SCHLEY INQUIRY.

Examination of Witnesses Resumed.

Telegraph Line Completed to Klondike Region.

Duke and Duchess of Cornwall Making Tour.

MRS. ROOSEVELT GOES TO WASHINGTON.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—When the court of inquiry convened at 11 o'clock today the seat which had been occupied from the beginning of the sitting by Judge Jeremiah Wilson was vacant.

Admiral Schley stated that since the death of Judge Wilson, Attorney General Laidlaw Rayner would be the leading counsel in his case and be assisted by Captain James Parker of New Jersey and M. A. Toogee of Baltimore. The wall back of the court was adorned today with a chart on a large scale showing the ground of the battle of Santiago on July 3. Also a number of transparent charts intended to illustrate the various phases of the Santiago campaign. The first witness called today was B. C. Claxton, minister on board the Texas, who began his testimony when the sitting of the court was so abruptly terminated yesterday morning by the death of Judge Wilson.

Claxton said that on July 3, 1898, he was on duty in the engine room of the Texas. The engine indicator had called for full speed ahead early in the morning, which had within an hour after beginning of action been changed to full speed astern.

Rear Admiral Coffin, now commandant of the Norfolk navy yard who commanded the auxiliary cruiser Harvard during the Spanish war was the next witness. He told of meeting the flying squadron under Commodore Schley off Santiago May 27, 1898, and said on that date that he delivered a dispatch to the then commandant of the Harvard, Rear Admiral Sampson and his department. He said Commodore Schley asked if he thought the vessel could make it to the St. Nicholas or in the Gonaves channel, and he told him that the small ones could, but not the battleships.

Admiral Coffin said that while he was on board the Brooklyn the order to start for Key West was given. In response to further questions Admiral Coffin said that he had original translations of the cypher dispatches addressed to the Harvard which he delivered to Schley. A dispatch of May 25 was then read by him, as follows:

"Washington, May 25, 1898.—Harvard, St. Nicholas Mole, Hayti: Proceed at once and inform Schley; also senior officers at present off Santiago as follows: All the department's information indicates that the Spanish division is still at Santiago. The department looks to you to ascertain the facts and if necessary, if there is no leave without a decision action. The Cuban fleet with Santiago says there are landing places five or six nautical miles from the mouth of the harbor and there the insurgents probably will be found and not the Spanish; surrounding heights can see every vessel in port. Soon as ascertained notify department whether the enemy is there. Could not squadron and also the Harward coal from the Merrimack at Cape Cruz, Gonaves channel, or at the Mole, Hayti? The department will send coal immediately to the Mole. Report without delay the situation at Santiago, Cuba."

"LONG."

Rayner called attention to the fact that there was some material changes in the dispatches as printed in the official reports by the navy department.

Admiral Schley's reply to these dispatches, dated May 29, in which he said he could not obey orders of the department were then read, and Rayner pointed out the various changes in the language of the dispatches as printed in the official report.

The witness said that no effort was made by Schley to comply with the department's order as far as he knew.

Captain William C. Wise, in command of the auxiliary cruiser, told of his reconnoitering about Santiago harbor May 22, previous to the arrival of the flying squadron. He was not able to see anything of the Span-

MAGGIO TRIAL.

Anarchist Bound Over to Grand Jury.

He Denied the Charges Against Him.

Grand Jury Will Hear His Case in Las Cruces, October 7.

SECRETARY GAGE COMING WEST.

Special to The Citizen.

Silver City, N. M., Sept. 25.—At the Maggio hearing at 10 a. m. before Commissioner Newcomb several witnesses were placed on the stand, who stated that the prisoner told them months ago that the president would be killed before October 1.

Maggio on the stand denied the statements and made a long talk. He said that he was an anarchist, but not against the United States, but his own country, Italy, and driven to the belief by the hardships of the poor classes in Italy.

No substantial evidence was introduced by the prosecution and Maggio was bound over to await the United States grand jury at Las Cruces on October 7, under $10,000 bond.

Secretary Gage Coming West.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 25.—Secretary of the Treasury Gage expects to leave Washington tomorrow for Chicago and Denver. His vacation was cut short by the death of President McKinley and as he is in need of rest, the secretary will spend several weeks in the west.

Writ of Prohibition Granted.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 25.—The supreme court today granted a writ of prohibition forbidding Judge Dixon to interfere in the operation of the new revenue law. Hearing set for October 7. No call for extra session of the legislature can be issued before that date.

WANT EXCESSIVE GUARANTEE.

The Santa Fe Base Ball Club Wants Money.

When the Albuquerque Browns returned from Santa Fe last Sunday night, where in the afternoon they played the Santa Fe Cyclones and were defeated, it was given out that the Cyclones would return the game and play here on the coming Sunday.

Terms and conditions to be the same as the two previous games.

This morning Manager McGuffey received a telegram from Santa Fe stating that if the Browns would guarantee the Cyclones $250, they would next Sunday the Capital City club would come down and play the Browns another game.

Manager McGuffey replied that if the Cyclones would play here next Sunday afternoon the Browns would guarantee them $75 toward their expenses and the winners to take all the gate receipts. This is a fair proposition and Messrs. Helm, Morrison, Martin and others are requested to consider it from a true sportsman's standpoint.

This afternoon Manager McGuffey received the following telegram:

"Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 25.—Can't bring team for less than $200 guarantee on account of paid players. Must have quick answer on account of their leaving for home."

A later telegram from Santa Fe announces that the game for next Sunday day off as far as the Cyclones are concerned. The Citizen regrets the decision for the reason it believes the Santa Fe club would have made money by playing here next Sunday.

Brown's Benefit.

Tickets for the Albuquerque Browns' benefit October 3 and 4 are now on sale at all public places. Card tickets have been issued in advance that entitles the holder to an exchange for reserved seats at Madison's. The method of distribution of seats is first come, first served. However, there is not a seat in the theater that will not prove satisfactory.

LATE ITEMS FROM GALLUP.

Town Marshal W. A. Smith Seen by a Citizen Representative.

W. A. Smith, town marshal of Gallup, came in from the west this morning, being called here as a witness in the Baca murder case now on trial at the court house.

Mr. Smith was seen by a Citizen representative, from whom the following items were gleaned:

Chi-Chi-Nez, the Navajo Indian who resisted arrest by Deputy Marshal McCoy and was shot in the hip on the 8th inst. at Gallup, had an examination before Judge Welsh at Gallup on Monday night. The Indian was identified by two witnesses as the one who fired three shots. He was held for the grand jury in default of $500 bail.

Thomas Fenton, a miner at Catalpa, wounded himself accidentally in the leg on Monday night by the careless use of a pistol. The ball ranged down from the calf of the leg into the ankle. Two negro miners at Catalpa had some trouble with each other at the saloon. One fired a shot at the other, and the latter hit him in the arm, being called here as a witness in the Baca murder case now on trial at the court house.

Judge Welsh gave his decision in the McCoy murder case at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, discharging the prisoner from custody on the grounds that the shooting of the Indian was justifiable. Late in the afternoon Mr. Smith received a telegram from United States Marshal Forsaker asking him to re-arrest McCoy, but McCoy had already been discharged from custody and could not be located up to the time No. 2 passenger train left for Albuquerque.

SERIOUS FIRE AVERTED.

Timely Discovery Saved the N. T. Armijo Building.

The N. T. Armijo brownstone business building, corner of Second street and Railroad avenue, came very near going up in smoke at about 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening.

Smoke was observed coming out of raised office windows on the first floor and down the front stairs. Investigation revealed the fact that fire was in progress at a point where the upstairs on the first floor on the west side joins the ceiling, and was burning briskly when E. W. Spencer,
