AMERICANS
FURNISHED
NO MONEY

Upon whether Judge Carabia, the government pensioner who is expected here tonight, comes with full authority to act for president Diaz, depends in a large measure the probability of peace ( being) terms being agreed upon by the end of the week. The support of the American government is not denied, but they will not treat with Carabia unless he comes with full (power).

The distinguished president of the conference is one of the most (important) men on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, aside of a group of men who opposed the late rioters.

De François Gomez, who has been named to head the insurgent (peace) commission spent the morning in consultation with President I. Madero, Jr., and other insurgent leaders preparing the revolutionary program to be presented to the federal peace (commission) in the initial conference tomorrow. Immediately after his talk with the insurgent chief, Mr. Gomez said:

"I have heard many charges since the revolutions began that the Standard Oil company and other American corporations have supplied funds in aid of the revolutionary movement. We have just been advised by telegrams that in the chamber of deputies those charges have been removed. I wish to deny emphatically that a dollar of American money has been used. I know federal socialist-ists are at a loss to understand where our money has come from but they do not reason, apparently, that the strength of the revolu-tionist cause through Mexico is due to the fact that revolutionists have been better equipped than that.

"As for American soldiers, they really are a very small minority in (the revolutionary armies). And it is only (true) that some foreigner that some foreigners found in the Midwest in the (case of) Liberty. Why, in our (war for) independence, Gen. Mina, the idol of the hour, was a foreigner. Did not the United States in its revolutionary war have the services of Gen. LaFerette, Kochsche, Van Stuclie and others?"

"Some attempt, it seems, is being made in Mexico City to stir up (the) anti-British sentiment.

This is a most deplorable condition of affairs. I had an (opportunity) recently to observe closely the machinery of the (American) government in (the) Mexican situation, and I am able to state that the American government (is) not doing all it could do to win the (confidence) of the (Mexican) people.

President Diaz and his government are in a weak position, and the (United States) government is not doing all it could do to win the (confidence) of the (Mexican) people."

JUDGE MOFFETT
OMFONE

Washington, D. C., May 1. Among the nominations sent to the Senate today by President Taft were: Assistant Attorney General of the Internal Department, Charles W. Cobb of California; Associate Justice Supreme Court of New Mexico John T. McFie.

This is Judge McFie's sixth (appointment) to the bench and his fourth to the circuit and is a triumph for the President because there is a feeling that the President's list of nominees has been very satisfactory for many years.

THE ELIMINATION

Milton Berke, son of "Mint-Hunt of the Valley Hotel, met (an) accident yesterday morning which could very easily have had (a) more serious than (resulted) together. With one of J. R. Wales's boys, he was (driving) one of the finest配上 (horses) in the southern part of town. One of the wheels was giving trouble. At a relatively short distance the horse was turned and the calf into the road. The (calf) stepped on the rope, which threw the horse to its knees, pitching the rider forward to the ground. While the horse was fighting to get up, the young man was considerably hurt. He mounted his horse and started back to town, but becoming faint, disembarked and was taken to the hospital.

(Judge) Newmeyer was called in and made his report.

"We hope that he will not (termin-ate) seriously, as (William) A. Elder, who (was) hurt, we (wish to see him) get well as soon as possible."

NEWSDESKER

Yesterday morning we got (a) report from the local (newspaper) representatives that (a) considerable number of (third) parties were (at) the (morning) train. The special (trains) were (at) the station, but they were loaded with (words) of (anti-British) sentiment.

In one (of) the trains resembled (the) least looking newspaper men we have seen in a long (time). They were (adjusted) and well brought up. They were (carrying) a Moriarty (penny) and were made by some one who (saw) them (in) the (street) for the (first) time, and may (the) friendship of the two republics will not be improved by the (internal) affairs of Mexico.

VOTES TO BUY
WATERWORKS

Tucson, N. M., May 1. The vote on municipal ownership of the local waterworks resulted 229 for and 17 against the proposition. A bond issue of $75,000 will be made at once. Of this amount $65,000 will be used in purchasing the system from pri-ivate hands and the rest for the purpose of improving the same. It is said that the municipal ownership of the plant will save the city in the neighborhood of $6,000 per year from the beginning, and as soon as concessions are made with the new water system, saving will be increased.

WILL GO TO ASYLUM

Theodore Hicks who has been in the asylum for the feeble-minded in the past, is in the Tornier county jail, according instructions from the asylum for the feeble-minded. The disposal shall be made of him. Several justices of the peace were present and it was agreed to take Hicks and arrest him for an escape. The sheriff was asked that he take the man in charge so that the man be kept in the following week.

Sheriff Myers and Under Sheriff Smith are (doing) a very careful investigation. The sheriff is one of the best friends of the town to bring him in. No sooner had they left town than Hicks was (found) in the (downtown) area of the town. He was taken to the (county) (jail) and (kept) there. His (medical) file was examined, and he was pronounced insane. He will not be (sent) to the asylum for the feeble-minded until he is (found) insane.

Yesterday morning Dr. Mason was (at) the (county) (jail) and (took) Hicks in charge, after finding him insane. He was then (sent) to the (state) (hospital) for the insane.

The patient was pronounced insane, unbalanced, and not to be kept in the asylum and his personal business. Judge McFie, who is at present in Washington, will, upon his return, be asked to commit the patient to the asylum for the insane.

City Council will Meet tonight

The village council will meet tonight, the first meeting of the newly elected officers. His honor, Mayor Stapphyles and Trustees Elizabeth, will be in attendance to indiicate the mysteries of the office of "City Manager."

The Howell Mercantile Competition has not been too bad. Special bargains on that day. It doesn't fail at all. A clean stock of goods.

JOURNAL DESCRIBES CONDITIONS

Those who put up winter wheat last year are doing finely. In many places the stand is a foot thick or more. Northwest of Arizona, it is estimated there is some 500,000 acres in winter wheat, with as much southwest, no one farmer, however, having over forty acres.

Over along the edge of the mountain the farmers say there has been more rain than for six or seven years and in many places they report, the soil, a rich chocolate basin, almost too wet for working. If the farmers were not carrying more or less as a result of the past two or three years of drought, the prospect would be splendid; as it is it is much more hopeful than for many months past, and with a plucky set of working horses busy all the time on the solution of the irrigation problem, there can be no doubt of the final outcome. As it is, an advertised, will be brought out before long to go over the gas production (question), and a careful examination and a careful examination of the situation will be made of the valley, who have been conducting the business as it is, and it is likely that the advertising plans which will be of the utmost impotence to the general situation.

There is no doubt about what the Estancia Valley will raise with water with to do it with. Thirty-

Days, or no profit, for the acres have been grown, and white corn in this valley it is believed will figure equally as a (crop). It will be a most important (crop) with the rich soil, the rich land, and the rich land, and the rich land. The rich soil, the rich land, and the rich land, the rich soil, the rich land, and the rich land.

The people recognize the need of a good road through the mountains. There is a distance of some sixty-five miles that (a) road (will) have to be built. A company (has) been organized, and the (division) the (divide) (will be) a (quickest) and easy one for the automobiles which are gradually increasing in number in this district.

A good highway, it is assured will build up commercial relations with Arizona, rapidly, (and) completion of the long awaited railroad which is in the course of time bound to be const-

It seems the valley is the kind of land that (with) a little improvement and irrigation, will be a most important (crop) with the rich soil, the rich land, and the rich land, the rich soil, the rich land, and the rich land. The rich soil, the rich land, and the rich land.
