LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

When the council reassembled at 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Hughes moved to go into committee of the whole for the purpose of considering council bill No. 33, the Luna county measure. Motion failed. Mr. Easley raised the point that the Hinkle compromise substitute bill on the subject was properly before the council as unfinished business, and not the original bill. The chair announced the parliamentary status of the two measures, ruling that the two were on equal footing, but that the substitute had prior right of way at this stage. On motion of Mr. Easley the Hinkle substitute was called forth for its third reading, 7 to 5, those in the negative being Messrs. Burns, Harrison, Hughes, Martinez and Springer.

Mr. Fielder addressed the council. He opposed the division of Grant county, but of the two bills the substitute was in his opinion much fairer toward Grant county than the original measure.

Mr. Spies agreed with Mr. Fielder that the original bill menaced the best interests of the citizens of Grant county, and considered the substitute a fair and just measure. Mr. Hughes stated that the subject of county division had constituted a disturbing element in legislative circles for sixteen years, and he thought it time to tackle the matter and settle it definitely, and for all time.

Mr. Easley stated that the substitute bill had been practically agreed upon by the parties most concerned, and he advocated its passage. Mr. Harrison expressed the opinion that the substitute had been brought forward with a view to killing off the original bill. President Chaves called Mr. Cruikshank to the chair and made a vigorous speech, saying he hoped the matter would now be taken up and finally determined, as the people of Grant county had been fighting it over for years, and he thought Silver City and Deming should be divorced. On the motion to pass the Hinkle substitute the vote was 6 to 6, Messrs. Burns, Harrison, Hughes, Cruikshank, Martinez and Springer in the negative. The same vote developed on a motion to table indefinitely the original bill.

Mr. Hughes presented an amendment to the substitute bill providing that the governor, auditor and solicitor general shall ascertain the proportion of debt to be assumed by the new county, and changing the boundary lines so as not to include so large a part of Grant in the new county. Mr. Springer offered a substitute for the Hughes amendment to the effect that all territory now covered by Grant county shall be followed into Luna county and taxed for existing debts. This was adopted, and the house, after hearing the first section of the Hinkle substitute read a third time, took a recess to 2 p. m.

Afternoon Session.

At 2 p. m., when the council met, Mr. Martinez moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the Hinkle substitute for council bill No. 33, the Luna county bill, failed to pass at the morning session. Motion prevailed by a vote of 7 to 5. The bill was then placed on its passage and passed, 7 to 5, and on motion of Mr. Fielder the matter was clinched by reconsidering that vote and laying same on the table indefinitely. The following new bills were introduced and referred:

Council bill No. 105, by Mr. Hinkle, to repeal chapter 50, session acts of 1899, relating to the sale of coal oil and its products and abolishing the coal oil commission after May 1, 1901.

Council bill No. 106, by Mr. Cruikshank (by request), to protect laborers of New Mexico; prohibiting the employment of laborers brought into New Mexico by coal, railroad construction and stone quarrying corporations. Mr. Fielder moved the passage of the bill. Mr. Hinkle moved its reference to the committee on territorial affairs. So ordered. Adjourned to 10 a. m.

THE HOUSE.

The running at large of "swine and hogs" was the first subject to occupy the attention of the honorable members of the house this morning, the debate coming up on Mr. Trujillo's bill, house bill No. 32, to prevent such animals from running at large. The bill passed, 14 to 8, after a lengthy and sometimes humorous debate.

Mr. Barnes moved to reconsider the vote by which house bill No. 158, regulating the practice of osteopathy, passed yesterday, desiring to recall the same for a slight amendment. Mr. Abbott said without the proposed amendment the bill would not amount to much. Mr. Dalles said he opposed the bill yesterday, and was glad it had become involved in difficulties. The house refused to suspend the rules. The following bills were introduced and referred:

House bill No. 225, by Mr. Barnes, providing for punishment of persons violating sections 1388-69-70, Compiled Laws, relating to Sabbath observance.

House bill No. 226, by Mr. Sanchez of Mora, in reference to the payment of delinquent taxes and for other purposes.

House bill No. 227, by Mr. Sandoval, fixing the salary of district attorney to be paid by Union county.

House bill No. 228, by Mr. Bowie, limiting the application of the new law with reference to the duties of sheriffs.

House bill No. 229, by Mr. Gutierrez, to repeal sections 2240 and 2246, Compiled Laws. Mr. Gutierrez moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill at once. Mr. Bateman inquired the object of the bill. "To repeal the coal oil inspection law," was the reply. Mr. Dalles said if time was allowed this coal oil question would be disposed of to the satisfaction of everybody, including the people, and that every party pledged made relative thereto would be fulfilled to the letter. Mr. Gutierrez made an animated speech demanding that party pledges be kept now. The speaker called Mr. Dalles to the chair. Mr. Sanchez of Mora desired to explain his vote, and incidentally to reply to Mr. Gutierrez, opposing the suspension of the rules for taking up so important

Peking, March 12.—A general meeting of the foreign ministers was held here to-day, at which representatives and committees were heard. Regarding more punishment of the Chinese connected with Boxers, there is a strenuous opposition against demanding any more heads, but a list of ninety-six minor officials will shortly be presented to Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, urging that they be tried for complicity in the outrages, and punished when found guilty, in such a manner as the Chinese themselves see fit, except in the case of six men, who the ministers think should be executed. The report of the committee on the general principles upon which the indemnity claims should be considered was adopted. Those claims, which are palpably unjust, will be disallowed.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12.

For Governor of New Mexico from June 7, 1901, to June 7, 1905, or until elected, is attained, Miguel A. Otero.

Governor Otero places the responsibility for omissions in legislation where it belongs.

Only eight more working days for the legislature. There is still an immense mass of proposed legislation undisposed of.

The Springer educational bill has been passed by both houses as amended, and will soon be ready for Governor Otero's signature. With the exception of the amendment advancing the salaries of the county superintendents of the counties of the first class, the bill is a good one, and deserves to become a law. If it is enforced, it will greatly elevate the standard of the public schools.

The legislative assembly should heed the suggestion of Governor Otero for the appointment of a non-partisan commission to visit Washington during the next session of congress to work for statehood and for the defeat of the Stephens-Culberson bill, the latter having in view the erection of an international dam at El Paso to the detriment of New Mexico. The governor's suggestion in this matter is timely, just and proper.

Those critics who have asserted that Governor Otero dominates the legislature in every minute respect, and that whatever he asks is a command to the legislators, and whatever the legislature does, meets his unqualified approval, were taught a lesson by the veto message sent in yesterday by Governor Otero, and the passing over the governor's head by the council of the bill vetoed. Governor Otero has backhanded and the legislature possesses independence, although both endeavor to work together in harmony.

Russia has annexed one-third of the Chinese empire, installed custom houses and built telegraph lines, and calmly asks the rest of Europe, "What are you going to do about it?" An alliance between China and Russia would be a most formidable one, even though Great Britain, Germany and France would occupy Peking and St. Petersburg. The end of the century may see only two world powers, Russia and the United States, with all other kingdoms and empires playing a minor role in the world.

During the past week seven indictments for murder have been found by the grand jury now in session at Las Cruces, the county seat of Dona Ana county. It is believed that there is a good prospect for some convictions and legal hangings. Both of these latter contingencies would do the territory a great deal of good. Too many murders and too little punishment has been the rule for some time. District Attorney W. H. H. Llewellyn has worked hard to secure these indictments and is entitled to great credit in this matter. He is proving himself to be the right man in the right place.

To make mining pay, large sums must generally be invested, but when such investment is made and the ore exists in large quantities the returns are immense. At the famous Home-stake mine at Lead, S. D., $1,000,000 had to be expended for a water supply, $250,000 was put into a hoisting plant, $200,000 was spent for a cyanide plant, and 2,000 men are carried on the payroll of the mine and mill, but after those expenditures had been met, $9,000,000 in dividends were paid, and $100,000,000 more in dividends can be expected from the mine in course of time.

Only eight days more of the session, gentlemen, and the appropriation bill in the council has not yet been passed. It is understood that there is a combination to beat it. This combination poses under the mantle of economy. This latter is all right when applied in the proper way and in the proper spirit. Fortunately, there are now on the statute books provisions for appropriations for the fifty-third and fifty-fourth fiscal years. This was a very wise provision made by the thirty-third legislative assembly, and may come in very handy.

The governor's veto of council substitute for bill No. 15 on yesterday was proper and just. The governor's reasoning is correct and cogent. The bill, should it become law, would virtually negative the provisions of the Bateman law for the past four years. The counties are heavily enough in debt. Under its provisions, should it become law, the New Mexican will be a gainer, as several counties owe the New Mexican for work done during the past four years which has not been paid for, but the New Mexican is nevertheless against the bill becoming law, believing such to be detrimental to the best interests of the people in general, and the taxpayers and property owners in particular.

Council bill No. 41, relating to appeals from probate judges, passed the council yesterday. It seeks to remedy glaring defects in New Mexico legislation upon this subject, and will tend to discourage the frittering away of estates in costly lawsuits. A prominent executor of estates in the territory, who said only yesterday to a legislator that New Mexico is the worst commonwealth to die in and leave an estate, and he cited several recent instances where good-sized estates had disappeared altogether in the course of administration and lawsuits.

The income tax has been advocated by the Democratic-Populist party for years. Yet, in the Democratic states in which it has been given a trial it is a failure. South Carolina, for instance, has an income tax, and it certainly should work well in a state where the Democrats have everything their own way. Yet the income tax receipts of the state have fallen off year by year. There are thirty-five counties in the state, but only eight of them pay an income tax into the treasury, a total of only $1,471.11. Although incomes of over $2,500 are taxable, Democratic officials known to have larger incomes are not paying a cent. But the knowledge of these conditions makes no difference to Democratic demagogues.

The house has passed council bill No. 66, with a number of minor amendments which do not change the principle underlying the bill, although they are important to both creditor and debtor. The bill is to give Santa Fe county and other counties in a similar plight a chance to adjust their finances, to compromise their debts and to rid themselves of a handicap that is keeping them from prosperity, and a burden that may eventually prove the ruin of all business enterprises and the loss of most property interests by their present holders. The bill is a relief measure, there is no harm in it, it can do no injustice to any one, and therefore should pass the council in its present form and be signed by Governor Otero before the session closes.

The bill permitting and regulating the practice of osteopathy passed the house yesterday, and should also pass the council. Osteopathy is recognized in most states as a legitimate branch of science, and people who desire to resort to its methods for the cure of disease should not be deprived of the privilege of doing so. Monopoly in the line of medicine is as wrong and harmful as any other monopoly upheld by special legislation. It is not right to legislate out of the territory medical practitioners who do not happen to belong to the three old schools of medicine, and yet are graduates of medical schools and hold certificates recognized as valid elsewhere. Not every person believes in osteopathy, nor does every one believe in allopathy or homeopathy, but the fact remains that all three are based upon scientific principles, and shall stand therefore upon the same footing before the law.

Research Among the Cliff Dwellings.

Prof. R. H. Powell, Jr., of the New Mexico Normal University, in an illustrated article in the Rocky Mountain News, vigorously assails the scientific fakers and romancers who write about the cliff dwellings and cliff dwellers of New Mexico without any or only cursory examination of the ruins they describe. Weird and fantastic theories have been woven around the cliff dwellings and communal houses by visitors whose imagination ran away with their little scientific knowledge. Of course, there have been others who have erred in the other direction, and have minimized and ridiculed the archaeological importance of the prehistoric ruins in New Mexico, and it is for investigators like Prof. E. L. Hewett to correct these impressions by publishing to the world what they actually have found in the cliff dwellers' regions, and what scientific and historic conclusions they derive therefrom.

On the other hand, let us not be too harsh upon the romancers and upon the poets who see in the ruins more than there really exists. Hasn't the great Historian Prescott been accused of romancing, and yet who would want the world to be without his histories of Mexico and Peru? The romancer and the poet have their place in the world, and if their deductions are not always in strict accord with scientific research they are the prophets who are often a century or two ahead of the scientists, with their slow but accurate means of investigation. A Loomis would call a Hewett a romancer, and yet be in error. In the meanwhile, the world awaits from Prof. E. L. Hewett a publication of the result of his investigations. It will be mighty interesting reading, and of high scientific value, for Professor Hewett is both a scientist and a poet.

Fredrick S. Dellenbaugh's "The North Americans of Yesterday," just published: "Indeed, it is interesting to note that on one point, at least, that of the antiquity and possibly autochthonous character of the American races, and, perhaps, also of the high degree of civilization attained, the latest opinion seems to be reaching back to the earlier romantic period of the inquiry rather than to the skeptical trend of some dozen years back."

Mr. Dellenbaugh, who is an unquestioned authority upon the subject, adopts the opinion that the independent human occupation of North America is of a high degree of antiquity, basing it partly on linguistic considerations and partly on the evidences of a very early isolation of this continent to a complete degree than even now exists. He holds that this occupation easily dated long before the glacial epoch, placing the endurance of the ice period at from 10,000 to 20,000 years, and its ultimate recession at 4,000 years ago. The higher civilization of the more southerly part of North America he ascribes to the crowding of population southward, incident to the gradual advance of the ice cap from the north. This view seems to include a comparatively dense population and a very ancient occupancy, even at the beginning of the glacial epoch, some 15,000 to 20,000 years ago.

This may be science, but it is as romantic as the most imaginative assertions that have yet been made about the cliff dwellers or their successors. There is as much material for a tragedy or a drama in the explanation that the cliff dwellers were driven southward by an advancing ice cap as by the eruptions of lava or a great flood. It is because scientists are so much at sea upon this subject, and will tend to discourage the frittering away of estates in costly lawsuits. A prominent executor of estates in the territory, who said only yesterday to a legislator that New Mexico is the worst commonwealth to die in and leave an estate, and he cited several recent instances where good-sized estates had disappeared altogether in the course of administration and lawsuits.

OFFICIAL LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

HOUSE—FIFTIETH DAY.

The house met with the speaker in the chair. Prayer. Quorum present. Journal approved.

House bills Nos. 37 and 171, on the qualification and selection of jurors, were referred to a special committee. Messrs. Abbott, Walton and Sanchez of Valencia.

Under head of introduction of bills, the following were introduced:

House bill No. 221, by Mr. Read, providing for the payment of county debts and the disposition of public property; committee on public property.

House bill No. 222, by Mr. Slaughter (by request), to regulate and make more definite and certain the fees and compensation of probate clerks; committee on judiciary.

House bill No. 223, by Mr. Bateman, amending certain exemption laws; committee on judiciary.

House bill No. 224, by Mr. Bateman, repealing certain parts of the laws exempting irrigating ditches from taxation; committee on judiciary.

Council bill No. 66, an act to enable counties to compromise and refund their bonded indebtedness, was amended by inserting after the words "counties of New Mexico" the following: "in which the bonded indebtedness now issued and outstanding is in excess of 15 per cent of the taxable property of such county, according to the assessed valuation for the year 1900," and in section 6 "the said interest coupon, when past due and unpaid, shall be payable and receivable in lieu of cash from the owner and holder of said coupons for like amount in payment of any taxes due by said holder and owner of said coupons, and pertaining to the treasury of the county issuing such bonds." Also by adding to section 9, "that section 29, chapter 53, Session Laws of 1899, be, and the same is hereby repealed." Other minor amendments were made and the bill passed.

Council bill No. 50, an act entitled an act for the protection of children and others attending the public schools or other educational institutions in the territory of New Mexico, passed.

House bill No. 158, to regulate the practice of osteopathy, passed. House bill No. 114, an act to amend section 12 of chapter 66, of the Session Laws of 1899, was defeated. House bill No. 131, an act to amend section 391 of the Compiled Laws, passed.

Mr. Chapman introduced the following: "Be it hereby resolved, that no member shall be allowed to speak more than once on any subject, except that some other member concedes his time to the speaker. And not more than five minutes shall be allowed to any speaker. Further, resolved, that no member shall be allowed more than one minute to explain his vote. Further resolved, that no bill shall be introduced into this house after March 13."

Mr. Dalles offered the following amendment: "After the words 'March 13,' unless with the consent of two-thirds of the house."

Mr. Sanchez of Mora moved that the resolution be laid on the table indefinitely. Motion lost. Adjourned to 2 p. m.

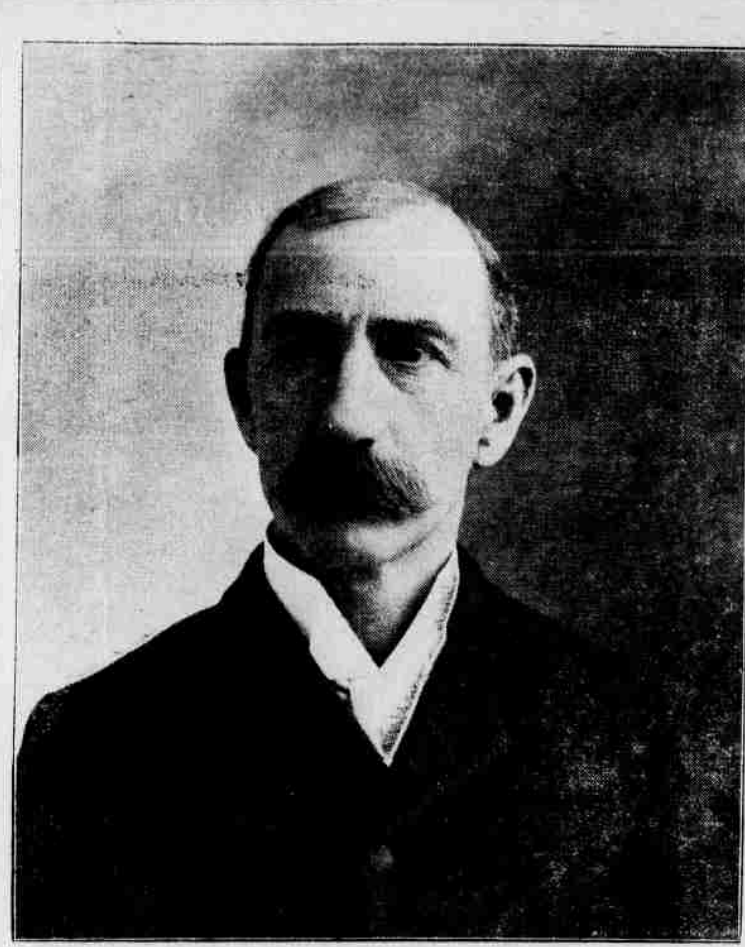

(Afternoon Session.) House bill No. 92, on stock brands, was tabled indefinitely. Council bill No. 12, on protection of elk, etc., was discussed and recommitted. Council bill No. 23, the school bill, as amended in conference, passed. House bill No. 89, amending the law on garnishments, passed. Also, house bill No. 43, Mr. Walton's impounding act; also, house bill No. 148, confining gambling places to second-floor rooms; also, house bill No. 96, an act to repeal section 29, chapter 53, of the session laws of 1899, permitting counties and other municipal corporations to compromise and refund their bonded indebtedness; also, house bill No. 154, relating to the registration of voters; also, house bill No. 150, relating to peddlers.

Mr. Gutierrez called up council substitute for the refunding act, council bill No. 15, which had passed the council over the governor's veto. A long debate ensued. Mr. Bateman sought to sustain the veto and kill the bill. Mr. Gutierrez desired to pass the measure. The bill was left on the speaker's table, neither side having force enough to dispose of it. Council bill No. 3, to prevent the killing of song birds, passed. Adjourned to 10 a. m.

Greatest of All

"Every one in San Antonio, Texas, says that Ackers' English Remedy is the greatest thing ever put up for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, whooping cough and consumption. I have been using it over four years for all forms of throat and lung troubles, and have yet to come across a case where it failed. We have four little ones in our family, and neither my wife nor I have ever lost a night's sleep because of throat troubles among the children. I guess that is more than any other family can say. Ackers' English Remedy is just as effective for grown-up people as for the young. It seems to go straight to the place where the trouble lies in the throat and bronchial tubes and lungs. It soothes and heals the irritated tissues, loosens up the phlegm and mucus in the breathing passages, quiets the nerves, invigorates the constitution and stops the coughing. My advice to parents is to always keep a bottle in the house. It will be a constant safeguard against croup." (Signed) F. G. ZIMMERMAN, San Antonio, Tex.

HON. W. H. SLAUGHTER,

Member of the House of the 34th Legislative Assembly from Otero and Dona Ana Counties.

Hon. W. H. Slaughter, who so conscientiously represents the counties of Otero and Dona Ana in the 34th legislative assembly, has been a resident of southeastern New Mexico for more than twenty years, coming into the Pecos valley and locating in 1880. He was born in Harrison county, Texas, in 1849, and imbued with the "westward, ho" spirit that so remarkably characterized that particular year, he never found real contentment until he had also pulled up stakes and moved westward, settling in what is now known far and wide as the beautiful Pecos valley. He is one of the path finders and trail blazers of that prosperous section, and has helped to convert its wild stock ranges into fertile farms, beautiful homes and thriving towns. For some years he made his home at Carlsbad, and served as postmaster of that town from 1892 to 1897. He has served in many positions of public trust, including four years as county judge in Texas, and has a clean and honorable record. Although a Democrat, he is a man of broad views, unimpeachable character and a most earnest and conscientious worker for what he considers to be the public weal, regardless of any partisan bias or prejudice. When the new county of Otero was created some two years ago, Mr. Slaughter was far sighted enough to see in advance what was in store for that region of New Mexico, and he was one of the early settlers in the new town and county seat of Alamogordo, where he now resides, and where he has been highly successful in the real estate and insurance business. His wife, a daughter of Col. C. H. Slaughter, who represented Lincoln county in the legislature in 1887, is at present here at the capital with him. Mr. Slaughter is a safe and conscientious legislator, and earnest worker both on the floor of the house and in the committee rooms.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

Howell, Ind., Nov. 28.
I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles," other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing down and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

A KING FOR AMERICA.
It may be a surprise to learn that there are enough Americans in this country with monarchial beliefs to warrant the publication of a magazine, the first number of which has just been issued in the east. This pretense is as ridiculous as that made by the various bogus stomach remedies which spring up, claiming to be the only cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. The only real king of stomach remedies is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is founded on true merit and it must be a very bad case of indigestion, constipation, biliousness, liver and kidney trouble, which it will not cure. Try it also for insomnia, and as a spring purifier and preventive for malaria, fever and ague. It has no equal.

Gave Him Away.
They had been at the masquerade, where she had recognized him at once. "Was it the loud beating of my heart, my darling, that told you I was here?" murmured he.
"Oh, no," she replied; "I recognized you by the size of your feet."—Town Topics.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. Ireland's Pharmacy.

A Basis of Settlement.
"Did Morgan give you the lie?"
"Yes, and his second has just been trying to adjust matters peacefully."
"Showing the white feather, eh? What did he propose?"
"That Morgan should withdraw the epithet if I would admit the fact."—Leslie's Weekly.

Counterfeits of De Witt's Witch Hazel are liable to cause blood poisoning. Leave them alone. The original has the name De Witt's upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequaled for piles. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Sound Argument.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make De Witt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. Ireland's Pharmacy.

A Sense of Fitness.
"What's the matter with the leader of the orchestra?" said one auditor.
"His movements are something fearful and wonderful."
"Not when you understand the circumstances," answered the friend who can always answer a question. "He is a Cincinnati musician, and his artistic sense is so strong that he can't endure even the suggestion of discord. Since the music promoters of this city took a flyer in pugilism he tries to work in a few uppercuts and right-hand jabs when he is beating time."—Washington Star.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as De Witt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Not Annoyed.
"Doesn't that person irritate you?" inquired Willie Washington.
"Not at all," answered Miss Cayenne. "But he disagrees in everything you say to him."
"Yes. That pleases me. I have so little respect for his opinion that I am never sure I am right unless he takes the opposite view."—Washington Star.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.
"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, who whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children, as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Ireland.

The Great Question.
Just now the great question is, are we a vaccination? Boston Transcript.
Prof. Iverson, of Lonsdale, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years, and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Well Posted.
Harry is so well posted on this South African war, said young Mrs. Kidder, and he just loves to discuss it with me, because he says I have such an intelligent conception of it.
Is that so? said her friend.
Yes, and last night he explained in detail how the Swiss navy, in command of General De Bilioly, was going to help the Boers.—Philadelphia Press.

Mr. J. W. Patterson, night police at Nashua, Ia., says: "In January I had a very bad cold on my lungs, and used half dozen different cough medicines and prescriptions from two doctors, but grew worse all the time. I finally bought a bottle of Foley's Kidney Cure, and after using two-thirds of it, I was entirely cured." Fischer Drug Co.

Pitting Them.
Caller: Where is your mamma, Ethel?
Ethel (who has been watching the preparation of cherry pie): Why, she's out in the kitchen unbuttering a lot of cherries.—Philadelphia Press.

Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., writes: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years, and have doctored with all the leading physicians and have tried all remedies suggested without any relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and less than two bottles completely cured me, and I am sound and well." Fischer Drug Co.

MORE PREHISTORIC RUINS.

A Large Communal Building Discovered Five Miles From Phoenix.

The end of the discoveries of antiquities in the southwest is not yet, and to gain a clear idea of the relation of the different ruins to each other in this part of the United States they must be studied together. Studying the prehistoric remains of but one small district may lead to erroneous theories and conclusions. Says a dispatch from Phoenix, Ariz.:

"Five miles east of Phoenix, on the line of the Southern Pacific branch railroad, is a high Toltec 'mound,' probably the largest in the southwest. The traveler might consider it merely a hillock, and no photograph has ever succeeded in taking a photograph that looked anything like a building. Yet superficial excavations have demonstrated the fact that within the crumbled debris of the upper part of the once lofty structure walls are still standing to the height of three or more stories. The material is a sort of adobe concrete. Around the old castle are the lines of a moat, filled by a ditch that first ran through a large city, of which the streets and buildings are to be readily distinguished. High walls guarded the castle, and in the southwestern corner once was a tall watch tower or citadel. To the south is a smooth expanse of several acres, which may have been a drill ground or an assembling place for the people. To the north, 100 yards, are the outlines of a circular reservoir. The castle-to-day measures 380 feet in length, exactly north and south, by 180 feet in width. Now it is proposed to clear from the walls the debris of the centuries, saving every find of value, to be held within the building as the nucleus for a southern museum of archaeology. The importance of the project may be gauged by a comparison of the size of the building with that of the famed Casa Grande, which has an area of only 50x60 feet. Dr. Miller has offered to supervise the work without personal compensation. A bill now in the Arizona legislature carries a small appropriation for the work."

Legislative Proceedings.

A subject in the then existing temper of the house, Mr. Pendleton said too much hot blood had been stirred up to make it prudent to suspend the rules and change the order of business at this time. He was in favor of everybody going to lunch and cooling off. The house voted, 9 to 15, not to suspend the rules. Adjourned to 2:30 p. m.

Afternoon Session.

The utmost serenity prevailed when the house reassembled at 2:30. The following new bills were introduced:

House bill No. 230, by Mr. Walton, creating the court house repair fund in the several counties of the territory.

House bill No. 231, by Mr. Walton, to amend section 92, Compiled Laws, relating to mines.

House bill No. 44, Mr. Walton's measure on forcible entry or detainer, was taken up as amended in the council and passed. House bill No. 99, by Mr. Valdez, rendering liable to dismissal from public service any teacher or school director who shall refuse to receive into the public schools any pupil on account of race or nationality, or for any other reason whatsoever, the pupil being entitled to attend school in the district, passed.

House joint memorial No. 5, appealing to congress to admit New Mexico to statehood, passed unanimously. Also house joint memorial No. 8, by Mr. Barnes, asking congress to grant the territory more school lands; house bill No. 166, by Mr. Chapman, passed. It adopts as official the figures of the United States census of 1900. House bill No. 56, by Mr. Walton, fixing the period for filing suits on mining claims, passed.

IN THE HOUSE.

(Yesterday's Session.)

In the house yesterday, upon the receipt and reading of the special message from the governor, as printed in full in last evening's New Mexican, Speaker Reed addressed the members as follows:

"The chair will avail itself of this opportunity to call the attention of the house to the remarks made by the speaker some days ago, with reference to not leaving important legislation until the last end of the session. The chair again calls the attention of the house to these facts, and regrets very much that the governor was compelled or constrained to send in this message. It is certainly a fact that the legislature has not acted on the recommendations made by the governor in his first message, and have left the most important matters to the last days of the session. There is, however, an excuse for the house. By reason of not having delivered to it the message of the governor, the chair was unable to assign the different subjects referred to in the message to the respective committees.

"At the time of the joint session, when the message was delivered, the chief clerk of the council took the papers with him, as is the case in joint sessions, and not even a typewritten copy has been furnished the house, and for that reason the house has been unable to deal with the subjects referred to in the message.

"I will now refer the different subjects mentioned in the message received to-day to the respective committees, with the request that they act on same as soon as possible, and I again call the attention of the house to the fact that the time is very short, and that we have before us a great deal of important legislation, and if possible I ask the members not to indulge so much in talking unless absolutely necessary. A great deal of time is wasted in explaining votes, remarks, etc., and now that our time is very limited I ask of the members to expedite business as much as possible.

"The matter of reapportionment for legislative purposes is referred to committee on apportionment. The matter of appointing a committee to go to Washington in the interest of statehood and the Culberson and Stephens bills is referred to committee on territorial affairs. The subject that refers to the creation of an insurance commissioner and traveling auditor, the former will be referred to committee on insurance and the latter to committee on territorial affairs. The matter of changing the law relating to the inspection of coal oil will be referred to the committee on judiciary; subject of finance to the finance committee. Public printing will be referred to the committee on printing."

H. B. No. 89, came up yesterday and Mr. Chapman, its author, moved its passage, and it passed.

This measure amends the law on garnishments by providing that the personal earnings of the debtor for 60 days next preceding his application for such exemption when it is made to appear by the affidavit of the debtor, or otherwise that such earnings are necessary to the support of such debtor or his wife or his family.

H. B. No. 43, Mr. Walton's stock impounding act, as amended in the council, passed.

H. B. No. 148, by Mr. Martinez, to restrict and regulate gambling, prohibiting all gambling places from occupying ground floor buildings, passed, 13 to 7.

H. B. No. 96, to repeal section 29, chapter 58, acts of 1899, and to authorize counties to compromise their indebtedness, was called up and passed unanimously.

COUNCIL.

(Yesterday's Session.)

H. B. No. 144, Mr. Barnes' bill relating to the indexing of county records, was discussed and placed upon its final passage and failed in the council yesterday afternoon.

The council substitute for H. B. No. 25, for policing unincorporated county seats having over 250 population, was called, discussed and recommended.

H. B. No. 136, on the construction of bridges, was called up, explained by Mr. Hinkle and passed.

C. B. No. 41, relating to the duties of administrators, etc., was elucidated by Mr. Springer and the same duly passed. Adjourned to 10 a. m.

THE VETO MESSAGE ON C. S. FOR C. B. NO. 15.

The following is the veto message of Governor Otero on council substitute for council bill No. 15, sent to the council yesterday:

To the President and Legislative Council of the Thirty-fourth Legislative Assembly: Gentlemen—I return herewith to your body, being the house in which it originated, council substitute for council bill No. 15, an act to amend chapter 58 of the acts of the 33d legislative assembly, without my approval, and with my objections to the same as follows:

Section 5 of the act authorizes the taking up and funding into 5 per cent bonds, of all judgments or outstanding floating indebtedness accruing since January 1, 1897, which have been approved prior to the 1st of February, 1901, and further authorizes the sale of such new bonds at 90 cents, if the interest does not exceed 4 per cent, and at 95 cents on the dollar if the interest is 5 per cent, thus practically annulling the Bateman law of 1897 and the Bursum act of 1899, and recognizing a very large amount of claims which were declared illegal under the former. The amount cannot be estimated with any accuracy, but it will reach many thousands of dollars in nearly every county, in the territory, and put these claims, allowed in plain violation of law, into bonds bearing 5 per cent interest. This evil is greatly enhanced, and the debt much increased, by the provision allowing these refunding bonds to be sold at from 90 to 95 cents, instead of at par as provided for in the Bursum act. If the 4 per cent rate is too low to admit of the sale of these bonds at par, make the rate of interest 5, or even 6 per cent, but under no circumstances should these or any other bonds be sold at less than their face value. To do so opens the door to speculation and manipulation by which the taxpayer is wronged, and only a few individuals derive any benefit.

Section 7 adds a new section to the act amended, which makes it the duty of any board of county commissioners, upon the request of any holder of 4 per cent bonds issued under chapter 58, the Bursum act, to take them up and issue in exchange therefor new bonds bearing 5 per cent interest. This section invites the creditors of the counties, who had come voluntarily, and settled their claims for bonds bearing 4 per cent interest, to now accept new bonds therefor bearing 5 per cent. This addition of 1 per cent interest to the outstanding bonds of the various municipalities will in the aggregate prove a tremendous burden, which they can ill afford to bear. Many of them cannot now pay even the 4 per cent interest; and there is no moral obligation, or equitable reason for inviting the holders of these bonds to accept more interest; they have voluntarily surrendered their claims bearing a higher rate, for these 4 per cent bonds, and it is an excess of liberality to give them more, while there can be no possible advantage to the counties or the people derived from this measure.

In addition, very much of the indebtedness proposed to be recognized and refunded by the bill returned herewith is in direct violation of section 4 of the so-called "Springer act" of congress, prohibiting the incurring of any debt for any purpose in excess of 4 per cent of the assessed value of the municipality; and is therefore void.

For these reasons, I deem it my duty as executive, to return this bill to your body for further deliberation, as I can not think that it has had the due consideration and careful examination before its passage in its present form which its great and far-reaching importance demands.

MIGUEL A. OTERO.

Governor.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 11, 1901.

COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE FOR COUNCIL BILL NO. FIFTEEN.

The following is council substitute for council bill No. 15, vetoed by Governor Otero yesterday and passed over his veto by the council:

An act to amend sections 13, 14, 15, 23 and 24 of chapter 58, of the acts of the 33d legislative assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, and to repeat section 22 of said chapter and to add thereto section 30 1/2.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the Territory of New Mexico: Section 1. That section 13 of chapter 58 of the acts of the 33d session of the legislative assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, approved March 16, 1899, be and the same is hereby amended by striking therefrom the words commencing on the fourth line of said section, as follows, to wit: "Or other lawful outstanding indebtedness hereinafter mentioned," and by adding the word, to wit: "and" before the word "judgments" in said line four.

United States, which shall be specified therein, and they shall be in negotiable form, and shall carry a binding recital that they are issued under this act, and that the terms and conditions thereof have been fully complied with by the authorities concerned in their issuance, and each issue thereof, for any amount, shall be in uniform wording and numbered consecutively, beginning with number one (1). Such bonds shall be in form, and made payable, both principal and interest, at such place or bank as may be agreed upon between the authorities issuing said bonds and the holder, party or parties taking or receiving the same, and in the absence of such agreement, at such place or bank as may be determined by said authorities issuing said bonds.

Section 3. That section 15 of said chapter 58, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to wit: Section 15. Bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall not in any event be construed as creating any new or additional indebtedness. The boards of county commissioners of the various counties of the territory are hereby authorized to issue bonds under the provisions of this act in sufficient amount to pay the outstanding and floating indebtedness of such counties that may have accrued since January 1, 1897, which has been audited, allowed and approved by the several boards of county commissioners prior to the first day of February, 1901; and after all claims and allowances for which said bonds are to be issued shall have been approved and audited by the judge of the judicial district in which said county or counties are situated. Any person, member of board of county commissioners, city or town council, or mayor of any city or town, or member of any school district in the territory of New Mexico, who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 23 to 30 1/2 inclusive of the Compiled Laws of 1897, or of the provisions of this act, except as such sections are modified by this act, shall be summarily removed from office by the governor of the territory, who shall fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, and any indebtedness hereafter incurred except as herein provided in violation of this act, and said sections 23 to 30 1/2 inclusive, are hereby declared null and void and absolutely illegal.

Such city, town or village bonds shall be absolutely due and payable and bear the same rate of interest as is provided hereinbefore; that is to say, not exceeding 5 per cent per annum, when said bonds are exchanged, and the rates provided for in section 23 as amended, when said bonds are sold. Such city, town or village bonds shall have interest coupons thereto attached in the same manner as provided for interest coupons on county bonds issued hereunder, and shall be in substance and form as may be agreed upon between the authorities issuing said bonds and the holder, party or parties taking or receiving the same, and in the absence of such agreement in such form as may be determined by said authorities issuing said bonds. Such bonds shall also be issued upon the surrender and delivery by the legal owner, holder or his agent, of the bonds in lieu of which the same are issued, and also upon the satisfaction of judgments for the payment and funding of which new bonds are authorized by this act to be issued.

Section 7. Said chapter 58 is further amended by adding thereto section 30 1/2, reading as follows: Section 30 1/2. The boards of county commissioners of the several counties of the territory are authorized, and upon the request of the holders and owners of any bonds heretofore issued under the provisions of chapter 58 of the Session Laws of 1899, are required, when such are surrendered and delivered by the legal owner or owners thereof, to issue to such owner or owners county bonds bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per cent per annum, as provided by section 15 of said chapter 58, as amended.

Sec. 8. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed; and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

THE CITY ELECTION.

A Review of the Vote Last Year—The City Committees.

The city election this year will be held on April 2. Last year, out of a total registered vote of 1,135, there were cast 898 votes. Owing to the dissensions in the Republican party locally, a straight Republican ticket and a Citizens' ticket composed of Democrats and dissatisfied Republicans was in the field. The latter carried the day by small majorities, its candidate for mayor receiving ninety-six majority over his opponent, Maj. R. J. Palen. The Republican candidate for city treasurer, however, was elected with fifty-three majority. J. W. Akers, candidate for city council, and J. V. Conway, for the publican ward officers elected. Santa Fe is safely Republican when the Republicans are united, and there is no reason in the world why they should not unite this spring upon a good, first-class ticket of reputable taxpayers and citizens. The city certainly needs that kind of officials.

The Republican city committee consists of the following: President, Gen. E. L. Bartlett; secretary, Marcelino A. Ortiz; treasurer, R. C. Gortner, Esq.; J. D. Sena, David M. White, J. V. Conway and G. L. Solignac. The ward chairmen are: First ward, J. M. Gonzales; second ward, Seferino Baca; third ward, Ambrose Ortiz; fourth ward, G. L. Solignac.

The Democratic central committee consists of A. B. Renehan, chairman; A. P. Hill, secretary; first ward, Juan Delgado, A. M. Dettelaach; second ward, A. P. Hill, Marcelino Gavela; third ward, T. P. Gable, J. S. Candalaria; fourth ward, Meliton Castillo, Juan Sinsenos.
