THE DAILY CITIZEN will be delivered in the city at the low rate of 20 cents per week, or for 75 cents per month, when paid monthly. The rates are less than those of any other daily paper in the territory.

Statehood clubs should be formed in every town in New Mexico.

There are two sides and 2,000 islands to the Philippine question.

There are 1,437 different "cures" for rheumatism, but none for a scolding woman.

El Paso wants to make a $50,000 mineral exhibit at the St. Louis world's fair in 1904.

The people of the United States pay to the life insurance companies over one million dollars a day.

There will be a number of Elks from this city at the Elks' Fourth of July celebration at Silver City.

New Mexico was the scene of two severe battles during the Mexican war—Valverde and Golieta.

President Roosevelt will be given a grand welcome if he attends the territorial fair in this city next October.

There are 782 soldiers buried in the military cemetery at Santa Fe, of whom 421 are marked as unknown.

Ohio may clamor for Roosevelt, but Senator Hanna will have the state delegation in the next national convention.

President Roosevelt's speech delivered today at Arlington cemetery is a patriotic defense of the army of the Philippines.

Judge Benjamin S. Baker is winning golden opinions as judge of this district, and he is also a pleasing and patriotic orator.

According to the new city directory of Chicago that city now has a population of 2,149,000, an increase for the year of 70,000.

According to the census of 1900 the farms of the United States contained 623,000,000 acres, of which nearly one-third is under wood.

Not one of the crank prophets now so busy with theories gave the world a word of warning before the recent catastrophe at St. Pierre.

The coal mines of New Mexico last year produced 1,300,000 tons of coal and the product of the mines of this territory was over $6,000,000. A people with such resources are fit for statehood.

It is estimated that about 1,000 coal miners have been killed by explosions and other accidents in the United States during the past sixty days—more men than have been killed in the armies of the United States in the Philippines.

The Pueblo, Colo., Chieftain says that New Mexico is showing a remarkable advancement in education. The sneers that a portion of the eastern press is making at the ignorance of her population are ill deserved. No state or territory can show an equal ratio of progress.

The community that shows a practical appreciation of the efforts of its newspapers by a hearty, generous support never is forced to complain of dull times and general apathy. Live advertisers make live newspapers, and live newspapers attract live people to live up things.

PATRIOTIC PEOPLE.

It is uphill work for the people of New Mexico and Arizona to be as patriotic as they should. Kicked and cuffed by the federal government, reviled and slandered by the people of the Atlantic seaboard, neglected in every way except in the prompt collection of internal revenue taxes, it is almost a wonder that there is any sort of reverence for the American republic and yet in no part of the country is more genuine patriotism and love of country shown.

Today in every town and hamlet of this territory Memorial services of some sort are being held in honor of the dead of the civil war. This territory, though only a conquered province of the great republic, furnished six thousand soldiers to the union army during the civil war.

It kept its quota of troops more than filled by volunteers and no draft was ever needed to secure the necessary men demanded of New Mexico.

With wondrous patience the pioneers of New Mexico are working out their own destiny in spite of all opposition and without the help from anyone.

The people of New Mexico have conquered Indians, an arid climate, and more discouraging conditions, than confronted the pioneers of any other portion of the west, and are getting into position to take their rightful place as one of the commonwealths of the great republic.

ROOSEVELT INVITED.

He May Attend the Territorial Fair in This City.

On behalf of the people of this city The Citizen telegraphed Delegate Rodey to invite President Roosevelt to attend the territorial fair to be held in this city in October. Last evening the following reply was received from Delegate Rodey:

"Washington, May 29.—Invited President Roosevelt to attend the fair. San Antonio, Texas, invited him at the same moment. It is quite possible that he may decide to come."

World Wide Reputation.

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children, as it neutralizes the acidity or sourness of the stomach, improves their digestion, and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. Ruppe.

William M. Reilly was at White Oaks from Captain. Mr. Reilly says the product of the coal mines at Capitan is now about as great as at any time in its history.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

J. C. Klepinger, of White Oaks, left for Tortolita canyon to do assessment work on some mining claims in that district.

Don't Start Wrong.

Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardy kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure" is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. H. Bowles, Groveton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly." J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Briggs & Co.

Hilary White, of Hope, Eddy county, sold to W. R. Turk, recently, 600 mutton sheep at $2.40 around.

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes George S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nocona, Texas. "I took quantities of pepsin and other medicines but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Briggs & Co.

Business Opening, $5,000.

Here is a chance for some one to purchase a well established and very profitable business in a first class mining town in Arizona at a bargain. It is about a $5,000 proposition, including fine up to date stock, three lots, large storehouse with cellar, stable five-room dwelling house, finely furnished, etc.; monthly sales, $2,750; mostly cash; terms easy; death of wife and child of proprietor reason for selling. At a glance it will be seen that this is a rare chance to make an exceptionally good investment. For full particulars and terms, address or see H. S. Knight at once, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

ST. JOSEPH'S SANITARIUM

FORMALLY DEDICATED TODAY.

This morning the new St. Joseph's sanitarium was formally dedicated and all day open house has been kept by the Sisters for inspection of the institution by the general public. Wonders have been accomplished by these Sisters of Charity in making this much needed institution as complete as it is, although many things are yet needed. Spotlessly clean and light it is a pleasure just to go through the building.

Immediately opposite the main entrance the parlor furnished by Felipe Chavez, of Belen, is a beautiful room. The handsome Chickering piano, which is a gift from Mr. Chavez, is in this room. It is a magnificent instrument with a beautifully grained oak case. A large book case is another piece of furniture in this room and now the Sisters are trying to get well selected books to fill it. A modest start has been made in this direction. All the private rooms on the first floor have been furnished and in every case the Sisters left every detail to the taste of the one furnishing so the rooms today were just as they were left by the donors. The rooms are completely furnished and are uniformly dainty and attractive. The rooms on the front of the building on the first floor were furnished by Louis Grant, F. A. Hubbell, Mrs. H. N. Jaffa and O. W. Strong. In the rear is the parlor furnished by Mr. Chavez and rooms furnished by Mrs. Solomon Luna, Mrs. F. W. Clancy and Mrs. James Carroll and daughter.

At the west end and in the rear is the pretty little chapel. The altar trimmings have been donated and the little chapel is a quiet, restful place. One of the handsome fixtures is a cut glass candelabra set in a silver base. It was given by a sister of Sister Mary Sebastian but is unfortunately too large for the altar. Adjoining the chapel is a guest room fitted up by W. V. Furtelle. The rear of the room is a sacristy and a door leads directly into the chapel.

On the second floor private rooms have been furnished by G. L. Altheimer, J. A. Weinman, the San Jose meat market, Bailing Brothers and Mrs. M. S. Otero. On the north side on the second floor is the operating room which is the contribution of the Bernillo County Medical society. The surgical department consists of four rooms—the room for administering the anesthetics, the operating room of which one side and a part of the ceiling is of glass, the room for surgeons after the operation and the drug room. The latter is small for the purpose and another room will be used.

At the east and west ends on the second floor are the large, well ventilated wards. Each contains fifteen beds and each has a ventilator in the center of the ceiling. Beds in these wards have been endowed by Nestor Montoya, John Blake, Brockmeier & Cox and the Typographical Union has two. On the third floor are the private rooms of the Sisters and nurses. The dining room and kitchen, laundry, etc., are in the basement.

The ambulance entrance is on the north side and an easy elevator carries a patient to any ward. The building is lighted by electricity and telephones connect the different parts of the institution.

The formal dedication this morning at 9 o'clock was in the little chapel where mass was said. All day there has been a continuous stream of callers who have been shown through the building from bottom to top. After decorating the graves this afternoon the Grand Army and the Woman's Relief Corps visited the institution in a body.

All the healing, balsamic virtues of the Norway pine are concentrated in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, nature's own remedy for coughs and colds.

THAT VOLCANO.

True Story of the Remarkable Condition in McKinley County.

Editors Citizen:

So much has been said, at random, about McKinley county's volcano, that the truth about it may be interesting.

Fifteen years ago I first heard that there was a burning coal vein, somewhere in the county northeast of Gallup. Reports of this kind have been current at intervals until since the late seismic disturbances in the West Indies, when the burning coal mine turned to a full fledged volcano, which was emitting clouds of smoke and shaking up the backbone of the continent out that way in a very disagreeable manner.

L. E. Densmore, of Gallup, who is one of the very few, if not the only, white man who has investigated the strange phenomena, gave me, lately, a graphic description of "the burning mesa," for that term seems more fitly to describe a unique condition.

Mr. Densmore, a couple of years ago, having heard the current stories relating to this strange place, succeeded in inducing an Indian to guide him to the spot, which is located thirty miles northeast of Gallup, on a high mesa near the upraise of a mountain chain and within one hundred feet of the east line of the reservation. Mr. Densmore had pointed out by the guide a spot, in nothing different from the surrounding red mesa, the guide indicating that to be the spot. There was no sign of smoke, no steam, nothing that would in any way distinguish the spot from any other. And Mr. Densmore said: "I felt that I had been badly sold." On walking out a few feet in the direction indicated by the Indian guide he noticed that the rock had been split open by some convulsion of nature, leaving a crevice from six inches to three feet wide. The edges were whitened by some substance which attracted his attention, and stooping down to gather some of it from the crevice his hand came in contact with heated air; the rock itself was hot enough to burn him.

Further investigation showed that over an area which he described to be an area of about a city block, narrow crevices opened into the principal crevice from all of which hot air ascended, in some places with sufficient intensity to boil water or to cook a meal. In some places he found that vapor almost imperceptibly ascended. On one occasion he visited the place early in January and while the surrounding country was covered with snow, vegetation was growing on this spot. Mr. Densmore says the surface rock is the common red sandstone of the country and that the absence of smoke is conclusive evidence to him that it is not a burning coal mine. He has since located a smaller heated area within one mile of the first which seems to be of the same character. The surface of the country shows much fossil rock, apparently sea forms of vegetation, shells, etc.

Mr. Densmore says he will willingly guide any scientific party to the place, furnish teams and outfit, and that if they do not find it just as he describes he will not charge them one cent for the trip; but he stipulates that there must be in the party some person who can show claims to scientific knowledge and who goes prepared to test the gases and take correct temperatures.

A. M. SWAN.

For Those Who Live on Farms.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. Ruppe.

THE SONG OF THE CAMP.

"Give us a song!" the soldiers cried,
The outer trenches guarding,
When the heated guns of the camps allied Grew weary of bombarding.

The dark Redan, in silent scoff, Lay dim and threatening, under;
And the tawny mound of the Malakoff
No longer belched its thunder.

There was a pause. A guardsman said,
"We storm the forts tomorrow;
Sing while we may, another day
Will bring enough of sorrow."

They lay along the battery's side,
Below the smoking cannon;
Brave hearts from Severn and from Clyde,
And from the banks of Shannon.

They sang of love and not of fame;
Forgot was Britain's glory;
Each heart recalled a different name,
But all sang "Annie Laurie."

Voice after voice caught up the song,
Until its tender passion
Rose like an anthem, rich and strong—
Their battle eve confession.

Dear girl, her name he dared not speak,
But as the song grew louder,
Something upon the soldier's cheek
Washed off the stain of powder.

Beyond the darkening ocean burned
The bloody sunset's embers,
While the Crimean valleys learned How English love remembers.

And once again a fire of hell
Rained on the Russian quarters,
With scream of shot and burst of shell,
And bellying of the mortars.

And Irish Nora's eyes are dim
For a singer dumb and gory;
And English Mary mourns for him
Who sang for "Annie Laurie."

Sleep soldiers! Still in honest rest
Your truth and valor wearing;
The bravest are the tenderest—
The loving are the daring.

—Bayard Taylor.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Parly, Yanketown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. J. H. O'Reilly & Co.; B. H. Cattle Board.

The Cattle Sanitary board had a regular meeting at Las Vegas. It appointed W. S. Farnsworth, of Silver City, an inspector, and re-appointed E. R. Stewart, of Aztec, and T. A. Gray, of Clayton, inspectors. The business transacted was of a routine nature, and nothing of particular was done. The cattle in the territory are reported free from disease, and in good condition.

Track Team Selected.

The track team selected to represent the Normal university at the meet at Las Cruces will consist of the following men: Manuel Otero, Tom Tip-ton, Charles Rhodes, Cecil Hayes, Norris Cochran, Joe Bowman, Degner and Glassford, the debaters, will also take the same trip. President Hewett and Professor Wolcott will accompany the team.—Record.

The Most Common Ailment.

More people suffer from rheumatism than from any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary, too, for a cure may be effected at a very small cost. G. W. Westcott, of Meadowdale, N. Y., says: "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for some time and it has caused me much suffering. I concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say that it has cured me." For sale by all druggists.

Cattle Ranch Sold.

Parker Wells has sold his fine ranch place and cattle at La Cima canyon, near the Bell ranch, to Mack McQuade, who for the past eight or ten years has been wagon boss for the Bell company, says the Optic. In the deal were also included the small bunches of cattle

When the bowels are constipated the blood becomes impure. The Bitters is the best known laxative and blood purifier. It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Malaria, Fever and Ague. A trial will convince you.

Belonging to Perry McDonald and L. Martin. Mr. MacQuade expects to put 800 acres of the land under irrigation, the La Cima canyon flowing a living stream. Reservoirs will be built to store the water. Mr. Wells will go to Colorado Springs, where he will go into business.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkney Hall, Springville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Announcement to the Public.

I will take possession of the Hotel Highland on June 1, 1902, as lessee and manager. It will be my endeavor to make this hotel attractive to local patrons and the traveling public. The table will be supplied at all times with the best the country affords. The cuisine, service and accommodations of the hotel will be equal to any in the territory. Desiring your patronage and good will, I am sincerely yours, C. H. BRIGGS, Proprietor.

Concerning Trade Tricks.
The old saying that there are "tricks in all trades" has outlived its truthfulness, if there ever was any truth in it. This store does not countenance tricks of any sort to catch the unwary. The plain, simple policy of buying good merchandise and selling it at a just profit is what has gained for us the public confidence. What you read in our "ads" you can tie to. People with money to spend naturally go to the safe trading place—Golden Rule Dry Goods Co.

Mrs. Isola Bambini, at her parlors at the corner of Railroad avenue and North Fourth street, is prepared to give thorough scalp treatment, do hair dressing, treat corns, bunions and ingrowing nails. She gives massage treatment and manicuring. Mrs. Bambini's own preparations of complexion cream builds up the skin and improves the complexion, and are guaranteed not to be injurious. She also prepares a hair tonic that cures and prevents dandruff and hair falling out; restores life to dead hair; removes moles, warts and superfluous hair. Give her a trial.

THE HOME TRIBUTE.

can war we have learned of ourselves and taught the world that our volunteer soldiers can meet and vanquish the standing army of any foe.

It takes patriotism, bravery and intelligence to make a soldier. With our holy underlying principles of liberty and equality and our high standard of intellect and education, no power can stop our army and no force can check our fleets.

Homes Affected.

During the civil war there was scarcely a home but what had a member in the thickest of the fight, and every community was at the highest tension from the spring of 1861 to the fall of 1865. The nearness of battle and close relationship of the participants in the same, the importance of the result, brought home to our hearts and minds every move of the army, and those of us who were old enough to remember, were impressed with the bravery, patriotism and determination of the boys in blue, believing that the civil war, for great commanders and the bravery and loyalty of the soldiers, the fierce and relentless battles, was unparalleled on the pages of history, and it was true.

And the young blood of today maintains the reputation of their fathers.
"Roosevelt's Rough Riders" has made a reputation, as warriors, that attracts the admiration of the whole world.
Their names will go down in history as Roosevelt's Invincibles, ever ready and able to follow and defend the flag under any hardships and at any cost.

The Grand Army.

The Grand Army of the Republic is an outgrowth of the civil war. It has for its foundation rock, loyalty to the government of the United States and the flag, the emblem of its sovereignty and the ensign of freedom. This order has its posts, state and national organizations. Its object is fraternity and charity among its members, and peace and good will to men, but first and above all, loyalty to country.

This order numbers about 300,000 veterans of the civil war, scattered all over our nation, ever sowing the seed of loyalty and love of country. It is sad to note that this gigantic, patriotic organization is soon to be history. By the highest authority it is estimated that within forty-four years the last member of over 2,000,000 heroes of the civil war will have gone where wars are no more. So soon to be oblivious to the eye, yet their good works, loyalty and patriotism will be told for centuries, and their example will mould and fashion character to the ends of the earth. Their many deeds of charity, in and outside of their order, I will not undertake to enumerate. The Grand Army of the Republic has ever been active in the field of labor for loyalty and patriotism. It has given many lasting and impressive object lessons that have touched the hearts of our people.

Flag Presentations.

The presentation of the flag by the Lafayette post to the College of New York city, and the impressive public ceremony, and the recent gift and public presentation of 600 beautiful flags to the public schools of Porto Rico, and many other like occasions, have driven home to our hearts the noble impulse of love for our country, where liberty reigns supreme and freedom and equality are enjoyed and cherished by all.

Whosoever stands under the floating stars and stripes today is impressed with the power it represents, the security it guarantees and the humanity and mercy it carries in its folds. He is reminded of the revolutionary soldiers, whose sore, frozen and bleeding feet stained the snow as they cheerfully followed the flag, not for its symmetry and beauty, but as the emblem of liberty. He is reminded how the soldier of the civil war tore himself from the fireside when Old Glory waved him to battle, to preserve our union, and as he stands there today he is reminded how the noble boys have followed her lead to the islands of the sea, planted her there, where she now sheds the light of liberty and freedom, justice and equality. This flag shall never be hauled down. This flag shall never be dishonored. The principles it represents are imperishable, and they shall, some day, prevail and control the world.

Liberty and Free Country.

The soldier of the revolutionary war gave us liberty and a free country. The soldier of the union army saved that country from dissolution and degeneration. The soldier of the Spanish-American war exhibited to the world the efficiency and greatness of our country and the ability and bravery of our army.

Our people are more patriotic than other nations. Our people are loyal and patriotic to our free institutions and the principles underlying them.
Other nations pay homage to the nobility and royal family, in which there is nothing in common with the mass of the people. Our nation is great because our people are great. Our people are great because our mothers are brave, patriotic, intelligent and virtuous. Foreign nations bow the knee to the new-born babe of royal birth, we bow the knee to no man. We eulogize and praise a man for what he does and what he is. We praise a Washington, a Lincoln, a Grant, a McKinley, a Dewey, and a Roosevelt, not for their parentage but for their achievements.
Thus we are the mightiest people in the world, recognizing only the great, the good and the pure. The greatest man is the man of greatest deeds. Thus we are ever pushing onward with higher views to nobler conquests.

A government governed by its people will rise as high in the scale of education, advancement, morality, humanity and patriotism as its people.

A monarchy or kingdom rarely ever rises higher than the narrow sphere of its crowned head, be that much or little.

Today's Tribute.

As we strew the flowers upon these graves, today, my countrymen, don't you hear the voice of that silent sleeper saying: "All praise to the patriotic living. All praise to those that have and are willing to bare their breasts to the bullets of the foe of liberty and our free institutions." And bear him whisper: "I accept these tokens of fond remembrance and your expressions of patriotism, not for myself, oh my beloved brother, but for the cause for which I fell—liberty, freedom and equality."

My friends, my countrymen, may we ever respect and honor the soldier of the army of the United States, whether in service or out. May we ever remember the hardships they must endure, may we ever be filled with enough patriotism to be an American soldier, and may we never stand with those who criticize and slander the army of our country, and while there may be individual acts that needs to be rebuked, for brains, bravery and morality, for heroic deeds in battle and humane deeds upon a conquered field, the army of the United States stands without a rival and without a peer. May we ever revere and honor the dead and the living heroes of the army of our country.

What higher respect and deference could be paid the heroic dead than the thousands of innocent girls, dressed in white, annually scattering flowers upon their graves? And may the flowers thus scattered upon their graves be so fragrant as to perfume the heavens, and be so soothing to the differences of men and passions for war, as to plant the sword by the graves they have filled; and may they grow and blossom, not of their kind, the bright and glittering steel, but may they bloom violets of eternal peace.

An ovation was given the speaker on the conclusion of his address and "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was sung. The Woman's Relief Corps decorated the monument, after which "Rest, Peacefully Rest" was sung. A salute to the dead was given by company G and taps was sounded. "America" was sung and the benediction was pronounced.

Lunch was served at noon to the veterans by the Woman's Relief Corps.
This afternoon the veterans and members of the corps drove to the cemeteries and strewed flowers on the graves. An abundance of flowers was sent in and yesterday the members of the Relief Corps made over 200 bonquets. Many more flowers were sent this morning and among them were two boxes shipped by friends in Los Angeles. On the return from the cemeteries the parties visited St. Joseph's Sanitarium in a body.

NATION'S TRIBUTE.

punish those who commit them; but if because of them we flinch from finishing the task on which we have entered, we show ourselves craven and weaklings, unworthy of the sires from whose loins we sprang. There were abuses and to spare in the civil war. Your false friends then called Grant a "butcher" and spoke of you who are listening to me as mercenaries, as "Lincoln's hirelings." Your open foes—as in the resolution passed by the confederate congress in October, 1862—accused you, at great length, and with much particularity, of "contemptuous disregard of the usages of civilized war;" of subjecting women and children to "banishment, imprisonment and death;" of "murder," of "rapine," of "outrages on women," of "lawless cruelty," of "perpetrating atrocities which would be disgraceful to savages;" and Abraham Lincoln was singled out for special attack because of his "spirit of barbarous ferocity." Verily, these men who thus foully slandered you have their heirs today in those who traduce our armies in the Philippines, who fix their eyes on individual deeds of wrong so keenly that at last they become blind to the great work of peace and freedom that has already been accomplished.

Peace and Freedom.

Peace and freedom—are there two better objects for which a soldier can fight? Well, these are precisely the objects for which our soldiers are fighting in the Philippines. When there is talk of the cruelties committed in the Philippines, remember always that by far the greater proportion of these cruelties have been committed by the insurgents against their own people—as well as against our soldiers—and that not only the surest but the only effectual way of stopping them is by the progress of the American arms. The victories of the American army have been the really effective means of putting a stop to cruelty in the Philippines. Wherever these victories have been complete—and such is now the case throughout the greater part of the islands—all cruelties have ceased, and the native is secure in his life, his liberty, and his pursuit of happiness. Where the insurrection still smolders there is always a chance for cruelty to show itself.

A Civil Government.

Our soldiers conquer; and what is the object for which they conquer? To establish a military government? No. The laws we are now endeavoring to enact for the government of the Philippines are to increase the power and domain of the civil at the expense of the military authorities, and to render even more difficult than in the past the chance of oppression. The military power is used to secure peace, in order that it may itself be supplanted by the civil government. The progress of the American arms means the abolition of cruelty, the bringing of peace, and the rule of law and order under the civil government. Other nations have conquered to create irresponsible military rule. We conquer to bring just and responsible civil government to the conquered.

But our armies do more than bring peace, do more than bring order. They bring freedom. Remember always that the independence of a tribe or a community may, and often does, have nothing whatever to do with the freedom of the individual in that tribe or community. There are now in Asia and Africa scores of despotic monarchies, each of which is independent, and in no one of which is there the slightest vestige of freedom for the individual man. Scant indeed is the gain to mankind from the "independence" of a blood-stained tyrant who rules over abject and brutalized slaves. But great is the gain to humanity which follows the steady though slow introduction of the orderly liberty, the law-abiding freedom of the individual, which is the only sure foundation upon which national independence can be built. Wherever in the Philippines the insurrection has been definitely and finally put down, there the individual Filipinos already enjoys such freedom, such personal liberty, under our rule, as he could never even dream of under the rule of an "independent" Aguinaldo oligarchy.

Must Teach Filipinos.

The slowly-learned and difficult art of self-government, an art which our people have taught themselves by the labor of a thousand years, can not be grasped in a day by a people only just emerging from conditions of life which our ancestors left behind them in the dim years before history dawned. We believe that we can rapidly teach the people of the Philippine islands not only how to enjoy their freedom; and with their growing knowledge their growth in self-government shall keep steady pace. When they have thus shown their capacity for real freedom by their power of self-government, then, and not till then, will it be possible to decide whether they are to exist independently of us or be knit to us by ties of common friendship and interest. When that day will come it is not in human wisdom now to foretell. All that we can say with certainty is that it would be put back an immeasurable distance if we should yield to the counsels of unmanly weakness and turn loose the islands, to see our victorious foes butcher with revolting cruelty our betrayed friends, and shed the blood of the most humane, the most enlightened, the most peaceful, the wisest and the best of their own number—for these are the classes who have already learned to welcome our rule.

Our Duty at Home.

Nor, while fully acknowledging our duties to others, need we forget our duty to our own country. The Pacific seaboard is as much to us as the Atlantic; as we grow in power and prosperity so our interests will grow in that farthest west which is the immortal east. The shadow of our destiny has already reached to the shores of Asia. The might of our people already looms large against the world-horizon; and it will loom ever larger as the years go by. No statesman has a right to neglect the interests of our people in the Pacific; interests which are important to all our people, but which are of most importance to those of our people who have built populous and thriving states on the western slope of our continent.

This should no more be a party question than the war for the union should have been a party question. At this moment the man in highest office in the Philippine Islands is the vice governor, General Luke Wright, of Tennessee, who gallantly wore the gray in the civil war and who is now working hand in hand with the head of our army in the Philippines, Adna Chaffee, who in the civil war gallantly wore the blue. Those two, and the men under them, from the north and from the south, in civil life and in military life, as teachers, as administrators, as soldiers, are laboring mightily for us who live at home. Here and there black sheep are to be found among them; but taken as a whole they represent as high a standard of public service as this country has ever seen. They are doing a great work for civilization, a great work for the honor and the interest of this nation, and above all for the welfare of the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands. All honor to them; and shame, thrice shame, to us if we fail to uphold their hands!

A Handsome Jewel.

A special meeting of the Eagles was held last night over the White Elephant for the express purpose of presenting to Frank McKee, cashier of the First National bank, the jewel of a past president of the order. It is an exceptionally handsome piece of work and Mr. McKee responded gracefully. Mr. McKee will represent the local lodge at the grand aerle which will meet in Minneapolis in June, and will leave tonight. He will stop over in Trinidad.

Abe Kimball Remembered.

Abraham Kimball, who for many years made his home in Santa Fe and then came to the metropolis where he resided for many years, died here on January 7, 1897, and was buried in Fairview cemetery. Today his friends, who are mingling with the crowds decorating the graves of the old soldiers and sailors, did not forget Abe's grave, and flowers in remembrance of his deeds were strewn likewise over his mound.

NEW MEXICO TOWNS

LAS VEGAS.

From the Record, May 27.
Mrs. W. A. Gray has gone to the east to visit with relatives.

The cavalry troop will give a dance at Rosenthal hall on June 6.

Luciano Lopez, the county school superintendent, is confined to his bed with sickness.

Dr. Kennedy, of Mora, is seriously ill at the Rawlins house, and his recovery is somewhat doubtful. Mrs. Kennedy is here with her husband.

Deputy United States Marshal Fred Fornoff took Victoriana Tafaya, convicted of incest, to Santa Fe, where he will begin his five years' abode in the penitentiary.

The Floersheim Mercantile company has entered suit against Juan Jose Rodriguez and wife in the Colfax district court to recover judgment in the sum of $550.48, the amount alleged to be due for goods and wares sold defendants.

Vicente Dominguez was arrested on the west side, for getting too promiscuous with a knife and cutting Vidal Martinez on the hand. He was released at the instance of Martinez, the latter having relented. Both men were drunk.

Simon Ollendorf, the pious character who smokes the long pipe and superintends the growth of the town, says he smokes ten cigars and fifteen pipes full of tobacco a day, drinks twenty glasses of beer and six whiskies and that doing that is his only occupation. It is enough!

The statehood meeting called at the city hall proved a fiasco on account of the inclement weather. Thomas Ross and Hon. J. S. Duncan are the only two citizens the reporter was able to find who knew anything about the affair. It was understood Judge Long had headed for the place of meeting, but he floated away, for he was not found there when the rest of the "crowd" arrived. Try a more propitious night, gentlemen.

From the Record, May 28.
Mrs. Percy Condit is suffering from a severely sprained ankle.

Walter Butler will leave in a few days for Los Angeles to visit with his wife.

The fashionable English game of ping pong, or parlor tennis, has made its appearance in the city.

R. C. Reid writes from Topeka that his broken limb is progressing nicely now, and that he expects to return home in a couple of weeks.

The young son of E. Hooker is suffering from diphtheria. This is the second case in Mr. Hooker's home, his daughter having had the disease a few weeks ago.

The marriage of Francisquita Martinez to Bonifacio Salas, a merchant of Pinos Wells, occurred at the east side Catholic church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Father Pouget. The wedding party then adjourned to the home of Manuel G. Martinez, where a bounteous wedding feast was served.

Epifanio Gallegos, who had a couple of horses stolen from his place, near the sanitarium, some time ago, has just recovered them from Wagon Mound, where they were sold by the thief. The first trace was secured by Mr. Gallegos recognizing one of his horses in a team on the street here. Inquiry developed the fact that the other horse was in the possession of another man at Wagon Mound, and Gallegos went there and secured his stolen animals.

A. Rusby brought in a load of pelts from the Rock Island country and brings a story of a trip to the old reduction mills that have been uncovered on Montoya's place at Tecolote recently. The mills are supposed to be over 300 years old, and extend along a distance of some six miles. Charred corn still on the cob was found, and it evidently was used to some extent for fuel. The old mills had been buried by the drifting sands, and were brought to light by some of the prospectors recently. It is evident that copper was the ore treated.

From the Optic, May 28.
The hail worked ruin with the cherry crop. Cherries were the only fruit sufficiently developed to be hurt by this storm.

George Greenier was brought before Judge Wooster on a charge of non-support of his family. He was put to work on the city gang and his wages will be paid to his family.

Marshal Curtwright was well acquainted with William Grow, whose murderer was lynched at Paris, Mo., night before last. Grow's people were cattle dealers and were highly respected.

Mrs. Mike Bruger, wife of the man who died at Anton Chico a couple of weeks ago, was brought to town by James Abercrombie for medical treatment. She has an attack of pneumonia.

Dr. H. J. Mueller, assisted by Dr. Mills, performed a very difficult surgical operation on Mr. Sweeney, of Raton, who was sent to Dr. Mueller by the physicians there. The operation was very successful and the patient is getting along nicely.

One of the funny things that happened in connection with the high water down the Gallinas, at least to those who watched the performance, was N. S. Belden chasing his barrels. Belden put some barrels in the river above his dairy for a breakwater. He intended to put rocks in the barrels but forgot the rocks until the high water came. This morning half of the thirty barrels washed out and some of the natives waded into the stream to get the barrels only to drag them out and have them claimed by Mr. Belden.

From the Optic, May 28.
Frank Roper is down with typhoid fever.

Miguel Romero is reported as getting along nicely.

Perry Hogsett is out of quarantine. His youngest child escaped without contracting either the mumps or diphtheria, although he was constantly in the room where his sister lay sick with both.

B. F. Forsythe lost a valuable sorrel horse, which he bought a few weeks ago to match his fine sorrel mare. A few days after purchasing the horse developed a very bad case of distemper, from which it died.

Dr. J. W. Kinney, of Mora, aged 36 years, died at the Rawlins house in this city at 8:30 o'clock last night. He was stricken suddenly with heart failure Monday evening and his death followed almost within twenty-four hours. He was a native of Ontario, Can., and had been practicing medicine at Mora for the past four years. His father is buried at Mora, having died while on a visit to his son two years ago. He leaves a wife and two children. His wife had just returned last Saturday from a two months' visit to her people in Canada. She will return to Canada to make her future home. Dr. Kinney's remains will either be buried temporarily here or at Mora.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles. Doan's Ointment cures quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50 cents.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

Arrangements will probably be made for an excursion to San Juan on June 24, the date of the annual fiesta of the Pueblo Indians of that pueblo.

Mrs. G. Palladino and daughter, Anita, of Albuquerque, are here on a visit to relatives. From here they will go to El Paso, where they will reside in the future.

Captain and Mrs. Henry Sturges, of Springfield, who have been the guests the past few weeks of their son, F. P. Sturges in this city, left for Oregon City, Ore., where they will spend the summer.

Jake Gold has received a beautiful silver cup which was given in 1847 to Donaciano Vigil, later governor of New Mexico, by J. Monroe, at that time acting governor. The cup is finely engraved and embossed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Freeman and two children, who spent the spring months at Santa Catalina, Cal., and Mr. Freeman's two sisters, who had gone home to New York on a visit, are expected and will be guests for the summer and fall at the Sanitarium.

A team of horses attached to the penitentiary delivery wagon, ran away near the capitol. The driver, a trusty, and a minor son of Yardmaster Garrett, were thrown out of the wagon, but escaped with a few bruises. The groceries in the wagon were scattered in all directions.

H. J. Cunningham, a mining man from Glorieta, was arrested for drunkenness. He paid his fine and was discharged. Later in the evening he made an indecent proposition to the 10-year-old daughter of W. H. Kerr, and was arrested on the charge of assault with the intention of criminal assault. He was given a hearing before Police Judge Conklin. District Attorney E. C. Abbott appeared for the territory.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.
"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists.

HAS VERY NARROW ESCAPE.

Vicious Elephant Rajah Tries to Kill His Trainer.

During the performance of the Pan-American circus at Trinidad Monday, Rajah, the big elephant, tried to kill his trainer, Professor Leon, while the latter was putting him through his act in the ring. Rajah became angered and knocked Leon down, and while the latter was regaining his feet the monster brute started for him with upraised trunk, and would undoubtedly have made jelly of him but for his prompt get-away. Rajah then charged on one of his keepers, when the female elephant Jennie turned on Rajah and with her head pushed him back into the ring. The tent was crowded to standing room, and a panic started. Hundreds of women and children scrambled under the seats and under the canvas to open air. Fortunately no one was injured, but it took fully an hour to calm the crowd and chain Rajah. He was not put in the ring at night, being loaded on the cars at dark. One of the trainers claimed that a man had given Rajah a piece of tobacco. Professor Leon was not injured seriously.

Spring Ailments.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is, that during winter, there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect, fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. Ruppe.

A Crowded jail at Alamogordo.
Thirteen prisoners are held in the Otero county jail at Alamogordo, all of them being compelled to await the action of the grand jury, which will not meet until next fall. None of the prisoners can get the required amount of bail. The jail is too small to accommodate so many prisoners and other arrangements will have to be made. At present the twelve male prisoners are confined in one cell, the other cell being occupied by a female prisoner.

She Secured Divorce.
In the district court of the First judicial district, Taos county, a divorce has been granted the plaintiff in the case of Estelle Hyatt vs. Eugene T. Hyatt as well as the custody of a minor child, Frederick Earl, while another son, Ernest Fletcher, will by consent of the plaintiff, remain in the custody of the father, providing the mother is given the privilege to visit and see her son whenever she desires.

Reveals a Great Secret.
It is often asked how such startling cures, that puzzle the best physicians, are effected by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Here's the secret. It cuts out the phlegm and germ-infected mucus, and lets the life-giving oxygen enrich and vitalize the blood. It heals the inflamed, cough-worn throat and lungs. Hard colds and stubborn coughs soon yield to Dr. King's New Discovery, the most infallible remedy for all throat and lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of iron have fled,
Where the blades of the grave-grass quiver,
Asleep are the ranks of the dead.
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Under the one, the Blue,
Under the other, the Gray.

Those in the robings of glory,
These in the gloom of defeat,
All with the battle blood gory,
In the dusk of eternity meet
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Under the laurel, the Blue,
Under the willow, the Gray.

From the silence of sorrowful hours
The desolate mourners go,
Lovingly laden with flowers
Alike for the friend and the foe.
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Under the roses, the Blue,
Under the lilies, the Gray.

So with an equal splendor,
The morning sun rays fall
With a touch impartially tender,
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Brothered with gold, the Blue, Mellowed with gold, the Gray.

So when the summer calleteth
On forest and field of grain,
With an equal murmur falleth
The cooling drip of the rain.
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Wet with the rain, the Blue,
Wet with the rain, the Gray.

Sadly, but not upbraiding,
The generous deed was done;
In the storm of the years that are fading
No braver battle was won.
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Under the blossoms, the Blue,
Under the garlands, the Gray.

No more shall the war cry sever,
Nor the winding river be red;
They banish our anger forever,
When they laurel the graves of our dead.
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day—
Love and tears for the Blue, Tears and love for the Gray.
—Francis Miles Finch.

What Thin Folks Need is a greater power of digesting and assimilating food. For them Dr. King's New Life Pills work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel all poisons from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite, make healthy flesh. Only 25c at all druggists.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Clay Green Camp Organized Last Evening with a Charter Membership of Thirty-Eight.

Major Fred Muller, mustering and installing officer, organized Clay Green camp, No. 241, Veterans of the Spanish-American war, at Santa Fe, Wednesday night. The meeting was held in the hall of Carleton post, G. A. R. The camp has thirty-eight members and was named after Clay Green, of Cerrillos, who as a member of Major Muller's Rough Rider troop, was killed in Cuba. The officers of the camp are: W. E. Griffin, commander; Page B. Otero, senior vice commander; Morgan O. Llewellyn, junior vice commander; Arthur Griffin, quartermaster; James Read, adjutant; Frank Fries, chaplain; J. R. Gooch, officer of the guard; George W. Armijo, officer of the day; Dr. J. A. Massie and William Schnepfle, trustees.

No Loss of Time.
I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this remedy in your home. For sale by all druggists.

A Hold Up at Carlsbad.
Last Thursday night Stone Wilburn was held up near the Carlsbad depot and was searched by his assailant, who failed to find $60 in one of the inside pockets of Mr. Wilburn. Mr. Wilburn had to submit to the outrage, as he had several of his fingers smashed at Roswell but a day before, he being on his way home from that town.

Wants Others to Know.
"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Helme, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Sure, safe pills. J. H. O'Reilly & Co., F. H. Briggs & Co.

A Kiln of 140,000 Brick.
Stump & Miller, of Farmington, San Juan county, will open the first kiln of their new brick yards at that place this week. The kiln contains 140,000 brick, claimed to be of the best quality.

If you are troubled with impure blood, indicated by sores, pimples, headache, etc., we would recommend Acker's Blood Purifier, which we sell under a positive guarantee. It will always cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons and all blood diseases. 50 cents and $1. J. H. O'Reilly & Co. and B. H. Briggs & Co.

Horse Sense.

"Any fool can take a horse to water, but it takes a wise man to make him drink," says the proverb. The horse eats when hungry and drinks when thirsty. A man eats and drinks by the clock, without regard to the needs of nature. Because of careless eating and drinking "stomach trouble" is one of the commonest of diseases. Sour and bitter risings, belchings, unnatural fullness after eating, dizziness, headache, and many other symptoms mark the beginning and progress of disease of the stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures through the stomach diseases of other organs which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach, and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cures obstinate cough and heals weak lungs.

"It was taken with Colic, which resulted in heart and stomach trouble," writes Mr. T. E. Caudill, Montclair, Allegheny Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything a good part of the time. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition, having full confidence in his medicine. He advised me to take his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I did. Before I had finished the second bottle I began to feel better. I have used nearly six bottles. I feel thankful to God for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I can highly recommend it to all persons as a good and safe medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

Railroad Topics

Mr. Mitchell, superintendent of one of the divisions of the Frisco line, is at Las Vegas recuperating his impaired health.

Ties for the Santa Fe railroad cut on the Gahaldon grant by Marcelino Baca are being loaded on freight cars in Santa Fe.

The Santa Fe Central Railway company has all the holes dug for its telegraph poles and is at present placing the cross arms on the poles.

The big whistle at the local shops did not sound working hour, or rather 6 o'clock, this morning. It is a whole holiday with the shop employees.

A number of shop employees, with their wives, and others with their sweethearts, enjoyed the day in the mountains, returning to the city late this afternoon.

The other day the Southern Pacific railroad had a wreck in its yards at Deming and later in the day the platform of the freight house caught fire, but was extinguished before much damage was done.

The Santa Fe Central railway management received the specifications and photographs of five locomotives it has ordered from the American Locomotive works. Each locomotive will weigh 162,000 pounds.

The force of men at work on the Santa Fe Central construction work is being gradually increased and work is being pushed. The piles have been driven for fifteen bridges between Kennedy and Vega Blanca.

A. Walker, station agent at Cloudcroft, Otero county, was thrown by a bucking broncho last week. His nose was split open and his left leg fractured. He was taken to the Alamogordo hospital for treatment.

Mrs. William Nelson, of Winslow, Ariz., has arrived and will make her home at San Bernardino with Mr. Nelson, who came several days ago to accept the bill clerk's desk in the mechanical superintendent's office.

H. E. Wittenberger, the new division superintendent for the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, with headquarters at Alamosa, Colo., was a visitor in Santa Fe, having arrived on his special car. This was his first visit to Santa Fe.

The Las Vegas Record says: There have been four of the front end colored porter-brakemen let out on the Santa Fe, and yesterday white men took their runs. It is not known definitely whether the colored men will be replaced entirely or not.

Official bulletin has been received announcing the appointment of A. B. Todd as division master mechanic at Winslow, vice A. T. Park, transferred to San Bernardino. H. M. Mutchmore, who was acting division master mechanic at Winslow, will be given another position.

T. A. McNeal, who for almost seven years has served the Santa Fe in San Bernardino as foreman of its blacksmith shop, has tendered his resignation, to take effect on June 1, shortly after which date he will go to Los Angeles to accept charge of the forges and anvils of the Huntington-Hellman syndicate in the Angel city.

The Santa Fe railroad has changed the name of its North Ontario (Cal.) station to Upland, and has established a new station called Yerkes, between Patton and Del Rosa, about twenty miles from San Bernardino. Potencia station, about seventeen miles from Redondo Junction, is to be changed to Shore Acres. The names of several other stations on the coast lines west of Albuquerque have been changed recently.

Cures When Doctors Fail.
Mrs. Frank Chasson, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle, at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy, B. Ruppe.

Saloon Question Fought.
The Alamogordo Improvement company has petitioned for an injunction to restrain M. M. Walsh, of Santa Rosa, from selling liquor in that burg. There is quite a fight on in Santa Rosa on the saloon question, the company which owns the site not allowing more than one saloon in the village limits. This is a terrible hardship in a boom town, the citizens think.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, West Cornwall, Conn.

Fred Smith, of Lincoln county, is gathering a car or two of horses to ship east. He shipped three car loads of cattle from Carrizozo early in the month.

THE HAIR BRUSH
Breeds Dandruff, Which Causes Falling Hair and Finally Baldness.

Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says that dandruff is as contagious as any other malevolent disease and that one common source of the spread of dandruff is the use of the same hair brush by different persons. The way to avoid catching dandruff or any other disease from another's brush is to insist on the use of Newbro's Hepleide. It not only kills the dandruff germ, but it is also an antiseptic that will prevent the catching of any disease whatever through contagion of another's brush.

SKULL WAS FRACTURED.

James Morris, a Fireman, Struck by a Crane.

James Morris, the fireman on engine 853, which came down from Las Vegas last night, was struck on the head by a mail crane at Algodones, and severely injured.

The accident occurred about 10 o'clock but it was 12:30 before the train arrived in Albuquerque and the injured man received medical attention. The local which Mr. Morris came down on was cut out at Alameda 7 more than an hour to let a freight pass. Dr. Wroth dressed the wound and reports that although the skull is fractured the injury will not prove serious.

Mr. Morris left this morning for Las Vegas where he will enter the Santa Fe hospital.

For Over Sixty Years.
An old and well tried remedy. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The juniors have issued invitations to a hay ride to be given in honor of the seniors Thursday evening, June 12.

The picnic last week Saturday to Bear canyon was a perfect success and everyone enjoyed himself.

Friday night the senior class met at Miss Alma Tascher's to make and plan decorations for the baccalaureate sermon and class day.

Father Mandalari has consented to give the sermon to the class Sunday afternoon at Colombo hall, June 8. There will also be a fine musical program.

Each senior was given ten reserved seats for distribution among his friends. The committee from the faculty on arrangements say that an excellent musical program has been promised by some of the best talent in the city.

The normals have changed both their play and the date on which it will be given. Instead of giving the original play written by themselves a new cast has been selected and will present a college farce on Saturday night of commencement.

Messrs. Kellie brothers, of Wyoming passed through Clayton with twenty-four cars of 2 year olds, for which they paid $22.50 per head. They were shipping them to their pastures.

Emory Herron has returned to Clayton from San Miguel county the first of the week, where he had been to receive 625 head of steers that he bought some time ago. He sold a bunch of 424 1s, 2s and 3s to Herring and Stinson, a day or two ago.

Weak?

Then you want strength. Good food, an active liver, and pure blood will bring it. You naturally think of eggs and milk, Ayer's Pills and Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Ask your doctor if he can come any nearer to the truth. Do as he says, at any rate.

For 25 years I have never missed taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla every spring. It cleanses my blood, makes me feel strong, and does me good in every way. John P. Hodnett, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE BIVOAC OF THE DEAD

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.
On Fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead.

No rumor of the foe's advance
Now swells upon the wind;
No troubled thought at midnight haunts
Of loved ones left behind;

No vision of the morrow's strife
The warrior's dream alarms,
No braying horn or screaming file
At dawn shall call to arms.

Their shivered swords are red with rust,
Their plumed heads are bowed;
Their haughty banner, trailed in dust,
Is now their martial shroud.

And plenteous funeral tears have washed
The red stains from each brow,
And the proud forms, by battle gashed,
Are free from anguish now.

The neighing troop, the flashing blade,
The bugle's stirring blast,
The charge, the dreadful cannonade,
The din and shout, are past;
No war's wild note nor glory's peal
Shall thrill with fierce delight
Those breasts that nevermore may feel
The rapture of the fight.

Let the fierce northern hurricane
That sweeps his great plateau,
Flushed with the triumph yet to gain,
Come down the serried foe,
Who heard the thunder of the fray
Break o'er the field beneath,
Know well the watchword of that day
Was "Victory or Death!"

Long had the doubtful conflict raged
O'er all the stricken plain,
For never fiercer light had waged
The vengeful blood of Spain;
And still the storm of battle blew,
Still swelled the gory tide;
Not long, our stout old chieftain knew,
Such odds his strength could bide.

'Twas in that hour his stern command
Called to the martyr's grave
The flower of his beloved land,
The nation's flag to save.
By rivers of their father's gore
His first born laurels grew,
And well he deemed the sons would pour
Their lives for glory too.

Full many a mother's breath has swept O'er Angustura's plain,
And long the pitying sky has wept
Above its mouldered slain.
The raven's scream, or eagle's flight,
Or shepherd's pensive lay Alone awakes each sullen height
That frown'd o'er that dread fray.

Sons of the Dark and Bloody Ground,
Ye must not slumber there,
Where stranger steps and tongues resound
Along the heedless air.

Your own proud land's heroic soil
Shall be your fitter grave;
She claims from war his richest spoil
The ashes of her brave.

Thus 'neath their parent turf they rest,
Far from the gory field, Born to a Spartan mother's breast
On many a bloody shield;
The sunshine of their native sky
Smiles sadly on them here,
And kindred eyes and hearts watch by
The heroes' sepulchre.

Rest on, embalmed and sainted dead!
Dear as the blood ye gave,
No impious footsteps here shall tread
The herbage of your grave;
Nor shall your glory be forgot While Fame her record keeps,
Or honor points the hallowed spot
Where Valor proudly sleeps.

Yon marble minstrel's voiceless stone
In deathless song shall tell,
When many a vanished age hath flown,
The story how ye fell;
Nor wreck, nor change, nor winter's blight,
Nor Time's remorseless doom,
Shall dim one ray of Glory's light
That glids your deathless tomb.
—Theodore O'Hara.

Won't Follow Advice After Paying For It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says: "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.

The Erie Railroad.

Beginning on June 15th next will inaugurate a new limited train service between Chicago, New York and Boston, leaving Chicago at 10:30 every morning and arriving in New York at 3:30 the next afternoon, with a Boston sleeper reaching there the second evening. Travelers going east will find in this train everything that comfort and luxury can suggest or demand.—Pullman drawing room sleeping cars of the latest type; unequalled dining car service, with meals at popular prices; fast time over a track made perfect with rock ballast and made safe by the operation of block signal and interlocking system. If you have not seen the beautiful valleys of the Susquehanna and Delaware rivers traversed by the Erie, you have missed one of the most delightful sections of the east. Be sure your tickets read via the Erie railroad.

Poison Oak Poison Ivy

are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appeared the poison had reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will linger in the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure.

SSS Nature's Antidote FOR Nature's Poisons, is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure.

Mr. S. M. Marshall, bookkeeper of the Atlanta (Ga.) Gas Light Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak. He took Sulphur, Arsenic and various other drugs, and applied externally numerous lotions and salves with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation was so severe he was almost blind. For eight years the poison would break out every season. His condition was much improved after taking one bottle of S. S. S., and a few bottles cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidences of the disease disappeared.

People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you Eat
Indigestion effects so many organs besides the stomach that the nature of the disease is sometimes mistaken. Headaches, giddiness, and so-called heart trouble are usually caused by indigestion alone. In such cases it is the stomach trouble which must be cured. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure restores health by digesting your food while the stomach rests. Dieting doesn't mean rest but starvation. You should relieve the stomach without weakening the system by denying yourself proper food. With a sound stomach your other complaints will soon disappear. "After seven years' suffering from indigestion" writes Mrs. Annie Alcorn of Merideth, Pa. "I was cured by three bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."

Cures All Stomach Troubles.

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1 bottle contains 24 times the 50c. size. The favorite household remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, throat and lung troubles is ONE MINUTE Cough Cure. It cures quickly. J. H. O'RIELLY & CO., AND R. H. BRIGGS & CO
