ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, MONDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 18, 1901.

NUMBER 101.

THE LEGISLATURE

Council and House Pass Bills.

Batch of Interesting News From National Capital.

Reported Arrangement of Leasing of Burlington Railroad.

THE MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Special to The Citizen.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 18.—The council passed the house bill imposing an inspection tax of one cent per gallon on coal oil. The house passed the bill making liquor license payable annually and the bill now goes to the governor for his signature.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Condition of Niles, Mich. Bank—Other Important Notes.
Washington, D. C., March 18.—The controller of the currency today received from the temporary receiver of the failed First National bank of Niles, Mich., a preliminary statement of the bank's condition, showing amount of defalcation to be approximately $150,000, which had been covered up by forged loans and discounts. The bank's affairs will be wound up.

VIGOROUS PROTEST.

The state department, through Minister Loomis, lodged a most vigorous protest to the Venezuelan government against other interference with Mr. Balz, United States consular agent at Barcelona, Venezuela. It appears he is engaged in business and became involved in trouble with Venezuelan military authorities by resisting an attempt to collect a forced loan from him.

ISTHMIAN MATTERS.

Secretary Hay had a long conference today with Senator Morgan respecting isthmiian canal matters and advisability of re-opening negotiations for treaty with Great Britain on the subject.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

No cases of great importance were decided by the supreme court today. Chief Justice Fuller, who presided, would take a recess from next Monday for a fortnight. Opinion is quite general that the Porto Rican and Philippine questions will not be announced until after the conclusion of that recess.

Leasing of the Burlington.

Chicago, March 18.—The Tribune says: The reported arrangement for the leasing of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy system to the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroad companies places the Hill combination in a position to compete in Oriental freights with the Canadian Pacific railroad. According to present advice James J. Hill will operate the Burlington on independent basis, but as part of the continuing link system from Chicago to the Pacific ocean on the northwest, with New York connections over the Pennsylvania lines.

MARCH TERM.

District Court Convened This Morning—Court Officials Appointed.

This morning at 10 o'clock the regular march term of the district court convened. Judge Crumpacker presiding; T. S. Hubbell, sheriff; C. M. Foraker, United States marshal, and H. P. Owen, clerk.

Capt. W. C. Reid, of Rough Rider fame, was duly sworn in as assistant United States attorney, and at the present term will take care of the interests of the government here.

The following term appointments were made: Nestor Montoya, interpreter; Charles Mackay, clerk; Max Ehrlich, grand jury interpreter; and Mariano G. Armijo, bailiff.

The case of the United States vs. Chas. Denmore, charged with murder, was by agreement of the parties set for trial on Friday, March 29th.

On the territory side of the court Juan Anaya was appointed clerk, Sefarino Crockett, grand jury interpreter; Gregorio Apodaca, bailiff.

The grand jury on both sides of the court being incomplete, jury commissions were named to complete the same, and it is expected that by tomorrow morning the machinery of both courts will be in motion.

New suits docketed this morning are Juan Baca y Garcia, an appeal from the probate court.

E. T. Burdick vs. J. E. Berry, appeal from justice court.

FOREIGN NEWS!

Two of the Great Powers Quarrelling.

New Province Formed, With Army Officers in Charge.

Big Fire, Fanned by South Wind, in Progress in St. Louis.

TWO TOWNS ON FIRE.

London, March 18.—The Vienna Neue Presse reports a serious rising at Zehera, Persia, because of reforms attempted by the Shah.

On the highest official authority the Associated Press is authorized to announce that the difficulty at Tien Tsin between the Russian and British over the construction of a railroad siding territory claimed by both, will probably be solved by the withdrawal of both British and Russian troops from the ground in the district.

United States Ambassador Choate, and other ambassadors and ministers to Great Britain, presented their credentials to King Edward at Marlborough house at noon today.

Copenhagen, March 18.—Dowager Empress Alexandra of Russia will arrive here tomorrow and remain until after the celebration of the eighty-third anniversary of the birth of her father, King Christian IX. The king and queen of England postponed their visit until later in the year.

Official Dismissed.
Berlin, March 18.—A dispatch from Swatow says that on the demand of the German consul at Swatow, the district governor of Hai Nang (See King) will be dismissed on account of his anti-Christian attitude and dilatoriness in dealing with German claims. Two Chinese participants of anti-German riots have been beheaded at Ho Ping.

New Province.
Rombon, Isle of Rombon, March 18.—This port will be the capital of the newly formed province composed of adjacent islands.

Major Evan M. Johnston, Jr., of the twenty-ninth infantry will be governor, and Captain S. Williams, of the same regiment, treasurer of the new province.

There are 300 insurgents still in the mountains of Marinduque, but otherwise the inhabitants are anxious for the pacification of the island, and to accept American sovereignty.

Major Smith, commanding the American expedition, issued an order requiring all natives to live in the five principal towns, where American troops are stationed. Natives who continue to live in the country will be considered insurgents.

Situation Unchanged.
Tien Tsin, March 18.—The Anglo-Russian situation is unchanged. The French troops are quiet. Over forty arrests have been made.

Railroad Opened.
Pekin, March 18.—The railroad between Peking and Chan Sing Ou was opened Saturday in the presence of the French and Belgian ministers. There was a review of troops as a feature of the celebration.

Big St. Louis Fire.
Property to the Amount of $1,000,000 Destroyed.

St. Louis, March 18.—A fire that started at the foot of Cherokee street shortly after 1 o'clock fanned by a strong south wind, terraced over the mountainside by Zepf street on the south to Arsenal on the north, the DeKalb on the west and the river on the east, a territory six blocks long and two blocks wide, covered by dwellings, lumber yards, repair shops, etc.

2:30 p. m.—The flames still seem to be spreading, but because of heavy smoke and intense heat, which keeps the firemen at a distance, it is impossible to tell how much damage has been done. The following buildings are destroyed: 1st. Houses of W. J. Lemp and Anheuser-Busch Brewing companies, lumber yard and repair shops of the American Car and Foundry company, shops of the Standard Barrel company, Studd's Pickle and Vinegar company's plant, three two-story dwellings, five scattered cottages, buildings of the United States engineering department, old stone arsenal used for storage of United States army quartermaster's supplies, several boat houses, Joseph and Tony Gletsch laborers employed by the American Car and Foundry company, were injured while trying to escape from the burning building.

LATER.
At 3 o'clock the fire seemed to be under control, after having burned property estimated at $1,000,000 between Zepf street, Utah street and Kosciusko street and the river.

Towns Wiped Out.
De Soto, Mo., March 18.—Bismarck is on fire and indications are that the town will be burned, including hotels, ten business houses and the Iron Mountain railroad station. All wires are down. Bismarck is 75 miles from St. Louis and has 750 inhabitants. Several lives are reported lost.

Joliet, Ill., March 18.—Minooka, a village of 600 inhabitants on the Rock Island river, is burning up. Joliet sent fire engines on a special train. The entire western part of the town is reported destroyed.

Drank a Deadly Poison.
Little Child of George Hopping Swallows Carbolic Acid.

While Mrs. George Hopping was attending to her household duties in one portion of the house, her little four-year-old daughter, Francis, climbed on to a chair and picked up a bottle of carbolic acid and drank some of its contents. In a moment the little one began crying and ran to her mother saying that her mouth was sore. The mother noticed white blisters on the child's lips and asked her what she had done. The child accompanied her mother to the room and pointed out a certain bottle among a dozen others on a shelf from which she had drunk the poison. Mrs. Hopping at once summoned Dr. Easton and Dr. Tschander and before they arrived the little one had become unconscious. They administered the usual antidotes and did all that was possible to relieve the child, but they were powerless to aid in its recovery. The child drank of the deadly poison at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and about ten minutes later entered a comatose condition

Burial of Gen. Harrison Yesterday.

Two Deaths on Last Voyage of Steamship New York.

Fox Terrier Killed Its Mistress in a Frigorous Manner.

OPENING OF ALGODONES TRACT.

Indianapolis, March 18.—The burial of General Harrison Sunday afternoon was notable for large attendance and marked manifestations of mourning. The private services at the Harrison home were followed by services at the church, which was crowded, while thousands unable to gain admittance, stood in the street.

Services were conducted by Rev. M. L. Haines and Rev. Samuel J. Nichols, of St. Louis. It was nearly 5 o'clock when the cortege reached Crown Hill cemetery.

Closed by the grave were members of the family, President McKinley, other visitors of distinction and more intimate friends of General Harrison.

Back fifty yards stood with uncovered heads a great multitude, not less than 15,000.

Fatal Accident on Steamship.
New York, March 18.—Two accidents occurred on the last voyage of the steamship New York, which arrived last night, one of which caused two deaths. Last Friday the ammonia tank connected with the refrigerator plant exploded. Fifteen were overcome by fumes. John Kent, steward, and Carl Engelke, storage passenger, died from the effects. The next day one of the shafts broke, but did no damage.

Killed by Fox Terrier.
New York, March 18.—Mrs. Carrie Coburn, living on West Eighteenth street, was killed last night by her fox terrier. She fell in an epileptic fit, when the dog pounced upon her and tore her throat in a frightful manner. She died at death.

Algodones Tract Opened.
Phoenix, Ariz., March 18.—The Algodones tract, containing nearly 50,000 acres below Yuma will be opened to settlers today. Much of the land is very valuable, and most of it has been filed upon.

Roller skating at Columbus hall every afternoon and evening.

Among the arrivals from the south this morning was W. J. Sapp, the ossified man, who has attained the age of forty-six years, for thirty-six of which he has been helpless and has lain in one position the entire time. Mr. Sapp weighs but forty pounds. The malady of which he is a victim seems not to have affected any vital organ. His mental faculties are unimpaired and he converses well, apparently finding as much in life to enjoy as do those more fortunate ones in full possession of good health. He is on exhibition on First street, the first door north of Railroad avenue.

PROMINENT LADY DEAD.

Mrs. Granger, a Highly Respected Lady, Died Yesterday Morning.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at her home, No. 3023 south Broadway, occurred the death of Mrs. Rebecca C. Granger, after a lingering illness with dropsy. Besides her husband there were present at her side when death came a niece, Mrs. Minnie Gray, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rita Granger. She leaves a son, now a resident of Alaska, and a sister and brother in Ohio and California respectively. Mrs. Granger was born in Conneaut, Ohio, forty-nine years ago, and came to this city in 1887. She was a member of the Woman's Relief corps and had filled the office of presidency for four consecutive years in a very able manner.

The funeral, March 20, 1901, was conducted this morning at 10 o'clock at the undertaking parlors of J. W. Edwards by Rev. Marsh, pastor of the Congregational church, after which the casket was conveyed to Fairview cemetery, where services were held over the body by the order of the W. R. C.

MILLINER'S OPENING.

First of the New Century at Mrs. McCraith's Thursday, March 21, Afternoon and Evening.

Owing to the near approach of Easter, I have concluded to place on exhibition THURSDAY, MARCH 21, afternoon and evening, the most up-to-date and exclusive styles in millinery that have been personally selected in the eastern cities; the exquisite display to be seen at my parlors, Nos. 216-212 south Second street. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MRS. M. MCCRAITH.

Submitted to An Operation.

Harry R. Whiting, United States commissioner, returned Saturday night from Chicago, where he had gone a couple of weeks ago to undergo an operation for the removal of a growth on his nose, which was assuming tremendous proportions of late, and which had been causing the patient much suffering and anxiety. Dr. Hyde, a specialist in such cases, performed the surgical operation, and in less than eight days his patient had entirely recovered and the growth was completely obliterated. While in the city Mr. Whiting enjoyed a brief visit among his nephews and nieces, and friends. He said the sun shone only once in the entire day, but that the sidewalks were always wet from snow or rain.

POLICE COURT MATTERS.

Two plain drunks, who were arrested on Saturday night, paid fines of $5 each today.

A fellow from south Fourth street answered to the charge of disturbing the peace and was assessed $10. Saturday being pay day, the fellow proceeded to "tank up," and when he had fairly well succeeded he went home and began to make a rough house of his wife and children. The wife came down town and swore out a warrant for his arrest. It is likely that he will work a few days in the shops this month for the city.

Frank Hais, the Chinaman who lives on west Tijeras road, was up before Judge Crawford this morning on the charge of conducting an opium joint. A fine of $20 was imposed, which he paid and was released.

A vagrant, who forged an order on the O'Reilly drug store, for a small amount of cocaine, was given ten days on the streets.

Being without money and no visible means of support except a pair of good hands and a good constitution, a stranger appeared in police court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy. He was sentenced to five days.

Lew W. Stanley, representing the Deaver Music company, is in the city and will open up a piano sale store on Gold avenue, opposite The Citizen office.

The gentleman is an associate justice of the territorial supreme court and judge of the Socorro district. As soon as he can secure a lease on a suitable residence in this city he will make his future home here.

The petition which was circulated among the business men of the city by Fire Chief Rappe and signed by a large number of merchants, has been forwarded to the legislature. It asks that no change be made in the manner of paying the members of the fire department for the performance of their duty under the fire insurance law.

During the week Mrs. J. W. Knightlinger will give a recital in the Congregational church. She leaves in a short time for Texas where she will reside with her husband, and all lovers of music will not miss the opportunity of listening to the talented vocalist on this occasion, as it will probably be her last appearance before an Albuquerque audience.

Mayor James R. McGuire, of Syracuse, N. Y., accompanied by his wife, has arrived in the city from the north. They are making a tour of the west and have just finished viewing the sights in the Meadow City. Mr. McGuire is very favorably impressed with the people and this climate and has written some very interesting letters to the eastern press regarding the southwest.
