THE INSULAR TEST CASES

The Decision of the Supreme Court Extends the Coast Wise Regulations to the Philippines.

THE PRESIDENT SUSTAINED

Attorney General Knox is Preparing an Opinion on the Decisions—The Powers Vested in the President by Constitutional Warrant.

New York, May 30.—Commenting on the supreme court's decision in the insular test cases, the Washington correspondent of the Tribune says that at the capitol it is thought the pilotage decision, which attracted little attention the time it was handed down to the other insular decisions on Monday, will be constructed as extending the regulations of the coastwise trade to the Philippines, as well as to Porto Rico and Hawaii. By the direction of the president on the recommendation of the bureau of navigation and the treasury department, the coastwise regulations were extended to Porto Rico soon after the ratification of the Paris treaty, in August, 1898, about the same time they were extended to Hawaii. The supreme court sustained the president's act. Attorney General Knox is carefully studying the various expressions which are used by the justices in the De Lima and Downes decisions, with a view of preparing an opinion for submission to the cabinet as to the powers which the supreme court declared belong to the president by constitutional warrant as well as the special grant power vested in the executive by the Spooner resolution.

GERMANS DENOUNCED AS TRAITORS

Vienna, May 30.—The government's canal bill has aroused bitter opposition and the debate in the reichsrath continuing until early this morning, was marked by stormy scenes. The Pan-Germans so fiercely abused Dr. Lueger who supported the bill, that the sitting had to be suspended, the president being quite unable to quiet the tumult. Prince von Schwarzenburg in opposing the bill declared the construction of canals provided an open door for foreign invasion and would seriously prejudice agriculture. Finally the Pan-Germans walked out of the house, Dr. Lueger denouncing them as "contemptible traitors to the country."

DOING WELL IN GUADALUPE COUNTY

Great Increase in Lambs—Work on the Rock Island.

Ross McMillan, the bright young son of Judge and Mrs. D. H. McMillan, returned Tuesday to the city from an inspection trip of the sheep ranges in Guadalupe county. He was very much pleased with what he saw there and thinks that parts of Guadalupe county are among the best sheep raising sections of the territory. The range is good and there is plenty of water. Shearing in that vicinity commences about the 10th of next month. Lambing is completed, however, and from 60 to 100 per cent of the lambs were saved in that vicinity, most of the outfits averaging about 95 per cent. He reports that work on the grade of the Rock Island railroad is going on although at rather a slow rate as there is a good deal of heavy cutting to be done. In the vicinity of the Pecos river a good many men and teams are employed. There are eleven saloons at Santa Rosa and the little town is quite lively. Where the new town of Santa Rosa is to be located and where the railroad station is to be located is a mystery and all the people in that vicinity are guessing where it will be, in order to get next. Mr. McMillan has been visiting most of the counties of New Mexico in search of a good location for sheep raising but has not as yet decided where he will engage and enter upon the business. He has also investigated the question of Angora and common goat raising but has concluded that sheep raising will be more to his liking. He left yesterday for Socorro and will return later to Santa Fe with Judge and Mrs. McMillan.

DURANGO TO CLIFTON.

A Proposed Railroad to Pass Through Western New Mexico.

People of Durango, Colo., and Clifton, Ariz., and intermediate territory, are urging the construction of a railroad 365 miles long from Clifton, via Gallup, N. M., to Durango. C. E. McConnell, mayor of Durango, and president of the Smelter City State bank of Durango, is the principal mover in the project. The road would traverse a section of Arizona and New Mexico now without railroads. At Gallup it would cross the Santa Fe and nearby cross the southwest corner of the Navajo Indian reservation. At Clifton it would connect with the Arizona & New Mexico road which extends 71 miles from Clifton to Lordsburg on the Southern Pacific, giving a short and direct route from Durango to El Paso and Mexico.

The promoters of the road are anxious that the Phelps Dodge syndicate, owning numerous small railroads in that section of the country, including the Arizona & New Mexico, build the projected line. C. G. Whitehead of Clifton, was in Denver last week to confer with Mr. McConnell. Mr. McConnell and Mr. Whitehead returned to Durango, thence went to Bisbee to see President Douglas of the Phelps-Dodge roads. Delegations from these two towns and Gallup and owners of mines and ranches which would be traversed by the proposed road are now using influence to have the road built.

The line would furnish a nearby market for the vast coal and mineral deposits of that vicinity. It would be of particular benefit to the Durango smelters as it would open scores of mining properties.

UNION COUNTY PROSPERITY.

Cattle and Sheep Thrive in That Northwestern County of the Territory.

Clayton, Union county, is developing a growing and profitable business in the spring and early summer sale of yearling steers for feeding purposes. Auld & Sullivan have lately purchased 900 head of these yearlings and shipped them to Akron, Colo., for range holding this summer preparatory to next winter hay feeding for the beef market.

James Feagins of South Omaha, is at Clayton also as a yearling purchaser, and will ship out several hundred head about the first of next month.

Local parties, too, are seeking Clayton yearlings for their feeding pastures and pens. It is estimated that this season's sale of these yearlings will reach 5,000 head at prices ranging from $16 to $19 per head. The Clayton yearlings is a well graded Hereford or Shorthorn and develop into a weighty beef.

Sheep shearing will begin about the first of next month with at least 500,000 head of sheep to pass under the clipper. The fleeces this year will be of premium New Mexican weight, averaging fully six and one-half pounds, thus giving the county a wool clip approximating 3,500,000 pounds. The county will sell this fall in excess of 75,000 head of lambs and between 40,000 and 50,000 mutton wethers. Union county sheep are good graded French and Spanish merinos, the strains being improved steadily.

Since March of last year Clayton has built twenty-five new houses and has lately launched a national bank with an authorized capital of $50,000 and a paid up capital of $25,000.

The town has just put in a local telephone circuit and expects to soon extend its telephone connection to Kenton, forty miles distant in Oklahoma, and to Liberty, N. M., 120 miles away on the line of the new building Liberal branch of the Rock Island railroad.

THE ROCK ISLAND EXTENSION.

Part of the Line from Liberal Almost Completed.

The track laying force on the new Liberal, Kansas, branch of the Rock Island railroad is now within ten miles of Twist Junction and will reach that point by the end of this month. From Twist the steel will be at once extended to Middle Water, 30 miles onward, trains running from Liberal to Middle Water by the 20th of June.

At Middle Water will be established the construction headquarters of the road until the Canadian river is reached.

The approaches and the crossing of the Middle Water will necessitate a lengthy and solid bridge and a fill of 90,000 yards of dirt.

It is reported that after the 31st of this month a daily accommodation passenger coach will run between Liberal and Twist Junction, thus making a Denver and Fort Worth connection. The 120 miles between Liberal and Twist will form the first division of the new road.

A SHOOTING SCRAPE.

According to reports, a shooting scrape occurred at Chloride mining camp in Sierra county. Mrs. D. C. McDill has had considerable trouble with her husband "drinking up" his monthly pay check, and swore she would kill the man who enticed him to drink. Pay day came and McDill and Samuel Rhea got their checks and started on a debauch. They went to Mineral Park and soon after drove back to the McDill house.

The wife upbraided Rhea for getting her husband drunk, and pulling out her pistol, commenced firing at Rhea, but missed him. One bullet, however, struck her husband in his left side below the heart and he is expected to die.

THURSDAY, MAY 30.

For Governor of New Mexico from June 7, 1901, to June 7, 1905, or until statehood is attained, Miguel A. Otero.

New Mexico Demands Statehood of the 37th Congress.

Of Right and in Justice New Mexico Should Be a State.

The Cochiti mining district is again forging to the front.

"Let all the ends thou aim'st at, be thy country's." Work for statehood for New Mexico.

"Thus too, sell on, O ship of state: Sail into the Union strong and great: Let destiny before thee flow; To guide thy way New Mexico."

To paraphrase Rufus Choate: "We join ourselves to no man who does not carry a banner for New Mexico's rights and keeps step to the music of her claims for statehood."

The Burns law which makes it a duty of the sheriffs to visit all saloons and gaming places once every three months and collect licenses is working well and the public schools are the gainers thereby.

The New Mexican is sending out half a dozen to twenty copies per day in answer to inquiries about Santa Fe and vicinity. That is the sort of advertising that pays the town well. Although the New Mexican does not get paid for this kind of work, it does it right along for the good of the community.

"The Empire Is Here!" shrieks the Rocky Mountain News in its leading editorial. Yet, the old world looks the same as ever, prosperity has pitched her tent in the United States and Uncle Sam is doing business at the same old stand. From the jeremiads of Bryan and his followers the nation had believed that when the empire did arrive it would tear up things in general and liberty, freedom, prosperity and patriotism would go down shrieking into oblivion.

Statistics just published show that there are 7,386,746 Lutherans in the United States. New Mexico has the least of any commonwealth, 410; Utah ranks next with 564. Pennsylvania leads with 1,318,338, while Wisconsin, Minnesota, Ohio and New York follow in the order named, each having between half a million and a million members of the religious denomination which is the strongest Protestant church in Europe and stands third in point of numbers in the United States.

Within the past three years the Cochiti Gold Mining Company, operating in the Cochiti district, has expended about two millions of dollars. This was mostly Boston capital. This would indicate strongly that the charges made by a few tax dodgers and bought up weekly sheets, that capital has been kept out of the territory and has been driven out by the present administration, is a fabrication absolute. These liars should go to the head of the class, as they must be classed with Ananias and Sapphir.

The fact that this journal did excellent work for Republican success during the last campaign is still being remembered by one or two envious Democratic-Pop. sheets and they are still assailing this paper for that reason. The New Mexican, however, hopes in the campaign of 1902 to do still better work than it did in the campaign of 1900. These envious coarsers that assail this paper in their columns can put this kind of tobacco in their pipes and smoke it if they like. Even if they don't the New Mexican will continue the policy it has mapped out for itself regardless of the venomous yelps of such sheets.

For the first time in many years, and thanks to the good laws passed by the Republican legislative assembly, and to the strong enforcement of the law by Judge McFie, District Attorney Abbott and the Republican county officials, Taos county has plenty of money in all its funds. On Monday next the spring term of the district court will commence and there is plenty of money to the credit of the court fund in the county treasury and for as long a term as may be necessary and thought best for the public interest. Score another one for the present Republican administration of the territory.

At the recent term of court held in Rio Arriba county, owing to the prompt and vigorous enforcement of the law by Judge McFie, and the energetic actions of District Attorney E. C. Abbott and Sheriff Alexander Read, money due for liquor and gaming licenses was collected and something like $4,000 actual cash was put into the public school fund, which is a larger amount than was ever before in the treasury of the county by thousands of dollars. Heretofore when there was a thousand dollars to the credit of the school fund in Rio Arriba county it was thought a good thing. This law is working well in every respect. Councilman Burns, who introduced it; the 34th legislative assembly who passed it; and Governor Otero who approved it, are all entitled to credit for this wholesome measure.

The laws enacted by the 34th legislative assembly for uniform assessment rolls and a uniform system of tax receipts will prove of advantage in every respect. The provisions of these measures are simple and sensible. The work for the county treasurer and county assessors will be reduced through their agency. This is another point in favor of the present good government of the territory.

There will be no reunion of rough riders this year, says the Denver Republican. Colorado Springs is not willing to do what Las Vegas and Oklahoma City did in raising funds for the entertainment of the rough riders. Colorado Springs is a city of millionaires and it looks rather shabby on its part that it has such a scant welcome for a reunion and convention that annually awakens interest throughout the United States and would bring to Colorado the vice president of the United States for several days' sojourn. If such a thing were to occur in New Mexico it would be blamed upon a set of patriots, but happening in a state some other reason will be assigned for it by those who oppose statehood for New Mexico.

Some of the ringsters who could not get Governor Otero to do their bidding are charging that his administration has ruined the Republican party in New Mexico. That may be so; but the fact that the Republican party at the last election elected its candidate for delegate by 3,700 majority, carried nine out of twelve members of the council, and twenty out of twenty-four of the house of representatives of the last assembly, gives the lie to this charge directly and solid. Delegate Rodey received the largest majority ever cast for any candidate for congress by any party in the territory, and this majority to a considerable extent was brought about by the good work of the administration and of the leading administration Republicans throughout the territory. The few soreheads who opposed the administration did mightily little in support of the ticket. One or two of the candidates on the Republican ticket simply looked out for themselves and the rest contributed neither time, money nor work to the Republican success. These are facts and can not be successfully denied or disproven.

Memorial Day.
Over two score of years have passed since the first shot was fired at Fort Sumter that was followed by the Civil war, in many respects the most memorable war of all ages. Since then, the country has doubled its population and has multiplied its wealth. It has become the mightiest nation of the earth and the many prophecies of its downfall uttered forty years ago have been happily disproven. Another glorious year has been fought since then, and thousands of young veterans have been added to the old guard which fought the battles of the Rebellion. There are still many millions living who passed through that period of storm and stress forty years ago, and to those Memorial day is the most sacred festival day of the year. To the later generation it is also hallowed but it can only through the imagination realize the great magnitude of the struggle that preserved the Union, while the old veterans remember vividly the events of those Titan days. It is a beautiful custom to decorate the graves of those veterans who fell in the war or have died since then, and it is a still more beautiful custom that reveres and provides for the veterans who still survive, but who of necessity must soon answer the last roll call. But few stop to realize what their patriotism and their valor meant to this nation and how the course of the world's events would have been changed had they flinched in their duty and had given way to weakness at the decisive moment at Gettysburg, or the other victories that preceded or followed it.

The Unconscious Humor of Law Makers.
The Colorado legislature which was a state legislature and a Democratic one at that, passed a number of laws that should be termed "gems" for they are both ridiculous and unconstitutional. Every legislature is more or less guilty of such lapses and even the best of other state legislatures have made many mistakes of that kind and it should not be held against the 34th legislative assembly that among the many good measures it passed there are a few that, to use a street term, "will not hold water."

Says the Durango Democrat, a Democratic paper, of a law passed by the Democratic legislature of Colorado, appropriating $50,000 for an exhibit at the St. Louis exposition:

"Now, in signing the bill we are not advised as to whether Governor Orman consulted Alva Adams or the state's veterinary surgeon, certainly not the attorney general, as even so poor a lawyer as myself is firm and unshaken in belief that the bill does not amount to a—, for the reason that under the statutes the state treasurer will pay no money on the order of any commissioner, even if signed by the governor. He pays only upon warrants properly issued and signed by the auditor of state, and in no other manner whatever. The bill provides for the commissioner to issue its vouchers upon the state treasurer, but the state treasurer cannot honor them. It makes no provision that warrants will be duly drawn and issued from the auditor's office, consequently that department is unauthorized to participate in the disbursement of this appropriation. Fact is, the bill is a blunder, a nuisance, evidently drawn by a photographer, reviewed by the janitor, and passed up to Orman for evidence of additional stupidity. Through the kindness of Alva Adams and Senator 'Smoothy' Patterson the Democratic party seems to be up against a barbed wire fence."

The art of drafting laws that will stand the scrutiny of the courts has been reduced to an exact science and in the future every law introduced in a legislature should be closely scrutinized by a committee of legal talent and the solicitor or attorney general of the state or territory so as to make certain that a bill does become a law it is not made the football of lawyers and the laughing stock of the public.

The Cochiti Gold Mining Company is Treating Its Ore at a Cost of From Four to Five Dollars a Ton.

THE NEW MANAGEMENT IN CHARGE

(Boston Journal.)

The most serious difficulty that was met by the Cochiti Gold Mining Company near Bland, was the early lack of a satisfactory water supply. No mining proposition, however, fortunately located or possessing ever so much profitable ore, can be in anywise successfully handled unless there be near at hand an easily accessible and abundant supply of water. When the mine was first started water was obtained from the Peralta canon through a pipe line six miles in length, which has since been demonstrated was built in a somewhat extravagant and generally unsatisfactory manner.

No sooner had this pipe line been established than the company encountered a deal of opposition, and soon found itself involved as well in the severest sort of a legal battle. It did no good to advance the argument that the company had come into the territory for the purpose of extensively investing capital, and that its coming would be beneficial not alone to the adjoining owners but to the people generally, and it was of no avail either to attempt to compromise claims and unjust demands of various sorts. It seemed, almost from the start, as if everyone who had any possible claim against the company was determined to use every power at his command to do it an injury. Indeed, the territory of New Mexico it is asserted has been in the past, well filled with the class of people known in western phraseology as "grifters"—men whose chief aim in life appears to be to "bleed" prosperous corporations. It was against such as these and against several lawyers and a legal array of camp-followers that the company found itself contending. But even this trouble was after a time successfully adjusted, the pipe line rebuilt, the water supply increased, and matters put into shape where the work at hand could be carried forward successfully. Even then, however, with power, with labor and with the water question all satisfactorily arranged, it was found that the mill was falling to do the work in the matter of output that had been anticipated. The best that could be obtained from it was a trifle over 4,000 tons per month.

A NEW MANAGEMENT.

Then it was that a new executive management, with Duncan McViche, one of the best known mining men in the entire west and a man who has been long intimately associated with profitable Utah properties—at the head, was inaugurated. The economies that he has secured during the eight or nine months that he has been in charge of the direction of affairs are simply wonderful. In a conversation with him the other day, in riding from Thornton to Albuquerque, after my return from the Cochiti mine, he showed me very clearly where the errors of the past had been made, and pointed out to me the savings that were not only possible but that had actually been accomplished. Up to the present time, or since last August, he has succeeded in bringing about economies that are equivalent to at least $2,000 per month, or $24,000 per annum, and he is still at work on the problem; with the prospect good for a further saving of at least half as much more.

In the mining work alone he has reduced expenses at least $500 per month; as much more at the mill by the reduction of working force and economies in operation; he has cut off at least $300 per month on the operating expense of the Madrid plant; he has made a saving of fully $450 per month in the furnishing of the water, and all of $200 per month has been taken off in other directions. In order to accomplish these results he associated with himself, when he first assumed the management of the property, men of experience, sound judgment and thorough training. William Spencer as superintendent of the property. C. A. Stevens, an old time mill man, who is in charge of the cyanide mill, and A. L. Hall as mining superintendent, make a combination in the way of management that is as strong as good judgment and ability can possibly make it. Besides this, more recently, E. L. White of Lowell, Mass., a man of large experience in business affairs, has been placed at the head of the business end of the property and will give the best of his ability to the care of the same.

By reason of these radical changes, and in part through the introduction of the "cave in" system of mining, he has not only been successful in exploring a much larger area of the mine, particularly in its lower levels, and in opening up very much richer ore, but he has also succeeded in raising the product of the mill, through the addition of several tanks, to 6,500 tons per month. To meet the requirements of the mill, the mining force was necessarily somewhat increased, and the development work was pushed more energetically than ever. At present work is being done on the fourth, fifth and sixth levels, the ore being taken out in large quantities and averaging from $6 to $20 per ton. On the sixth level an ore body has recently been opened that is at present 42 feet wide, that is averaging $14 to the ton across its entire face, and that will, alone, if its extent proves to be what is expected, furnish a 15 months' supply of ore for the mill. The treatment of the ore, which formerly cost considerably more than $5 per ton, has now been reduced close to $4 per ton, including all expenses for mining and milling. The company pays its miners from $3 to $4 per day, and its monthly pay roll at present averages about $14,000 per month.

PLENTY OF ORE.

Its ore bodies, so far as opened, range from 25 to 75 feet in width, and, despite all the reports that have been current, the size of these bodies assure an abundant supply of ore both for the present and for several years to come. The February output of the mill was 6,300 tons, on which $2.60 per ton was saved in mining and treatment alone,

HOW CHARLES W. BABCOCK

Proprietor Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, of Rochester, N. Y. Obtained $2,000 Life Insurance Policy.

"My business as proprietor of the Lyceum Shell Oyster Parlor, 245 Main street, Rochester, N. Y., was healthier and stronger than before my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Ackers' English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State."

Like most other people, I tried to make myself believe the trouble was not in the lungs. I called it stomach trouble or nervous disorder, but I kept coughing, spitting and wasting away right along. I lost in weight, falling from 140 to 115 pounds. Somehow or other, I got hold of Ackers' English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, and after taking it according to directions, I was as well as any man in New York State. I was healthier and stronger than before my lungs became affected. My doctor told me I'd have to leave the store and go to work at something outdoors. He said my lungs were in bad shape, and I knew it just as well as he did. The trouble had been growing on me for a long time. Still More Counterfeiting.

The Secret Service has unearthed another band of counterfeiters and secured a large quantity of bogus bills, which are so cleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being spurious. Things of great value are always selected by counterfeiters for imitation, notably the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters which has many imitators but no equals for indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and general debility. The Bitters set things right in the stomach, and when the stomach is in good order it makes good blood and plenty of it. In this manner the Bitters get at the seat of strength and vitality, and restore vigor to the weak and debilitated. Beware of counterfeiters when buying.

Women are vastly more patient than men. It is scarcely believable that a woman, suffering past all telling, can attend to business, and bend and stoop with a back whose ache is agony. And beyond all this she smiles as she bends and stoops about her customer. A man might swallow down an oath or keep back a groan, but his face would be like a thundercloud, and his voice scarcely disguise his irritation.

For women who suffer from backache, bearing-down pains, or other pains due to womanly diseases, there is no other medicine equal to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the womanly functions, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. A vegetable preparation, it cannot disagree with the weakest constitution.

"I wish to thank you for the good cures have done me," writes Mrs. Fulton Co., Ill. "I was troubled with female weakness and all the usual troubles. They did not help me. Indeed, I got worse. I suffered from indigestion and displacement of the uterus. What I suffered from, I cannot tell. I had heavy bearing-down pains, and I thought my back would break. I also had a very bad discharge, but after taking five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I am feeling as well as ever. It has been almost two years and I have had no return of the trouble. My friends tell me I don't look as though I ever was sick."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its causes.

Parke—I think, after all, I shall put my son into politics.

Lane—How are you going to manage it?

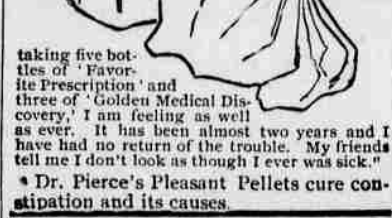

Parke—Oh, get him into the army.—Harper's Bazar.

WHOOHING COUGH.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops—Jesse Pinkney Hall, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by Ireland.

The public printer is rushing the assessment rolls and will send them out within a few days to the different counties. The reason for the delay in sending them out is that the last legislative assembly passed a law changing the old form of assessment rolls and providing for uniform assessment rolls for all the counties. Work therefore could not be commenced until the books are of the very highest character law was approved. As the assessment of printing and binding and of the very best paper in order to make them lasting records, it takes considerable time to turn out such work as is contemplated by the statute. This will fully explain the delay.
