Antelope Feel the Drought.

Antelope on the range are becoming quite bold in approaching lakes and water holes where persons happen to be camped, on account of the drought making it difficult to get water. J. M. Miller is having a tank built in the bottom of a dry lake 40 miles northeast of Roswell, and he says a herd of five antelope come there every day and stay for hours smelling the moist earth and hoping to get water. One buck came close to the camp and allowed men to approach within 20 yards of him before it ran off.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS
HANDLED DOWN

Judge McFie Today Decided Four Cases of Considerable Moment That Have Been Pending Before Him.

CAROTHERS WINS ANACONDA SUIT

Judge McFie today handed down decisions in four important cases that have been pending before him for some time. The first was that of James Carothers vs. Lizzie F. O'Brien, et al. This he decided in favor of the plaintiff on all the issues. Carothers applied for patent on the Anaconda, Beautiful Boy and Ingersoll mining lodes in southern Santa Fe county. The local land office refused to allow the plaintiff to make final entry and to pay for the land because the records of the land office disclosed a conflict between Carothers' claims and the Galena King, Silver King and Bonanza which were claimed by Lizzie F. O'Brien, J. P. O'Brien, Thomas B. Catron, Eugene A. Fliske, Robert C. Gortner, W. E. Gortner and D. W. Manley. The decision of the court sustains the locations of the Beautiful Boy, the Ingersoll and the Anaconda in so far as they are in conflict with the defendant's claims. The contest as to the Anaconda is a contest between the plaintiff and T. B. Catron who claims to have purchased from D. W. Manley the disputed land. The court holds that the instrument given to Manley was not an absolute conveyance of the land but was given in the nature of security from which there was a right of redemption. The plaintiff tendered the amount of money due under the instrument which was declined and the court holds that Carothers who purchased from A. McG. Hendry is the owner of the Anaconda.

The case of Edward Miller vs. Alphons Dockweiler and Henry Pohlman, involving valuable water rights on the Tesuque river was decided by the judge today. The court finds that Pohlman has the first water right; that Miller has the second water right and that Dockweiler has the right to conduct surplus water from the river through his pipe line at all times when it does not interfere with the prior rights of the Pohlman and Miller ranches. The prayer for an injunction by the plaintiff to restrain Dockweiler from appropriating water at any time through his pipe line is denied.

The costs were divided.

The third case decided was that of the territory of New Mexico vs. Michael Hart and the sureties on his bond. Hart was appointed coal oil inspector by Governor Thornton and the territory claims that he failed to turn over to the territory the $5000 he had collected as inspection fees. This is a suit brought to recover from Hart and his bondmen the amount due under the terms of his bond. Hart made no defense and judgment by default was rendered against him. A demurrer was interposed by the counsel for the bondmen setting up that the act of the legislature under which Hart was appointed was in violation of the commerce clause of the constitution of the United States and secondly that the territorial legislature of 1899 having amended the former act of the legislature thereby deprived the territory of any remedy by suit on the bond. The court in this decision overruled the demurrer of the defendant holding that the defenses set up by the demurrer were not legal defenses to a suit on a bond and were not available as a defense when plead by the sureties. The defendants were allowed 30 days in which to answer the complaint.

The court also decided the case of the territory of New Mexico vs. W. E. Martin et al. which was a suit precisely similar to that of the preceding one. Demurrers were interposed by the principal and also by the sureties on the bond, raising similar questions to those raised in the suit against Hart and others. The court overruled the demurrers; this case also for the reason stated in the case against Hart et al. The defendants were also allowed 30 days in which to answer.

PECOS VALLEY

The Marvelous Growth in Wealth and Prosperity of Roswell and Surrounding Country.

MAKING OF A GREAT CITY

The Acreage Placed Under Cultivation is Constantly Increasing—Money in the Cantaloupe Crop—Stock Raising and Horticulture a Success.

Hon. G. A. Richardson, member of the New Mexico irrigation commission, who has been in the city for several days attending the sessions of the commission. In a talk with a representative of the New Mexican, states some interesting facts concerning the development of Chaves county in general and Roswell in particular. "According to the census," said Mr. Richardson, "Chaves county on June 1, 1900, had 4,773 inhabitants, and the town of Roswell 3,657 inhabitants. From past indications we have counted on an increase of from ten to fifteen per cent in our population since that time. Roswell is steadily increasing in population and prosperity and so is Chaves county in general. We now have two banks, six churches, one of the finest public school buildings in the territory erected at a cost of $25,000, and the New Mexico Military Institute which is considered one of the best educational institutions in the southwest. The accommodations at the institute are too small and the regents are now preparing to add additional buildings and dormitories and also to put in a new water plant and electric light system for the use of the institute. During the past week three students halling from far off Minnesota and two from Missouri applied for scholarships during the coming year and were accepted. So it can be seen that the fame of the New Mexico Military Institute is not exactly local. The cattle shipments during the past season over the Pecos and Northeastern and thence to Kansas City are the largest ever had in the history of the road. On several days during the season twenty-three train loads of cattle left Roswell for the eastern markets. The cattle during the past year on the ranges of Chaves and Eddy counties have done very well and the outlook for the future is very bright. The acreage put into orchards and alfalfa is constantly on the increase. We will have very good crops of peaches, plums and cherries this year and the apple crop will be excellent. It is estimated that from thirty-five to fifty carloads of apples will be sent to Chicago this season, and Porter Brothers, the big Chicago fruit commission firm, is buying all the apples it can purchase on the trees, paying a good price for the same. This firm has bought the entire crop of the extensive Hagerman ranch and is looking for more.

"The cantaloupe crop will be wonderful, and will bring a great deal of money into the county. Fifteen carloads of cantaloupes were sent to St. Louis and Chicago markets and brought good prices.

"The customers are so well pleased that they will take every cantaloupe of this immense crop. It is expected that Roswell alone will ship one hundred carloads of cantaloupes and that the valley, meaning Chaves and Eddy counties, will ship a total of seven hundred carloads and over. The market for this vast amount is secure as the Pecos valley cantaloupe beats the celebrated Rocky Ford and is better liked and brings better prices. This of course means very profitable shipments for the Santa Fe railroad system which now controls the Pecos Valley and Northeastern. Many of our farms are being purchased by northern people and are being greatly improved. One young man from Cleveland, Ohio, Otis by name, has an extensive fruit farm and is constantly adding to it. Another young man named Chisholm, of Illinois, son of John Chisholm, vice president of the American Steel and Wire company, has purchased another large farm and has gone into the breeding of fine hogs. He has now over a thousand, all pedigreed, on his farm and expects to develop the business in a few years so as to be able to ship several thousand hogs for market per year.

"We have one of the largest mercantile establishments in the country in Roswell, the immense wholesale and retail mercantile establishment of Joyce, Pruitt and Company. This firm does a great amount of business which is constantly increasing.

"The alfalfa crop is very good and is nearly ready for the third cutting. The crop will average from four to five tons per acre during the season. The Pecos valley raises the finest celery on earth and the sale of it is proving a source of great profit. This celery is shipped to Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago, where it finds a very ready market at good prices. Upon the whole the Pecos valley is doing exceedingly well and has a grand future before it. Our people are of the opinion that sooner or later a road will be built from Roswell up the Pecos river to go across the river in a northwesterly direction to the vast coal fields of the Maxwell Land Grant Company in Colfax county. Within a few years we are of the opinion that Roswell will be the best town in southern Kansas, western Texas and eastern New Mexico, and will be the largest and most thriving city between Wichita, Kas., and El Paso, Texas.

SATURDAY, JULY 13.

New Mexico Demands Statehood of the 57th Congress.

Of Right and in Justice New Mexico Should Be a State.

The gang says it will fight the confirmation of Governor Otero. Well, what of it?

Europe is somewhat lively these days. Both Senators Dewey and Beveridge are on the continent.

And now news comes that a Simon pure Democratic paper is to be started in Santa Fe. The more the merrier.

Perhaps they will get even with the territorial administration by subscribing to the Democratic-Pop papers in the territory.

Although Mr. Bryan was defeated he seems to have found the business of being a perennial candidate for president quite profitable.

They are still using some lead for paper weights over in the Philippines although the amount necessary to use is growing less daily.

Too much ambition in politics easily overleaps itself. There are several examples of that kind in New Mexico today and still there are more to follow.

The Republican party does not need to go south for timber for a presidential candidate in 1904. It is right well fixed for such material north of Mason and Dixon's line.

Forgetting and forgiving always strike the fellow who is beaten in a political fight. Of course it does. He has nothing to lose and everything to gain by forgetfulness and forgiveness.

Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed finds that taking fees for giving advice is a paying business. He must regret the many years during which he gave this country advice practically free of charge.

A valued correspondent of the New Mexican asks for information about some things going on in the territory and wants to know why same is not furnished the people. Give it up. Ask us something easier.

It is not only the east and the middle west which are sweltering in the summer sun, but Europe and Asia as well and it seems that the North Pole and New Mexico are the only cool spots in the northern hemisphere at present.

Some fellows who did little or nothing for the success of the Republican party are now crying for harmony in the Republican party of the territory. What they mean is not exactly clear to the careful observer of political matters in New Mexico.

Five months more until the meeting of the 57th congress. During these five months work to secure an enabling act for the territory in that body must not be lost sight of. Anything worth having in this world can only be obtained by hard and energetic work.

A Denver woman is suing her husband for divorce because he called her mother "an old hen". This language is mild compared with the epithets some mothers-in-law hurl at their sons-in-law and the Denver woman should be non-suited. "An old hen" may even have been a term of affection.

Leadville, Colo., has been offered $100,000 by Carnegie for a public library. The city will spend $2,000 a year to maintain the library. Leadville has accepted the gift, for the city has confidence in its future and a $100,000 public library is a monument that would give distinction to any city of its size.

The trans-Mississippi congress meets on July 16 at Cripple Creek, Colorado. For the good of the territory a large delegation from New Mexico should attend its sessions. It is an important gathering and its proceedings are of great value to the southwest and may be made of still greater benefit to the territory by the energetic and properly directed work of the delegates from New Mexico appointed to attend it.

Oom Paul Kruger has once more definitely abandoned his proposed visit to America. He is evidently still fishing for an invitation to come. The national campaign is too far off however and the Democrats are short of funds and so Mr. Kruger will have to abandon definitely his visit to the United States a few times more before American political leaders will take any serious notice of his intentions.

An investigation of the surgeon general of the marine hospital service shows that there are at least a thousand lepers in the United States. New Orleans alone has a hundred lepers, some of them members of the best families of the city. Leprosy is a very enemy of the public safety in the United States even more dreadful than the great white plague of tuberculosis and the government should be very prompt and firm in dealing with the disease which if it once gets a strong foothold can not be eradicated.

The Philadelphia press is authority for the statement that a million dollars was spent in the last Pennsylvania legislature in manipulating the same. Now if the press give facts and figures and state who spent the money, who the men were that it was spent with, people might take some interest in such a statement.

It is to be hoped that the union iron workers of western Pennsylvania and the steel trust will come to some understanding. A prolonged strike would bring much distress to many innocent women and children. It would be a fight between starvation, on part of the workmen, and a loss of dividends for a year or two, on part of the steel magnates. It is easy to tell which side could hold out longest under those circumstances.

The administration at Washington has come to the decision that it would be unwise to have the coming congress pass a new tariff bill. The Dingley tariff has worked well and there is really no call for tariff tinkering at this time. The day will come undoubtedly when the present tariff law should be amended in order to bring it up-to-date, but for the present the Dingley tariff is good enough for this country as is shown by the prevailing prosperity in industrial circles.

The uninterrupted sunshine and the lack of rain have thus far caused $400,000,000 damage in Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas. Storage reservoirs and irrigation systems would have saved a large part of that vast wealth. If the money that is lost every year in one part or the other of the arid and semi-arid west on account of drought were applied to the building of reservoirs and irrigation canals, a crop failure would soon be a very rare occurrence and the west would indeed become the granary of the world.

The periodical slumps on the New York stock exchange as well as on the foreign exchanges serve to put a wholesome check on over speculation. These declines in stock make investors wary and cause them to look around for other investments for their money than the stock market. The great undeveloped resources of the southwest cry out for capital and while much money finds its way to this part of the country for the development of mines and agricultural resources there is place here for the profitable investment of many million dollars more.

The railroad companies of the west are greatly relieved because the Santa Fe railway management has decided not to inaugurate a rate war, but shippers are in mourning for they had already counted on a big slash in freight rates. A freight rate war however would have spelled ruin to a number of railroads and might have caused such a disturbance in business and investment circles as to do much harm especially in the undeveloped regions of the southwest in which much railroad building is in progress and where such great railroads as the Santa Fe are expending large sums in track and other improvements.

The El Paso smelter cannot resume until January owing to the fire which destroyed it in part. In the meanwhile the mines of southern New Mexico which had been accustomed to send their ore to El Paso must suspend operations or place their ore on the dumps as the Silver City smelter handles all the ore it can possibly treat.

The Cerrillos smelter ought to be ready for business by this time and should make a bid for the ore from southern New Mexico. If the railroad companies would make the proper rates south of the ore that now goes outside of the territory and in the official statistics is credited to Colorado or Texas might be treated in the territory at a profit to the mine owners as well as to the smelter management.

Germany has calmed down after her threat to inaugurate a tariff war against the United States. Fate seems against the Germans. So serious is the shortage in the German crops this year that it has been made the subject of a special report to the state department by Consul General Mason at Berlin.

It seems that not since 1893 have the Prussian wheat fields made so poor a showing. The winter wheat crop of Prussia, which was 2,245,515 metric tons in 1890, will this year not exceed 1,192,000 tons, leaving a deficit of 1,053,515 tons, which, at $41.65 a ton, would cost $43,732,500 to replace with imported grain. Moreover, 11 per cent of the whole area of Prussian rye fields has been winter killed and plowed up, and the deficit of rye at $34.51 a ton will require $4,514,000 to replace from foreign countries. In Prussia alone, therefore, there is this year a deficit of $67,246,500.

In the other divisions of the German empire the wheat and rye crops are also short ones, though perhaps better than those of Prussia. Last year the whole German empire produced 12,291,000 tons of grain, which could be used for bread, and it imported 1,816,000 tons. Germany, of course will require a great deal more this year, and it is a most inopportune time for the German agrarians to insist on "putting the screws" on American commerce.

It is now safe to assume that another year at least must pass before Germany will dare to erect any added tariff barriers against the cheap and excellent grain surplus of the United States. We could get along very well without German manufactures, because we could make them. German goods ourselves. But without American foods and raw materials the German working people would go hungry, and many German factories go idle. Our American position in any industrial conflict is one of overwhelming advantage.

It Will Surely Come.

(Socorro Chieftain.)

Governor Otero has been appropriately inaugurated for a second term and the voice of opposition is still stifled. Now let New Mexico continue to develop her resources as she has in the past and it will be but a short time until congress will be proffering statehood instead of lending an impatient ear to appeals for that boon.

HON. M. R. OTERO

Register of the U. S. Land Office in Santa Fe.

Hon. Manuel R. Otero, register of the United States land office in Santa Fe, is quiet and unassuming but yet of great strength of character and a prominent and progressive citizen of the territory.

He was born in 1841 in the little town of Peralta, in the county of Valencia, the county which has steadfastly and solidly voted for the Republican party since the organization of that party in the territory and has never faltered or wavered in that course.

His father was Judge Antonio Jose Otero and his mother was Francisco Chavez, both descendants of illustrious Spanish families who were among the early settlers of New Mexico. His father was associate justice of the first supreme court of the territory of New Mexico, and presiding judge of the third judicial district. His mother was a daughter of Hon. Francisco Chavez, governor of the province of New Mexico under the Spanish government.

Mr. Otero received a classical education at St. Louis University and was in the senior class about to graduate when he was called home on account of the death of his mother. He entered one political arena soon afterward and held many positions of trust and honor. He was probate clerk of Valencia county for four consecutive terms, probate judge for one term, deputy sheriff for one term and was a prominent candidate for the Republican nomination for delegate to congress in 1882, when the Republican party nominated the Hon. Tranquilino Luna for that position. During that campaign Mr. Otero gave valuable and strong support to the Republican candidate for delegate.

Mr. Otero was appointed register of the United States land office in this city by President McKinley. He has proved himself a most efficient, capable and honest official and in every respect merits reappointment. Mr. Otero is happily married and has a family of bright sons and daughters, one of his daughters being the wife of Hon. Solomon Luna, member of the National Republican committee from New Mexico, and one of the leading citizens and largest stock owners in the territory.

Mr. Otero is a first cousin of Governor M. A. Otero, his father Judge Antonio Jose Otero and Governor Otero's father, the Hon. Miguel A. Otero, having been brothers. The people of the territory who have known Mr. Otero and had official and personal relations with him during the past four years, are unanimously in favor of his reappointment.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.
An Ingenious Treatment by Which Drunkards Are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves—No Noxious Doses—No Weakening of the Nerves.

A Pleasant and Positive Cure for the Liquor Habit.
It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands! Children cure your fathers! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the cure administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do not wait. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effective than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of $1. Address Dept. D44, Edwin B. BIG RAILROAD SHOPS.
The Santa Fe Railway Company is spending $100,000 at Albuquerque.

(Topeka Journal.)
Second only in importance and cost to the new shops being built by the Santa Fe at Topeka are the new shops which are in process of construction by the Santa Fe at Albuquerque, N. M. Six buildings are being erected at Albuquerque, of which the largest is the boiler shop. In addition to this, a large machine shop is to be built. Several extensive additions to the present buildings are to be made, and the capacity of the Albuquerque shops all more than doubled. W. P. Storey, chief engineer of the Santa Fe, says of the new shops: "I was at Albuquerque recently and had the pleasure of seeing the progress which is being made on the new shops. It is a big improvement and will cost a great deal of money; not as much, of course, as the improvements which the Santa Fe is making at Topeka, but many thousands of dollars. I could not give a good estimate of what the cost of the work will be, as it is outside of my direct jurisdiction, being classed with the lines west of Albuquerque. A portion of the improvements consists of enlargements of the present shops to secure increased capacity." It is said that the improvements which are being made at Albuquerque will cost the Santa Fe about $100,000. A hundred men are at work building the new buildings and the additions to the new shops. The work will probably not be completed till fall.

Vance is Certainly Not Popular.
(Carlsbad Argus.)
D. M. White, of Santa Fe, is in the field as a candidate for surveyor general of the territory. The present incumbent, Quinby Vance, is not a popular official, and it is announced that he will not be reappointed.

Knock-Out Drops

"I am a saloon-keeper, and used to think that rock and rye, or whiskey and quinine were proper remedies for colds and coughs. Most of my acquaintances were of the same opinion. Now I know something at least a thousand times better. It is Acker's English Remedy for Coughs and Colds. A good while ago I began to cough and found out then that rock and rye was no good. I got worse and I was beginning to think that the trouble would run into consumption. I didn't take any stock in patent medicines, but somehow or other I tried Acker's English Remedy. One bottle did the business for me—knocked that cough out completely—and it has never come back again. There is never a day passes that I don't say a good word about this wonderful medicine. I almost forgot to say that I am stronger and healthier now, since taking the remedy, than I was before the cough began. I write this letter voluntarily and cheerfully and am glad to do it." (Signed) CHAS. HUMBLE, Saloon-keeper, Pocatello, Idaho.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

No Doubt About It
(Captain Progress.)
The number of new companies that are being incorporated to operate in New Mexico is one of the best evidences that the territory has more undeveloped resources than any other state or territory in the United States. All that is needed to place New Mexico among the largest mineral producing commonwealths in the Union is capital to develop the mineral deposits within its borders and it seems as though that time was not very far distant.

Persistency Counts.
(Socorro Chieftain.)
The territorial press continues to advocate steadfastness with a persistency worthy of the cause.

Now he says she's a paste diamond.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of

I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodor's Black Draught. Before I began to take your medicine I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.

THE ODD FELLOWS SEMI-CENTENNIAL.

The Event Will Be Celebrated at Santa Fe Next Week.

Indications point to the presence of several hundred visitors in Santa Fe next week for the sessions of the grand lodge of I. O. O. F. of New Mexico. Residents should decorate liberally and do all in their power to make the event a successful one. The sessions of the grand lodge will begin on Wednesday forenoon. In the afternoon a public reception will be held at the Masonic hall. In the evening the great plaza fete under the auspices of the Woman's board of trade will take place. On Thursday the grand lodge will continue its sessions. In the evening the capitol will be illuminated and a reception and entertainment will be held in the hall of representatives at which vocal and instrumental music, recitations and short orations will be the features. Friday is semi-centennial day and the parade in the forenoon as well as the commemorative ceremonies in the afternoon in the hall of representatives at the capitol will be memorable events. Governor Otero will be one of the speakers. In the evening a banquet will be held at the Palace hotel. Covers will probably be laid for 250 persons. On Saturday the closing sessions of the grand lodge will be held and places of historical interest will be visited. The special rates granted by the railway companies to Santa Fe and the energetic work of the committees in charge of the preliminary preparations insure a large attendance from the outside during next week.

Nothing Tastes Good

And eating is simply perfunctory—done because it must be. This is the common complaint of the dyspeptic.

If eating sparingly would cure dyspepsia, few would suffer from it long.

The only way to cure dyspepsia, which is difficult digestion, is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured the niece of Frank Fay, 106 N. St., South Boston, Mass., who writes that she had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia for six years; had been without appetite and had been troubled with sour stomach and headache. She had tried many other medicines in vain. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla made her well.
