WISCONSIN BANK ROBBED.

San Francisco, Cal., May 25.—The presidential party left for Washington a few moments after 1 o'clock this morning. Mrs. McKinley enjoyed a refreshing night's rest, and seemed elated at the prospect of soon being at home. She was conveyed from the Scott residence to the Oakland ferry in a closed carriage, accompanied by the president, Dr. Hixey and a trained nurse. An immense crowd had assembled at the ferry depot. Heads were uncovered, but enthusiasm was suppressed. There were no formal ceremonies. As the steamer swung into the stream the shipping in the harbor dipped their colors in salute. Tumultuous cheers then broke forth. At Oakland the presidential party went on board a special train, which will be in charge of General Manager Kruttschnitt, of the Southern Pacific, as far as Ogden. BATCH OF INTERESTING NOTES.

Special Correspondence.
Silver City, N. M., May 24.—United States Marshal Foraker and Deputy Marshal Hall are in the city, having arrived on Friday's train. They will get a Chinaman in Silver City, who was not the proper credentials to remain in the land of the free and the brave, and Marshal Hall will take three to San Francisco, from where they will be sent back to their native land.

H. H. Betts, the city assessor, during the past week has been making his rounds to make up this year's tax list.

Miss Greta Shoemaker, who has been attending school in Philadelphia for the past two years, will return home sometime next month, when her school closes.

The field day sports of the Territorial Normal school will be held on Saturday, June 1st. The sports this year will be of unusual interest. The students are practicing considerably for the numerous events, as a large number of prizes will be offered to the winners of the numerous contests.

The county jail in this city has an unusually large number of prisoners confined in it for the ending of a term of court. As a rule, after a term of court the jail is pretty well cleaned out. Sheriff Goodell has the sanitary conditions of the jail in first class condition and is to be commended upon the clean and healthy shape it is constantly kept in, with the large number of persons confined within its walls.

Marshall Laird, of this city, is doing considerable work in making the streets and the city in general much improved. Since he took office the city council, through his influence, has ordered a number of much needed improvements.

Silver City will have a grand celebration on the Fourth of July and the business men have begun the work of making it one of the biggest celebrations ever given in this city.

5 Per Cent, Twenty Year Gold Bonds

OF—
THE - MUTUAL - LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.
SECURITY.

The great financial institutions of the world are as follows:

Bank of England, capital.....	$86,047,935
Bank of France, capital.....	36,500,000
Bank of Germany, capital.....	28,560,000
Bank of Russia, capital.....	25,174,920
Total.....	$176,822,855

FUNDS OF THE MUTUAL LIFE, OVER $328,000,000

The company has in fifty-eight years successfully handled $800,000,000 of trust funds. When, therefore, such an institution issues its bonds, they must be conceded to rank in safety with the highest grade of municipal bonds, and even with those of the government.

What is the fair market value of a Five Per Cent, Twenty Year Gold Bond of indubitable security? Where, indeed, in these days of refunding and low interest rates, can such a bond be had at any price?

Such are the bonds now offered by THE MUTUAL LIFE.

They differ from other insurance contracts in this only, that whenever death occurs the beneficiary receives bonds instead of cash. Each bond is for $1,000, and attached to it are forty coupons of $25.00, payable to the bearer on the first of January and July of each year for twenty years; and then the principal is paid.

For example: The owner is insured for $10,000. He dies, his payments forthwith cease even if he has paid for only one year, and his estate as beneficiary receives:

$500 a year for twenty years.....	$10,000
Then cash.....	10,000
Total guaranteed in gold.....	$20,000

These bonds may be purchased by equal annual installments for life, or by installments limited to twenty, fifteen, ten or five years, or even by one single payment. They may also be secured on the endowment plan, in which case the insured will receive the bonds after a term of years and enjoy the income himself. He thus provides not only for his family, but also for his old age. Where can you purchase another security of the same value upon such terms. For further information address

New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

For Governor of New Mexico from June 7, 1901, to June 7, 1905, Miguel A. Otero.

The New Mexico Territorial Fair will be held in Albuquerque from October 15th to October 19th. Premium list will aggregate $10,000.

ALBUQUERQUE — MAY 25, 1901

The Citizen is getting in shape to advertise the resources of every portion of New Mexico.

Good premiums should be offered by the territorial fair for educational exhibits from each county.

New Mexico loses one of its best citizens by the untimely death of Judge Newcomb, of Las Cruces.

The republicans of Grant county are more united than for years, and will put up a winning fight at the next general election.

The building of a railroad from Durango to Gallup or Albuquerque would be a paying line, and it is one of the enterprises that will materialize in the near future.

Gallup may reach oil before it is struck at Deming, but the oil companies will have to do lively work to reach that end. One of the oil companies at Deming will begin to sink a well next week.

The national irrigation congress which was to meet next July in Colorado Springs has been postponed for one year, because many persons who should attend it will not be able to do so owing to other meetings about the same time.

The New Mexican says that Albuquerque is liable to lose the Rock Island extension, but he is not aware of the apathy of the people here regarding the enterprise. This must be a mistake. This city is ready to give any old thing to secure the Rock Island road.

GRANT COUNTY.

The editor of The Citizen spent several days this week in Silver City, the flourishing town in Grant county, and the hospitable people of that city placed him under many obligations for courtesies. The editors of Silver City especially put him under obligations by going out of their way to give information. The two weekly papers of Silver City are the best in the territory and give better local news than the average weekly county papers of the territory. Both offices are neatly fitted up and have good job offices connected. In fact there is no necessity for anyone in Grant county going outside of Silver City for neat job printing. Hon. Wm. B. Walton is the editor and proprietor of the Independent, the leading democratic paper of southern New Mexico, and L. M. Beckwith is the owner and editor of the old reliable Enterprise, the republican organ of Grant county.

Silver City is situated in a gorge at the beginning of the mountains, a few miles from the edge of the vast Deming plains. The town was established in 1872. The gold was discovered in the vicinity. The city was incorporated a number of years ago, and Mayor Jack Fleming has guided its destiny for fifteen years, having been elected mayor fifteen times without opposition.

In the vicinity of Silver City are the San Rita copper mines, where fifteen hundred men are at work. Nine miles from the town is the famous gold camp of Pinos Altos. The mines of Pinos Altos are among the best of the city, and Chloride flats, Cook's Peak and other mining districts pour a rich stream of gold, silver and copper into the city, making it the best mining center in the territory, and in fact one of the best in the whole southwest.

Silver City is solidly built up. The business portion of the city is entirely of brick and presents a handsome appearance. There are more good brick houses in Silver City than in any other place of the same size in the territory. The city has about 4,000 people. The territorial normal school is a handsome structure located on one of the hundred hills comprising the townsite. The court house and jail stand at the head of one of the principal streets on a commanding elevation. There are several good-sized church buildings. The Catholics have a large masonry and hospital. The public schools are among the best in the territory. The smelter is one of the largest in the southwest. In fact Silver City is a town made up of solid resources, and with its hospitable people the stranger would be a pessimist and a dyspeptic who would not become enthusiastic over its present condition and future prospects.

The bank at Silver City is one of the solid financial institutions of New Mexico. C. P. Grayson is at the head of this bank, and he is a public spirited citizen. He comes the nearest to being the David Harum of New Mexico of any of our city fathers. On every hand we could hear of some good thing that he had quietly done for this and that one of the residents of Silver City. There is an amusing item concerning the history of the first bank in Silver City. In the early 80's Meredith and Allman struck it rich in the Georgetown mines and sold out several hundred thousand dollars to the good. They built themselves fine residences in Silver City and established a bank. On an evil day a big circus came to the town, and the two bankers became interested in trying to find out how to beat the numerous gambling outfits with the circus and lost all the ready money in bank. The next morning it was a disgusted lot of gentlemen who met to discuss the situation.

DEATH IN HIS OWN PLEA.

Manuelito Signed a Pledge but Was Tempted and Fell.

LIQUOR DOOMED THE CHIEF.

A correspondent writing to the Chicago Post from Bartlesville, Oklahoma, under date of May 14th, says: "Manuelito, the most important chief of the Navajos, was known far and wide for his bravery, but unfortunately he was a heavy drinker and says while he was on a visit to Gallup, New Mexico, a temperance lecturer was holding meetings. Out of curiosity Manuelito attended one. When the lecturer worked upon his feelings that he signed the pledge and left the hall wearing a blue ribbon. He lived some distance from Gallup, and his ranch was sixty miles from Gallup. Manuelito stopped at Mr. Hubbell's on his return home and joyfully informed the owner of what he had done, and said that he never would drink another drop of fire water as long as he lived. Mr. Hubbell, who had been a friend of Manuelito's, intended to deliver a temperance lecture to his people. Mr. Hubbell understands Navajo as well as English, and he told the Indians give this pledge they wait until sundown, then build a large corral of logs and brush. They make a large bonfire in the center, around which they dance. During the intermission in the dance Manuelito stepped to the center of the dance ring and began to talk of the evils of drinking liquor. Mr. Hubbell said that for a time he never heard anyone speak more impressively in the cause of temperance. These chances to be an Indian on the outside of the corral under the influence of liquor. With a view of this, he had the Indians to be led to Manuelito. When he realized what the subject was, knowing Manuelito's weakness, he decided to put him to the test. He entered the corral and approached the speaker, but Manuelito saw the whisky bottle and put it to his lips. He drank and got drunk, and then he fell back and died. The whisky bottle was found in his hand. Mr. Hubbell said that for a time he never heard anyone speak more impressively in the cause of temperance. DEATH OF R. J. HAMILTON.

A New Mexican Pioneer Passes to His Final Rest.

After a lingering sickness R. J. Hamilton, one of New Mexico's oldest citizens, passed quietly away. Mr. Hamilton came to New Mexico with a colony of Indians in 1858 and settled at the Hatch ranch in the Ortiz grant. Here he engaged in business until the railroad was built in these parts, and he then removed to Las Vegas, where he has lived since. For twelve years Mr. Hamilton was employed in the railroad offices at this place. In 1895 Mr. Hamilton joined in marriage to Miss Sophia Stone. Mr. Hamilton, at the time of his death, was 72 years of age. He was a good Christian gentleman and held the respect and affection of his associates. —Las Vegas Record.

Thomas Maple, Burkhack, Ill., writes: "I had a very bad cold, and my throat was sore. I tried many remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I finally got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and took one bottle which cured me. I have not been affected since. I gladly recommend this remedy." Alvaredo Pharmacy.

PHOSPHATE IN DEMAND.

John R. DeMier, of Las Cruces, Ships Six Tons a Day to California.

John R. DeMier, a well known and prosperous citizen of Las Cruces, was in the city last night on his way to California, partly on business and partly on pleasure, and will return in a couple of weeks.

Mr. DeMier is the lessee of the extensive guano and phosphate fields on the Armerdis land grant in Socorro county, these being situated about twelve miles east of Lavea station on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway. Mr. DeMier is shipping about six tons daily to California, where he has contracts with owners of extensive orchards and groves, for all the phosphate and guano he can ship them. He is now employing fifteen men and a foreman to work the fields, and he finds his lease very profitable.

Asked about the condition of the Mesilla valley, Mr. DeMier stated that while the peach crop is a total failure, there will be extensive crops of all other fruits in the valley, and hence orchardists are very good. The wheat crop will be the best and largest ever produced in the Mesilla valley and the wheat promises to be of a very superior quality, as are all of the cereals raised there. These cereals are taken to the mills of that county and used, the home market being the best. The farmers are doing well in this way. The Rio Grande is full to the banks and the ditches throughout the Mesilla valley are full.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

The family of L. L. Gatewood, bookkeeper at The Economist, have gone to Zanesville, Ohio, to spend the summer with relatives.

There will be a dance given by the Rebekahs at Odd Fellows' hall on Wednesday, May 23. All who desire a good time should attend. Admission, 50 cents.

J. E. Elder, superintendent of the Colorado Telephone and Telegraph company, is expected here from Las Vegas, where he has been on company business for several days past.

It was a very creditable move on the part of David Weinmann, of the popular Economist dry goods store and Alfred Grandfield, when they headed the subscription list for music at the park during the summer. Let others respond.

Miss Bessie Borden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Borden, came in from Cabelon, where she has been teaching, under the Congregational Educational society, and went to Socorro on a short visit to her sister, Mrs. K. M. Sleight.

A petition is being circulated among the property owners of south Broadway, especially from Coal avenue north, asking that a cement sidewalk be constructed to and beyond the railway hospital. The walk down that way is in a most deplorable condition, and the council would be doing a wise thing to turn its attention to Broadway.

Albuquerque was visited last night and today by a very damaging wind storm. Awnings throughout the city were twisted into various shapes, telephone lines were torn down in several sections of the city, while limbs were snapped off the cottonwood trees. The wind last night, especially between the hours of 10 and midnight, was as bad as could be, except when houses are blown down and railway engines tossed from tracks.

The Flagstaff Gem says: The Albuquerque Fair committee has decided to hang up purses aggregating $3,000 for running and trotting races. For base ball a purse of $1,400, divided as follows: First prize, $1,000; second prize, $400. A number of liberal prizes are offered for other sports and exhibits. An effort will be made to secure the Moqui Indian snake dancers for the fair, and the famous military band of Chihuahua.

On June 15th the new Columbus band will give a concert at Columbus hall to be followed by a dance. This will be the first public appearance of the new Italian band and an opportunity will be given the public to hear and judge of the music it can furnish, and the proficiency made by the players, who have been in practice for some time. Next week a committee will be out with tickets and a large sale is expected.

Some intimate friends of Hon. J. W. Crumpacker have sent to him at La Porte, Indiana, where he is at present rusticiating, a fine healthy musical burro, of guaranteed vocal ability. The judge is expected home soon after the animal arrives there, as he will not be able to face the citizens of the above town when they call to thank him for his addition to the attractions of La Porte. Sheriff Hubbell personally superintended the shipping of the musical burro.

The new sidewalk ordinances recently passed by the city council will be published in The Citizen Monday afternoon. They will also receive publication in the Weekly Citizen.

The City Directory.

It was the intention of Hughes & McCord, publishers of the new city directory of Albuquerque, to have the book in the hands of the people by the 1st of May, but the first delay was caused by the fact that the printer was sending a package of half-tone cuts to some other part of the United States instead of Albuquerque.

We thought the delay was now almost printed, and it is hoped to have it ready for distribution by Monday or Tuesday of next week. It will be for sale at 25 cents per copy, and all the churches and schools are illustrated with cuts.
