Thirteen mills is to be the tax levy for the first fiscal year of the new state. That is three mills more than the last levy made under the territorial form of government. State Auditor W. G. For the purpose of raising revenue to pay appropriations made by law, for state purposes and for state, charitable and penal institutions, I respectfully request that you cause a levy of eleven and one-half mills on the dollar to be made upon all the taxable property within your county; the same when collected to be turned into the state treasury to the credit of the first fiscal year of the state of New Mexico, to be distributed by the state treasurer as required by law.

For the purpose of raising revenue for the various sinking funds and the payment of interest on the state debt, I respectfully request that you cause a levy of one and one-half mills on the dollar to be made upon all the taxable property within your county; the same when collected to be turned into the state treasury to the credit of the first fiscal year of the state of New Mexico to be distributed by the state treasurer by law.

Complying with an order of the Sheep Sanitary Board, as required by Sec. 9, Chap. 55, Laws 1903, you are requested to cause a levy of eight mills to be made upon each dollar of the assessed value of all sheep assessed within your county; the same when collected to be turned into the state treasury to the credit of the Sheep Sanitary Fund.

I respectfully call your attention to the provisions of Senate Bill No. 172 as amended, in regard to school levies.

Respectfully yours,
W. G. SARGENT,

PARKER WINS CHAIRMANSHIP
OVER BRYAN ON FIRST VOTE*Democratic Convention Opens in Baltimore at Noon Today Without Much Enthusiasm and Adjourns Suddenly in Midst of Keynote Speech When Delegates With Whoop Rush for the Doors and Fresh Air Outside.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)

BRYAN LOSSES FIRST ROUND.

Baltimore, Md., June 25.—William J. Bryan lost his first fight for the progressive control of the Democratic national convention today when he was defeated for temporary chairman of the convention by Alton B. Parker.

Mr. Bryan first nominated Senator Kern to oppose Parker. The latter declined the honor and named Mr. Bryan to make the fight. The Nebraska made an eloquent plea "For the cause he had represented for sixteen years" but it was unavailing.

The debate preceding the roll call threw the convention into wild disorder. The vote was Parker, 579; Bryan, 506; Gorman, 4.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, Md.

June 25.—The Democratic national convention met at 12:16 today. The invocation was pronounced by Cardinal Gibbons who said:

"We pray Thee, O God of might, wisdom and justice, through Whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted and judgment decreed, assist with Thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude, the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people over whom he presides, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion, by a faithful execution of the laws of justice and mercy and by restraining vice and immorality."

"Let the light of Thy divine Wisdom direct the deliberations of this Convention and shine forth in all its proceedings and enactments, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace and good will and the preservation of concord and harmony."

"May authority be exercised without deposition, and liberty prevail without license. May this Convention demonstrate once more to the American people and to the world at large, that the citizens of the United States have solved the problem of self-government by exercising and tolerating freedom of discussion in their political assemblies without detaching reason and without invading the sacred and inviolable domain of law and public order."

"May the delegates assembled to select a candidate for chief magistrate be ever mindful that they are the sons of the same Heavenly Father, that they are the brothers of the same national family, that they are fellow citizens of the same glorious Republic, that they are joint heirs of the same heritage of freedom, and may it be their highest ambition to transmit this precious inheritance, unimpaired to their children and their children's children. May the consciousness of this community of interest or of destiny banish from their hearts all bitterness, hatred and ill-will, and inspire them with sentiments of genuine charity, benevolence and mutual respect and forbearance."

"We recommend likewise to Thy unbounded mercy all our brethren and fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of Thy most holy law; that they may be preserved in union and in that peace which the world cannot give and after enjoying the blessings of this life, they may be admitted to those which are eternal."

The doors of the convention hall opened at 10 o'clock. A heavy rain was falling and it was a full hour before there were any considerable number of arrivals. At 11 o'clock the seats set apart for delegates and alternates were empty and there were not more than fifty spectators on hand.

As the noon hour approached, the hall filled rapidly. A band played popular airs and was frequently applauded.

Texas Drew First Applause.

The first wave of applause came when the Texas delegation entered waving a Wilson banner. Cardinal Gibbons entered the hall at 11:45 accompanied by a number of convention officials.

Popular southern airs culminating with Dixie brought out frequent bursts from the throng, who waited impatiently.

The committee on convention arrangements had given the most prominent places to states having avowed presidential candidates.

To the right of the main aisle and directly in front was Missouri, home state of Speaker Champ Clark. To the left was New Jersey, with Woodrow Wilson as a favorite son.

Delegates Slow in Coming.

The convention officials began taking their places on the platform a few minutes before noon. The floor of the convention hall was now well filled with delegates but some of the notable ones—New Jersey, Missouri and Nebraska—had not yet arrived.

Mr. Bryan with his brother, Charles Bryan, and two friends, went to the convention hall shortly before 12 o'clock.

It was stated just as the Bryan party left his rooms that there was nothing to say regarding the temporary chairmanship, as present plans might undergo a sudden change on the convention floor.

Senator John W. Kern of Indiana, practically has been agreed upon as the candidate of the Progressives for temporary chairman of the national convention at a conference this morning in which Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, Senator Kern, Senator Gore of Oklahoma, Senator Newlands of Nevada, National Committeeman Garber of Ohio and Charles W. Bryan, participated.

Bryan Weeps Salty Tears.

Mr. Bryan said that he felt very keenly about the situation and was prepared to make the speech of his life in defense of his attitude and against the "big interests" which he declared were opposing him. Some of Mr. Bryan's callers declared that tears came to the Nebraska's eyes as he discussed the situation. That he was in deadly earnest was most apparent.

Bryan Seeks Seclusion.

Mr. Bryan slipped into the Convention Hall by one of the side entrances and was on the platform some minutes without being recognized by the waiting throng. He shook hands with Cardinal Gibbons who was waiting to pronounce the opening invocation, and then took a seat well secluded from the gaze of the crowd. Bryan continued to screen himself from the crowd and few knew he was present.

Up to that time Charles F. Murphy, Alton B. Parker and several other conservative leaders still were absent. Chairman Mack called the convention to order at 12:16 p. m. and practically quieted the uneasy and noisy throng.

Judge Parker entered the convention hall just after proceedings had opened, accompanied by the New York delegation. There was little demonstration.

Delegates Were Disorderly.

Continued disorder delayed the opening proceedings and chairman Mack appealed to delegates to take their seats and clear the aisles.

A Texas delegate with a stentorian voice shouted to Chairman Mack that 150 delegates still were in line outside the hall and that the convention should not proceed until they could get in.

At 12:30 practically all the delegates were in place and appeals were again made for order.

The call for the Democratic national convention was formally read at 12:32 by one of the secretaries.

Cardinal Gibbons, in his brilliant scarlet robes pronounced the opening invocation, the entire assemblage standing with bowed heads.

Senator Kern entered the hall as the prayer closed and received a round of applause.

Parker Is Loudly Chanted.
Chairman Mack directed the reading of the names of the temporary officers. The first name—Alton B. Parker, of New York, for temporary chairman was greeted with a great wave of cheering to which the band added its lively strains.

William Jennings Bryan rose suddenly on the platform and was greeted with immense cheering. Bryan stood in the center of the platform while wave after wave of tumultuous cheering swept over the hall. He motioned for silence, but the cheering kept up.

Last Fight for Peace.

A last desperate effort to avert a bitter factional fight was made by the Bryan forces when the Democratic convention took up the problem of selecting a temporary chairman today. So sharp did the lines divide that Mr. Bryan himself became a candidate for the temporary chairmanship.

After Bryan had made a speech nominating Senator Kern of Indiana and attacking Alton B. Parker, Bryan took the stand. He made a plea for harmony, asked Parker to join him in withdrawing from the contest for temporary chairman and substituting any one of a list of several men.

After waiting in vain for a reply from Parker, Kern himself withdrew and nominated Bryan.

Again Bryan took the platform. He accepted the nomination and the line up for definite struggle was completed.

Election Is Made Unanimous.

On motion of Luke Lea of Tennessee, Parker's election as temporary chairman was made unanimous.

Judge Parker was escorted to the platform by Senator Stone of Missouri, Senator Lea of Tennessee, and Judge Westcott of New Jersey, and continued cheers. Judge Parker was presented by Chairman Mack and began his keynote speech as temporary chairman. He said in part:

"We meet while the hills yet echo to wild cries of liar, thief and traitor and furious walls of fraud, bribery, treachery and corruption; and our ears are weary with the din of the articulate shrieking and passionate vilification of the most shameful brawl of our political history."

"Our candidates, however, are without exception, men of such lofty mind that we meet immune from the distemper which seized the Chicago convention and privileged to discharge a solemn public duty calmly, deliberately, seriously."

Calis It a Brawl.

"The cause of government by the people the world over has been materially checked by the disgraceful brawl which terminated in the ballroom of Chicago. Every good citizen has been put to shame by the brutality and the abuse which characterized this struggle between a president and his representative."

"The assault upon the unwritten prohibition against a third term made in the wild scramble for the Republican nomination, warns us of the vital necessity of incorporating in our constitution a safeguard against repeated terms."

"In the very beginning of our constitution making it was urged by delegates participating that safety required a constitutional limitation of the period of years one man might hold the office of president. History warned them of the coming of a man whose insatiable lust of power would be as consuming as Cæsar's, towering high above his love of country. The danger seemed to the pessimists to have passed with the establishment of a precedent by Washington, Jefferson and their successors. Indeed where lives the man who has not either heard or said that an unwritten law forbids more than two terms and if any one could be so foolhardy as to seek further he would be crushed by the wrath of a patriotic and intelligent people."

Hot Shots for Theodore.

"The man who split his party at Chicago, once recognized the third term tradition and acknowledged its application to his situation. On the eve of his triumph in 1904 he said: 'The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for, or accept, another nomination.'"

"Wrong in this year of grace he was right in that. Peradventure he was honest with his soul and he may have confessed to it that even a president may be tempted to resort to sordid devices and shameless importunities to gain his ambition."

"If so he was in mental condition to realize to the full the danger to the republic involved in setting aside a custom constituting the only bulwark against the assaults of men whose ambitions choke their patriotism and whose selfish desire for personal victory and power throttles those moral scruples with which they may once have been endowed."

Perpetual Office Holders.

"Would the man who threw his hat in the ring and sought to slug his opponent over the rope in his fight for a third term rest satisfied with its achievement? Clearly his lust of power would have brooked no such limitation. A third term would have brooked no such limitation."

A third term would have whetted his desire for more and as the terms slipped away each renewal would discover greater injury to our constitution, to the form of government established under it and to every legal curb on his imperious will."

"This is the man who menaced us with an increase of federal power by usurpation of state rights and without authority of constitutional amendments; the man who took the isthmus of Panama, and let Congress debate about it afterward." The man appealed to delegates to take their seats and clear the aisles.

A Texas delegate with a stentorian voice shouted to Chairman Mack that 150 delegates still were in line outside the hall and that the convention should not proceed without them.

MURDERERS OF WOMEN
DECLARES SOCIALIST.*Bitter Outbreak in House of Commons
England, Over Jailing of Militant Suffragettes in London.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
London, June 25.—Intense embitterment has been engendered in England by the forcible feeding of the imprisoned suffragettes who declared a hunger strike while in jail. This was reflected in an extraordinary way in the House of Commons when George Lansbury, a Socialist member, denounced Premier Asquith and the government in such vitriolic terms that the speaker ordered him to leave the house, and threatened to have him ejected unless he went out voluntarily. Timothy Henly, the Nationalist, had appealed to Premier Asquith to release the women and the premier replied that they could leave prison this afternoon on the understanding not to repeat their offenses.

Mr. Lansbury immediately projected himself at the treasury bench, shaking his fist in the faces of Premier Asquith and the other ministers. With his face only a few inches from that of Mr. Asquith, Mr. Lansbury screamed: "You're beneath contempt. You know the women cannot give such a promise. It is dishonorable to ask them to do so. Talk of Russia! Russian atrocities! Why you will go down in history as the torturers and murderers of innocent women! You ought to be driven out of office!"

The house was quickly in disorder. The speaker, however, finally secured quiet and ordered Mr. Lansbury to leave.

The third party, Mr. Taft predicted, would not detract from the President's strength. Mr. Taft and his wife will be abroad until September.

McKinley Laughs at Roosevelt.

Washington, D. C., June 25.—Director McKinley of the Taft bureau today dictated a denial of the statement by Colonel Roosevelt that he could have won the nomination from President Taft on certain conditions which he refused.

"To any one knowing the situation, the statement of Colonel Roosevelt that he could have had the nomination on Saturday certainly is very amusing," was Mr. McKinley's statement.

Belong to the long ago;

But cheer up now and cease to sigh—

There, little boy, don't cry,

Don't cry!

There, little boy, don't cry!

They have stopped your noise, I know,

And the shells and bombs

That have burned your thumbs.

Are things of the long ago;

But better things will soon come by—

There, little boy, don't cry,

Don't cry!

There, little boy, don't cry.

You are growing up, I know.

But you're one of those boys

Who will make a great noise

Packing Plant for El Paso.

Within the next six months El Paso may secure one of the biggest meat packing plants in the country, backed by one of the biggest packers in the United States. That it will be an extensive plant is evidenced by the fact that an option has been taken on 104 acres of land within the city limits and the plans of the consulting engineer call for about thirty acres more.—El Paso Times.

OFFICIAL NOTES

New Mexico Educational Association.

To All Friends of Education:
The enclosed is an announcement of the general program outlined by the executive committee at its meeting in Albuquerque, June 15th, 1912. The program of sections are being rapidly completed and we hope to be able to announce the complete program by September 1st, 1912.

All indications point to the largest gathering in the history of the association and we anticipate an attendance of between 700 and 800. Albuquerque is by far the largest city in New Mexico and is easily able to take care of a much larger crowd. Let all teachers, school officers and friends of education therefore, plan to be present.
You will find welcome, accommodations, and enthusiasm in abundance.

The meeting will be important not only in attendance and enthusiasm, but in the far reaching plans which will be outlined for school improvement and educational progress. Come and have a hand in the "biggest enterprise in which a state can engage—the education of its children." At the meeting of the legislature next winter, the results of our plans will be laid before our senators and representatives in Santa Fe for enactment into laws which will mean much to the children of the state. Our attendance and enthusiasm at Albuquerque next November will assist greatly in securing proper legislation.

There is only one way to cure deaf-remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lin-

this tube is inflamed you have a rum-

when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflamrestored to its normal condition, hear-

HANDS WOULD BURN LIKE FIRE

Could Lay Pin in Cracks. Four Long Years of Eczema. Only Relief in Scratching. Used One Set of Cuticura Remedies.
Hands Entirely Well.

"I can truthfully say Cuticura Remedies have cured me of four long years of eczema. About four years ago I noticed some little pimples coming on my little finger, and not giving it any attention, it soon became worse and spread all over my hands. If I would have them in water for a long time, they would burn like fire and large cracks would come. I could lay a pin in them. After using all the salves I could think of, I went to three different doctors, but all did me no good. The only relief I got was scratching."

"So after hearing so much about the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, I purchased one complete set, and after using them three days my hands were much better. To-day my hands are entirely well, one set being all I used." (Signed)
Miss Ella Barber, R. F. D. 2, Spring
Lake, Mich., Sept. 26, 1910.

No stronger evidence than this could be given of the success and economy of the Cuticura Remedies in the treatment of scurrying, disgusting humors of the skin. A single hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuti-curea Ointment are often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases and permit rest and sleep when all else fails. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are equally effective in preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands.

Although Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp, will be mailed free on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept.

CAPTAIN MURRAY HAS NEW KIND OF BIRD.

Deputy Game Warden at Roswell Has Hybrid Pheasant of the Chinese Ring Neck Persuasion.

(Roswell Morning News)

Captain M. S. Murray, deputy game warden, is a really happy man. Captain Murray gets his butter, eggs, chicken and quab for the table first hand. To make a long story short, Captain Murray besides being deputy game warden, is something of a poultry fancier on a small scale. He has experimented in cross-breeding until he has secured an excellent type of cross between China ring neck pheasants and the ordinary hen. The little ones now a month old are vigorous long legged, close feathered, and very active.

Two sets of the China ring neck pheasants have been released for country propagation, one set on the Oasis ranch, and the other on the Hamilton ranch. Captain De Bremond has also raised these birds for propagation on his own ranch.

Captain Murray is enthusiastic about the prospect for the development of this species throughout the state, and urges farmers everywhere to encourage the raising of the China ring neck.

A heavy fine is provided for the protection of the wild fowl, and a liberal reward is offered anyone who assists in the apprehension of persons molesting the pheasants.

GRADUATION EXERCISES OF ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Loretto Auditorium Crowded With Representative Audience—E. P. Davies Commencement Orator—Medals and Honors Bestowed—Successful Year.

The last commencement of the year, that of St. Michael's college, last evening, crowded the spacious auditorium of Loretto academy. The stage and proscenium were tastefully decorated for the occasion. Banners and pendants in purple and white inscribed with the words: "St. Michael's," were suspended from the center of the stage ceiling and other vantage points with ribbon streamers forming garlands. In front of, and below the footlights, were banked potted plants and cut flowers in profusion. The pupils sat in front to one side of the hall and in the first row of seats sat Brother Edward, the president of the college, with the faculty, visiting priests and guests of honor, while to the very last seat and even standing, were crowded a representative audience that included many officials, professional men, ladies, and girls and boys of the capital.

The Program.
It was exactly eight o'clock, when the exercises began. Outside of the commencement orator and the awarding of the long list of medals and honors, the rendition of the musical, literary and oratorical program took exactly one hour. There were three orations. Fernando Armijo described Socialism in the United States, reviewing its growth and history, warning against its insidious precepts and describing the great Catholic church as the most formidable bulwark that will prevent Socialism from sweeping over the entire nation. Felix Gomez described in glowing words the possibilities, opportunities, natural resources of New Mexico in his oration "Our Possibilities." It was a good immigration talk that preceded the last oration, "Immigration," by Benjamin Sineros, in which the orator presented strong reasons why the educational test is not a proper test for immigrants, incidentally dwelling on the need and benefits of immigration, as well as the injustice of the sentiment that would bar immigration from this country. H. Cortes, with dramatic fire and fervid, patriotic eloquence that seemed to sweep everything before it, recited Drake's beautiful poem: "The American Flag." All of the speakers were frequently interrupted by applause.

The musical part of the program was noteworthy. It included the vocal duet "Beautiful Venice," by F. Cavignio and E. Tipton, who had to respond to an encore because of the spirit and tunefulness with which they rendered the selection. "Lullaby Watch" and "Tramp, Tramp," the latter ringing with praise for school days and the Alma Mater, were rendered with precision and spirit by the entire school chorus, directed by Brother Edward with Brother David as accompanist and leader on the piano. The orchestral selections, given by a complete orchestra, also evoked merited applause, the selections being "Silver Star," "Dancing Starlight" and a "Finale." The junior orchestra, even outdid the older pupils, although in a simpler selection, "Evergreen Schottische."

Awarding of Honors.
The four graduates, Fernando Armijo, Benjamin Sineros, Felix Gomez and Venecio Serna, were then awarded their honors by Monsignor Antonio Fourchegu, Brother Edwards calling off the list. Medals were also bestowed as follows:
Awards.
Gold medal for Christian Doctrine, donated by Right Rev. Mar. Fourchegu. Won by Venecio Serna; second honors, Fernando Armijo.
Gold medal for oratory, donated by Rev. Dean G. Splinters. Won by Benjamin Sineros; next in merit, Felix Gomez.

Orator of the Evening.
Assistant District Attorney E. P. Davies was the orator of the evening and his address was one of eloquence and good advice. He dwelt on the self-sacrifice work of the Christian Brothers and the excellent educational opportunities offered by St. Michael's College. He impressed upon the graduates that their work is far from completed, that the field of knowledge is still opening up to them. He told of his own boyhood, of the struggles of his parents in a country and one of the central states which boasted that it had only three Catholic families,

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is usually a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perfect its work. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents caking of the breasts, and in every way contributes to strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. yet, how the seven grown sons and daughters of that family still cling to the faith of their father and mother. (Applause.) In conclusion, he dwelt on the thought, that the graduates of St. Michael's College should make it easier for poor boys to attain such educational advantages as St. Michael's college offers; how they should, with gifts and endowments, enable the college to extend its work so that Santa Fe would have a great Catholic university; how in this work should be included vocational training, the one great need of New Mexico in order to develop to the fullest its possibilities, the one great, consuming dream and endeavor of Archbishop Phalar. Storms of applause swept over the audience at frequent intervals as Mr. Davies spoke.

Had a Successful Year.
Under Brother Edwards' guidance, St. Michael's college has had a most successful year, during the term having enrolled 125 and more boarding students. The institution is one of great material benefit to the city, and certainly, of incalculable educational value to the commonwealth. It is conducted by the Christian Brothers and has had especial success in training young men for business life.

JOHNSON GETS NEW OFFER FOR FIGHT.

Hugh McIntosh Telegraphs Challenge for Battle in Australia for $30,000 Win or Lose.

(By Special Leased Wire to New Mexican)
Las Vegas, N. M., June 25.—Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, has written Champion Jack Johnson and offered him $30,000 for a bout to be fought in Kangaroo-land within the next year. It is supposed Johnson's prospective antagonist is Sam Langford, though the name of that colored fighter is not mentioned. McIntosh offers to post at once a forfeit of $10,000 as a guarantee of good faith. Johnson has not yet decided whether he will accept the offer.

Attell Seeks Ring Site.
San Francisco, Calif., June 25.—"Abc" Attell, former featherweight champion "Harlem" Tommy Murphy, and his managers are busy today trying to pick a ring site for the 20 round fight which was to have come off in James Coughlin's arena at Daly City on July 4.

The trustees of Daily City, a suburb of San Francisco by a vote of 3 to 2 refused late last night to grant Coughlin a permit. They based their action on the publication of a newspaper story, after the last Attell-Murphy bout here, that Murphy had agreed to let Attell win and then "double cross" him in the ring. Attell was out-fought and lost the decision.

BABY NEEDS WATCHING IN SUMMER TIME.
Their Little Stomachs Get Out of Order Easily in Hot Weather.

Mothers should watch closely the condition of the children's bowels, babies especially. Keep the bowels regular and much of the illness to which children are most susceptible in summer can be prevented. The most prevalent symptoms are constipation and diarrhoea. When waste from the stomach congests in the bowels and makes your little one feverish and fretful, with a feeling of heaviness or languor, try giving it a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime. By morning this pleasant, mild laxative will act gently, yet positively, and restore normal conditions. This simple, natural remedy is also invaluable in checking summer diarrhoea. By thoroughly cleansing the bowels, the foreign matter and poisons that irritate and inflame the tissues are eliminated. Don't torture the child with harsh cathartics, purgative or irritant remedies, that upset the whole system, and at best only relieve temporarily. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, while positive in its effect, acts gently and without crippling or discomfort, restoring normal conditions.

In using Syrup Pepsin for children the mother can feel perfectly safe, as it contains no opiates or narcotic drug, being a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. By carrying off the dislodged tissues of mucous membrane that inflame the nasal passages it will quickly break the "summer cold" that is so annoying. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists for fifty cents a bottle—the larger family size, one dollar. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The platform adopted by the Republican party in national convention in Chicago will, in the light of future events, come to be one of the strong, fearless and able platforms of American politics.

It evades no issue; it resorts to no subterfuge; it places before the nation a set of principles that are honest, wise and in keeping with the past magnificent history of the great party.

It is fitting that in its opening phrases, it again calls attention to Abraham Lincoln and his tolerance towards all with malice towards none—a man who came in the hour of need, as the leader not only of a party but of a nation torn with civil war and who, when that war was over, uttered the first words for peace in an effort to reunite the north and the south.

As Abraham Lincoln has come to be universally revered and respected and his memory sacredly cherished by both of the great factions of those days and their progeny, so will the platform adopted at Chicago, in the course of time, stand out as a document of wisdom in an hour of uncertainty.

First of all, the platform calls attention to the wonderful growth of this nation under the wise provisions of the national constitution, as drafted by the founders of the republic and the party is pledged to uphold the wise provisions of that great document under which nearly one hundred millions of people have lived and prospered in one of the greatest nations the world has ever known.

The platform says: "The Republican party is, as always, a party of advanced constructive statesmanship. It is prepared to go forward with the solution of those new questions which social economical and political development have brought into the forefront of the nation's interest."

It then declares that the Republican party will strive both in the nation and in the state to enact the necessary legislation to protect public health, regulate the labor of women and children and to protect wage earners engaged in dangerous employment. It declares for an adequate employers liability act and for the protection of the rights of all.

With reference to the recall of the judiciary the platform openly and honestly opposes it but declares in favor of a law that shall make it easier and quicker to remove from office any corrupt member of the bench.

It clearly states its opposition to monopoly and to illegal combinations of capital in restraint of trade and declares for a law that shall clearly define such offense so that those who honestly are trying to obey the law will know specifically what constitutes an offense.

For the adjustment of interstate commerce and all matters of trade, a national trades commission is advocated. Of greatest importance to the varied industries of New Mexico is the stand taken for a protective tariff. On this the platform says:

"The protective tariff is so woven into the fabric of our industrial and agricultural life that to substitute for it a tariff for revenue only would destroy many industries and throw millions of our people out of employment. The products of the farm and the mines should receive the same measure of protection as other products of American labor."

There is no chance for an argument against the protective tariff so far as New Mexico is concerned and very little in any of the other states for the American standard of living has been fixed and fixed by a Republican regime. The workman, the stockraiser, the manufacturer, the miner and in fact all lines of industry and those dependent thereon, need the protection of a tariff or they must come to the standard of cheap labor, scant living, uncertain existence and the various other evils which would be the direct result of free trade.

One great industry alone in New Mexico, the wool industry, would be absolutely wrecked and the thousands of people dependent upon it would be unemployed.

The platform admits that some of the import duties are too high while others are too low and it advocates a readjustment from time to time of tariff schedules to meet changing conditions.

The platform declares that the proper way to prepare a tariff is by a scientific study of all conditions entering into the complicated question and the Democratic party is severely condemned for refusing to provide for a continuance of the tariff board or failing to provide some other means for a scientific study of the tariff questions. The Democratic tariff bills are condemned for failing to present tariff measures, based upon a proper knowledge of the needs of the country.

This in brief, is a review of the platform upon which the Republican party goes before the nation and when the Democratic party has equalled it, then and then only, will that party be in position to appeal to the people that it be again entrusted with the reins of government.

FROM WOOL TO CLOTH.

The Republican tariff has made possible the sheep industry in New Mexico with something like twenty million dollars invested, producing three million dollars worth of wool and more than six million dollars worth of lambs each year, the revenue from which finds its way into local banking and business channels, giving employment to some 20,000 families and more, and helping in many ways in the up-building of the State.

A Democratic victory in the fall, or rather, a Republican defeat, would destroy that important industry as far as New Mexico is concerned. With that destruction would also vanish a new hope, the likelihood that eventually woolen mills, tanneries and allied manufacturing industries, would establish themselves in New Mexico.

The completion of the Panama Canal which, by the way, is another Republican achievement, will place New Mexico in an exceptionally advantageous position for manufacturing purposes, for besides having the markets of Mexico on the south, factories here will be equidistant from the port of San Diego on the Pacific and Galveston on the Gulf.

The New Mexican is just in receipt of a nicely printed monograph, entitled, "From Wool to Cloth," which, with its illustrations, tells much about the wool industry that people should know and that is important, especially to New Mexico. For instance, the fact that the United States raises less than one-seventh of the raw wool that is produced in the world, and less than two-thirds of that used in the United States, in itself shows that the industry is one capable of rapid expansion and no state is as well located for that purpose as New Mexico. The processes of manufacture are such that low-priced labor, good water like that found at Santa Fe or Deming, climate under which perspiration is reduced to a minimum, are important factors, that will sooner or later, locate many woolen mills in this immediate vicinity.

That is, providing the Republicans this fall carry this State and the Nation, and thus assure the continuance of the Protective Tariff policy and the square deal to capital, enterprise and the workmen.

UTILIZING SURPLUS ORCHARD PRODUCTS.

This is an abundant fruit year and thousands of dollars worth of fruit will be wasted in New Mexico orchards because fruit raisers have not yet learned what to do with the surplus product. The erection of a cannery does not always solve the problem. It did not do so at Santa Fe, which through public subscription and stock sales equipped an up-to-date cannery, which languished and finally died from inattention. But in other countries, individual orchard owners have learned to handle the surplus fruit on their own account. There is, of course, the drying and preserving of fruit which every orchard owner might tackle for the erection of a big evaporator or cannery. In Serbia, for instance, the orchard owners produce plum jam that finds a market all over the world. It is boiled down to the consistency of hard cheese and is considered a staple that brings a certain market price the world over the same as wheat or corn. Last year, Serbia exported $568,659 worth of that jam, in addition to $2,192,262 worth of dried plums. In other words, these two items alone, in the little pocket kingdom of Serbia, amounted Valley Ranch, N. M., June 24, 1912. The heavy rains of yesterday did not prevent a number of Santa Feans from visiting the Upper Pecos, while the fishing was good in spite of the discoloration of the river.

Among the visitors to the Upper Pecos were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owen and their three children who are returning today, Mr. C. A. Whitely, Jeweler of Raton; Walter C. Hatley with Misses May and Consuela Bergere stopped in while out for a motor trip, while Sheriff Chas. Closson with a party consisting of Mr. Bennett, Mrs.

PARKER WINS CHAIRMANSHIP OVER BRYAN ON FIRST VOTE.

who having enough money to send the fleet on its famous cruise to the Pacific, sent it without sanction of Congress, leaving it to appropriate the money for the return when Congress deemed that necessary.

"This is the man who advocated federal incorporation for the increase of power at Washington and the lightening of legal burdens on the corporations; the man who caused the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the steel trust; the man who, by many such drastic acts and by unnumbered words has sought to batter down our statutory and constitutional safeguards."

Reference Made to Mexico.

"He who runs may read the danger that threatens the country ruled by such a man. Do we envy Mexico her thirty years of wedded life, or the war the divorce from Diaz precipitated, the end of which no man may prophesy? The way to prevent a life series of terms is to prevent the present attempt to capture the office of a third term. One of our opportunities in this campaign is to lead the fight against the third term. That opportunity should appeal to every drop of patriotic blood in our veins."

"Unquestionably we have been wrong in assuming that a tradition against a third term constitutes a sufficient safeguard against unscrupulous ambition for unlimited power. We need a definite constitutional limitation which shall prevent imperialistic souls from forcing personal continuation in office for long periods or for life, and the personal selection of a successor in office. And the constitutional provision should go one step further than our recently assailed tradition."

"The provision should limit to a single term. Then will the occupants of the office have before them but the one ambition so to fulfill the great trust reposed in them that upon retirement they shall hear from a grateful people the commendation 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.'"

Tariff Blamed for Ills.

"In this great country which boasts of a wealth of one hundred and thirty billion as against eighty billion for Great Britain, and Ireland; sixty billion for France and sixty-five billion for Germany; all are conscious that too large a part of our wealth has been secured by a small percentage of our population and that the cost of living rises faster than the average income."

"The principal cause of all this is to be found in the tariff statutes and in the combinations restraining trade and competition cheated for the purpose of wringing from the public every dollar which the tariff statutes make possible."

Sudden Adjournment Taken.

The crowds, wearied by long delay, began leaving the galleries and there was great disorder as Judge Parker sought to proceed.

The convention suddenly adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight without Judge Parker finishing his speech. This was at 3:47 p. m.

The motion to adjourn was made by Representative Fitzgerald and it was carried with a wild whoop, the delegates making a break for the doors despite the attempt of Judge Parker to continue. Judge Parker, seeing that it was useless to continue, suspended his remarks. The keynote speech may be made when the convention meets this evening.

Kern Makes Harmony Plea.

Senator Kern then took the platform and was mildly cheered. Kern said he wished to take no action which would prejudice Indiana's candidate for the presidency, Governor Marshall. "I believe that Judge Parker is as earnestly desirous of Democratic success this year as I am," continued Kern. Shouts of "Parker greeted the announcement. Kern appealed to Parker to unite with him in the support of Senator O'Gorman of New York; Senator Culberson of Texas; Representative Clayton of Alabama, or one of a number of others he designated.

Representative Fitzgerald of Brooklyn, in behalf of Judge Parker, made his way to the platform.

Jeers for Old Leader. Kern, continuing, protested against adverse cries of Bryan, exclaiming that jeers for the old leader meant not Democratic homicide, but suicide. When Parker declined to withdraw with him Kern withdrew and placed Mr. Bryan in nomination with the declaration that "If the appeals for harmony did not avail, then the Democrats must turn to the acknowledged leader, and that leader must be William J. Bryan."

Great cheering followed while Bryan again mounted the platform and motioned for order.

Bel Pleads for Parker. Theodore A. Bell, of California, took the platform to second the nomination of Parker. Cries of "Vote, Vote" interrupted the speech of Bell. Great disorder continued to interrupt Bell and the galleries were warned they would be cleared tomorrow if the disorderly scenes continued. Representative Fitzgerald of Brooklyn was recognized to speak in behalf of Parker. Fitzgerald spoke amid derisive yells from all quarters. The floor and galleries were in great disorder.

It was reported Senator Kern had been taken ill from the heat and had gone to his hotel.

Fitzgerald announced that Parker would not withdraw.

Roll Call on Chairman.

The roll call on temporary chairmanship began at 2:40.

WILL BRYAN ELOQUENCE SWEETENS THE CONVENTION.

Although defeated for temporary chairman by Alton B. Parker by a vote of 579 to 596, friends of W. J. Bryan do not concede that the Nebraskaan has been eliminated as a factor in subsequent deliberations of the Democratic national convention.

There can be no doubt that Mr. Bryan is the central figure as Mr. Roosevelt was in Chicago. The difference is that the latter made his fight outside the convention to win the Republican nomination for himself as a leading progressive, while the former is going into the Democratic convention, apparently to wage the battle of progressivism itself.

Many of the other recognized leaders of Democracy are wondering what will be the final power of Bryan's eloquence; whether that gift which inspired him to the famous "crown of thorns and cross of gold" speech and won the presidential nomination for him in 1896 again will be able to rally the party's support around him as the standard bearer.

Seven of Democracy's strong men are avowed candidates for the presidential nomination. None of them can do more than hope to receive the required 728 votes on the first ballot. Mr. Bryan has said repeatedly that he was in no sense a candidate, yet he entered the convention as a delegate from Nebraska, the second choice of more states than any avowed candidate. Since his arrival here Sunday night, Mr. Bryan has diplomatically evaded several efforts of friendly delegates to draw him out on the subject. It would seem from his demeanor that his greatest interest was to gain con-

And what is so rare as a day in June?
Why, a country land that plays in

OVER BRYAN ON FIRST VOTE.

for temporary chairman, Senator Kern of Indiana. The delegates rose, cheered and swung their hats.

Bryan spoke slowly, his words being punctuated with cheers.

"If any of you ask for my credentials," he said, "I beg to tell you that in three campaigns I have been the champion of the Democratic party's principles and in three campaigns have received the votes of six and one-half million Democrats."

Tumultuous cheering.
"Has any one sought harmony more than I?" asked Bryan.

"No, no," came from all over the hall.

Bryan Was Turned Down.
Bryan said he had urged the national committee to consult the candidates, particularly the two leading candidates, but without avail. The friends of Wilson had united with those of Clark in favor of a candidate for temporary chairman, continued Bryan, "and had been turned down" by the national committee.

Bryan's stirring sentences still had the crowds cheering. "We are writing history today," he exclaimed, "the country is waiting to hear whether this convention will follow Chicago in listening to the voice of predatory wealth."

Galleries Shut for Parker.
Bryan had spoken twenty-two minutes, when there were demonstrative interruptions from the galleries, with cries of "Parker."

"The song of victory should be sung by one whose heart has been in the fight," was one of Bryan's stirring phrases.

"What better man could we find than Kern?" exclaimed Mr. Bryan.

"Parker" came shouts in reply, mingled with "Kern."

Bryan said the people had not forgotten the promise of campaign funds from Wall Street, eight years ago.

After Bryan had spoken 36 minutes
there was another outburst of "Parker" shouts from the galleries.

Appeals to Leader's Vain.
Bryan said he had appealed to one ability and consistent record of Kern, and closed at 1:28 amid tumultuous cheers, after speaking forty minutes.

Bryan said he had appealed to one leader after another to accept, but in vain; "and if no other Progressive appears," he declared, "I shall accept the candidacy and let you express through me, what you have fought for for sixteen years."

Sergeant-at-Arms Martin shouted above the disorderly din that the convention would be adjourned unless order could be secured and the speakers listened to.

Police Invade the Hall.
A platoon of police was marshaled into the hall and down the aisles in an effort to quell the disorder. A delegate vehemently protested against "gag rule." Bryan again took the platform, Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee, declared from the platform,
"We are not going to have a mob like Chicago. I demand order."

Bryan made a point of order that Chairman Mack had announced a roll call during the period of disorder but that under the rules each side should have opportunity to present its position.

Cone Johnson of Texas, aroused a tremendous outburst by the declaration: "The fight is now on with Bryan on one side and Wall Street on the other."

Foss Goes to Baltimore.
Boston, Mass., June 25.—Governor Eugene A. Foss who refused to be a presidential aspirant at the April primaries, but whose name is expected to be presented to the Democratic convention by Sherman L. Whipple will start tonight for Baltimore.

Wilson Directs Fight.
Sea Girt, June 25.—Over the telephone today Gov. Wilson directed from his cottage here the fight which his supporters made against the election of Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention.

The governor was in constant communication with William F. McCombs, his campaign manager and other Wilson leaders.

"Do you think that Mr. Bryan is a candidate for the nomination?" the governor was asked.

"I believe that Mr. Bryan is acting from conviction in true devotion to the cause of progress and without any selfish ulterior motive whatever," he explained. "Mr. Bryan has stated that he is not a candidate and I believe that he will stick to his statement."

Harmon is Not Nervous.
Columbus, Ohio, June 25.—Governor Harmon spent the day in his office at the capital getting his information from Baltimore from occasional messages from his lieutenants and from the newspapers here.

"I will depend on friends," said Gov.
Harmon today, "for information of interest. No one has been detailed to keep me informed. They know I am not nervous and they will let me know if anything of interest to me happens."

When asked regarding his attitude on the fight then being waged on Judge Parker for temporary chairman, Governor Harmon said:

"I am not going to mix in it at all.
My friends are looking after my interests, and I am going to leave everything to them. They are on the ground and are in close touch with the situation. I do not care to discuss that case at all."

PROCESSION FORMING AT ROSARIO CHAPEL IN ROSARIO CEMETERY.

HARKING BACK TO DAYS OF NEW MEXICO'S ROMANCE

DeVargas Day Pageant Will Be Spectacular Event to Attract Crowds From Far and Near to Santa Fe.

Harking back two and a quarter centuries, Santa Fe's De Vargas pageant on July 5, will bring vividly before the eyes the important part played by the Spaniards in the settlement of America. In fact, the very descendants of the Conquistadores, will ride in the same procession with the descendants of the Pueblo Indians who engaged in bloody battle with the men who had come from across the ocean to civilize and Christianize them. Nowhere else in the world can such a historic spectacle be staged within such historic and impressive surroundings as here at Santa Fe.

Becoming World Famous.

The pageant last July 4, was a success. No wonder the world is beginning to pay attention, and inquiries are pouring in from magazines and newspapers for feature stories of the event, and moving picture concerns are seeking exclusive concessions to take views of the pageant. Thoughtful men and women see in the pageant, the seed of an annual display that will become as famous as the Ober Ammergau Passion Play, for it is an

A Great Fiesta.

The pageant last year came as a pleasant surprise, for it exceeded even the expectations of those who worked to bring it about. It was the marvel of every tourist visitor and they went into ecstasies over it. This year many of them will bring others with them and it will be worth while. De Vargas and his noble retinue in historically correct costumes will again lead the ceremonies, but there will be more attendants; it is possible that Onate with one of the authentic battle flags of the Conquistadores will be on hand and that the Duke of Albuquerque is coming up with a noble retinue from the Duke City to participate. The chiefs of San Juan, San Ildefonso, Tesuque and Santa Clara have already promised to join the cavalcade with a hundred or more of their warriors, and their costumes will be no less striking than those of the Conquistadores. The Cleveland Grays will be here all afternoon and at an early evening hour the Plaza Fete will begin its merry doings. The Plaza will be elaborately decorated for the occasion. Surely, happenings enough for one Fiesta.

Here is Material for Romance.

Rehearsals will take place this week. The costumes are all in hand. One hundred descendants of the Conquistadores have been assigned their places of honor in the procession and are vying with each other to repeat and increase last year's success. They surely will. No one who can possibly go so far from neighboring cities, will fail to visit Santa Fe and crowds are coming from long distances to view the spectacle. Santa Fe's blue skies, delightful summer climate, scenic surroundings, are attractions in themselves, but when added to these there is an annual pageant like that of July 5, it will mean fame the world over. The story of the two entries of De Vargas and the reconquest of New Mexico in the dead of winter of 1692 and 1693 is a thrilling one. Every one should read it up in Attorney B. M. Read's Illustrated History of New Mexico in the dead of winter of 1692 proclamation of De Vargas, which will be repeated before a huge wooden cross in the Plaza opposite the portals of the famous Palace of the Governors, which was built several decades before De Vargas made his reconquest of

New Mexico. In the museums of this venerable building may be found many relics of those days and the historic and prehistoric days that preceded them in this very vicinity. Many an incident for a historic novel and romance, and all the local color the writer man wants, can be secured on July 5, when the history of thrilling days will be brilliantly repeated and exemplified.

The Program.

The procession will form at the historic Rosario Chapel in Rosario Cemetery, at which each year the promise of De Vargas is fulfilled with two processions from the Cathedral. It will follow much the same route as last year, but the program in detail will be published later. The noble steeds that will serve as mounts will be caparisoned with even greater splendor than at the former celebration, and details will be worked out to greater perfection by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Lola Love, wife of Wiley Love, a farmer living near Canyon, Ga., says: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and find them to be all you claim for them. They gave me almost instant relief when my kidneys were sluggish and inactive. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers from kidney troubles." For sale by all druggists.

MECHANICIAN KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE RACE.

American Wins First Half of Dangerous Drive on French Course But Uses an Italian Car.

By Special Licensed Wire to New Mexican.
Dieppe, France, June 25.—David Bruce Brown of New York, won the first half of the automobile grand prize, which started here at dawn today. He was, however, not representing the United States, but was driving an Italian car, the Fiat machine.

He completed the ten laps (a distance of 570 kilometers, or about 353 miles, 51.2 furlongs) composing the first day's program in six hours, 35 minutes, 28 seconds.

Bellet, driving a French Leon Peugeot machine, was second, only about two minutes behind, his time being 6 hours, 35 minutes, 16 seconds.

Bruce Brown's best lap, about 46 miles, was made in 37 minutes, 18 seconds. His hourly average was 76 miles, 71.2 furlongs.

Louis Wagner, piloting a Fiat, was third, his time being 7 hours 12 minutes.

At the start, Collinet, who was piloting a Gregoire machine, when trying to pass a competitor on the course, capsized. His mechanic, Bessignat, was killed instantly and Collinet himself injured seriously.

DOCTOR'S SHIFT.

Now Gets Along Without It.

A physician says: "Until last fall I used to eat meat for my breakfast and suffered with indigestion until the meat had passed from the stomach."

"Last fall I began the use of Grape-Nuts for breakfast and very soon found I could do without meat, for my body got all the nourishment necessary from the Grape-Nuts and since then I have not had any indigestion and am feeling better and have increased in weight."

"Since finding the benefit I derived from Grape-Nuts I have prescribed the food for all my patients suffering from indigestion or over-feeding and also for those recovering from disease where I want a food easy to take and certain to digest and which will not overtax the stomach."

"I always find the results I look for when I prescribe Grape-Nuts. For ethical reasons please omit my name." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The reason for the wonderful amount of nutriment, and the easy digestion of Grape-Nuts is not hard to find.

In the first place, the starchy part of the wheat and barley goes through various processes of cooking, to perfectly change the starch into dextrin or grape-sugar, in which state it is ready to be easily absorbed by the blood.

The parts in the wheat and barley which Nature can make use of for rebuilding brain and nerve centers are retained in this remarkable food, and thus the human body is supplied with the powerful strength producers, so easily noticed after one has eaten Grape-Nuts each day for a week or 10 days.

There's a reason, and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

PICTURE FILMS OF DE VARGAS DAY

Kalem Company Wires Secretary That It Will Send Expert and Six Players

BIG THING FOR SANTA FE

Twitchell Promises Railway Will Bring Big Crowds From All Over the Country.

John S. Harris, secretary of the chamber of commerce was notified by wire this morning that the Kalem company, the biggest moving picture concern in the United States would take films of the entire De Vargas day procession on the Fifth of July, and that in addition it would send George H. Medford, an expert scenic dramatist and six able scenic players to aid in staging the big event and to take such part in the procession as was necessary.

This is one of the greatest concessions ever made to any city the size of Santa Fe and it will mean advertising in thousands of moving picture shows all over the country that money could not buy.

Mr. Medford and his players will arrive here about July 1 in order to aid in the preparations and he'll set the stagings. The assistance of such a man as George Medford, means that the De Vargas day procession will be the greatest ever staged.

A meeting of the committee on arrangements and of the other committees is called for Thursday night at the chamber of commerce.

Colonel R. E. Twitchell of the Santa Fe railway, who is here, said last night that the De Vargas day event was being featured from one end of the Santa Fe system to the other and that the railway would make unusual effort to bring several thousand people to Santa Fe on that day from all over the United States.

The members of the chamber of commerce are enthusiastic over the acceptance by the Kalem company of the moving picture proposition and at their hearty response in sending some of their best known players here to aid in the procession. A letter was received by Mr. Harris today from the Cleveland Grays stating that they would arrive at 1 p. m. on July 5th and remain until evening. There will be 150 of them and they place themselves at the disposal of the De Vargas people for the time they are in the city. The Cleveland Grays are the most expert Zouave company in the United States and attract attention wherever they go. They will be met at the depot here by an escort of national guardsmen, by the First infantry band and by the reception committee. They will be escorted to the have all been prepared and outshine those of a year ago by one hundred per cent.

Best Phillips, the best known Indian artist in the United States, has informed the committee that he is shipping his fine collection of Indian paintings to this city and will exhibit them on De Vargas day in the School of Archaeology. This collection is valued at an enormous sum and some of the pictures have been hung in the most famous art salons of the old world. There will be no admission charged for the privilege of viewing these pictures and they will form one of the attractions of the many scheduled for that day. The secretary of the chamber of commerce is directing letters to the mayor of Las Vegas and Albuquerque asking them to send in second special trains and the attendance of a large number of people from their respective localities.

RECORD DAY FOR DULLNESS IN STOCKS.

Reading Was the Most Conspicuous In Speculative Group but General Outlook Was N. G.

(By Special Lensed Wire to New Mexican)

New York N. Y., June 25.—Records for dullness were eclipsed in today's early stock market. Heaviness was more general than yesterday with Reading again the most conspicuous feature in the speculative group. St. Paul, Union Pacific, and Lehigh Valley were under pressure, with increased weakness in Wabash issues.

The uncertain status of the copper market was seen in the drooping tendency of the metal shares which spread to steel. Politics and industrial unrest were not without their depressing influences and conflicting crop reports served as an additional factor. Bonds were steady.

The market closed firm.

Active issues hardened generally in the last hour and some specialties, including American Tobacco and Texas Company, made substantial gains.

CONSIGNMENT SALE

We have a shipment of beds which came in damaged and which we refused to accept from the Railroad Company. These beds are all slightly damaged, but not enough to hurt them as to service. The enamel is scratched off of some of them, and others have a rod bent. The damage does not affect the service or quality of the beds at all but we could not sell them as first class goods from our floor.

We arranged with the Railroad Company to sell the beds at whatever we could get for them, and make claim for the difference to them, and they have put the beds with us on consignment until they are sold. We are putting the prices below cost in order to move them, and you benefit by the railroad company's loss. Some of the beds are in our window while some are on our display floor. There are eleven beds in all, eight full size, in white, vernis martin, and one in satin brass. There are three 3-4 size, in white and vernis martin finish.

HAVE YOUR WATCH CLEANED OCCASIONALLY

A WATCH will run without oil or cleaning longer than any other piece of machinery—but it needs both occasionally.

If you will consider that the rim of the balance wheel travels over fifteen miles a day, you will not grudge your watch a speck of oil and a cleaning once a year. It will increase the life and accuracy of your watch. Leave your watch with us to-day.
