THE COAL FAMINE

Conference in New York With Railroad Presidents.

DUTY ON ANTHRACITE COAL

Senate Will Investigate the Alleged Combine of Coal Dealers.

HOUSE DISCUSSING APPROPRIATION BILL

New York, Jan. 13.—Mayor Low and representatives of the coal carrying roads held a conference today to discuss the coal situation of greater New York.

The presidents of the roads were George F. Baer, of the Reading; Underwood, of the Erie; Fowler, of the Ontario & Western, and Thomas, of the Lehigh Valley. John B. Markle represented the independents.

President Baer read a statement describing the position of the coal roads. He maintained that the roads were doing all possible to relieve the situation. The situation was full of difficulties and the failure of the miners to work during the holidays reduced the output and prices had been unduly advanced by the smaller companies and individual operators.

Senate Will Investigate.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Soon after the senate met today Mr. Jones of Nevada favorably reported the resolution of Mr. Stewart authorizing the committee of the District of Columbia to send for witnesses in connection with the coal investigation, to administer oaths and to compel the attendance of witnesses if necessary. The resolution was agreed to. Consideration of the Vest resolution, directing the finance committee to prepare and report a bill removing the duty on coal, was then resumed.

Tillman Will Talk.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Mr. Tillman, of South Carolina, gave notice that he would tomorrow speak on the coal situation and would put the blame for the "present deplorable condition where it belonged, upon the president of the United States and his attorney general." At 2 o'clock the Vest resolution went over until tomorrow and the omnibus statehood bill was taken up.

Duty on Coal.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The ways and means committee of the house today decided to report a bill providing for a rebate equal to the duty now imposed on all kinds of coal and coming from all countries for a period of one year. It is expected that the bill will be called up in the house at once.

Duty on Anthracite Coal.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The committee reported the bill for the repeal of the tariff on anthracite, but will not call it up in the house today as originally contemplated, the decision having been reached to bring it up under a rule tomorrow.

The house then went into committee of the whole and took up the consideration of the army appropriation bill. The bill carries $73,856,276, being $4,413,065 less than the current law.

THE BARRETT TRIAL

Case of Assault Against Robert Barrett Heard by Justice Crawford.

The trial of Robert Barrett, who is charged with assault and battery on Nick Tagliaferri, was heard in Justice Crawford's court this morning. Barrett is charged with striking Tagliaferri over the head with a board and then hammering his face with his fist. The assault took place on Sunday, January 4, Barrett, in company with five shop boys, were riding on a hand car in the yards. Tagliaferri, who is a Sunday watchman, ordered them out, but they were in no hurry, which caused words and the assault on Tagliaferri.

Barrett's reason for the assault was that Tagliaferri caught hold of him several times, with his old greasy gloves. Each time he was told to keep his hands off. Barrett threatened to hit Tagliaferri if he put his hands on him again. The watchman proceeded to pull Barrett from the car, whereupon he was landed one on the head. Barrett furthermore claims that the watchman reached for a piece of iron, and he jumped on him and threw him. A couple of the other boys took Barrett off, and as the watchman got to his feet he landed him a couple of blows in the face, fracturing the nose and causing a disfigurement around the eyes.

Dr. Hope, who attended the injured watchman, testified that at first there were symptoms of a skull fracture, but these symptoms have all disappeared. Tagliaferri was confined to his bed several days which delayed the hearing of the case. Several of the boys who were present at the time of the assault testified. Their stories were all about the same. It was proven that Barrett knew Tagliaferri was a watchman as he had been ordered out of the yards the previous week, and his only reason for hitting the man was because he persisted in putting his greasy gloves on his arm.

E. W. Dobson, attorney for the Santa Fe company, appeared for the plaintiff. He held that the boys were trespassers, and that the watchman was justified in using any means he saw fit to make the boys get off the railroad's property.

Attorney Heacock appeared for the defendant. He argued that the boys were aggravated to the assault, by the mere fact that a plank was thrown on the track in front of the moving car by the watchman which might have resulted in death or a serious injury, and that his malice was all directed toward Barrett.

After all the testimony on both sides had been heard the case was taken under advisement and a bond will be fixed later.

LITTLE FOLKS HONORED.

Mrs. Rosa Berry Entertained the Juvenile Minstrels.

PRIVATE MASQUE BALL.

One of the gayest social events of the season was the private masque ball given by Mrs. Rosa Berry in honor of the juvenile minstrels. The hall was decorated in bright colors and the spectacle presented by the masqueraders was bewildering.

The hall was filled to a pleasing dancing capacity. Every nationality and class of people were represented in appropriate costumes.

Gay dancing maidens chatted with the witty Irishman and comical Dutchman. Chinamen wearing the fantastic oriental garb mingled with the crowd of gay and grotesque figures. Everyone seemed to take extra pains in concealing his or her identity and most of their efforts were crowned with success. The costumes were well gotten up, bright colors and artistic appearances predominated.

The evening of dancing was one of the greatest pleasure to the mirthful dancers. The masks were discarded at 10:30 o'clock. The identity of some was revealed early in the evening, others were so well masked that their most intimate friends were unable to pick them out among the vast throng. Many surprises were in store for them when the masks were removed. Everyone was in for a good time and the music furnished by Mrs. Berry was of a nature to make the good time a success.

The dancing continued with a mirthful and hilarious spirit until the small hours were reigning supreme.

CHARLES LANTRY.

He Reached Belen Last Night—Work on the Santa Fe Cut Off.

Telephone advice from Belen this morning says that Charles Lantry of the big railroad construction company of B. Lantry & Sons, arrived there last evening and this morning left for Abasco canyon, where rock work on the Santa Fe cut off will begin immediately.

Although a train load of supplies to be used in the building of the cut off has already been unloaded at Belen, no active work of construction has as yet begun.

Mr. Lantry is likely to be in the canyon making estimates and studying conditions for the next ten days. Assistant General Foreman Wheatley accompanied Mr. Lantry to Belen.

BECOMES A MINER.

Frank E. Sturges Purchases Half Interest in Manhattan Mine.

A mining deal was closed yesterday whereby Frank E. Sturges becomes a half owner of the Manhattan Copper mining claim in the Sandia mountains. W. D. Kemp, the prospector and discoverer, having sold a one-half interest. The property is about fourteen miles from Bernalillo and within easy access from the Santa Fe railroad. A recent report on the property from a mining expert gives it as a likely prospect.

Mr. Sturges is also interested in the Cochiti mining district. He knows a good thing when he sees it, and always gets in on the ground floor.

STOCKMEN MEET

Large Crowd at National Live Stock Convention

NATIONAL GROCERS' ASSOCIATION

Severe Fighting Between Forces of Sultan and Rebels in Morocco.

A WAR ON THE TOBACCO TRUST

Kansas City, Jan. 13.—The sixth annual convention of the National Live Stock association began a four days' session at the Century theater here today. Every seat in the auditorium was filled and many stood about the walls. The attendance was greater than at any previous gathering of the association and the work accomplished probably will stand forth as important as any that has resulted from a like convention in this country. Many delegates from distant points had not arrived for the first session but all are expected before tomorrow.

Gov. M. A. Dockery was to have extended a welcome on behalf of the state, but he was ill and unable to be present. Mayor James A. Reed took his place and in an eloquent address welcomed the delegates, speaking for the city and state. The response on behalf of the association was made by Peter Jansen, of Nebraska. Then John W. Springer, of Denver, president of the association, delivered his annual address. It was a forceful paper and dealt with directness upon the legislation, pending and future, necessary for the protection of the live stock industry.

Charles F. Martin, secretary of the association, followed with his annual report. It showed a steady increase in the membership and scope of the association.

Recess until 1:30 followed. The afternoon session was taken up with the annual report of the executive committee, the adoption of resolutions, of which there was a large number, and the consideration of general business. Papers were read by Hon. W. C. Boyle, of Missouri, on "Mortgage Law with Reference to Live Stock;" by Dr. J. W. H. W. of Oregon, on "The Great Northwest as a Stock Country;" by W. V. Galbreath, of Texas, on "Railway Live Stock Agents and Their Relation to the Shippers;" and by Thomas Kelly, of Illinois, on "The Movement of Live Stock and Prospects for 1903." Each paper was discussed by the delegates.

The sessions of the convention will continue until Friday. Among the most important subjects which will be discussed are the adoption of some plan to oppose the contemplated merging of the packing plants of the country, opposition to the removal of the tariff on wool, hides, meats and live stock, to urge congress to immediately pass the Grosvenor anti-shoddy bill, the amendment to the census act, so as to provide for the classified census of live stock, to amend the interstate commerce act by extending the time limit for unloading live stock in transit from twenty-eight to forty hours, the practicability of cooperation in marketing live stock, and to discuss what can be done to improve the present laws governing forest reserves and the public domain.

Portland, Ore., seems today to be in the lead as a candidate for the next amendment. Mention is also made of New Orleans and Sioux City, but the delegation from the Oregon city is working with might and main and its chances for securing the prize appear to be excellent.

FIGHTING IN MOROCCO.

Sultan's Troops Being Worsted by the Rebels.

Madrid, Jan. 13.—Fighting is proceeding between the troops of the sultan of Morocco and the forces of the pretender to the throne, according to a dispatch received from Fez. The followers of the pretender are said to be overcoming the imperial troops. The correspondent adds that the inhabitants of Fez have risen against the sultan and that anxiety reigns at Rabat, where the Europeans are in fear of immediate attack by the pretender's forces. The sultan's representative at Tangier has been ordered to seize cattle and to dispatch reinforcements to the sultan.

War on Tobacco Trust.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Independent cigar and tobacco retailers from all over the country met in convention in Handel hall today to discuss ways and means of fighting the Tobacco trust. Preliminary steps were taken for the formation of a strong national association, which will have headquarters in Chicago. The plan of campaign calls for a close combination with the trade unions, particularly the cigarmakers and tobacco workers' unions. A fight against the retail branch of the Tobacco trust is to be inaugurated simultaneously in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Indianapolis and other cities where the trust has attempted to obtain control of the retail trade.

For his health, Mr. Hoatling was advised to come to New Mexico, but he came too late and peacefully passed into the great beyond at the hour mentioned.

His brother, Henry C. Hoatling, came from Pasadena, Cal., arriving just two hours after death had claimed its victim. Dr. Cutter's office and the medical dispensary department will continue to be in the old laundry building, near where the hospital once stood and where they were moved the night of the fire.

All cases thought not serious will be treated at Dr. Cutter's office as of old.

GOV. PEABODY

Imposing Ceremonies at His Inauguration.

A BASEBALL PITCHER SUICIDES

Destructive Fire in George J. Gould's New York Residence.

WANTS A CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATE

Denver, Jan. 13.—Gov. James H. Peabody took the oath of office on the west steps of the capitol at noon today.

Before the ceremony there was a parade through the streets of Denver. New state officers rode in carriages and were escorted by the national guard, regular army troops from Fort Logan and the High school cadets. In carriages with the incoming administration were members of the outgoing administration and city and county officials, besides many prominent citizens. The legislature took a recess during the pageant.

After swearing in the new governor he was escorted to the house chamber, where the two houses in joint session received him, where he delivered the inaugural address.

Other state officers were then sworn in and an informal reception of the members of the legislature and others was held.

Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be a public reception at the capitol. This will be followed by the inaugural ball in the same place at 10 o'clock tonight.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Well Known Baseball Pitcher Tires of Life on the Diamond.

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—Winnie D. Mercer, a pitcher of the All-American base ball team, registered at the Occidental hotel last evening and was found asphyxiated in his room this morning.

The watchman of the hotel, in making his rounds, detected the odor of gas coming from Mercer's room and failing to receive a response to knock, broke down the door.

Clad in his night clothes and lying in the bed with his coat and vest over his head, Mercer was found.

From the jet in the center of the room was suspended a rubber tube and the end of this Mercer had placed in his mouth, after turning the gas full on.

What caused Mercer to end his life is not known.

Mercer was one of the best pitchers and all around players in the American league, and had signed to manage the Detroit club at $5,500 for the season of 1903. He was 28 years old and leaves a mother and brother in Ohio and another brother at Las Vegas, N. M. He was a sufferer from pulmonary troubles and as the disease refused to yield to treatment he became despondent.

PRECINCT ELECTIONS.

Republicans Win for Justice of the Peace and Constable.

As far as heard from, the republicans were victorious in every precinct of the county in yesterday's election for justice of the peace and constable. There was some little excitement in the two city precincts, but the republican candidates were never in doubt of election.

In precinct 12, W. W. McClellan, the democratic and independent candidate, was before the voters for the office of justice of the peace, against the present incumbent, A. J. Crawford. The result: Crawford, 215 votes; McClellan, 91; majority for Crawford, 124. L. T. Gum was the candidate for constable against Francisco Garcia, the regular republican nominee, and the former was defeated by a majority of 123 votes.

In precinct 26, the democrats made the race a little bit closer, but the final result was in favor of the republicans. Capt. William Borchert, the present incumbent, had as his opponent for the office of justice of the peace, Richard J. Sweeney, a warhorse in democracy. The latter received 151 votes, while his successful opponent, Captain Borchert, was presented with 186 votes, giving him a majority of 35 votes. James H. Smith, for the office of constable, had Mike Martinez to defeat, and although the task was not an easy one, when the votes were counted it was found that Smith had 181 votes and Martinez 156, giving the former a majority of 25 votes.

In precinct 13, Old Albuquerque, S. Ferino Crockett, for justice of the peace, and Carlos Cervante, for constable, had no opposition.

In Barajas, just beyond the southern limits of the city, Antonio Barajas, for justice, and Uriah Sisineros for constable, completely snowed under their democratic opponents.

Benjamin Preston and H. G. Springer, two stock buyers and raisers of Fort Collins, Colo., are in the city today.

H. H. Cooley and wife, from Manuella, out west, are in the city today, purchasing goods.

"A TRUE KENTUCKIAN."

It Was Well Played at Colombo Hall by the Krause-Taylor Company.

"A GAY DECEIVER" TONIGHT.

"A True Kentuckian" by the Krause-Taylor company, was played to a packed house at Colombo hall last night. The play was of southern dialect, the scene was in a Sand Hill mining camp of Nevada. It started off a little slow, but by the close of the first act the audience had caught the drift, and from that time until the curtain dropped at the close, the players had great attention.

J. C. Taylor, as "Caden Swan, the only legitimate and lightened 'keard' dealer in Sand Hill," was especially fitted for the role he carried. Eleanor Franklin, as "Tennessee Kent, from Smoky Mountain," was a second favorite. The remainder of the cast was very good, especially Laverne Moore, who was "Nettie Blee, the bride." Her role was especially hard to carry on account of having a lazy husband, who only lived one year in his life, the year of '67. This part was taken by Otto Krause, as "Gawlicker Hay, the greatest liar in camp." The specialty work by "The Morrisons" was in ragtime and met with much applause. A moderately new stunt done between the third and fourth acts, created considerable amusement. Mrs. Morrison came out and sang a bar of "Please Go Way and Let Me Sleep." In the meantime Mr. Morrison slipped into the audience and went to sleep. He sat nodding in a very conspicuous position. The lady broke on in her song and objected to the young man's manner, and asked the ushers to put him out. The audience was with her and some of the more enthusiastic shouted, "Put him out." On being aroused the young man sang the chorus of the lady's unfinished song. It pleased an American audience to be deceived and the house applauded.

Last night the prices attracted the crowd. Tonight it will be the players. It will be "A Gay Deceiver."

THE COAL DEALERS

Criminal Combine to Create Coal Famine.

STARTLING CONDITIONS IN CHICAGO

No Crime to Steal Coal in City of Toledo, Ohio.

TRIAL OF BOSTON BANK WRECKERS

Chicago, Jan. 13.—The most tangible evidence secured by the special grand jury in the coal shortage inquiry up to the present time is that which relates to an alleged agreement drawn in March last year and which is said to govern a dozen mine operators in the Clinton, Ind., district with Walter S. Bogle and the Crescent Coal and Mining company as the Chicago factor.

It is charged in the evidence presented that Bogle appears as president of one of the Indiana mining companies, making an agreement with himself as president of the Crescent Coal and Mining company. It is said that those mines were compelled to pool their outputs, to be disposed of by the Chicago factor.

In getting at the facts the jury called before it today Max Tichburg, of the Wabash Coal company, and recalled Charles W. Gilmore and Norman S. Kirkland, officers of the Crescent company, who were before the jury for a time yesterday. A number of railroad men were also on hand when the jury began its work today, representing the Burlington, Wabash, Illinois Central, Monon and Michigan Central roads, and were called in as fast as their testimony could be heard.

W. H. Abrahams, of the Building Trades association, was also called and is said to have given valuable information concerning the maintenance of a room by the coal dealers' association, where secret conferences were held at regular intervals prior to the starting of the present investigation. He also declared his association found dealers had delayed delivery of coal in good weather and then pleaded that they were unable to deliver in rough weather, thus compelling the building managers to consume the entire stock of coal on hand.

Coal Thieves Released.

Toledo, Jan. 13.—The work house board has issued an order setting at liberty all prisoners held for stealing coal from railway yards and tracks. The order includes directions to the superintendent to receive no prisoners from any court, sending them in for petty coal thefts. It is explained that no prosecutions for coal thefts will be recognized by the board during the coal famine.

Charged With Wrecking Bank.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 13.—The postponed case of George M. Foster and John W. Dickinson, charged with complicity in wrecking the South Danvers National bank of Peabody, was called for trial today in the United States district court. The trial was commenced about a year ago, but had to be postponed because of a criminal charge being brought against one of the jurors which resulted in sentence.

GROCERS GATHER.

Meeting of National Association in Kansas City.

Kansas City, Jan. 13.—Grocers are here from all parts of the country to attend the sixth annual convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers, which opened a three days' meeting in Warwick hall today. Three hundred delegates are expected, but only two-thirds of that number had arrived when the first session was called to order this morning. Two fights are looked for, one on the proposition to change the name of the association, with a view to making its scope broader and another one the next convention place. San Francisco, Buffalo, Washington, Atlanta, Dallas and Little Rock are competing for the honor.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Jan. 13.—The wool market is quiet, but the tone is strong with very little if any change in quotations. Territory wools have been more active than the balance of the list. Fine staple, 55@57c; fine, 53@55c; fine medium, 50@52c; medium, 46@47c.

New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

All efforts to sidetrack the omnibus statehood bill have so far failed.

The speculative lot grabbers in this city should be made to pay taxes.

The expenses of New Mexico should be curtailed in every way possible.

The Los Angeles Times has been enclined in a libel suit to the tune of $7,500.

The Durango Democrat is itself again and David Day is in a much better humor.

It is denied that President Roosevelt is investigating the religious beliefs of United States senators.

There are nearly 30,000 federal employees in Washington. They do the work of about 500 competent men.

Factories and mills in course of construction will add one thousand employees to the population of Albuquerque.

This will be the very best year in the history of this city. The volume of business will almost double that of last year.

If a man insists that his property is worth $50,000, and he will not sell it for a cent less, the reality should be valued at that for taxable purposes.

Congress will be asked to appropriate $4,500,000 for the improvement of army posts. It is possible that the located army post near this city will be built.

It is estimated that 658,800 employees in the United States received an increase in wages on January 1. The total of increase aggregates in a year $38,500,000.

Seventeen republican members of the Colorado legislature sold themselves to the democrats, and there is indignation in the state over the shameful deal.

This trust and merger and gouge and combine business will keep on and on until burning cities and howling mobs will furnish exciting matter for the newspapers.

El Paso has the leading custom house on the Texas border. There are thirty-seven employees in the El Paso custom house and their annual salaries aggregate $49,508.

This city has a large delegation at the El Paso carnival. This is as it should be. The two best cities of the southwest can afford to cultivate close business and social relations.

"When I was younger," says the Al-falfa Sage, "I was ambitious to have my name in the news columns of the paper. Now that I am older and wiser I am ambitious to get my name into the advertising columns."

The Pacific cable is the most important venture of the kind undertaken since the laying of the Atlantic line. With the final extension of the new cable to China the globe will be completely girdled by electric wires. The convenience and usefulness of this connection between the widely severed portions of the country can not be estimated. It is probably only a question of time when other Pacific lines will be established.

There are already too many territorial officials. The number should be decreased instead of increased.

The people of this territory deeply sympathize with Col. J. Franco Chaves in the irreparable loss of his wife, whose death occurred at Santa Fe yesterday. Mrs. Chaves had a wide circle of friends in this territory, who will sincerely mourn her death.

Senator Knute Nelson objects to statehood for New Mexico because he has discovered that nearly half its population is Mexican. Delegate Rodney replies by showing from the census report that 57 per cent of the population of Minnesota, Nelson's state, is Norwegian.

The American invasion of Canada continues at a rate that is attracting general attention both in Canada and the United States. A large number of Americans are going into the Canadian northwest, attracted by the opportunities that exist for getting cheap lands in the grain raising sections.

The Tucson Citizen says: "It will be observed that though the senate does not seem to be in a hurry to pass the omnibus bill, it is not making much headway with Roosevelt's pet, the Cuban reciprocity treaty, nor with the Panama canal treaty, nor with the appropriation bills, nor with Hoar's trust bill, nor with the army general staff bill. There are no flaws in Quay's generalship."

TERRITORIAL FINANCES.

Treasurer J. H. Vaughn's annual report shows that on December 1, 1900, at the commencement of the fifty-second fiscal year, there were balances in the various funds to the amount of $109,974.31. During the last two years receipts from all sources amounted to $1,081,102.28 and disbursements for the corresponding period to $948,626.96, leaving on hand as cash balances in the various funds, the sum of $248,449.63.

OPPOSED TO MERGER.

The Phoenix Republican, the leading paper of Arizona, says of the proposed compromise measure of making one state out of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona: "Since any proposition, no matter how idiotic, can always count on having some supporters, it is not surprising to learn that there are people in New Mexico who are in favor of the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as one state. It is surprising, however, that anybody at Washington should seriously consider such a plan or believe it acceptable to the intelligent citizens of either territory. The suggestion is so absurd that it does not call for argument against it. We cannot believe that any senator in good faith proposes the consolidation, for a fair amount of intelligence must be imputed to all senators. That many senators might agree to it were the two territories willing, is of course conceivable, but they could not harbor the idea because of a belief in the propriety of listening to the wishes of the people directly interested. Intrinsically, there is nothing whatever to commend the suggestion of a 'merger' of these two territories.

It will take her through the crisis easily and quickly. It is a liniment which gives strength and vigor to the muscles. Common sense will show you that the stronger the muscles are, which bear the strain, the less pain there will be.

"The senators who are advocating the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as one state are taking that course in the hope of defeating the omnibus bill, and with no other purpose, and it is not creditable to the common sense of any citizen of New Mexico that he should not at once see through the bunco game."

IRRIGATION AIM.

Government Report Shows Efforts are Being Made to Increase the Water Supply.

The striking statement is made in the current report of the division of hydrography of the United States geological survey, now in press, that: "The open range of the arid region is generally stated to be capable of supporting one cow to every twenty acres. The same land when watered and put in alfalfa will frequently feed ten cows to every twenty acres, or in orchards at favorable altitudes will support a family of three, or even five, persons. The open range may have a value of 50 cents an acre, while under irrigation the selling price may jump to $50 an acre, and if in orchards to $500 an acre. Thus the value of the lands are directly reversed, the grazing land having the greatest extent, and the least value, and the irrigated land the least extent and the greatest value."

The progress of the west is so dependent on the amount and the intelligent use of its water supply that the geological survey, in its study of the resources of the country, has made a special effort to collect full information regarding the character and regimen of all the important streams and other sources of water supply of that section. This investigation, includes systematic measurements of flow, the survey of reservoir sites, the study of water-conservation, and the consideration of the use of water on important watersheds.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Ferguson Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave to his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by all druggists.

Coffee Planters.

J. H. Lightfoot, editor of the Nopal Republican, passed through El Paso the other day with a number of colonists for a big coffee plantation of over 300,000 acres in the state of Aaxaca, Mexico, in which he is interested. The plantation is owned by Illinois and other eastern capitalists, who are now sending down colonists to develop the lands.

McMillan on the bench. In case No. 980, A. G. Green et al., plaintiffs in error, vs. Brown & Manzanara Company, defendants in error, error to the district court of Mora county, a motion to strike out the transcript of record because it was not printed, was withdrawn. Case No. 981, M. C. Clark, receiver, et al., appellees, vs. Donoghue & Monier et al., appellants, appeal from the district court of Santa Fe county, was argued and submitted to the court. An adjournment was then taken until 10 o'clock this morning.

Greatest European Authority on Skin Diseases, Says It's a Germ.

The old idea was that dandruff is scales of skin thrown off, through a feverish condition of the scalp, is exploded. Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says dandruff is a germ disease. The germ burrows under the scalp, throwing up little scales of cuticle, and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root. The only hair preparation that kills dandruff germs is Newberr's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Not only cures dandruff, but stops falling hair and causes a luxuriant growth. Delightful hair dressing.

DISCOURAGED

The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women to Dr. Pierce: "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain. No lasting good.

It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged. Thousands of these weak and sick women have found health and courage regained as the result of the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

USED THE CLEAVER.

A Deming Woman Assaults a Burglar Found in Her Restaurant.

Yesterday morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, Mrs. Engle, of the Home restaurant, on Gold avenue, was awakened by a noise in the rear room of the restaurant, and on jumping out of bed almost fell into the arms of a man with an arm full of plunder. Mrs. Engle didn't faint nor even scream, as women do on such occasions, but she grabbed a cleaver and beat the intruder over the head until he dropped the bundle and made good his escape through the back window through which he had entered. Unfortunately the lady used the flat side instead of the edge of the cleaver. The bundle contained a lot of clothing of the family, and if anything was taken it is not yet missed.—Deming Headlight.

Don't Worry.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by all druggists.

Railroad Topics

The El Paso & Southwestern received two new passenger coaches at Deming the other day.

Steam engines worth $357,806 were imported by Mexico from the United States during the first ten months of 1902.

The Santa Fe has located a resident engineer at San Marcial, with one or two assistants. Part of their immediate duty will be in connection with the erection of the new depot.

Fireman Nichols, who runs between Las Vegas and Raton, has returned from a trip to Oklahoma, and a little bird whispers that he was accompanied back by a blushing bride.

Four freight cars, on a south bound freight train, flew the track at Kennedy early Sunday morning. No one was killed, but trains were delayed a short time until the wreck was cleared.

Joseph S. Lavett, for a long time one of the popular Southern Pacific men of Lordsburg and well known in Deming, is still dangerously sick at the Southern Pacific hospital, San Francisco.

There can be no reasonable doubt that the Rock Island railroad will build a track of its own to Pueblo from New Mexico this year. It is definitely decided upon and officials of the company have stated what the route will be.

The largest engine in the world, or the Santa Fe's white elephant, No. 987, was sent east for the first time in five weeks last Thursday. It has been laid up in the Las Vegas shops for that length of time, awaiting the arrival of a new cross-head.

The Santa Fe will build 167 new bridges on its system during the present year. This includes one trans-Mississippi bridge, but the majority of them will be small concrete and trestle bridges, to take the place of trestles and other small bridges.

Jack Spellacy is still filling the capacity of foreman of the boiler shops. Master Mechanic Barnes has several names under advisement for the position but as he has held off so long in making an appointment, it now looks as though it will be Foreman Spellacy in the future.

W. H. Matson, Jr., traveling passenger agent of the Santa Fe, has handed in his resignation, to take effect February 1. Mr. Matson has been in the employ of the Santa Fe for fourteen years, and is regarded as a most competent man. He will engage in commercial pursuits.

A change all around has taken place among the operators in the Las Vegas yard office. W. R. Mize, who has been doing duty during the day, has been transferred to Lamy, which places K. J. Hiseley, who formerly held the night job down, on days, while Operator Fay takes the night trick. Mr. Fay is a new man, having just accepted a position at Las Vegas.

Ranchmen will be gratified to learn of the passage by the lower house of congress of the bill providing for an extension from twenty-four to forty hours of the time when cattle in transit may be kept in cars without unloading to feed and water. It is expected that this bill will be passed by the senate and signed by President Roosevelt during this session.

The large number of railroad strikes with attendant losses of human life recently, forms a striking contrast to the limited number of such occurrences in Mexico. The Mexican method of dealing with such matters may be severe, but here seems to be little doubt that it is a great life saver. The crew of a wrecked train in that country takes to the woods immediately after an accident whether they are blameless or not. The knowledge that he will lose his job and possibly his life in case of a wreck is calculated to make the trainman as careful as it is possible to be.

Orders issued from Division Superintendent Fox's office have a tendency to jack up passenger engineers for rough driving over the New Mexico division. The orders mentioned especially apply to engineers pulling the limited, No. 3. This train is the pride of the Santa Fe and the officials are very touchy as to its handling. It carries fine buffet cars that are noted for elegant service. No. 3 runs over the New Mexico division just about dinner time, and as the track is a little rough, the waiters have no little trouble in keeping the soup in its proper place. The chances are some unfortunate passenger has had half a dozen ice cream oysters dropped down his collar as a consequence of a nasty jerk from the engine. Hence the kick.

One Hundred Dollars a Box.
Is the value H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C., places on De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. He says: "I had the piles for 20 years. I tried many doctors and medicines, but all failed except De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cured me." It is a combination of the healing properties of Witch Hazel with antiseptics and emollients; relieves and permanently cures blind, bleeding itching and protruding piles, sores, cuts, bruises, eczema, salt rheum and all skin diseases. J. H. O'Reilly & Co., and B. H. Briggs & Co.

CHANGE THE PLAN.

Want to Make Pullman Reservation Rate More Equitable.

A movement is on foot to change the present method of reserving sleeping car berths and drawing rooms. Under the present plan sleeping car space may be reserved, and at the last moment may be abandoned. This the railroad officials regard as an injustice. It frequently results in extra cars being put on trains while all of the space in the regular sleeping cars is not filled. The motive power is thus taxed to an unnecessary extent, aside from other disadvantages.

The Pullman company is interested in the movement also, as it does not care to have cars hauled when not fully occupied.

There is some difference of opinion among the railroad officials as regards the plan of better conditions. Some of the roads would demand deposits with each reservation. Others think that better results can be obtained by allowing space to be reserved only within thirty minutes or one hour before train time at the depot, or until 5 p. m. at the city ticket offices.

DOES NOT WANT TROUBLE.

Rock Island Not Hunting for a General Free Fight.

It is announced by the passenger traffic department of the Rock Island that the notice of independent action as to immigrant business to Texas, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada, Wyoming, Utah and California is not to be taken as indicating that the company intends to disturb the arrangement for distributing business to other territory not specified above.

The Rock Island, through Passenger Traffic Manager Sebastian, gives notice that it will protect its interests by meeting the commission paid by the Western Passenger association named. Incessant action was taken, as the notice sets out, after vain attempts through negotiation with the advisory committee of the Western Passenger association and the Southern Pacific extending over nearly a year, in which the effort was made to get reasonable concessions for the Rock Island system on account of its new lines, the Choctaw and the El Paso routes.

This ends a long struggle in which the Rock Island has contended that on account of the changed conditions, brought about by its extension of new lines far into the western territory, it was entitled to a new adjustment of the proportionate amount of business which was carried; in other words, that the new extensions be taken into account.

The older lines doing through business in that territory could not agree as to how this was to be accomplished, the problem being made knotty by reason of the fact that someone would have to relinquish revenues heretofore enjoyed. The failure of the distributing agent to recognize the new lines led the Rock Island to assume its stand.

SOCORRO CITY COUNCIL.

The Mayor Pockets Resolutions Introduced and Adjourns the Council.

There was a thrilling time at the meeting of the city council of Socorro the other night. Hon. A. C. Abeytia, member of the council, in an interview with the Chieftain made the following statements concerning one feature of the proceedings:

Mr. Abeytia himself introduced a resolution against the acceptance of certain city warrants in possession of Abrahm Abeytia in payment for city lands. City Attorney A. A. Sedillo had expressed the opinion that the warrants were absolutely illegal but thought that the council might validate them. This the council was not disposed to do. Before a vote on the resolution could be had, Mayor Cooney thrust the document into his pocket and declaring the meeting adjourned, left the room. Mr. Abeytia further stated that at the last previous meeting the mayor tried to induce the council to authorize the destruction of these same warrants, but the council refused to take any action in the matter.

BALLUT ABYAD TEMPLE.

Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine Entertain.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

The social entertainment given by the Shriner at the Masonic hall on North Third street last night in honor of the installation of officers for the ensuing term of Ballut Abyad Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was one of the most pleasing and enjoyable events of the season.

The ladies belonging to the families of the members, according to an established custom of the Shriner, are made guests of honor at an annual entertainment. That the ladies may be royally entertained the night of the installation ceremony has been fixed, by reason of the beautiful and imposing ceremony.

The Shriner of Albuquerque, accompanied by their ladies and many Shriner from near by towns, appeared in a spirit of merry making. That the most perfect enjoyment might be assured, the nobles were nattering in their efforts in arrangement on an elaborate scale.

The installation ceremony with the beautiful and stately march was an imposing scene.

The musical and literary program rendered was complete in all its appointments, and the banquet that followed was of a most favorable bearing.

The exercises of the evening with the installation of officers by illustrious Noble Arthur Everett began about 9 o'clock.

The music which attended the ceremony was very impressive, the ceremony being of a grand spectacular effect.

Official Divan for 1903.

Charles K. Newhall, illustrious potentate.
E. L. Medler, chief rabban.
W. H. Hahn, assistant rabban.
John Borradaile, high priest and prophet.
Thos. N. Wilkerson, oriental guide.
A. J. Maloy, treasurer.
L. H. Chamberlin, recorder.
P. E. Sturges, first ceremonial master.
W. W. Strong, second ceremonial master.

H. O. Strong, marshal.
J. J. Sheridan, captain of the guard.
A. M. Whitcomb, outer guard.
A. Everitt, representative to imperial council.

Musical Program.

The entertaining program was made up of the best musical and literary talent of the city.
Several beautiful songs were sung by the Masonic quartet, composed of Messrs. Hunt, Walker, Bullard, Maynard.
Mrs. L. H. Chamberlin, with her rich contralto voice, won a popular place with the audience.
Everyone was pleased by the appearance of Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Himmon.
The talented elocutionist, Miss Florence Chapin, gave several pleasing readings.
E. J. McKenna, a banjoist of rare ability, rendered several selections in a delightful manner.
The rich and ever pleasing voice of John Douglas Walker was an appreciated number. Accompanied by his wife on the piano he sang the beautiful melody "All for You."
A vocal solo, "The Beating of My Own Heart," was sung by Miss Nellie Taylor.
Following this was "A Summer Night," sung by Miss Mabel Fitch, who was in excellent voice.
Harry McKay, the monologist, was a very interesting number with his "imitations of Everything and Everything."
It was several hours before the program was completed. The large audience showed their appreciation by hearty and enthusiastic encores.

The Banquet.

The banquet was an elaborate affair. Appetizing dishes as blue points, oyster patties, roast turkey, shrimp salad and many other dainties were served to the mirthful and appreciative gathering.

The Toasts.

The position of toastmaster was filled by Dr. James H. Wroth with ability. The toast was responded to by Hon. E. S. Stover on "The Origin of Masonry;" Dr. G. W. Harrison talked on "The Shriner;" Attorney E. L. Medler toasted and roasted "The New Officers;" and Col. J. L. Van Doren, a well known Shriner of Bluewater, toasted but did not roast "The Ladies."

Medal Presented.

In appreciation of the faithful services of H. H. Tilton, who had just completed a year's term of office, a costly and beautiful jewel was purchased by the Shriner and Dr. Wroth presented the token of esteem and fraternal affection. An appreciative response was made by Mr. Tilton, who is an interesting talker.

AN HONEST PORTER.

He Helped Himself to a Tip of Ten Dollars for Being Accommodating and Honest.

"The tip-exacting Pullman car porters are the recipients of a good many knocks from press and public, but they are not the worst in the world," remarked a commercial traveler to a Washington Star man. "They may have a pretty fierce way of drilling for tips, but when it comes to the matter of honesty I know one of them that's there with the goods, as the saying goes."

"I left San Francisco, or, rather, Oakland, on the Santa Fe line for Chicago at 8 o'clock in the evening a couple of weeks ago last Sunday. The gang that I met in Frisco had been rather too enthusiastic in giving me a good time of it out there on the day of my departure, so that when I woke up on the train along toward 7 o'clock the next morning the sleeper bunk felt pretty warm and my coppers a whole lot warmer. The nearest, in fact, the first stop at which I would have a chance to fix those hot coppers out was Mojave, and so I hustled into my clothes to be ready to hop off the train during the stop at Mojave for one of those katzenjammer alleviators."

"I asked the Pullman conductor how long the train would stop at Mojave, and he replied that the stop would last ten minutes. I raced into the station cafe when the train pulled into Mojave, and instructed the man in charge of the bar to rig me up one of those long, long damp things. He went at the job in a pretty scientific manner, and the piece of wet work that he set before me was a rare thing to find right alongside of the California desert. It was such a fine and effective creation, in fact, that I asked him to frame up another one, and I got away with this with equal joy. Then I leisurely strolled to the door to take a look at my train—and saw the end of it curling away in the rarefied distance on its way toward the land of the rising sun. It had pulled out without notifying me. I hustled into the ticket office to ask the man in the window when I'd be able to corral another eastbound train, and he said that it 'ud be along at 8 o'clock the next morning—the mate to the train that had departed without me; there was only one of the overland expresses per diem. So there I saw myself stuck in Mojave, Cal., the most miserable little sand dune on the globe, for a full twenty-four hours."

"But that wasn't the worst of it. I had left my Gladstone bag wide open on my bunk, with my wearing apparel thrown around the section every which way, and in the bag I had placed, on the night before, $200 in gold coin, the stuff being too heavy to carry around in my pockets with any comfort."

"I've got a chance of getting the bag back," said I to myself, "but what the black porter'll do to those $200 in gilt money will be something awfully scandalous."

"I had no idea on earth that I'd ever see a dollar of that money. I figured it all out that the porter would corral the money and then stuff my wearing apparel into the bag and hand it over to the conductor. I knew then I wouldn't be able to prove any such fact that I had $200 in gold money in the bag, and I gave it up for gone. I told the station agent at Mojave about the bag, and he immediately telegraphed to the next station to be made by my lost train along the line, a place called Barstow, N. Mex., directing that the bag be shipped back to Mojave on the west-bound overland."

"The bag was returned to Mojave on the west-bound late that night, and I eagerly opened it up to see what I had left in the bag. Everything was there, including the stack of gold money. I counted the gold roll, and it amounted to an even $190. The porter, I felt certain, had appropriated just one of the $10 gold pieces to compensate him for his trouble in packing the bag, and I afterward found out that I was right in this supposition."

"I caught the train east on the following morning, and when I got to Kansas City I got off to take a bit of a rest at a hotel. As I was getting off I met the porter of the train that had left Mojave without me. He was walking about the station, waiting to go aboard his car for another western trip. He saw and recognized me as soon as I recognized him, and he grinned broadly when he saw me. 'Boss,' said he, coming over to me, 'Ah suah did look eve'y'wheah fo' dat othuh ten dolluh gol' piece, but Ah suah couldn't fin' it nowheah,' and then he burst into a happy ducky laugh and slapped his thigh joyously. I told him how welcome he was to the $10 piece that he had pinched out for himself, and I'm not certain that I didn't give him another couple of dollars to show my appreciation of his honesty. It might not sound like honesty to speak of his swiping $10 from my Gladstone bag, but under the circumstances, considering the chance he had to grab it all, and considering, too, the nature of Pullman porters as they're supposed to be, I think he was a paragon of honesty."

OUTLOOK IS BLUE.

But Statehood Advocates Will Keep Up the Good Fight.

EX-GOVERNOR MURPHY TALKS.

A special dispatch from Phoenix, Arizona, dated January 1, regarding the statehood question, says:

Arizona's statehood advocates are fighting their cause to the last breath, but they are not sanguine of the outcome. The most optimistic are relying very much upon the persistence of Senator Quay and his powerful ally, Senator Foraker.

N. O. Murphy, former governor of Arizona, and very prominent in politics, has returned from a trip to Washington, where he is recognized as a power in the lobbies. The governor makes some characteristic and forceful statements about the statehood measure in the senate, and he doubtless voices the sentiments of more than one Arizona lobbyist in Wash-ton today.

He does not spare Senator Beveridge, but employs epigrams in characterizing his standing at Washington in the statehood fight.

"He does not stand at all," says the governor, "even among our enemies.
He is largely a subject of ridicule, and is simply being used as a tool,
and quite effectively, because of his position as chairman of the committee on territories."

Continuing, the governor has this to say of the reports of the senatorial committee, which lately visited the territories:

"The reports are the subject of much adverse criticism, even among the enemies of statehood. Many of the statements they contain are so manifestly unjust and so easily disproven that they are only injurious in influencing the uninformed regarding investments and territorial credit. Influential men are industriously contradicting these evil reports, and strong speeches will be made by senators who will vote against statehood, but who deplore the slandering statements which have been circulated against our development and resources."

Gov. Murphy sums up the status of the omnibus bill in this way: "There is a fighting chance only for statehood, with the odds very much against us.
While the friends of the omnibus bill have a clear majority of at least five,
the difficulty lies in forcing a vote.
Senator Quay is active, earnest and resourceful, but the shrewd managers of the opposition control the appropriation bills and other privileged legislation, and are in a position to obstruct, delay and prevent a vote, which is their declared policy."

"It is also stated on good authority that the president desires the defeat of the omnibus bill, and is exerting his influence against it. It goes without saying that if he is insistent the bill cannot be passed. There may be a reaction in our favor, but to me the outlook is not very encouraging. We have gained some votes and lost others, and disaffection among the democrats is charged; notable Senators Bacon, Vest and Cockrell. The fate of the measure wholly depends upon securing a vote."

The opposition to statehood springs from ignorance, and selfishness—particularly the latter. The talk about lack of people, illiteracy, absence of resources, immorality, wrong politics, etc., is simply made to hide the true motives of the most powerful opponents of statehood. A coterie of about a dozen long service senators, whom I do not care to mention now, dominate the senate, and they wish to perpetrate their power and they do not propose, if they can prevent it, to have what they are pleased to call the "equilibrium" of the senate disturbed. There you have the whole story. There is neither statesmanship, patriotism, good politics, nor any other reason for their conduct, but in their selfishness and assumption of superiority is found the reason why they are opposing us, and it is exceedingly unfortunate that they have been able to deceive the president."

Quinces with Apples.
If possible use pippin apples or a variety that is firm and sweet. Take equal quantities of apples and quinces. Pare and cut the apples and quinces in round slices; remove the cores with a small round cutter.
Stew the quinces in just enough water to cover them until they are tender; then remove them and put the apples in the same water and cook them tender without breaking them.
Place the fruit in separate dishes and cover them with a hot syrup made of one part sugar and two and a half parts water; cover and let them stand over night. In the morning reheat the fruit and syrup and place in alternate layers in glass jars and seal at once.—Washington Star.

Little Pigs in Blankets.
Large oysters, fat English bacon, pepper and salt, buttered toast. Season the oysters with pepper and salt.
Wrap each in a very thin slice of bacon and fasten with a wooden tooth-pick. Have the chafing-dish very hot and cook the pigs just long enough to crisp the bacon, taking care not to let it burn. Serve hot on small pieces of toast. Garnish with parsley.—Miss Mattie E. Jewell.

he found the tracks of a herd of cattle and several horses, going south from Monte Mendonca near the ranch of Mariano Mendonca, believing these were the tracks of some stolen cattle, and probably his own, he secured the aid of three other ranchmen of the vicinity and armed them well, taking up the pursuit and following the tracks for six days through Guadalupe, Valencia and Socorro counties, until a week ago he overtook the herd about ten miles east of Socorro. Three mounted men were driving the cattle, who took to the hills as soon as the pursuers approached. The stock proved to be selected heaves, twenty-eight in number, and the property of Tenorio. The latter was too well satisfied with the recovery of his stock to continue further pursuit of the cattle thieves, who were no doubt taking the heaves to Socorro to sell them to butchers. Mr. Tenorio says that the stockmen in his vicinity are losing much by the operations of cattle and sheep thieves, and that the situation in that regard is becoming very bad and almost intolerable.

Newspaper Clogs Postoffice.
The postoffice at Los Angeles is having a strenuous time these days to dispatch second class mail matter. In addition to the large amount of first class mail to sort out and route, as a result of the large number of tourists and visitors in that city at this time, the postoffice clerk are putting in overtime handling tons of copies of the midwinter number of the Los Angeles Times, which was issued on January 1. As usual, citizens and tourists all over southern California and the southwest are mailing great numbers of this issue of The Times to friends—many going to remote parts of the world.

No section of the world can tell a prouder story of progress and development than can southern California for 1902, and the Times has certainly told it truthfully and well, and best of all, has told it in few words and in attractive form. Such papers do effective missionary work in the east and one can more correctly inform friends of the real conditions of life in the "land we love" by sending them a copy of this issue of The Times than by any number of letters or ordinary papers.

BACK DEEDS IN ALBUQUERQUE

The deeds of Doan's in Albuquerque are surprisingly wonderful and most convincing. The man with a back so bad he could not work from its constant aching. The woman unable to attend to household duties, so nervous, excitable, tired out and weary from her kidneys. The old folks, who in declining years should have their rest at night, but bladder troubles keep them awake. The girl with urinary troubles, annoying to her delicacy and making her miserable. The boy, the child with kidneys so weak that parents mistake their trouble for a habit. All have been relieved and cured by the greatest of kidney remedies.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

A Kidney and Bladder Specific endorsed by the people you know.
A Modern remedy for a special purpose and with a reputation earned by past workings.

ALBUQUERQUE PROOF

WEST RAILROAD AVENUE.

J. A. Skinner, dealer in staple and fancy groceries, 207 West Railroad ave., says: "When a man finds from observation and experience that an article extensively advertised doesn't do as it is promised it is his duty to prevent his fellow men from squandering probably hard earned wealth in its purchase. It is just as much the duty of a citizen to tell his friends and acquaintances about articles upon which they can absolutely depend. Some time ago there came to my notice a case of a child whose control over the kidney secretions was limited. The parents procured for it Doan's Kidney Pills at the Alvarado Pharmacy and the treatment, according to directions for children, was commenced. In addition to the limited control there was considerable backache, the complications fully proving that in some way the kidneys were either weakened or excited. The treatment of Doan's Kidney Pills so strengthened, washed and purified the kidneys that the annoyance ceased."

SOUTH SECOND STREET.

B. H. Thomas, Rooming House, 509 South Second street, says: "I have read somewhere that backache was generally an indication of kidney complaint and when there was added to it trouble with the kidney secretions and signs were unmistakable. When I contracted a cold both these annoyances existed and for eight months if one attack ceased another was sure to follow, so that I can consistently say I was almost bothered continually. I finally went to the Alvarado Pharmacy for Doan's Kidney Pills and took a course of the treatment. It did exactly as promised—stopped the annoyance very promptly and very effectively."

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Cure quickly any of the many ills which are due to sick kidneys—rheumatic pains, dropsical swellings, urinary derangements, and every kidney trouble from common bacchache to dangerous diabetes.

ALBUQUERQUE PROOF

SOUTH FIRST STREET.

Mrs. J. Hall, of 519 South First street, says: "One of my daughters suffered from backache for about eight months or a year. Sometime it was so bad that she was completely prostrated for a day or so at a time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our Albuquerque newspaper and thought if they only performed half what they promised they might help my daughter and we went to the Alvarado Pharmacy for a box. In a remarkably short time the medicine took effect and a continuation of the treatment a little longer stopped the backache. We are pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

ATLANTIC AVENUE.

C. A. Hall, a machinist in the round house of the Santa Fe shops, residence 204 Atlantic avenue, says: "I have had attacks of pains just across that part of my back immediately over the kidneys. Some of which lasted an entire week. When they occurred there was no let-up to the aching and naturally I was on the outlook for something to check the trouble, if not radically dispose of it. The last medicine I tried was Doan's Kidney Pills procured at the Alvarado Pharmacy. To say they are worth recommending feebly expresses my opinion of them and to show in what estimation I hold the remedy let me add I keep the pills constantly in the house for fear of recurrence taking place, fully convinced that I can depend upon the treatment to bring steady relief."

NEW MEXICO TOWNS

SAN MARCIAL.

From the Bee.
Mrs. F. A. Swan, of Palomas, Sierra county, passed away in death last week.
Mrs. Tom Bourbonia, of Palomas, was a sufferer from pneumonia last week. Her physician, Dr. C. G. Cruickshank, reports her to be convalescing.
Frank Sellman is undergoing X-ray treatment at the McCrory Institute. His trouble is cancer of the tongue. He feels and appears better than he has for several months.
J. R. Nisbet has charge of Leo Lowenstein's books at present. The latter expects to take a trip east about the first of February. When he returns Mr. Nisbet expects to engage in the drug business in a new block to be erected by the Armstrong Bros.
The sister of J. S. Miller, familiarly known as "Broadhorn," is wanted by his mother at Midway, Wyoming. She has sold a farm and his signature is necessary to close the transaction. We are told that Mr. Miller is over Alamogordo way.
There were two weddings of popular young people in old town Wednesday last. Juan Montoya and Miss Flora Wolfel and Felix Gonzales and Miss Asianta Chavez were the happy couples. Mr. Montoya gave a ball to his numerous friends in one of the public halls, and Mr. Gonzales treated his little army of friends in a like manner at the other hall.

All druggists guaranteed every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of its contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. All druggists.

SOCORRO.

From the Chieftain.
Victor Sais, of Casa Colorado, was in town calling on relatives and friends and attending to private business.
Mr. and Mrs. Ethan McCulcison returned to this city from a visit with J. W. Cox and family at Datil.
W. W. Jones came up from San Marcial and met with an unusual hearty welcome from his many Socorro friends.
Miss Anne W. Fitch returned home from a pleasant vacation visit with relatives and friends in El Paso and Juarez.
Miss Madge Terry has quite recovered from a severe attack of la grippe and has again taken up her work in the office of Hon. H. M. Dougherty.
Fred Wilson has severed his connection with Liles & Torres at the Palace saloon and will soon go to El Paso, where he has accepted a more lucrative position. Fred has a host of Socorro friends who will wish him and his young wife all good fortune in their new home.

Mrs. U. S. Hammel and young son, of Magdalena, arrived in this city and are guests at the home of Mrs. Hammel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sperling.

Those Albuquerque officials who were digging up the soil in the vicinity of Socorro a few days ago in search of buried loot returned home wiser but no richer.

The last of the poles of the telephone exchange have been distributed this week and are now being erected. Capt. Matthews hopes to have everything in good running order in the very near future.

One of the last official acts of ex-Sheriff C. F. Blackington was to go to Arizona and arrest a man whom he supposed to be Bud English, wanted for the killing of a cowboy named McMahon, near Magdalena, last October. The prisoner proved to be the wrong man.

Charles Sperling is closing out his business in Socorro and has accepted a desirable position with the Becker Mercantile company of Belen. Mr. Sperling has been in business in this city for over twenty years and during all that time has not failed to preserve the respect and esteem of everybody with whom he came in contact. He will leave Socorro with a world of good wishes to cheer him.

J. Leonard Knapp is making rapid progress in learning the ways of the west, but he occasionally meets with a reverse. Thursday, for instance, he was riding a horse without saddle or bridle, down McCutchen avenue, when the animal became excited and began to execute some bucking exercises that would have unhorsed a much more experienced rider than Mr. Knapp. As it was that ambitious gentleman came into very forcible contact with the ground and is hardly able to tell even yet where his bruises hurt the most.

Group.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by all druggists.

WHITE OAKS.

From the Eagle.
Walter Hicks, brother of Mrs. S. M. Wharton, arrived here from Canadian, Texas. He will go into the employ of the Eagle Printing company.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cray are home from Corona, where Mr. Cray has been looking after his new homestead near that place, on which he is sinking a well and making several preparations for a stock ranch.

The sheriff contest, being conducted by the attorneys of Armstrong and Owen, begun at Fort Stanton last Friday, but so far nothing injurious to Owen has developed as the vote of the Stanton district was correct. This leaves little for Armstrong to hope for.

John King, an old time and highly respected resident of Jicarilla, died here January 3. Mr. King has, during the last two or three years, lived at Roswell only recently coming back to Lincoln county, and settling in the Bonito country. He was returning home from Jicarilla, where he had been looking after mining claims he owned there, and came to White Oaks Friday. He was not well and seemed to be suffering from heart trouble and got rapidly worse Saturday and died that night. The funeral was postponed to await the arrival of Mrs. Long and daughter from El Paso, and Francis King, a son, from Corona. The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Tuesday morning by Rev. G. G. Hamilton, and the remains interred in the Knights of Pythias cemetery.

Finds Way To Live Long.

The startling announcement of a discovery that will surely lengthen life is made by editor O. H. Downey, of Churubusco, Ind., "I wish to state," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is the most infallible remedy that I have ever known for coughs, colds and grip. It's invaluable to people with weak lungs. Having this wonderful medicine no one need dread pneumonia or consumption. It's relief is instant and cure certain." All druggists guarantee every 50c and $1.00 bottle, and give trial bottles free.

GALLUP.

From the Republican.
Hon. Alex. Bowie has gone to Pueblo, Colo., on a business trip.
M. B. Johnson, who has had a severe case of the grip is able to be out on the streets.
Lorenzo Hubbell, Jr., stopped over here a day on his way from Albuquerque to Ganado.

Walter Chapman, son of W. R. Chapman, having passed the civil service examination, is now a clerk in the Denver postoffice.
Henry Maynor, a well known miner who spent several years in this community, has returned from a several months' sojourn in Colorado. They all come back.

T. M. Trimble, an old time resident of Gallup and vicinity, left for Wake-town, Denton county, Texas, accompanied by his estimable family.

Contractor E. F. Kenney will leave for Daguerre, Cal., where he is called on important mining matters. He will be absent for a week or ten days.
A. L. Granger has located twenty-six oil claims in the oil belt northeast of here. He is interested with eastern parties and it is hoped that some of the property will be developed soon.
Fred French, a brother of Mrs. Simon Frost, stopped over here on a short visit. He is an engineer in the employ of the Southern Pacific and has had a run out of Los Angeles for several years. He is well and favorably known by many of the old timers here as he served his apprenticeship on the Atlantic & Pacific.

Ollie McCue, son of the late August McCue, who was found frozen to death near Fort Wingate, has arrived from Arizona and will take out letters of administration on the estate. At the time the body was found the wagon was wedged in between some rocks and the horses had had nothing to eat for ten days. One of the horses had turned cannibal, and had eaten so much of the other horse's neck that the injured animal had to be killed.

George Adler, miner at Weaver, was fatally crushed by a fall of rock. He suffered very much for two days before his death. The funeral took place from the Catholic church at Gallup under the direction of Undertaker Finger and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. He had been in the United States but a short time, was not married, and the only relatives here are nephews.

Heads Should Never Ache.

Never endure this trouble. Use at once the remedy that stopped it for Mrs. N. A. Webster, of Winnie, Va., she writes: "Dr. King's New Life Pills wholly cured me of sick headaches I had suffered from two years." Cure headache, constipation, biliousness, 25c at all druggists.

DEMING.

From the Headlight.
Steve Birchfield, Jr., is very sick with an attack of pneumonia.
Edward Pennington will soon begin a new addition to his country home.
Mrs. Mary Deemer has been appointed administratrix of the estate of the late John A. Deemer.
The Victoria Land and Cattle company shipped thirty cars of cattle to California the first of the week.
Rumor says the United States custom port of entry, now at Columbus, will soon be removed back to Deming.

All the mechanics and builders in Deming are working full time, and with no prospect for a lay off in sight, or probable.

Mrs. Henry Nordhaus was called to Clifton, Arizona, the first of the week, by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Morris.

Lots of new buildings nearing completion, and many more in prospect. Deming hasn't any "boom," but she gets there just the same.
Dr. and Mrs. Carl Hagen with their daughters left Deming for Germany, where they will remain for six months or longer. Dr. Hagen, while away, will devote his time to further study of his profession.

If you are troubled with impure blood, indicated by sores, pimples, headache, etc., we would recommend Acker's Blood Elixer, which we sell under a positive guarantee. It will always cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons and all blood diseases. 50 cents and $1. J. H. O'Reilly & Co. and B. H. Briggs & Co.

HILLSBORO.

From the Advocate.
It is reported that A. J. Sager, the sawmill man, recently received an order from R. H. Hopper to cut 500,000 feet of lumber for building purposes.

Latest reports from Thos. Ingalls are that he is doing well and will recover. Dr. Beals, who attended the wounded man, cut out the bullet just above the ear. Mr. Ingalls had a close call.

Mrs. N. Grayson returned from Shawnee City, Oklahoma, where she and her daughter, Miss Ethel, went some weeks ago to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Hopper. Miss Ethel's health is much improved and she will stay indefinitely.

W. Parcell, of Boston, Mass., who has been visiting with the family of Mrs. E. F. Pierson at the Mamie Richmond mine, left for California. Mr. Parcell is a salaried singer in one of the prominent churches in Boston, and having sustained an injury to the vocal organs, is now visiting the west to recuperate.

At the meeting on Monday the county commissioners voted an appropriation of $15 a month for the purpose of maintaining a certain number of street lamps at the court house and approaches thereto; a portion of the appropriation will go to defray the expense of a night watchman, whose business it will be to look after the safety of town and county property.

A Scientific Discovery.

Kodol does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or overloaded. Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. J. H. O'Reilly & Co. and B. H. Briggs & Co.

The municipal expenses of New York are approximately $100,000,000 a year.

Of 23,000 children placed in families by the Children's Aid society, only 60 have been arrested and sent to reform schools.

While London has 47 telephones per 10,000 inhabitants, Paris, 71; New York, 150, and San Francisco, 706, Stockholm reaches the figure of 980.

Berlin has its first female barbers—the wife and daughter of a hairdresser. In Bohemia, Hungary and Scandinavia there are many women barbers.

In the year ending April 1, 1900, Berlin imported from Italy 50 car loads of cherries, 357 of table grapes, 245 of summer fruits, etc. In the following 12 months the business doubled.

A Leipzig physician expresses the opinion that on account of their delicate sense of touch blind persons are specially qualified for practicing massage. In Japan this is done very largely.

If all the reports that have reached the police within the past few days are true, diamond stealing by servants has reached the proportion of a mania in New York. Three young women employed in as many fashionable homes in the up-town section are now under arrest on this charge.

A Vermont town supports two papers which live in friendly discord. The Herald printed a meaningless item about one Sinaes S. Weneht, a Syrian, and the News copied it without the formality of giving credit. Grieffully the Herald now points out that the fictitious Syrian's name spelled backward proclaims the truth, well known locally that "the News steals."

Peel the apples and slice thinly. Take a quart of flour, two eggs, half a cupful of sugar and enough sweet milk to make rather a thick batter. Stir in the sliced apples and fry till brown in boiling lard. Sprinkle with sugar as soon as taken from the kettle.—Albany Argus.
