KETCHUM HANGED!

"Black Jack" Hanged
at Clayton, N. M.

He Wrote a Letter to President McKinley.

Christians Murdered by Savages in Brazil.

DEATH OF NOTED HORSEMAN.

Clayton, April 26.—Ketchum mounted the scaffold at 1:17 p. m. The trap was sprung at 1:21, the rope broke, but the fall jerked his head off. At 11:30 Ketchum asked for music. A violin and guitar were sent for. Tom Ketchum talked for over an hour with visitors, cooler than anyone who met him. He declared death preferable to imprisonment. Ketchum told of robberies in which he was concerned, but declared that he never killed a man, and had only shot three. He said that he was not "Black Jack," and that that bandit still lived. Ketchum refused to give the names of his friends still at liberty.

SHOWED NO FEAR.
Ketchum was very pale as he mounted the platform, but showed no fear. A priest stood by his side. He declined to make a speech, and merely muttered: "Good bye, please dig my grave very deep," and finally, "All right, hurry up." His legs trembled, but his nerve did not fail.

When the body dropped through the trap the half inch rope severed his head as cleanly as if a knife had cut it. The body pitched forward. The blood spurting from the headless trunk.

Many spectators turned away in horror. Doctor Slack pronounced life extinct in five minutes.

The drop of seven feet was too great for so heavy a man.

Denver, April 26.—A special to the Times from Clayton, N. M., says: Ketchum passed a quiet night, and at a hearty breakfast took a bath and put on a new suit of clothes this morning. Twenty deputies were on guard last night. A priest from Trinidad was with him from midnight till dawn. In an interview with John H. Guyer, his attorney, yesterday, he asked him to write a letter to President McKinley, which was done. As his attorney was leaving he said: "Say, tell Harrington, I'll meet him in hell for breakfast." Harrington is the conductor who shot his arm off. The town is well guarded and quiet. Ketchum made a strange request that he be buried face downward. Upon awakening this morning he remarked that it was nice and asked Sheriff Garcia to hurry up with the hanging so he could get to hell for dinner.

LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT.

Denver, April 26.—A special to the Denver Post from Clayton, N. M., says: Thomas E. Ketchum, who is to be hanged here at noon today, mailed the following letter to President McKinley this morning:

"Sir—Being now at the town of Clayton, awaiting my execution set for this day, and realizing the importance of the liberty of other men and the duty I conceive to be incumbent upon myself, standing in the presence of death, where human aid cannot reach me, I desire to communicate to you by means of this letter facts that I deem would be of interest to the people, through their president, and perhaps be the means of liberating innocent men. There are now three men in the Santa Fe penitentiary serving sentence for robbery of the United States mail at Santa Fe, Arizona. In 1897, viz: Leonard Albertson, Walter Huffman and Bill Waterman, and they are innocent of the crime as an unborn babe—the names of the men who committed the crime are Dave Atkins, Ed. Colby, Will Carver, Sam Ketchum, Byron Smith and myself. I've given my attorney in Clayton the means by which articles taken in said robbery may be found where we hid them, also the names of witnesses who live in that vicinity who will testify that myself and gang were in the neighborhood both immediately before and after the robbery. The fact that these men are innocent and suffering impels me to make this confession. While you cannot help and while I realize that no efforts to secure me a commutation of sentence have failed,

I wish to do this in the interest of innocent men, who, as far as I know, never committed a crime in their lives. I make this statement, fully realizing that my end is fast approaching and that I must very soon meet my Maker. Very respectfully your servant, THOS. E. KETCHUM.

HANGING AT LAS CRUCES.

Toribio Huerta Pays the Penalty for His Murder on the Scaffold. Special to The Citizen.
Las Cruces, N. M., April 26.—Toribio Huerta, a native of Mexico, was hanged here this morning in the court house yard at 10:30 o'clock before a large crowd, and Sheriff Lucero had provided reserved positions for a number of invited guests. Toribio had written to friends in his native land that he would die game, and he faithfully carried out his determination, for he went to his doom with a smothered laugh on his face and without any apparent fear of the future. Huerta was convicted at the recent term of the Santa Ana county district court for murder committed in the extreme western part of the county.

They gave "absent treatment," and their mail reached a tremendous volume.

False report.

The application for the injunction is signed by Calvin O. Geer, owner of 104 shares of the Amalgamated Copper company.

CONGER TALKS!

Minister Praises the Missionaries.

Climax of the Flood Reached at Cincinnati.

Contracts to Be Let Extending the Frisco Railroad.

SHAH OF PERSIA NEAR DEATH.

San Francisco, April 26.—In reference to the accusations of looting against missionaries, United States Minister Conger, who arrived here last night, makes the following statement: "The Americans have a larger number of missionaries here than any other nation, and I am frank to say that under the circumstances there are few things the missionaries have done, if any, for which there need be any apology whatever. Stories of their looting are false, to my knowledge."

Speaking of the siege, Conger said: "It took every white man we had to stand by the guns. Without the missionaries the region would not have been saved, and without the native Christians none of us would have been saved. The missionaries were not the prime cause of the trouble; they were only one of the causes. Rev. W. S. Ament, of the American board of foreign mission of the Congregational church, whose collection of indemnity for damages done by the Boxers in China has caused considerable discussion, takes vigorous exception to criticism made by Mark Twain and others as to the alleged misconduct of the missionaries."

Will Welcome Conger.
Des Moines, Ia., April 26.—The Iowa executive council passed a resolution granting the citizens of Des Moines the use of the state house for a public reception of Edwin H. Conger, minister to China, who will arrive in a few days.

All manufacturers and merchants in the bottoms will be in their normal condition before Monday. Many tenement houses along the river front will not be fit for habitation for almost a week.

Frisco Railroad to Be Extended to Mexico Border.

St. Louis, Mo., April 26.—Contracts will be given out in a few days by President and General Manager Yukum for the extension of the Texas line of the St. Louis—San Francisco system. The new line between Sherman and Fort Worth, establishing direct connection with the recently acquired Fort Worth & Rio Grande line, will receive first attention. A short line connection between the Frisco and Memphis lines, from Miami, I. T., will likewise be constructed at once. In Texas the intention is to extend the Frisco system in an air line from Brownwood to the Rio Grande border, looking to direct connections with the chief cities of Mexico.

Shah of Persia Sick.
Berlin, April 26.—The Cologne Gazette's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that the condition of the Shah of Persia is becoming worse.

FIRE AT STOCKYARDS.

Caused Much Destruction of Railway Company's Property To-Day.
Sparks from the engine of a passing fruit train this morning at 10 o'clock set fire to the hay barns at the stockyards, and in a few moments the flames had destroyed the structures. A telephone message was sent to Joint Agent Pate notifying him of the fire, who at once summoned about thirty of the company's men to go to the scene on the switch engine. A bucket brigade was at once formed and the work of extinguishing the fire required about an hour. There were thirty-four car loads of sheep in the pens at the time of the fire, but with much difficulty the men finally succeeded in getting them beyond all danger. Two barns, containing about 100 tons of baled alfalfa, together with 385 feet of fence and seven gates were consumed. Division Superintendent F. C. Fox was notified at noon regarding the particulars of the fire.

CASES DISPOSED OF.

Doane Will Be Given His Trial Next Week.

In the case of the territory vs. Arthur C. Emery, who had been indicted for the larceny of a bicycle from W. Y. Walton last year, came up for trial this morning. The testimony showed that the defendant had taken a wheel from a certain place on the street, but the identity of the wheel, which belonged to Mr. Walton could not be proven, and as a result a verdict of not guilty was returned.

The next case to occupy the attention of the court was that of the territory against Perillano Lucero, for assault and battery upon the person of Mrs. Ana Gallegos. The prosecution being unable to convince the jury that an assault had been committed, the defendant was found not guilty.

A change of venue to the Valencia county court was taken this morning in the case of the territory against Jesus Mendoza. The charge against the defendant is that of assault on a horse.

The case of the city of Albuquerque vs. Frank Jolly, charged with turning in a false fire alarm, was dismissed.

When all the testimony in the case against Attorney W. C. Heacock, for alleged embezzlement of certain funds from his client, was heard, the court instructed the jury to find the defendant not guilty, which was done.

The case against Claude Doane for cattle stealing, and George Martinez for assault with intent to kill, morning will be called for trial on Wednesday, May 1.

The lady was 25 years of age, and besides a devoted husband leaves many relatives to mourn. Today the body was embalmed and heretofore sealed in a casket preparatory to shipment to the former home in Wisconsin to-morrow.

Some time after the train pulled out of Macon two men confronted the express messenger, J. N. White. New Mexico demands Statehood from the Fifty-Seventh Congress.

ALBUQUERQUE, APRIL 20 1901

This city has an excellent chance to get two new railroads this year.

It costs $211,000 to equip a regiment of United States cavalry—to buy clothes, arms and horses.

All the republican and several of the democratic papers favor the reappointment of Gov. M. A. Otero.

This city needs electric street railway, and a liberal franchise should be granted to secure the improvement.

Here in New Mexico the sugar beet grows to perfection, and a hard dozen best sugar factories could be operated with great profit.

Shakespeare was of the opinion that it was in mortals to command success, but the citizens of Albuquerque have this country think differently.

The Phoenix Republican says:
"The citizens of Albuquerque have begun already to prepare for their annual fair. The enterprising merchants of that bustling city have subscribed $2,500. They want $5,000, and will get it."

The Standard Oil company is the greatest monopoly in the world.
While people are going crazy over oil lands, and are investing in oil stocks in Texas, the Standard Oil company is pursuing the even tenor of its way.
It has purchased a vast amount of ground at Beaumont, and from the Luzon gusher to a point thirty miles away.

The British war loan of $500,000,000 is said to have been subscribed five times over, and it is stated that $50, 000,000, or one-sixth of the amount, will be allotted to American subscribers. This shows both the ease of the money market and the confidence of the world in the financial resources of Great Britain.

The enormous strain caused by her costly operations in all quarters of the world.

NEWSPAPER "ADS" ESSENTIAL.

The talk about the value of newspaper and poster advertising is a waste of energy. While there are circumstances in which poster advertisements are useful as an adjunct to newspaper advertisements, the latter are absolutely essential to a successful system of publicity. It is undeniable that the character of a newspaper influences the public in forming its estimate of an advertiser.

STATEHOOD CAMPAIGN.

The Phoenix Republican says:
"The Albuquerque Citizen is making a vigorous campaign for statehood, hoping thereby to arouse the people of New Mexico to a realization of their loss in remaining in vassalage. All the remaining territories should be wiped off the state, and all would be but Arizona's action in the last election.
New Mexico and Oklahoma climbed into the band wagon, while Arizona still preferred to walk."

NEGRO DISFRANCHISEMENT.

Alabama is following the course which Mississippi, Georgia, Louisiana, North Carolina and Maryland marked out, and which Virginia is also to take. By a large majority Alabama has passed a bill for the holding of a constitutional convention, which is to meet on May 21. Many things are intended to be done in that convention, but the chief work which it will do is to devise a plan by which it can cancel the negro vote and keep the democratic party dominant.

GREAT GOLD MINE.

The "Congress" of Arizona is a great mine. A San Francisco paper says of it that "the workings of the mine are down nearly 3,000 feet. The shaft is the deepest in the territory.
It is in high grade ore all the way, and the vein is of extraordinary width.
Besides the diamond drill has explored another 3,000 feet into the bowels of the earth and the vein is said to be, if anything, richer at the 6,000-foot level than it is at 3,000 feet.
The mine is the most noted gold producer in Arizona."

CURTAINING THE ARMY.

The decision not to recruit the regular army to its full strength shows that the government is convinced that the fighting in the Philippines is practically at an end. The army reorganization bill provided a minimum force of 35,000 men, which could be increased by 40,000, at the discretion of the president, to a war footing of nearly 100,000. The large power given the chief executive was one of the grounds on which the measure was criticized. This discretionary provision has now proved successful in venting needless expenditure for the support of the army at its maximum.

THEY COST MONEY.

There are five daily newspapers in New Mexico, two in Las Vegas, one in Santa Fe, and two in this city.
They have had a hard fight for existence, and it takes close work every day to meet expenses. Each of the daily newspapers in this city cost annually about $20,000. The daily expense of a newspaper in New Mexico is greater than anywhere else in the United States. The freight on a car load of paper is one-third of the total cost, and wages, ink, telegrams, and the thousand and one other expenses of publishing a paper here is greater than anywhere else in the country. In addition, the population is widely scattered, and cost of collections is no small item.

PORTO RICAN CONDITIONS.

Of the 553,243 population of Porto Rico, only 15,000 live in cities. On this island, but 100 miles long and thirty-six wide, are 40,000 distinct farms, and one-fifth of the island is under cultivation. The average size of a farm in Porto Rico is forty-five acres, of which twelve is cultivated.
Seventy-one per cent of these Porto Rican farms are owned by whites.

BOGUS REPRIEVE.

Desperate Efforts to Save "Black Jack" From Hanging.

A FOOLHARDY ATTEMPT.

Clayton, N. M., April 24. (Special to Daily Citizen.)—Vince was apparently an attempt to stay the hanging of "Black Jack" Ketchum, the notorious train robber, whose execution is set for Friday, was discovered today when Governor Otero wired from East Las Vegas that he had sent no reprieve from Santa Fe.

Hope for the prisoner appeared on the horizon but a few hours before, when a message signed "Otero" had been received by the sheriff, announcing a reprieve of one month by order of President McKinley.

Despite the denial of the governor that there is reason with uncertainty, and the man most interested, "Black Jack" himself, is the most composed of all, taking the downfall of his temporary hope with the same nonchalance that he did the announcement of the receipt of the reprieve.

FOOLHARDY ATTEMPT

To Stay the Hanging of the Famous Bandit, "Black Jack."

Clayton, N. M., April 24.—Special—The friends of "Black Jack" Ketchum have spent the night in a foolhardy effort to stay the hanging of the train robber, but it will undoubtedly be hanged Friday.

A false reprieve message was received today by Sheriff Garcia of this county, ostensibly from Governor Otero, reading as follows:
"By request of President McKinley, defer execution of Thomas Ketchum to May 25, 1901."

A CRUEL FORGERY.

The telegram has been proven a pure forgery, as Governor Otero has sent an official denial from Las Vegas, disavowing all knowledge of the message and promising to prosecute the perpetrator of the forgery to-morrow.

The Santa Fe telegraph office closed at 8 p. m., consequently nothing could be done in the search to-night.

Detective W. H. Reno, of the Colorado & Southern, who has devoted years to the running down of the bandit, was greatly alarmed at the news that the hanging of the train robber might be delayed.

He asked a verification from Governor Otero and was relieved by a reply that the such telegram had been sent and that any orders from Washington affecting a change in the arrangement for the hanging would be verified by wire.

The whole town was thrown into great excitement shortly after the arrival of the carefully snatched train robber, when the receipt of the reprieve was announced. No doubt of its authenticity appeared to exist except in the mind of Detective Reno, and others of the posse in charge of the condemned man.

MILDLY INTERESTED.

The supposed reprieve appeared to be as much of a surprise to the most interested man as it was to the stu-mored officers. Ketchum, when seen by the Republic's correspondent this afternoon, disclaimed any knowledge of the attempt to stay his execution, and said that he was not at all interested in the matter.

Up to this time he had shown little interest in his fate, and had passed away the greater part of his time in indolently playing cards with his guards.

The receipt of the forged reprieve, before its falsity was discovered, put the officers connected with the hanging in a quandary. Captain Fort, of Las Vegas, who has charge of the execution, did not know what to do, and the officers of the posse in charge of the condemned man.

There is much speculation in Clayton as to the identity of the sender of the forged telegram. Little doubt exists in the minds of the officers here that one of Ketchum's numerous friends or pals sought in this manner to stay the death of the law-breaker, but the absurdity of forwarding the dispatch forty-eight hours before the execution, when the interval permitted the correction of the forgery, is not as easily understood.

Others advance the opinion that the telegram is simply a practical joke on the part of some individual who has conception of what constitutes humor.
Governor Otero and Judge Mills, at East Las Vegas, have been in close communication with the officials here, and are unable to throw any light which might lead to the detection of the person who filed the telegram at Santa Fe.

The whole matter has stirred up much indignation and excitement here and vague and conflicting rumors are heard in the hotels and cafes.

READY FOR HANGING.

Despite the uncertainty that exists here preparations are steadily going forward for the execution of "Black Jack" between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.
Friday.

The special train bearing Ketchum and his ten guards, headed by Sheriff Garcia, arrived this morning, and the prisoner was immediately taken to the county jail, where, at his request, he inspected the scaffold from which he will swing Friday, before even being shown to his cell.

"GOOD WORK, BOYS."

With perfect aplomb "Black Jack" critically looked the death dealer over, and remarked that "it was a good piece of work."

"But, gentlemen," said the bandit, as he turned to go to his cell, "I wish you would take the stockade down so the boys can see me swinging everybody laughing and with a perfectly collected manner he strolled away with his guards."

The Republican correspondent promised to send him a copy of the Republican Friday morning, and Ketchum with a laugh thanked him, adding whimsically:

"Well, get it here early, as the band begins to play at 10 o'clock."

As the train bearing the prisoner was for many years the successful leader, is scattered far and wide, the officers do not anticipate any attempt to rescue the prisoner in charge, but no contingency is being overlooked.

DENIAL FROM OTERO.

He Allays Officers' Fears by Prompt Denial.

East Las Vegas, N. M., April 24.— (Special.)—Governor Otero was seen last night and when asked about "Black Jack's" reprieve said:

"I know nothing about it. There may be a message at my office for me, but my secretary knows I am in Las Vegas and has wired me nothing. I could not catch Santa Fe tonight by telegram."

Governor Otero received the following telegram from W. H. Reno, special agent for the Colorado & Southern railway, who with Sheriff Salome Garcia, has the execution in charge:

Clayton, N. M., April 24.—To M. A.
Otero, Governor, Santa Fe, N. M.: iff staying execution of Thomas Ketchum until May 25, 1901, by request of president.

To this he replied as follows:
To W. H. Reno, Clayton, N. M.: Did not send any such telegram. Will promptly advise sheriff by message.

That Railroad Scoop of The Citizen Materializing With the Magnates.

The Citizen's big railroad scoop, which was sprung on the public a few weeks ago and which was doubted in only one certain place in this city, is beginning to materialize, and Russell Sage, the wealthy New Yorker, says that "the project of building a line from El Paso, Texas, which is reached by the Texas & Pacific, and also, incidentally, by the Mexican Central, to Santa Fe, N. M., via Santa Rita and

By the way, the project of building the Santa Fe line between the cities named, connecting the Denver & Rio put the officers connected with the hang-

A NEW TOWN.

Oil, Coal and a New Townsite at Al-godones, New Mexico.

County Engineer J. L. Zimmerman and James Newhall have returned from Algodones, in Bernalillo county, where they surveyed a tract of land and the lands of the Western Union Oil company, says the New Mexican. Mr.
Zimmerman states that the indications for oil are unmistakable. One of the wells bubbles above the piping at regular intervals. The coal lands of that section are extensive and will be worked by the company. The Al-godones townsite is about six miles from the oil wells and coal fields, which are situated on the surveyed line of the Santa Fe, Albuquerque & Pacific railroad, while the townsite is on the Santa Fe railroad, which has created a depot there and installed a station agent. The company has boring machinery on the ground. It is proposed to use the oil for fuel for industrial purposes until a refinery built by the Standard Oil trust. Work on the proposed new smelter at Algodones does not yet have begun.

On almost the entire tract of 2,000 acres, there is a surface seepage of oil and outcroppings of oil sandstone.
The oil strata are extensive and will be slightly out of the horizontal, indicating that when oil is struck it will be found of considerable depth and extending over a wide area. The Western Union Oil company is capitalized at $1,000,000. The directors of the company are the following: H. Allen Bradford, St. Louis; A. J. Frank, of Algodones; J. B. Bradford, A. Critch-field, St. Louis; Hon. Lloyd Poney, of New Orleans; F. J. Stutzman, Chi-

Through an agent's error an eastern factory shipped me 150 pairs of men's $1.50 shoes, which should have gone to California. Rather than have them returned they made a reduction of 50 cents a pair. In order to sell them fast I shall sell them at $1. This is a genuine bargain. T. Muensterman, 208 Railroad avenue.

Some people can worry along with a $10 or a $25 typewriter and not know but they are doing fair work. But the general agent of the largest life insurance company in America, the Mutual of New York, says that a letter written on one of these common typewriters attracts no more attention than a printed circular.

IMPROVED NO. 4. SMITH-PREMIER that company put in yesterday suits Mr. Hathaway and his photographer to a charm, and N. W. Alger, the agent for the Smith-Premier is very proud of the sale.

The increase in our business proves the popularity of our selections for the season's trade. We claim that every shoe we sell is a good one. We guarantee every pair we sell to give satisfactory wear. If they don't, sometimes does happen, we will either refund the money or give you a new pair.
