TARIFF TALK IN THE HOUSE

Representatives Warner of Illinois and DeArmond of Missouri Speak Against Reciprocity With Cuba.

THE PANAMA CANAL SCHEME

Senator Morgan Speaks of the Clouds of Doubt Concerning the Panama Route and Declares That Political Conditions in Nicaragua and Costa Rica Are More Favorable.

HOUSE.

Washington, April 17.—The House began its session at 11 o'clock today in order to expedite the Cuban reciprocity bill. Jenkins, Wisconsin, spoke of the political situation in Nicaragua and Costa Rica. There could be no suspended sovereignty and at the present time Cuba is under the political dominion of the United States.

Jenkins opposed the bill because of the relations of the United States toward Cuba not being such as to permit of the proposed reciprocity treaty. Gaines, West Virginia, also opposed the bill, declaring it unnecessary and unwise.

Warner, Illinois, also spoke against the bill. He insisted that it was not along Republican lines, and when he declared that at heart a majority of the members on the Republican side are opposed to it, the Republican opponents of the bill gave him a round of applause.

DeArmond, Missouri, referred sarcastically to Grosvener's statement, a few days ago, that the high rates of the Dingley law would be reduced by the friends of the law. If too high, he saw no reason why the reduction should not occur now. He referred to the Babcock bill, to place steel on the free list, as a measure introduced for the purpose of holding up the steel trust in the interest of Babcock and his party in the coming campaign. Speaking of the sugar trust, he said, to hear members talk one would think nothing was so friendless in the house as this trust. It is contended, said he, on the other side, that the tariff, which developed gigantic trusts, should not be reformed by its friends. "I think," he exclaimed, "it should be reformed by the friends of the American people."

Mr. Cushman, Washington, declared that a majority of the Republicans in the house were opposed to the bill, although they were convinced it would be better for them to favor it. He intimated that the speaker's position is responsible for the change in attitude of many members, and followed with very outspoken and almost sensational criticism of the power exercised by the speaker. He declared he was prepared to make the statement that no bill, private or public, could be considered without the speaker's approval. He disclaimed any intention of reflecting on the speaker, as he had the highest regard for him. It was the result of members themselves, he said, that they are powerless before the machine that controlled the house.

The members of the house who are chiefly interested in the Chinese exclusion bill, today decided to accept the senate substitute adopted yesterday.

Washington, April 17.—In the senate today resolutions were offered by Culbertson, Texas, directing the secretary of war to send to the senate a statement of the money paid by the United States on account of the Philippine commission, and a statement of the money expended in sending troops to the Philippines and their maintenance. They were agreed to.

Morgan, Alabama, chairman of the committee on isthmian canals, at the conclusion of routine business, addressed the senate on the Hepburn bill, providing for the Nicaragua canal. He assumed at the beginning that the senate was convinced of the indispensable character of the canal—that it was a national necessity—and only the choice of methods and comparison of national advantages was left to decide.

Morgan spoke of the clouds of doubt concerning the Panama route. He said the political conditions of Nicaragua and Costa Rica were more favorable than those of Colombia.

An Ex-King of Spain Is Dead. Epinal, France, April 17.—Don Francisco d'Assise, former king of Spain, is dead, at the age of 80. He was expelled from Spain in 1808.

On October 10, 1846, he married, at Madrid, his cousin, Queen Isabella II of Spain, and on the same day was proclaimed king of Spain. Queen Isabella and her husband were expelled from Spain as a result of the revolution in 1868. She formally abdicated the throne in 1870 in favor of her son, father of the present king of Spain, Alfonso XIII.

THE CLAYTON POSTOFFICE.

Faustin Gallegos Had Been the Choice of Delegate B. S. Rodey.

Concerning the appointment of a postmaster at Clayton, Union county, which was made by President Roosevelt yesterday, a Washington dispatch says:

"There is something of a contest on at the postoffice department over the appointment of a postmaster at Clayton, New Mexico. Delegate Rodey, who represents the Republicans of that section, has endorsed the application of Faustin Gallegos, who is a staunch supporter of the cause, and whom it is desired to reward with an appointment. Mr. Rodey, upon calling upon the postmaster general today, found a rough rider comrade of President Roosevelt a long ways in the lead in the race for the place and indeed was virtually the choice of the department. He is Sergeant Otto F. Menger, a gallant soldier, who was wounded at San Juan hill. While Delegate Rodey and his constituents have no fault to find with Menger, they are still insisting upon the selection of Gallegos."

As the New Mexican stated yesterday, President Roosevelt made the appointment of Menger a personal one and notified Delegate Rodey to that effect.

THE NEW MEXICO
PENITENTIARY

Growth and Improvement Are the Order of Every Day at This Model Penal Institution.

CONVICTS ARE KEPT BUSY

The Six Brilliant White Electric Arc Lights

Six brilliant white electric arc lights placed the darkness every night in the southwestern part of Santa Fe. They are the eyes of the penitentiary. New Mexico's great penal institution, that keeps watch during the silent hours of the night. They are also symbols of the progress and humanity of this institution that only a few weeks ago won words of the highest encomium from General Francis Torrance, the chairman of the board of charities and penal institutions of the great state of Pennsylvania, a student and authority on what penal institutions ought to be and what they very often are not. It has not always been thus, but since Hon. H. O. Bursum, with quiet, unassuming air, with a corps of efficient assistants took charge of the penitentiary it has entered upon a new life, a life that knows no standstill, a life that has been a steady growth and improvement. There are no dark corners, no filthy spots, at New Mexico's penitentiary.

Idleness and darkness have been banished from the penitentiary since he took charge. Work, good, wholesome work, for the convicts has been the ideal that Mr. Bursum has pursued and as a consequence there has sprung into life one of the most complete industrial plants in New Mexico at which improvements are constantly being made and to which additions are still under course of construction. That is the modern and model brick-making plant with its stupendous up-to-date machinery that turns out 30,000 of the best brick made in the west every day. If necessary, it can turn out 60,000 brick every ten hours or 150,000 every twenty-four hours, or sufficient to fill one of the large drying kilns which have been lately built in addition to the old kiln of 45,000 brick capacity. It is a bit of education to make a thorough inspection and investigation of the manufacture of brick by machinery, from the time that the clay brought from clay banks near Santa Fe, is fed into the machine that grinds it, until the finished brick of fine color and a resonance like that of a bell, leaves the drying kiln. Between the beginning and the end, the clay is fed into the brick-making machine proper which discharges the stiffened clay from its funnel in an endless ribbon, the width and depth of a brick, and which is cut the required thickness by a knife of many blades. The brick are then carried in trucks on a tramway to the steaming kilns from which they go forth to the drying kilns. Several kinds of brick, from the common brick to the glazed fire brick, and more than one kind of tiles, are manufactured and find a ready market when not used for construction work at the penitentiary itself.

Construction work is constantly going on at the institution. Since the central wing of the main building was constructed, every brick and every stone of the great institution has been laid by the convicts themselves. What this means, may be gleaned from the fact that the solid wall and moat which surround the yard contain 6,000,000 bricks. Then there is almost a score of substantial buildings including shops, boiler and engine house, hospital, hot-house, livery barn, lime house, brick kilns and other structures. At present many men are employed in rearing a much needed massive second wing to the main building to be used as a cell house. It is being built of stone and the heavy, high, three-story outside walls are almost completed, the stones having all been laid by one convict who has become an expert stone mason. The placing of the brilliant electric lights along the rear wall is another improvement which has been made by Superintendent H. O. Bursum and helps to make escape from the prison well nigh impossible. In fact, since Superintendent Bursum has taken charge, there has not been one escape from the penitentiary itself. The few escapes that have occurred were either from the stone quarry or clay banks on the other side of the city or by trucks when they were away from the prison.

There is no serious illness at present at the penitentiary. The cell house is well ventilated and lighted and scrupulous cleanliness is observed in every part of the great institution. Many of the cells are not only pictures of neatness, but are beautifully adorned, mostly by the handiwork of the prisoners themselves. A good-sized library is maintained in the cell house. But brick making is not the only industry carried on at the penitentiary. The convicts make their own clothing, their own shoes, in fact supply almost all their own wants. There is a blacksmith, a carpenter shop, a barnyard which supplies pork, chickens, turkeys, etc., for the penitentiary table. With good foresight, Superintendent Bursum has acquired the land round about the penitentiary, to the extent of thirteen acres, and this is being turned into a model truck farm and orchard, that is a pleasure to behold. NEW MEXICO AT THE
CHARLESTON EXPOSITION

THERE IS A GREAT DEMAND FOR BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION LITERATURE

New Mexico is making a good impression with its fine exhibit at the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition at Charleston, South Carolina. The complete exhibit was in place at the time President Roosevelt visited the exposition. It is in charge of W. Benham, manager of the exhibit of the Hyde Exploring Expedition, who is proving himself a very efficient friend of the territory. He writes W. H. Pope, Esq., a member of the New Mexico Commission of the Exposition: "The New Mexico exhibit at Charleston has become a reality and one of the successes of the Charleston exposition. The car with the articles for the exhibit had been delayed a month longer than it should have been on account of railroad trouble. The freight charges were pretty heavy, amounting to $225. The exhibit, however, is a very attractive one and I am having photographs taken of it. This and last week there have been many fine attractions and the president visited the exposition bringing out enormous crowds. The literature about New Mexico supplied by the Bureau of Immigration and the Santa Fe railway, is being distributed with good effect. For a notice that it is not being thrown around the buildings, but people evidently take it with them as they seem to be greatly interested in it. I have a good man in charge who is thoroughly posted on the southwest, its resources and its attractions. We have use for a great deal more of immigration literature which should be sent as soon as possible."

When it is remembered that the legislature made no appropriation for a New Mexico exhibit at Charleston, it is the more remarkable that the New Mexico exhibit is one of the most attractive and most noticeable at this exposition and much good must come to New Mexico from that fact.

SAN MARCIAL ITEMS.

A Railroadman Shoots Himself Accidentally.—A Telephone Line for the Town.

Special to the New Mexican.

San Marcial, April 17, 1902.—While Luis Ribera was working on the Santa Fe Railway near Mesa, a rock rolled on his foot, bruising it badly. William Cadogan who is out the train hands at night, while calling the men out last night by discharging a revolver, shot himself accidentally through the leg. J. N. Broyles is constructing a telephone line at San Marcial.

legislature should make it possible to purchase at least 200 acres of land around and near the penitentiary which will go much towards making the institution self-supporting and which would furnish ideal employment to the convicts. The lawn and flowerbeds in front of the main building are beauty spots and the surroundings of the whole institution are bound to make a favorable impression upon the visitor as well as to exert a wholesome impression upon the inmates of the institutions, who are shown the beauty and the desirableness of cleanliness, of attractive surroundings, of regularity, of hygienic regulations and are taught a trade by which they can make a good living after being discharged from the institution. The greater part of the convicts, lead a better, more healthful and in many respects more comfortable life at the penitentiary than they ever did outside of it. They are brought in contact with higher ideals of life. The wholesome discipline which is never brutal, although of necessity very strict, is also a reforming element.

Opposite the penitentiary on the west, just across the Santa Fe railway tracks, stands a beautiful cottage, substantially built and an ideal home. This has been erected during the past few months by the penitentiary authorities, entirely with convict labor and material made at the penitentiary. Its interior is even more beautiful than its exterior and in every respect it is a model of what a homelike cottage ought to be. The house is occupied as a residence by Yardmaster Garrett.

It takes executive ability, unquestioned integrity and strong force of will to be the successful superintendent of an institution like the New Mexico penitentiary. Seldom are all these qualities so prominent in one man as in Superintendent H. O. Bursum. Unassuming, quiet, resourceful, with strong steel blue eyes, Superintendent Bursum is evidently a man who is bound to succeed in anything he may undertake and New Mexico is fortunate in having been able to retain his services in his present important position. Next to Mr. Bursum, W. E. Martin, his secretary, and like Mr. Bursum, an ex-member of the legislative assembly, is one of the ruling spirits who has helped to lift the penitentiary to its present high plane. Suave, a good talker in Spanish and in English, a man of the world apparently, Mr. Martin is an important factor in making the penitentiary a model penal institution.

A STRIKE MAY BE Averted.

Shamokin, Pa., April 17.—Miles Dougherty, member of the National Executive Board of United Mine Workers, who has just returned from Indianapolis, where he attended a meeting of the board, says the possibility of a strike in the anthracite coal region are growing less as within a few days more effort will be made toward the settlement of differences between the operators and mine workers.

THE WATER CURE AT IGBARAS

Sergeant Edward J. Davis Testifies as to the Barbarities Committed in the Philippines.

BAD FOR CAPTAIN GLENN

Ten Thousand Men, Women and Children Forced Indiscriminately Out of Igaras and the Town Then Set on Fire—A Description of the Water Cure.

Washington, April 17.—Edward J. Davis, of Greenfield, Mass., sergeant of the 26th volunteers, before the senate committee on the Philippines, today, testified to administering the "water cure" at the convent at Igaras, in November, 1900, to the president of the town. He said the man, who was 40 years of age, was stripped to the waist and thrown on his back into a water tank and a stream of water directed into his mouth, which was kept open by means of a stick. When the victim was filled with water, a detail of soldiers would force it out by rolling their fists over his stomach. It was for the purpose of making the victim give information if runners were sent to inform the insurgents of the approach of scouts. Witness said that the police officers of the town were treated in the same way. He told of burning the town of Igaras, which contained 10,000 people. Men, women and children were forced out indiscriminately. All this was done upon the order of Captain Glenn, superintendent by Lieutenant Conger, and Contract Surgeon Lyons. Witness stated that all torture was conducted by regular soldiers. He said the latter told him of the application of the "water cure" in several instances.

A LETTER BY DELEGATE RODEY.

He Administers a Wholesome Rebuke to a Boston Merchant's Association.

Delegate B. S. Rodey has written the following letter to the Boston Transcript.

Washington, April 15, 1902.

The Editor Boston Transcript, Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir: I see by your issue of the 10th inst. that the Merchants Association, which held a meeting at Young's hotel the previous afternoon, took occasion to go out of its way to pass a resolution, objecting to the admission of Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona to the Union as states. I am, Mr. Editor, the struggling territories in question, who are making a great fight for their common rights with other parts of the nation, do not expect a resolution of that kind to emanate from the City of Hancock Hall and Bunker Hill, and the home of Wendell Phillips. The only thing the inhabitants of the three territories in question have ever done with reference to the city of Boston, is that they have been guilty of purchasing a large amount of merchandise, such as shoes, crockery, rattan furniture, and many other things, from its merchants for from twelve years to half a century last past, but maybe they can be made to see the error of their ways and stop it. Indeed, the territories in question are loath to believe that this so-called Merchants Association represents the general opinion of the good people of Boston. I will be thankful if you will publish this letter.

Very truly yours,

B. S. RODEY.

Delegate in Congress from New Mexico.

THURSDAY, APRIL 17.

New Mexico Demands Statehood of the 27th Congress.

Of Right and Justice New Mexico should be a State.

The South African peace negotiations are under way, but the date for the peace jubilee has not yet been set and it may be a long way off.

The investigation into the operations of the American beef trust is beginning at Chicago. This cannot be too searching or too thorough.

The debate in the house of representatives upon the Cuban reciprocity question is dragging. It ought to drag. It is a slow subject anyhow.

The government Indian school near this city is a credit to the Indian bureau and to the superintendent. This is as it should be and it is well to let this fact be known.

When a man loses a fat government job he does not like it, he is a reformer or a machine politician. In this respect human nature will assert itself and that strongly.

The government does not look upon the doctrines of the missionaries as being the mischievous influence of that faith from its infancy. Such that education from its infancy.

San Antonio, Tex., has had himself, and the opinion that in the territory of the City of New York will be a state.

It can safely be asserted that the farmers who are settling under the British are not the same as the chautauks who are settling under the plans for the settlement of the South Africa.

President Roosevelt has called attention to the amount of time that the life now held by him. He means to provide well for his family. In this he sets an excellent example that might well be followed by every citizen of the United States.

Kentucky has fast horses and fast lynchers. While a coroner's jury was deliberating and was trying to find out whether the man charged with the crime had really committed the same crime, took the prisoner from the sheriff and lynched him.

Colonel W. J. Bryan in his weekly paper, The Commoner, is now telling the dear people which of the Democratic newspapers of the country are reliable and which are not reliable. The colonel has undertaken another massive task.

Free trade England is competing in order to meet the expenses of the military and naval establishments, to put a duty upon wheat and flour imported into the kingdom. Of course this duty strikes hardest on the poorer classes. In a free trade country the laboring class gets the worst of it.

One of the reasons why Colonel Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, is opposing the present administration is because he says it is booted and spurred. This is an awful indictment to be sure, but the administration manages to stagger along under it nevertheless.

A low freight rate on low grade copper ores from central and southwestern New Mexico to the smelter at Cerrillos would prove beneficial to the mining and business interests of the territory and to the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway. This is so patent that it does not need much of an explanation.

Miss Stone has arrived in this country and is now ready for a tour therein to deliver one hundred lectures. It is evident that she expects the people of the United States to put up more money for her. Has she already forgotten that the sum of $73,000 was paid for her ransom to the Bulgarian bandits but a few weeks ago?

The St. Louis World's Fair Exposition managers have not yet fixed a day for the opening of the great exhibition, but it is safe to assume that this will not take place in 1903. Some time in 1904 or even in 1905 may be named. It is well to remember that the more time that will be given the grander and more stupendous will this exposition be.

Lieutenant-General Miles will likely be soon retired from active service in the army. By law and under the constitution, the president of the United States is the commander-in-chief of the army and in the very nature of things there cannot be two commanders-in-chief, hence General Miles' proposed retirement.

The white man's burden in the Philippines is a heavy one. No one could blame Uncle Sam for dropping it except his own conscience and pride which will not permit him to leave a work which he has once begun. Better days are coming for the Philippines, but like in Cuba, Uncle Sam is expected to foot the bill in lives and cash.

It is gratifying to New Mexico that the court of private land claims will have a new lease of life to last until summer of next year anyway. This gives an opportunity to settle all pending land grant cases which involve about half a million acres of land. It would have been a mistake to have the court pass out of existence before these remaining claims had been settled.

New Mexico's penal institution, the penitentiary, is in good hands. Its management has never been as efficient and so progressive as at present. The institution will soon reach a state of self-support and it has reached the high plane of being not only a place in which to punish criminals, but also a place where better men are made out of them.

The senate committee on the Philippines is now investigating the charges of cruelty practiced in the Philippine Islands by the American troops. That committee would be in better business were it to investigate the savage treachery and bloodthirsty hatred exhibited by the Philippine insurgents towards the troops. The military administration in the Philippine Islands has been entirely too easy and gentle, that is where the real trouble lies.

The Washington Post remarks: "Jerry Simpson has taken up his residence in New Mexico, and if he is not closely watched will be a political sooner when the rush into the Union is made." Just at present the Honorable Jerry is not paying much attention to political matters in New Mexico; he is under good pay, traveling about the western states and territories, working to create sentiment in favor of the passage of a national law.

Senator Depe's amendment to the resolution providing for the submission of a constitutional amendment for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people, is the right thing at the right time and in the right place. Senators and representatives in the national congress should be elected in all the states under uniform laws and no citizen of the United States should be restrained from voting for United States senators and representatives.

It is gratifying to know that New Mexico is not the least among the commonwealths represented by exhibits at the Charleston Exposition. The entire place of this territory, its resources and its attractions are well represented by an exhibit at Charleston that has been gathered, prepared and sent to the exposition by a board of commissioners who worked without any appropriation from the legislature. It shows that New Mexico has public spirited citizens who on behalf of the territory's welfare are willing to surmount obstacles which not only seemed, but were very formidable. The exhibit and the distribution of literature advertising the resources of the territory also show the necessity and the utility of maintaining a bureau of immigration which is always ready to extend a helping hand toward any project of advertising the territory and attracting desirable settlers as well as capital.

THE BEALES GRANT.

The following dispatch in the Denver Rocky Mountain News from Topeka, Kansas, the home of the men who are pushing the Beales land grant fraud, exposes the coldbloodedness of the scheme which is to deprive New Mexico of the use of millions of acres of land. Coming from the home of the conspirators, and not from this territory, gives double weight to the allegations made therein. It says:

"United States Senator J. R. Burton and Congressman Charles Curtis from the First Kansas District, have evolved a scheme which, if successfully carried through, will affect the title to thousands of acres of land in Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. The two Kansans have undertaken the work of reviving a Spanish land grant, which has been turned down by the courts many times. The bill is now before congress under the title of the Beales land grant. It was a concession made when Spain owned Mexico. At that time Mexico included Utah, Texas, part of Oklahoma, Colorado, and all of New Mexico. Law makers and men who have recently returned from Washington do not believe that congress will sustain the claim, but the plan is said to be to get congress to pass a bill entitling Beales

Very Unusual

It is very unusual for a regular physician of good reputation to publicly endorse a proprietary remedy. We have often heard of cases where doctors have secretly prescribed Acker's English Remedy, but it is most gratifying to receive the following voluntary letter from C. F. Smith, M. D., the most successful physician of Olean, N. Y.

Messrs. W. H. Hooker & Co., New York City: I wish to add my professional testimony to the value of your English Remedy for Asthma, etc. In several instances, after I have tried my utmost to give even relief, I have prescribed your remedy, and it has acted almost like a miracle, not only relieving, but permanently curing every one of the patients. I endorse the preparation as one of the most valuable additions to the practice of medicine.

Such a frank endorsement as the above is phenomenal. Coming from so distinguished a member of the medical profession, it carries with it an assurance which the public will be sure to avail themselves of. It is recommended like this which make it possible to give the broad guarantee that is a part of every sale of Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. It must either do all that is claimed for it, or your money will be refunded. Do you know of any other medical preparations they write themselves? These facts are well worth your attention. They are of especial interest to those with sore throats and weak lungs.

Sold at 50c, 10c and 5c a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 6d., 1s. 3d., 1s. 1d., 6d. and 3d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

Improvements on nature are seldom seen in a bathing suit. The loss of a husband has sidetracked many a divorce suit. If the people will agree on a policy, we will support it. But they won't agree on a policy. It is a boy's misfortune that the only chance offered him to be a hero is to keep the wood box filled. In nine cases out of ten it is idle people who bore you. If all the people worked, life would be a good deal easier. When we have a kick coming we have noticed that it comes from some other man.

OF UNTOLD VALUE.

The Information Contained in This Gentleman's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, hearty, strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in Santa Fe who has spent a mint of money and hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint, will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered here.

At the residence of Mr. West Colfax, Santa Fe, N. M., Colfax Real Estate, Inc., and the Santa Fe Dispatch, Colfax, Colo., the following statement was made by Mr. J. H. Lutz, who is a resident of Santa Fe, Ohio, and who has been in the territory of the drugist to them. He procured them for me, and they were most effective in ridding me of slight kidney complaint which had annoyed me for some time. Since then not only from experience, but from observation, I have always noticed Doan's Kidney Pills very highly recommended, and only recently I purchased a box at Scholtz' drug store, opposite the Tabor Opera house. I have sent more than one friend and acquaintance to that drug store for a supply simply because I know Doan's Kidney Pills can be depended upon to act as represented.

Ask at Ireland's Pharmacy what his customers' report about this preparation. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BETTER THAN PILLS. The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are often harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. THE WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Santa Fe, N. M., April 15, 1902.

The winter months altho warmer were dryer than usual, a pleasant winter as a whole. March was a cold, windy, dry month, the drought retarding the usual early spring plowing and seeding, especially in Mora and San Miguel counties and vicinity. In these sections there has also been some slight loss in sheep and cattle from the protracted drought.

April thus far has been comparatively warmer and with slight showers over northern sections, altho the strong, dry winds still come up almost every day. Farm work is well under way, most of the spring wheat has been sown and in the extreme south some corn has been planted. In the southern Rio Grande valley work has been somewhat retarded on account of the lack of sufficient irrigation water. Alfalfa is making a good start in southern counties. It is thought that the danger from killing frosts is over for this season in the lower Pecos valley, and the present fruit prospects are very promising. The frosts of March 30-31 killed nearly all the apricots of the central Rio Grande valley, and farther south injured some of the early blooming peaches. There has been some slight loss in stock in some of the eastern counties, but as a rule both cattle and sheep are in very fair condition for the season. The ranges are getting very dry and outside water holes are drying up. Irrigation water is sufficient generally excepting in the extreme southern Rio Grande valley and in northern counties east of the Santa Fe range.

The following remarks are extracted from the reports of correspondents:

Bernalillo: Bro. James: Warm, bright and vegetation advanced rapidly. Hardy vegetables were planted in gardens. Peas are coming up. Peaches, cherries, plums, pears, and some apple trees, in full bloom. Apricots killed. Spraying is necessary for the orchards. Plenty of irrigation water.

Fort Stanton: E. W. Halstead: Season quite advanced in this locality. Irrigation water is plentiful as yet, but the mountain snow is melting quite rapidly. The range is getting short, but cattle are in fair condition for the season. Highest temperature, 77; lowest, 25; no rain.

Gallinas Springs: Jas. E. Whitmore: Planting is very backward; very little water in the Gallinas, but a good stream in the Pecos. Fruits are all right up to the present. Water holes are getting boggy; a few sheep are dying on account of the drought, and on account of thin. Highest temperature, 77; lowest, 31; no rain.

Hobart: W. H. Hough: Wheat is generally sown; most of it is up and looking well. The soil is in good condition. Fruit at present promises a large crop. Los Alamos: Wm. Frank: No rain or snow since last November. Plowing has begun, but on account of the drought, but little wheat has been put in. Oats are being sown in the hope of an early rain. Water holes are getting boggy. Sheep and cattle are in fair condition at present, but rain is badly needed both for the lambing season and for planting.

Mesilla Park: A. M. Sanchez: The cold weather of March considerably retarded vegetation. Wheat is well up, and corn planting is in progress. Late frosts have greatly injured late peaches, but comparatively few of the early peaches are damaged. WHI have a heavy yield of apricots in the valley if there is no killing frost. Farm work is being retarded on account of the lack of irrigation water.

Santa Fe: U. S. Weather Bureau: Warm and dry; rain is needed badly, altho irrigation water is plentiful. Ground has been prepared but not much seeding done. Apricots are in full bloom and early blooming peaches are half out. The season is deemed somewhat advanced, and the present prospects for fruit are good. The highest temperature was 68; the lowest, 35; rainfall, 0.02.

Watrous: M. C. Needham: Little beyond ditch cleaning, etc., has been done so far. Some spring wheat has been planted, but owing to the dry condition of the soil it is not doing well. Slightly better conditions have obtained during the last few days. Range stock up to the average. Highest temperature, 75; lowest, 24; rain, .10.

Weber: E. H. Bierbaum: Very dry, and changeable weather. Farmers have to water every inch planted. River is very low and the ditches carry very little water. The range is very dry and all kinds of stock are very poor. Some cattle are dying. Wheat has been planted, but much less than last year.

Woodbury: A. J. Woodbury: Peach trees on Cochiti creek are very full of blossoms. Highest temperature, 75; lowest, 35; no rain.

R. M. HARDINGE, Section Director.

The only disease is age.

How many different figures you find among women.

When an agent comes in to sell you a book how glad he is to see you!

When a good hunter goes a hunting how many want to go with him to get a divide!

Men may come and men may go but the chronic bore hangs on forever.

It's a mighty mean husband who never gives his wife a chance to complain.

When a man acquires a wife all his bachelor friends look dubious and interested.

When complaining that her husband requires a lot of things to be cooked it should occur to a woman that none of his clothes have to be tucked or rolled.

There never was a farmer so big and fierce looking that he didn't wear a meek expression when he stands by and hears his wife bargain with the grocer in selling her butter and eggs.

We refused to go crazy over Prince Henry but being a proof reader in addition to other duties expect to go crazy over Maha Vajirarudh, crown prince of Siam and son of King Khouloungkorn, who will visit this country in October.

IT'S AN ILL OMEN.

Thinks the wife, to have the wedding ring slip from the finger. "Something is going to happen."

Something is happening. That ring could hardly be pulled from the finger when it was put there a few days ago. Now it slips off by its own weight. How thin the fingers have grown! And the fingers don't grow thin alone. How thin the face is and how thin the once plump form. Almost unconsciously the wife has been fading and wasting away. The strength given to children has never been regained. Drains which should have been stopped have been neglected.

That is a common experience with women, unless some friend has shared with them the secret of the strengthening and healing power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries the drains which undermine the strength, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes the baby's advent practically painless and gives vigor and vitality to nursing mothers.

"Words cannot tell how grateful I am for your kind advice and good medicines," writes Mrs. John Cooke, of Hastings, Northumberland Co., Ontario. "I have been in poor health for over years back and this spring got so bad I could not do my work. I went to the doctor and he said I had ulceration and falling of the internal organs, but I thought I would try your 'Favorite Prescription.' I took five bottles and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of Dr. Pierce's Pellets, and I can safely say that I never felt better in my life."

A Ladies' Laxative—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One single, small pellet is a laxative dose.

GOOD FOR RHEUMATISM.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. For Sale by Fischer Drug Co.

Gold in the Black Hills.

The Burlington Route has recently issued a 48 page booklet bearing the title "Mineral and Mining in the Black Hills." The book is one which should be read by every mining man in Colorado. It gives more information about the mines of the Black Hills than has ever before been placed between two covers. A copy will be mailed free on application to the undersigned.

The Black Hills need Colorado men and money. Several of the shrewdest men in this state have already invested heavily in the Hills. The results so far have been more than satisfactory. The completion of the Burlington's new line to the Northwest brings the Black Hills within a night's ride of Denver. You can leave Denver tonight and be in Deadwood or Lead City tomorrow afternoon.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician who stands high in his profession. From one dozen to twenty copies of the New Mexican are sent out daily to enquiries and applicants concerning Santa Fe. This is the very best kind of advertisement and is bearing good fruit, as the large number of tourist and healthseekers in the city abundantly shows.
