A SENSATIONAL FAILURE

The Queer Way That Gaylord, Blessing & Co., of St. Louis Had of Conducting Business.

MANY FICTITIOUS PATRONS

The Firm Hypothecated With the Banks Securities Left With Them as Collateral by Their Customers—The Shortage is $150,000.

St. Louis, Mo., July 16.—Sensational admissions have been made on the stand by Samuel A. Gaylord, the senior member of the firm of Gaylord, Blessing and Co., brokers, which failed recently. Gaylord admitted at the hearing before Bankruptcy Referee Coles, that the firm had been practically insolvent for two years and had been doing business on funds secured from their local customers. Deals wherein no stock ever changed hands, being a mere matter of book-keeping, in which the firm never forgot to charge up commissions, margins and interest, were admitted by Gaylord, who also told of the employment of real estate agents to secure the use of an inventory of their accounts. At the time they were short of cash, and over $150,000 was due to their own speculation, by which they had hoped to win out and pay off their indebtedness, which is estimated to have been nearly two hundred thousand dollars. As to the missing collateral, left with the firm by customers, attached to promissory notes, Gaylord admitted all had been hypothecated with the banks as security for loans.

CROP REPORT.

Great Heat and Drouth Have Done Considerable Damage.

With an almost entire absence of rain, the crops in the region named have been subjected to the most unfavorable conditions. In the states lying immediately eastward of the Mississippi river very high temperatures also prevailed, but the heat has been less intense and its effects are not so serious as in the districts westward. The corn crop as a whole in the great corn states of the central valleys has materially deteriorated and sustained serious injury over the western portion of the corn belt, especially in Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas and the territories.

He came in from Lamy on the train last evening. This afternoon the party will leave for Albuquerque where a meeting will be held to make final arrangements for the preliminary work for the construction of the Santa Fe-Albuquerque and Pacific railway. The route from Albuquerque to Santa Fe by way of San Pedro has been gone over carefully by the party with Engineer A. G. Kennedy of Hillsboro, and also the route from Pinos Wells to Santa Fe, which will be first built.

Senator Andrews was non-committal as to a definite statement of the future plans of the company which will be determined upon at the Albuquerque meeting.

Hon. W. S. Hopewell appeared hopeful that the project would soon become a reality. He also spoke of the mining interests in Sierra county. He said that a revival of the mining industry around Hillsboro is evident. CITY COUNCIL.

Considerable Important Business Was Transacted at Its Meeting Last Night.

The city council met last evening with Aldermen Dudrow, Hersch, Sena, Lacombe and Rodriguez and the mayor present. The accounts of the last quarter were ordered paid 80 cents on the dollar, excepting the bill for water by the Santa Fe Water and Light company for which by an oversight no appropriation had been made by the previous city council.

The marshal was notified to stop ball playing on thoroughfares and to prosecute vigorously all who persisted in playing ball on the streets.

Property owners who have tapped the Palace avenue sewer are to be compelled to pay for the connection they have made. In the future the sewer dare not be tapped without the consent of the mayor.

The police hours were arranged from noon to midnight and from midnight to noon, the marshal and the policeman having the privilege to change off with each other.

The city council decided that while it has no right to order the payment of outstanding warrants, yet if the holders of such warrants secure judgment against the city, the city council will have the right to pay those judgments.

The secretary was instructed to see to the strict collection of the bicycle tax, the dog tax and the marshal was ordered to enforce the law passed by the last legislature in reference to houses of prostitution within the city limits.

It was also found that the law regarding the construction of sewers permits the laying of assessments on abutting property owners for the construction of sewers. The Water street sewer will probably be built upon that basis.

The clerk was instructed to secure a receipt upon the back of the bill for each bill paid for the purpose of filing it.

The matter of numbering the houses and blocks of the city as a preliminary to securing free mail delivery for Santa Fe will be acted upon at the next meeting as will also the matter of pardoning city prisoners.

It is reported that an American Syndicate may buy a leading line of British ships, conduct it in our usual style and carry an important part of the world's commerce with it. It is also a great blood purifier and should be in every household. Don't fail to try it.

He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by all druggists.

With a Grievance.

"I understand you whipped my boy this morning," the angry father said, striding into the schoolroom after the children had been dismissed. "Yes, sir, I did," the terrified teacher answered. "But I did not whip him severely."

"That's what I'm kicking about," he rejoined. "You didn't hurt him at all. Now, look here, sir. I'm one of the largest taxpayers in this school district, and my boy is entitled to as good a whipping as you give any other boy. Understand that! If you slight him again you'll hear from me in a way you won't like. Good afternoon, sir!"—Chicago Tribune.

Both Indignant.

"See here!" cried the irate politician, "you called me a trickster and a jobber in your paper."

"Yes," replied the editor, "I discovered that misprint just this moment. I have sent for the guilty compositor to come here and explain."

"Oh, come off. You can't shift this blame on him."

"What! Why, you idiot, don't you suppose I know what I wrote? I made it a 'trickster' and a 'robber,' and I wrote it plain."—Philadelphia Press.

The Text She Liked.

Small Madeline is something of a humorist. The other day she came home from church in a highly pleased frame of mind.

"Oh, mamma!" she said, "you just ought to have been at church to-day. The preacher had such a good text; just the kind I liked."

"What was it, Madeline?" asked mamma.

Seriously answered small Madeline: "It was, 'The Lord loveth a cheerful giggler.'"—Bathmore Methodist.

The Power of Song.

"Now, darling, will you grant me one favor before I go?"

"Yes, George, I will," she said, dropping her eyelashes and getting her lips in shape. "What is the favor I can grant you?"

"Only a little song at the piano, love. I am afraid there is a dog outside waiting for me, and I want to scare him away."—Tit-Bits.

Flocks of Fantasies.

Hicks—Yes, Wilkins is a mind reader. You know Hilary, the crazy man? Well, the other day he was crazier than usual, and then got drunk, to boot. And we set Wilkins to work reading his mind.

Pretty

Is an adjective which seems to have become monopolized by the young lady at the typewriter. It is astonishing what an array of beautiful women are found in stores and offices. In fact, the typical American beauty will be found sitting at the typewriter rather than loitering in the park.

And yet this pretty young girl needs always to be reminded that "beauty is only skin deep," unless it roots in health.

When the health is undermined by women's diseases, the luster soon passes from the eyes, the cheeks grow thin, the body loses its plumpness.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures diseases which weaken women and which destroy their strength and beauty. It establishes regularity, stops weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, prostration and menorrhagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Fannie Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "I had not needed it for a few years past, but I should ever have a return of the old trouble would surely try. Favorite Prescription." I have recommended it to a number of my ladies. I always tell them to try a bottle, and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it."

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW. Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color also his eyes and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by Fischer Drug Co.
