ST. LOUIS FAIR.

It Will be Postponed Till 1904.

Mexican City Severely Injured by Earthquake.

Young Couple in Illinois Commit Suicide in Tragic Way.

WILL DISCUSS METRIC SYSTEM.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, which was to have been held in St. Louis in 1903, will not take place until 1904. This fact was practically conceded by Governor Francis, president of the exposition company, and Adolph Busch, financial agent of the company, at the white house today.

Since arriving here and conferring with foreign representatives, Governor Francis and Mr. Busch have concluded that unless the exposition is postponed a year, that the exposition will not be able to secure the elaborate foreign exhibits desired. They find, for instance, that a great Japanese fair is to be given under government auspices in 1903, and that the Louisiana Purchase Exposition might not be held until 1904, was a great surprise in World's Fair headquarters here. Vice President Corwin H. Spencer, of the exposition company, said: "I have received a dispatch from President Francis, saying: 'Have not talked of postponement nor admitted it at all.'"

CAUSED SURPRISE.

St. Louis, Jan. 17.—A dispatch from Washington quoting President Francis as intimating that the Louisiana Purchase Exposition might not be held until 1904, was a great surprise in World's Fair headquarters here. Vice President Corwin H. Spencer, of the exposition company, said: "I have received a dispatch from President Francis, saying: 'Have not talked of postponement nor admitted it at all.'"

ADMIT THERE WILL BE DELAY.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17.—Governor Francis, president of the St. Louis exposition, and Adolph Busch, chairman of the committee on foreign relations of the exposition, this afternoon admitted to the Associated Press that they had made statements at the white house this forenoon regarding the date of the opening of the exposition which could be construed as meaning that delay was contemplated.

DAMAGED BY EARTHQUAKE.

Mexican City Seriously Injured by an Earthquake Shock.

Laredo, Texas, Jan. 17.—A telegram from the city of Mexico says that a telegram has reached that city announcing that the city of Chihuahua, state of Guerrero, suffered severely from yesterday's earthquake shock, and that 600 persons were killed. No details.

The shock of earthquake last evening was felt in many cities and towns of the republic. In the city of Mexico the earthquake was felt at 5:17 p. m. The first movement was one of tremor, and very sharp. It was followed by a gentle oscillatory movement north, northeast to south, southwest, the duration being 55 seconds. Beyond a few cracks in buildings, no damage was done in Mexico City.

COMMIT SUICIDE.

Young Couple in Illinois Kill Themselves in a Buggy.

Coffeen, Ill., Jan. 17.—Last night a horse and buggy stopped at Hart's livery barn. There was no driver, and in the buggy was a dead body of Miss Clifford, who lived near Donnellson, and Fred Brockman, almost dead. Each were about 20 years of age. The young lady's death was caused by an ugly wound in the temple. Brockman had shot himself twice in the head. A letter was found in his overcoat, the contents of which the officers decline to make public.

FRESH CUT FLOWERS.

IVES, THE FLORIST.

Deming will be the great smelter center. Two large plants in the center of which the officers decline to make public.

LETTER WHICH WAS FINALLY OPENED.

The letter which was finally opened was addressed: "Kind Friends, brother and sister, and signed 'Fred and Gertrude.' Brockman stated that he was in debt and meant to commit suicide.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES.

Conducted Over Remains of Mrs. Emily Harwood Today.

The funeral of Mrs. Emily Harwood occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the college building on Lead avenue, and was attended by scores of brothers and sisters of lodges of which the deceased had been a devoted and consistent member, besides the pupils of the Albuquerque college and the Harwood family. The funeral service, which was delivered by Dr. A. P. Morrison, superintendent of English mission in the territory, was a very appropriate one, and the remainder of the service was assisted in by Rev. C. A. Bonner, of Lead Avenue Methodist church, and Rev. J. B. Sanchez, of the Spanish Methodist Episcopal church. A number of hymns that had been dear to the lady in life were tenderly rendered over her remains this afternoon that peacefully reposed in the black cloth casket. The procession formed and started for Fairview cemetery, where the body of the good old lady was laid to rest until the resurrection morn.

SYMPATHY MEETING.

People of Albuquerque Asked to Attend Meeting Saturday Night.

Tomorrow night at the Raynolds public library hall on East Railroad avenue, a mass meeting of the people of Albuquerque is called, and as the meeting is for the purpose of securing names to petitions, asking that the bloody war against the Boers in South Africa, be ended, it is hoped that the meeting will be a large and interesting gathering of the people of the city.

Commandant W. D. Snyman, who served sixteen months in the field over General De Wet, and who opposed over here on his way to the Pacific coast cities, will be present to address the meeting.

Hon. O. N. Harrison, mayor of the city, has consented to call the gathering to order.

The funeral was conducted this afternoon. Both children were stricken with fever several days ago. The funerals were in charge of J. W. Edwards and interments were made in Barrios cemetery.

LECTURE ON CLIFF DWELLERS.

George L. Cole, the professor who has visited the ruins of the cliff dwellers in this territory during the past few years, and studied the characteristics of the ancient people, gave a splendid lecture last night at the railroad men's reading room. One hundred and fifty stereoscopic views were presented, which greatly assisted the speaker in explaining the customs of the people at that far distant date. Mr.

BOER LOSSES.

Death Rate in Concentration Camps.

Steamer Beached on Lake Michigan.

Trial of Dr. Krause for Treason in Progress in London.

DEATH OF NOTED ENGINEER.

London, Jan. 17.—The blue book issued today on the subject of concentration camps in South Africa contains reports detailed from Lord Milner, British high commissioner, and Lord Kitchener, as to the causes of excessive death rate in the camps, and reports that all passengers were taken off the Boer Marquette steamer No. 3 this morning in safety. The steamer lies a short distance north of the harbor entrance.

PASSENGERS RESCUED.

Lodding, Mich., Jan. 17.—The Boer Marquette steamer No. 3, which was beached on the shore of the harbor early today while attempting to enter in a high south-east gale and was cut in nine feet of water. Signals of distress were immediately blown and a life-saving crew quickly responded. By daylight there was a line 200 feet long stretched from the pier to the steamer and the breeches buoy apparatus was ready for use. Over this line the nine passengers, four women, and a crew of thirty-five were safely taken in the breeches buoy in two hours. Great waves broke over them and all were drenched by the water when they arrived on the pier.

TRIAL FOR TREASON.

Former Governor of Johannesburg Being Tried in London.

London, Jan. 17.—The trial of Dr. Krause, former governor of Johannesburg, on the charge of inciting Cornelius Broekman, public prosecutor of Johannesburg, to murder John Douglas Foster, English lawyer, who was the staff of Lord Roberts, opened at the Old Bailey today.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty. The solicitor general, Sir Edward Henry Carson, proceeded to detail the facts already testified to in the police court. Broekman, whom Dr. Krause is alleged to have incited to murder Foster, was executed by the British in South Africa.

NOTED ENGINEER DEAD.

New York, Jan. 17.—John P. Ward is dead. He had been ill three weeks with septic pneumonia. Ward had been a civil and mechanical engineer and inventor more than forty years, having taken out patents in all parts of the United States. He was chief engineer of the South Gila canal of Arizona in 1894.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Henry Hall and wife, and W. G. Caldwell and wife from Tazewell, Mich., are in the city, and Col. E. W. Spencer was this morning convincing the victors that Albuquerque was by all odds the best city in the southwest.

Yesterday the Metropolitan saloon, corner of First street and Railroad avenue, was sold by Bacheval and Glom to S. C. Berry. The latter has assumed possession and in the future will conduct a first class place in every respect.

Paul Yriarri, who is ranching out in the Eastview neighborhood of Valencia, has been in the city purchasing supplies. He says the country needs a big snow or rain, either will be acceptable by the ranchmen and stock raisers, as the water holes are drying up and grass is getting scarce.

Last year, by actual count, 283 Albuquerque citizens took in the carnival at El Paso, and although that city sent up in return to Albuquerque merely a handful of people to the Territorial fair last October, the people of Albuquerque laid aside their dislike of El Paso and went in a crowd, and are again in force, in large numbers, at the El Paso carnival. The local ticket agents reports over 200 tickets sold to Albuquerque people for El Paso since Monday night last.

Bert Jones, known in base ball circles as "Lefty" Jones, writes to his friend, Ben Bothe, that his right leg is in good shape, and he hopes to do fine work with the Philadelphia National league team the coming season. Bothe, who would rather see a good game of base ball than eat a fine lemon pie or drink a glass of Jersey sweet milk, gives it as his opinion that Bert Jones will prove one of the best and most effective pitchers of the National league the coming season.

New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.
FRIDAY, JAN. 17.

"Col. Tom Smith, of Virginia, is in Washington looking after New Mexico affairs.

New Mexico should have a large delegation in Washington on February 7, which time the statehood bill will be given a hearing by the house committee.

Scriptural quotations reflecting on a person's character and sent by postal card through the mails are a violation of the postal laws, according to a verdict returned by a jury in the United States district court at Chicago.

Mrs. Thomas Harwood, the Methodist missionary whose funeral took place in this city this afternoon, devoted her life to the bettering of the people of this territory. The good she accomplished is widespread and may be seen in all parts of New Mexico.

RAILWAYS IN STRAIGHT LINES.
There is a railway over the Egyptian desert which runs for forty-five miles in a straight line, but this is easily beaten in Australia. The railway from Nyang to Bourke, in New South Wales, runs over a plain, which is as level as a billiard table, for 145 miles in a mathematically straight line.
There is hardly an embankment, nor where a curve, and only three very slight elevations.

WOMEN IN POLITICS.
The four states in which woman suffrage is established—Colorado, Utah, Idaho and Wyoming—are noted for the radical changes which they made in declarations of political preference. In 1896 the fusionists in Colorado had 124,000 majority. A year later they had 3,900. Utah gave Bryan 24,000 majority in 1896, and four years later went against him by 2,100. Wyoming was carried by the republicans in 1892, by the fusionists in 1896 and by the republicans again in 1900.

THE MCKINLEY MEMORIAL.
Ten thousand dollars were contributed in a single day, recently, by workingmen of Homestead, Pa., to the Mc-Kinley memorial fund. The majority of the workmen were men who were informed in the dispatches, "gave a half-day's pay, from the lowest laborer to the heads of departments." These generous contributions from workmen are a fitting and touching tribute to the worth of the martyr president, who was the best friend American workmen have ever had in the presidential chair. In other parts of the country similar contributions have been made, although the work of gathering funds for the memorial has not been entered upon very systematically.

CAUSE OF CONSUMPTION.
In a recent report of the Imperial board of health at Berlin it is stated that over 50 per cent. of the cases of pulmonary tuberculosis being treated at various sanatoria throughout the empire have died in their origin in the dust inhaled by these individuals in their routine employment.

Since tuberculosis is chiefly spread by the dried expectorations of those afflicted with the pulmonary form of this disease, it should be the duty of employers to see that proper sputum receptacles are provided for their employees to use during business hours.

The intelligent cooperation of an employer with one or more of his affected clerks would do much toward lessening the plague of tuberculosis, and, since sanitarians tell us that this disease causes one-seventh of all the deaths in the civilized world, the convenience and care which such a simple procedure would entail ought not to be considered for a moment.

IRRIGATION WORKS PAY.
Writing from Washington in regard to the roads, railroads, irrigation canals and other public improvements which the British have constructed in India, a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat makes some statements of special interest at the present time, pending the movement in this country for the reclamation of the arid lands of the Transmissouri region. He states that the irrigation canals and other irrigation works in India are 36, 000 miles in extent, that the area irrigated exceeds 20,000,000 acres; that these irrigation canals and works cost about $60,000,000 rupees, and that the value of a single year's crop in the irrigated district, over and above that which it could produce in years of drought, is more than the entire cost of the canals. These similar results could be produced in this country by the systematic inauguration of a storage reservoir system and of great main canals where needed, and is not open to doubt.
The experience in British India can be reproduced in these arid states and territories of the far west, and by the expenditure of $100,000,000 or $150,000,000 extending through a period of ten or fifteen years, approximately 100, 000,000 acres of fertile land can be reclaimed to the productive industry of agriculture and its kindred pursuits.
The effect of this policy on the growth of the Rocky mountain country, and on the prosperity of the whole nation, are evident at a glance, says the Denver News. Not only agriculture, but manufacturing and all other industries would receive an impetus that would render the Twentieth century notable for material growth and development, and carry the republic far along the pathway of industrial achievement and prosperity. The homes for millions of MORMON COLONIES.

Example of What Intelligent Pluck Can Accomplish in the Arid Region.

5,000 MORMON SETTLERS.

Dr. R. G. Lambert, who represents the Desert News of Salt Lake City, has been high in Mormon councils, spent a day in Santa Fe on his way to the Mormon colonies in Mexico from where he will visit the colonies in Arizona and New Mexico, and he will take him about two months and he has promised to write an interesting letter later descriptive of the Mormon settlements of the Rocky mountain region. He is now in Santa Fe, county, and Fruita, San Juan county, after his visit to these colonies.
The work of the Mormons in Mexico is described in a New Mexico representative by Dr. Lambert, as follows:
"The Mormons first entered Mexico in the year 1845. The first permanent settlements were made in 1847, and the year when Colonia Juarez and Colonia Diaz were established. The former is about 17 miles from Casas Grandes, the present terminus of the Sierra Madre and Pacific railway.
There are about 200 families in the colony and it is considered the most advanced town in the state of Chihuahua.
It possesses beautiful modern homes, an excellent academy taught by a proficient faculty, a flouring mill, a creamery and well developed agriculture. Every home is a model of comfort and convenience. The colony is surrounded by an orchard and a garden. The settlement is pointed out as an example of what thrift and industry can accomplish in the arid regions.

"Colonia Diaz is not so fortunate, as it is forty miles from a railroad and the most advanced town in the state of Yucatan. The colony has had commendable growth, it being well supplied with all modern agricultural implements. The colonists possess that indomitable perseverance that helps to make good farmers. They have achieved good results with their labor and have a thirty town of nearly 200 families. These families are not small for they are genuine Mormon families with many children.

Colonia Duhan is the next in size of the Mexican Mormon colonies. It is situated five miles south of Casas Grandes on the Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific railway. This place, perhaps possesses the best modern advantages of any of the Mormon colonies. The colony has secured concessions and is about to erect a series of reservoirs and a canal. The place will give it splendid agricultural advantages. The settlement has a good school building and other public buildings. The colonists have introduced the most advanced theories in their agricultural pursuits. There are now at least 200 families in the colony and the prospects for further growth are bright.

The settlement has a large modern roller flouring mill and a large modern mercantile establishment.

"The other Mormon colonies of Chihuahua are in the high mountain region of the Sierra Madre mountains.
Pacheco has about forty families who are engaged in agriculture, stock raising and lumbering. The place is a fertile spot and has a ready market at good prices in the surrounding country. These mountain people have accomplished wonders in their agricultural pursuits. They have cleared roads that lead up rocky gorges that to the eye seem impassable. These were built to facilitate the hauling of lumber from the mountains to the valleys below.

"Garcia is another mountain colony.
Its people are mostly engaged in the manufacture of merchan- lumber, shoes and shingles. The place is the latest improved and best machinery. Colonia Garcia has about thirty families who are prospering and have earned pretty homes.

"Thirty miles further up the mountains is Colonia Chuchupia, and though far removed from transportation facilities, the colonists have accomplished wonders. They are engaged in agriculture, dairying, stock raising and lumbering. At least forty families are located there. They are showing commendable enterprise.

"There are also two colonies in the state of Sonora. One is Colonia Oaxaca, on the Rio Grande, and the other is Colonia Moroles. It is pleasantly situated and has good agricultural lands all around it. The colony is only three years old, but the push and energy displayed is bringing it to the front. There are more than thirty families in this colony. A number of irrigation canals have been constructed and good crops are now being raised.

"It is united persevering pluck with the application of advanced methods that have given such great success to the Mormon colonies in Mexico. There are 5,000 Mormon colonists in Mexico, the states of Chihuahua and Sonora, who are an example of thrift and enterprise to the people of Mexico."

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

Possibly no document in a decade has attracted more wide attention as President Roosevelt's first message to congress, and it is safe to say that it has been more widely read than any other message since that which embodied the "Emancipation of a Race." This is due as much to Mr. Roosevelt as to what the message contains, for Theodore Roosevelt has a happy family of being spectacular whether the medium be the pen or the sword. Many of his actions have been widely applauded because of intrinsic merit, many more have been as widely cheered because "Teddy" can do no wrong in the eyes of an adoring public.

In canvassing over this famous message, noting what it contains, it has been suggested that there are some things which it does not contain. For instance, in dealing with the Indian problem, particularly emphasizing that the white man and the Indian shall be treated alike. Then further he says: "It is our duty to protect the Indians from the terrible degradation of the liquor traffic. One cannot help but wonder why he discriminates in favor of the Indians. Why not protect the white man from the alienation of the liquor traffic since they are both to be treated alike.

Perhaps the time has not come for this to be recommended by a president, but it will come. Then the free government will array itself not only against degradation of white and indian alike, but against the greatest foe

Beauty's Blood Deep

How untrue the old adage "Beauty's Skin Deep." How many women of beautiful features marred by impure blood try in vain to get a pure complexion by doctoring the skin. The quickest, surest, only way to beauty is to cleanse the blood.

"I have been taking Cascarets for pimples and have been greatly benefited." —Mrs. J. H. Smith, Chicago, Ill.
"I am very well pleased with Cascarets. They are—Miss Catherine C. Hoffman, English, Ia.
"Cascarets will clear the complexion of boils, pimples, etc."—Mrs. M. B. Hulse, Franklin, N. H.
"Cascarets have done a great deal of good for me and for my family."—Mrs. J. H. Smith, Ia.

How many young women are anemic, pale, sickly-looking, perhaps with pimples on face and neck, owing to poor, unhealthy blood. Perhaps womanhood is approaching, that serious time of life when irregularities are liable to break down a constitution. The first rule for purifying and enriching the blood is to keep the bowels free and natural, gently but positively, without nervous shock, and Cascarets Candy Cathartic is the only medicine to do it.

association, will run a high class expression to Old Mexico, leaving Denver pairer, who has been laid up for two months in Las Vegas with symptoms of typhoid fever for nearly two weeks, is slowly recovering.

John Roberts' injuries in the Rincon wreck are gradually disappearing and bandaged head as the only real evidence of his narrow escape from death.

Passenger engine 1057 made a trial trip from Rio to Las Vegas, and was steamed all right and handled her train nicely. She is the prairie type with six connected drivers and engine trucks under the boiler. The drivers are seventy-nine inches in diameter.

The Southern Pacific passenger train from the west, Thursday evening, ran into a burro browsing on the track in the Deming yards. The animal was thrown about 100 feet to one side and internally injured. It never got up, but died where it lay. It was branded E. S. and was the property of a young man named Guin Gorman.

The Union Pacific railway company has inaugurated a new plan on its entire system for the purpose of preventing rear-end collisions. Every passenger train will carry an extra brakeman whose only duty it will be to protect the rear of a train. This new plan will cost the Union Pacific $100,000 annually. It is said other Colorado roads will adopt the same plan.

At a meeting of the Raton Abstract company held at Raton the following directors were elected: C. M. Taylor, W. V. Turner, A. R. Quick, J. H. Beggs, J. F. White, W. B. Thompson and C. Parquhar. The following officers were chosen: C. M. Taylor, president; W. V. Turner, first vice president; J. F. White, second vice president; J. H. Beggs, secretary, and A.
R. Quick, treasurer.

The Raton Gazette says: At 6 o'clock Monday morning while the crew were asleep in the caboose at Raton, an oil car was kicked into them by a switch engine, completely demolishing their car and injuring Conductor Mon-ton and brakeman C. F. Burns. Mon-ton had a shoulder dislocated and Burns was injured in the back of the neck. Both men were brought to their homes in this city where they are getting along well. The other brakeman was not hurt.

President W. S. Andrews and Vice President W. S. Hopewell of the Santa Fe Central Railway company, have returned to Santa Fe from a trip to El Paso. While at the Pass city they purchased the building material to be used in the construction of the new Santa Fe Central town of Torrance at the Rock Island junction. At Torrence will be located the southern construction headquarters of the Santa Fe system. The new town of Torrance will be a company town for employes and commissary department. The materials are to be shipped at once over the El Paso & Northeastern and built will be located at Torrance. The new town promises to be one of the best on the line.

The Santa Fe has decided to contest the ruling of the California state board of railway commissioners in the matter of oil rates. The Santa Fe has commenced injunction proceedings in the United States district court at San Francisco to prevent the enforcement of preferred rates as the Southern California railway is concerned, tends to confiscate the parent company of its own property out due process of law, that the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, owner of the San Francisco railway company, is a foreign corporation, and the Santa Fe Pacific obtained its charter from the general government. The subject is being attended to by Capt.
C. N. Story, who is in San Francisco for the purpose.

In an article on "The Railroad and the Deadhead," Gen. H. Headford, lately general passenger agent of the Chicago & North Western at St. Paul, says in the Saturday Evening Post, among other things: "Theoretically, a pass is issued as a compliment or courtesy.
Practically, it is an ill-gotten gain, the some respects unlawful bid for business or influence. The jurists, the legislators, the state and county officers, the city and town officials, the board of aldermen, expect and frequently demand, annual passes. Even the policeman has a 'pull' at the pass system. This promotes the thief, and policy is 'prominent' who controls a carload consignment of live stock, grain, coal, lumber, or other merchandise—does not hesitate to apply for either a season or trip pass for himself, and also expects the courtesy of an occasional 'headend' ticket for his wife and children. The employee of a railway company, no matter how well or how ill paid, feels a traditional right to demand a pass for himself and his family even to the kinship of his sisters, his cousins and his aunts."

All Can Advertise.
The man of business judgment will not find it difficult to do first class advertising. He may lack education which will permit him to develop his ability, but his business sagacity will insure him getting the matter in shape so that he may be sure to realize on whatever investment he makes for publicity and may be certain of appealing to the wants of the people by showing them in his advertising that he knows how to satisfy them.

EL PASO & SOUTHWESTERN.
The Construction Work That is to Be Done This Year.

According to the Railway Age, the El Paso & Southwestern railway was completed during 1901 from Deming south to Deming Junction, 31 miles, and thence west 25 miles further, a total of 56 miles in New Mexico; also from Douglas, Ariz., east 50 miles, leaving 32 miles to build from El Paso, Texas, to Deming Junction, and a gap of 50 miles from Deming Junction to Douglas, Ariz. A branch was also built last year from Douglas south into Mexico, 30 kilometers, and it is expected to build 20 kilometers further to Nacozari. An extension is proposed from Fairbanks, Ariz., to Tompstone, Ariz., and on to a connection with the main line at College Peak, a distance of 54 miles.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such misadventure, be-

nals and other public improvements
which the British have constructed in India, a correspondent of the St. Louis
Globe-Democrat makes some state-
other irrigation works in India are 36,
000 miles in extent, that the area ir-
these irrigation canals and works cost
value of a single year's crop in the ir-
where needed, and is not open to doubt.
The experience in British India can be
reproduced in these arid states and ter-
extending through a period of ten
or fifteen years, approximately 100,
agriculture and its kindred pursuits.
of the Rocky mountain country, and
on the prosperity of the whole nation,
are evident at a glance, says the De-
prosperity. The Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renews the entire system.

It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. R. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had eczema on my hands and face for years. It was very bad. I tried all the white powders, creams, ointments and lotions, but nothing helped. I then tried S. S. S. and in a few days the itching and burning stopped. The doctors said my skin was all right. I am now well and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. O., writes: "I suffered from eczema of the face for years. I tried all the doctors and remedies, but nothing helped. I then tried S. S. S. and in a few days the itching and burning stopped. The doctors said my skin was all right. I am now well and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Remarkable Cure of Croup—A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has saved my little boy's life. I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby was coughing and breathing. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the plug out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today. Joel Demont, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.
