Easy Way to Dispose of Reservation Lands.

Sloops and Schooners Racing for the Astor Cups.

EMPRESS FREDERICK ILL.

Manila, July 28.—Major Henry Allen, Forty-third volunteers, some time since appointed governor of the island of Leyte, has been chosen chief of the insular constabulary and will proceed with the organization of that force.

Capt. Spelman, of the Forty-third regiment, has been sentenced to two years in prison for encouraging trading at closed ports.

General Chaffee has issued an order that troops shall wear their coats but not their breeches outside the barracks. The order dispenses with the use of fannel shirts, which heretofore has been the customary outer garments.

Two native policemen have been killed in the suburbs of Cebu. Firing upon the town continues.

GREAT LOTTERY SCHEME.

Government Disposing of Lands of Kiowa-Comanche Reservation.

El Reno, O. T., July 28.—One of the greatest lotteries in history, that conducted by the federal government in disposing of 13,000 quarter-sections of lands of the Kiowa-Comanche reservation was begun here this morning. No public event in years in the northwest has attracted so much attention as this day's initiation of a new method of disposing of government lands. One hundred and sixty-seven thousand persons, each with one chance in thirteen of winning a homestead, watched the event here in El Reno or at a distance, for applicants come from every state in the Union. The drawing took place on a platform in the open air a few blocks from the center of El Reno. People occupied every inch, almost, of the space around and about every move of the government officials being watched with the most intense interest. El Reno yesterday carried for fully fifteen thousand people, and the trains that came in this morning swelled the crowd to fully double that number.

The first envelope taken from the wheel contained the name of James R. Wood, Weatherford, Oklahoma, registered for homestead in the lawton district. Mattie H. Beals, Wichita, Kansas, birthplace Missouri, drew No. 2, also in the lawton district. Without doubt they will select two quarter sections adjoining the Lawton town site district, worth $40,000 each. Number 1, El Reno district, Stephen A. Holcomb, Paul's Valley, I. T., drew No. 2, Leonard Lamb, Augusta, O. T.

It was announced to-day that in tabulating the registration it was apparent that more than two of those applicants had registered at various booths, many giving identical name and address and personal description. All these were thrown out and the applicants will not have even the one chance they were originally entitled to. It is also reasonably certain that many others registered under different names. They will be ferreted out when the blings are made. Besides these it is reported on good authority that the registration was made on hundreds of applications because of illegal writing, and against this there is bitter complaint. It was found, it is stated, that the majority of the applications were illegitimate, and which it is presumed the rules will exclude, are from the Lawton district, where most of the homesteads came from Texas, Arkansas and Indian Territory.

SLOOPS AND SCHOONERS.

Lively Racing for the Handsome Astor Cups.

Bateman's Point, July 29.—In a ten knot breeze and with other indications promising good races, fifteen sloops and yaws and three schooners came out of Newport harbor before 10:30 to-day to compete in their respective classes, for the Astor cups for sloops and schooners, valued at $1,000 and $500, for each class respectively. Here, for the most valuable of these trophies have gone to the schooners, but on account of the Constitution and the Columbia being among the competitors this year the donor reversed the conditions and the $1,000 cup goes to sloops class for competition. The sky is overcast and the early morning gave some appearance of rain. Half an hour before the start there seemed to be little chance for the observers ashore to see much of the race. The starting signal for sloops was given at 11:05; for schooners at 11:10.

Just after starting out of the harbor the yawl Alisa grounded on Goat Island, so as the Vigilant left yesterday for Greenport, L. I., the Navahoe was the only yawl that came out at the start.

General Chaffee has issued an order that troops shall wear their coats but not their breeches outside the barracks. The order dispenses with the use of fannel shirts, which heretofore has been the customary outer garments.

Erecting Massive Barracks.
London, July 29.—A Shanghai correspondent of the Globe, calling to-day, says:

"Assurance given in the house of commons on July 23 by Lord Cranborne, under foreign secretary, that the French and German troops are only temporary here are refuted by the fact that both nationalities are erecting massive permanent barracks, which will take two years to complete, indicating that many years occupation is contemplated."

MARKET QUOTATIONS.
Market quotations and review furnished by W. P. Metcalf, No. 5 Cromwell block, received over the private wire of F. G. Logan.

Stocks. July 29.—The market opened quiet but buoyant upon the favorable crop news and practical settlement of the strike, with prices showing in advance of 1/4 to 2 percent throughout the list.

The steel stocks and grangers naturally in the lead. There was realizing, however, on the advance and prices eased off and the close was largely steady, but liquidation seemed to be over and the feeling generally good.

His Tragic Death Occurred on Santa Fe Pacific Saturday Morning.

On Saturday morning last at about 10:30 o'clock Fireman Ira B. Davis was killed near Arroyo station on the Santa Fe Pacific railroad, while the train was running at a high speed. He was in the gangway of the engine, leaning out to see that the cars contained no hot boxes, when suddenly he was struck on the back of the head by a bridge timber, and knocked from the engine. Davis' body fell through the bridge, bounding from one obstruction to the other until it reached the ground. The engineer, seeing what happened, brought the train to a standstill, and hastened back to the relief of his fellowman, but when he reached that point, Davis was dead. The train crew picked up the body and carried it to the nearest station and notified the railway officials of the accident. The skull was badly fractured and many bones were found pressing on the brain, and the body was horribly bruised. Later in the day the body was brought to this city and turned over to Undertaker J. W. Edwards for embalming.

Besides wife and three children Mr. Davis is survived by his parents, brothers and sisters in Fairbury, Neb., to which place the remains will be shipped this evening for interment.

A Lucky Find.
In coming across the Kansas prairie the other day, Mrs. Belinda Anderson, of Maquoketa, Iowa, dropped her pocketbook out of the window on a Pullman coach on the fast morning south-bound passenger train. She reported her loss to the conductor, who in turn reported it to the proper officials. Mrs. Anderson came on to Albuquerque, and this morning the lady's pocketbook was turned over to Agent Pate, it having been found and expressed to this city. The pocketbook was quite valuable, containing besides some important papers a draft for $75 and about $18.50 in money.

New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

The New Mexico Territorial Fair will be held in Albuquerque from October 15th to October 19th. Premium List will aggregate $10,000.

ALBUQUERQUE, — JULY 29, 1901.

Theodore Roosevelt will have the six votes of New Mexico for president in the national republican convention in 1904.

The heated atmosphere at El Paso has affected the editorial writers, and a bitter war is in progress between the Times and the News.

This office is in receipt of Governor Otero's message and accompanying reports. The pamphlet contains over 500 pages of valuable matter relating to New Mexico.

Deming is discussing incorporation, and will hold a meeting next Saturday to decide the matter. The town is making solid ground and should be incorporated as a city.

Porto Rico is free from debt of any kind. The revenue exceeds expenditure, and taxation is the lightest ever known there. All that democratic sympathy for the "oppressed islanders" was wasted.

A Texas preacher prayed for rain, and soon thereafter the rain arrived, with lightning as a side feature. The lightning struck the church, and fire destroyed it. The preacher is thinking it over.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, last, the total exports of bread stuffs from the United States represented a value of $267,487,229, while exports of cotton were valued at $212,283,578, the great staple of the south thus leading all exports.

Many of the fairs in Kansas planned for this year are being given up, because the farmers will have nothing to exhibit. It would be a good time for them to come out and visit the irrigation region and see what New Mexico can exhibit at Albuquerque next October.

If Great Britain has any conscience left home she can permit 100,000 human beings to be crowded together in concentration camps, merely to prove that she is stronger than two little South African republics? The British government and the British people which tolerate such an outrage have a great deal to answer for.

Reports from various sections give evidence that the best sugar industry of Southern California is experiencing a season of unprecedented prosperity. For the first time in the history of the industry all of the factories are in full operation. It is estimated that more than $1,000,000 will be paid during the coming three months for beets, labor and supplies.

MANUFACTURE OF PENS.
The manufacture of pens in the United States is confined to only four companies, although one might suppose there were many more. That does not include the making of gold pens, which is a separate industry, but pens of steel, brass and German silver. The steel for these pens is brought chiefly from Sheffield, England, and is the best blade steel. Many experiments have been made with steel manufactured over here, but it never has satisfactorily stood the test.

OLDEST CITY.
What is the oldest American city? Santa Fe and St. Augustine have had a long dispute as to priority. Now comes a Mr. Hilzinger, who gives the date of settlement of Tucson, Arizona, in 1555, some half a century earlier than the founding of Santa Fe or St. Augustine. He bases his claim upon authentic documents, including a parchment discovered among the records of the old mission of San Xavier, dated 1552, when the settlement was ordered to be established, and attached to which is an account of the founding of Tucson, written in the hand of Marcus de Niza, who explored Arizona.

INSURANCE.
During 1900 insurance companies of all kinds collected in New Mexico $477,029.66 in premiums and paid out only $186,836.71 or only 39.37 per cent of the sum collected, 10 per cent less than the average in other states. The auditor also shows that fire insurance is carried on $10,729,490.48 worth of property in the territory. As such insurance can be carried only on a certain class of real and personal property, generally only 5 to 10 per cent of the total wealth of a state, the New Mexican says that a better idea of the real value of personal and real property owned in the territory is gained than by looking over the assessment rolls of the different counties. Over $11,000,000 worth of life insurance is carried in New Mexico by companies doing their business directly in the territory while undoubtedly nearly as much more is carried by companies

Deming, N. M., July 27.—Mrs. W. H. Greer has returned from her California trip, which was a very pleasant one.

Mrs. C. P. Howell and Miss Gertrude Squires have been at Hachita for the past three months came in the latter part of the week to visit friends in Deming. They left for Hachita Saturday night.

Deming and the country surrounding it have been blessed with several soaking rains of late. Especially to the north of the town the grass is beginning to show a very healthy green.

J. J. Jacobson of the Catalina plant has put in a steam pump of good size with which to pump water for his alfalfa, corn, fruit and other crops when water runs low in the irrigation ditch.

Although the Mimbre fruit crop will be a comparatively small one this season, other farm produce is doing well. Watermelons are growing to a healthy size, and at the German farm, just above the old town, they expect to make as many as four cuttings of alfalfa.

A wedding which will interest Deming folks took place at the Southern hotel in Silver City on the 24th of this month. Mr. J. H. Dorman, of that city, was the bridegroom, and Miss Gertrude Squires, of Deming, was the bride.

Deming boy for nearly a year. He was bookkeeper for W. J. Wamler while in that city. Mrs. Charles Miller, of Deming, is the daughter of the well known cattlemen, Tom Brown, of Swartz, and was a student in the Deming schools for a number of years.

Both bride and groom are well known in Deming and are very popular among the young people here. All wish them a long and happy life.

Victoria Land and Cattle company's ranch house at their Apache Tojo ranch, which has been in process of erection for some time past is now nearly completed and is a home to be proud of. It is occupied by the Diamond A. foreman, Henry Brock and his wife and child, together with other employees of the company.

The building is of substantial rock foundation. It has three bed rooms, dining room, kitchen, sitting room, bath room and hall and is supplied with handsome furniture as well as all other appliances of the modern home. The water they use is piped from a warm spring about a mile above the ranch, and, like most New Mexican water, is of a very good quality. Taking everything into consideration, Apache Tojo, the Apache's nest, is one of the most comfortable and desirable homes in the whole territory.

Incorporation for the town and a practicable way for fighting fire in the town. The citizens here are well known in the territory. The Business Men's association met at the club rooms to take the two matters under consideration and a few heated arguments were indulged in. It was agreed to hold a meeting of all the citizens at the opera house the evening of the 3rd to talk both matters over and to decide what was best to be done.

The marriage of Seferino Alegria and Miss Emma C. Meek, both of this city, will be celebrated Saturday, August 24. The young people are well known and popular in Socorro and their many friends will wish them a full realization of the many joys they anticipate.

Dr. Duncan knows more about arroyos than he did last year. Friday the arroyo west of town was running with unusual force and the doctor attempted to drive across it. The horse plunged into a hole and lost its footing, the buggy was overturned and the doctor was rescued from the torrent a hundred yards below where he entered it. Fortunately there was no serious results from the accident, but Dr. Duncan's friends will feel disposed to impose upon him a government of his own kind.

It is estimated that the passenger earnings of the Rock Island as a result of the rush to El Reno will amount to $1,000,000.

The Art of Advertising

Is a greatly misconstrued expression. There is no art connected with a true advertisement—it is simply a narration of store news. Dashing headlines and beautiful phraseology attract the eye, produce occasional purchases and invariably result in dissatisfaction. Our method of advertising is to relate facts. We have our say and let you judge its veracity. That this manner has merited the entire approval of all classes of shoppers has again been demonstrated to us by the great success achieved by our recent sales. The coming months business will be a record breaker, for we have some great surprises in store for you.

MAIL THIEF NABBED.

Postoffice Inspectors Captured Robert L. Sumner Early This Morning.

NIGHT CHIEF CLERK AT DEPOT.

For the past few months, in fact for almost a year, and especially since last February, the merchants and people in general of Albuquerque have been complaining to the postoffice officials that their mail remittances to eastern firms and friends never reach their destinations and they were being subjected in consequence to great annoyance.

The complaints were so numerous, that the department at Washington sent out this positive order to Chief Inspector Sullivan, of the Denver division, "Catch that thief" and in consequence of that imperative demand Postoffice Inspectors Doran and Smithers were detailed on the case.

The two inspectors arrived in the city last Thursday night and immediately began their investigations, having this and that man who handled the mails either at the local postoffice and from the mail box at the depot under suspicion. They worked on the case day and night since last Thursday, and this morning, at 3 o'clock, with indisputed evidence of his guilt on his person in the finding or revealed letters, they arrested Robert L. Sumner, the night chief clerk at the Santa Fe railway depot. He signed his signature of confession to many depredations, and was promptly locked up in a cell at the county jail.

The inspectors believe from the number of complaints which have reached them and the department since Sumner started on duty, that nearly a thousand letters have been stolen and then destroyed by burning in the stove of the depot baggage room office, and as a low estimate over $2,000 in money abstracted from the letters. A few days ago Sumner, among other letters taken from the depot mail box, abstracted one of the Wells Fargo Express company's which contained fourteen express money orders and these he burned up.

It is stated that during the past month over 250 letters, deposited in the depot mail box, have been tampered with, burned up or revealed, and the fellow's stealing for last month alone will amount to several hundred dollars.

Sumner's plan was to look over the letters left on the office desk of the depot baggage room after the mail had been taken from the depot mail box, and to hold back a number of letters from one train to another, giving him plenty of time and opportunity to do his work. When he opened letters and found therein the actual currency he would pocket the money and destroy the envelopes and letters. If the letters contained checks, drafts or money orders, he would not hold these but have them cashed for fear of being detected, but would destroy them the same as the letters and envelopes. If he opened letters without value he would reveal them and mail them on the outgoing postal cars for their destinations.

The inspectors are to be congratulated on bagging this thief, and right here is a good opportunity to say that they were ably assisted in locating and capturing the right man by Fred. Proff, deputy United States marshal; Ben. Williams, special officer, and T. W. Pate, the railway agent, who were on deck at the depot and watched the naves of the Sumner, which finally landed him behind the bars of the county jail.

In his work last night Sumner gave himself completely away, as the letters found at the baggage room office would indicate. There were fifty odd letters in his charge, and of these he had opened, revealed and destroyed about thirty, among which were two "decoy" letters. In one of the placed a letter envelope there had been placed a $1 bill and a silver half dollar. This was addressed to a lady in Santa Fe, and the care of the sheriff there, who previously had had stolen from one of her letters $5. The other text letter was addressed to the wife of a Bates scientific man, who had had stolen from a letter addressed to her a few days ago a $10 bill. In this letter was placed a $1 bill and two silver quarters. For some reason Sumner did not take the decoy money—he was after bigger amounts but in replacing the money and revealing these two particular letters he got the silver in the wrong envelopes, and the scheme worked so well that Sumner, on being accused immediately confessed.

The rumor that he had considerable money on his person when arrested is a mistake, and Sumner's acquaintances are wondering what he did with the stolen money, unless he has "sold" it away. He is reported not to have gambled, but would occasionally touch the flowing bowl and in consequence get drunk.

Agent Pate, in talking about Sumner this morning stated that he filed the position of night chief clerk at the depot and attended to the transfer. He is about 33 years of age, has a wife and two children, residing at No. 515 south Broadway, and was a No. 1 man to attend to the duties assigned him at
