CREMATING THE VICTIMS

Several Vessels Dispatched to St. Pierre From Fort de France With Fire Wood and Petroleum for That Purpose.

CABLE FROM CONSUL AYMEE

He Suggests That the Red Cross be Asked to Send Vessels of Warships.

Fort de France, Island of Martinique, Sunday, May 11.—Several steamers, including the government vessel Rubis, started from here yesterday for St. Pierre. They had on board a government delegate, a number of gendarmes, a detachment of regular infantry and several priests. The vessels also carried a quantity of fire wood, petroleum and quicklime, for use in the cremation of the bodies of victims of the terrible volcanic outbreak on Thursday last. Large quantities of disinfectants and stocks of clothing for the refugees were also shipped to St. Pierre. The refugees had, as a rule, assembled at le Carbet and Case Pilote, not far from St. Pierre, and it is reported that over 1,000 of them have died since the fearful stream of lava poured down from Mont Pelee. The sea for miles round is covered with the wreckage of vessels sunk off St. Pierre, and ashore only a few trees, all bent seaward by the force of the volcanic shower, were left standing. When nearing St. Pierre the Rubis met a number of tugs towing lighters filled with refugees. The heat from the smoking, lava-covered ruins at St. Pierre is suffocating and the stench from the corpse-strewn streets is awful. Only a few walls are standing. On all sides were found portions of corpses, which were gathered up by the soldiers and gendarmes and burned on one of the public squares. Not a drop of water is procurable ashore. Darkness, caused by clouds of volcanic dust, shrouded the town and continuous subterranean rumbling added to the horror of the scene. Huge heaps of smoking ashes are seen on all sides. At the landing place, some burned and ruined walls indicated the spot where the custom house formerly stood, and traces of larger shops could be seen. In that neighborhood hundreds of corpses were lying in all kinds of attitudes, showing that the victims met death as if by a lightning stroke. Every vestige of clothing was burned away from the charred bodies, and in many cases the abdomens were burst open by the intense heat. Curiously enough, the features of the dead were generally calm and reposeful, although in some cases terrible fright and agony is depicted. Grim piles of bodies are stacked everywhere, showing that death had stricken them while crowds were vainly seeking to escape from the fiery deluge. On one spot a group of nine children were found locked in each other's arms. The vaults of the bank at Martinique were found intact. It contained 2,000,000 francs in specie. The vaults of the government treasury are now being searched in the hope that a large amount of money and other valuables deposited by the principal merchants of the city may be saved. Nearly 4,000 refugees from the vicinity of Le Precheur, a suburban village to the north of St. Pierre, were rescued by the French cruiser Suchet and the cable repair ship Puyou-Quertier and brought here. As a result of his inspection, the commander of the Suchet, reports that crevices and valleys are constantly forming in the northern portion of the island, where the land is in a state of perpetual change. Fortunately, that part of the country was evacuated in good time by the inhabitants who fled to Fort de France. Lava continues to stream down the mountain side, accompanied by terrific thunder and lightning. The dearth of provisions is beginning to be felt throughout the island. Numerous families are completely ruined and even shelterless, while the means at the disposal of the authorities are much too inadequate to cope with the distress. Communication is practically cut off from all surrounding islands, except by stray vessels, which are seized upon by the inhabitants to flee from Martinique.

CONSUL PRENTISS AND FAMILY DEAD. Washington, May 12.—Secretary Hay has received the following cablegram, dated May 11, from United States Consul Prentiss at Guadeloupe, who went to Fort de France, Martinique, by instructions from this government: "The disaster is complete. The city was wiped out. Consul Prentiss and family dead. The governor says that 30,000 perished and 50,000 are homeless and hungry. He suggests that the Red Cross be asked to send coffee, flour, beans, rice, salt, meat and biscuit as quickly as possible. Visits of warships are valuable."

FLOOD FOLLOWS FIRE. London, May 12.—The colonial office received the following dispatch today from Administrator Bell of the Island of Dominica, British West Indies: "The Martinique catastrophe appears to be even more terrible than at first reported. Refugees, arriving here this morning, say the new craters are open in many sections, that rivers are overflowing and large areas in the north of the island are submerged. Other districts are crowded with survivors. The almost total darkness continues. I do not believe Guadeloupe can adequately relieve the stupendous distress."

SUCCOR FOR THE MARTINIQUE SUFFERERS

The President Orders the Various Departments to Co-Operate for the Relief of the Earthquake Sufferers.

A MESSAGE WILL BE SENT TO CONGRESS FOR AN IMMEDIATE APPROPRIATION

Washington, May 12.—The president after a conference this morning with several members of the cabinet, has ordered the war, navy, and treasury departments to co-operate in the adoption of steps for the relief of the Martinique sufferers. The state department already acting through its consuls to that effect. The president has prepared a message which will be submitted to congress today urging an immediate appropriation, to which these steps are preliminary and anticipatory. By the president's direction orders were telegraphed to the transport Dixie at Brooklyn, to load the stores furnished by the army as rapidly as possible and to clear for Martinique at the earliest practicable moment. THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. The president today sent the following message to congress: To the senate and house of representatives: One of the greatest calamities in history has fallen upon our neighboring island, Martinique. The consul of the United States at Guadeloupe telegraphed from Fort de France, under date of yesterday, that the disaster is complete; that the city of St. Pierre has ceased to exist; and that the American consul and family have perished. He is informed that 30,000 people have lost their lives, and that 50,000 are homeless and hungry; that there is an urgent need for all kinds of provisions and that a visit of vessels for the work of supply and rescue is imperatively required. The government of France, while expressing its thanks for the marks of sympathy which reached it from America, informs that Fort de France and the entire island of Martinique are still threatened. They, therefore, request that, for the purpose of rescuing the people who are in such deadly peril and threatened with starvation, the government of the United States may send as soon as possible means for transporting them from the stricken island. The island of St. Vincent, and perhaps others in that region are also seriously menaced by the calamity which has taken so appalling a form at Martinique. I have directed the departments of the treasury, war and navy to take such measures for the relief of these stricken people as lies within executive discretion, and I earnestly commend this case of unexpected disaster to the generous consideration of congress. For this purpose, I recommend that an appropriation of $500,000 be made to be immediately available.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report of J. Francisco Chaves Found Very Important and Ordered Printed.

FINE RECORD FOR YEAR 1901

Teachers' Institutes do Good Work—Course for Same for Present Year Prescribed—New Mexico School System Advancing and Improving Steadily.

An important meeting of the New Mexico board of education was held on Saturday afternoon at the executive office. It was a special meeting called by the governor at the earnest solicitation of the superintendent of public instruction, Colonel J. Francisco Chaves, to consider the matter of publishing and distributing the recently completed 11th annual report showing the educational progress of the territory, and also for the purpose of ratifying and approving the action of county examining boards, and the superintendent of public instruction in fixing the rating of applicants for 1st, 2d and 3d grade teachers' certificates under the Springer law for the current school year. There were in attendance: Colonel J. Francisco Chaves, secretary; Miss Maggie J. Bucher of East Las Vegas; Professor C. M. Light, principal of the New Mexico Normal School at Silver City; Professor W. G. Ticht, president University of New Mexico at Albuquerque; Professor M. E. Hickey, city school superintendent at Albuquerque.

Colonel Chaves submitted a detailed report of the work of the county normal institutes of last year, and also a long list of teachers whose examinations took place in August and November 1901, as provided in the new school law, together with the general average earned at these examinations by the various applicants seeking to be legally qualified for teaching in this territory. With a few minor exceptions the rating generally was higher than awarded by the county examining boards was long approved by the superintendent of public instruction, and at this meeting the territorial board ratified this act by the superintendent. Considering that this report covers the first year of the new law, and the general approval of the board, it was agreed by the board—that the showing made by Colonel Chaves of the interest taken in the summer institutes and examinations throughout the Territory was, upon the whole, most flattering.

Following disposal of this subject, the matter of providing for the printing and distribution of the superintendent's annual report was taken up, and Colonel Chaves as secretary of the board, was called upon to read a copy of a letter which he had previously addressed to the governor, calling attention to the failure of the legislature to provide for the publication of the educational statistics, and suggesting the wisdom of calling a special meeting of the board of education to consider what had best be done in the premises. Following is an extract from Colonel Chaves' letter: "I sincerely feel there is a moral obligation resting upon the Territory, under the present peculiar condition, within our midst as well as the national capital and throughout the central western and eastern states, which justifies me in making this suggestion and prompts me to urge the wisdom of immediate action to provide for the publication of the educational statistics, and suggesting the wisdom of calling a special meeting of the board of education to consider what had best be done in the premises. Following is an extract from Colonel Chaves' letter: "I sincerely feel there is a moral obligation resting upon the Territory, under the present peculiar condition, within our midst as well as the national capital and throughout the central western and eastern states, which justifies me in making this suggestion and prompts me to urge the wisdom of immediate action to provide for the publication of the educational statistics, and suggesting the wisdom of calling a special meeting of the board of education to consider what had best be done in the premises. As an instance, only today I find on my desk, a copy of the New York Educational Journal for March 1902, which editorially commends Oklahoma's fitness for statehood and says: "But Arizona and New Mexico are not only equal to, but rapidly growing, but peopled largely with a foreign element; whereas the facts for the United States census for 1900 are as follows, New York, native born, 88 per cent; foreign born 12 per cent; New Mexico, native born, 97.4 per cent, foreign born 2.6 per cent. "As you are aware New Mexico has been for years the subject of bitter attack on this line and the victim of the greatest and most persistent misrepresentation. Our adversaries at Washington and throughout the east are just now particularly active and prone to belittle the progress of the state. Now more so, as the agitation for statehood waxed warmer in congress. But are we not in a large measure responsible for this wide-spread and popular misapprehension of the facts touching our educational work, the present enlightenment of our people, and the splendid results of their individual efforts to attain a higher plane of American citizenship? This territory has been neglected and uncared for by the national government in respect to educational matters—for more than fifty years, while today we witness the sending of school teachers in ship loads to Porto Rico, Cuba, and the Philippines at government expense. If, half a century ago, as by every moral and humane right they should have done, the United States had sent tens of thousands of teachers into New Mexico, this population would rank today with the most enlightened communities of our common country. Instead, the federal government has persistently ignored the true citizenship of the territory, but has taxed them to contribute to its substance a part of which is expended here, at the rate of $250,000 annually, for the "education" God save the mark of several thousand long haired blanket Indians. "Therefore, for what they have learned, this people is entitled to no more credit owing to the fact that the parent government has never given one cent towards the uplifting of the masses which came peacefully to its protecting care under the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo. "The Eleventh Annual Report of this office, aside from presenting vital statistics in an attractive form treats exhaustively of this and kindred subject. "A general discussion of the subject ensued, and it was the consensus of

STATEHOOD BILL IN THE SENATE

The Three Delegates Propose to Make an Energetic Fight for Its Passage.

FINAL ACTION IS BELIEVED TO HINGE ON ELECTIONS THIS FALL

Washington, May 12.—Delegates Rodey, Flynn and Smith announce that they propose making an energetic fight to secure consideration in the senate before the close of the session for the statehood bill which passed the house yesterday, admitting Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma into the union as states. Delegates Rodey and Flynn had a conference today with Senator Beveridge, chairman of the senate committee on territories, which will have consideration of the statehood bill, and requested that immediate hearings on the bill be given. Senator Beveridge suggested that the time was too short to give the consideration the bill merits, but promised if the advocates of the bill desired it, to give the hearings requested. It is generally believed that even though the hearings be granted, the committee will not report the bill to the senate at this session of congress. Final action upon the measure is believed to hinge to a certain extent upon the result of the elections the coming fall in these territories.

OFFICIAL MATTERS

CHANGE IN THE NAME OF A POST-OFFICE. The postoffice of Martinez in southwestern Colfax county, will be changed to Aurora, the change to take place July 1, 1902.

TERRITORIAL FUNDS. Territorial Treasurer J. H. Vaughn today received from Mark Howell, collector of Chaves county, $118.88 for 1900 taxes, $141.49 for 1901 taxes; from Amador Martinez, collector of Union county, $106.64 for taxes of 1901; from John S. Spears, collector of McKinley county, $20.30 for 1901 taxes.

opinion that nothing could at this opportune time be of more general benefit to New Mexico than the publication and widest possible circulation of this report and the schools and their progress. Accordingly, following resolution was drafted and unanimously adopted: Whereas, the report of the superintendent of public instruction of this Territory for the year 1901, is a very valuable and comprehensive public document, replete with statistics and general information concerning New Mexico's school system, and, Whereas, the public interest demands that at least 3,000 copies of this report be published and distributed to libraries, colleges, universities, national government and state officials, school teachers and citizens generally throughout the states and this territory, and, Whereas, no appropriation is available for this purpose, and, Whereas, this board deems such publication and distribution as of the greatest moment to the people of this territory and believes that such will prove of great and material benefit to the public interests; therefore be it

Resolved by the Board of Education of the Territory of New Mexico, That the governor, the solicitor general, the auditor and the treasurer of this territory, and the superintendent of public instruction, and also the public printer, be, and these officials are hereby respectfully requested to use their utmost endeavors to have not exceeding 3,000 copies of this report printed and distributed, and if no funds for the immediate payment therefor can be found, to use their individual best efforts, as well as official endeavors, to procure the approval and allowance of the bill for such printing and distribution by the next legislative assembly. And this board hereby and herewith requests and urges the said public printer, to print said copies of such report as expeditiously as possible, and to await payment thereof by appropriation by the next legislative assembly, the members of this board pledging themselves to urge upon the legislative assembly the justice of the expenditure and request of that body the speedy approval of the account and an appropriation payment of the same.

The need of a uniform course of study for use in the summer normal institutes required by law to be held in each county in the territory, was the next subject brought forward for consideration. All united in the opinion that such a course of study was a timely necessity that would serve greatly to simplify, and systematize the work of the institutes and stimulate popular interest therein, and in the cause of education generally. Professor Light stated that the last meeting of the New Mexico Educational Association had discussed this matter at length; deemed it of deep import and had appointed a committee to prepare and print such a course as was suitable to the present demands of the territory, copies of which in pamphlet form he said, would soon be ready for distribution at twenty-five cents each. Thereupon Professor Light submitted a resolution to the effect that the course of study, now being prepared by the committee representing the Territorial Educational Association be officially recognized and approved by this board, and that the Superintendent of Public Instruction be requested to officially announce the same in a formal manner for the guidance of county superintendents and instructors of normal institutes. This resolution was adopted whereupon the meeting adjourned.

THE COLLIERIES SUSPEND WORK

The Tie-Up is Complete and About 140,000 Men and Boys Are Now on the Idle List.

COAL FAMINE IS APPARENT

General Exodus in the Wyoming Valley—The Foreign Element Look for a Long Strike and Are Hastening to the Iron Districts to Seek Work in the Mills.

Scranton, Pa., May 12.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers, stated this morning that the tie-up of the three anthracite districts is complete. Approximately, 140,000 men and boys are idle, of which number only one-half are in the Lackawanna and Wyoming region. In every instance, Mitchell said the order to suspend operations has been obeyed. About 20,000 mine workers are out in the Lehigh district and 50,000 in the Schuylkill fields. An official of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company said today that that corporation had no intention of resorting to a lock-out.

Continuing, he said: "We do not intend to irritate the men, and other companies are of the same mind. Nothing will be done until after Wednesday. The situation is now in the hands of the miners. After Wednesday it will be in our hands. We appreciate the fact that John Mitchell does not want a strike. Neither do the companies, despite what has been said to the contrary. While we do not want a fight, we will give the men all the fight they desire if they decide that there is to be one."

From the same official source comes the announcement that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company has stopped selling coal. Other companies have taken similar action, and it is believed that a coal famine will result if the suspension is made permanent on Wednesday.

A SHORTAGE ALREADY.

Reading, Pa., May 12.—A coal shortage is already apparent here. Coal dealers were besieged all day Sunday by customers, and say they have more orders than they can fill in a month even with the mines running. MINERS LEAVING THE DISTRICT. Wilkesbarre, May 12.—Every mine in the Wyoming Valley is idle this morning and the tie-up is complete. Should a strike be ordered by the Hazleton convention, the men now at work keeping the mines from being flooded expect to be called out.

Some engineers may not obey the order, but there is no question but the firemen and pump runners will. The foreign element look for a long strike and today the steamship and railroad offices were crowded with Hungarians, Poles and Italians going to the iron centers to seek work in the mills. Others will take a trip to their native land and return when the strike is over.

THE TENTH DISTRICT.

Shamokin, Pa., May 12.—Forty-five collieries in the 9th district were completely tied up this morning by 20,655 employees, excluding bosses, firemen, engineers and pump men, enforcing the three days' suspension ordered by the Scranton convention. There is no disturbance.

PANTHER CREEK VALLEY.

Pittsville, Pa., May 12.—From Panther Creek Valley, in the extreme east of this coal basin, to Williamstown, in the west, and from Mahoning and Shenadoah Valleys, comes the same story of the idleness of hundreds of collieries in obedience to the order of National President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.

Hazleton, Pa., May 12.—Mining operations in this portion of the 7th district were completely suspended today. The Diamond and Bellevue coal washeries, owned by the Lackawanna Company, are working short handed today. With this exception every colliery operator in the region is idle.

San Simon Stock Ranges Are Over Stocked.

Ryan Brothers, who own and control extensive ranches in the San Simon valley in Southern New Mexico, expect to ship five to seven hundred carloads of cattle from that section in the next few weeks. This action of Ryan Brothers is to thin out the over stocked range and give it the necessary rest so that the grass may again become plentiful.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is Read in the Senate and Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.—Consideration of the Philippine Government Bill.—Former Speaker in Its Support.

HOUSE.

Washington, May 12.—Legislation affecting the District of Columbia was the order in the house today, and an extended discussion occurred on the bill of consolidating the local gaslight companies.

THE BILL PASSED.

Washington, May 12.—The bill appropriating $200,000 for the relief of the Martinique sufferers passed the house, 196 to 5.

RELIEF BILL REPORTED.

Washington, May 12.—The committee on appropriations of the house, at a special meeting held this afternoon, decided to report the bill for the relief of the citizens of the French West Indies, and appropriated $200,000, an increase of 100,000 over the senate measure. The acting chairman of the committee was ordered to call up the bill this afternoon.

SENATE.

Washington, May 12.—At the conclusion of routine business in the senate today, the resolution, offered by Mr. Bailey on Saturday to relieve the special ambassadors to the coronation, was called up, but after some discussion went over.

Cullum presented to the senate, and had read, a cablegram received by the state department from Consul Ayme at Fort de France. Consideration of the Philippine government bill was then begun. Foraker, Ohio, addressing the senate in support of the measure.

Foraker read editorials from the Democratic papers supporting the policy of President McKinley in 1898-99, and declaring that when the war with the Philippines began, it was necessary to suppress the insurrection. Referring to editorials in the Denver News, of which Senator Patterson is the proprietor, Foraker said, with keen sarcasm: "These editorials do not read exactly as the senator's speeches do now; but time will come when the senator will take greater pride and pleasure in reading these editorials than in reading his speeches. (Laughter) Foraker said he was reading at great length from the Denver News' editorials because they were the ablest he found either in Republican or Democratic papers, (laughter), and he desired to emblazon them all for all time in the Congressional Record. (Renewed laughter.) PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE REFERRED.

Washington, May 12.—The president's message regarding the Martinique disaster was read in the senate and referred to the committee on foreign relations.

A Surveying Corps Commenced Laying out the Line Last Week.

Last week a surveying corps, in charge of P. M. Davenport, commenced making the final survey for the Cimarron River and Taos Valley Railroad, which will extend a distance of 54 miles, from Maxwell City to Elizabethtown. This proposed railroad will give the Elizabethtown, Baldy and Red River mining districts railroad facilities and will be of great benefit to those sections. The work is to be pushed to completion as fast as it is possible to get together a construction force.

MONDAY, MAY 12.

New Mexico Demands Statehood of the 57th Congress.

Of Right and in Justice New Mexico Should Be a State.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland has returned from another successful duck hunt and the Cleveland wing of the Democratic party ought to be correspondingly happy.

Ex-Secretary of the Navy John D. Long has concluded to spend the next few months in travel for recreation and improvement of his mind. The people are very willing indeed.

The insurgent guerrillas in the Philippine Islands are receiving much aid and comfort from the congressional guerrillas in the senate and house of representatives of the United States. The American nation is the sufferer thereby.

There are some alleged statesmen in New Mexico who have anything but savory records who will nevertheless aspire to high office in the new state government and who will declare themselves to be and always to have been honorable, peaceful, and loyal citizens. There will be lots of fun in discussing their records when the proper time arrives.

The Danish Folkething and Lands-thing, whatever these "things" may be, have concluded that the right thing to do is to give the people of the Danish West Indies a vote upon the question of annexation to the United States. These two "things" and the voters in the West Indies, however, should not flatter themselves that the United States is dead gone upon this thing of annexation.

The Republicans of New Mexico seem to have an over-plus of candidates for the United States senate upon New Mexico's admission to statehood, but the Democrats seem to be hard up for the right men for the senatorial toga. As the Republicans will elect the two senators, there seems to be no occasion why the Democrats should worry themselves over this scarcity. It will make no difference at all.

A delegation of twelve or fifteen prominent citizens should be appointed by Governor Otero for the purpose of going to Washington to aid in the passage by the United States senate of the omnibus bill giving statehood to New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma. The citizens of New Mexico favoring statehood, and they are in a vast majority, would highly appreciate and fully approve such action on the governor's part.

This country is expanding in every direction. Statistics show that during the year 1901, four-fifths of the freight traffic on the North Atlantic came from this country, that three-fourths of the first-class passengers on the steamships between this country and Europe were Americans, and that half the passage money for immigrants from Europe to this country was sent to them by relatives and friends here. Uncle Sam is expanding in every direction.

The beef trust is wincing. There has been a great decline in the consumption of meat the past month and the extra profits made by the trust through screwing up prices are being set off by losses in sales. There is a natural limit even to the power of the greatest trust. It is the old story of leading a horse to water, but not being able to compel it to drink. The trust is able to raise prices, but it is not yet and never will be able to compel the American people to buy meat from it.

Some two weeks ago, Delegate Rodey stated that the omnibus statehood bill would pass the house of representatives practically by a unanimous vote. The bill passed on the 9th of May and without division. Delegate Rodey was therefore very nearly correct in his prophecy. He is also of the opinion that the bill will pass the senate during the present session. It is to be hoped that this belief will be as well-founded as was his assertion as to the fate of the bill in the house.

Northern Colorado is to have two more beet sugar factories this year, one at Greeley and another at Eaton. There is already a factory at Loveland in that same part of the Centennial state. With all these factories going to Colorado it seems inevitable that beet sugar factories must soon be coming to New Mexico, for both in quality as well as quantity per acre, New Mexico can do even better than Colorado in raising sugar beets. The territory also possesses all and more of the other advantages that the Centennial state offers for the manufacture of beet sugar and it is certain that capitalists will sooner or later take hold of these advantages to their own financial benefit.

A fair and good constitution containing also a provision for the location of the capital of the new state at Santa Fe will carry by a handsome majority. A constitution that is not gotten up in this shape will, in all likelihood, be defeated. This means business.

The American farmers and stock-raisers have a good deal to stand to be sure. The beef trust is after them, droughts affect them, heavy rains and wind storms destroy crops and there are other numerous detrimental occurrences to make their lot not absolutely an enviable one. In addition to this the department of agriculture, during the past three months, has distributed six tons of literature among them. There is evidently good stuff in the American stockmen and farmers to survive these vicissitudes.

If the omnibus statehood bill becomes law this session, and there is very good reason to believe it will, there will be lots of political fun ahead in New Mexico this fall. There will be an election for delegates to the constitutional convention, the holding of such convention and ratification of the constitution, the election of a state and legislative ticket, and he election of two United States senators. Therefore, this is the time for all those who aspire to political preferment to pay due heed and attention to the newspapers of New Mexico.

It isn't often that a president of a prosperous republic resigns in time of contentment at home and peace abroad and the resignation of President Sam of the republic of Hayti is therefore worthy of notice. During his administration the little negro republic has prospered while the adjoining mulatto republic of Santo Domingo has passed through one revolution after another. The Haytian republic has demonstrated that a negro is as well fitted to take a part in the government of a republic as the average white man. Of course, Hayti is far from an ideal republic, and General Sam was pretty much of a dictator, but it has started on the road to self government and has given proof that it is entitled to an independent existence.

It now appears as if the irrigation bill is to have an inning despite the opposition of some of the leaders in the house of representatives, to it. President Roosevelt believes it would prove an efficacious and beneficial law if passed and that is a very strong point in its favor. The contingent of senators and representatives from the irrigation states and territories will not give up the fight and will insist on bringing it to a vote in the house of representatives. If this can be done, it is believed it will be passed with slight amendments, the bill will then be returned to the senate where the house amendments will be concurred in and the bill officially passed. At least such is the New Mexican's information from Washington and there is every reason to believe it is true.

MISCHIEF MAKERS.

Rev. Josiah Strong, D. D., is in this country from Constantinople. Together with Miss Ellen Stone he predicts that sooner or later there will be a revolution in Turkey and that it will come from the influence of Robert College, a missionary institution at Constantinople for the education of young men. This is quite the frankest statement that has yet been made about the relation between missionary effort and political uprisings. Robert College exists and does its work by the permission of the Turkish government. According to the Rev. Josiah Strong and Miss Ellen Stone one of the results of its work will be an attempt to destroy that government.

Relations of friendship exist between the government of Turkey and the government of the United States. If the sultan should decree the suppression of Robert College, excited appeals would be made for warships and armed forces to be sent out to Constantinople to protect the college. Such appeals were made two years ago when Armenian agitators educated in this country and claiming American citizenship came into collision with Turkish authority. Yet, if the Rev. Dr. Strong tells the truth about Robert College an order for the closing of its doors issued by the sultan would be a well justified measure of public safety, and besides a friendly remonstrance this government would have no right to interfere.

If a Chinese college should be established in this country under the management of the Boxer organization and by some mysterious logic or sophistry should succeed in impressing large numbers of American youths with the belief that this government should be destroyed, the United States should shut up the college and pack its president and its professors off to China. From the point of view of law and public policy the cases are parallel.

A LOSING ISSUE.

A soldier who has to bear the brunt of war is the very last man to make them without cause. For generations the only fighting the United States had to do was the Indian fighting and it would be hard to show that the army was responsible for a single one of the innumerable Indian conflicts. When soldiers on the spot say that fighting is necessary, fighting that they and not others must do, it is safe to accept their estimate of the situation. And certainly it is to be wished when fighting is inevitable that the blow shall be so sudden and so severe as to convince the enemy that Uncle Sam is not to be resisted. Colonel Baldwin's brilliant little fight in Mindanao recently was such a blow. The Moros were doubtless as much astonished at an enemy who crossed four lines of ditches under fire to take a fort by storm, as foreign observers were to witness a similar feat of arms at San Juan Hill. It is very possible that this decisive fight may be the ending as well as the beginning of the war in Mindanao.

How pleasant therefore is the position of the politicians who have devoted themselves to the issue of anti-imperalism. These statesmen maintain that officers of the United States army, who are fighting the battles of their country in the Philippines, are a singular and loathsome combination of fool and brute, that they needlessly exasperate the natives, and, having goaded them to resistance, wantonly torture and murder them. This is certainly not a winning issue. The American people will be apt to consider that whoever made what there is of war in the Philippines, it was not the officers and soldiers who are engaged in fighting it. They are fighting the battles of their country, amid all manner of hardships and discouragements, and fighting them with the greatest gallantry and efficiency. That a majority of the voters at home in whose behalf they are fighting, will be induced to join in firing on them from the rear seems to be the maddest expectation to which a politician ever entrusted his political fortune.

Easy to tell sick kidneys.

Look at the back for the note of warning.

Most backache pains are kidney ills. Twitches, twinges, pains and aches of a bad back.

Should be treated promptly.

Every day's delay means future trouble.

Urinary complications set in, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Doan's Kidney Pills are kidney specialists.

Cure every form of kidney ills.

Here is proof of this:

Mrs. M. Meyers, midwife, living at 112 South 14th street, St. Louis, says:

"Perhaps in following my calling, from lifting, or from some other cause, I may have overstrained the muscles of my back. Be that as it may, I have had attacks of backache for two years and lately almost constant. It hurt more in the morning than in any other period of the day and has on more than one occasion been so severe that I could scarcely turn in bed. I know from the condition of the kidney secretions that my kidneys were at fault but what to do was a mystery. I was continually trying sure-cure medicines to cure kidney complaint, but I met with very little if any success until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. From the benefits I received from the treatment I have not the slightest hesitation in very emphatically endorsing the preparation. I have studied medicine and understand the symptoms of kidney complaint. No one in St. Louis if they try Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney complaint will be disappointed in the results."

Just such emphatic endorsement can be had right here in Santa Fe. Drop into Ireland's Pharmacy and ask what his customers report.

Missouri Code Pleading

By Mr. Everett W. Patton.

(Author of Patton's Complete Digest.)

Nearly 600 Pages. Price, $5. Delivered.

This Book is a Very Important One for all Lawyers.

The New Mexico Code is largely modeled on the Missouri Code so that this book and the Form book, are the most practicable for use thereunder.

It sets forth, as succinctly as is consistent with clearness, the present condition of the law governing pleading as interpreted by the courts of last resort in Missouri. The decisions are mostly those of the Missouri courts; though in some instances illustrations have been drawn from the decisions of other code states.

The Author Thoroughly Believes in the Advantages of the Code System of Pleading.

He further believes that precision and exactness are even of more importance in code pleading than in pleading at common law. For, while it is true that the common law requires the utmost strictness in adherence to forms, yet, if its forms are followed, the practitioner need have little fear of attack upon his pleading, even though that pleading should totally fail to inform his opponent as to the real points in issue. On the other hand, the very object of the Code is to compel parties to make clear the grounds upon which their right to recover, or their defense, is based. The lawyer who is well grounded in the rules of pleading will surely have the advantage in litigation. The constant study of this valuable work, familiarity with the rules set forth in it, and with the decisions enforcing and interpreting those rules, cannot fail to make one a good pleader.

SPECIAL OFFER—To those who buy both books at once, we will offer Patton's Pleading Form Book (Price, $5.00) if ordered within the next 30 days for $4.00 additional, thus offering the two works, giving all there is to be said about Pleading in Missouri.

In one order, Prepaid for $10.00.

Whereas, Our friend and brother, Solomon Spiegelberg, one of the oldest and most respected members of our fraternity, has met with a sad affliction in the death of his beloved and devoted wife, who has been his companion from young manhood to a mature age in continuous peace and happiness, therefore be it

Resolved, by Santa Fe Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, that the sincere sympathy of this lodge and its membership is hereby extended to our bereaved Brother Spiegelberg, and his family, in this hour of sadness and great grief, and may they be sustained in this deep sorrow by the thought that death is but the transitory step from the earthly life into that in which there shall be no death.
