EXPLOSION.

Dynamite Exploded in New York Tunnel.

Two Killed and Seventy-Five Persons Injured.

Corn and Oats Cause Panic in Chicago Board of Trade.

MERGER B. FORE SUPREME COURT.

New York, Jan. 27.—An explosion of dynamite occurred in an excavation for the new rapid transit tunnel, Park avenue and Twenty-second street. At least two persons were killed. The number of injured is estimated at 75, many pedestrians being hurt by flying debris and falling glass. J. Roderick Roberts Nelson, B. C., guest of the Murray Hill hotel, was killed in his room. The other person killed was a workman in the tunnel whose name is learned to be Carroll. Lamp posts were knocked down, pedestrians cut by falling glass, windows shattered, and cab horses thrown to the ground. Murray Hill hotel suffered the most. Through the windows huge pieces of timber known as "nodding" beams, were sent as if arrows.

All the workmen within several blocks Fortieth street were hurt. Hamilton Jones was blown 350 feet, was not killed, but badly cut and bruised. Only a few of the injured were badly cut.

It is reported that William Todd, section foreman, and an engineer named Thompson, were also killed. Della Maher, housekeeper at the Grand Union hotel, is reported fatally injured.

At 3:30 the police department gave out a statement placing the number of dead at five. Four were killed instantly and one died at Bellevue hospital. Fire Commissioner Sturgis said the explosion was due to the shock of a blast on the tunnel level.

OATS CORNED.

Small Panic Created on Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—A panic stared the board of trade speculators in the face when business opened, for the bottom seemingly had fallen out of oats. It all came about by a tremendous bear campaign begun by enormous liquidations in May oats. Millions of bushels were liquidated and in less than half an hour May oats fell 5 cents. Support, however, soon appeared and May recovered nearly all it had lost. After its drop from 44½ to 39½, it began to steady around 42.

James Patten, manager of Evenston, who is credited with a corner of 10,000,000 bushels of oats, the said raid was started to force him to sell out, but failed.

SUPREME COURT.

Case of Railroad Merger Pending Before the Court.

Washington, Jan. 27.—In the United States supreme court today Attorney General Douglass, of Minnesota, renewed motion for leave to file a bill of complaint on behalf of the state against the Northern Securities company in the matter of the merger of the Northern Pacific railroad with other railroads, saying that he had given notice of defendants as required by court.

Chief Justice Fuller announced that argument would be heard later in the day.

W. D. Guthrie, for the Northern Securities company, filed a brief outlining the company's position. He contended that the bill of complaint on behalf of Minnesota does not present the controversy of the civil and judicial nature, between the state and the citizen of another state justifiable in this court, and no state can call upon this court to enforce its penal or police laws in other states. The bill asks the court, he said, to restrain by injunction a citizen of New Jersey doing there acts entirely lawful according to her laws simply because these acts violated or evade or tend to circumvent the public, or penal, or police laws of Minnesota, the complainant state.

Guthrie is contending for a continuance of the policy which had prevailed, he said, during the history of the government, of allowing each state to control its own affairs without interference on the part of federal judiciary. This afternoon Attorney General Douglass made argument in support of motion for leave to file bill of complaint.

COLORADO LEGISLATURE.

Convened in Extra Session By Governor Orman.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 27.—The extra session of the legislature called by Governor Orman to pass a new revenue law and employers' liability law and to consider questions affecting corporations, etc., met at noon today. ### PROCEEDINGS OF SENATE.

Philippine Tariff Bill Taken Up and Discussed.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The Philippine tariff bill was taken up. Rawlins questioned Lodge about the acts of the Philippine commission, designed to prevent discussion of Philippine independence in the islands.

Lodge said that such acts were passed, but that they were for the purpose of suppressing the insurrection. Rawlins said they were suppression of free speech.

All the northwest is suffering from extremely cold weather, which covers all the upper lake region and Mississippi valley region, with low temperatures extending to southern portions of Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. In the farther northwest states the range of temperature is to 20 degrees below zero. Traffic has been severely impeded where the blizzard occurred.

POLICE COURT.

Quite a Gang of Hoboes Disposed Of by Judge Crawford.

The police yesterday and last night rounded up a motley crowd of tramps, and this morning Judge Crawford had the whole gang of "undesirables" up before his honor.

Several of the hoboes were marched out of the city, while the husky looking chaps who don't like to work were turned over to Street Commissioner Tierney, with the advice from the judge to "lay on the lash and make them work on the thoroughfares."

Antonio Chavez was up before the court charged with wife beating. He was given thirty days in the county jail and placed under $200 bonds to keep the peace toward his wife in the future.

The vags up before the court this morning gave the following names: Joseph Mannor, Hugh Grant, J. L. Wilson, J. Mayburg, A. A. Weyersburg, D. Desmont and J. Wilson. The latter, besides being a genuine vag, disturbed the peace and dignity of a certain neighborhood, and he will follow the cart on the streets for five days.

The Normal university at Las Vegas, the School of Mines, Socorro, and the Normal Training School at Silver City, have so far failed to comply with this duty. ### MARKET QUOTATIONS.

[Market quotations and review furnished by W. P. Metcalf, No. 5 Cromwell block, received over the private wire of Logan & Bryan, Chicago.]

New York, Jan. 27.—Market was generally dull and strong and mostly in the hands of professionals. Traders bid up some stock and forced shorts to cover. But the amount of business by commission houses was very small. Money continued easy and without much demand for it.

RANSOM OF MISS STONE.

Missoula, Mont., Jan. 27.—G. A. Bennett, formerly a prominent business man here, who for the past twelve years has been hiding from an indictment of the grand jury, on the charge of stealing cattle, was brought from Albuquerque, N. M., by Sheriff Prescott. It is said that Bennett left the state in the garb of a woman. Since then various sheriffs of this county have constantly been on the lookout for him.

NOT KNOWN HERE.

The arrest in this city of G. A. Bennett, as stated in a telegram from Missoula, Mont., is news to City Marshal McMillin and other officers of this city, and they think that Albuquerque is intended for some other town in New Mexico, possibly Alamogordo.

BENJAMIN-ARMJO.

A Marriage, Performed Several Weeks Ago, Just Comes to Light.

It has just leaked out that Harry Benjamin, son of Mrs. C. Benjamin, residing at 600 North Second street, and Miss Mamie Armijo, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mariano Armijo, are husband and wife, and that the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Bunker, pastor of the Lead Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, at the parsonage, five or six weeks ago.

For the past few days, ever since Miss Armijo went to Santa Fe to attend the approaching marriage of her brother, George Armijo, to Miss Manderfield, a rumor has been whispered among certain young people that the young lady herself was a married woman and that Harry Benjamin was the successful suitor.

This morning, the report gaining some ground, and The Citizen ready for the news, a representative of this paper called on Mr. Benjamin and the young benedict, with a smile on his face, acknowledged the deed, said he was happy, but hoped the item would be kept out of print a little longer, say until after Wednesday.

Mr. Benjamin is head clerk at the grocery store of D. Weiller & Co., and to him and wife The Citizen extends congratulations.

On the return of Mrs. Benjamin from Santa Fe, where she will attend the Armijo-Manderfield marriage on Wednesday, the happy couple will go to housekeeping in one of the Smith-Gabel cottages on South Third street.

Ben. Weiller was a passenger north this morning.

of the principal stockholders in that excellent publication.

As a rule the merchant who negis in business neglects to buy up to who is not afraid to let the people know what he carries in stock and at what prices he is willing to sell.

NATIONAL IRRIGATION.

The Clifton Copper Era says that a number of Arizona papers object to the assistance of the general government in the development of water for irrigating purposes, claiming that the field of irrigation properly belongs to private individuals and companies. In this they are most decidedly mistaken.
The land is owned by the government and without irrigation it can never become valuable. There are hundreds of thousands of American citizens who can never own homes of their own unless the government provides the means for reclaiming the deserts of the west. If the work be left for private enterprise it will drag along for the next century. Even where the work has been done by private enterprise the annual water rental has been fixed at a price which is a hardship on the land owners. At least this is the case in many, perhaps a majority of cases. Aside from the duty of the government to provide homes for the people on the public domain, it is only fair that the west should have some direct benefit from the vast sums spent annually by the government on consistent improvements along the sea coasts,

and in the rivers, harbors and canals.
Hundreds of millions of dollars are spent for such purposes, from which the great arid region of the west practically receives no benefit. If it be proper for the government to open up rivers and harbors, it is eminently right and proper that it should provide the means of reclaiming the millions of acres of desert lands that her citizens may have homes, build cities and establish a new empire beyond the humid regions of the east. A very small proportion of the money spent to maintain an army in the Philippines, would annually provide homes for thousands of American citizens. The plan for government irrigation should receive the encouragement of all western newspapers, and in fact every citizen in the west.

STATEHOOD FOR TERRITORIES.

Governor N. O. Murphy of Arizona, in the current number of the Independent, makes a strong plea for the admission of the territories to statehood. Governor Murphy does not plead for the territory of Arizona alone, but gives plenty of reasons
why New Mexico and Oklahoma should also share statehood rights.
"Occasionally misinformed citizens of territories have declared themselves as opposed to statehood on the ground of economy," says Governor Murphy, "claiming that the maintenance of a state government would increase taxation to a burdensome degree. The history of the admission of every state in the Union, except Nevada, disproves this theory; the increase in population and taxable wealth as a rule far more than com-pensates for the increased expense.
With statehood all kinds of property would increase in value. It is believed that the people would be more careful in the selection of legislators and other public officers; a more thorough system of assessing and collecting taxes would be adopted, and the cost of government would be correspondingly reduced."

Governor Murphy has made his plea on broad grounds and has shown that the territories do not knock at the doors of the nation as mendicants, says the Denver Republican, but as rich, powerful commonwealths, demanding their rights. There is no questioning that he echoes the sentiments of the majority of the citizens of the territories, which is the main thing to be considered by congress.
Heretofore the chief stumbling block in the way of the territories has been the indifference of their own residents to the question of statehood. Now this has been removed, as recent territorial conventions have indicated, and there should be no delay about ending the territorial form of government in the United States.

INAUGURATION DAY.

Advices from Washington announce that the governors of the various states have been invited by the commissioners of the District of Columbia to co-operate with them in bringing about an amendment to the constitution providing for a change in the date of the presidential inauguration.

It is proposed to change the date of inauguration from March 4 to April 30
on account of the inclement and disagreeable weather which prevails in Washington during March and which has so often marred the ceremonials incident to the day. The revival of the movement at this time will have the cordial support of the people, particularly those who have been participants in the outdoor pageants at presidential inaugurations or have journeyed to the capital to witness them.

GREENBACK PROBLEM.

With reference to the retirement of the greenbacks, it is proposed that the government redeem them in gold.
This would be an expensive plan to prevent frauds on the gold reserve
as the amount of outstanding greenbacks run into the hundreds of millions. Another proposition is to authorize the national banks to issue
as the amount of outstanding greenbacks, to be redeemed in gold. It is also proposed to authorize the banks to impound the greenbacks and deposit them in the treasury to be held against the currency put in circulation, thus practically retiring the greenbacks and breaking the endless chain.

STATEHOOD QUESTION.

The Washington correspondent of The Citizen says:

Governor Otero, Solomon Luna, W.
H. H. Llewellyn, F. A. Hubbell, G. W.
Prichard and others have been doing great work for New Mexico for the past month, particularly for statehood,
and it is believed that after the hearing on February 7, the house committee on territories will report favorably on the bill for the admission of New Mexico. In the convention of adjutant generals, from thirty odd states, it was generally conceded that Adjutant General Whiteman, of New Mexico,
has prepared the best bill presented,
and he was shown great consideration, but as the administration had prepared a bill he did not press his bill in opposition.

"Oklahoma had its hearing today for statehood before the house committee on territories. Some want statehood for Oklahoma alone; others for Oklahoma and Indian Territory; others want a territorial government for Indian Territory; some again want nothing done for two or three years.
There is a serious doubt if Oklahoma gets as favorable consideration as New Mexico. There should be a big delegation here on February 7 to work for statehood without fail and should have a good sized contingent fund to work with. Arizona will have its hearing for statehood January 30. Governor Murphy and others are here to work for that territory."

Remarkable Cure of Croup—A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today. Joel Demont,

Mines and Minerals

A Russian "pood" of gold is $10,000.

The average California loss of quick-silver is about one pound to every fifty tons of ore.

The force in the mine and mill at Albemarle has been reduced considerably. It will be but temporary.

Mining in the Cochiti district will be attracting attention from all parts of the country before many weeks are past.

John Sevier, for sometime past employed as assayer for the company at Albemarle, has left for San Diego, Cal.

Limestone is a "mineral" within the meaning of the United States mining law, and may be located and patented as a mining claim.

The Golden Fleece mine tunnel, near Lake City, Colo., is lighted by electricity, incandescent lamps being set 100 feet apart through its entire length.

The first gold mine in the United States is stated to have been the Barringer, Stanley county, North Carolina, a placer mine that later paid as a quartz claim.

A mining location made by agent without actually going on the claim to post the notice is legal. If signed by the locator, an agent can post it on the claim and witness the posting.

Frank Powers, owner of the World's Fair mine, telegraphs the Tucson Star that he has not sold that mine, as was reported some time ago. The report was in general circulation that the mine had passed into the hands of John Brockman for a consideration of $500,000.

The Michigan-New Mexico Copper company is getting out some fine copper ore from its properties in the Burros and Lordsburg mining districts in Grant county. In the Virginia district property the ore runs 15 per cent copper and in the Burros district 11 per cent copper, with a few dollars worth of gold and silver per ton in both.

Lambert & Peterson have returned to Cooney, Socorro county, from their tellurium gold prospect on the Little Dry creek and have resumed work on the iron group on the Whitewater slope. A crosscut at the bottom of a seventy foot shaft, sunk at the junction of the Iron Crown and Iron Bar veins, shows a width of mineral for seventeen feet which will average $20 to the ton.

A number of mining capitalists and brokers have visited Lake Valley the last week. Among them was Mr. Jeffries, a mining man and expert from Leadville, Colo.; Mr. Mululen, a banker from Colorado Springs, and Mr. Dale, a mining man of vast experience and who is backed by unlimited capital. They left Lake Valley on Friday for El Paso and expect to return within the next thirty days and commence operations on property adjoining the Mines company.

The White Oaks Eagle says that the mining situation at Estey City is improving right along. The Estey City Milling company has something like 2,000 tons of gold ore on the dump awaiting the completion of their reduction plant, and just recently the company opened a thirty foot vein which gives every promise of permanency. There are many leads near the surface containing pay ore in large quantities, and the company has adopted the contract plan in mining this surface ore. Other work in the camp is being vigorously pushed, and the outlook for 1902 is indeed bright.

The Herald says: Bland, like most other mining camps, experiences periods of comparative dullness. But these spells are merely temporary and often come to manufacturing and commercial cities as well. The future of Bland as one of the leading mining towns of the southwest is assured, for the money already expended in developing and prospecting its vast ore bodies, the machinery that has gone into the mills, and the large expenditures made for the thorough exploiting of its mineral wealth are assurances that the camp is not one built by a temporary boom, to be forgotten as soon as richer ore deposits are discovered elsewhere.

IN A NEW SPHERE.

The New Woman as an Active Superintendent of a Big Mine.

There are many trades, professions and business enterprises in which woman is represented in this day and generation, and often with marked success and eminent distinction. There are numerous cattle queens, plenty of women who own or have a controlling interest in mining properties, and occasionally a woman with pick and shovel braves the hardships of a new mining district, and favored by her lucky star strikes it rich and comes out with a fortune. But it is something quite unusual for a woman to take hold of a producing mining property, look after the details of the work—assume at once the duties of owner, superintendent and manager of a mine. But this is just the position occupied at the present time by Mrs. W. D. Luce, who with her husband owns the Castle Dome lead mines, located 30 miles northeast of Yuma. Mr. Luce, on account of bad health, was compelled to give up the management of the property some months ago and seek a change of climate. Since that time his wife has had the entire management of the property and has been remarkably successful. She acts in the capacity of superintendent and knows every detail of the mining operations, besides looking after the ore shipments and attending to every interest of the property as cheaply as her husband. Mrs. Luce is in reality a mining expert; there is no crook or turn in handling a mine of which she has not a practical knowledge, and few are the mining terms, scientific or otherwise, which she has not at her tongue's end. The Castle Dome property is the only exclusive lead proposition being operated in the territory, and is understood to be making its owners some money.—Yuma, Arizona, Sentinel.

WINSLOW NEWS.

Elks Will Give a Ball—Scarlet Fever Scare—Other Items.

Special Correspondence.
Winslow, Ariz., Jan. 26.—Frank Zuck, formerly of Holbrook, has opened a butcher shop in Winslow in the Booth block and is doing a good business. Another butcher shop has been needed here and the people of Winslow welcome Mr. Zuck and wish him prosperity.

The B. P. O. E. lodge, No. 536, has decided to spend some of their surplus money in the treasury by giving a grand ball on the night of February 14. This ball is for Elks, and two visitors each and will be one of the grandest affairs of the season. Invitations and no charge at the door will be the order.

Judge Mahoney says business is slack this week. He has not a case in court.

We understand that Mrs. Harry Simms, of Albuquerque, and formerly of this city, intends returning and opening up a millinery store—a business much needed here. Come; we all wear hats.

School closed down this week on account of the scarlet fever scare, but there doesn't seem to be any reason for it, as the disease is still confined to two places in town and well taken care of by Drs. Sampson and Tillet.

Professor Mickey is taking advantage of his little vacation and is getting his house and lot fenced.

Harry Anderson, the brickmaker, is putting an addition to his house. Harry will have a good house when done.

Harry Burbage, Navajo county's legal talent, and president of the Navajo county bank, was made glad this week by the return of his wife, who brought with her their son, Teddy, who has been in the hospital at Kansas City for nearly a year, undergoing operations caused by rheumatism. We were glad to see Teddy doing so well and hope he will continue to get better.

The round house whistle sounded the alarm of fire Thursday about noon. On investigation it was found that a pile of ties was on fire back of the round house. By the prompt action of the company's fire brigade the fire was not allowed to spread.

Winslow lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., has decided to improve the looks of their lodge room by having the same re-papered and lighted. Accordingly they have ordered a new gas machine and are having the hall piped for gas, and when done this lodge room would be a credit to any city of larger size, and second to none in the territory.

More Harmful Than Alcohol

Overeating Worst Form of Intemperance.

If your food is undigested, you are underfed, no matter how much you eat. And the underfed man is, to the extent of the underfeeding, crippled for the battle of life. On the other hand, there is such a thing as overeating. The harm done by indigestion caused by overloaded stomachs exceeds that from the increased heart beats caused by the use of alcohol or whiskey.

Eat as much good food as you need but don't overload the stomach. If your stomach is weak it may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you ought to use a good digestant like Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics contained in Kodol Dyspepsia Cure soon restore health. You don't have to diet. Don't eat too much. That's harmful. But eat enough and of sufficient variety. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest it. It quickly relieves the sensation of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. It prevents belching and absolutely cures indigestion and other stomach troubles. Equally good for children.

Lemuel James, Marysville, O., says: "I suffered from dyspepsia for thirty years but a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure completely cured me and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers from this disease."

GRAVEL WALKS.

Editors Citizen.

There seems to be a misapprehension relative to gravel walks on the part of some. They say that gravel is difficult to walk on, etc. Certainly loose gravel is, but a lot of loose gravel thrown on the ground is not a gravel walk, as is a lot of cement thrown along the street is not a cement walk. Gravel walks, as those of other materials, should be constructed according to plans and specifications, and then they should be nearly as hard and smooth as cement walks and are much more durable.

The street or walk should be filled nearly to grade just the same as for cement or brick walks, and then either brick or plank curbing should be put in, then filled with common soil; then add a good coating of adobe or clay and on this spread your gravel. Now sprinkle and pack or roll hard and then remove all surplus gravel and, if properly made, the walk can be swept the same as any other, and it can be used during a shower with not as much danger of getting wet feet as from cement or plank.

I would have no more wooden walks, as they are very unsanitary, unsightly and only temporary, while the street is not filled or improved in the least.

Certainly, if the owners desire to put in cement or brick, it should be permitted but not plank.

Messrs. Field, Pearce, Bryan, Torrill and I have gravel walks and they answer every purpose.

Almost anyone can build or repair gravel walks, while only experts at much cost can build or repair cement. Not a dollar goes out of the city for gravel or brick, while thousands go out never to return for cement.

A Famous Shop in the Carrollton Hotel at Baltimore, Md.

The barber shop in the Carrollton hotel at Baltimore sterilizes everything it uses in the shop. The sterilizing is done by heat. The towels, the razors, the strops, the soap, the combs and brushes are all sterilized before being used on a customer. Where there is no sterilization, have the barber use Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the dandruff germ and it is an antiseptic for the scalp and for the face after shaving. All leading barbers everywhere appreciate these potent facts about Herpicide and they use it. ## CHICKEN INDUSTRY.

The Citizen's Poultry Editor Gives His Views.

TOUCHING INCUBATION.

The chicken industry has been sadly neglected in New Mexico. No farmer, gardener, ranch owner and resident with a little lot of ground should not be without a flock of chickens. They are not only good to lay eggs and produce meat, but are useful in a great many other ways. To the city resident they are health officers to a certain extent; they pick up all the crumbs that are swept off of the table; they consume all the refuse around the premises, and keep your lawn, fruit and shade trees free from insects and vermin. A hen is as good around the barn as a good cat to keep away the mice and roaches. They also pulverize and refine the manure for the garden and save all the grain wasted by the stock. A small flock turned in a garden plot in the spring will not only rid the ground of insects but will fertilize the soil. The territory imports every year something like twenty thousand cases of eggs and fifteen thousands pounds of flesh. Statistics show that the Kansas hen produced more wealth in the last ten years than has the wheat crop. Eggs sell as low there as six cents a dozen, while here ranch eggs are never worth less than twenty-five cents a dozen. We pay in the winter thirty and thirty-five cents for eggs that are bought in Kansas in the summer for six and seven cents. The produce business in Kansas has become one of the leading industries. Cold storage and ice plants are found in all the large cities. These institutions send buyers to the country towns where they establish shipping stations. These shipping stations send buyers into the country to gather the produce from the farmers who get cash or grocery scrip in exchange. In a great many cases the farmer's wife keeps up the table with the proceeds from the flock and has enough over at the end of the year to buy Christmas presents. The farmer has realized a good profit. The country buyer gets a good commission, and sub-station agent gets a good salary. When the eggs reach the cold storage house they are tested before being put away to keep until they can be sold at a good profit. They are tested again and shipped to their final destination. At each test eggs showing the least speck are culled out and sold as seconds. By the time the eggs reach this territory they have passed through a half dozen different persons hands, and each one has made a reasonable profit.

INCUBATION.

The incubator has proven equal to the hen in only a few cases, and in these cases no expense has been spared in preparing for the hatching and brooding of little chickens. At St. Joseph, Missouri, the Armour people have a chicken ranch which is said to be the finest in the United States. It is not so difficult to hatch the eggs if they are healthy, as it is to brood and raise them to a sturdy age.

The brooder of a small scale which has proved the most successful is a cemented cellar with glass on the south slant of the roof. The heat is furnished by an oil lamp or stove which are easily regulated.

CAPONS FOR PROFIT.

This branch of the chicken business has been found to be the most profitable. A capon is a castrated rooster. The operation can be performed by anybody with good eyes and a little practice. Instruments can be had at most any of the large eastern cities at a cost of about $3 a set. A book of instructions can be obtained with each set of instruments. The operation is best performed when the cockerel is about six weeks old and weighs about one and a half pounds. The chicken then grows to an extra large size, gets very fat. The flesh of the capon is finer than that of a hen and brings a much better price.

The Plymouth Rock is considered the best all purpose chicken because of its quick growth, size, quality of flesh, quiet manners and are sturdy when young. The Langshang breed is considered the best for caponizing purposes, because their bones are prominent and they have very few feathers at the age for operation.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird, of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly. ## Big Damage Suit.

Attorney E. L. Medler, on behalf of Ernest A. Tietjen and F. G. Nelson, residents of Bluewater, New Mexico,
today filed a suit for $25,000 damages
against the Bluewater Land and Irrigation company, whose irrigation system and lands are located also at Bluewater, New Mexico. The suit is brought on a contract entered into several years ago by the plaintiffs and defendants, by which the irrigation company agreed to furnish water to the plaintiffs to irrigate their lands.
The company, however, has failed to comply with its terms of the agreement, failing to furnish sufficient water to the plaintiffs, and using the water for its own lands. The suit will be watched with considerable interest
by people interested in irrigation enterprises. The damages alleged are loss of crops which the plaintiffs suf-fered by reason of the breach of contract.

THE GIANT SKELETON.

It Will Be Removed to Las Vegas,
New Mexico.Don Gregorio Varela and Marcellno Martinez have gone down to El nervo. They will go on to the Mesa Rica and endeavor to buy the skeleton of the human giant which was last week unearthed by Luciano Quintana.The giant would pay if brought here.
The Smithsonian people would be proud of a giant of the dimensions of this one. More particulars regarding the giant's dimensions prove the skeleton to be mastodontic. A leg is well preserved. It is eight feet in length.
The skeleton will be on exhibition in the court house yard and anthropologists are especially invited to examine it.—Optic.

A Daring Robbery.

When J. B. Hodgdon entered his store in this city last Monday morning
he found that thieves had entered through a back window during the night before and helped themselves to more than $135 worth of the best goods in the store, such as silk handkerchiefs, ladies' shoes, as well as men's of the best quality. From among the best goods they selected several pairs of pants and two or three hats, all of the best. In fact, from the goods that were taken and the direct manner in which the thieves seem to have known right where these goods were located,
without disturbing those of the cheaper grades, it is evident that they were pretty well acquainted with the whereabouts of things. There is pretty positive evidence that the robbery was committed about 10:30 in the evening, and as there is nearly always several members in the Adelphi club next door to Hodgdon's at that time in the evening, the robbery was all the more cheeky. Several clues are being closely followed, and it is more than probable that in the end some one will come to grief.—Deming Headlight.

A Most Happy Affair.

If anybody ever dreamed that being a Christian means wearing a very long face that is always overshadowed by prayer meeting looks or the walls of the damned, then they should have heard the peal on peal of laughter at the Christian Endeavor party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harris on Fourth street last night. In all the social life of this sociable little city never was a merrier assemblage of young people than this. There were games and refreshments and laughter in the richest abundance and a perpetual overflow of good cheer. Somebody says that it is true then that somebody else sprung the very bad
pun. This question was solemnly propounded. Why is Mr. Herlow like a telephone exchange switch board? Of course the answer was because he has so many bells (bells) attached to him.
—Las Vegas Optic.

Changes in the Land Office.

E. Solignac, register of the United States land office at Las Cruces, a few weeks ago sent in his resignation. It was accepted and Nicholas Galle, of Hillsboro, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Galle is well known throughout this district and the appointment is eminently satisfactory.
He will qualify for the office and take charge in a few days.Mr. Solignac will leave for the east in a short time and will soon thereafter go to France to look after the settlement of an estate in which he is interested, after which he intends to return to this section.—Donna Ana County Republican.

Difference of Opinion.

Deming has two newspapers that are edited by good fellows, but they differ
in every point, from the source of human life to the cleansing stage of sanctification. Their latest controversy is over the classification of the midwinter carnival. The Headlight intimates that the affair was a fake, while the Herald prints many affidavits of prominent citizens to prove that the show was one of great merit.—San Marcial Bee.

A Methodist Bird.

The wife of a Methodist minister in an Iowa town has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband's name was Robin, the second Sparrow and the present one Quayles. There are two young Robins, one Sparrow and three little Quayles. One might almost be forgiven for suggesting that the lady was a bird, says an exchange.

From the Republican.

Frank Alsdorf sent out two four-horse freight teams to Zuni.

Chas. Fredericks has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late John Marriott.

Mrs. C. L. Flynn, wife of the mayor of Winslow, and known in Gallup by many, is in California for the benefit of her health.

The people of the west end of the town are pleased with the action of the city fathers in placing an arc light at the intersection of Fifth street and Aztec avenue.

Sam Day, the jovial trader from Chilli, loaded 5,000 feet of lumber here for his new store building. The lumber was supplied by Contractor E. F. Kenney.

The sad news was received on the night of the 13th by Collector Spears of the sudden death from scarlet fever of his little niece, Agnes Spears. She died near Durango, Colo., and was buried the next afternoon. Her age was 7 years.

Judge Buchanan, of Zuni was here. On his return to Zuni he was accompanied by a government official. Mr. Harper who will construct a large reservoir for the Indians at a point five miles north of Zuni.

B. B. Borden and his son, Fulton, arrived here on the 14th from Albuquerque. They traveled in a wagon and came by way of the oil fields. There is so much snow between here and the divide that they concluded to lay over here for a few days until the weather is a little more suitable for prospecting.

A brief mention was given in last week's Republican of the death of a man on No. 7 coming west. An inquest was held and the following facts learned: John B. Strizek, of 2220 Carson street, South Side Pittsburg, had a ticket to San Francisco and had been drinking to excess since leaving Chicago. At Rio Puerco he had a fit and fell in the car fracturing the back of his skull. The wound was bandaged and the man made as comfortable as possible. At Bluewater when the train stopped he jumped out of the window. He was picked up and put back in the car, had another fit and died when near Chaves. The body was embalmed by Undertaker Finger and delivered to a brother of the deceased, who came from San Francisco to take it east. Strizek leaves a wife and four children at Pittsburg. He was insured in several fraternal societies.

CERRILLOS.

From the Register.

Windsor Nelson, of Las Vegas, visited at the home of G. B. Hendricks.

Mrs. J. L. Wells and S. Sperry went to Las Vegas the first of the week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Minnie Stecker.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harper came up from El Paso and visited with Mrs. Harper's father, Sol Bergmann. Mr. Harper left for Colorado Springs, Mrs. Harper remaining for an extended visit.

W. P. Gould is quite busy these days making arrangements for working his coal mines near Glorieta. We understand he has the contract of furnishing coal for the Cerrillos smelter, which will be quite a large amount when the works get to running in full blast.

Warren Graham moved his family to Albuquerque the first of the week, where they intend to make their home in the future. We regret to see Mr. Graham and his family leave Cerrillos and the best wishes of the Register go with them to their new home.

G. P. Learnard, of the firm of Hall & Learnard, music dealers of Albuquerque, was in town last Friday and Saturday delivering two pianos he had sold at Madrid. This firm has placed quite a number of instruments here and at Madrid this season and their popularity grows steadily as they handle nothing but first class goods.

BLAND.

From the Herald.

The little son of Mrs. W. H. Knight was quite ill.

Deputy United States Marshal Kase-man was up from Albuquerque on official business.

Mrs. George Carson returned from a week's visit in Albuquerque.

Will Harkey has gone to Albuquerque. Rumor has it that he will not return alone.

Miss Mabel Routledge, who has been attending school at Las Vegas, and who came home last week, will remain here and attend the Bland school.

Mrs. May Finch returned to Albuquerque Saturday. Her son, Harold, remained over in Bland until the middle of this week to superintend some packing.

Frank Franko was called to Albuquerque by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his brother.

At the church last Sunday evening, Mr. S. W. Young delivered an excellent talk on the "Different Forms of Christianity." The inclement weather prevented a larger crowd from being present to hear Mr. Young's address, but those who were there felt the force of his argument so strongly that they did not regret coming out.

Last Saturday a Herald reporter called on Joseph Routledge at his saw mill below town, and on being shown through the establishment we were surprised at what we saw therein. This is, without doubt, one of the finest and best equipped saw mills in the territory. It has a capacity of from 8,000 to 10,000 feet of lumber per day, and sometimes gives employment to as many as thirty men. The planing machine is one of the latest improved and has a daily capacity of 20,000 to 50,000 feet of dressed lumber. He also has fine lathe machinery in connection with his mill. The power for all this machinery is furnished by an up-to-date 16-horse power Hall & Brown engine. Since taking charge of the mill, Mr. Routledge has rebuilt it throughout, equipping it with only the best machinery.

FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. Bruce Kinney at his Church Last Evening.

Last night, Rev. Bruce Kinney preached his farewell sermon before a large congregation and severed his pastoral connection with the First Baptist church of this city. Out of respect to the retiring minister no evening service was held in the Congregational church, Rev. Marsh and the people of his congregation meeting with the Baptists. Rev. Kinney expects to leave tomorrow morning for Salt Lake City, and will at once enter into the home mission work, to which he has been appointed. A reception had been planned for Tuesday night, but owing to circumstances which called him away on the morning of that date the idea has been abandoned.

The resignation of Rev. Kinney leaves the First Baptist church temporarily without a pastor, but the pulp committee are in communication with two or three good men and believe they will not be long without a leader.

MARRIED AT SAFFORD.

NEW MEXICO TOWNS

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

Miss Palen contemplates a visit to friends in Las Vegas at any early date. Territorial Auditor W. G. Sargent is spending a week at his home at El Rito, Rio Arriba county.

Mrs. L. B. Prince is expected home this week from Washington, New York and other eastern points.

Mrs. Joseph E. Morrison, of Prescott, is the guest at the residence of her father-in-law, Joseph E. Morrison, on Palace avenue.

Rev. W. Hayes Moore and family arrived from Denver and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bishop.

Judge A. L. Morrison has been authorized to close the internal revenue office in this city on McKinley Day, January 29, which will fall on Wednesday of this week.

Hon. I. B. Hanna returned from the Gila forest reserve, where he spent the past few weeks on tours of inspection.

Mrs. Hallett Reynolds of Las Vegas, is visiting her brother-in-law, Territorial Secretary J. W. Reynolds, and wife at the Old Palace. She will remain until after this week.

Miss Morrison writes from Washington, D. C., that she is spending a very enjoyable time. She is a guest at the home of Mrs. O'Donahue, of Georgetown, a suburb of the national capital. The O'Donahues are prominent and old residents of Washington. Miss Margaret O'Donahue has visited in Santa Fe and is well remembered here. An "At Home" in honor of Miss Morrison was given at the O'Donahue residence, at which not less than 140 guests were entertained.

Miss Vesta McClure, daughter of Forest Supervisor and Mrs. R. C. McClure, of this city, was married on January 23, at noon, to Robert S. Mauger, of Washington, D. C., at that city. While it was known that a kindly feeling existed between the young people, yet it was not suspected that an early wedding was among the probabilities of the near future, as their acquaintanceship was comparatively recent. The bride's mother received a telegram from her within a few moments after the marriage ceremony announcing that it had taken place. Miss McClure was considered one of Santa Fe's fairest and most attractive young women since her coming from Kentucky two years ago, and her many graces brought to her a host of friends and admirers. The intimation that Miss McClure had plighted her troth a little while past to a young man of this city, is denied by her parents and associates, including the young man. Mr. Mauger is a prosperous young business man of Washington, with every prospect of continued success in his chosen career. The friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Mauger wish her a happy voyage on the untried sea on which she has set sail with the companion of her choice.

JICARILLA.

From White Oaks Eagle.

M. D. Lincoln has departed for the Gallinas mountains to look after his mining interests there. Samuel Teague went along to assist in taking a complete outfit for a stay, most likely to welcome the unexpected visitors that are likely to come as soon as the railway is completed.

U. D. Long and Thos. Wilson returned from a trip up north along the railway and brought back some good looking samples of lead and copper ore.

Richard J. Murphy visited White Oaks to replenish the larder and to have his eyes tested that he might have suitable glasses for them and be able to peruse the news and especially the doings of the United States navy, in which he served under Farragut and was at Mobile when Sigbee was engaged in the same ship. Mr. Murphy relates many things of interest that happened many years ago.

C. C. Hodges has very good pannings from the contact in a claim once called the Knickerbocker.

Lately this camp has been visited in a few instances by would-be trespassers and those in their employ. Thus far they have ceased operations, on demand of the rightful owners or agents of the properties in question. Greed of gain, ignorance, Willful and useless prevarication combined with persistence in rumored attempts to gain points hoped for, will not render such attempts in the future successful; on the contrary, only more and more contemptible, if not silly.

SOCORRO.

From the Chieftain.

Joseph Price has been confined to the house two or three days with an attack of the grip.

Aug. Winkler and family are now occupying very comfortable and cozy quarters in four newly fitted rooms in the rear of Mr. Winkler's store.

Miss Emma Bruton arrived in the city the first of the week after an absence of a year and a half in Arizona and was heartily welcomed by her large circle of friends in the city. George Kelly appeared on the street after a struggle of a month with typhoid fever. He looked as though the struggle had been a hard one, but he is now rapidly regaining his former health and strength.

Attorney and Mrs. James G. Fitch have visited Albuquerque and Santa Fe. Mr. Fitch attended the annual convocation of the Mystic Shrine in the former city and had professional business before the supreme court in the latter.

Leon B. Stern, of Albuquerque arrived in this city and returned home the next day, accompanied by his wife and child, who had been spending some time at the home of Mrs. Stern's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Price.

Dr. Duncan, accompanied by Mrs. Duncan, drove out to Snake ranch on professional business.

Superintendent Elfigo Baca is now visiting in his official capacity public schools in various parts of the county. Mr. Baca was confined to the bed two or three days early in the week with an attack of the grip, but is now on duty again.

A movement is on foot to organize a company of the National Guard in this city. As soon as a membership of thirty-five men and an armory can be assured, application will be made to the proper authorities for uniforms, guns, and other necessary equipment.

LAS CRUCES.

From Dona Ana County Republican.

Theo. Roualt, Jr., has left college to accept the position of deputy assessor for Dona Ana county.

The new orchestra will make its first appearance at the Ladies' minstrel, at Convent hall, January 31.

Miss J. B. Griffin has been compelled to abandon her college work for the present on account of her eyes. She left on last Friday for Waco, Texas, to have them treated, being accompanied as far as El Paso by her sister.

George W. Frenger was a business visitor in El Paso. While there he met his wife's mother, Mrs. Eppelsheimer, who comes from St. Louis to spend several months with her daughter.

Frank Allen, who is confined in the jail, thought he had caught the officers napping, but he soon found he was mistaken. He dug a hole through the wall and escaped about midnight. He was back in time for dinner the next day.

J. E. Moore, of Temple, Texas, was in Las Cruces. Mr. Moore is looking for a place to colonize about 100 Ohio families. He is very favorably impressed with the Mesilla valley and may conclude to bring the colony here and put in a pumping plant.

On last Wednesday evening a number of the more prominent musical people of Las Cruces and Mesilla Park met to organize an orchestra. The following are the members: Henry Stoes, first violin; Miss Clara Foster, first violin; Miss M. Griffin, first cornet; Mr. Robertson, second cornet; George W. Frenger, flute; Walter Holt, second violin; Kent Lockwood, second violin; Antonio Ruiz, trombone; Roman de la O, bass viol; Miss Lute Foster, piano; Dr. J. F. McConnell, piano; Theron C. Bennett, drums.

An Attack of Pneumonia Warded Off. "Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.

HEADS SHOULD NEVER ACHES.

Never endure this trouble. Use at once the remedy that stopped it for Mrs. N. A. Webster, of Winnie, Va. She writes, "Dr. King's New Life Pills wholly cured me of sick headaches I had suffered from for two years." Cure headache, constipation, biliousness. 25 cents at all druggists.

LAS VEGAS.

From the Optic.

Bond brothers will remove their flock of sheep, about 13,000 in number, from the vicinity of Wagon Mound down to Cabra Springs, in charge of John L. Taylor.

W. D. Pratt, of Schaefer's drug store, became the father of a bouncing babe girl. It is said that the name has already been agreed upon.

The board of trade was organized January 31, a year ago. The next regular quarterly meeting will be held the second Tuesday night in February, when a good many matters of interest will be considered.

The Methodist social was a very hearty success. There was an elegant abundance of good things to eat and good cheer, with plenty of agreeable people present to enjoy both to the fullest extent.

In the near future Las Vegas will be in circumstances to offer a bonus of several thousand acres of land for the establishment of a sugar factory in our midst.

Capt. J. C. Fort returned from Washington, D. C. It is but the truth to say that he is expecting that an Oklahoma judgeship will fall to his lot in politics. It is also stated for what it is worth that he received some endorsements at Washington for political preferment that he didn't have when he left home.

Bernard Walsh, 17 years of age, died at the Bell ranch last Friday. The body was brought to Springer, embalmed and shipped to Buena Vista, Colo., accompanied by the father of the deceased young man. Rheumatism of the heart was the immediate cause of death.

From the Record.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pratt are the happy parents of a baby girl.

Mrs. Claude Rainey and babe arrived in the city from Albuquerque.

Charles Doll was bitten in the calf of the leg by a cur dog. The injuries were not serious, but rather painful, and the dog was killed by Marshal Murphy.

Miss Louise Sporleder, who has been suffering with tonsillitis for a week, is able to be about again.

L. R. Allen, of the Optic, left on the afternoon train for El Paso, and it is currently reported that he will take charge of the mechanical department of the El Paso News.

Edward Grunsfeld and Louie Marcus, who left for a three weeks' overland trip to northern points, came in on account of some trouble with their outfit, taking a fresh start the next morning.

SAN MARCIAL.

From the Bee.

Judge Stanberry, Attorney Veeder and other attaches of the Indian reclamation claims court were transacting business in San Marcial.

On Wednesday last, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lane welcomed their sixth baby boy. The sturdy little fellows are all appreciated and this happy home is made brighter by each visitation of the kind just recorded.

While absent on their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Calhoun lost a trunk containing much valuable wearing apparel. A hotel porter got the checks mixed, and some mining man has on hand a goodly array of feminine fixtures, while the newly married couple don't know what to do with a trunk containing a miner's tools and clothes.

Thursday afternoon last, W. G. Lane came very near realizing the conditions that prevail in the world beyond. He was on a scaffold sixteen feet high at Dr. C. G. Cruickshank's new house. Believing the planking was nailed, he walked out to the extreme end while at work. It tipped up and he plunged to the ground. His head and shoulders must have divided the force of his contact with the earth. No bones were broken but he is sadly shaken up and it will be some time before he leaves his bed.

DEMING.

From the Headlight.

Miss Kirtz, one of Deming's most popular teachers in the public schools, was relieved of her pocketbook containing considerable money, while attending the carnival in El Paso.

Jim Swarts, one of the best county commissioners that Grant county ever had to look after her affairs, was a visitor in Deming. Mr. Swarts says that the Mimbres country is very quiet at present, but all are looking for a good season the coming summer.

It is authentically reported that the parties who are drilling for oil just north of this city have passed their drill through a small strata of the "genuine stuff" within the past few days. They may develop sufficient of the greasy stuff yet to enable all of Deming to slide along the road to prosperity at a forty-mile gait, who can tell?

The proprietors of the Aquarium and Cabinet saloons have turned into veritable gold bugs. At least the appearance of the fronts of those two establishments would lead one to think so. A traveling artist struck town last Wednesday and the way he spread the gold paint onto these two buildings would induce the belief that Tracey & Hannigan are millionaires.

The Secret of Long Life.

Consists of keeping all the main organs of the body in healthy, regular action, and in quickly destroying deadly disease germs. Electric Bitters regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, and give a splendid appetite. They work wonders in curing kidney troubles, female complaints, nervous diseases, constipation, dyspepsia and malaria. Vigorous health and strength always follow their use. Only 50c, guaranteed by all druggists.

SAN PEDRO.

From Cerrillos Register.

S. P. Conger, superintendent of the St. Lazarus mine, was on the sick list a few days the first of the week.

Messrs. Lofink, Hall and Aranda are taking out some fine free gold ore from the twenty-five and sixty foot levels of the McKinley mine nowadays.

By way of furnishing amusement for the society people of the camp Mrs. McCaffery gives a musicale and dance once in two weeks on Thursday evening, furnishing music with her beautiful Aeolian organ which is one of the finest instruments in the territory.

Our town came near having a destructive fire last Monday. A wood pile in the rear of Mr. Strumquist's house caught fire and with the strong wind which was blowing at the time all that prevented it from burning a large portion of the town was the prompt action of the neighbors and the fortunate location of a large cistern on the premises which furnished water to extinguish the fire.

A Reliable Remedy for Bowel Troubles. Rev. J. M. Vindling, pastor of the Bedford St. M. E. church, Cumberland, Md., says: "It affords me great pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used it and know others who have never known it to fail." For sale by all druggists.

LAMY.

From Cerrillos Register.

Angus and John McGillicray, of Chilili, were here on business.

Chas. Berlinger has moved his bridge outfit to Canoncito.

Bob Fisher has returned to Lamy after a two months' visit in Kansas City. Engineer Allee has been relieving Engineer Lane on the Santa Fe branch.

John Pfleger has gone to Las Vegas hot springs to spend a few weeks taking treatment for his rheumatism.

Mr. Long, of Chicago, has bought 3,000 sheep of Mr. McIntosh, of Chilili,

"I wrote to Dr. Pierce for his advice."

The lady, from whose letter we quote, got what she wrote for, and is a well woman to-day as a result of following Dr. Pierce's advice and using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the medicine which makes weak women strong and sick women well. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I can truthfully say that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine and deserves the praise given it," writes Mrs. Emma Spooner, of Lakewood, Montclair Co., Mich., Box 388. "I was sick four months, and the medicine prescribed by the doctors did me no good. Finally I wrote to Dr. Pierce for his advice. He answered in a very kind letter instructing me what to do. I followed his advice and today am a well woman, thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

P. J. Murphy, city marshal of Las Vegas, came in on No. 1 and arrested a negro who was wanted in that city for robbery, returning on No. 8.

The Wearing of the Green.

Those green tags on our winter goods mean that you can wear the goods that the tags are on at a much lower price than they are actually worth. Because all our winter goods must and will be sold. Simon Stern, the Railroad avenue clothier.

Mrs. Albright, the Artist, is again in her studio, 113 North Third street. Parties who wish fine work in artistic photography, should call and leave their orders, as she may leave for Europe in the near future.
