GALLUP.

Batch of Sixteen Will Be Overseas From Big Butte.

Special Correspondent

Gallup, March 15.-Sixteen children, pupils of the Big Butte Indian School, are expected to leave here today to go to school in Washington. It is claimed that this is the first time that pupils of the school have been selected to attend the New York Central schools.

The children are six in number. They are selected by the government and the U.S. commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The children are expected to leave here today and will arrive in Washington tomorrow.

The children will be under the care of the government and will be taken care of by the code officers in Washington.

The children are expected to be returned to their homes in several weeks.

The number of pupils at the school is about 120. The school is located on the Cienega reservation in Arizona.
