VOLUME 16 ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, TUESDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 14, 1902 NUMBER 272

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL FAIR

The Biggest Gathering Ever Seen in This City on First Day.

JUDGE B. S. BAKER'S APPROPRIATE REMARKS

A Most Exciting Game of Base Ball and Other Sports in Progress at the Grounds.

THE OFFICIAL PROGRAM FOR THIS EVENING AND TOMORROW

NEW MEXICO TERRITORIAL FAIR.

By Harry Ellard.

There are places of attraction that are advertised around. Each proclaiming its locality the best that can be found.

With its air so health-reviving, with its waters clear and pure, That all existing ailments can find a proper cure.

There's the circus in the summer and the opera when its cold, And all the plays upon the stage to suit the young and old.

There's the lecture in the evening, and the ever playing band, That discourses charming music as it travels o'er the land.

We give to each its credit for the amusement they afford, But in coming to conclusions each will say with one accord.

That the time and place to visit, entertaining one and all, Will be in Albuquerque, at the Fair we have this fall.

We will show that Albuquerque is a place of great renown, For its enterprise and progress it surpasses any town.

Our business is increasing in all branches large and small, You will see in Albuquerque at the fair we have this fall.

Our cattle and our horses are the purest stock on hand And our gardens are unequalled by any in the land.

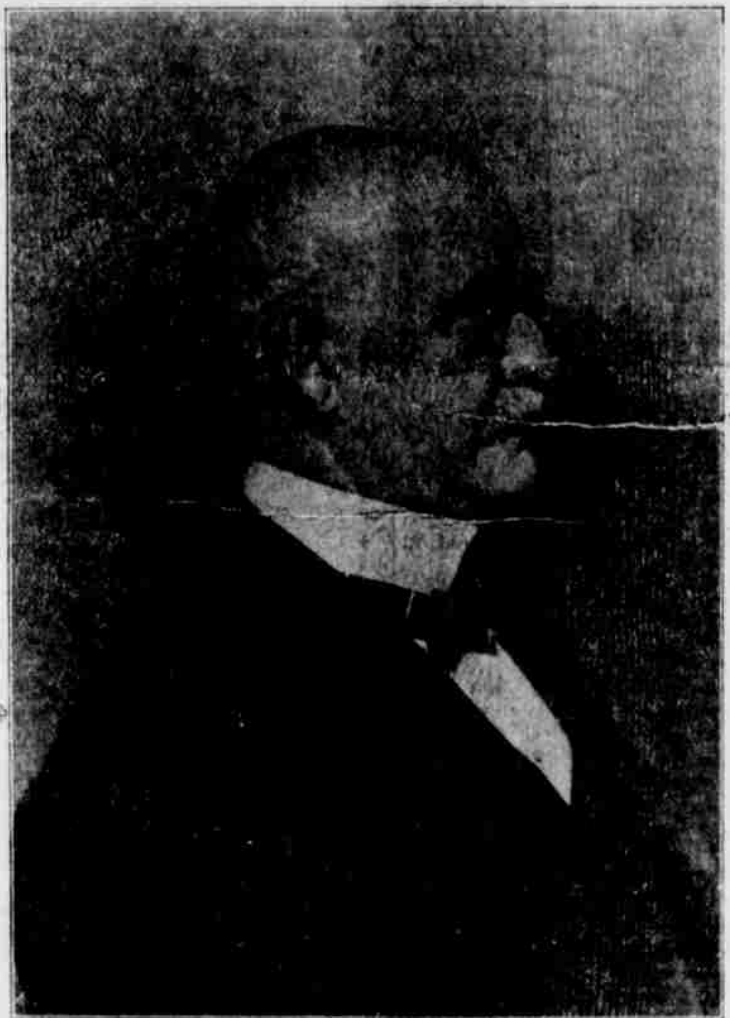

We will show our territory is a place of great repute That its soil is most productive in the finest kind of fruit.

To all the population invitations we extend, We will give to you a welcome and treat you as a friend.

You'll never forget your visit, so we ask you one and all To come to Albuquerque and the Fair we have this fall.

inations, the bands playing inspiring music gave the city all the appearance of a municipality and it made a most desirable impression on the governor. As it did the others, who were a part of the crowd.

Judge Baker's Address.
Promptly at 1 o'clock this afternoon, on a platform for the occasion and erected at the corner of Railroad avenue and First street, the big fair was formally opened by Governor Otero introducing Judge B. S. Baker, associate justice of the territorial supreme court and judge of the Second judicial district.

Judge Baker said in part as follows:

This is an industrial age. The throbbing of the great heart of commerce has filled every artery and vein of the business world almost to congestion. Never before has the medium of exchange been tapped to the very verge of collapse by the volume of business. Its beneficial effects are enjoyed in our midst. We are proud to be citizens of a nation that has an industrial development that so amply supports its eighty millions of people. Nor are we on the crescent of the wave, reaching as we are into the markets of the world. We are destined to be the head center of the commerce of all nations.

Our people, their education, their morality, their energy and their courage make us the greatest nation that ever existed.

Today we open our carnival, which is a beautiful picture of the resources and industries of our people. Our carnival would be a credit to any state in the Union. Surely "the star of empire westward takes its way."

Fellow citizens I am proud to proclaim the opening of the twenty-second annual fair of the territory of New Mexico. Its exhibits will be pleasing and its festivities enjoyable. Too much credit cannot be given to the promoters of this great enterprise. Visiting friends, we welcome you to our midst, and I am authorized by the management of the territorial fair and the mayor of this city to say that for the week Albuquerque is yours, and may your cup of pleasure be filled to overflowing and be so enjoyable that we may see you often. You are here to see and enjoy the show, and as I am no part of the menagerie of the circus, I will give way for the real thing, again extending to you and all comers a most cordial and hearty welcome to our city, trusting and believing your visit will be mutually very enjoyable.

Base Ball.
The first game of the series between the two professional teams, representing El Paso and Albuquerque, is in progress this afternoon.

This morning, accompanied by "Doc" Albers, the El Paso team arrived. They are Dale Gear, manager; Beville, catcher; Flaherty, Gibson and Lee, pitchers; Grady, first base; Farrell, second base; Nance, third base; Lewin, short stop; Miller, left field; Curwin, right field, and one of the pitchers in center field. Messrs. Gear, Lee and Grady are accompanied by their wives.

The Albuquerque professionals—that is, the stars to represent this city, arrived last night. They are Nichols, Wicker, Chance, Williams, Strang, Tinker, Kling, Callahan, McCarthy. Bay having got in a few days ago. Messrs. Nichols and McCarthy are accompanied by their wives.

With Bert Cunningham, who will umpire the games, the two base ball teams have rooms at the Alvarado. Last night Cunningham met a friend in J. Fred Klooz, the popular manager quested that the audience arrive early, and by so doing give the dancers a longer time to enjoy the most pleasant pastime.

The contesting teams are the Stars, made up of a bunch of strong players, selected from the numerous teams of the city, and the Miners, composed of a picked number of players from the university and city high school teams. The lineup will be as follows:

Miners—Strumquist and Bowie, forward; Holman and Myers, guards; Anderson, center.

Cavalry Drill.
An attraction that will be more or less interesting to the general sightseers will be Butte's manual drill, which will be given at 8 o'clock this evening at the corner of Railroad avenue and Second street, by a squad of troop F, United States Fourteenth cavalry.

Midway Attractions.
The Midway will open full blast at 7 o'clock this evening, and will be open until 11. Music by brass band.

Ferris wheel, merry-go-round, trip the trolley, miniature railroad, Lunette the flying lady, poses plastique statues turning to life, moving pictures, eruption of Mont Pelee, dancing pavilion, fat woman and midget, living pictures, Diabolo Verde, and a dozen other first class attractions.

Basket ball game at Colombo hall at 8 p. m.

Wednesday's Program.
El Paso day will be one of the big days of the week. A special train will come up from the Pass city, arriving here early in the morning. A brass band will meet the visitors from the south. The midway will open at 9 o'clock in the morning and will furnish amusements until noon.

Horse races will be given at the fair grounds promptly at 1:30 p. m.

The events of the day will be as follows:

2:25 Trot, Purse $300—Minnetonka, Pay Day, Fairy Medium, Capt. Carey and Bonnie Treasure.

2:50 Minute Trot and Pace, Purse $250—Milton S. McGinty, William T. Dr. Gordon. Only horses of New Mexico will be entered in this race.

Three-quarters of a mile dash, purse $150.

One-half mile dash, pony race, purse $10.

3:45 p. m.—Fancy shooting in front of grand stand by Wm. E. Martin, of Santa Fe. Mr. Martin is one of the finest shots in this section of the country and his exhibition with a gun will be interesting.

4:00 p. m.—Base ball game between El Paso and Albuquerque teams. The line up will be about the same as today with the exception of batteries.

4 p. m.—Mounted drill and sham battle by the Fourteenth cavalry at the fair grounds.

7:30 p. m.—Indian horse racing and foot racing on Railroad avenue, in which the Indians on foot will attempt to unseat the mounted Indians.

7 p. m. until 11 p. m.—Amusements on midway.

8:30 p. m.—Miss Claude Albright's concert, assisted by Prof. Walker.

9:30 p. m.—Opening ball of season at Commercial club.

This will be the club's opening ball of the 1902 season and promises to be a very swell affair.

FAIR NOTES.

Thirty head of strong wild horses were driven into the city last night and corralled at the fair grounds. They came from Pintada and will be used in the broncho busting contest. George Craig, a well known cowboy and broncho buster, brought them in. Mr. Craig has entered in the broncho and steer roping contests.

M. O'Brien, the Lion coffee man, has a booth at exhibition hall, where he will demonstrate the merits of his goods, during the fair. Mrs. O'Brien is visiting with friends in Chicago.

If you don't get in the flower parade you will be sorry.

Don't wait until after Thursday and then say, "Oh, if I had known the parade was going to be so grand I would have been in it." It will not cost much to decorate your survey, buggy or pony cart. Mr. Barkley will furnish flowers and decorate, or sell you the flowers and tell you how to decorate. Leave orders with P. F. McCanna, secretary.

Mr. Barkley may be hard to find, as his work takes him to all parts of the city. Help make the flower division of Montezuma parade a big one. Next year it will take care of itself.

Miss Nellie Brewer, who has been teaching school at Belen, has returned to the city suffering from a severe case of typhoid fever.

S. T. Reynolds and J. L. Knapp, of Socorro, are in the city and will enter in the tennis tournament for both single and double events.

TRY TO SETTLE

Effort Being Made to Arbitrate Coal Strike.

OPERATORS MAKE A PROPOSAL

Powerful Interests Working to End the Strike.

PEACEFUL THROUGHOUT STRIKE REGION

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 14.—President Mitchell, of the miners' union, refuses point blank to talk for publication at this time on the new proposal for arbitration laid before President Roosevelt last night by the presidents of the coal carrying roads. No official information can be had as to his views and he himself does not know whether he will make a statement later in the day. The news of the new offer was variously received by the striking miners of the region. It did not become known until well in the morning and there were many different views taken by the men. There is a large number of mine workers who favor rejection of the offer as formulated by the operators while there are equally as many who see some good in the offer. The miners, however, have the greatest confidence in the judgment of their leader and it is certain they will leave the matter in his hands to work out.

Comparing Mitchell's offer made to the president ten days ago with that of the operators made last night, there are many persons who look upon the operators' offer as a counter proposition. Mitchell's offer was that the president should appoint the commission. The operators go a step farther by stipulating that the members of the commission must be selected from the various occupations or professions suggested by the companies. Many miners were against the new plan because no recognized representative workmen is included in the operators' suggestions, unless he can be selected under the head of eminent sociologist. Objection is also expressed to clause 3, which the strikers say limits the president of the United States to select a judge from about four men. In fact the element against the latest offer of the operators pick flaws in every clause of the new offer. Those in favor of the plan feel that Mitchell should accept it and trust to Roosevelt to make the board or commission as impartial as it is in his power to do under the conditions laid down by the operators. The situation summed up briefly is still mixed, but the outlook for an ending of the strike at no very distant date is regarded as hopeful.

Oppose Operator Plan.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 14.—Dispatches from the anthracite coal region indicate that the men on strike do not take kindly to the arbitration plan proposed by the presidents of the coal carrying railroads. Notwithstanding apparent hostility to the plan of settlement, the belief prevails in coal circles in this city that after careful reflection and consideration the sentiment of the strikers who are anxious to return to work will influence a majority of those charged with the handling of the strikers' side of the question.

President Baer, of the Reading railway, whose name heads the list of signers of the arbitration plan, started for New York this morning in his private car to attend the regular weekly meeting of the corporations he is interested in. He stated possibly that his car would be sidetracked at some point outside the city and that he would join Morgan and Bacon en route from Washington to New York this afternoon.

INDIAN CAMP.

How the Bucks and Squaws Are Enjoying Themselves.

Life in the Indian camp was very quiet yesterday afternoon. A three days' travel of 120 miles across the country had its fatiguing effects on the men, and a rest in the bright alluring sun was a welcomed guest. As soon as the caravan reached the camping grounds the freighters formed a circle, and then everyone began to take things easy. All kinds of melons and fruits were feasted upon by the Indians. They sat around in bunches, greatly enjoying the melon feast and only moved from and broke up the group when a camera flend came near with his dangerous weapon. It was extremely amusing to watch them run and hide behind the wagons. If this was not possible they would hide their faces. Of course they would willingly pose for the "devil in the box" if there was a financial consideration.

About forty citizens of San Juan county accompanied the caravan across the country. They brought with them a wagon train of fruits and vegetables from the San Juan country for exhibition. The expedition is in charge of Manager George Brown. Mr. Brown and his troop are in camp just outside of the Indian corral. The exhibit from San Juan county was taken to exhibition hall yesterday afternoon. It promises to be one of the most attractive exhibitions in the hall.

The camp has the appearance of a little white city. Many visitors were present yesterday renewing old acquaintances.

The San Juan people wear prominent yellow badges. If you want to meet good people watch for the yellow badges.

A little camp fire here and there inside the large circles of freighters, Indian ponies staked where there was any evidence of grazing, sleeping forms rolled in blankets and the cry of the tired papoose was the only evidence of life in the Indian camp last night.

The Indians, with a blanket, hide or some beads were on the street and in stores trying to dispose of their wares all evening. There were many interesting and alluring sights for the Indians just from the reservation. Very little that was worth seeing was missed by them.

The beautiful moonlight set the sleeping city off to good advantage. Many sightseers were stumbling around the wagons and sleeping forms to see what was doing. It was a clever brave that returned from the club last night without his squaw witnessing his appearance.

Wearing Blankets.

While there are so many interesting sights that are attracting the public sights, the comely Indian girl wearing the Navajo blankets at the Indian collection rooms of the Alvarado is receiving the attention of the citizens as well as the visitors. Many people are accustomed to seeing blankets galore, but they have never seen them woven. The loom is placed in the old blanket room and is surrounded by cedar boughs, which give it a very artistic appearance. The brave sits on the floor and weaves watch chains from hair. The new features promise to be a very interesting addition to the curio department.

Notice to School Children.

All children that expect to march in the parade will meet in Robinson park Thursday morning at 10:15. They will march with the parade from there to the corner of Gold and First streets and there will be dismissed. The marshal has consented to keep teams and people off of First street, between Gold and Silver avenues so that the children can be disbanded without danger. The teachers will help start the children and the men teachers will be with them throughout the march.

The executive committee of the territorial republican central committee held a meeting this morning at headquarters and transacted a large amount of business.

Of Cowboy Interest.

H. C. McGonagill, the big tall whole-souled expert steer roper and bronco buster, arrived from El Paso this morning.

E. J. Carroll, who, like Mr. McGonagill, is no novice at the business, has been in the city for a week or so telling cowboy stories to the tenderfoot.

F. G. Blake, a cowman of considerable prominence when it comes to roping steers and busting outlaw broncos, is in the city and will appear in coming contest.

Mert Wagoner, who has had some little experience in the cow business, is in the city for the fair, but will not enter the contest on account of the fast company and lack of recent practice.

Miss Pearl Ward and her big brother, arrived last night from Denver and are around today seeing the sights. Miss Ward is not the beautiful girl pictured by the romantic word painter, but is a fair specimen of the western girl that spends her childhood amid the environments of ranch life. She dresses in style to suit her position and the business which she follows. White slouch hat, blue flannel waist, short skirt and high heeled boots. Miss Ward has the reputation of being the most expert lady rider in the world. Her appearance in the arena on Thursday will be watched with interest.

Frank Tammany, of the Trinidad fire department, is in the city and will remain until after the fair.

Miss Maude McFie, daughter of Judge John R. McFie, of Santa Fe, who is to be one of the queen's maids of honor, came in from the south this morning.

Attorney and Mrs. Harry Dougherty, of Socorro, are in the city for the fair.

BATTLE FOUGHT

Revolutionists Win a Fight in Venezuela.

TEXAS MOB HUNTING A NEGRO

He Assaulted and Killed Husband, Wife and Daughter.

SILVER CITY HOTEL OPENED.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Oct. 14.—The government of Venezuela, owing to the fear that the revolutionists might make a night attack on Curacao, and in view of the fact that Vice President Gomez left that city yesterday morning with all the troops available, 800 men, to reinforce Castro, has been transferred to the "provisional capital" of Venezuela in the Guayguero district, surrounding Los Teques, without any town or village being stipulated as headquarters of the ministers.

Battle in Venezuela.

Willemstad, Curacao, Oct. 14.—The latest news from La Veta Victoria, where an important engagement began Monday morning between the army of President Castro and the forces commanded by Generals Matos Mendoza, Peralzo and Riera, states that President Castro was surrounded by revolutionists and that his position was critical.

TEXAS MOB.

Hunting a Negro Murderer Who is in Charge of Sheriff.

Nacogdoches, Texas, Oct. 14.—The sheriff having in charge Jim Buchanan, the negro accused of assaulting and killing Duncan Hicks, wife and daughter, escaped from a mob late last night and has disappeared. They boarded a train at Tenehena and started for Nacogdoches but left the train and made a detour, as another mob awaited them at Timpson. They are supposed now to be in the woods in Shelby county. A new mob left San Augustine at midnight. The whole country is aroused, and it is hardly possible to get the negro out of the country now unless the governor orders troops to protect him.

New Hotel.

Special to The Citizen.
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 14.—The magnificent Hotel San Vancinte will be opened up to the public in this city on the 20th of this month. It is beyond a doubt the finest resort of its kind in the west. The owners have spent a large sum of money on its inside furnishings, which are the finest that could be obtained.

A Good Game of Base Ball.

Special to The Citizen.
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 14.—The hottest base ball to have been played in the section this season was at Fort Bayard last Sunday afternoon between the Deming team and the Fort Bayard club. The Deming team failed to score during the entire game and the Fort team only got four men over the home plate.

Police Court.

Edmunda Munoz was given fifteen days in the county jail for being drunk and stealing a hat and coat from another Mexican while he was asleep. They were both locked up, but the other man was discharged on account of his advanced age and feeble condition.

L. B. Anchez, a boiler maker, was arrested by Barton last night. He was trying to beat his way to Needles when he was pulled. He was given five days.

There are not as many crooks hitting the town as was supposed, yet the police are on the alert.

College Foot Ball.

Coach J. O. Miller of the territorial college foot ball team and a large following of players and rooters arrived from Las Cruces this morning. They are as follows: Bernard Miller, Will Isaacs, Will Pelphrey, Rex Hart (captain), Orrick Metcalfe, Juan Lucero, George Gamboa, Cadwallar, Henry Opegnorth, Clay Newberry, Roy Aldrich, U. Brown, Benjamin Narbas.

Banks will Close.

The two banks of the city will close all day on Thursday; half day on Wednesday and Friday. This will give the officials and employees an opportunity to attend the fair and enjoy themselves. Certain hours will be observed at the postoffice, and for the information of the public Postmaster Hopkins has large printed signs telling the hours to be observed at the postoffice.

Concord grapes.—San Jose Market.

Arrival of Gov. Otero.

Many salutes fired late last night announced the arrival of Gov. M. A. Otero from Santa Fe. The governor had expected to arrive on an early train, and it was with some regret when the immense crowd learned that he would not arrive until the late train.

He was met at the train by Colonel Borrodale and his staff, officers of the Fourteenth cavalry, territorial fair executive committee, Mayor Myers and many prominent citizens.

In the evening the streets thronged with eager crowds, the brilliant illum-

For Delegate to Congress

B. S. RODEY, of Bernalillo County.

Elks day next Friday.

Eagles will entertain visiting brethren Thursday evening.

The first day of the territorial fair is a big success in every way.

The exhibits at the territorial fair would be a credit to any country.

The Citizen works day and night for any and everything that will benefit this city.

The officers of the territorial fair deserve credit for their faithful and untiring work.

The Bernalillo republican committee will meet in this city tomorrow morning at republican headquarters.

A tough gang of crooks have gathered in this city. Put your valuables in a safe place and watch closely for pickpockets.

The democrats of New Mexico individually are nice people. It is the pessimistic principles of their party that puts them in such a hopeless minority in this territory.

Four large electric light and power companies are now drawing on Niagara Falls for the energy to drive their plants, and when the improvements at present under way are finished their combined electrical production will equal 405,000 horse power.

The Press association of New Mexico will assemble in this city tomorrow and elect officers for the ensuing year. The Press club of this city will try to make the visit of the newspaper men pleasant in every way possible.

The nobles of the Mystic Shrine of New Mexico and Arizona will cross the burning sands of several arid deserts in this city next Saturday. That will be Shriners day and it will be a grand reunion of the Masonic fraternity of the two territories.

The contract for the construction of the New Mexico & Pacific railroad line from Raton to Elizabethtown, a distance of eighty miles, has been let to the New State Construction company of St. Louis, and work on the new line will begin at once. A corps of fifteen engineers is now in the field making the final survey.

Says some Hindoo who is floating around and who was asked what would happen if the British withdrew from India: "What would happen if you went into a zoo and took the bars off the cages of the tiger and the lion and the leopard and the deer and the monkeys and -- sheep?" The moral of which lies in its application to the Philippine zoo.

Every business house in the city should be neatly decorated.

The next Grand Army encampment will be held at San Francisco.

The republican tariff has made wool growing profitable in New Mexico.

There is a fighting chance that the democrats will have one member of the next legislative council.

The republicans of Santa Fe have settled their differences and will carry the county by at least 500 majority.

This city will give Delegate Rodey an increased majority. He was faithful to every trust reposed in him by the people and they will rally solidly to his support.

Antonio Joseph was the first choice of the territorial convention for delegate to congress, but he did not relish going up against sure defeat, and refused to be sacrificed.

THE GAME OF MONTE.

How it is Played in Las Vegas and the Sad Results.

Special Correspondence.

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 13.—Three-card monte is a mad game, it seems, for one man is in jail and another has his face carved as a result of a little game last night in the Bank saloon on the west side. Placido Abeytia, who runs the lunch counter in the Bank saloon, and Juan Baca were having a little game last night, and Baca seems to have had the best of the deal. Abeytia was losing and it is claimed he, without warning, reached out with a knife and took a few steaks off Baca's face. Abeytia was arrested and will have a charge of assault with a deadly weapon for a result of his game.

Miss Edith Davison arrived here this morning on the flyer from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and has accepted a position in the city. She will be remembered as having been here about a year ago and is known in the city.

Edward Stern has taken his vacation from Ilfeld's and left today for Albuquerque to attend the fair.

The republican club on the west side held another rousing meeting in the school house in district No. 4 last night. A number of names were added to the already large membership list, and a good meeting was enjoyed. Secundino Romero, Jose J. D. Martinez, Jose Santos Esquivel and others made ringing speeches. Patricio Gonzales presided, and an invitation was extended to a number of the sore-headed republicans in the hall for a friendly debate, but they would not accept.

Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, D. D., preached at the Methodist church yesterday morning to one of the largest crowds ever assembled in the church. He took for his topic, "Christ Bearing the Cross, the Shame Heaped Upon Him, and His Endurance." He spoke for over an hour, holding the rapt attention of the audience with his eloquence and power of speech. He also assisted in the memorial service in the afternoon and attended the services in the afternoon at the Spanish Methodist church. Dr. Gamble occupied the Methodist pulpit at night.

Stole Fruit.

Thieves broke into Harry Benjamin's residence, 516 West Tijeras Road, between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night and turned furniture and bedding upside down. Two jars of fruit were found missing. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin were down town shopping during the evening. When they returned home shortly after 9 o'clock, the house had been ransacked and robbed. The bureau drawers in which the family jewelry is kept, were turned upside down and their contents dumped on the floor. The thieves must have been looking for money, as nothing but the jars of fruit are missing.

Hall & Leonard's booth will be one of the features of the exhibit hall. It is artistically decorated and they will display several of their instruments.

Carpenters' and machinists' tools of all kinds.—Albuquerque Hardware company.

Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today, but call at Room No. 1, N. T. Armijo building, Ralph Haloran, manager New York Life insurance company.

Legislative Candidates Nominated.

The following are the legislative nominations made by the delegates from the counties of Dona Ana, Grant, Otero and Luna, in district convention assembled, at Raton, last Saturday:

For member of the house of representatives from Dona Ana and Otero counties, Maj. W. H. H. Llewellyn of Las Cruces; for member of the house of representatives from Grant and Luna counties, R. M. Turner of Silver City; for member of the house of representatives from the district composed of the counties of Dona Ana, Grant, Luna and Otero, A. W. Pollard of Deming.

The nominations for the legislative council from the district composed of these four counties are W. A. Hawkins for the eighth district, and A. B. Fall for the ninth district.

Fair Week Bargains That Will Amaze Our Visitors!

And illustrate to them why this store has grown so great in the public favor. Monday, October 13, at 8 a. m., we shall commence a SIX-DAY SALE of bright, new fall and winter styles in Dress Goods, Silks, Dry Goods, Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments, Millinery, Men's Clothing, Furnishings and Footwear for men, women and children, fresh from the makers, in which the greatest values and the grandest bargains of this age will run riot throughout the store. We own up---

...We're Up Against It....

The fact that our new Fall and Winter stocks are far and way larger than those with which we ever before commenced a season—and the further fact that we haven't any room to display them—these conditions have made this sacrifice of values an imperative necessity—but, when a thing must be done, we do it without considering consequences. THIS SALE WILL LAST JUST SIX DAYS—commencing Monday, October 13th, at 8 a. m., and will close on Saturday night, October 18th.

SOUTHWESTERN Brewery and Ice Company

INCORPORATED 1885

The first brewery in Albuquerque was built by Ferdinand Selva, in 1885, and two years later the Southwestern Brewery & Ice company was organized and incorporated to succeed to the business. In 1889 and 1890, respectively, Jacob and Henry Loebs, formerly of the great breweries of St. Louis, came to Albuquerque and purchased the local brewery.

The plant was originally small, but its capacity was adequate to every demand, and it was not until after the Loebs became interested in the business that it grew to proportions demanding an expansion of facilities. In 1898, less than ten years after they purchased the original plant, the Loebs laid the foundations for their present imposing buildings, and the old brewery and ice plant were abandoned immediately upon completing and equipping the buildings.

As it stands today, the brewery is the finest in the southwest. It has a capacity of 45,000 barrels of beer per annum, and the ice plant has a capacity of thirty tons a day, besides refrigerating the company's cellars, etc. The buildings are handsome brick structures, resembling the great breweries of the east, and the equipment is modern throughout. A bottling plant is maintained in connection, and has a capacity of a thousand bottles per hour. A feature of this plant is the new automatic bottle washer, by means of which 30,000 bottles a day may be thoroughly cleansed. This machine washes sixteen bottles at a time, and was installed at a cost of $500.

The brewery and ice plant, with the grounds, cover more than half a block, and, being immediately on the railroad track, are advantageously situated for forwarding. The company receives patronage from all over New Mexico and Arizona, and the item of transfer salvage is an important consideration. Beer and ice are shipped as far as Kingman, Ariz., on the west, south to El Paso, Deming, Silver City and Tucson, and north into Colorado.

In view of the fact that many brewers, owing to the high price of malt, substitute inferior ingredients, it is well to state that the Southwestern Brewery & Ice company does use malt and rarely has less than 1,500 bushels on hand. No adulterants are used, and the result is apparent in the brew, which is of clear amber color, of superior flavor and of the highest grade of excellence.

The process of brewing is no less interesting than instructive, and, as the general public is not informed on the subject, it may be well to present an explanation herewith. The process begins in the brew house, which, in the instance of the Southwestern Brewery & Ice company, is a three-story structure. On the top floor is a mill for grinding the malt; immediately under this is the malt hopper, beside which is a hot water tank, and below these is the mash tub, which has a capacity of 125 barrels. The mash tub is on the ground floor, where are also the engine and a large kettle.

After the malt has been ground, the water in the hot water tank is heated and a certain portion turned into the mash tub. The mash machine is then started and the proper amount of ground malt is let in through the hopper, which communicates with the mash tub. After about a half an hour of stirring with the great steam rake, which is the feature of the mash machine, the mash is allowed to settle. After an hour more water, of a higher temperature than that first admitted, is let into the mash tub, and the mash machine is started again. This time it runs only a quarter of an hour, after which the mash is heated by steam to its final temperature. The mash machine is then put in motion for another twenty minutes, after which the mash has a rest of an hour. The malt "wort," or extract, is then pumped into the brew kettle, in which there is a steam coil, and after being boiled for two hours and a half, hops are added in three different portions. After the boiling is finished the mash tub is cleaned out, and the hop wort is drawn off into that receptacle, from which it is pumped up to the surface cooler, in an adjoining structure, and thence to what is known as a bandelot cooler.

From the coolers the liquid passes to the settling vat, which is on the fourth floor of the main structure. When it has thoroughly settled it is drawn off to the fermentation vats on the floor below, where the temperature is a few degrees lower than on the fourth floor, which is kept at about 44 degrees F. There are a great many vats in the fermentation room, filled with beer in the various stages of fermentation, and as rapidly as the liquid is thoroughly fermented it is drawn off to the Ruh vats on the second floor, where the temperature is still lower, for maturing. From this room the beer passes to immense vats in the cold storage room, on the ground floor, where the temperature is only a few degrees above freezing. These vats contain about 75,000 gallons of beer, and are the source from which the supply is drawn for the daily shipments and deliveries.

The entire process, from the brew-house to the cold storage cellars, requires about six months, practically all of which time is spent in the maturing vats. The quality of the brew is determined not only by the ingredients and the proportions in which they are mixed, but, as well, by the temperatures maintained during the various stages of the process.

The company brews three or four times a week and fully two-thirds of the output is shipped to points outside of Albuquerque. The leading commercial brand is "Pilsener," and it has a wide sale in Albuquerque, being handled by the Alvarado and other fine bars of the city, besides being sold extensively to the family trade; but the Bavarian and Bohemian beers brewed by the company are quite as popular among connoisseurs, and "Culmacker," a very dark beer, is extensively used as a tonic.

The new ice plant was built the present year. A fine "Vilter" compressor has been installed. Double distilled water is used for making the ice, and the blocks are frozen in deep cans of 400 pounds capacity. The cans are submerged in brine through which ammonia pipes are run, and a traveling crane is run over the cans to lift them when the blocks are solid. As above stated, the capacity is thirty tons a day besides the refrigeration of the company's cellars.

Jacob and Henry Loebs are natives of Bavaria, but have been in the United States since boyhood. They are experienced brewers and do their own brewing. In a few years, by industry and honorable dealing, they have built up a business that covers the entire southwest with its trade, and, beginning with a primitive plant, have erected a modern brewery and ice factory valued at upwards of $100,000.

WILLIAM FARR.

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Fresh and Salt Meats.

William Farr conducts the largest wholesale and retail meat business of any butcher in the southwest. He established his business in 1889, and since that time has built up a trade that demands the best of facilities. Accordingly, he has spared no expense in the equipment of his place, and there is not another establishment of the kind in the territory that compares to the shop and factory he conducts at 217 South Second street.

Some idea of the magnitude of Mr. Farr's business may be had from the fact that, to supply his trade requires the slaughter of eighty fat hogs, 150 sheep, 125 hogs and as many veal calves as he can buy every month. At the present season New Mexico range stock supplies the demand for cattle, but during the greater part of the year hogs are shipped in from other states. The sheep are all grown in this and adjoining counties. Hogs and calves are bought both locally and are shipped in from other places, in instances remote from Albuquerque.

Mr. Farr does his own slaughtering, and has abattoir is situated on the outskirts of the city. It is provided with every appliance for handling the hogs, sheep, hogs, etc., and the utmost regard for cleanliness is observed from the time the animals are slaughtered until the emats hang in the refrigerators at the shop. After ten days in cold storage, meats are ready for the block, and the tenderest viands of prime beef, mutton, pork and veal are sold right in Mr. Farr's shop.

Besides the fresh meats above noted, Mr. Farr has venison, other game, poultry, fish and oysters in season, and carries all kinds of smoked and cured meats, sausage, etc. All smoked and cured meats sold are the product of his own smoke house and curing room, and he has a steam sausage factory of large capacity. He also makes his own lard, which is put up in tin buckets, bearing his name. He makes a specialty of this product, in which his business is so large that he maintains a box factory, where cans and buckets are boxed for shipment. His finer grades of lard are equal to the best brands of commerce. He will make a specialty of mince meat during the present fall and winter.

Mr. Farr's shop is exceptional in many respects. The average butcher shop has the odor of the meat, whether tainted or fresh, and if it is not offensive it is nevertheless pronounced. There is no odor to be detected in his shop. Everything is kept immaculately clean, and the effect is to remove all factory evidence of the meat shop. The refrigerator is both the finest and the largest in the territory. The forward section has a capacity for half a car of meat, the middle room accommodates twice that quantity, and the rear compartment will hold a half car of pork. All meats are brought in through the back and are placed in position in the refrigerator by being suspended on hooks attached to rollers on overhead rails and being pushed along until the desired spot is reached, where they are left.

William Farr is a native of Missouri, but lived nearly all his life until he came to Albuquerque, in California. He has been here for thirteen years, and during that time has built up a trade that covers the entire territory and a portion of Arizona. He is a man of praiseworthy public spirit, and takes the initiative in all enterprises designed for the public weal.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

A. J. Loomis, the deputy internal revenue collector, is in the city from Santa Fe. He will "catch" a few this week who are violators of Uncle Sam's revenue laws.

J. D. Isaacks and daughter, Miss Colla Isaacks, are in the city from Las Cruces. Mr. Isaacks attended the democratic convention as a delegate from Dona Ana county.

Hon. W. B. Walton, editor of the Silver City Independent, was here with the Grant county delegates to the democratic convention. He returned south last night, but will be here again during the present week.

Lafe R. Allen, business manager of the Optic, accompanied by his wife, is in the city, and Mr. Allen attended the democratic convention as one of the delegates from San Miguel county. They returned to Las Vegas this morning.

Hon. Antonio Joseph, of Ojo Caliente, Taos county, attended the democratic convention. He is an ex-delegate to congress, and it was rumored before his arrival here that the convention would nominate him again for the delegateship.

J. G. Caldwell and wife, good people of this city, who visited old Missouri relatives and friends at Montgomery City, have returned to their home here, and of course are helping the balance of our people to royally entertain the fair visitors.

Mrs. James Carman, wife of a well known Gallup merchant, is here, being met at the depot on her arrival by Mrs. H. W. Hendricks. Mrs. Carman will remain during the entire week, and as she has many friends here she will have a splendid time.

Hon. O. A. Larrago, who was defeated two years ago as the democratic candidate for delegate to congress by the present delegate, Hon. B. S. Rodey, attended the democratic convention at the court house, as one of the delegates from San Miguel county.

J. C. Spears, collector and treasurer of Gallup, was accompanied to the city by his wife. They went to Socorro last night, where Mr. Spears will attend a meeting of the grand lodge of New Mexico Odd Fellows, after which they will return to the city and attend the fair during the remainder of the week.

There are two husky guys in the city—big strapping, able-bodied men—who are working the switchmen's union card racket, and for the past two days have been very successful in securing alms from people on the street. They are unworthy of all the money they beg and what they get is used for gambling and drinking purposes.

Mrs. Belle Berry, who was formerly Miss Belle Hayes of this city, arrived this morning direct from Dawson

City, Klondyke, and will remain the guest, for a few weeks, of her step-mother, Mrs. J. S. Spears, at 411 South Second street. Mrs. Berry brought back with her several nuggets of gold, presenting one piece to Mrs. Spears and the other to Miss Beatrice Spears.

E. O. Creighton, editor of the Roswell Record, a first class weekly journal, is in the city, and represented Chaves county at the democratic territorial convention.

G. L. Shakespeare, editor and proprietor of the Deming Headlight, is in the city, and was the "whole cheese" at the democratic territorial convention.

Mrs. Albright

has secured some fine assistants to care for her customers during fair week. Parties desiring fine photos should secure time for sittings—to avoid the rush at the Albright Art Studio, 113 North Third street.

MORE NICE WINDOWS

A Few Store Decorations Overlooked in Yesterday's Citizen.

ENTERPRISING MERCHANTS

More beautiful windows are in evidence everywhere. The same liberal spirit seems to prevail all over the city.

Fleisher & Rosenwald have a most presentable window of cigars, all the popular brands are advertised in a most convincing manner. A fine line of pipes are to be seen in glass cases in the window.

Chinaware, of beautiful designs, toys, masks and a window of attractiveness is the result of the No Name store's choice efforts.

D. Weiler & Co. have a fine line of fancy groceries to adorn their front. Canned goods, spices and all those good things that make the mouth water are to be seen.

Ladies hats and fancy articles of the latest styles compose the windows of D. H. Boatright's store on Gold avenue.

Red, white and blue decorations set off to a good advantage the artistic windows of Rosenwald Bros. on Railroad avenue.

A window containing life does not fail to have a desirable effect upon human nature. A large white Pomeranian dog and seven small white puppies hold a crowd of spectators in front of the Cabinet. The dogs are very beautiful and the playfulness of the puppies causes much amusement.

An illuminated letter sign, spelling "Keno Tonight," was an attraction on Railroad avenue in front of the St. Elmo last night. This is the first electrical letter sign in the city and it is receiving the proper attention.

Drugs and all kinds of useful and beautiful articles which are to be found in drug stores are displayed by Geo. B. Williams.

Joe Richards, the popular cigar man, is along with the rest in expressing his public spiritedness by decorating.

While so many windows are exhibiting those articles which suit the taste, we must not forget that a man is judged by his shoes. A line of the latest styles for men, women and children are generously displayed by W. Chaplin.

If there is anything that makes a man forget his troubles it is music. A. D. Whitson has not lost sight of this fact and in consequence has given the public the choice of many instruments which he displays in an artistic window.

Groceries and good things for the craving appetite occupy the window of J. A. Skinner's grocery, and the front shows the result of some clever ideas in decorating.

T. Muensterman, the Railroad avenue shoe man, offers the public an opportunity to see a fine line of the latest styles in shoes.

Windows of every description are to be seen on all sides. Furniture stores, meat shops, drug stores, grocery stores and in fact every store that has a window are telling a story of the good and desirable articles that are to be found within.

Apples, pears, bananas and other kinds of fruit are reflected by large mirrors in J. A. Bell & Co.'s grocery store on Second street. The window is filled with preserved canned goods, and a fine line of fancy groceries. The window presents a pleasing appearance of the most critical eye.

An artistic decorated window of burnt leather, pillow cases, burnt wood picture frames, collar boxes and a large variety of articles has been constructed at Matson's book store. The other window contains a delicious assortment of candies for all kinds of tastes.

Fined Sixty Dollars.

A Blatt was fined $60 in police court yesterday morning. Blatt was charged with stealing the valise from a man by the name of J. H. James at the depot Saturday night.

James claims to have taken the valise from Blatt and released him. He afterwards placed the matter in the hands of the police and had Blatt arrested.

There were no witnesses to testify that Blatt was the man wanted, the court taking James' word against that of Blatt. The evidence against him was very weak, yet the court saw fit to impose a heavy fine. J. H. James represented himself to be many things which he was not. He was studying for the ministry, yet he played rag-time music with ease. A watch and chain stolen from under his pillow was another story of James. He left the city last night owing a board bill which the city authorities stood good for. Blatt also left the city last night, but he was $60 to the bad.

Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The territorial grand lodge of New Mexico, I. O. O. F., convened in annual session at Socorro this morning with a good attendance.

The regular routine of business was transacted, nothing special being brought before the meeting.

Those who went down last night as delegates from the local lodge were:

Messrs. N. E. Stevens, S. Vann, Sr., H. B. Warner and E. B. Cristy.

The Gallup delegates came in from the west and joined the Albuquerqueans on passenger No. 22. Past Grand Master Jelfs also passed through the city last night en route to Socorro from his home at Raton.

SILVER AVENUE STABLE.

L. E. Carey, Proprietor.

The Silver Avenue Stable was established by L. E. Carey September 1st of the present year, and, though not the largest establishment of the kind in the city, is equal in quality of equipment, having some of the finest roadsters and saddle horses used for livery purposes in Albuquerque. There are at present about a dozen horses in the livery department, together with all the vehicles and paraphernalia necessary for their use, including road wagons, single buggies, phaetons, two-seaters, etc. Boarders are also kept by the day, week or month, at reasonable rates, and receive careful attention. Feed is sold and horses traded.

Mr. Cary came originally from Independence, Kan., where he was engaged in farming, and before opening the Silver Avenue stable, ran a livery establishment on Gold avenue. He is a thorough horseman, and keeps only good stock. He expects to enlarge his stable in the near future and add a number of horses and new rigs. Call up Bell phone A22, when you want prompt livery service.

The Woman's Exchange will hereafter, in addition to its stock of home-made bread, pies, cakes and jellies, have a full stock of the Health Food manufactured at the famous Battle Creek Sanitarium, namely—nut butter, nuttoline, bromose, protose, meltose, saniten food candy, Huller's beans, malted nuts, granose biscuits and flakes, caramel cereal, fruit sticks, granola, oat meal, graham and whole wheat wafers. The public are cordially invited to call and examine the new stock; 323 South Second street.

Costumes for the carnival Friday night. Come early while there is a large stock to select from. Open evenings. Mrs. Somers, 224 Gold avenue.

Now is your opportunity to have your policy explained. Room No. 1, N. T. Armijo building, northwest corner Second street and Railroad avenue.

Go to Scott's, 206 South Second Street, for oysters—raw, stewed and fried.

Be sure to call and see Ralph Haloran, manager New York Life Insurance company, at Room No. 1, N. T. Armijo building.

Home made bread, cakes and pies at Mrs. Ackers, 501 Keleher avenue.

Prof. Tom Kinsley, of Denver who appears at Colombo hall on Thursday night, October 16, at the Athletic club smoker, arrived Sunday night. He will finish his light work here and says that he was never in better condition in his life. Those going to the smoker will be royally entertained. Tickets on sale at Matson's book store. Admission $1, $1.50 and $2.

TWO SIBERIAN CAMELS.

Peculiar and Effective Means of Defense with Which Nature Has Endowed Them.

The latest additions to the Norris & Rowe's big shows are a pair of beautiful Siberian camels, which were shipped from the Hagenbach Zoo, Hamburg, Germany. These grotesque creatures which recall many recollections of Arabian romances are fast becoming extinct and in a short time these "children of the desert" so often mentioned in the Bible will be a thing of the past. A camel has a peculiar means of defense. While his feet are sometimes brought into use with more telling effect than that of a Kansas mule, his chief mode of defense is a fluid which he emits from his mouth. It is formed from a continual chewing of a cud which is mixed with the gastric juices of the stomach, and this matter is blown upon his adversaries. The odor is so offensive that a continuation of it from the camel eventually wins for him a battle. The names of the two new acquisitions to Norris & Rowe's big shows are Ben Hur and Sadi Ali, and their peculiar habits and eccentricities are a continual source of enjoyment to their keepers. These animals have been taught to perform numerous feats, which are all the more remarkable when one takes into consideration their cumbersome weight and well known stupidity. Ben Hur and Sadi Ali will be seen with Norris & Rowe's big shows, which will appear in Albuquerque Thursday, October 16.

D. Jacobs, of Emporia, and a paper by J. D. M. Hamilton, general claims attorney for the Santa Fe, of Topeka. Adjournment was taken in the evening.

MINERS' BENEFIT.

Trades Assemblies and Other Organizations Work With Captain Jack Crawford.

Capt. Jack Crawford, the poet scout, of New Mexico, visited the meetings of the two trades assemblies yesterday afternoon and received their hearty support for the proposition to give a benefit in Denver for the anthracite coal miners of Pennsylvania.

The trades assemblies took quick action and while there are some differences of opinion between them on labor lines they are united on this question of aiding their suffering brothers. The Building Trades council has already endorsed the proposition and committees from all three bodies will meet this afternoon with Captain Crawford to arrange plans.

It is hoped to give the benefit one week from next Wednesday night at Casino hall, which has been donated for the purpose. All actors belonging to companies then in the city will be asked to participate and all local talent that will assist in giving a first class program also will be invited.

The assistance of the ministers of the city will be asked to aid and all Denver will be urged to join the cause.

The Denver Trades and Labor assembly, incorporated, yesterday appointed the following committee of eleven to push the entertainment: W. H. Montgomery, C. W. Rhoades and Mr. Bessett, of the Typographical union; J. W. White, of the stereotypers; G. F. Fosdick, of the waiters; John McHoff, of the cigar makers; Frank Thorpe, of the engineers; Mr. Robinson, of the tailors; Peter Devitt, of the machinists; W. F. McBride, of the plumbers, and William Morgan, of the granite cutters.

The central body of the American Labor unions yesterday appointed the following committee to act in the cause: H. L. Banks, J. L. Compton, R. G. Mosier, Larry Fitzgerald and George Gilbert. They will meet with the committee from the Building Trades Council this afternoon.—Denver Republican, October 13.

BOOK OF ROMANCES

Stories of Historic Towns and Events on the Santa Fe.

AUBREY'S PERILOUS RIDE.

A book of stories about historic towns on the Santa Fe railway is one of the novel methods of advertising that road which is being considered by the passenger department of the company.

It is proposed to have some skillful writer who is also well versed in the pioneer history of the Santa Fe trail, travel over the route and pick up a lot of the fascinating romances of the olden days, such as are related by Col. Henry Inman in his stories of the west. It is believed that such a book will have much weight in influencing people to travel over the Santa Fe, in order that they may see the places described.

Among other places filled with historic interest are Leecompton, the first capital and pro-slavery stronghold of Kansas; Lawrence, the scene of the Quantrell raid; Pawnee Rock, the "headquarters" for the Indians in the early days, and many other Kansas places. Further west is Las Animas, near which several of the most bloody Indian fights in the history of the country occurred. Still further toward the coast the Santa Fe passes through the mining regions, which are rich in fascinating stories of thrilling events.

Among the deeds of early life in the west, the famous rides of F. X. Aubrey from the plaza of Santa Fe to the public square of Independence, Mo., as a physical achievement stands without an equal. It is doubtful if in the history of the world there has been such a ride; 800 miles through a country overrun with hostile Indians, a large part of the distance being through sandy deserts, and leading across rivers, mountains and prairies, with only the sky for a covering and the earth for a resting place.

Aubrey made two rides from Santa Fe to Independence. The first was on a wagon of 1,000, that he could cover the distance of 800 miles in eight days. He reached his destination three hours ahead of time. He killed several horses in the time, and it is said that owing to the death of one horse he was obliged to walk twenty-five miles to Council Grove, carrying his saddle on his back. He made this ride in 1850.

In 1851, Aubrey determined to beat his own record. He made a wager that he could make the trip in six days. At the end of five days and thirteen hours he reached the public square at Independence and had to be lifted from his horse. He sank into a stupor from which he could not be aroused for forty-eight hours.

Aubrey made considerable money trading with the Indians, and also was at the head of an expedition which carried supplies to the mining camps in California, where the supplies brought fabulous prices. When he died he was said to be worth about $50,000.

Aubrey's best time on horseback between Santa Fe and Independence was 133 hours. The Santa Fe trains now cover the distance in twenty-seven hours.

ALVARADO.

The City's Greatest Ornament—Museum and Indian Collection Rooms

Albuquerque has every reason to feel proud of the Alvarado, with its antique Spanish architecture, constituting the most unique and thoroughly equipped hotel in the southwest. All credit is due the Santa Fe, who so generously made Albuquerque the possessor of an institution of this kind, and under the excellent management of Fred Harvey it is complete in all its appointments. But their ambition was higher than the building of a beautiful hotel, and in consequence a building containing an unrivalled Indian collection and museum, which any of our great cities would be proud of, were installed.

Fred Harvey is to be complimented in collecting with judicious care, articles of such great rarity and variety, most of which some of our national museums would consider splendid acquisitions.

The collection rooms are unique on account of the artistic arrangement of a great variety of rare and valuable articles. This beautiful and artistic effect undoubtedly could only be obtained through selection from a large and valuable stock.

The arrangement of the general display room appeals to the artistic sense of every visitor. Large blankets of the characteristic designs of the Indians are arranged in a striking manner on the floor; large tables are covered with pottery made by the different tribes; the walls are adorned with rare old blankets, baskets, beaded wearing apparel, etc., so arranged as to make this room a most beautiful sight.

The next room which is of particular interest in this locality is the Spanish room, which contains articles of great value from old Spanish missions: old tapestry, swords, Maximilian china and many other articles used by the Spanish in bygone days.

A room containing relics from Samoa, Maori, British New Guinea and other of the South Sea Islands is a great attraction for those who are more familiar with our own Indian production. Large cupboards filled with a great variety of Navajo blankets intersected by cozy corners decorated with Indian war bonnets, beaded leggings, wampum bags and other articles which at some time adorned the great warriors and their squaws constitute the artistic arrangement of the modern blanket room.

The beautiful decorations of the room containing old blankets, pottery, etc., is about to be despoiled to make a place for the Indian blanket weavers, basket and pottery makers, silver-smiths and other skilled Indian workmen, who are to become an important feature of this department.

In addition to this there is the ethnological and archeological museum, which contains specimens relating to the life and customs of Western American Indians, past and present, and also the prehistoric pottery and other articles excavated from the ruins of the Cliff dwellers.

The collection in the museum cannot be purchased. All these articles were carefully selected by Dr. Dorsey, the noted collector of the Columbian museum. The work of classification is now under way and when this is completed a printed catalogue will be issued describing everything in detail. New features will be added constantly, the name Albuquerque is becoming identified with Indian collections and curios. The tourists who make trips of sight seeing through the southwest, leave the city carrying with them the memory of having seen the greatest collection of this kind in the world.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, By law it is made the duty of the board of county commissioners in each of the counties of the territory of New Mexico to proclaim an election to be held in their respective counties for the purpose of voting for candidates for the several county offices for the ensuing two years at a general election to be held for that purpose;

And, whereas, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November is designated by law for the holding of said election.

Therefore, the board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county at a regular session held in Albuquerque, the county seat of said county, hereby designate and order as follows:

That on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, A. D. 1902, commencing at 8 a. m., and closing at 6 p. m., of said day an election shall be held in the various precincts of the county within the county of Bernalillo, territory of New Mexico, at which election candidates shall be voted for by the legally qualified electors in each precinct for the following offices, to-wit:

A delegate to the congress of the United States.

Two members for the territorial legislative council, one for Bernalillo county and one for Bernalillo and McKinley.

Two members for the legislative house.

One member for the legislative house for the counties of Bernalillo and McKinley.

One probate judge.

One clerk of the probate court.

One school superintendent.

One sheriff.

One assessor.

One treasurer and ex-officio collector.

One county surveyor.

Five river commissioners.

Two county commissioners.

In witness whereof I have this 6th day of October, A. D. 1902, at Albuquerque, N. M., affixed my hand and official seal.

E. A. MIERA.

William Swicher and S. D. Howell are among Socorro people in the city. Cade Selvy, special agent for the Santa Fe, and family, arrived from Gallup this morning and will stay over during the fair.

James Drury, Jr., and Ralph Goodwin, who are engaged in doing government work at Fort Defiance, are in the city to take in the festivities.

Hon. Solomon Luna and wife came up from Los Lunas this morning, to be present during the festivities.

Clarence French came up from Belen this morning for the "big doings." He expects to return tomorrow evening.

A. R. Gibson, the big mining man of Santa Fe, and family, are expected to come down from the capital tonight.

T. E. Dalton, traveling agent for the Equitable Life Assurance society, came up from Phoenix, Ariz., this morning, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grunsfeld.

Miss Ethel Bowser, a charming young lady of Iowa City, Iowa, arrived last night and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rogers. She will attend the city high school during the coming winter.

Miss Jean McClure, of Silver City, is in the city for the purpose of competing for the gold medal offered by the W. C. T. U. for the territory of New Mexico. Miss Jean took the silver medal at Santa Fe last year in a similar oratorical contest, and her many friends in this city hope that she will win this evening in the contest at the Congregational church.

Miss Ethel Easley, daughter of Hon. Charles F. Easley, of Santa Fe, is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Hughes of this city. Last evening a reception was given in her honor at the residence of Miss Hughes, No. 204 South Walter street, and the pleasant social event was enjoyed by those present. Miss Adams and Professor Thomas entertained the reunion with choice vocal and instrumental music.

PRETTY COSTUMES.

Queen Tecaleco and Her Maids and King Montezuma.

The queen's costume is complete and the charming Queen Tecaleco will inspect her royal robe this evening.

The petticoat or under dress is a beautiful creation of pink velvet spangled with gold and silver. The queen's double robe is made of ecru satin lined with pink velvet. The sleeves are puffed lace trimmed with bands of gold, silver and a pale shade of blue. The double robe is the Queen Catherine's style. The gown weighs about forty pounds and the trail will be carried by the pages whose costumes will correspond to Queen Tecaleco's. The costumes for the pages will arrive tonight in time for the rehearsal at the Alvarado.

Queen Tecaleco has announced the following young ladies as maids: Misses Elizabeth Willey, Mabel Fitch, Edith Stevens, Bettie Willey, Irma Tascher and Maud McFie.

Miss McFie, who is a senior in the A. and M. college at Las Cruces, is the daughter of Judge John R. McFie, of Santa Fe. The young lady was telegraphed yesterday asking for her participation and a prompt acceptance came. Miss McFie will probably arrive today. Lorna Lester and Catherine O'Reilly, two pretty little maidens, have been selected by the queen as flower girls. The royal Tecaleco will select the pages today.

The superb flower float in which the queen and her maidens will ride has been completed. Montezuma will appear in royal colors of purple, gold and scarlet in the magnificent float which is being built by care and secrecy.

It has been announced that the queen and her maidens will rehearse the program for the grand ball tonight in the hall at the Alvarado. The courtiers of the king will meet at the Odd Fellows' hall at 7 o'clock.

Every feature of the program is being carried toward completion and there is no doubt that the whole program will be one grand success.

MISS NELLIE HAZLEDINE.

Her Death Yesterday Afternoon After Long Illness.

The sad news of the death of Miss Nellie Hazledine, eldest daughter of the late Judge W. C. Hazledine, will bring sorrow and regret to many a heart in Albuquerque.

Miss Hazledine has been suffering with an abscess of the brain for almost three months, and for several weeks it has been felt that there was no hope of recovery.

The deceased was 24 years of age. She had spent most of her life in Albuquerque. The family is one of the oldest in the city and in this dark hour of sorrow has the sympathy of a host of friends.

The funeral arrangements are being attended to by O. W. Strong & Sons.

The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, corner Tijeras and Ketchikan avenue, with burial in Fairview cemetery.
