THE THIRD DAY.

Record Breaking Crowd Present. Result of Pacing, Trotting and Running Races. Indian Dances on the Main Street Very Interesting.

PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT.

Between five and six thousand people passed through the gates at the fair grounds yesterday to witness the events on the afternoon's program.

The harness races began at the appointed hour and at 5 o'clock the first game in the horse ball tournament was called. Everyone was in good humor, the weather fine and the attractions were fully up to the standard of excellence.

The cowboy tournament was scheduled to begin at the conclusion of the horse ball game, but the national sport was not completed until the shades of evening began falling and consequently the roping contest was postponed until this afternoon.

In the evening the Navajo Indians gave an exhibition of their famous dance on Railroad avenue and were witnessed by several thousand people. The same tribe of Indians will give another exhibition Saturday night on Railroad avenue around campfires. First will be started on the avenue in the middle of the block and dances will take place around each at the same time.

This afternoon the fair grounds were given and the fourth game of horse ball was played by the El Paso and Albuquerque clubs. The cowboy tournament was a feature that was entirely new to the majority of the crowd.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM. At 7:30 o'clock the Elks will form in line at Zigler's cafe and parade through the most important streets in full uniform. The carnival will be participated in by a large number of visitors. At 9 o'clock the grand ball will take place at the Elks hall on North Second street. Everybody will be requested to raise their masks on entering the hall in order that no improper characters might take part in the evening's entertainment.

LAST DAY'S EVENTS. In the afternoon of Saturday a couple of harness races and a half-mile running race will be seen and horse ball game. Arrangements are being made with the Navajo Indians to give an exhibition of barbed wire riding on the race course, but this event will not be fully decided upon until late this evening.

In the cowboy tournament the following experts at roping, steer-tying and broncho "busting" will be seen at the fair grounds: Messrs. Clay McGinnis, Joe Gardner, Al Alexander, R. L. Roberts, G. P. Anderson, R. M. Greig, Jim Hartley, Albert Clardy, L. H. Milton, F. Chisholm, E. B. Holt, Frank G. Blake, Merito Platero, Pedro Duran and Romeo Moore. In this event about thirty Indians will take part.

THE LAST NIGHT. Navajo Indians to give final exhibit of dance around campfires on Railroad avenue. Midway attractions and Huerfano Strolling Players at Colorado hall. A cinematograph moving picture show at No. 25 West Railroad avenue.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

Deck Wins Again—Sister B. Successful—Colonel Talsma Wins. The horse races yesterday afternoon, although the day was considered the big day of the meeting, were not as exciting as the two previous days, when Lady Margaret made Raymond M. pace his best to beat her and Action left Teller understanding that she was as fast as he in the 2:25 trot event.

Deck, W. L. Trimble's gallant pacer, was returned again as the winner in the 2:00 pace for a purse of $200. Bonnie Treasure, Anna Gould and Marshall Good being the other paces. It was three straight heats for Deck in 2:27, 2:30 and 2:30, the summary being as follows:

Deck 1 1
Marshall Good 2 1 4
Bonnie Treasure 3 2 2
Anna Gould 4 1 3

FREE-FOR-ALL TROT.

The free-for-all trot, for a purse of $400, had as starters the following horses: Sister B. of Colorado Springs; C. K. W. of

THE DANCE OF INDIANS.

Thousands of spectators congregated on both sides of Railroad avenue last night between First and Fourth streets to witness the famous dance of the Navajo Indians in the light of red and green fire. The Indians did not arrive on the street in their pygmy until 8:30 o'clock and were not getting started until 9 o'clock. The first set of dancers were dressed in highly colored ribbons, silver ornaments and feathers and exhibited some of the most beautiful dances of the tribe. Shortly after their retirement another set of Navajos appeared on the street and went through the same performance as the first squad, but their robes were made with the exception of one string.

COBWOY TOURNAMENT.

Started Yesterday Afternoon and Renewed This Afternoon. Three wild steers were turned loose at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon and many of the cowboys started after them in hot pursuit with their pistols and lassos. It was nearly 6 o'clock when this exercise began and the light of day was fading fast for the boys to give a good exhibition of their skill. The knights of the ranges made three attempts at cattle roping before it was decided to postpone the event until this afternoon. Colonel C. M. Foraker and Colonel Alex. Brinsacker, two famous cow-ropers of the western plains, are the judges and timers of the cowboy tournament.

PICKPOCKETS DOING TURNS.

They "Steal" Sheriff Hubbell and Hub Leads for Money and a Diamond. A pickpocket, while strolling among the crowd at the fair grounds yesterday, snatched Sheriff Hubbell and immediately sized him up as a "mark." A short time afterwards "Como Estame" discovered that he had been touched for the neat little sum of $400 in cold cash. It was not long until the police force was alerted and the pickpocket was quickly apprehended. The thief was a man of about 30 years of age, of Mexican descent, and was wearing a dark suit and a light-colored shirt. He was taken to the police station and is now being held for further investigation.

"Friends" Induced Him to do Certain Things and He is the Loser. You don't want to talk horse racing to Shinick for a few days. He does not feel right. His "friends" induced him to put a new driver behind Action in the free-for-all trot and she got only third money, and his "friends" also induced him to put a new fangled check on her bridle to keep her jaw up. At this Action made a grand check in the fourth heat, as she was coming out the start she rose up on her hind legs and fell over backwards, crushing the like silky like a eggshell. Shinick says his "friends" advised him about $200. First money in the free-for-all and a $25 bike.

Shinick says his "friends" advised him about $200. First money in the free-for-all and a $25 bike.

THE ECONOMIST.

"Friends" Induced Him to do Certain Things and He is the Loser. You don't want to talk horse racing to Shinick for a few days. He does not feel right. His "friends" induced him to put a new driver behind Action in the free-for-all trot and she got only third money, and his "friends" also induced him to put a new fangled check on her bridle to keep her jaw up. At this Action made a grand check in the fourth heat, as she was coming out the start she rose up on her hind legs and fell over backwards, crushing the like silky like a eggshell. Shinick says his "friends" advised him about $200. First money in the free-for-all and a $25 bike.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. H. Bryant and wife are entertaining the former's sisters, Mrs. E. M. Ely of Las Vegas and Mrs. A. L. Bundy of Madrid.

Mr. R. Aldrich, the well known merchant and Indian trader at Gallup and Manuquito, is in the city enjoying himself.

Mr. B. Stewart of Springer is here attending the fair and visiting his son, John Stewart, of the Journal-Democrat office.

Dr. Raymond Russ of the local railway hospital is enjoying a visit from his uncle, Hon. Charles D. Pierce, and wife, of Oakland, Cal.

Mr. E. Martin, secretary of the territorial penitentiary, and wife, came in from Santa Fe last night to attend the fair today and tomorrow.

General Charles F. Easley, ex-surveyor of New Mexico and a popular gentleman of the democratic persuasion, is in the city from Santa Fe.

Col. E. A. Levy, the big curio merchant of Juarez, Mexico, is here and called at the Citizens office today. He reports every body down south prospering in this year.

Judge A. B. Fall, who was here with the big El Paso delegation, has returned south, stopping at Las Cruces to attend the district court, now in session there.

Paul Hammett, son of the mayor of El Paso, and Charles Dunn, a plumber of the Pass City, came in from the south this morning and will remain a couple of days.

It is understood that about 120 Catholics were here yesterday and everyone was on the fair grounds in the afternoon. Ike and Warren Graham were noticed in the crowd.

One of the interesting side features of the parade yesterday was Carl Hopping's set-up of the yacht Columbia on a bicycle. It was a novel way to advertise his bicycle business.

J. P. Stuber, of Lincoln, Neb., is here on a visit to his brother, G. W. Stuber, and will remain for some time in this section, leaving immediately after the close of the camp of the Jura-Trias copper company.

The Albuquerque lodge of Eagles kept open house up stairs over Ziegler's Cafe yesterday and last night, and entertained their guests in a royal manner. Waiters were present to attend to the inner wants of the visitors.

Emiliano, infant child of Jesus H. Sanchez of Peralta, died Wednesday night at 12 o'clock of cholera infantum. The funeral, under direction of Undertaker Edwards, was held this afternoon at the above place.

Max E. Becker, the local agent of the Germania Life Insurance company, is entertaining W. E. Nordbech and wife recently returned to the territorial capital last night. He is an enthusiastic volunteer fireman and is the secretary of the Santa Fe Pacific tin shop trust, which was the work of Foreman George Thigold, both in conceiving the idea and putting it in execution. The design shown on the banner represented New Mexico taking her place among the states of the union and was portrayed by an eagle in a characteristic attitude of triumph and directing attention of the world to a bright new star appearing on the horizon of the states stellar system.

C. W. Allen, the handsome business manager of the Las Vegas Optic, was at the fair yesterday afternoon with a bevy of pretty young ladies and, blushing, the gallant Charley stated "that they were all his daughters." In any event, they were, passed upstairs on the grandstand, and as they filed by a fair official all enjoyed a good laugh. It was a Las Vegas joke.

Mrs. J. Vann is entertaining Mrs. J. B. Hodgson and daughter of Denning. One of the fine attractions at the art hall is a display of rugs, made by Mrs. Ed. A. Nichols, 312 Fruit avenue.

Dr. George C. Brown, a well known citizen of Alamogordo, is here today and is greatly interested in the base ball team of that city.

Prof. Lewis returned from the north in time to see the fall line in yesterday's parade. He will be in evidence in the fall-morning tonight.

John S. Brown, the coal dealer, appeared on the streets Wednesday with a new coat of paint, which was manufactured by Ortiz & Co.

Robert Corley, the well known mine owner of Colorado, is here with some fine samples of ore from the mines of Colorado. The ore is of the best quality and will remain for two days.

R. C. Garrett, the brick expert at the territorial penitentiary, Santa Fe, accompanied Mr. J. H. Martin and wife to the city last night and will remain for two days.

Gustav Westerland, mother and family of Trinidad, arrived themselves of the express of Colorado in the big fair and came down the earlier part of the week. They are guests of Gustav Westerland and family on North Second street.

Fine Musical Instruments.

One of the finest pianos that ever came to the city was received yesterday by the Whittson Music company. It is one of those beautiful pianos which has made the firm of that house, New York, famous. The instrument has an exquisite mahogany finish and its tone is charming. All lovers of music are especially invited to call and examine the piano. The Whittson Music company also carries in stock other fine pianos and all kinds of small musical instruments, guitars and violins in large numbers and all of the Whittson make. Latest sheet music sold at low prices.
