NUMBER 143.

THE PRESIDENT AT DEMING!

Patriotic Celebration to Chief Magistrate of United States.

TOWN FULL OF ENTHUSIASTIC VISITORS.

Special to The Citizen.

Deming, N. M., May 6.—The patriotic and enterprising city of Deming is in gala attire this morning. All the people of Luna and Grant counties appear to be here to welcome President McKinley and his cabinet, who will reach here at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon. The depot hotel and nearly all the business and private houses are neatly decorated and the whole town is keeping open house in honor of the occasion.

Governor M. A. Otero and staff and Secretary J. W. Reynolds are here and the Santa Fe and Silver City bands are furnishing music. The people of Deming deserve great credit for their enthusiasm and patriotism in arranging the celebration, which appears to be complete in every detail. Republicans and democrats have heartily united in a demonstration to President McKinley which is remarkable for earnestness. There are visitors present from all along the Santa Fe railroad all the way from Raton, but the largest number from any one town, with the exception of Silver City, are from Albuquerque. The delegation from Albuquerque came down in a chartered Pullman car, which is handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and notices, principal among which is a long streamer informing President McKinley that New Mexico demands statehood from the Fifty-seventh congress.

One of the pleasant incidents of the reception this afternoon was the presentation of a handsome Navajo Indian blanket to President McKinley by the Albuquerque delegation. The territorial reception committee also presented Mrs. McKinley with several beautiful specimens of turquoise.

DEMING NOTES.
Governor Otero is the most popular man in Luna county, and he has not been solidly united in favor of his reappointment.

Secretary Reynolds is making many friends in Deming today. He has not been solidly united in favor of his reappointment.

J. A. Mahoney is one of the most enterprising residents of Deming and deserves great credit for the success of the presidential celebration.

Deming has organized a commercial club, the Adelpheia. The club now numbers ninety-five members and is in prosperous condition. The rooms are neatly furnished and visitors to the county seat of Luna are made to feel at home by this popular club. During the summer the club rooms will be enlarged by an addition of 50x30 feet, and used as a billiard and dancing hall.

Colonel P. H. Smith, who is one of the most energetic residents of southern New Mexico, is doing well in mining and oil enterprises. He has not been given up hope of securing another railroad for Deming in the near future.

S. S. Birchfield, one of the big cattlemen of Luna county, is here today as a member of the McKinley reception committee. He is a life long democrat but believes in McKinley and the protection of home industries. His cattle ranch is forty miles away from Deming.

Judge Frank W. Parker adjourned court at Silver City today and is here taking a prominent part in the presidential celebration.

District Attorney H. H. Llewellyn is winning golden opinions in Grant and Luna counties by his vigorous prosecution of criminals. He carefully studies all the evidence in the cases he prosecutes and has secured the conviction of several murderers.

The Deming Headlight is a democratic newspaper, but it leads the procession in decorations appropriate to the occasion. The front of the office bears this legend in red, white and blue: "Mr. A. Otero for governor 1901 to 1905."

Postmaster R. G. Clark has his post-office fitted up in metropolitan style and it is one of the neatest postoffices in the whole territory. Everybody in Deming is pleased with his appointment.

The oil fields near Deming are attracting the attention of capitalists and two companies will soon begin the sinking of wells, hoping to strike oil within a few hundred feet from the surface. All the indications are favorable, and it is almost certain that oil will be struck in paying quantities.

The specimens of turquoise presented to Mrs. McKinley today are from Judge Porterfield's turquoise mines near Silver City.

Deming is noted for the number of its windmills. All the water supply of the town is procured by this means and the water is the purest obtained anywhere in the territory.

Edward Pennington, an old newspaper man and good paragrapher, is understood that the board of county commissioners will hold their second meeting to-morrow morning, when it is expected the site for the new $25,000 court house building and a $5,000 jail will be selected. The members of the board have been offered many desirable locations for these structures, but as yet nothing definite has been decided upon.

The public schools of Deming are noted all over the territory for their efficiency. Prof. W. W. Robertson is the principal and he reports that the schools are well attended and the children are making rapid progress. Six teachers are employed and 300 children are enrolled.

Dr. S. D. Swope is the principal physician of Deming, and today's celebration proves that he is a patriotic and useful citizen.

John Corbett helped to create Luna county and he is one of the principal citizens of the place. In a celebration he is a whole team and is helping to make visitors to Deming feel at home.

Linfauser is the pioneer merchant of Deming, and while he may be counted a democrat he is right at the front helping make the Deming celebration a grand success.

The ladies of Deming have voted that Col. E. W. Dobson is the handsomest man on the governor's staff. General W. H. Whitman is devoting himself to making the celebration a credit to the whole territory.

Luna county has about 75,000 head of cattle and is one of the best cattle ranges in the territory.

The altitude of Deming is 4,125, and it has a population of about 1,500. The Santa Fe railroad company has shops and round house here and the Southern Pacific has a round house at James P. Byron has the largest drug store in Deming, and is one of the pioneer merchants of the place, and every public enterprise beneficial to Deming he has always taken a leading part.

Cook's Peak mining district, in sight of Deming, has produced over a million dollars in lead, silver, carbonate and sulphide.

Deming has two good weekly newspapers, the Headlight and the Herald. They are well supported and each week contain all the local news of Luna county.

The Citizen has many friends here and a big list of subscribers. It reaches Deming several hours ahead of the El Paso dailies.

D. Bauman, of the Grand View Mining company, has drawn an excellent map of Luna county, which shows at a glance the mining, grazing and other interesting features of the county and the favorable location of Deming as a business point. It is printed by the Deming Headlight.

Luna county has an area of 51,500 miles, and has 175 miles of railroad in operation.

Judge Parker will hold the first term of court in Luna county in June. There will be a very light docket, five railroad cases being set for trial.

Deming is not incorporated, but no doubt will be soon under the liberal law passed by the last legislature.

Mechanics of all kinds are scarce in Deming and several could find profitable employment here.

It is reported that Mrs. McKinley will stop in Deming for a few days owing to ill health, but she will join her husband and party at Colorado Springs on their return trip.

Colonel Richard Hudson carefully looked after his extensive cattle interests yesterday and hid himself to the county seat to aid in the grand ovation to the president.

Hon. N. O. Murphy, governor of Arizona, passed through here yesterday en route to El Paso, where he joined the president and party and accompanied them through his territory.

N. A. Bolch, the prosperous Deming merchant, was out among the crowd this afternoon whooping it up.

Ed. Merz, the old reliable blacksmith, was among the Demingites who spared no pains to make the day a howling success.

ALBUQUERQUE DELEGATION.
Finely Decorated Pullman Coach—Accompanied to Deming by Santa Fe Band.

Yesterday afternoon the Albuquerque presidential committee decorated the Pullman coach "Calles" with banners, bunting and miniature flags.

The following notices on both sides of the coach: "Albuquerque Delegates Welcoming the President. New Mexico Demands Statehood."

At the four ends of these banners the committee used the following mottoes: "Give Us Statehood or Give Us Death. Fifty-three Years of Tutelage."

"We Come 250 Miles to See Our President and the First Lady in the Land. We Are Proud to Carry the President in Years. Welcome, Mr. President, to the Oldest Territory."

"New Mexico, Though Only a Territory, Remembered the Maine! New Mexico at San Juan, El Caney, Las Guasimas."

"We Love Our Country, Fight Its Battles and Pay Its Freight. Remember New Mexico in Your Next Message, Mr. President. God Bless the President of the United States, and Speed the State of New Mexico."

The car had been chartered by the Albuquerque committee, paid for by Albuquerque money, and was occupied by the Albuquerque delegation, among whom The Citizen representative noticed aboard the following well known republicans and democrats: Delegate B. S. Rodey, Judge J. W. Crumpacker, Sheriff T. S. Hubbell, Hon. O. N. Marron, Judge John W. Stanbury, Mike Mandell, E. V. Chavez, Dr. J. R. Haynes, Geo. F. Albright, H. F. Lee and others.

Judge McElroy, with the battalion brass band of Santa Fe, came from the territorial capital on the No. 1 passenger train, and accompanied the Albuquerque delegation to Deming, having agreed to provide the delegates with plenty of music en route, and of course to share with them any refreshments which were being carried by the delegation.

Delegate Rodey, who is an enthusiastic statehood boomer and who provided the committee with the appropriate statehood mottoes, took along with him a big bundle of statehood literature and also presents for the president, Mrs. McKinley and the members of the presidential party.

On the Navajo blanket, which will be presented to the president, is the following inscription: "With the compliments of the people of Albuquerque, New Mexico, this Navajo blanket is presented to William McKinley, president of the United States, at Deming, New Mexico, May 6, A. D. 1901, as a slight token of their esteem for the man and their respect for the high office of which he is the incumbent. This is strictly pure Navajo blanket, woven from wool grown by the Navajo Indians in New Mexico. It is an unusually large one, and the only one of the same pattern ever made, and it will not be repeated. It occupied the entire time of a squaw for more than six months in its manufacture."

A basket of Indian corn bread will be presented to Mrs. McKinley, and the "First Lady in the Land" will have the pleasure of reading the following inscription: "A few loaves (or leaves) of Indian corn bread, baked May 4, 1901, by the Indians of the Pueblo of Laguna, New Mexico, from a basket in the natural color of the corn, on a hot sandstone bakepan. It is the 'hoe cake' that the Arctics ate, long years before either Columbus or Cortez sailed the Spanish main, and is presented to Mrs. William McKinley, wife of the president of the United States, at Deming, N. M., on May 6, A. D. 1901, with the compliments of the Pueblo, Simon Illo, its governor, and B. S. Rodey, delegate in congress from New Mexico."

"Give me again my hollow tree. A crust of bread and liberty"—Pope. This sort of bread was on the menu of the Montezumas when the now mummified kings walked about in Thebes' streets, three thousand years ago. The Spaniards in the southwest call it "Guayave," the Indians of the Pueblo of Isleta call it "Abik-shu," and the Indians of the Pueblo of Laguna, N. M., where it was made, call it "Matziny."

Mr. Rodey also took along with him little boxes containing New Mexico carnations, which are for the ladies of the party, and a box containing a fine olive stone for Mrs. McKinley.

Besides the presidential coach, which was prettily filled with members of the party, and a box containing a fine olive stone for Mrs. McKinley.

Among the crowd, however, were very few Las Vegas people, and no one whatever from Raton, the Colfax county committee having telegraphed to Mr. Rodey that "the committee would not participate on account of the high passenger rate."

It is understood today that the south bound train picked up a good delegation at both Socorro and Santa Marial.

Governor M. A. Otero, accompanied by his wife, Secretary of the Territory Reynolds, General Hutchinson and members of the governor's staff, with Hon. Thomas Hughes, of The Citizen, were passengers to Deming last Saturday night. During the wait of the train here Governor and Mrs. Otero were entertained by their particular friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Koen.

Will Menta, of the territorial staff of The Citizen, was also at Deming yesterday, returning this morning.

PRESIDENT AT EL PASO.
Representative of President Diaz Salutes President McKinley.

El Paso, Texas, May 6.—The American and Mexican flags were intertwined in decorations where the official greeting of President McKinley and his cabinet took place this morning. The presence on the stand of General Hernandez, Mexican representative of President Diaz, and the governor of the state of Chihuahua gave international significance to the event.

The subject of the above sad dispatch, telling of the drowning, was well known in this city and the deplorable news of his death was received with profound regret. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Reinken and a nephew of John Becker, of Belen. The Citizen was informed just before press hour that funeral services over the remains will be completed in Belen to-morrow afternoon. Among the mourners from this city who will attend are Henry Gerphel, a brother-in-law of the deceased, Belen, and a nephew of John Becker, Arthur Heyn, Undertaker Edwards was instructed to send an embalmer and a casket to Belen, where he is to enshrine and prepare the body for burial at Belen.

THE NEW HOME.
For the Cerrillos Coal Company Will Be on East Railroad Avenue.

W. H. Hahn, local agent of the Cerrillos Coal company, reports to The Citizen today that the company has made the arrangement whereby they will soon occupy the site of the Crescent Coal company on East Railroad avenue. Plans for new buildings will soon be made and in a very short time a structure, which will be in keeping with the extensive railway improvements, will be erected. Mr. Hahn has also purchased four lots adjoining the property on the north. The buildings will be equipped with coal bins which will have a greater capacity than any of their kind in the southwest. A new $1,000 wood sawing and splitting plant with electric power will be installed at once.

Other improvements will be started in a short time along the railway by other business men, but as nothing definite has been decided upon by them no further information can be given at present.

A WATERY GRAVE

Sad Drowning of Bernard Reinken.

Jumped Into River and Was Sucked Into Whirlpool.

He Was the Sabinol Merchant and Was Well Known in This City.

FUNERAL AT BELEN TO-MORROW.

Special to The Citizen.

Belen, N. M., May 6.—Yesterday morning Chris Scheele, merchant at Jarales, together with Bernard Reinken, merchant at Sabinol, went to pay Rev. Moog, of La Joya, a visit. Before crossing the river at La Joya they decided to take a bath. Bernard Reinken, being a good swimmer, jumped into the water, and after a few moments Mr. Scheele's attention was attracted by his cries for help.

He saw Reinken making an attempt to reach the shore, but was, as it seems, powerless to do so and in a moment disappeared in the swift current before Mr. Scheele could aid him. Mr. Scheele's opinion is that he was attacked with cramps and was taken down by the action of a whirlpool.

Rev. Moog at once wired Reinken's relatives at Belen and Carl Reinken, a brother, left at once for the scene of the drowning. On his arrival he found men already searching for the body. Word was sent along the river to San Acacio and Socorro to look out for the body. The search continued as late last night as possible, and was resumed early this morning, when the searchers were successful in finding the body about two miles below the place where he disappeared. Up to this hour it has not been decided whether the remains will be shipped east for burial or not. Mr. Reinken was about 35 years old and was born in Manitowoc, Wisconsin, where his parents and a brother still reside. He came to New Mexico at the age of 16 and entered the employ of John Becker, his uncle at Belen, where he remained about seven years. In 1890 he accepted a position as traveling salesman for Ely-Walker Dry Goods company.

His uncle at Belen, where he remained about seven years. In 1890 he accepted a position as traveling salesman for Ely-Walker Dry Goods company.

He left Belen last year he succeeded Levy & Co., general merchants at Sabinol. He leaves his parents and three brothers and a sister to mourn his loss.

The subject of the above sad dispatch, telling of the drowning, was well known in this city and the deplorable news of his death was received with profound regret. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Reinken and a nephew of John Becker, of Belen. FINDING DEAD BODIES.

Victims of the Great Jacksonville Fire Being Found.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 6.—Two bodies, both negroes, were found floating in the St. Johns river this morning. The charred appearance of portions of the corpses indicated they were victims of the terrible fire which swept the city last Friday. Some believe the fire drove many bewildered men and women into the river. It is impossible to ascertain who is missing as thousands have left the city.

S. A. McCorty, who was employed as gardener at the ship yards, says he succeeded in getting twenty persons across the river, but as many more were either burned to death or drowned at the pier.

Firemen have just been relieved because the debris is still burning and streams of water are being poured into the embers night and day.

The body of Harry Bonnet, real estate dealer, was recovered today from the St. Johns river. Bonnet's wife and son are supposed to be in New York city.

BAD MAN CAPTURED.

Wanted in Socorro County for Robbing the Graham Postoffice.

Word was received today in the United States marshal's office of C. M. Forker that Bert Star, alias Jack Davis, had been captured in Octava, Arizona, a few days ago by Deputy United States Marshal John Metcalf of that territory. The young man is wanted in Socorro county. About a year ago Star and W. Lane Gibson broke into the postoffice at Graham, N. M., and stole a small amount of funds. The robbers were pursued by Sheriff Blackington's posse and Gibson was severely wounded in the leg, but Star succeeded in making his escape and was not apprehended until a short time ago. Gibson was tried and convicted at a recent term of the Socorro county court and given a sentence of seven years in the penitentiary.

Star was severely injured a few days prior to his capture, while cleaning his revolver. The weapon was accidentally discharged and the bullet penetrated his arm. He was taken to the hospital in Congress, Arizona, and when examined by the surgeon it was deemed advisable to amputate the arm. The operation will be performed some time this week, at which the one-armed man will be brought to Albuquerque and be delivered to the custody of United States Marshal Forker to await his trial at the next term of the court in Socorro.

Death from Consumption.

At his apartments on north Second street this morning at 8 o'clock August Wykom answered to the summons of the grim reaper and his soul took its flight to the great unknown. The deceased came here six months ago from Grand Rapids, Michigan, suffering with consumption, but the change of climate proved of no benefit to his health. He was 25 years old and had a number of relatives in Oklahoma, Wisconsin, and a brother in Grand Rapids. The latter was notified today of his brother's death and awaiting his instructions the body will be held at the undertaking parlors of O. W. Strong & Sons. It is learned that Mr. Wykom was employed for a period of nine years by the Putnam Candy company in Grand Rapids, and was an energetic and trusted employee.

Death of a Young Bride.

Mrs. Baca, the six months bride of Trinidad Baca, died at her home on north Armo street on Saturday night about 12 o'clock. She had been afflicted with tuberculosis for a long time, and her death was attributed to that cause. She had reached the age of 21 years. A young husband and her parents are the only relatives who are left to mourn. The funeral services were held this morning in San Felipe de Neri church in Old Albuquerque. Rev. Father Persons officiating. Undertaker A. Borders conducted the burial ceremony in San Ignacio cemetery.
