Important Meeting at Helena, Montana.

Disastrous Railroad Wreck in West Virginia.

Heavy Rains in Georgia Inflict Great Damage to Property.

BRITISH LOSS AT ZEEFONTEIN.

Helena, Mont., Dec. 29.—The governors and attorneys general of four northwestern states and attorney general of another will meet in the state supreme court rooms at Helena this afternoon to discuss, and, if possible, agree on a plan for prevention of the gigantic Northern Pacific-Great Northern-Burlington railway merger.

The governors present will be Van Sant, of Minnesota, who suggested the meeting; Herriot, South Dakota; Hunt, Idaho; Toole, Montana; Attorney General Stratton, Washington, will represent that state. It has been understood that Governor White, of North Dakota, and the attorney general of that state would be present also, but it was stated today that neither would attend. The visiting governors and attorneys general are expected to arrive at Helena about noon and at 2 o'clock the first meeting is scheduled. Whether the meetings will be open will depend entirely on Governor Van Sant. Van Sant, it is believed, has a well defined plan of fighting the merger, drawn on state constitutional lines, and is expected to advocate the adoption of this plan by the other northwestern states.

ANOTHER WRECK.

Train Collided with a Rock and Tumbled Down Embankment. Parkersburg, W. Va., Dec. 29.—Two men are missing, one badly injured, one engine and four cars are at the foot of an embankment, two other cars are wrecked and 100 feet of track torn up, as the result of a collision with a heavy rock by the west bound freight train on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at No. 2 tunnel, near Long Run, this morning. A rock rolled down from a hill, just as the train came out of the tunnel. The missing men are Firemen A. P. Hines and Brakeman A. E. Putnam. They are probably dead beneath the wreck. Engineer Hope Gouley was so seriously injured that he probably will not recover.

HEAVILY DAMAGED.

Loss of Life and Property Caused by Floods in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 29.—Torrential rains the past two days in Georgia, Alabama and East Tennessee caused the death of four persons as far as known and inflicted serious damage to property. The rains have been followed by colder weather, accompanied by high winds. Three people were drowned at West Point, Ga., while attempting to cross the Chattahoochee river. Thomas Russell, engineer on the Atlanta & West Point railroad, was killed in a freight wreck caused by a washout near Nottau, Ga. Many people spent the night in Port Tyler. At Columbus the Chattahoochee registered thirty-eight feet. The property damage is already heavy.

Nearly five inches of rain has fallen in the vicinity of Rome, Ga.

Berlin, Dec. 29.—An official note, published this evening, says negotiations between Germany and Venezuela continue and the German minister is still at Caracas.

Death of Brooks Douthett.

Died, at 5:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at 209 South Arno street, Eugene Brooks Douthett, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Douthett. Deceased was 30 years of age and came here from Columbus, Ohio, about four years ago in search of health, being a sufferer from tuberculosis. He was accompanied by his father and mother, and everything was done for his comfort that money and fond parents could do; but the dread disease had fastened itself upon him and refused to be halted even by the pure and beautiful air of New Mexico. An elder brother is expected to arrive from New York Wednesday morning, when definite arrangements for the funeral will be made.

Death of Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Brown, mother of J. F. Brown, of this city, passed away at the home of her son on South Edith street yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the age of 71 years. Pneumonia was the cause of death. Mrs. Brown came here from Athens, Ohio, a few weeks ago to visit her son and only child and had been ill only a short time. The remains were embalmed by O. W. Strong & Sons and will be shipped tonight to Bellare, Ohio, the birthplace of Mr. Brown, for burial.

Fire This Afternoon.

This afternoon, at 5 o'clock, a fire broke out in the smoke room of William Farr's new meat market building, but quick work by firemen prevented a serious conflagration. Mr. Farr says the meat was taken out of the room this morning, and when a call was made at the room this afternoon the inside was found to be on fire.

A Close Guess.

Mrs. F. Brooks, of 315 1/2 South Second street, was the lucky winner in the guessing contest for the beautiful onyx clock given by S. Vann & Son. The clock stopped at 4:28 a. m., December 29. Mrs. Brooks came within twelve minutes of guessing the exact time, her guess being 4:16.

New Year's afternoon, foot ball at the fair grounds, Agricultural College vs. Albuquerque Guards Game called at 3 o'clock sharp.

Heavy Rains in Pennsylvania Have Flooded Several Cities.

DEATH OF GRAIN ELEVATOR OWNER.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Four persons were killed, and twenty-nine injured, several fatally, in a collision on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad on Sunday at Malta, Ill., sixty miles west of Chicago. The "Omaha Flyer," east bound, and an east bound freight, caught fire, and two passenger coaches, one sleeping and eight freight cars were burned.

The dead: George W. Radlo, western agent of the Kirk Soap company, residence, Omaha; Mrs. George W. Radlo; D. O. Nichols, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and E. B. Dutan, sleeping car porter, Chicago.

DEAD DESPERADO.

One of Bad Gang Killed by a Deputy Sheriff.

Globe, Ariz., Dec. 29.—Robert H. Hatfield, one of the Kootenay clan, has been killed at Troy, a mining camp in the Pinal mountains, by Deputy Sheriff Devine, who bore a warrant for his arrest on the charge of wife beating. Hatfield sent word to the miners he would kill any man who tried to take him. Devine fired two shots over his head in an effort to make the man understand his danger, and then shot with fatal effect.

CITIES INUNDED.

Several Towns Under Water Along the Schuylkill.

Philadelphia, Dec. 29.—Rain which has fallen almost incessantly since Saturday evening resulted in a dangerous freshet in the Schuylkill river. Today the stream is 15 1/2 feet above normal. All the big industrial plants along the Schuylkill at Manayunk and Norristown are flooded, and work suspended. In this city the river is out of its banks, the cellars flooded, and the residents along the river have sought safer quarters.

FLOOD AVERTED.

Pittsburg, Dec. 29.—The threatened flood as the result of a heavy rainfall has been averted by the cold snap. The river will not reach over the 20-foot stage.

Norristown, Pa., Dec. 29.—The Schuylkill river is receding and danger believed to be over. Great damage was done to the mills and factories between here and Conshohocken.

Grain Elevator Owner Dead.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Frank H. Peavy, Minneapolis, one of the best known grain men of the country, died here today of pneumonia, aged 52. Peavy was credited with being the largest owner of grain elevators in this country, if not in the world.

The total amount of Peavy's insurance was $1,275,000 policy and was payable to himself or his heirs, but its purpose was to furnish ready capital for business in case of his death. It is said that a heavy carrier $1,000,000 insurance on his life.

FOOT BALL GAMES.

First Game in Progress—Next Match New Year's Afternoon.

This afternoon, at the fair grounds, the Agricultural college foot ball eleven and the team of warriors from the local Government Indian school are playing a most exciting game, and a good-sized crowd of enthusiastic people are present.

The other boys arrived in the metropolis yesterday morning, and Prof. W. A. Sutherland submits the following names on the team: J. O. Miller, coach; W. M. Danberg, captain; Ruby Hart, Ten Yard Miller; Overlong Bill Isaacks, Pasa Gilmore, Duke de B. Seco, Camote Gamboa, Lodey Lowe, Curley Horton, Sweed, Haid, Ella J. Wallace, Brownie Snow, One Mit Peephrey, Oscar Bill Stephens and himself, plain W. A. Sutherland.

Tomorrow night, at the Guards' Armory on West Gold avenue, upstairs over the Albuquerque Hardware company's store, the Guards will give an informal reception to the college boys from 7:30 to 11 o'clock p. m.

On New Year's afternoon the team recently organized from among the ranks of the Albuquerque Guards will play the college team, and a lively game is expected.

The grounds have been so arranged that spectators can see the game from the grand stand.

FIVE TO NOTHING.

The football game at the fair grounds this afternoon resulted in a Waterloo defeat for the government Indian school eleven, by the score of 5 to 0. It was a fine game.

While in the city she was the guest of Miss Lou Hughes.

O. F. Foster, of the Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., was here last Saturday and made contracts for advertising with local newspapers. He left Saturday night for Las Vegas, where his family has been stopping.

After five days' absence, he will pass Albuquerque, for the Pacific coast.

Many complaints have reached this office of the doings of coal and wood thieves, and one lady has expressed a remedy. She told her husband to load his shotgun, not with buckshot, but with beans, and lay in wait for the midnight prowlers, and if they approach the coal shed or wood pile, fire both barrels at them, peeping their bodies from their hips down, and it is dollars to doughnuts that this peeping husband will follow out the directions of his wife.

Watch night services will be held at the Lead Avenue Methodist church, Tuesday evening, commencing at 8 o'clock and closing at midnight. The Spanish church will unite with the English. A short sermon will be preached in Spanish and interpreted into English. Revs. Harwood, Salazar and others will participate. Services will also be held at the same place Wednesday and Thursday evenings, participated in by the Salvation army officers. Special revival services will continue from next Sunday every evening for some time.

"In the meanwhile, I am officially assured that the German charge d'affaires has not left Caracas and diplomatic relations are not yet broken off. RESTRAINING ORDER.

Temporary Injunction Against Officers of the Northern Pacific.

Minneapolis, Dec. 29.—Judge Elliott, of the district court, today granted a temporary order restraining the officers of the Northern Pacific Railroad company from retiring preferred stock of that company. The order was issued on application of Peter Power, of New York, who holds 100 shares of the common stock.

It is informed that the action is brought in behalf of the Hariman interest, to prevent the control passing out of its hands until the legal standing of the Northern Securities company is settled.

New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 26.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.
Territorial Superintendent Chaves, in his excellent address before the Educational association in this city, speaks of the deficiency in the number of well equipped, properly constructed school buildings in the rural districts, and he might have added in some of the towns and cities. He says: "There is no gaining the fact that New Mexico is sadly lacking in that respect. We want to see the best modern school house; if you place, well built, with proper ventilation, a cupola for a bell, little later on, perhaps, and a stately, towering mast on top of every one of them, from whence, for at least eight months a year, there shall float to the sun kissed breezes of our fair homeland, the stars and stripes of our beloved nation."

Colored Chaves also says: "Limited investigation will serve to make it plain to any one that lack of organization and system is today the greatest source of weakness in our rural schools. The lack of a more liberal allowance to the public funds for the sole use and benefit of the county schools. The present system of supervision is also quite defective, being so lax as to make it almost impossible to develop within the country district that system and organization so essential to the success of the work."

He says: "The cost per capita for schooling the children in the district schools is something over $6 per capita, a meager pittance, when comparison is made with some of the higher educational institutions of the territory, also maintained at public expense."

He might have also added when compared with the per capita expended by other states upon the public schools. In Pennsylvania the state annually expends $6 per pupil in the public schools, and the district average almost $100 more per pupil. This also accounts for the low average length of the school term in New Mexico rural districts.

Superintendent Chaves also calls attention to the negligence of county school superintendents in making their annual reports; the small appropriation made by the legislature for the contingency expenses of the office of the superintendent of public instruction; the limited power of the county school superintendents who cannot even prevent the illegal expenditure of school moneys in the rural districts, and the power vested in rural school directors to perpetrate themselves in office.

Yet, despite these defects, wonderful progress has been made in the past twelve years by New Mexico schools. In 1870 the percentage of illiteracy in New Mexico was 62, according to the census of 1900 it had declined to 25 per cent and today, according to Colonel Chaves, it is no more than 18 per cent. The defects and limitations pointed out are not irreparable and future legislative assemblies will undoubtedly continue the work so well begun and future school authorities will enforce more strictly the excellent school laws already upon the statute books.

The Boers have celebrated the last three Christmas anniversaries by whipping the British on each occasion. On Christmas day, 1899, General Buller was in deep trouble at Tugela. On Christmas day, 1900, De Wet won the victory at Helvetia. On Christmas day, 1901, De Wet made his successful and bloody raid at Zwartkopsfontein.

The Atlanta Constitution says that if Oklahoma and the Indian territory should be admitted as a single state the state ought to be called Jefferson. "In honor of the illustrious president whose name is associated with the acquisition of the vast extent of territory known as the Louisiana purchase."

The Cocoono San printed a neatly illustrated holiday number descriptive of Flagstaff and surrounding country. It is one of the finest holiday editions that has reached this office, and shows enterprise on the part of the San publisher, Mr. C. M. Kingston.

The agricultural college has a fine football team. They would creditably represent any community. The team is visiting this city and their stay will be made pleasant.

If the year 1902 is as prosperous for the United States as a whole as the one just closing, there will be no kick coming from any one except anar-

NEW MEASUREMENTS.
Resolutions Before Adjoining Educational Officers.

Just before the sixteenth annual meeting of the Educational association of New Mexico adjourned last Saturday, the committee on resolutions introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this association are hereby tendered to the trustees of the First M. E. church for the use of the church in which to hold our opening meeting.

To the Santa Fe railroad for reduced rates to and from the association.

To the singers and musicians for their most excellent music.

To the Silver City Normal school girls and teachers, Miss Ellis, for their most excellent exhibition in physical culture exercise.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this association that the territorial board of education cause to be prepared a uniform course of study for county normal institutions.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to the teachers of the university and public schools for the very pleasant reception given to the association on the first evening in the high school room, and for other courtesies shown during the entire meeting of the association.

Resolved, That the association renew its memorial to congress concerning public lands, and earnestly asks careful consideration by that body.

The adoption of these resolutions were followed by the auditing committee reporting a balance of more than $200 in the treasury after all bills had been paid.

Then followed the nominating committee, submitting the names of the new officers of the association, which were published complete in The Citizen of last Saturday afternoon.

Prof. C. M. Light, of the Silver City Normal school, was appointed to the chairmanship of the committee to arrange for an educational exhibit for the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

An appropriation of $1000 was made for headquarters for New Mexico at the National Educational association, which will convene next year at Minneapolis, Minn.

With Prof. D. M. Richards, as chairman, a committee was appointed to arrange for the publication of the minutes of the association from the time of its inception.

As announced in The Citizen last Saturday afternoon, the convention then adjourned and next December the seventeenth annual convention will be held in East Las Vegas.

Following the adjournment of the convention, an interesting contest of the season was held, at which the following members of the educational council were elected:

H. E. Berner, Carlsbad; W. H. Decker, Pinos Altos; J. A. Wood, Santa Fe; W. A. Chapman, Haton; T. D. A. Cook, Las Vegas; Hiram Hadley, Las Cruces; A. B. Strong, Deming; Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, Silver City; Maggie Bucher, Las Vegas; George B. Maggett, Zuni.

GALLUP NOTES.
Interesting Topics From the Capital of McKinley County.

Special Correspondence.
Gallup, N. M., Dec. 25.—It is said, That the Christmas festivities at the churches were a success and the little folks well pleased with their part in the celebrating.

That the holiday trade was good and the patronage very fairly divided.

That the firm of Kussel & Elise are getting in a fine selection of mid-winter goods.

That the "quotation party" was a very pleasant social event, and the representations of titles of books were well thought out.

That Miss Blanche Munro and won first prize guessing at the names of the representations of titles of books.

That the teachers did not go to Albuquerque during vacation as they had intended to do.

That the teachers are planning a reception to be given to the patrons of the schools.

That Miss George Russell made a good hit as pianist in the grand orchestra that played for the Christmas ball.

That there is to be a union watch meeting at the Methodist church on New Year's eve. Hours, from 9 to 10 a social; from 10 to 11, music; from 11 to 12 religious services. All invited to attend.

That Miss Katie Cunningham and Messrs. Bowie and Johnson are home from Albuquerque for vacation.

That the music furnished for the Christmas carnival by an orchestra of twenty or more pieces was fine and greatly appreciated by the dancers, as also by those who only went to look on and listen.

That the members of the Montezuma band and the U. T. B. orchestra gave just cause for pride in the success of their ball. The attendance was the largest of any dance ever held in the open house, which is the largest hall in town, and many who do not dance, or go to see dancing, bought tickets to show their appreciation of the two musical organizations, which were combined for the evening.

That Miss Jennie Bayless is clerking in the New York store.

That a movement is on foot to purchase a strip of land near the high school building for the beginning of a public park.

That a subscription will be headed and put in circulation to raise money to hold a land stand thereon and for the purchase of some seats.

That it is now in order to be jotting down those "good resolutions" which are to effect with the turning over a new leaf on New Year's day.

A SAD FAREWELL.
Hutzell, Who Had Charge of the Bland Herald, Gets Even.

For the past few months, while Will Hutzell, editor and publisher of the Bland Herald, was in the employ of The Citizen as its traveling representative, he had in charge of the Herald F. M. Hutzell. The other day Mr. Hutzell had a purchaser for the Herald, and, of course, he made a sale. To his surprise, the last issue of the Herald was the one in which Mr. Hutzell's knowledge, the following "pathetic and farewell" from Hutzell, and it is here reproduced for scrap book purposes:

With this issue, dear readers, we leave you. We turn the ruling (?) power of the Green County over to another man. We hope better and handsomer man. It is, however, with many heartaches and bitter tears, that we have submitted to this change, as we have many very dear friends in this camp, who, we know, will shed as many many tears at our departure as we shed at the time of our departure. "The best of friends must part," is true in the general, and as we are somewhat of a fatalist, we believe that the time will come when we will resign ourselves to our fate and trust—aye! we even pray that our dear, beloved friends in Bland County will become reconciled to their fate at losing us, even as we do at being lost.

While we write these few lines which come from the very depths of our manly and loving heart, the bitter tears course down our noble cheeks and our hearts are torn with pain. We shall have to leave our dear friends and there calmly roll down in little rivulets onto our beautiful velvet carpet, there forming into little pools which will be the tears of our little centipedes and other small animals that have been waiting to calmly nestle up close to us and cry with us. With sighs and have become very dear to us, we will meet an untimely death by drowning.

Kind friends weep not! But let us hope that there is a better place above where we may some day meet never more to part, and—well, dear readers, our cup of sadness is overflowing and we shall have to stop and put on our overshoes and roll up our pants, as our feet are getting so cold in this poor old world that we are fast forming around us. Adieu! kind friends, adieu!

BERT JONES, PHILADELPHIAN.
A Well Known Player Signed by National League.

Bert Jones, the Albuquerque and Golden, Colo., pitcher, known among baseball men as "Broncho," has just signed a contract with the Philadelphia Phillies, of the Philadelphia National league team. Jones played with St. Louis and Cleveland for several years, but was never accorded the support his efforts deserved. Last summer he at last grew tired of his berth and secured his release, coming to Denver to play with the Western league. His release left him free to sign where he pleased, so when the Western league series of rows began between the league and the National league, he turned a willing ear to calls from the east. Jones arm showed, toward the close of the season, that it was as strong as an eagle as ever. With a time that will accord him proper support he should make a record next summer.

CANCER OF THE STOMACH.
The Dread Disease That Afflicted the Late Mrs. J. M. Crane.

Mrs. J. M. Crane, nee Fleck, who was recently deserted by a worthless husband, died of cancer of the stomach and pancreas, at Las Vegas the other evening. The doctors are certain of it. Doctors Shaw, Tipton, Miller and Da Costa, sold an autopsy of the remains Friday afternoon. Her case had been correctly diagnosed five weeks ago, and it was then too late for an operation. A hemorrhage came on and exhausted her so completely as to prove fatal. Her remains were laid to rest in the Las Vegas Odd Fellows cemetery Saturday morning, the local lodge of the Daughters of Zebeah having the funeral in charge.

Infants Dead.
The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Miralal, of East Silver avenue, died yesterday afternoon of infantile trouble, aged five days. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mandarini, at 11 o'clock; this morning, with burial at Santa Barbara cemetery.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.
Col. E. W. Dolson, attorney, was at Santa Fe last Saturday on business, returning in the evening.

Miss Ida McCune states that her studio will be opened and ready for business this evening. She has twenty-five pupils.

Charles Neustadt, of Laguna, was here yesterday afternoon the Sabbath with his brother, Alderman Samuel Neustadt. He returned west last night.

Misses Barbara and Adele Husell, the pretty daughters of Hon. and Mrs. J. L. Husell, are at Prescott, Arizona, on a visit to Mrs. Inez Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Morrison.

Tomorrow night the last ball of the year will be given at the Commercial club, and the "watch out of the old year" will be indulged in by a merry party of club members, with their wives and lady friends.

A large majority of the teachers, who attended the educational association convention last week, have returned to their respective homes. A few lingered in the city to attend the meeting of the Christian Endeavorers.

O. W. Strong & Sons delivered a casket at Atlixco yesterday for the remains of Adeline Sylvester, aged 76, who died at his home in the above place yesterday morning of pneumonia. Burial was held at Atlixco today.

Last Saturday afternoon at the Albright Art Parlor, the Silver City Normal school basketball team had their pictures taken in a group. The manager and overseer of the team, Prof. Hugh A. Owen, was present and his picture is among the group.

Word was received at the courthouse this morning that Mr. and Mrs. Garland V. Crosby are reveling in the smiles of a pretty girl baby that arrived the other evening. Mr. Crosby is the assistant district clerk at the court, and he and wife are in Chicago visiting the parents of Mrs. Crosby.

Last Saturday, H. J. Maxwell, was killed at Morcuco, Arizona, en route to Hattaway, of this city, fearing that he was Howard Maxwell, the Mutual Life Insurance company agent down there, telegraphed for particulars, and today receive an answer stating, "Don't know any particulars yet."

DAME TO THE FRONT.
He Helped to Get Otero Renominated—Other Interesting Items.

Special Correspondence.
Corrillo, N. M., Dec. 25.—Captain W. E. Dame came home from Washington last Friday night, where he had been to help along the New Mexico election in its efforts to secure the renomination of Governor Otero. That the governor got his plum is probably due, in part at least, to the captain's assistance, for Dame is a tolerably smooth worker in practical politics. If he wanted anything of a railroad company he would not tarry with the section foreman if it was the superintendent he wanted to see, and on this principle, when he wants anything in politics he gets to the fountain head. Incidentally while on this trip, Captain Dame arranged with the newly appointed Judge Baker, of Omaha, for the clerkship of the court, so it is said, and he is likely to take up his residence in Albuquerque in the near future. It seems to be generally understood that this is a pretty good position and among those who know him there is no doubt of his holding it with little class shape and that, too, with first class success. He is very self contained and feels sure of himself under all sorts of conditions.

The Christmas festivities passed off pleasantly and successfully in every respect. The tree and exercises at the Methodist church were largely attended and fully appreciated. The merchants have had a fairly good holiday trade, but are now settling down to the humdrum of the regular thing. It is a pity that the Christmas season is so short and that the money is so tight. W. F. Williams, with the San Pedro Mercantile company, was called east on Christmas day by the serious illness of his father at Kansas City.

W. C. Rogers, who is interested with W. H. Kennedy in four or five iron claims near Glorieta, is now doing the assessment work on them. Several thousand tons of ore have been shipped from these claims, to Socorro, Pueblo and to the smelter here. It runs high in iron and manganese and as this part of the territory develops, the mines will become very valuable. Our cup of sadness is overflowing and we shall have to stop and put on our overshoes and roll up our pants, as our feet are getting so cold in this poor old world that we are fast forming around us. Adieu! kind friends, adieu!

C. C. Aiken Dead.
Charles C. Aiken, of Las Vegas, died last Friday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock, of quick consumption. Mr. Aiken was well known in this city, having at one time been agent for the Wells Fargo express company. About eight years ago he was transferred to the division superintendent's office at Kansas City, but from overwork in the office lost his health, returning to Las Vegas a few months ago. The deceased gentleman leaves a wife and child to mourn his death.

Collector Garrett's Deputy.
P. F. Garrett, of Las Cruces, appointed collector of the port at El Paso for the El Paso del Norte district, has returned to Las Cruces from Washington, accompanied by Judge A. B. Falk. Mr. Garrett has decided to appoint his nephew, Numa Buehler, of Las Cruces, as his chief deputy. Mr. Garrett will retain his residence in New Mexico. He has filed his $5000 bond and his commission is on the way from Washington.

After a successful tour to the towns along the Santa Fe Pacific, M. H. Salin, traveling salesman for the L. B. Putney wholesale grocery establishment, has returned to the city.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS.

Held Convention Meetings in Several City Churches.

THE NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

The city has been visited the past few days by many blue badged delegates to the Christian Endeavor convention, who are here from all sections of the territory.

This is the eleventh annual convention of the kind held in New Mexico, the largest being attended by more delegates than ever before. The number in attendance shows an increase in interest along lines of advancement and The Citizen is glad to welcome so earnest and progressive a crowd of young people to this city.

Saturday evening the convention opened at the Congregational church with a welcome meeting, beginning with a praise service, which lasted fifteen minutes. Then Rev. T. C. Beattie gave the address of welcome from the churches, and Prof. C. E. Hodgkin from the societies. There were then rendered several fine musical selections, followed by the responses to the address of welcome given by Rev. Wm. Sloan, of Gallup, and Rev. D. M. Richards, of Las Cruces.

After the responses came some more music and then Rev. J. D. Eaton, of Chihuahua, Mexico, delivered the address of the evening.

Sunday, the first meeting of the day, was held at the Baptist church, being the "Quiet Hour" service conducted by Mrs. J. C. Wood of Santa Fe.

A majority of the delegates then visited the Sunday school sessions of their own denominations and stayed to the church services.

In the afternoon, Rev. W. T. Patchell, of Pueblo, Colo., addressed the Junior boys, who had gathered at the Baptist church. After his address there was song service, followed by discussions on "How to Secure New Members," by Mrs. Maud H. Ellis, of Las Vegas; from the congregation, Mrs. Sloan, of Gallup, "How to Secure Participation of All Members in the Meeting," led by F. W. Spencer, of Albuquerque; "How to Make Socials More Successful," a Ramon delegate; "How to Make Meetings More Useful and Interesting," led by Mrs. J. E. Wood, of Santa Fe.

The evening service was held in the Congregational church, consisting of a regular Christian Endeavor service, the regular evening session, the convention choir rendered some very pretty selections and there were two solos.

The address of the evening was given on the programme as "Dilettantism and Moral Passion," by Rev. W. T. Patchell, and everyone was wondering what he was going to make out of his subject, but all were agreeably surprised as everyone always is with Mr. Patchell in his skillful and humorous manner of handling his theme. His wit is not only attractive and pleasing but the happy way he has of rebuking what he wishes can offend no one but can be appreciated by all.

Mrs. Eaton also spoke at the evening session on her work in Mexico, and her talk was enjoyed by all who listened. The officers for the coming year were unanimously elected as follows:

President—D. M. Forester, Las Cruces.

Vice Presidents—H. C. Warnack, Las Vegas; W. H. Decker, Plaza Alta.
