a half cups of flour, a teaspoonful of salt and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a tablespoonful of sugar. Beat until light one egg, add three-fourths of a cup of milk and stir into the flour mixture. Beat well, then add a half cup of broken walnut meats and three tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Fill buttered muffin pans two-thirds full and bake.

A new way of keeping bread and cake fresh is to use a wet sponge in the box. Lay the sponge in a saucer so that it will not come in contact with the bread.

German Almond Cookies.—Beat the yolks of six eggs until lemon colored; add a cup and a half of sugar beaten to a cream with three-fourths of a cup of softened butter. Add a cup of blanched and chopped almonds, a tablespoonful of cinnamon and three cups of flour. Beat hard and drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet, putting an almond on the top of each cake. Bake in a moderate oven.

Baked Corn With Minced Meat.—Take two cups of corn, add a cup of minced meat, chicken or any that is at hand, add a half cup of milk, an egg well beaten, salt and pepper and cover with bread crumbs, and bake.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE.

A most delicious tapioca pudding is made with canned peaches for an accompaniment.

A few prunes or cherries are an addition to a tapioca pudding.

When making pastry, handle with as little moisture as possible; the more crumbly it is the more flaky it will be.

When putting on the top crust, just after rolling out, spread it with lard and sprinkle with flour and pat it in, then sprinkle with cold water just before putting into the oven. It will puff up and be very much flakier than usual.

In rheumatism the great remedy is elimination, getting rid of the poisons which go back into the system and should be thrown off.

Put five or six sheets of paper in the bottom of a fruit cake pan before baking the cake, and it will be much nicer, as the long baking tends to make a hard crust, which is not allowed to form with the paper as a protection.

A most appetizing dish to be served either for supper or luncheon is potatoes and bacon. Put a layer or two of thinly-sliced potatoes in a buttered bakish dish and pour over a thin white sauce or simply milk with a little seasoning of salt, pepper and butter. Lay over the top a few slices of nice bacon and set into the oven to bake for an hour or longer, depending upon the thickness of the potatoes. Serve from the dish, as it looks almost as good as it tastes.

Whole wheat right from the granary, which can be bought for two cents a pound, if cooked until soft and the grains well cracked, makes an ideal breakfast food for a growing child, or in fact anybody, for with cream and a bit of sugar is a meal in itself. Children should not be allowed much sugar on breakfast foods; none is better for most children, and if they never have it they will not miss it. Soak the wheat after bruising it, if desired to crack the grains, then put it on to cook for a half a day. A fireless cooker is a fine place to cook whole wheat.

A hundred calorie portion of puffed wheat, for which we pay a cent and a quarter, has no more nutriment in it than the same amount of whole wheat, which costs a sixth of a cent.

Home-Grown Seed Corn Best.

Corn, more than almost any other plant, becomes adapted to particular local conditions, and experiments have proven quite conclusively that home-grown seed corn will almost always outyield that brought from a distance.

Hens Tire of Corn.

While hens are greedy for corn, especially when it is only fed to them occasionally, it is a grain that they quickly tire of when regularly placed before them.

Advertising Talks

PRESS BEST TO REACH PEOPLE

Big Corporations Have Learned That Erecting Big Buildings Is Not Profitable Advertising.

Many attempts have been made to invent methods of advertising that will be superior to the ordinary mediums like the newspapers, magazines, street cars and billboards. In the search for novelty hundreds of schemes have been devised, and although some have been effective to a degree a majority have been absolute failures.

A fine building is regarded as a good advertisement of a business, just as good clothes produce a favorable impression upon those with whom the wearer comes in contact. The observer who sees it regards it as an evidence of prosperity and responsibility. The Equitable Assurance Association's building, recently destroyed by fire; the Singer and Metropolitan towers, the tallest office structures in the world, were erected not so much for these several institutions as to provide striking and impressive advertisements.

Immense buildings like these rarely produce a sufficient amount of revenue to pay even a small interest on their cost. When there is a deficit it is charged, as likely as not, to the advertising account. The question that is sometimes considered in board meetings is, "Is it worth the price?" and the usual conclusion is that it is not. It is reported that the Equitable, which at one time had plans prepared for a skyscraper that should overtop all others and which would cost from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000, has abandoned the project.

The success of insurance companies depends upon the amount of policies they can write during the year, and the Singer company relies upon its sales of sewing machines to furnish dividends for its stockholders. Have the buildings erected by these companies materially increased the business of either one? We doubt it, says the Editor and Publisher. In order to sell anything to the public you must present it to public either through your salesmen or through the newspapers or magazines, a description of what you have to sell. Palatial and artistically constructed buildings cannot take the place of real, persuasive advertising in popular mediums.

Therefore, how much better off all three of the great companies mentioned above would be today if they had taken the millions they have spent in erecting colossal office buildings and spent them in acquainting every man and woman in the country through popular and effective advertising mediums with what they have to sell.

Newspapers penetrate every city and hamlet in the United States. They are read because the people depend upon them for the news of the neighborhood, state or nation. They are thrilling with life. They bring messages of cheer to the shut-ins, they broaden the horizon of those who live in isolated communities, they reach the homes of all who have money to spend. If any one has a message of any kind to deliver he can find no better or quicker way of delivering it to the whole people than through the newspapers.

RUSE OF ANIMALS AND BIRDS

Naturalist Searching for Eggs of the "Dunlin" in Siberia Is Cleverly Misled by Female.

The game of cheating the sportsman by pretending to be dead is played by many animals. Akin to it is the pretense of the partridge that her leg or wing has been broken, by which device she entices the intruder to pursue her, and thus secures time for her young brood to take cover under leaves and ferns.

A naturalist had been searching for the eggs of the little dunlin in Siberia, and came upon a nest. The bird quietly slipped off and began to walk around the man, now and then pecking on the ground, as if feeding; seldom going more than six feet from him, and often approaching within eighteen inches. The tameness of the bird was almost ludicrous. She seemed so extremely tame that the man almost thought for the moment that he could catch her, and, getting on all fours, he crept quietly toward her. As soon as he began to move from the nest the bird's manner entirely changed. She shuffled along the ground as if lame. She dropped her wings, as if unable to fly, and occasionally rested on her breast with drooping wings as if dying. Finally, when she eluded him and darted into the undergrowth, he found that he had lost the location of the nest.—Harper's Weekly.

Value of Good Teeth.

The principal of a school in Cleveland, Ohio, has reported marked improvement in the children who are under observation to prove that there is a relation between the teeth and the mind, and that having poor teeth not only makes for sickness of the body, but affects the mind as well. Of nearly forty children taking the test, it was found that only two showed absolutely no improvement. The teeth were filled and the children shown by a nurse how to keep them clean and masticate the food properly.

BOLD.

"Miss Peech," stammered the bashful young man at the other end of the sofa, "would you—er—consider me bold if I were to—er—throw a kiss to you?"

"Bold!" quoth she. "I'd consider it the quintessence of lousiness."
