CAPTAIN BAKER ON THE STAND.

He Was the Attorney of Millionaire William Marsh Rice.

New York, April 10.—Taking evidence in the commitment proceedings in the case of Albert T. Patrick, lawyer, accused of having caused the death of Wm. Marsh Rice, was resumed today before Justice Jerome. Captain James A. Baker, Jr., a lawyer of Houston, Texas, who was named as executor in the Rice will of 1896, in reply to questions by Assistant District Attorney Osborn, said that Patrick never acted as attorney for Rice at any time. The will of Mrs. Lizzie Rice, wife of Wm. M. Rice, he said, was offered for probate in Galveston, Texas. This will was contested by the children of Mrs. Rice, who employed A. T. Holt and Patrick as attorneys. The witness appeared at these proceedings as attorney for Wm. M. Rice, the testimony in the case being taken in New York. He also said he acted as Mr. Rice's attorney up to the time of his death in September last. The first news he received of the death of the aged millionaire was a telegram sent him by Jones, the valet. He immediately telegraphed to Jones to confer with M. S. Melvin to maintain a status quo until he (the witness) arrived in New York. He reached this city on Thursday, following the death of Rice, and met Patrick.

Col. Baker detailed in conversation with Patrick, who informed him that Rice had lost confidence in the witness and engaged him (Patrick) as his legal adviser. The 1896 will was handed to Capt. Baker by the assistant district attorney and the witness declared the signature was Rice's. Then the Swenson checks were handed the witness, who declared that the signatures purporting to be Rice's were forgeries. On cross examination Baker said he had not known that Rice had a mania for making wills, though through the Holt litigation which was over the will of Mrs. Rice, he had learned that Rice made several wills between 1873 and 1896.

INSPECTION OF MILITARY INSTITUTE.

Adjutant General W. H. Whiteman Is Very Well Pleased With the School.

Adjutant General W. H. Whiteman was at Roswell last week and inspected the New Mexico Military Institute at that place. Nathan Jaffa, Captain J. C. Lee, E. A. Cahoon and R. S. Hamilton, regents of the school, accompanied Adjutant General Whiteman upon his inspection trip. The wind was very high that day, and by the time drill and inspection had commenced, clouds of dust were swirling across the parade ground and campus, making it very disagreeable for all. There were 82 cadets in line out of the 84 now at the institute, one being in the hospital and another being officer of the day.

The drill was very satisfactory to Adjutant General Whiteman and the regents, and showed the effect of the excellent training that Col. Meadows and Col. Willson had given the cadets. In speaking of the result of his inspection the adjutant general said:

"I find a marked improvement in the cadets over last year in every way. They have gained greatly in appearance, size, weight, bearing and proficiency, and make a most creditable showing. It is easy to see that they are in fine condition and that they take a decided interest in the work of perfecting themselves in everything that will help to improve the cadet organization and make it a credit to the institute. They are a fine body of young men and would appear well anywhere. Col. Willson tells me that Captains Reed, Bowie, and Kelly are perfectly competent to conduct battalion drill, and Adjutant of Cadets Patterson also, having done so repeatedly. That speaks well for them and for Col. Willson. The large muskets they are compelled to use are entirely too heavy for the smaller boys. It would be an excellent idea for the board of regents to buy a few cadet rifles for them, if they could afford it. One of the remarkable things I note is the fact that out of 84 cadets now in the institute, there is only one in the hospital and during the three years the institute has been in existence, there has not been a death among the students. That I consider a remarkable showing and speaks well for the care taken of the health of the students and for the climate of Roswell. Another thing is the good condition in which I find the uniforms worn by the cadets. Most of them have probably been worn six months and are in much better condition than one would suppose. It shows that they take better care of their clothes than boys usually do. I have repeatedly asserted that the New Mexico Military Institute is the best school for boys in New Mexico and I still maintain that it is. It is no wonder that you get all these students you can take."

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10.

For Governor of New Mexico from June 7, 1901, to June 7, 1905, or until staided is attained, Miguel A. Otero.

The Republican papers of the territory are quite unanimous in supporting Governor Otero for re-appointment. The gang that is opposing him can put that into its pipe and smoke it.

Carter Harrison, who has been re-elected for the third time as mayor of Chicago on the Democratic ticket, believes in a wide-open town. Voters of Chicago evidently agree with that self-same view.

Chicken tamales and canned pigs' feet are to be added to the rations of the soldiers in the Philippines. That ought to treble and quadruple the enlistments for the service in those islands. Uncle Sam takes good care of his soldiers.

The new law under which sheriffs are required to collect gaming and liquor licenses and to inspect gaming places once every three months is a great step in the right direction. It is to the credit of the 34th legislative assembly that this law was passed.

Aguinaldo is much wiser than the few traitors who assisted him in his insurrection against the United States in this country. He has given up the fight and taken oath of allegiance. Pettigrew and the rest are still howling themselves hoarse at the course of the United States in the Philippines.

The Indian question is being settled very quietly but effectively in New Mexico. Homes in several of the Indian reservations are being built. The education of the children of the Indians, teaching them trades and making them self-supporting is doing the work and settling the question and that quite rapidly.

The office of the secretary of the territory is a veritable mint at present. Certified copies of laws are being furnished to many inquirers, and a right good sum is charged for the same. They are evidently making hay over there while the sun shines. About the first days of June next that sort of thing will cease.

Hon. Luis M. Ortiz, who has just vacated the office of auditor of the territory after serving two years, was a conscientious and honest official. He retired from office with a clean record, knowing that he did the best he could and fulfilled the duties of the office faithfully and well.

It is more than likely that the debt of the territory will be materially reduced this present fiscal year. An honest administration and good laws will bring this about. In this connection bear in mind that the present administration is Republican and the 34th and 35th legislative assemblies, which passed these good laws, were also Republican.

Of course St. Louis went Democratic at the recent election. It is strongly Republican, but a Democratic legislature, a Democratic police department, a Democratic board of registration and a Democratic set of election officers made that city Democratic on Tuesday, the 23d instant, regardless of the will of the voters.

William Jennings Bryan, Senator John K. Jones, Ex-Governor J. T. Stone and the rest of the distinguished gentlemen who ran the Bryan campaign last year, endeavored to make a great deal out of the issue which they were pleased to call "imperialism and militarism." They were beaten. The people could not be fooled by their spook stories and now it is found that the people were absolutely correct.

The number of sheep in the territory is plainly on the increase. New Mexico is now the leading sheep raising commonwealth of the United States, and by the end of this year it will contain nearly 5 million head of sheep, a great majority of these improved. Under a Republican tariff this industry is flourishing throughout the United States. When it flourishes, New Mexico flourishes. This tells the situation in a nut-shell, and is also one of the principal reasons why this territory has been Republican during the past four years.

The Grand, Maricopa and Salt River Valley Canal companies of Arizona distributed last week more than $20,000 in dividends among 150 stockholders. There is evidently money in irrigation enterprises if properly managed. The above-named systems have not been on a profit paying basis ever since they were built, but now it seems they have started to pay dividends and will continue to increase dividends as the country which they have reclaimed becomes more thickly settled and the land more valuable. Building irrigation systems is not so much working for the present as for the future when handsome returns will be made on a comparatively light investment.

The tax collections in New Mexico are much better than they have been at any time previous. When legislation by the Republican legislature has made the tax dodger scarce. If the assessment dodger could be gotten at in the same manner the territory and every county would be in fair financial shape. But even in tax collecting there is still improvement to be made until the record is reached of some of the eastern cities. The little city of Allentown, Pa., with 25,000 inhabitants, for instance, has an assessed valuation of $8,160,000. Its tax duplicate last year amounted to $1,682,222, of which every cent except $6.83 was collected. With assessments of that size and tax collections made that closely, New Mexico counties would not need to worry much over a bonded debt of several hundred thousand dollars.

An Injustice to New Mexico.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean is responsible for the editorial statement that New Mexico ranks fifty-second in population, that Arizona, Wyoming, Idaho and Delaware rank ahead of it. It is to be regretted that a newspaper of the standing of the Inter-Ocean should fall into such a lamentable error, which any school boy or girl could correct. New Mexico is not fifty-second in population, but forty-fourth, ranking ahead of not only the territories of Arizona and Alaska, but also having twice the population of the state of Wyoming, four times the population of the state of Nevada, and a greater population than Idaho or Delaware. New Mexico cast more votes at the last general election than did the state of Mississippi, which has two senators and seven congressmen representing it in congress. New Mexico has a greater population than had the following states at the time of their admission to statehood or those of the thirteen original states: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont and Wyoming.

The Nation's Old Guard.

The encampment of the department of New Mexico of the Grand Army of the Republic in this city yesterday and today brings vividly to mind that the ranks of the veterans of the civil war are thinning fast. Most of the survivors are becoming gray and bent and few remain standing like strong oaks unscarred by Father Time. But even those, one after the other, will have to lower their colors to Death, and in a few years more they will all have been gathered in the silent cities of the dead. For the sake of the memory of those days that tried men's souls, the self-sacrifice and patriotism of the men and women of the great struggle of almost forty years ago, their weaknesses should be overlooked, their declining days should be made comfortable and free from care. Many are still serving their country in military or civil positions while others are following their humble task day after day to keep themselves and their loved ones from want, but all of them are great men for they offered their lives upon the altar of patriotism and deserve the republic's eternal gratitude. While the nation has the living participants of the struggle with it, they should be honored and provided for in their declining days, and the graves of those who have already laid down their life burden should be kept green and decked with flowers.

An Irresponsible Mud Slinger.

The Las Vegas Optic in some recent Santa Fe correspondence, referring to Colonel J. Francisco Chaves, superintendent of public instruction, makes the following statement: "His second appointment was made for political reasons only. To carry out the executive's schemes it was necessary to have his assistance. Yet within the last two years the governor, it is said, caused to be filed in one of the departments at Washington, charges against him for receiving money for his vote while in the legislature. A man, who, whatever his personal qualities, is without any of the necessary technical educational qualifications to be expected of the head of what should be a great educational system."

The entire charge is absolutely unfounded and is a malicious and venomous lie. In the first place Governor Otero did not appoint Colonel Chaves to be superintendent of public instruction for any political reasons. He appointed him upon the urgent solicitation and strong recommendation of some of the leading Republicans and best citizens of the territory, men who are large tax payers and who have families to educate and who are the back bone and sinew of the territory.

Colonel Chaves was considered to be the best fitted man all around for the position. He is a highly educated man, took a full course of medicine while a young man, studied law, was admitted to the bar and was for several terms district attorney. He is as good a Spanish and English scholar as there is in the territory and is a scholarly and polished man. He has done much to advance every interest of the territory and this for fifty years. He was unanimously confirmed in the position to which he was appointed by the legislative council. It is certainly a shameful sorrow and a sorrowful shame that a man of his age, standing and capability should thus be assailed and that the motives of the executive in appointing him should be so misrepresented.

Further, Governor Otero never made nor caused any such charges to be made either against the present superintendent of public instruction of territory nor any other official. The cowardly creature who makes this charge shields himself behind "It is said." He has neither the courage nor the manhood to say who said so. The fellow has nothing but his venomous tongue and pen; he lies by the wholesale and that without shame. He assails reputations and characters out of sheer malice and with malice aforethought. He is so low that the men assailed cannot afford to have any personal altercation with him. He has absolutely nothing to lose. He is just about on a par with the papers that publish his false accusations and lying innuendoes.

THE COLLECTION OF TAXES.

New Provisions Made for Tax Rolls, Tax Receipts, Etc., by a New Law.

The following is the text of H. B. No. 145, introduced by Hon. U. S. Bateman on February 19, in the 34th legislative assembly and passed by it. It was signed by Governor Otero on March 16: An act to amend sections 4051, 4067 and 4068 of the Compiled Laws of New Mexico of 1897.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the Territory of New Mexico, Section 1. That section 4051 of the Compiled Laws of New Mexico, of 1897, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

On or before September 1, of each year, and after the board of commissioners, sitting as a board of equalization, shall have passed upon the property returns, the assessor of each county of this territory shall make out a tax roll in alphabetical order, having columns for names of owners; precinct number; description of each parcel of real estate and of personal property; description of town lots; name of town or city; value of real estate; value of improvements; total value of land and improvements; value of cattle; number of sheep; total value of personal property; exemptions; value of property subject to special levy or levies; total assessed value; amount of territorial tax; amount of county tax; amount of any special levy or levies made by legal authority; amount of first semi-annual payment of tax; amount of second semi-annual payment of tax; penalty for non-return; total amount of tax. Such tax rolls shall be well and durably bound and made from strong ledger paper.

Sec. 2. That section 4067 of the Compiled Laws of New Mexico, of 1897, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

This collector shall, each year, make out an original, a duplicate and a triplicate tax receipt, the original of which shall be delivered to the taxpayer, the duplicate shall immediately be filed with the probate clerk of his county, and the triplicate shall be retained by the collector in the archives of his office; which receipts shall state the time of payment, the description and assessed value of real estate and improvements, and the assessed value of personal property; the amount of tax pertaining respectively to the territory, the county, city or town, and to any special levy or levies that may have been made; the penalty on each and the costs, if any, giving a separate receipt for each year; such triplicate receipts shall be exact fac-simile one of the other; they shall be bound in well bound books of not more than one hundred sets of triplicates in a book, the original first, the duplicate next and the triplicate last, being so bound together that by inserting carbon sheets between the original and duplicate, and the duplicate and triplicate, copies in duplicate and triplicate will be made at the time of writing the original; they shall be numbered consecutively, commencing each year's receipts with number one and shall also have printed along side the number, the year for which the receipt is issued in payment of taxes, as a serial number.

The collector shall make the proper entries of such payment on the collector's tax roll and the collector's cash book. Provided, that any person to whom real or personal property may have been assessed and placed on said roll, or any person for whom, may pay the taxes due on any subdivision, lot or parcel of land, or personal property, without paying the whole of the taxes due from such person, when the value of such subdivision, lot or parcel of land, or personal property, can be ascertained from said tax roll, or from the schedule returned to the assessor.

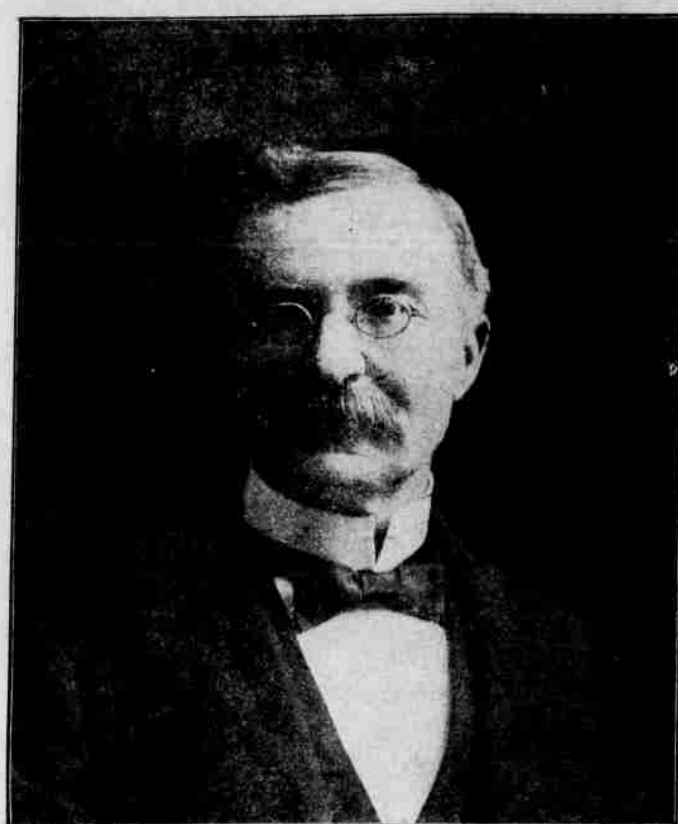

Sec. 3. That section 4068 of the Compiled Laws of New Mexico, of 1897, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

On or before the tenth day of every month the collector of each county of this territory, shall apportion to the several funds of his county all moneys by him collected during the last preceding month, pertaining to said county, less the commission allowed him by law, in accordance with the levy made for said funds; and on or before said date he shall make and file a written report with the probate clerk of his county, showing the aggregate amount of money collected by him during said month, on account of property tax, licenses and kind of licenses, fines, forfeited bonds, or from whatever source obtained; also showing the amount on that date apportioned to each of said funds; and he shall apportion to the several territorial funds all moneys collected by him during said month, less the commission allowed him by law, in accordance with the levy made for such funds, and shall pay to the territorial treasurer the aggregate of the amounts so apportioned; and on said date make and transmit a written report to the territorial treasurer, showing the aggregate amount of money collected by him during said month, pertaining to the territory; also showing the amount apportioned to each of the several territorial funds. Triplicate receipts shall be issued by said territorial treasurer for each of such payments, one of which he shall immediately file with the territorial auditor, and the remaining two of which he shall immediately transmit to the collector, one of which said collector shall immediately file with the probate clerk of his county, and the other shall by him be retained and kept in the archives of his office.

Sec. 4. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage.

JUDGE JOHN R. MCFIE.

Commander-in-Chief of the Department of New Mexico of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Judge McFie was born on October 9, 1848, in Washington county, Ill., of Scotch ancestry, his parents being John and Elizabeth McFie. While still a child his parents removed to Randolph county, in the same state, and there Judge McFie received private instruction from his father who was a man of finished education, and also received a liberal education in the schools of his state until the war came on.

Judge John R. McFie, commander of the department of New Mexico of the Grand Army of the Republic during the past year, is one of the best known men in public life in New Mexico, and wherever he is known he is respected, honored and beloved. Judge McFie's military record is unique and honorable. During the civil war he enlisted in evans company that was organized in Randolph county, Ill., but being a mere boy his father, who was an invalid, refused to give his consent to the boy going to the front. In August, 1863, the father died, and although the boy's brother had been in the army since 1861 his mother consented to his enlistment, and he thereupon enlisted in November, 1863 as recruit in company E, 20th regiment of the Illinois volunteer infantry. The regiment, being on furlough, Judge McFie was not mustered in until February, 1864, at Fort Butler. He accompanied his regiment on Sherman's march to the sea, and was honorably discharged in June, 1865.

Upon his return from the war Judge McFie entered the mercantile business. He clerked for two years, and then was a partner in the business for three years more, when he sold out and began the study of law under Gen. J. Blackburn, one of the leading practitioners of Randolph county, Ill. Judge McFie was admitted to the bar in 1871, and practiced in his home and adjacent counties until 1878, when he was elected to the house of the thirty-first Illinois legislative assembly, which elected Gen. John A. Logan to the United States, Judge McFie being chosen to second his nomination on the floor of the house of the legislature. He resumed his practice of law until 1882, when he was elected a member of the thirty-third Illinois legislature, which elected Gov. Shelby M. Cullom to the United States senate.

Judge McFie was appointed register of the land office at Las Cruces by President Arthur, and took charge in March, 1884, retiring from the office in December, 1885. He then formed a law partnership with Judge S. B. Newcomb at Las Cruces, and engaged in the practice of law until 1889, when he was appointed associate justice of the territorial supreme court and judge of the third judicial district by President Harrison. He served four years and two months, and upon his retirement resumed the practice of law at Las Cruces. In June, 1898, he was appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico, and judge of the first judicial district by President McKinley, and has resided in Santa Fe since then, although he owns a beautiful home at Las Cruces.

Judge McFie was married at St. Louis on October 9, 1876. Mrs. McFie being a school teacher at that time. Mrs. McFie has been president of the Woman's Relief Corps of the G. A. R. at Las Cruces, provisional department president of New Mexico, and is at present president of the Woman's Relief Corps No. 2 of Carleton post, G. A. R. Judge and Mrs. McFie have a charming family circle. One of the sons, Ralph, fought with distinction with the rough riders in Cuba, and is at present in the government service in the Philippines. As department commander, Judge McFie has been very energetic, new posts and relief corps having been organized under his regime, and new life infused into the existing posts and corps. As a judge he has earned fame for his thorough impartiality, and his efforts to expedite the business of the courts with the greatest economy to the taxpayers. Few of his decisions are ever appealed from, and fewer yet are ever reversed by the higher tribunals.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boons, Iowa, Dec. 14.
"I tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since."
MRS. GRACE LAMPHREY.

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble, it acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

THE BOER WAR.

The latest news from South Africa indicates a speedy and peaceful termination of the conflict that has been raging for the past two years. War is a terrible thing, and has slain thousands, but stomach trouble, we believe, has slain even more. When the stomach is out of order, the entire system suffers, and disease takes an easy hold. To insure health and long life, keep the stomach in good condition by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The next time you are troubled with dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or any other disorder of the stomach, do not fail to give it a trial. It will cure these ailments and prevent malaria, fever and ague. Insist on having the genuine with our Private Revenue Stamp over the neck of the bottle.

An Artful Beggar.

Miss Behave—Beggars are all friends. I met a blind man yesterday who said, "Please give me a penny or two, lovely lady."

Miss Behave—Yes—he said that to make you think he really was blind—Exchange.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years."

Anderson Riggs, of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified, as did Mr. Riggs, Ireland's Pharmacy.

Like Her.

One—Mrs. Duffekins is very ill. "Tother—Why, I saw her to-day, and she looked well enough."

One—Of course, that's just her deceitful way.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular. Ireland's Pharmacy.

The Injustice of It.

If I should die, Mollie, you'd buy a fine suit of cloth for me, wouldn't you? Ay, course, I would, Larry. Ye know that."

While I'm alive, though, ye think rummage sale stuff is good enough for me, do ye?

GIVEN UP TO DIE WITH CROUP. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Mannington, Ky., writes: "My three-year-old girl had a severe case of croup, the doctor said she could not live, and I gave her up to die. I went to the store and got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Fischer Drug Co.

A Girl's Good Recipe.

There was a modicum of sense in the response to request made by a young lady as to what would keep her hands white and soft. Soak your hands three times a day in dishwater while mother rests on the sofa.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy."—Mr. T. K. Houseman, Manatoway, Pa. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Diagnosed at Last.

Towne—"The doctor has finally agreed upon the cause of Jones' illness. Browne—"They've held another consultation, eh?" Towne—"No, a post-mortem."

B. Presson, Pressonville, Kan., writes: "Nothing like Foley's Honey and Tar" is the universal verdict of all who have used it. Especially has this been true of coughs accompanying in gripe. Not a single bottle failed to give relief. Fischer Drug Co.

A Natural Curiosity.

It is stated that a St. Louis man lost his mind in a poker game. Wonder what the winner will do with it?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

V. B. Conklin, Bowersville, O., says: "I received more benefit from Foley's Kidney Cure than from months of treatment by physicians." Fischer Drug Co.

Valuable Recipe.

I sent $1 for a sure cure for corns. Well? Here's the reply: Throw up your job and hunt another one.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system. They never gripe. Ireland's Pharmacy.

Approved.

Fra Elbertus Hubbard, of Roycroft fame, told his audience the other night that the colleges are turning out incompetents.

That's right. Turn the stupid rascals out.

THE MOST STUBBORN COUGHS resulting from an attack of the gripe or heavy cold must yield to the wonderful healing properties of Foley's Honey and Tar, which strengthens the lungs and makes them sound. Fischer Drug Co.

A Doubtful Case.

Deacon Jones—"What do you think of our latest new convert? Do you think it a genuine case of conversion?" Deacon Brown—"I'm afraid not. In the remarks he has made in prayer-meeting thus far he has not boasted of being the vilest of sinners."—Boston Transcript.

BEST WAY TO CURE BACKACHE. Backaches are caused by disorder in the kidneys. Foley's Kidney Cure will make the kidneys right. Take no substitute. Fischer Drug Co.

Just Waste Views.

A medical sensation makes sensation of a man "who lives without brains." Brethren, what we want is news!—Atlanta Constitution.

Knew It Long Ago.

Alkali Ike laughed uproariously. "Have these smart people at the University of Chicago just discovered that salt prolongs life?" he asked. "Did you know it before?" the tenderfoot inquired.

"Did I? Well, say! anyone who has lived in the west ought to be able to reason that out for himself in about five minutes. Why, it just naturally follows from the fact that the man who is too fresh is almost invariably cut down in his prime."—Chicago Post.

His Profession.

Judge (to prisoner who has been captured in a raid on a gambling house)—What is your occupation? Prisoner—I am a locksmith, your honor.

Judge—How did you happen to be found in a gambling house, and what were you doing when the police appeared? Prisoner—I was making a bolt for the door.—Green Bag.

A Limited Supply.

She said she meant to speak her mind. And wouldn't take much time to do it! The other said, with sneer unkind, It wouldn't take long if she knew it!—Chicago Record.

SHE WOULDN'T TELL.

"Have you been taking chocolates out of my box?" "I don't know; I couldn't see, because I kept my eyes shut.—Elegance Blaetter.

Contrast.

The public's strange ways often sadly amaze. The man who to congress has gone. It will throw you bouquets in the earliest days.

And, alas! throw you down later on.—Washington Star.

Lowering the Standard.

Mabel—That young Huddleston has asked you six times to marry him, has he? I wouldn't feel irritated over that if I were in your place. You ought to look upon it as a high compliment.

Maud—That's all right enough, but I don't like the idea of his making a continuous performance of it.—Chicago Tribune.

Out of the Mouths of Babies.

Little Nellie was gazing intently at the visitor's bonnet. "What do you think of it, dear?" asked the lady.

"Oh," replied Nellie, "it's all right. Mamma told Aunt Mary it was a perfect fright, but it doesn't frighten me."—Stray Stories.

Preparing to Bleed Him.

"My husband hasn't been home for two days." "You appear to take it quite cheerfully."

"Oh, yes; nothing less than a set of scales will square him this time."—Town Topics.

Conscience Wasn't Troubled.

"If any people call, Norah, be sure to tell them I am out. What are you waiting for? It doesn't disturb your conscience, does it?"

"Oh, no, ma'am. I'm hardened to it. I've worked for society ladies before, ma'am."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Poor Choice.

"Mother," said the year-old Poland-China, as he looked up from the slop trough, "which would you rather do, be ground up into country sausages and spiced with sage, or be made into a pigskin and kicked all over the football field?"—Indianapolis News.

Saving Himself.

He—Why so quiet, dear? I haven't heard you open your mouth hardly once to-day.

She—Oh, I'm saving myself for the whist party to-night.—Yonkers Statesman.

Fall Particulars.

Caller—Is Mrs. Kadippe at home? Ellen (just over)—No, mum.

Caller—Do you know where she has gone? Ellen—Yes, mum. Upstairs, be the back way.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Lines and Wrinkles.

Wife—Isn't that another new wrinkle in your face, dear? Husband—Very likely. I received a line from your dressmaker to-day.—Chicago Daily News.

An Evident Partisan.

Bob—Do you think he is really a foreign nobleman? Ethel—Oh, undoubtedly! Why, he cannot understand a word of my French.—Judge.

An Inference.

First Lobster—I understand that these human beings are referring to one another as lobsters. Second Lobster—Ah! They're getting stuck on themselves.—Puck.

The Lie.

"Just as soon as a man has satisfied his conscience that it's all right to tell a white lie," says the Maneyunk Philosopher, "he becomes color blind."—Philadelphia Record.

On His Mettle.

Uncle Bob—Well, Johnny, are you at the head of your class? Johnny—No, but I can lick the fellow that is!—Answers.

"STICK TO IT."

George L. Heard, of High Tower, Ga., writes: "Eczema broke out on my baby covering his entire body. Under treatment of our family physician he got worse, as he could not sleep for the burning and itching. We used a box of 'Burner Salve' on him, and by the time it was gone he was well. The doctor, seeing it was curing him said, 'Stick to it, for it is doing him more good than anything I have done for him.' Each-er's Drug Co.

Euchred.

"Elphalest," said she, reproachfully. "I do not approve of such extravagance. Now, when Alfonso calls, he is sensible, and does not come loaded down with expensive flowers."

"Henrietta," said he, calmly, "it is generally understood that a knave can't win a queen unless he is one of the bowers."

"You are both knaves," she murmured, coyly, "that you are the right bower and he—left!" and with these words she melted into his arms.—Town Topics.

This Woeeful World.

"Some people," sighed the disappointed one, "are so lucky that it seems as if they simply can't lose, no matter what happens."

"And still the people who lose," said the amateur philosopher, "are not always happy. I know a fat woman who would like to lose about 60 pounds and can't, and it makes her hopping mad every time she thinks of it."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Lenten Meditation.

"Oh, where are you going, my pretty maid?" "I am going to church, kind sir," she said. "What do you there, I would ask, pretty maid?"

"I pray, and I think up new hats," she said. —Detroit Free Press.

JUST IN TIME.

He—Too bad, Miss Maud, that you are always engaged. I would propose to you on the spot.

She—You are just in time, because I broke off my engagement yesterday!—Heiter Welt.

No Difference.

Whose's the man, when plaudits gay Resound among the spires and arches, The people shout the same "hooray!" The brass bands play the same old marches.—Washington Star.

End of a Romance.

"I called to see your father this afternoon," remarked Charlie, as he took a seat in the parlor.

Dora fluttered nervously. Recovering herself with an apparent effort, she said, simply: "Did you?"

"Yes," replied Charlie. "He has been owing your firm a little account for a long time."—Tit-Bits.

Perfidious Man.

Mrs. Linguist—I want to get a divorce. My husband talks in his sleep. Lawyer Soozem—But, my dear madam, that is no ground for divorce. There is no cruelty here.

Mrs. Linguist—But he talks in Latin, and I don't understand that language at all.—Baltimore American.

Parlor Diplomacy.

Mrs. Brago—Tell me, professor, will my daughter ever become a great pianist? Herr Vogleschnitzle—I cannot tell. "But has she none of the qualifications necessary for a good musician?"

"Ach! Yah, matam, she has two hands."—Tit-Bits.

Entitled to Them.

Lawyer—My client wants two pensions. Pension Agent—Two? Lawyer—Yes; she can prove that her deceased husband wouldn't have gone to war at all if she hadn't made him.—Chicago Record.

Can't Bar All.

St. Peter—Did you ever do anything very bad? Fair Arrival—I smuggled a few laces through the customs house.

St. Peter—Oh, well, come in. We can't get along without women.—N. Y. Weekly.

Another Opinion.

"Do you think bachelors ought to be taxed?" asked Willie Washington. "No," answered Miss Cayenne. "I think the girls ought to make up purses and pay them bounties for not making homes unhappy."—Washington Star.

Too Much of a Good Thing.

Jimson—"What became of that man who had 27 medals for saving people from drowning?"

Dock Worker—He fell in one day when he had them all on, and the weight of 'em sunk him.—N. Y. Weekly.

Just His Way.

Mabel—I sometimes think that Charlie doesn't love me—he acts so silly.

Agnes—Nonsense! When he acts silly that shows he's in earnest.—Judge.

Pretty Mad.

Clara (after a tiff)—I presume you would like my ring back.

George—Never mind; keep it. No other girl I know could use that ring, unless she wore it on her thumb.—N. Y. Weekly.

Woman's Test.

Rev. Cassington—Honestly, Miss Deering, do you think my sermons are too long?

Miss Deering—Oh, dear, no! I merely think that life is too short.—Puck.

A Cheaper Method.

Knicker—Jinks has been ordered abroad to take the mud baths.

Bocker—Why doesn't he stay at home and run for office?—Judge.

BETTER TRAIN SERVICE.

Superintendent F. O. Fox Promises to Remedy Present Defects.

Complaint having reached the New Mexican that incoming passengers to Santa Fe had been kept waiting three or more hours a night at Lamy before the branch train took them to Santa Fe, it took the matter up with Division Superintendent F. O. Fox who answered courteously as follows:

On Line, Raton, April 9, 1901.
Mr. Max. Frost, Ed. New Mexican, Santa Fe, New Mexico:

Dear Sir: This to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 5th inst. It is the intention to run a connection from such train where there is sufficient time to make the round trip, and this should have been done under the circumstances related by you. Will investigate this fully and see that it does not occur again.

Yours truly, F. O. FOX, Supt.

The Next Attraction.

An unusual attractive combination of fun and music is presented in the new "Turkish Bath" which will be seen at opera house on Thursday night.

The people engaged in the production have been selected especially for their respective ability to portray the parts assigned them. They are all singers and dancers, and incidentally to play, several pleasing specialties will be introduced.

As a laughing success nothing has ever been constructed that comes nearer filling the bill than the "Turkish Bath," and in its re-constructed form it has everywhere been well received.

The active demand for seats indicates that the audience which will greet them will be large and that it will be a well pleased one goes without saying.

A GOOD WATER SERVICE.

Ample Provision Made for the Capitol at a Reasonable Rate.

The Santa Fe Water and Light Co. have just completed a six inch main water pipe from its system to the capitol grounds, extending along the entire east side of the capitol grounds. This was done in order that plenty of water might be had in case of a fire in the building, also to supply the grounds and the building with an abundance of water. The company agreed with the capitol custodian commission for two years water services at a very moderate rate indeed, knowing that the appropriations were small and believing it a public duty to aid the capitol custodian commission in having all the water needed both for improving the grounds, for the building and in case of fire. This is a very commendable act on the part of Manager Sparks and he should receive credit in addition to General Solicitor Bartlett, who as member of the capitol custodian commission, by talking and diplomacy, brought about this very desirable result. A fire hydrant will be placed on the east side of the capitol building as soon as it can be had from St. Louis. It is ordered and this fire hydrant will be placed as to command the entire building.
