A SERIOUS RIOT!

Porto Ricans Mob School Master.

Lord Kitchener Claims Boer Attack Failed.

Conference Between Leaders on Subject of Boers Surrendering.

THE TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

San Juan de Puerto Rico, March 8.—A serious riot occurred here yesterday. At 6 o'clock in the evening five artillerymen and Corporal of Artillery Hiscock left the guard post without orders and charged across the plaza into the street in which a mob had assembled. The soldiers fired a volley into the air to suppress the mob, and rescued School Superintendent Armstrong, who was besieged by the mob in a house situated about a block from the center of the city.

For hours previous to the rescue of Superintendent Armstrong the city had been overrun by a riotous crowd of probably 1,500 persons, who shouted "Down with the Americans." The superintendent had repudiated a girl 10 years of age for disobedience and she reported to her mother that she had been kicked and abused. Sensational stories were circulated with the result that a mob formed and stoned Superintendent Armstrong.

The insular police who have jurisdiction in the city except in cases of emergency and at the call of the mayor and governor, were not called upon until just before the artillerymen took the initiative without orders and dispersed the gathering. In the meantime the city police had fired about a hundred shots, mostly in the air, for there were no casualties.

Several Americans, including a treasury clerk, were stoned. Governor Allen deprecates the action of the artillerymen. Corporal Hiscock has been placed under arrest. It is probably by common martial law.

It is probable that four-fifths of those who took part in the rioting did not know they were mobbing Americans.

ATTACK FAILED.

Although Kitchener Reports a Number Killed and Wounded.

London, March 8.—Lord Kitchener, reporting March 7, says: "Boers failed in their determined attack upon Lichtenburg. Our losses, besides the two officers previously reported, were fourteen men killed and twenty wounded. The Boer general, Coleridge, was killed."

The Boers' men are scattering through the Orange colony.

"Total number of Boers known to have been placed hors de combat since eastern operations began is 979."

THE LEADERS MEET.

London, March 8.—A dispatch from Pretoria, dated March 5, evidently held up by the censor, just reached here, says Kitchener met General Botha and other Boer leaders at Middleburg, February 27, where the possibility of terminating hostilities was discussed.

Another dispatch from Pretoria, dated March 6, says the meeting between Kitchener and Botha awakened deep interest and there are favorable expectations as to the probable outcome.

According to the Sun the surrender of Botha would have been accomplished before now had Kitchener been in a position to conclude terms. When the surrender occurs, the Sun adds, it will include surrender or entire suppression of De Wet, and involves the termination of the war.

BOTH IN CONFERENCE.

London, March 8.—A dispatch from Pretoria, dated today, says that Kitchener and Botha had a lengthy conference on Gun Hill this morning. Botha was alone. Kitchener was accompanied by his secretary.

London, March 8.—General Kitchener granted General Botha seven days' armistice to enable him to confer with the other generals.

DAVID LESSER DEAD

His Death Occurred at Winslow While Visiting His Brother Julius.

Word was received here at noon today that David Lesser died this morning at 10 o'clock at Winslow, A. T., at which place he was visiting with his brother Julius. Mr. Lesser had been quite sick for a few days, and his wife and Dr. J. P. Pearce were called to Winslow night before last. It seems that the end came soon after their arrival there. While complete arrangements have not yet been made, it is understood that the remains will be taken to New York city for burial, accompanied by his brother.

Mr. Lesser was born in Germany in May, 1848, making him nearly 53 years of age. He came to this country with his parents when 4 years of age, and was reared and educated in New York city. He entered business early in life, and came to the southwest about 1880, conducting with his brothers a large stock store in old Albuquerque.

Afterward he was one of the firm of Lesser Bros. & Lewison in the same business in the new town. Several years ago he withdrew from the firm, and for a while was in the cigar business. Of late, owing to poor health, he did very little. The deceased leaves a wife and one child, a young boy, who lives here in Albuquerque. Mrs. Lesser, conducting the Caca-de-Oro rooming establishment, Three brothers, Louis and Alvin, who reside in New York, and Julius, a merchant of Winslow, also a sister, Mrs. S. Lewison of this city, are the relatives, all of whom are well known here.

It is not known at this writing if the remains will be held over here or not. The indications are that an embalmer will go out to Winslow, and the body will be shipped east without stopping here.

Mr. Lesser was a Mason, being a member of Temple lodge of this city. He also held membership in the Albuquerque lodges of B'nai-B'rith; the Fraternal Union of America; and the National Union, from which insurance will be obtained. He carried $5,000 in the Equitable Life Insurance company.

Knocked Out With a Rock.

Will Goodwin and Albert Lumpkin, boys about 20 years of age, became involved in a scrap at the Durango wood yards, at the corner of Main and Eleventh, last evening, about 4 o'clock. Lumpkin picked up a club and went after Goodwin, who ran around a house and then picked up a big rock and cracked Lumpkin above the ear. The boy fell insensible to the ground and the crowd of onlookers gathered around him. He bled some from the ear, but little from the wound, so little that the doctor was inclined to fear fatal results. Goodwin was arrested by Marshal Wellman and turned over to the district attorney, who had him confined in the county jail. At last reports the injured youth was unconscious and recovery a question of serious doubt.—Durango Democrat.

A recruiting station has been established at Albuquerque, under supervision of Lieutenant Berry, who will divide his attention between this and a similar station at Las Vegas. Corporal Hathaway will have charge of the local station. The men who are enlisted will be sent to the Presidio at San Francisco, and from there be assigned to companies whose ranks are as yet incomplete.

LIVELY POLITICS!

Montana Finally Elects a Senator.

Delaware Legislature Adjourns Amid Excitement.

Senator Hanna and Others Anxious to Elect Senators.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

Helena, Mont., March 8.—At 3:23 this morning, although the legislature closed testified it was not yet midnight, Paris Gibson of Great Falls was elected United States senator for the term expiring March 4, 1905.

Twenty-two ballots were taken during the day. At the conclusion of the twenty-first ballot, H. L. Frank, the leading fusion candidate, announced his withdrawal in favor of Gibson. There was a stampede to Gibson on the next ballot.

Gibson was born in New Hampshire in 1830, educated at Bowdoin college, built the first flour mill in Minneapolis, came to Montana in 1879, locating at Fort Benton, in the stock business. In 1882 he became interested in the water power at the site of the present city of Great Falls, of which he is called the father. Gibson has always been a democrat.

SENATORLESS DELAWARE. Adjourned Without Election—Lively Times at the Closing.

Dover, Del., March 8.—The legislative session ended tonight without electing a United States senator, leaving two vacancies for this state. On motion to dissolve the joint session seven regular republicans, steadfastly refusing to vote for Addicks, voted with twenty-three democrats. Delaware has not had a full representation in the United States senate since 1895.

Crowds rushed about in almost frenzied manner, shouting out the names of the candidates. The session was adjourned at 11 o'clock.

A confidence man who sought to mislead certain well-known citizens of Albuquerque and Las Vegas, have recently operating in Albuquerque and Las Vegas. The individual's work, however, was not fine enough, and the details of his scheme being imperfectly planned, lead to suspicion being aroused and investigations made, with the result of exposing the "plan that failed." The schemer made safe his escape from this section of the territory without making any addition to his funds, but with sufficient increase in experience to show the way that might enable him to more successfully carry out his plan of operation in some other community, by avoiding the mistakes he made in his attempts at Albuquerque and Las Vegas.

As President Ellison walked out he was hailed by Addicks' men, who cried, "Old maid!" and "Traitor!" but he was cheered to the echo from the other side of the house.

Governor Huns declared this afternoon that he would not appoint a United States senator.

REPUBLICANS IN CONFERENCE. Want Legislators to Elect Senators Before Adjourning.

New York, March 8.—The World says: Senator Hanna, chairman of the republican committee; Henry Payne, vice chairman; Perry Heath, chief of the republican press bureau; and R. B. Schneider, chairman of the republican committee of Nebraska, were in conference all yesterday at the Waldorf Astoria. Hanna said: "The object of the conference is to prevent the legislatures of Nebraska, Delaware and Montana to adjourn without electing senators. Unless the deadlocks are broken our party will suffer and it is our desire to have the three states represented in the senate by republicans duly elected by the legislatures."

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT.

The Wells-Fargo Express Company Will Erect Handsome Structure.

AN ACCURATE DESCRIPTION.

In Thursday's Citizen reference was made to the fact that the Wells-Fargo division superintendent, C. H. Young, had approved Architect Whittles's plans for the new building to be erected for use of the express company at this point. Through courtesy of Agent Powell a representative of this paper was shown the plans drafted by Mr. Whittles, and The Citizen is thus enabled to give our readers a general idea of the appearance to be presented by the proposed structure, as well as the conveniences that will be afforded the company's employees with headquarters at Albuquerque, and the extra facilities ties the company will have for handling its business.

The edifice will be of brick, with a Portland cement stucco, the finish conforming to that of the buildings now being erected by the railroad company, and being situated just south of the passenger depot, the structure when complete will have the appearance of a continuation of the depot buildings, etc. The main building, to be used as office, etc., will be two stories high and topped by a handsome dome. The transfer and freight department will be one story, both main building and transfer department having tiled flooring. The interior work will be of Georgia pine, with hard finish, preserving natural color. In the arrangement provision has been made for drainage from wet and perishable goods, and in every manner possible correct observance of sanitary philosophy. The ground space occupied will give a frontage on south First street of forty-two feet by depth of sixty-six feet. The interior equipment will all be new, and orders have been placed for the necessary furnishings. The building will be lighted by electricity and steam heated. The entire cost of building will be about $6,000.

The lower floor of the main building will be used for office purposes and receiving counters, with private offices for local and route agents, cashier's department, and clerk's room. The transfer room will be in the single story annex, and the building will be adjoining the office, will be accommodated for depot agent and transfer forces.

With a thoughtfulness characteristic of the Wells-Fargo people, and following out their policy of sparing no effort that would conduce to the comfort of their employees, the company will set aside the upper story of main building for use of messengers making head-quarters at or lying over in Albuquerque, and for that purpose will have the second floor subdivided into a library, reading room, a dormitory with seven beds, and bath rooms with all conveniences. The furnishings and maintenance of these departments, including linen, laundering, etc., will be wholly borne by the company. In the consideration this institution shows its employees and the manner in which they are continually introducing innovations tend to improve the moral, mental and physical conditions of its servants, an example is set that is worthy of emulation and is a step in the right direction toward lessening the friction between capital and labor.

As the territorial legislature has taken an adjournment until Monday, the Boer senators and representatives will no doubt return to Albuquerque tonight.

Fishy Indian Story.

Chicago, Ill., March 7.—Messages have been received by the management of the international game show, telling them the Navajo Indians of New Mexico are becoming restless because of the absence of the three who are attending the exhibition. A train dispatcher at Thorau telegraphed that the Indians must be returned to the reservation by March 15 or there would be trouble.

NO TROUBLE WHATEVER.

The citizen telegraphed this morning to Thorau for additional facts and received the following:

"There is nothing in the Associated Press story. The Indians are attending the exhibition. A train dispatcher at Thorau telegraphed that the Indians must be returned to the reservation by March 15 or there is liable to be a fuss kicked up. If they do, everything serene."

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Market quotations and review, furnished by W. P. Metcalf, 5 Cromwell block, received over the private wire of F. G. Logan:

New York, March 8.—(Stocks)—Market strong up to 1 o'clock. St. Louis and San Francisco made a new high record, selling up to 143 1/2, but declined to 141 1/2 on account of a cut in refined sugar of 10 cents per hundred. There was no pressure to sell. The bank statement is likely to be favorable.

ALBUQUERQUE, — MARCH 8, 1901.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

Under the new adjustment of things, as set forth in new laws passed within a few days, the public school funds are to be considerably increased, as two-thirds of both the gaming and liquor license go now to the district wherein collected, and one-third to the general school fund, to be distributed through all of the districts in proportion to the number of persons of school age in each district.

The territorial council has passed the bill permitting the board of penitentiary commissioners to expend $14,000 for contemplated improvements. The house will undoubtedly sanction this appropriation, which really comes from the sale of lands belonging to the institution. Liberty along those lines is the strictest economy.

In the territorial council Thursday afternoon the St. Louis world's fair bill passed as reported from the special committee of five, composed of "the gentlemen from Missouri." It provides for the appointment within sixty days by the governor of a board of three commissioners to have charge of the affair, and appropriates $20,000 for making an exhibit from New Mexico.

The territorial council didn't do a thing, as it were, to Speaker Read's deaf and dumb asylum bill. The speaker said he felt sure the demolition of the measure was due to an entire misapprehension of the facts in the case on the part of the council committee having charge of the bill, and he will undertake to have the subject reopened, long enough, at least, to get the facts squarely before the committee.

BILLS SIGNED.

Governor Otero yesterday signed council bill No. 64, an act to amend section 3910 of the compiled laws of 1897. It provides the following addition to the section named: "Provided, that any railroad corporation whose railroad shall have been or may hereafter be constructed to a connection with the railroad or railroads of one or more corporations, either or through intermediate railroads, may make exclusive contracts or arrangements with such other corporations or corporations for the running of through cars and trains; and for the interchange, routing and transportation of traffic over their respective railroads, and all such contracts or arrangements heretofore entered into between such corporations are hereby ratified, confirmed and declared valid. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage." The bill had been introduced by Councilman Hughes.

Governor Otero also signed house bill No. 37, introduced by Mr. Pendleton, providing for the incorporation of towns of more than 200 inhabitants; and council No. 46, by Mr. Hughes, an act repealing chapter 34 of the session laws of 1899, relative to the salary of county school superintendents.

SENSIBLE YOUNG WOMAN.

Miss Paulding, the niece of Senator Depew, has cheated the divorce lawyers and the district judge out of the $50 usual in the process of the pretended severing of matrimonial bonds. She told Lieutenant Folie that he was "too bossy" and that she did not think their intended marriage should be carried out. The townsman was on the way from Paris, but she broke the engagement and it is off. A round of applause for Miss Paulding will go up from all practical people who are aware of the blind, deaf and dumb mental condition of most young women who are preparing for a marriage. This one foresees that disagreement and divorce were inevitable. Many others also foresee it, but conclude to take the chances. Miss Paulding, instead of taking chances, took the sensible course, and saved herself for the future, a maiden fancy free.

CHANGING THE DAY.

It has remained for Missouri to refute the ancient theory that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country. The weather forecasts of the ground hog have long been held in high esteem in that state, and it has often been proposed that there should be some formal recognition of his accuracy and usefulness. This movement has at last taken form in a bill which is now pending in the state senate. There has been some doubt as to whether the real ground hog day was February 2 or February 14, and to remove this uncertainty as well as to honor the prophet himself the measure in question, after reciting his many virtues and the large place he occupies in public confidence, concludes as follows:

"Resolved, by the senate of the state of Missouri, That the 14th day of February be and is hereby declared to be the only ground hog day in Missouri."

Nobody will object to this tribute to our oldest weather prophet. He is fully entitled to it. His modesty, promptness and general accuracy have given him a strong hold on the popu-

TEXAS TELEGRAPH BILL.

The new bill introduced in the Texas legislature a few days ago placing all telegraph and telephone companies doing business in Texas under the jurisdiction of the railroad commission, giving that tribunal full authority to prescribe rates and providing regulations for the operation of such lines and requiring that all such companies shall maintain general offices in the state, has been considered by the railway commission committee of the house. Representatives of the Western Union Telegraph company and the Southern Telephone and Telegraph company appeared before the committee and made arguments in opposition to the measure. The committee deferred final action for a few days, when Chairman John H. Reagan of the railroad commission will be heard in advocacy of the bill. The measure carries out recommendations made by the railroad commission in their latest annual report, and there is a strong possibility of enactment into a law.

A Fortune for Charity.

A rich man's statement that he intends to devote his entire fortune to charitable works has aroused much discussion. This is because it will accomplish much good. It is a praiseworthy endeavor, but there are many other ways which accomplish just as much good. Take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for instance—the great American remedy. For fifty years it has cured constipation, dyspepsia and all the ills which arise from weak digestion. This medicine will keep the stomach in good shape and the bowels regular. It is a wonderful restorative tonic and health builder. Light as a feather, need no polishing, perfectly soft and will not crack. See our spring styles. Simon Stern, the Railroad Avenue Clothier.

One of his first acts was to join the "Lodge of the Future," and he has lived in many places in the country, and that any place with any push had one and that such organizations are absolutely necessary. Look at the Albuquerque hotel, the new railroad going on, the proposed viaduct, the public library, the handsome clubhouse—commercial club of Albuquerque did it.

What are you doing there, Money?

"Making a list of names of members of our lodge of the future."

"Read them off to me, put my name down first," answered Doran.

NEWS IN ABBREVIATED FORM.

The father and mother of Division Superintendent Fox have arrived at Las Vegas from Union county, Ohio.

Two car loads of powder have reached Las Vegas for the Rock Island contractors will make that city the base of supplies.

The brick platform at the Santa Fe railroad depot at the capital was completed yesterday. It is a decided improvement. A new station building should follow.

J. N. Lean, the Southern Pacific station agent at Wilcox, was married to Miss Irene Heckle, of Red Bluff, Cal., at the Episcopal church in Tucson. Rev. Ferguson officiating.

The Santa Fe Pacific will not have to haul water from Winslow for some time to come at least. All their reservoirs west of that town are full, with the exception of that at Seligman.

David A. Young, the Rock Island civil engineer to whom an important telegram was taken a distance of fifty-five miles from Las Vegas, has joined his wife from Morgan Park, Ill., in that city.

The Optic says: Dispatcher E. H. Smith and his bride, former Mrs. Frederick Shurt and Mrs. Harry Lockhart, of Fulton, N. M., have gone to Needles, Cal., where he has a position under Superintendent Hurley.

P. J. Heiser, relief agent of the Santa Fe railroad, left Santa Fe for Las Vegas. H. S. Lutz, agent at the capital of the Santa Fe system, having again resumed his duties after a three-weeks with inflammatory rheumatism.

There is a remarkable feature about the Central of Georgia railroad, and that is that between Atlanta and Macon, a distance of 103 miles, there is not a bridge or open culvert. The largest culvert of that division of the road has but a two-foot opening and is covered.

It is probable that the railroads will be a united protest against the bill now before congress requiring transportation companies to report all accidents to the commerce commission. Senator Cullom, of the committee of interstate commerce, has reported favorably on the bill, and it is likely to be passed by congress.

The engineers employed on the railroads of the state of Indiana have decided to petition the legislature to pass an act abolishing the white light as an all clear or safety indication, and establish yellow or blue or some other color light. It is claimed that in case of a broken light a white light is always white even if a switch should be set at danger. It is the glass that gives color to the light, and until a light is discovered that will give green or white under all conditions the white light will be unsafe for an all clear signal.

The Trinidad Chronicle says: Superintendent George Ayer, of the western division of the Santa Fe, has been promoted to the position of division engineer. With him is J. N. Keweenaw, who has just been appointed trainmaster with headquarters in this city. His territory will be extended from the city and but not including either place. It is learned that inside of a week three train dispatchers from the La Junta office will be moved to this city and later on others may be added. The dispatchers will have offices in the new passenger depot. Other improvements are contemplated by the company and later on Trinidad will probably be made a passenger division.

A Rio Grande engine, running on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, left the track near Rio Grande station, before crossing the bridge over the Rio Grande river. The engine turned over, and Engineer Frank Morris was killed. A fireman named Taylor injured, but not seriously. Both men are from Albuquerque, Colo. They had stopped over night at the Palace hotel in Santa Fe, and were on their way to the city before noon when the light engine shortly after leaving the hotel, and the engine and freight train, which is so heavy as to need a double-header from Española, in consequence of the accident, the incoming Denver & Rio Grande train was two hours late. Rio Grande is about half way between Santa Fe and Espanola.

The Pullman company has issued a circular announcing the new rates to private parties for sleeping car service. Under the new arrangement the company will furnish meals either for private or buffet sleeping car dining cars, charging only for the cost of supplying, with an additional 20 per cent added to cover handling and other service. Private cars may be chartered at $30 per day for fewer than thirty days. The rate for a sleeping car will be $45 and for buffet sleepers $50, a reduction of $5 per day being allowed when used for five days or more. When chartered for a period of over ninety days the per diem will be $35. Compartment cars will be charged for fewer than thirty days and $35 for over ninety days. The charge for a special train consisting of one compartment, one sleeping, one dining and one observation car will be $215 per day.

ACCUSED OF MOONSHINING.

The Proprietors of a Distillery at Aztec Under Arrest.

Deputy United States Marshal F. W. Hall has returned to Santa Fe from Aztec, San Juan county, with three prisoners, John C. Olvey, U. S. Cobb and Sidney Fulton, accused of breaking the United States revenue laws, or, in other words, of making moonshine whiskey and brandy at their distillery in Aztec. The accused men operated under the name of Olvey, Neal & Co. The members of the firm being John C. Olvey, Caleb Neal, Ulysses S. Cobb, Rufus Fulton and Sidney Fulton. They came to Aztec from North Carolina, and established a distillery in August of last year, using the fruit raised in San Juan county. Internal Revenue Collector A. L. Morrison became suspicious of the doings of the firm and sent Deputy United States Collector A. J. Loomis to Aztec, who discovered distilled spirits hidden away in another building, and promptly seized the distillery on account of this failure to keep the records prescribed by the government. The firm offered a compromise, but the department at Washington refused to accept it. Warrants were issued, and Deputy Marshal Hall left last week to

 How He Won His Lieutenant Colonelcy in the Southwest.

One of the chapters of General Chaffee's diary deals with the fight of the "Yellow Jacket" in the summer of 1882, cherished by cavalrymen as one of the gallant ones of their arm of the service. About 150 White Mountain Apaches, who had taken to the mountains, were on one side of a canyon in the Mogollon plateau. Chaffee, a major, with a pursuing troop of the Sixth cavalry, held the summit of a rocky cliff commanding the entrance to the canyon. The battle went on for hours. One of the scouts fell, some two-score Apaches were killed, and the rest were driven from the canyon. A second scout at Chaffee's elbow remarked that the fallen man was done for, but the major saw that he was only wounded.

"Come along," he said, "and we'll fetch him in."

Then he threw himself flat on the ground and crawled toward the wounded soldier. The scout followed. Slowly and painfully Chaffee and his companion, in the face of a concentrated fire from all the Indians, worked their way to the wounded man, and half carried, half dragged him back into the lines. The handful of troops on the bank, filled with the deed that had been performed, forgot the task in hand, stopped fighting, and began to cheer. This made Chaffee furious, and he shouted at the top of his voice:

"Shut up that noise and go to shoot!"

Thus recalled to the work of fighting Indians, Chaffee's men again turned their attention to their rifles, and relieved the thick of March by two troops of the Third cavalry, slowly they fought the foe to a standstill. The Apaches, almost to a man, were killed or captured. Chaffee was brevetted a lieutenant-colonel for this day's work, and in 1897 the brevet became a commission.—Kansas City Star.
