WOMAN SUFFOCATED TO DEATH.

Special to The Citizen. Washington, Dec. 4.—Was deep-ly disappointed at statehood omission in president's message, but have just seen him and have assurance that he is favorable to New Mexico, and that the omission occurred because he could not mention one without mentioning all.

B. S. RODEY.

CONVICTED OF BRIBERY.

City Attorney of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Accepted a Bribe.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 4.—The jury in the bribery case against City Attorney LeRoy K. Salisbury returned a verdict of guilty of accepting a bribe of $75,000 for assistance in pushing through a deal by which the city of Grand Rapids was to award to certain capitalists a $4,000,000 contract for furnishing the city with water from Lake Michigan.

Cost of the Canal. Washington, Dec. 4.—The report of the Panama canal commission was sent to congress today. The commission favors the Nicaragua route, and makes an estimate of $189,864,062 as the total cost of construction of the canal. The estimated cost of the Panama route is $144,233,358, but the report says it would cost $109,141,000 to obtain the Panama concession.

Suffocated to Death. New York, Dec. 4.—Dropping a rubber tube from the gas pipe connection in the home of Hester Plotkin, a seamstress, in Brooklyn, caused the fatal suffocation of Mrs. Plotkin and one of her grand daughters. Mrs. J. A. Menne and Nathan Cohen were overcome by the escaping gas and are in a critical condition.

DEATH OF GEN. A. D. HAVEN.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—The National Live Stock convention today listened to various papers by specialists. P. C. Hagenbarts, of Idaho, read a paper on "Adulteration of Wool." He urged the passage of a bill by congress providing for inspection of woolen goods and shoddy and proper stamping of the same, and a fine of from $50 to $500 for each violation of the law by the manufacturer and $100 to $1,000 for the dealer who buys and sells unstamped adulterated cloth.

Death of General Haven. Washington, Dec. 4.—General A. D. Haven, third assistant postmaster general under Postmaster General Wamamaker and Biess, died last night, 61 years of age.

OVER TWO THOUSAND.

Besides All Expenses, the Hospital Charge Will Not Exceed $2,100. "Please make mention of the fact," said a lady today to a Citizen representative, "that the Sisters of Charity are grateful to the lady managers of the late St. Joseph hospital for their untiring work, and to the merchants and citizens generally of Albuquerque for their generous support of the hospital." It is understood that the net proceeds will be about $2,100 after all accounts are paid, and that the charity ward of the hospital received at least one-fourth of the entire amount.

The Maccabees. All members of the Maccabees of Albuquerque are urgently requested to attend the meeting tonight, as most important business relative to the H. D. Johnson matters will be brought up and disposed of, besides the election of officers. It is essential that all members attend and the lodge of officers expect a full membership present this evening. Mr. Johnson is the ex-record keeper of the Albuquerque lodge.

RODEY'S BILL.

Provides For Constitutional Convention.

President Makes Number of Recess Appointments.

Brewing Companies in Texas Pay Heavy Penalties to the State.

PEACE PREVAILS AT PANAMA.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 4.—Delegate Rodey of New Mexico introduced a bill to enable his territory to form a state constitution preliminary to admission to statehood. It provides that the governor of New Mexico shall call an election for the eighth Tuesday after the passage of the bill, for the election of 111 delegates to a constitutional convention. Other features of the bill are similar to those which have governed the admission of territories in prior years.

Confessed Judgment.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 4.—The W. J. Lepp Brewing company of St. Louis, and the Hubert Brewing company, of Milwaukee, have confessed judgment in the district court here for penalties aggregating $30,000 and forfeiture of their patents to do business in Texas, for violation of the Texas anti-trust act. The amount of the penalties was paid over to the state.

Demand Chinese Exclusion.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 4.—At a meeting of the chamber of commerce last night Joy Pollard addressed the members in regard to the exclusion of Chinese. The chamber by unanimous vote declared itself in favor of the Chinese exclusion act, and a committee was appointed to notify the senators and congressmen of this state of the action taken. It was the general opinion of the members that the passenger rate war is detrimental to the business interests and business men of the entire Cripple Creek district, as it will take hundreds of people to big valley towns to do their trading.

On Trial for Killing a Boy.

Leadville, Colo., Dec. 4.—The principal trial of this term of the district court is that of Jesse Sherman, who is charged with murder. About a month ago Sherman shot and killed a boy named Dornington, while the latter was chasing some of his Belgian hares. Two other boys were wounded at the time, but not fatally.

Chicago, Oct. 26th, 1901.

MESSRS. HALL & LEARNARD, Albuquerque, N. M.
 Gentlemen: Under favor and in reply to your letter of October 22nd received and contents carefully noted. We have looked your order for the several pianos to which you refer in that favor and in regard to this matter, we beg to say: owing to the very large increase in the demands made upon us we are having a good deal of trouble in making prompt shipments. Our business has grown much faster than we had anticipated and although we are constantly adding to our facilities and resources we find it absolutely impossible to keep up with our natural growth.
 Strange to say this increased demand has come almost without any effort on our part either by advertising or otherwise. It has come in practically unsolicited and speaks volumes for the satisfaction which our piano must be giving wherever it has been placed.
 We expect within a few months to move into much larger quarters, after which we hope that we can give you and all of our other representatives prompt and more satisfactory attention.
 Hoping this explanation for our recent tardiness will be satisfactory,
 we beg to remain, with kind regards,
 Yours very truly,
CHICKERING BROS.
